The news about the Franke Group had long been known to everyone Nove no matter how condent Colles lank he could not change the reslity That one of theirssons why Terry had asked her to come. Seeing that the wind in the conference room had changed, Terry flicked the buttons on his suit cull "There are comparues that we more stable lo intentius project than the Frankia Group The first in the Quincy Group. Ms Frankle should know the relationship between them Quincy Group and our Lorenzo group, right?"

The daughter of the Quincy Group is about to be the mistress of the Lorenzo group, Me Lorenzo has always been valuing his women How can Buch a good project be token advantage of by outsiders? Every sentence was heartbreaking It seemed that Golica was slicking to Micah shamelessly These words caused a series of whispers and snlgers. Even though Micoh was sitting on the spot, there were still people whispering Even if they did not stry anything, their eyes were enough to show their thoughts. For a bankrupt daughter like Galilea who did not know self-respect and self-love, she must have relied on her beauty to have let Micah give this project to the Frankie Group Galilea slowly tightened her grip on the contract. On the way here, she had thought about these situations. However, when they really come up, her foce still felt hot, and her chest felt stuffy, When Micah sow Galilea's expression, he frowned. Just as he was about to speak, a figure walked in.

Vice President Lorenzo!" The managers stood up one after another and greeted Huaian Lorenzo. Hualen was usually very gentle, but now he had a straight face, 'Business is business. Why should we criticizo other people's private lives?' Everyone lowered their heads, and the meeting room was silent. Huaian pulled out a choir and sat down next to Galilea 'Every company could be in trouble sometimne, hasn't she already said that she was coming to solve the problem? All of you are still so aggressive Whoever sets the rules has to bear this responsibility.' Only he, Mical's uncle, could say this. He seemed to agree with Terry's idea, but then Terry frowned, feeling that something was wrong, "As long as the Frankie Group hos the confidence to solve the problem, the Lorenzo group has no right to cancel the contract Huaian's words turned the tide. 'She did not run away with the money, nor did she delay.' *Her attitude is positive and cooperative.' 'As long as there is a solution, the cooperation will have to continuo At that moment. Golilea selt that the burden on her body was heavier, but she was full of strength.

'Thank you for your understanding. Vice President

Hugien nodded and continued, 'I think you came prepared. I also want to hear how you want to solve it. After all, the project must continue "Okay, can I borrow the computer?" Golilea looked at Keith After receiving Micah's signal, Keith immediately went forward to help Galilea with the debugging. Galilea inserted her USB into the notebook and began to explain She was not good of project planning, but she was a student of design. She only studied it for a while and made the PPT very beautiful Although the specific content had yet to be considered, the general direction was refreshing. *This project has been stored. According to the contract requirements, what the Frankle Group needs to do is the eighth ninth, and eleventh clauses' After a ceries of explanations, the responsibility of the Frankie Group had been specified in detail Galilea gove out a solution to every one of thern. From publicity to the continuous promotion of the project, the Frankie Group could follow the contract requirements and fulfill its obligations, but the chose a smart shortcut. That was, she would not add any investment to the project Chapter 221 A Soul Strong Moment Thus contact had been thoroughly studied by her.

Micoh looked at her profile reflected on the PPT screen. The coldness between his eyebrows slowly dissipated. He raised his hand and whispered a few words into Keith's ear. Keith immediately walked out and conveyed the order. In fact, before Galilea came, Micah had already prepared. He would hire a group of people to invest in the project in the name of the Frankie Group. The amount of investment that the Frankie group needed to add would also be done in his own name.

However, the appearance of Galilea caused the situation to change. Her adaptability and sense of crisis made his eyes light up. Before this, he had never thought that Galileo's ability to resist pressure would be so strong.

After Galilea's wonderful explanation, she silently breathed a sigh of relief in her heart. "The above is the Frankie Group's solution. If there are any problems, we can discuss it together." The managers looked at each other and had nothing to say. These few ideas of Galilea's were very novel, and there were even some aspects that they had not thought of. Most importantly, the responsibility of the Frankie Group had been specified and there were no problems.

'That's all I have to say. Thank you, everyone.' Galilea lowered her head and tidied up the information in front of her, not daring to look up at the man opposite her. What if she had said something wrong and he would reject all of this with one sentence?

This was the result of her efforts for several days and nights. Galilea pursed her lips and her movements became slower and slower. Finally, the man sitting at the long conference table said coldly, 'Ms. Frankie, please go to my office. The Lorenzo group's meeting still has to continue. Don't waste any more time.' "Ms. Frankie, this way, please." Keith immediately went forward and took Galilea out.

Galilea's footsteps were light. When she was about to leave, she glanced at Micah, but Hualien just happened to sit over. She did not see Micah's expression.

The door closed, and the cold air in the corridor blew over. "Did he think that I said too much nonsense and delayed the time?" Galilea quickly walked a few steps and caught up with Keith. Keith did not dare to guess Micah's thoughts. He only blurted out, 'Mr. Lorenzo still has work arrangements later.' "Oh, Galilea was a little depressed, thinking that her thoughts must have been too childish. Keith pushed open the door to Micah's conference room, 'Ms. Frankie, please wait inside.'"

Under normal circumstances, Micah would not allow anyone to wait in his office alone. How many times had this been an exception for Galilea? Keith was respectful. As Micah's personal assistant, he was very clear. How special Micah was to Galilea.

He had asked him to bring Galilea here because he wanted to protect her so that the managers would not gossip behind her back. Even Hualien had received the news and rushed to the conference room, which meant that the news of Galilea's arrival at the Lorenzo group had already spread throughout the company. Keith poured Galilea another cup of coffee and immediately went to investigate who had brought Galilea in.

Galites made up her mind because she had been working on those plans for a few days, she relaxed at the time soon, she let herself lean against the table. for some reason, when she fell asleep, she seemed to smell the aroma of the coffee, mixed with a certain person's smell, which was particularly comforting. She rubbed her hand against the folder beside her and muttered. 'Sister Zhang, I want to eat braised pork tonight.. The man who had just returned to the conference room stopped and looked after Mr Lorenzo, you have a dinner appointment with Mr Walter at Heavenly Silk Restaurant tonight. You should set off' Keith said as he pushed the door open, 'I'm not going.' Micah said, raising his hand 'Alright Mr. Lorenzo. I'll reply immediately. Keith noticed that Galileb was asleep and immediately lowered his voice. "Heavenly Silk Restaurant, what's their signature dish?" "Red Braised Meat Galilea slept soundly, and she could smell the fragrance of red braised pork in her dream. She slowly opened her eyes. Under the dim light, she caught a glimpse of the man working next to the desk. His sculpted eyebrows had a kind of bewitching magic He frowned slightly as if he was considering something tricky Galilea blinked and thought she was dreaming. She chuckled. 'Micah if you keep frowning like this, you will be very ugly when you are old' The man paused and looked over She had just woke up. She was still wearing his suit jacket. She looked lazy and relaxed. From his angle, he could see the white skin under her collar His Adam's apple bobbed and his voice was cold and deep. You're awake?" Galilea was suddenly awakened by his words Only then did she remember that she was waiting for him in his office. How did she fall asleep? Also, she seemed to be wearing his clothes! Her mind went blank, and she stood up immediately, the collar opening even wider Micah slammed the document shut and walked in front of her. His tone was frighteningly cold. I those plans do not work, are you going to use this method to seduce me and treat the Frankic Group leniently? Tarn no!_ Before she could finish speaking, he had already touched her waist After a series of crackling sounds, she was lifted up and placed on the desk. The documents were scattered all over the floor He suddenly leaned over, the desire in his eyes obvious and attractive *In fact you are still dreaming Galilea's pupils trembled slightly. Then, her lips were gently kissed by someone. The kiss became heavier and heavier, but it did not make her feel pain His palm was also so warm, with heat igniting every inch of her body Still, dreaming?

I can't do it in my dreams either! Micah held her in his arms for a long time 'Alright' His gaze was heavy as he spat out the word Micah carefully picked her up and placed her on the sofa Galilea closed her eyes, her eyelashes trembling slightly She slowly loosened her grip on his shirt Was it really a dream? As the man left Galilea fell asleep for a while. When she woke up again, she frowned and thought about the dream just now. She frowned and looked up. Micah came in with a box of takeout

'Eat'

He seemed to be indifferent as usual. He put the lunch box on the table and walked to the desk to continue working. Galilea also felt hungry at that time. "Red braised pork?" she smelled. She remembered that Micah did not like to eat this kind of thing. Why would he order this? Moreover, it was so coincidental that she had especially wanted to eat this dish today.

If you don't want to eat it, just put it out' Galilea looked at the man over there and heard Micah's cold voice. Galilea quickly lowered her head, pulled out her chopsticks, and began to eat. She must have been dreaming just now! She ate very quickly. After eating, Micah also turned off his computer. When he got up, he saw that most of the braised meat had been picked out. There was still rice left. He only glanced at it and sat on the other side. He did not mind that it was Galilea who had eaten it. "That Mr. Lorenzo Galilea wiped her mouth. We don't talk about business when we eat." The man didn't even raise his head, and his words choked back her words. Galilea had no choice but to shut up. He ate slowly, and she could only wait. PAL Lorenzo the car is ready. It was still Keith who knocked on the door and came in. Galilea thought that he still had something to do, and her heart sank when she thought of the recording of the responder. "The driver will send you back home coldly." Galilea took her things and stood up. Just now the responder rang. Dayana wanted you

7 suddenly barged in today and caused trouble for Mr. Lorenzo. I promise that nothing like this will happen again in the future. I'm sorry. Then, he stepped out of his office. The man's hand that was still holding the chopstick paused there. After a while, he put them down and his eyebrows tightened. He did not blame her, nor did he want to blame her. Galileo was sent back to the community by Micah's driver. The dove watched her go upstairs before driving away. The security guards in the community gathered together. "She sits in such a good car but lives in such a community?"

Tractly. It must be a Monday. Al the Quincy family Dayang looked at the dishes on the table and was so angry that her face turned pale. As I said, your words were too harsh and angered Micah last time. He doesn't even reply to my call now." On the day that Micah returned to China on his business trip, he did come to see the Quincy family. Her husband had been before vain. Her head trembled with the faint of his clean

Chapter 222 Daydreaming This time, Dayana had mustered up her courage before calling him.

Unexpectedly, she was still ignored. "No, I want to go to his house," Dayana said as she stood up. 'Lachlan's face was livid.

"You are pregnant now, why are you walking around everywhere? You have to be more reserved. Wendy hurriedly came over to stop her.

'She went to the Lorenzo group to make a scene today. Micah not only did not blame her but also decided to continue working with the Frankie Group. If this goes on... She had no chance of winning at all.

Chapter 223 Step by Step The more Dayana spoke, the more anxious she became. She immediately wanted to go to the Lorenzo family 'Stop!"

*The Lorenzo group's situation has been very complicated in the past few days. I will meet Terry tomorrow. You stay at home obediently! What's the use of looking for him? If he is really capable, he will not be suppressed by Micah all the time.' Dayana muttered. She felt that Terry was just a little more considerate than Micah in terms of sex. In other aspects, he could not compare to Micah at all, Wendy looked at the father and daughter pair and sighed, "Actually, I have a way to keep Galilea away from Micah. It's just a little too embarrassing: 'Auntie, do you really have a method?' Dayana's eyes lit up. Even in her dreams, she hoped that she could scheme against Galilea once, but now that she was pregnant, it was really difficult for her to go out. As soon as she finished speaking, the smile on Wendy's face became a little awkward. For so many days, Dayana had not treated her as a stepmother and had not even changed the way she addressed her. Lachlan sat on the other side and his face sank. "You still call her aunt? "If she can help me get rid of Galilea, I will immediately call her mother, Dayana muttered. "Really? 'Of course! The premise is that I want Galilea to disappear from Micah forever. I really don't want to see her face' "Alright, Dayana, wait for my good news' Wendy's smile deepened. Wendy and Dayana hit the nail on the head. Because she still had a lot of the Frankie family's assets in her hands waiting to be sold. After dealing with Galilea, she could quickly sell them. That way, not only could she get rid of a thorn in her side, but she could also ease her relationship with Dayana. Moreover, once something happened, she could also push the blame onto the Quincy family. No matter how she thought about it, Wendy felt that it was very suitable.

The next morning Galilea heard a knock on the door. As soon as she opened the door, she saw Wendy standing at her door, crying with red eyes. 'What are you doing here?" Galilea did not have a good attitude towards her. "Galilea, I know it was my fault in the past. I come here today to apologize to you. This is the rest of the money. I will give it all to you today' Wendy took out a card from her bag. Why would she be so kind? Galilea narrowed her eyes and did not take it. 'I'm going to divorce Lachlan. He said he was going to bring that woman home. I really can't stand it. I want to tell you everything! I know about the Frankie family' "Come in Galilea took half a step to the side

She also looked at the other side of the corridor to make sure there was no one and closed the door. 'I remember that your dad was very close to a big boss at that time. I don't know him. He kept persuading your dad to cooperate with him. Soon, something happened in the company' "Recently, I saw him again!' "It was him Wendy took out a photo

The person in the photo was Huaien Lorenzo "Did my father contact Hualen before he went bankrupt?' Galilea Prawned and did not speak. According to what she knew, Huaien had been abroad before and had only returned to the Lorenzo group recently When the Frankie family had an accident, he should have been taking care of the Lorenzo group's business abroad But Wendy should not know Huaien.

Galilea was silent Wendy saw that she was pondering and did not say anything I was not until Galilea raised her head again that she sobbed and said, 'Galileo, I know that you have misunderstood me, but I had no choice. I had to take care of myself at that time.'

Chapter 222 Step by Step *Is there anything else? If there is not please les

Ver there is! I suspect that the child in Dayana's belly is not Micall's 'Wendy approached Galilea as if she had made a major decision, Gahle furtowed her brows

I'm going to draw a clear line between the father and daughter now, I have nothing to be afraid of. I think you should tell Micoh about thuc Wendy gritted her teeth Half an hour later Wendy tell the place where Galilea lived and directly called Terry's secretary, Feng Forest. Galtea weighed wtoo! Wendy had said, and it was not impossible However, was Hualen wally related to the Frankie family's bankruptcy? Then wtry did he come out to help her several times? Wasnt ho afraid of being exposed? At this time in the presidential suite of Dinghao Hotel. In front of the floor to ceiling window. Terry was drinking and playing with a few enchanting beauties. Feng was eager to knock on the door. 'Mr Xiao, something happened This ruined Terry's mood. He opened the door with dissolistachion, 7f you have something to say, soy it quickly.' 'Mr Xico, Galilea knows about the child in Miss Quincy's belly. She sald that she wanted to tell Mr. Lorenzo about it "Where is she? Terry left the room full of girls, put on his coat, and strode out. Last time, during the meeting, Galilea had framed him Now, the cooperation with the Frankie Group was already set in stone and could not be changed, but Galilea actually wanted to tell Micah his secret He could not tolerate this. Terry had always had friends in the underworld. He sat in the black business car and looked at the residential area that Galilea rented from a distance. 'Level 29, it's normal for a person to fall down from this height, right? The two men sitting in front of him looked at each other and sald. Don't worry, Mr.Xiao. We will handle this matter well Then they got out of the car together and walked into the community. 'Let's go to the company. Today, Mr Lorenzo should have a meeting, right?" That was good, and why not send him a big gilt? Sitting on the co-pilot's sest, Feng felt a chill run down his spine

As Galilea thought about what Wendy had said, she walked home. When she reached the entrance of the community, she saw Nore's car parked by the roadside,

She held the plastic bag in her hand and slowly stopped. Nore tumed his head and saw her coming back from the rearview mirror. He immediately got out of the car and went over 'Galilea, my mother asked me to take you to my house for dinner.' As he spoke, he did not look at Gallea's expression and took the plastic bag from her hand. It was all fast food,

"You only eat these?" he frowned its convenient I have something to do in the afternoon. I shouldn't go. Galilea said lightly As she said, she wanted to take the bag back But how could Nore give her a chance? "Let's go to cat out. He opened the car door and tilted his head 'Could it be that you don't plan to deal with me in the future? Galilea was stunned

She didn't have that intention either she just felt that she should maintain a proper distance from him 'Otherwise, the traffic police will come over to hand out the ticket very soon.' "Okay' Galilea sighed silently Then she should take this opportunity to make things clear. In the distance, the people wailing in ambush at Galilea's house saw her get into Nore's car through a telescope "Bro, that woman left. Do we follow her?"

Chapter 224 Being Targeted "Of course, we do. Antes dealing with this woman, there will be plenty of benefits for Mr Xiao. 'Lal's go, let's get in the che' The several men got into two cars and followed behind Nore's car Nore drove all the way to Lubi Lomity and did not notice that there was someone following behind,

Young Master, Miss Frankie' Sean weni to the door to welcome the two of them in It was the first time that Galilea was so valued after the Frankle family went bankrupt. She had been quietly following Nore. On the way 10 the Lubi family, all the servants were respectful to her. "Miss Frankie, please sit' Sean's attitude also seemed to have taken a 180 degree turn 'Galilea, you are finally here. I have been looking forward to this.' Lucy came out with a smile, followed by several nice ladies. When they saw that Galilea was actually the Lubi family's guest, their expressions became somewhat erratic. 'Mrs. Lubi, is she the guest you've invited today? What's wrong, Mrs. Liu? Do you have any objections? This is the girl my son has taken a fancy to Sooner or later, she will marry into our Lubi family. In the future, don't talk nonsense in front of me. I don't like to hear it 'Then, congratulations Me. Lubi. We still have something to do, so we are leaving now." The few of them looked at each other and did not dare to argue with Lucy. They left with dry smiles. "Don't take it to heart. They are all my friends. They don't know what kind of person you are.' 'It's all right.' Galilea twitched the corners of her lips. If she cared about the opinions of these people, she would have long been depressed. Compared to this, what she was more concerned about was the attitude of Lucy and the Lubi family. They seemed to have been too enthusiastic about her. Was it her illusion? 'Nore, your father is still busy in the study. Go and call him to eat. You guys, go to the kitchen and help.' Lucy said with a dignified look to the few servants. Yes, Madam This kind of treatment made Galilea feel as if she was standing in the clouds. *In the future, just test this place like your own home. Don't feel pressured Even if you refuse Nore, I won't blame you to tell you the truth, ever since Nore's accident I have understood too many people's feelings. I can tell that you are a good girl' Galilea lowered her gaze and did not say a word Lucy was still rambling on and on, while Hanming Lubland Nore went downstairs together. "Angh, stop talking. You scared her.' Hanming had a smile on his face and deep thoughts. The whole family took very good care of Galilea at the dinner table. They almost called her like a future daughter in law. This feeling made Galilea feel very unreal. After all, with the Lubi family's strength, Hanming did not need to curry favor with her like this. 'Galilea, no, I should call you Ms. Frankie now, right? What should come still came. Galilea put down the knife and fork in her hand, smiled, and raised her head, 'Mr. Lubi, you don't have to be so polite.' Nore, who was sitting opposite her, suddenly frowned but was held down by Lucy. Your father wants to know her more. Don't cut in Nore's eyes darkened and he looked at Galilea. Galilea shook her head lightly as if she had seen through his thoughts. Only then did Nore continue to focus on eating. 'I also heard a few old friends mention that you wanted to revitalize the Frankie Group. Moreover, you even got the Lorenzo group's cooperation case. It's really amazing 'Me Lubi, if you have something to say, just say it. Otherwise, I won't feel at ease eating this meal.'" Galilea liked to make things clear.. Because of her relationship with Norc, she didn't want to make her relationship with the Lubl family too suff. 'Okay. Today, I will show my sincerity here. My son has been pursuing you for a long time. Having considered all kinds of reasons, I have not given him permission yet. Today, I promise you that as long as you two are happy, his mother and I will definitely support

you'

Nore's eyes lit up with joy 'Thank you, Dadi Galilea sat in the same place and did not say a word.

Chapter 224 Seng Targeted Hamming sized Gen 7 also know that it is not so easy for the Probe Group to a comeback Since you are close to each other our company will not ignore the plight of the Frankie Group you need investment or other help in the cooperation case with the Lorenzo group you can come to the company to find me at any time."

He had even helped Gallen prepare a smooth road. It was as it as long as she nodded, the entire Lubi family and the Lubgroup would be hers But in fact, it was far from that simple. Galilea blinked. "Mi lebi, the cooperation between the Frankie Group and the Lorenzo group has come a consensus. There should be no need for any help. Also, the matter between me and Nore is not what you think "Galilea. My dad just wants to help you Nore said anxiously "The Frankie Group doesn't dare to ask for anyone's help right now I'm afraid that if Tra not careful the company will be swallowed up Micah and the Lorenzo group were the best examples in the past. Galilea wouldn't be fooled twice. Hanming's expression had already changed after she said the few casual words. He had been in the business world for a long time and had seen many arrogant young people, but it was rare to see someone like Galilea who had no strength but was stubborn to the end. On her body, Hamming saw a very similar aura to someone. That person was Micah Al such a young age, he already had the economic lifeline of the entire city. Micah had the ability to make nothing of anyone, but the Frankie family had already fallen Why did Galilea not give him face? The Lubi family would have already lost all face by marrying such a daughter-in-law. Yet, she refused to hand over even a little benefit. She even repeatedly disregarded Nore's face. There was no longer any smile on Hanming's face, "Ms. Francie is really a person who is not willing to give in at all *It's not that I don't want to give in, but I don't have any bargaining chips to give in. Mr. Lubi, thank you for today's hospitality, but I think I don't deserve to eat your family's dinner now Galilea said, stood up and walked out No one dared to stop her *Onyx was stubborn enough, and the daughter he taught is even more so Hanming had lost face because of Galilea, so he was so angry that he mentioned her father's name. Galilea stopped in her tracks. She slowly turned around and stared at Hanming's face. Nore was too familiar with her expression and hurried over. "Galilea, my father only made a suggestion. He doesn't want to swallow the Frankie Group.

Hanming snorted, 'A company that has long been reduced to a waste collection station is worth my attention? if not for Micah's attitude. I wouldn't have invited you to dinner at all.'

Chapter 225 In Vain

Because of Micah? Galilea's face was filled with a cold smile. She should have thought of this long ago. She took a deep breath and said, 'Nore. I'll leave first.' For the sake of Nore, she didn't want to argue with a professional like Hanming. 'Stop!' Hanming stomped the table, his eyes fierce. Lucy wanted to stop him, but it was too late. We, Lubi family, are willing to let you in because of your deceased father. You not only do not appreciate it but also talk back to me like a thug?

Hanming was only groveling in front of people like Micah, but today, he had actually been humiliated by Galilea. He could not swallow this anger no matter what. When he spoke, he did not show any mercy, 'Everyone in the city knows how you got this project. Micah has been lenient to you many times. Do you really think everyone is a fool?'

'Dad! "How can you say that to her?' Nore frowned. He stood in front of Galilea and contradicted his father without any scruples. 'Alright, what's the big deal?' Lucy also tried to stop Hanming. Hanming snorted. "Why don't you take a look at what you are? With me.' "Boss Lubi's temper is really growing day by day.' Micah's voice suddenly sounded. He was covered in dust and walked in from outside the door with a stern expression. His pair of cold eyes looked around the people present and finally fixed on Galilea. He came to the other side of Galilea and directly blocked the light above her head.

Mr. Lorenzo Hanming immediately adjusted the expression on his face and came in front of them in a few steps. 'Why didn't you tell us in advance before you came, so I could go to the door to welcome you?' Only then did Micah look over, and the light in his eyes was extremely cold. 'I was just on the way. Otherwise, I won't be able to see such a good show. When Hanming heard the hidden meaning in his words, his smile became more and more awkward. "Mr. Lorenzo was just passing by?' Nore frowned and his face was full of hostility. 'I think you are coming for her. Galilea's heart skipped a beat. Before she could say anything, Micah gave a deep smile, and the coldness between his eyebrows was full of deterrence. 'Since you know, I will take her away.' When he said this, he grabbed Galilea's wrist. She was suddenly grabbed, staggered a few steps forward and reluctantly followed him. What are you doing? Let me go.' Galilea struggled a few times. However, Micah suddenly tightened his grip, causing her wrist to hurt. 'Oh, do you want to stay?' His gaze made Galilea unable to breathe. At this time it was too late for Hanming to regret it. He watched as Micah left with Galilea. Thus, this is over! Why didn't you inform me that Micah was here? 'I'm sorry, Sir, Scan and the mad immediately lowered their heads. 'Nore, why don't you go out and take a look? Lucy sighed helplessly. Nore stared at the back of Galilea and Micah as they left. What for?' Originally, Gallea had been avoiding him. Now, what right did he have to chase after her! Noro returned to his room with a cold face. He did not blame Galilea for leaving with Micah because he did not have the qualifications.

Har a minute later, Goldea was left at the crossroads. Watching from afar as Micah's car drove out of sight she couldnt tell what she was feeling.

How busy was NicaH? How could he ture gone to the Lubi family on the way and brought her out? The words he said that day came to his mind unnaturally, Galilea lowered her eyes and thought for a while, then sneered. "Even if I die, I wont go back to him." Micah would only treat her as an enemy until death Galilea took tvo steps forward. Suddenly, there was the sound of a car honking. She looked up and saw a truck driving towards her. The car lights were so bright that she could not open her eyes. Bang! A violent crash sounded on the street. A the smoke spread out, and Galilea opened her eyes in shock. Two trucks collided in the middle of the road. Her ears nubled, and then her eyes tumed white, and she fainted. "Miss, Miss? 'She is really lucky If she goes another half a meter, her legs will be finished." *Send her to the hospital!" There was a loud bang in her ear, but it suddenly quieted down. As soon as Galitea opened her eyes, she found herself lying on the emergency bed in the hospital. There were people coming and going around and her ears were temporarily deal because of the impact. So much so that when she saw the comer of Micah's clothes, she wondered if there was something wrong with her brain. He had already been angered away by her, so how could he return? For her safety?

Impossible! "How is she?" Micah said with a cold face, looking unhappy "The patient has no external injuries. When she wakes up, she needs to make a full CT scan to eliminate the possible side effects of a cerebral hemorrhage.' The doctor said. He made a hook on the paper and handed it to Micah Sign it.' He was not her family But the man did not hesitate at all. He took it and signed it If he did not sign, no one would care about Galilea's life. Micah lifted the curtain and met Galilea's eyes. . He said a few words, but Galilea did not hear anything Just as she was about to point to her ears, Micah picked up the phone and left in a hurry Galilea lay alone on the bed and closed her eyes to rest. It was already an hour later when Micah returned. He seemed to be very angry. He lifted the quilt on Galilea and pulled her up.

She was so ungrateful. 7 know. You just want me to stay here without your permission. I cant co cynhere'Galilea also understood his gare and said directly

"There is no longer any relationship between us. You dont have to care about my hfe and death. After she finished speaking, she sneered in a low voice Where she wanted to go was her freedom. Even if Micah was powerful, he couldn't control her She didn't leave because staying here could cure her ears and it offered free meals Anyway, she couldn't hear what he said. A deep look flashed through Micah's eyes. He opened his mouth and left with a cold face. Galilea covered herself with the blanket and slowly closed her eyes in her heart, he must have been betrayed by her. But not long after Micah returned the document bag in his hand. He walked to the other side and started working as if no one else was there

You Galilea leaned against her elbow and sat down. Micah didn't even look at her as his attention was on work Galilea always felt that he was muttering something, but she couldn't hear anything. If she couldn't hear him it meant that nothing had happened As she thought of this, she didn't care whether he left or not. She turned around and fell asleep What Galilea didn't know was that just a few hours after she was sent to the hospital, the outside world had been completely in chaos.

The two truck drivers that had crashed into each other were detained Because the traffic police had investigated the cause of the accident, one of the medium-sized trucks had been taking Galilea and was suspected of intentional murder. As for the other truck, it was pulling the Lorenzo group's goods. But on the Lorenzo group's employee list there was no such person He also refused to reveal the reason why he had stolen the Lorenzo group's truck From the surveillance video, it could also be seen that at the time of the incident he had taken the initiative to accelerate to protect Galilea

Chapter 226 EarthShaking Otherwise, Galilea's injury would be much more serious than it was now. But he refused to cooperate with the police to investigate, causing the case to stagnate. As the company's legal representative, Micah also received a notice to cooperate with the investigation Galilea's name was once again tied to him

'Isi me ini Nore rushed over but was blocked by Micah's bodyguards of the door. Listening to his shouts, Micah raised his eyes and glanced at the figure on the bed. She slept soundly and was not disturbed at all. The man narrowed his eyes, put down the documents, and walked out. 'Micah, why can't you let me see her? You have been divorced for so long, and you have no right to do this!' Nore was so anxious that his eyes turned red. When he saw Micah coming out, he rushed up and grabbed his collar. But soon, he was pulled away by Micah's bodyguards. Micah flicked the folds on his suit and looked over nonchalantly. Why did such a thing happen the moment she left the Lubi family's house?

'The police are still investigating this matter... Nore frowned. 'If you didn't bring her to the Lubi family, my people would have been able to protect her. Now she is lying inside, all thanks to you.' Nore's eyes darkened bit by bit "You, you let me see her.' *Impossible, Micah said coldly, then pushed open the door and was about to enter. Nore only wanted to see Galilea once, so anxious that he could not care about anything. 'Galilea, let me go in and see you!' he shouted at the top of his lungs. However, no matter how loud he shouted, the person on the bed did not respond. Micah glanced at his face coldly. "Enough shouting? Then scam: He swung his hand and was about to close the door when Nore rushed up and pressed his hands against the door crack. 'Micah, wtry are you getting close to her again and again? "What does Me. Lubi think? We are both men. Is it difficult to understand that I want her?" Bang Nore was locked outside the ward. He was stunned for a long time as Micah's words kept circling in his mind. "Young Master, Madam asked you to go back early so that the reporters or people with ulterior motives would not see you and drag you into it' Scan opened the car door and walted in the parking lot early in the morning. Nore had no expression at all. When he returned to the Lubi family, ho just entered the door. He felt dizzy. At the Quincy fomily. 'Didn't you say that this would definitely be a success? How did it tum out? Isn't Galilea still alive?' Dayana sat opposite her. Wendy was scolded so much that she couldnt roise her head. She had guaranteed that it would definitely work In the end, not only did nothing happen to Galilea but she was also taken care of by Micah. The reputation of the entire Lorenzo group depended on Galilea As long as she moved her lips and tongue, the whole situation would change dramatically. She had personally sent such a great opportunity to Galilea.

How could Dayana swallow this anger? She had disliked Wendy before, but now she was even more annoyed. "Dad, I remember that our family has a villa in Lin Mountain Why don't we let Wendy live there? I am about to give birth I am not happy to see a troublesome person in front of me

Chapter 227 False Kindness

Wendy panicked all of a sudden.

"Don't, Dayana. I... I still have a way! Right now, other than Micah, I am the closest person to Galilea. As long as I think about it carefully, I can definitely think of a way to restrain her."

"Think about it? If you take time to think about it again, my child is about to be born. I can tell that you are Galilea's person. Are you deliberately helping her buy time?"

Dayana snorted arrogantly and pointed at her nose. "Anyway, you must disappear from my sight." After all, she was Lachlan's biological daughter, and now she was pregnant with Micah's child. Since she said so, how could Lachlan ignore it? "Old Liu, prepare the car."

No matter how Wendy cried, Lachlan did not change his mind.

Before getting in the car, Wendy slipped to the door of the study and wanted to plead with Lachlan again, but she unexpectedly heard him call Qin Xue.

He wanted to get Qin Xue to the Quincy family!

Before Wendy could break in and argue with Lachlan, she was pulled into the car by the maid.

She was locked in the car and taken to Lin Mountain. But even so, Dayana was still unhappy. Not long after, she changed her clothes and went out of the door, heading straight to Terry's apartment.

As soon as she entered, the two of them hugged each other passionately.

Everything that Dayana could not get from Micah was all made up for by Terry. The two of them were like glue, worrying about the child in her belly, Dayana did not go too far.

"How good it would be if Micah was half as considerate as you!" Dayana snorted delicately.

Terry's eyes darkened, and his voice revealed a trace of unwillingness. "What exactly do you like about Micah? He doesn't understand women's thoughts, and he never takes the initiative to accompany you. The gift I gave you was tens of times more than what he gave you. How can I not compare to him?"

He raised his wrist and reached out, directly pinching Dayana's lower jaw.

"He never touched you at all."

"Micah is unique. No one can compare to him." Dayana pursed her red lips and turned her head away.

Hearing this, Terry lost interest and pushed Dayana aside with a cold face. "Don't be angry." Dayana knew that she still had to rely on him. She took the initiative to reach out and wrap her arms around his waist, resting her head on his back. "Through this incident, I also know that in this world, other than my father, you treat me the best."

Terry glanced at her.

Only then did the indifference on his face fade away. "Although I failed this time, you should be able to see that Micah still can't forget that woman." Dayana lowered her eyes and fell silent. She had a bad feeling about this. Although she had caused Galilea to lose that child back then, it might have deepened Micah's guilt towards her at the same time. "As long as Galilea doesn't have a man, Micah won't give her up. It's a pity that the child in my belly has lost his home before being born." Dayana frowned. Terry's eyes were deep and cold.

Chapter 227 False Kindness It was Terry that made her feel that she was being valued again.

"Of course, and you are doing this for our child too," Terry said and bent down again.

"Don't, I'm too tired." "Don't be afraid, I will be gentle." The night passed When Galilea opened her eyes again, she saw the nurse standing by her bed. When she woke up, she immediately came over. But Galilea shook her head and pointed to her ears. The nurse sighed and immediately ran out. "Director Chen, Miss Frankie' hearing has not recovered yet." Director Chen, who was drinking tea in the principal's office, heard this and almost could not hold the teacup. "This is over. Another day has passed. Mr. Lorenzo will definitely lose his temper again." Director Lee also sighed, "This is a result of the injury. There is no accurate recovery time at all. Maybe Miss Frankie will never recover her hearing for the rest of her life. Who can he blame?"

Director Chen looked as if his heart was dead.

"If I can't cure her, not to mention you guys, even I will have to pack up and leave." As they were talking, Director Lee slapped his thigh, "Why don't you take Miss Frankie to the foreign hospital headquarters? Maybe the experts there will have a way."

"Alright, that might work." Director Chen immediately told Micah about the treatment plan.

"Are you sure it will be effective?" the man thought for a moment.

"Mr. Lorenzo, we should try as much as we can now. It will be good for Miss Frankie." Director Chen revealed a smile.

He could only say this.

It would be better to send her away first. Otherwise, he would have to face Micah's icy face every day. "Alright, go and prepare." Micah said as he walked towards Galilea's ward. As soon as he reached the door, he saw the Lubi family surrounding the door. Lucy cried directly, "Galilea, just meet us and let me know how you are."

"She's deaf."

Micah walked over and said.

"Impossible!" Nore was no longer as excited as before, but when he looked at Micah's face, his expression was complicated. "Otherwise, why wouldn't she react when you shouted like this?" Micah chuckled. "Really!"

"It doesn't matter. We will get the best doctor to treat her." Lucy sighed heavily.

"She won't be able to hear anything for the rest of her life. The doctor said that this illness can be inherited." Micah said.

"What?"

Nore clenched his fists and stared at Micah. He felt that something was wrong.

"Can you, Lubi family, accept a married woman entering the family and tolerate her giving birth to a child born with a disability?"

"If you don't dare to bear the consequences, you don't have to be kind. Get out of the way." Micah said coldly.

Chapter 228 Shameless

"Then you.." Before Lucy could finish speaking, she was refuted by Micah.

"I dont care."

He only said this before pushing the door open and entering the ward. The entire comidor was extremely quiet. There was only the sound of a clock hanging on the wall. Lucy pursed her lips and sighed. "Nore, let's go to Principal Chen first and ask about Galilea's situation. We'll talk about it later." She took a few steps forward and saw that Nore was still in the same place. "Lets go You don't want to see Galilea anymore? She knew her son too well. He had been willing to take over the family business for Galilea, so Lucy would never let Galilea go_3 "Mom, if what he said is true, will you still agree with Galilea and me?" Nore looked up and said weakly.

'What nonsense are you talking about? With the current medical technology, what can't be cured? You..." Before she finished speaking, Nore had already walked out of the hospital.

No matter what Galilea became, he would not give up on her. However, he still had the Lubi family to worry about, but Micah could accompany Galilea without any worries. Nore frowned fiercely. He wanted to win, but it seemed that he had already lost completely.

In the ward.

Micah looked at the woman who was quietly reading a book on the bed. He frowned and walked over step by step. When he got close to the bed, Galilea suddenly raised her head to look at him. Surprise fiashed through her bright eyes. "Dont you need to go to work?' She then glanced at the time and muttered, "How idle." The dignified president of the Lorenzo group, instead of being busy in the company, had moved the office into her ward. Micah looked at her for a long time. As if confirming that she really could not hear, the man took off his coat and threw it on the sofa. "If Nore comes to you again, can you not see him?" He said this to Galilea

But she could not hear it.

"What? I cant hear you. If you want to scold me, please write it down." Galilea was a little annoyed. Micah ignored her and turned to look at the documents. Galilea lay back idly. She picked up her phone and flipped through two pages of the news, only to see her name and Micah being published on the headlines

"The ex-wife of a rich family has worked hard to set up a cruel plan. The billionaire abandoned his fiancee and accompanied her all night long It also came a photo of a window taken from an unknown angle. The shadows on the curtains were very vague, giving people a very ambiguous feeling as if Galilea and Micah were flirting Galilea gritted her teeth in hatred, stepped on her slippers, and got off the bed. "What are the PR staff doing in the Lorenzo group? Don't they know how to delete such vulgar news Micah looked at the content and did not make a sound. "Dont be mute, it is related to my reputation." Galilea gritted her teeth She was not the one who begged Micah to stay. Moreover, it was clearly the two of them who had been slandered. Why did he not care

The man only lifted his eyes and glanced at her after she finished speaking He quickly signed the document then raised a finger pointed at Galilea, and pointed to his ears Gallees eyes fidered can immediately raised his head his eyes filled with restraint He was too lazy to speak and he reached out to pull Galilea She song with her phone, fell into his arms. "You madman let go of me She shouted, but Micah calmly took her phone away and typed a line of words on the meno

Chapter 228 Shameless Galilea was confused.

Then, someone knocked on the door.

"Mr. Lorenzo, the reporters are here. We can start the interview at any time."

Micah looked in the direction of the door, then looked at the woman in front of him and said coldly, "Come in." Galilea saw his thin lips move, and before she could get up, the door of the ward was pushed open. Seven or eight people saw such an ambiguous scene in the ward at the same time. Galilea was wearing a loose hospital gown, half leaning in Micah's arms. Her hand also stood up and held the position that she shouldn't have. Micah, on the other hand, propped up her elbow and fixed his gaze on her. After a brief moment of shock, Keith immediately pushed the reporters outside. However, the flashlights suddenly lit up again, and the camera was raised very high, crazily shooting at the two of them. Galilea was frightened by the dazzling light.

In a moment of desperation, her first reaction was to hide in Micah's direction. Unexpectedly, the more urgent she was, the more flustered she was.

Her subconscious action made her even more unable to get away from Micah's embrace.

The distance between the two of them was also getting closer and closer. "You..."

Galilea finally stood up with great difficulty. When she turned around, she saw that the door to the ward was tightly shut. She turned around and gritted her teeth as she stared at Micah. "What were you trying to do?" She was 100% sure that he was the one who had let those reporters in. "It has nothing to do with me." Micah pretended to be innocent as he spread out his hands. "Scoundrel!"

Galilea stared at him fiercely. She could not hear what he was trying to say, but from his expression, she could guess what was going on.

She turned around and went to the hospital bed with a cold face. With a faint smile on his lips, Micah opened the door of the ward. Ignoring the reporters who were gossiping, he said to Keith directly, "I'll go back to the company. You make an arrangement here." "Understood, Mr. Lorenzo."

Keith immediately used his phone to communicate with Galilea. "In other words, the reason these reporters came in was to clarify the news on the Internet?" Galilea raised her eyebrows and secretly reflected in her heart.

If those reporters had been arranged by Micah to solve the problem, did she wrongly blame him just now? Galilea pursed her lips. He couldn't blame her. It was really too coincidental.

"Miss Frankie only needs to follow the lines we have prepared. Those reporters will know what to do." Keith typed on his phone.

Galilea nodded helplessly.

She took the few pieces of paper that Keith handed over to her. However, she felt a little guilty. No matter how close those reporters were to the Lorenzo group, they had just witnessed such a scene with their own eyes. Would they still clarify things for her and Micah? "If you are ready, I will let them in." Keith typed another line of words. Galilea confirmed it again and nodded. "It's okay." She turned her head to look out of the window and rubbed her eyes. Although she didn't know what Micah was planning, she definitely wouldn't listen to him! The first reporter who came in to interview Galilea was Ms. Armstrong from Jing Hua News Agency, As soon as she entered, she gave the photographer behind her a look and sat down next to the bed. "Hello, Miss Frankie. I am Xiaohui Armstrong from Jing Hua News Agency." But although she had raised her hand for a long time, Galilea ignored her.

Chapter 229 To Be Reduced to Such a State

"Miss Frankie, Mr. Lorenzo invited us to interview you. If you had such an attitude, we really wouldn't have been able to help." Xiaohui Armstrong frowned Galilea still did not respond. Keith frowned and was about to go forward. Galilea slowly turned her head and looked at Xiaohui's outstretched hand. "Sorry, I have been deaf recently. I can't hear anything," she said with surprise. She smiled apologetically. Xiaohui was stunned. The next second, she saw a calm smile on Galilea's face. "I can accept the interview, but you have to write down the questions of the interview." Xiaohui immediately looked at Keith. Keith nodded. "Okay, let me prepare." Before she came in, she did not expect Galilea to be in such a situation. Soon, the interview officially began. She asked several questions in a row, and Galilea answered them very naturally. "Mr. Lorenzo is the person in charge of the Lorenzo group. He cares about my condition because this accident also involves the Lorenzo group's truck..." Keith breathed a sigh of relief. Fortunately, Galilea did not say anything out of line. His phone rang. He went out to answer the phone for five minutes. When he returned, the atmosphere in the ward had completely changed. Galilea lowered her head and wiped her tears. She asked in a low voice, "Did I do something wrong? Ms. Zhou, you must report the truth for me. Otherwise, I really can't live." Keith was stunned. What was Galilea talking about?

There were no such words in the prepared outline! Full of concern in her eyes, Xiaohui held Galilea's hand and nodded. Then, she left with the cameraman. "Ms. Zhou, the interview is not over yet, right?" Keith sensed that something was wrong and quickly chased after her. According to the pre-arranged questions, there were still a few questions that she had not asked. "I don't think there is any need for that. Keith, please pass on the message to Mr. Lorenzo. Although we made it clear first, I am still a media person after all. I have to reveal the truth to the public!"

"That's all I have to say. I hope that Mr. Lorenzo can give Miss Frankie a fair explanation as soon as possible," Xiaohui said excitedly. Keith was completely stunned. He had only left for a short while. How had things turned out like this? "Mr. Lorenzo, there's a problem with the interview," Keith immediately took out his phone. By the time Micah returned to the hospital, the report had already been uploaded to the Internet. After reading the rough content in the car, he walked into Galilea's ward with a livid face. "Mr. Lorenzo!" Keith immediately got up. Galilea was still unaware, leaning against the sofa and basking in the sun.

The next second, she was lifted up by someone. A hint of panic flashed across her fair and beautiful face, but very quickly, it turned into a cold smile. "Mr. Lorenzo doesn't seem to be in a good mood. Did something happen to the company?" "You lunatic!" Micah tightened his grip on her neck and said word by word, "MI told you not to do anything behind my back." How could she have said that to the reporters? Was she so eager to stick to Nore? He wouldn't let her get what she wanted! 'Don't be too angry, and don't get too excited. Anyway, I can't hear anything you say now."

She was very happy to see Micah's angry expression). Since he had deliberately let people misunderstand their relationship. Galilea insisted that his plan was ruined. She just cried and said: some ambiguous words to Ms. Zhou. It was the truth, but what it could lead people to think was not something she could control. For example, she had once lost a child.

Chapter 2910 Be Reduced to Such a State For example Micah's two weddings had been ruined by her For example she had entered and exited Micah's villa several times, Micah stepped his feet and the whole city trembled, so how could he be a man she could manipulate? So she must be the one who had been forced Forced threatened these words were naturally connected to Micah, Galilea's innocent look made Micah even angrier. With a gesture of his hand, Keith immediately went out and took away the bodyguards guarding the door forced you noht? Today, I will make it happen." As his lips moved he pulled his tie away and pulled Galilea into his arms. "Micah I have already installed a camera in the ward. If you dare to touch me, I will definitely sue you until you can't turn over" Galilea could not hear what he was saying.

However she had already sensed the coldness emanating from his body,

She had to be one step ahead of him and make full preparations,

She had originally thought that Micah would be afraid because of her words, but who would have thought that his actions would become even more vicious

His eyes were dyed with a dark light.

The strength in his hands did not decrease. Soon, Galilea's hair and clothes were scattered. No matter how much she struggled, he did not stop

She could not hear him, and he was too lazy to say more. Only his actions told her that he was really angry this time. All the wind stopped, there were only traces of lingering emotions on Galilea's body: Micah stood up. Seeing her pale face, he could not bear it. He moved over, wanting to carry her back to the bed from the ground.

Galilea raised her hand and gave him a resounding slap,

“Bastard”

This slap landed solidly on Micah. The space between his eyebrows slowly tightened, and he did not retort. As soon as he put Galilea down, there was a burst of rapid footsteps outside the door. Dayana, with a big belly, was helped by the nanny to break in. “Micah, I called you so many times. Why didn’t you answer?”

But the moment she entered the door, she was dumbfounded.

In the dim ward where the clothes were scattered on the ground, she immediately knew what had just happened

“You!”

Dayana was so angry that she rushed forward and was about to hit Galilea, “If you have something to say, let’s go out and talk.” Micah raised his hand to stop Dayana “What are we going to talk about? You are the president of the Lorenzo group. This accident is related to the Lorenzo group, so you guard her every day. Okay, I don’t mind, but what about now? Tell me that you are innocent?” Dayana almost broke her throat

Galilea just looked at them quietly.

Because there was no sound in her ears.

Oh no, when Dayana was cursing, she seemed to have heard a slight sound

In the end, Dayana was dragged out by Micah, The ward was completely quiet Galilea stepped out of bed and walked to the edge of the window, wanting to open the window to get some fresh air that before she could reach out, someone hit her from behind,

She fainted and fell on the windowsill, knocking her forehead

that afternoon

The new hatred Galilea had been secretly plotted against in the ward spread throughout the upper circle. Some people said that Galilea had used some shameful tactics in the ward to seduce Micah. Dayana was so angry she almost lost her mind.

stayed

When Galilea was carried out of the ward, there was not a single piece of clothing on my

“How did the dignified daughter of the noble family fall to the streets?”

The great thing is that Lorenzo's house was very angry.

Chapter 230 Make a Move “In the past, when Old Frankie was still alive, I saw that Lachlan was not a good person. The daughter he taught was also...” “I didn't mean it that way. I was just stating facts.” He coughed. “Alright, Old Priestley, I know you. It's just that you just came back from abroad and you don't know much about the local situation. My nephew also wants to make up for Galilea.” Huaiyen Lorenzo sighed and poured a cup of hot tea for his old friend. “I advised you before because the older generation shouldn't intervene in the children's affairs.” “I don't care. No matter what, Galilea is still half my daughter. Alright, you can stay out of this matter, but I have to seek justice for her.” As he spoke, he stood up and walked out in a travel-worn manner. The two cups of hot tea in front of Huaiyen were still steaming white. He shook his head helplessly. “This Zongxing Priestley is still the same as before. He has such a short temper.”

At this time.

Dayana had already fallen out in the hospital. No matter what Micah said, she only had one request, which was to immediately terminate the cooperation with the Frankie Group, and he would never see Galilea again. “If you don't promise me, I will...” She looked around the ward, trying to find a way to threaten Micah. “What do you want? You want to jump off the building with the child?”

*I..."

"Micah, I don't want to do this either, but you have to worry about my feelings, right? You and Galilea have been entangled until now. Do you know how the people outside laugh at me? You and I are the rightful husband and wife!" Dayana bit the corner of her lips, her face flushed red.

Although there was no wedding and no registration of marriage until now. But she was pregnant with Micah's child, and based on this alone, Galilea had to stand aside. Dayana didn't want to anger Micah. "Micah, I wholeheartedly want to live with you for the rest of my life. I am different from Galilea. She approached you just to take revenge on you." "Revenge." The man slowly spat out these two words, his emotions stirring again. He understood this better than anyone else, but he was unwilling to face it directly. Seeing his reaction, Dayana immediately said, "Yes, my father recently told me some things about the Frankie family. Her father went bankrupt because of bad management, and it has nothing to do with you! You don't have to feel that you owe her." Dayana tugged at his arm. Although she had such a beautiful face, the words she said were so vicious. "I think we should send her away as soon as possible. If the Frankie Group really makes a comeback through this cooperation, the first thing she will do will definitely be to subvert the Lorenzo group! At that time, it will be too late for you to make a move again." Micah's eyes became colder and colder. "According to what you said, I should make the first move?" "Yes, Micah. As long as you have this idea, I will tell my dad. He will definitely help." Dayana nodded immediately. "Did your dad ask you to tell me these things?" Micah only looked at her deeply. "Yes... No, I don't want her to be entangled with you all day either." No matter how Dayana thought about it, she felt that this proposal was reasonable.

Since Wendy had been sent away, no one came up with ideas for her now.

She could only rely on herself! She was immersed in her own little scheme and did not notice the look in Micah's eyes at all. "Micah, I am doing this for our future. You don't want our children to be criticized as soon as he is born, do you? Or in your heart, the two of us combined can't compare to Galilea?" The gentleness and grievance on Dayana's face became more and more intense. She held the man's arm tightly, looking as if she was very pitiful. Unfortunately, Micah had never been a person who would show mercy to the fairer sex. "I will consider it," he said with an indifferent smile. "Really? Dayana's face was full of joy. "Let me send you back first. Later, I will go to the Quincy family myself and talk to your father."

Chapter 230 Make a Move

Okay, then Micah, can you be a little more polite to my father? He is actually quite worried about us"

Womed?

Of course, he was worried. Once his marriage with the Lorenzo group was aborted, he would lose more than just a little benefit.

And Lachlan would not tell Dayana the truth. To put it bluntly, it was most likely that Lachlan had encouraged her to make such a scene in the hospital today. Micah's eyes were filled with coldness. After sending Dayana away, he turned and walked to Galilea's ward.

But just outside the ward, he saw someone's assistant. "Mr. Lorenzo, long time no see. You haven't changed at all," Wu Zheng said respectfully when he saw Micah. "Zongxing is here?" As a junior, the only one who dared to call his boss by his name was Micah. "Yes, Mr. Priestley wants to meet Miss Frankie and talk about the cooperation with the Frankie Group."

"Hch:

"Tell him not to waste his energy. Galilea won't believe him. When the Frankie family was in trouble, didn't he hide far away? It's too late for him to come back and harvest her heart."

Wu Zheng couldn't keep the smile on his face anymore. His words sounded like the accident in the Frankie family had nothing to do with him.

"This is up to Miss Frankie," Micah stared at the door, his heart filled with anger. He had no intention of entering at all and left. Anyway, Galilea would not want to see him now. Just now, he had indeed been impulsive. His phone rang. It was a call from Jasper. "Micah, my uncle is back!"

Zongxing was the husband of Jasper's aunt. They were relatives. "Yes, he has arrived at the hospital." Micah walked into the lift, his eyes cold.

"So you met? Jasper couldn't sit still,

After the incident with the Frankie family, several big shots who had been close to Onyx started to distance themselves from Micah. Among them, Zongxing was an exception. He had had to go abroad for treatment due to physical reasons, so he missed the opportunity to help the Frankie family. Otherwise, the Frankie family would not have fallen so quickly 'No.' Micah's attitude was cold, and he did not want to continue this topic. On the other side of the line, Jasper sighed. 'I know you don't want to hear it, but this time the situation is different from before. My uncle has a son, you know? He is going to introduce his son to Galilea.1 Beep, beep beep.

The call was directly hung up. 'Should I not say it?' Jasper scratched his head helplessly. But according to Micah's personality, if he had known about this from other people, they would not even be friends.
