Dayana was flustered and euserated She reached out to pull Galles, but before her hand could touch Goldeas dothes, she knocked Prer head on the car door becauto she moved 100 much The noise here attracted the attention of many people

That's Mica's cert "Dayana seems to be scold ng the person in the car is a woman, nig!

Tve long heard that Micah doesnt care much about hee Otherwise, why would it drog on unul now?"

The voices of discussion were sharper than knives and dived into Dayana's ears. Honoring, she was now riding alone and could not leave. If she gave up just like that wouldn't it prove that Micah treated Galdea better than she was treated? "Come down." Dayana bit her red lips. "Beg me and I'll go down." Galdea took out her phone and glanced at the time.

Then get out of here. You pull her way. If I see her get out of the car, I'll walk in. Micah, I see you. She was shouting at the driver. The voice was very harsh. "Miss Quincy, Mr. Lorenzo asked me to send her once I can't listen to you. The driver said Dayana couldn't even order a driver around. Seeing that the noise was getting louder and louder, she could only lower her voice. After she finished speaking, she turned and walked up the stairs. As long as she went in first and told them about Galdea's shameless deeds, no one would believe her. While Dayana was planning this, she did not know that someone else was walking towards her. "Are you angry?" received Galilea's message and came out to pick her up. He was dressed in a neat gray suit and paired with a pair of silver frame glasses. He looked very gentle and relaxed. He reached out to help Galilea up with his genuineness. All the female guests present were engaged. After all, in the entire city, there were only a few single and noble people who had yet to get married. The few people who were still single were Nore and Jng, but now it seemed that they were both circling around Cakes. It seems that the Armstrong family did not invite the little family tonight? "In other words, Nore won't come." A little girl sighed in disappointment. However, just as she finished speaking, a limousine with red sports cars drove in from outside the door. Nore got out of the car and looked directly at Galilea with burning eyes. Without saying anything, he directly walked over.

"You came to the Armstrong family to play without me?"

was afraid that you would be busy, so I don't dare to disturb you." The corners of Galilea's lips twitched. What she actually wanted to say was that if not for Micalis pestering, she wouldn't have come. But since she had come, she should go in and greet Uncle Priestley, Vaith, Nore, and Jng on the left and right. Galilea seemed to be walking in the Frank's family with two escorts. All the girls present were enviously envious.

Chapter 242 As He Wished

As 10:00 as they entered the man hall of the Armstrong Family, the man who got out of the black car had a cold expression on his face. His eyes were fixed on Galilea's back and Ms. Cold's eyes were mixed with anger.

"Micah is here!" Dayana saw Micah from afar and her eyes turned as she thought of something. Micah walked into the Armstrong Family step by step. When Jasper received the news, he immediately rushed out. "Micah tonight is a welcome dinner for my uncle and his family. Even if you are unhappy, you must give me face” Jasper made a gesture of pleading with his hands. He understood Nican’s character too well. In addition, he had just heard some gossip, and he was afraid that tonight would not be peaceful. “Don’t worry, I will naturally give you face. Micah turned around and looked at him. He actually smiled for the first time. When he smiled like this, Jasper became even more panicked.

No Moore you going to do something today? When I see you like this, I always feel that ‘Before Jasper could finish speaking. Micah had already strode inside. His goal was also very dear, which was the woman standing between Jing and Nore at this moment. Micah, who had always been admired by the daughters of wealthy families, was completely ignored at this time. “Galilea, do you want to eat fruit?”

Galilea have some coffee. Both of Galilea’s hands were stuffed full. She had only been in here for less than ten minutes, and she felt that she was almost full.

Take a break. Just as she was about to put down the thing in her hand, she felt a chill run down her spine. She looked over and saw that it was indeed Micah. Galilea frowned and wanted to dodge. Zonguing blocked her first and Nore also pulled her. There’s no need to hide from him, the two of them said in unison. Then the two of them looked at each other. Although they were both unhappy, they still firmly stood by Caldea’s side. Old Lady Armstrong was helped to walk over. Zonguing and Hanging Armstrong each took one side and behind them were the younger generation of the Armstrong family. Old Lady Armstrong had a smile on her face, looked around the table, and actually took the initiative to reach out to Lorenzo. Boy, come here. Among the crowd, the only person who was qualified to stand beside Zonguing and the others was Micah. He was clearly two generations younger but he had the ability to rival them. Micah was never polite or had stage fright. His indifferent and disdainful eyes were powerful. He walked over step by step and passed by Calilea. Galilea unconsciously looked away, not wanting to have any entanglement with him. Who would have thought that Micah would suddenly stop by her side. “Come with me.”

There was a lack of order in his tone, and there was a bit of gentleness in it. Galilea frowned. Wasn’t he trying to harm her? He insisted that she take the blame of having seduced him! But she did not want to go. At the last banquet of the Armstrong family. For a moment, Galilea hesitated.

However, Micah was exceptionally patient. He did not rush her. He just stood there and looked at her with a deep gaze. No matter how deep his game was, Jing and Nore, who were both men, could see it clearly. It was a kind of possessiveness born from the bottom of his heart. He did not want to go up on Galilea. They trembled but did not speak on the table, but they were hostile to one another. At that moment a woman’s voice sounded, ‘Jing, bring Galilea over to greet us. Zonguing shouted, and Jing immediately dragged Galilea over.

The guests were all dumbfounded. Didn’t they say that Nore was

Chapter 243 To Remarry Her This real intimate action confirmed the relationship between the two Galilea frowned but everyone saw it. It was useless for her o defend herself She seduced Micah, a man with a fiancco Her sharneless reputation would soon be knorn

Moreover it was in front of Uncle Priestley Galilea closed her eyes painfully she only hoped that this force would end quickly she really could not stay for a second However, the man beside her tightly gripped her shoulders, making her unable to struggle free and unable to move "You' Zongong really wanted to ask, but there were some things that he really could not ask Once the answer was confirmed, what would happen to Galilea's reputation in the future? Old Lady Armstrong looked at Micah and Galilea with a smile Young people always have the opportunity to change their ways' Galilea lowered her eyes and pinched her fingertips, no longer looking at anyone "Galilea today we are all guests of the Armstrong family Why don't you raise a glass with me to toast to the old lady?" Micah sad, using his free hand to pick up a glass of red wine and handing it to Galilea. If there was only one natural Emperor in this city, it must be him. Once upon a time, Galilea had been secretly delighted that she could marry such a handsome husband. However she never thought that this man would be a nightmare that she could not get rid of "Hmm?" He narrowed his eyes and whispered in her ear, "Don't you and Nore know how to drink? NOW. Are you afraid?" Galilea gritted her teeth and took the red wine glass He was deliberately making things difficult for her The two of them looked like a beautiful couple, standing side by side, and the scene was particularly pleasing to the eyes However, the people close to her could tell that Galilea was not very happy. Instead, she seemed to be coerced by 101 cone. "To be able to hook up with Micah even after getting divorced. This Galilea is really amazing. "She has nothing now. She is still dreaming of helping the Frankie Group up. If she doesn't rely on Micah, who will she rely on?" "I wonder why the young masters of the Priestley family and Lubi family have taken a fancy to her?" "Most likely her performance was outstanding sexually' They said one sentence after another Galilea raised her head and drank the wine in the glass. The tears in her eyes were quickly suppressed by her She did not dare to look at Zongong's eyes. Her performance of repeating the same thing had hurt the hearts of many people. 'I still have to take her to see a few partners. I will take my leave first The corners of Micah's lips curled up slightly, and he gave Zongong a meaningful look As a junior his gaze was full of provocation 'Jing, you go and have a look' Zongong said to his son in private 'I will ask her about it when I have a chance.' *I understand Dad I will go over now Jing turned around and was about to catch up with Micah and Galilea. But before he could take a step, he was stopped by Jasper who came up to him "Cousin offer you returned to the country, the two of us haven't had a good talk! Come on let's go over there."

But 'Jing had a gentle personality, and he was pulled away by Jasper in a few words Jasper's eyes were full of smiles as he chatted with Jing It was only to stall him. The expression on Micah's face just now had clearly shown that he was jealous of Nore and Jing

With Micah's status, what kind of woman could he not get?

Moreover Galilea did not really want to talk to him Jasper questioned that it was very likely that Micah had threatened Galilea. He helplessly held his torch Who would have thought that Micah would be so unscrupulous for a woman? On the other side, Micah had already brought Galilea into the banquet hall inside His hand was still holding her wrist nothing her a chance to escape "Help yourself He raped chin and glanced at the table full of desserts He remembered the previous ones when Galilea maled happily and ate happily with Nore. When he thought of the scene at that time, a burst of anger roce in his eart

Chapter 243 To Remory Her He could do it as he said.

Micah, we you sick?

Galilea glared at Micoh Her hand slowly reached out just as she was about to touch the cake, there was a sudden noite behind her

'Let's go out and take a look I seems to be Micalia fiancee?

Gollentuned around to look Everyone was looking at the corridor outside from afar, they sow Daryana's shadow reflected on the glass She was crying her heart out "My life is so bitterf" Beside him, the Armstrong family also rushed over Dayana sot on the steps in public with a big belly and a face full of tears, "She has already had a wedding with Micah, but it was ruined by Galilea. Now she is about to give birth, and she is still watching her fiance getting married. No one can stand it Galilea pulled back her wrist. Instead, to tightened his grip,

Aren't you going to let go? Micah suddenly turned to look at her. The deep feelings in his eyes were sullocating His voice was os low as a freshly wormed red wine 'I wil never let you go in this life

Before Galilea could think about the meaning of his words, he had already pulled her over Dayana was crying very hard, but when Micah went over, she slowly stopped crying She raised her head and looked at the man in front of her with tears streaming down her face Micah! But then, she saw Micah holding Galilea's hand She saw it very clearly. It was not that Galilea refused to let go of Micah but that Micah regretted. It was he who took the initiative to find Galilea This reality made Dayana's heart ache even more. "Do you have to do this to me? in public? Dayana gritted her teeth and complained. Her pair of beautiful crescent-shaped eyes stared at Micah's face. She racked her brains but could not figure out what had gone wrong Why, all of a sudden, couldn't Micah leave Galilea? Or did Galilea tell her about the matter between her and Terry For a moment, Dayana did not know what to say more She bit the corner of her lips and her eyes were full of schemes. "If you haven't caused enough trouble, then continue. I won't accompany you anymore' Micah had already given her enough opportunities 'Micah what do you mean? Are you really going to remarry her Dayana was stunned At this time, the surrounding guests were also shocked. Although rumors had already spread all over the city, this was the first time that Micah had publicly admitted it "Taking advantage of the fact that his fiancée is pregnant and taking the initiative to seduce her, the daughter of the Frank family ought to really have an eye-opening 'Exactly, she still has the face to stand here. For the sake of money, she really can do anything These words floated into Galileo's ears without any concealment Was this Micah's goal?

To make her lose all face and make it an excuse for him to abandon Dayana?

Chapter 244 Reduced to Ashes

Belottatiles could say anything, she was once again hoisted into Micah's embrace His eyes were cold as he told Dayana, 'Yes, I said it very dearly

You have challenged my bottom line several times, and my patience has run out you can do whatever you want.' Micah said and abandoned there.

Honest, there was no response for a long time

"Dayana, stop messing around I can't have any more conflicts with Micah of this time' Terry said as he watched Micah's car drive past

Dayana was angry that she threw her phone she must visit Galilea Holl on tour later, in Lorenzo family will bring two bottles of me and place them in front of Onile's.

Chapter 244 Reduced to Ashes Galilea tilted her head and looked at his face close to hers. She suddenly smiled. Her slender fingers hooked onto the wine glass as she muttered to herself, 'I can't answer.' Another glass of wine was drunk Most of the wine bottle was empty. Galilea propped up her chin and looked at Micah's expression. Her charming eyes were already a little dazed She blinked. "You're still not satisfied? Then ask again!" "Forget it, you're drunk 'He just wanted to ask that question. There was no point in continuing to ask like this. "That's enough? Then you..." As she spoke, she felt a sharp pain in her stomach. The burning sensation made her speechless. Seeing her curled up and squat down, Micah frowned. He reached out to help her, but there was no time. Galilea's legs went soft and she fainted.

"Galilea!"

After the doctor came to see her, he only said that he should not let her drink 'She should have taken some antibiotic medicine not long ago. In addition, she is relatively weak. Under the stimulation of alcohol, her stomach is damaged. When she wakes up, it is best to go to the hospital for a comprehensive examination Micah stood by the bed and looked at the delicate, beautiful but pale face. Was the former Galilea really unable to come back? Micah restrained the feelings in his eyes and picked Galilea up. Under the moonlight, the corridor was long and quiet. "If this is what you want, I will return it all to you. Only the home you want, I can not give it to you." Even if he wanted to give it to her, she would not want it. In the early morning. Galilea woke up and saw the familiar curtain. She rubbed her eyes, and the last memory of last night came into her mind.

She drank the wine that Micah gave her, and then...

Looking around the room, there was no one else but herself. "Sister. "Galilea was just about to open her mouth to call Sister Zhang, but her throat hurt like hell. She slowly sat up by the bed and coughed a few times. "Miss Frankie, you're awake! How are you feeling now?" Sister Zhang came in with breakfast and hurriedly brought her water. Galilea felt a splitting headache and waved her hand, "Where is Micah?

"Sir has gone to the company.' Sister Zhang wanted to say something but stopped. Looking at Galilea's slightly pale face, she swallowed back the words she had not said. Galilea still felt very uncomfortable in her stomach She forced herself to drink a few mouthfuls of porridge and went back to the apartment building alone. After last night, if the matter of her staying in Micah's villa was found out, she would really have no way to defend herself. Galilea got out of the car and took a few steps into the alley. She saw the fire in front of her. All the neighbors nearby were gathered downstairs "I wonder if there's anyone inside? "I heard that it was a gas leak, but it's fine. Why did it.'

Galilea walked closer and realized that the floor was the floor she lived on!

She suddenly remembered that the information that Zongxing had given her was still inside. All of a sudden, she rushed inside like a madwoman

"Miss, please calm down. The fire is still very big. It's too dangerous' The firefighter stopped her. "No, I have to go in!

Her last hope was inside, and there were also her father's relics in the room

"I beg you, let me in."

Even if she died, she could not watch those things burn to ashes But in the end, there was nothing she could do When Nore rushed over, he saw her standing there in a daze, with no hope in her eyes.

Chapter 245 Unpredictable

"Nore, it's over. There's no hope Galilea looked at the room that had been burned clean, and her eyes were desolate. The information, the hope that supported her to continue her revenge, were all gone. Nore clenched his fists. Although he was angry at what happened at the Armstrong family that day, after thinking about it, Galilea was helpless As soon as he heard that there was a fire here, he rushed over to take a look. "Galilea, don't think that way. There must be more..." "Are you Galilea? We suspect that this is a deliberate arson case. There are some things that need your cooperation to investigate. Please come with us. Galilea frowned and looked at Nore. 'They are trying to force me to death.' This way, no one would pursue the cause of her father's death, and the evidence that those people persecuted the Frankie Group would forever sink into the sea. Zongxing had just given those things to her, and such a thing had happened. It could be seen what those people were afraid of "I will go with you. "No, I'll go myself. If you really want to help me, go to the Armstrong family for me."

There were no lawyers and no friends, Galilea finished the statement alone and sat in the corridor of the police station, waiting for the result. The TV screen hanging on the wall was broadcasting today's financial news, 'The Lorenzo group is expected to enter the real estate market at the end of this year... The Lorenzo group's business was really getting bigger and bigger. "Miss Frankie?" A voice sounded, Galilea looked up and saw a gentleman in a suit looking at him, "Who are you?" "My surname is Liu. I am a lawyer assigned to you by the social security department. I will help you with the follow-up questions." As he spoke, he handed Galilea a business card. "Sorry for the trouble," Galilea said, Twenty minutes later, Lawyer Liu sent Galilea out of the police station. 'I will follow up on other matters. Miss Frankie, don't worry.'" "As for the cost.." Galilea could tell that Lawyer Liu was very powerful. If not for his help, she didn't know how much time she would have to waste here. "This, you don't have to worry. It is all public welfare. It's just that there is no way to live in that apartment now. Miss Frankie needs to find another place to live." Lawyer Liu smiled, "Thank you' Galilea nodded. She returned to the apartment and rummaged through the ruins. She only found a few things that could still be used. Everything had to be done from the beginning again, From time to time, neighbors walked past the door and looked at Galilea with unfriendly eyes. "She is simply the God of Plagues' "Since she moved here, we have been restless Now, the whole building has almost been burned down Galilea turned her back to the door and sighed silently "What a coincidence, eh? Miss Frankie, you haven't moved out yet! The house is not livable anymore. The rest of your rent has been charged as compensation for the house, the landlord mumbled as she walked in "The cause of the fire hasn't been found yet. People might have deliberately." Miss Frankie, as you said, someone might have deliberately set the fire. Who is this person after? You must be responsible for this." A years rent had gone down the drain just like that, Sitting on a bench by the street and looking at the traffic flow, Galilea once again felt despair. Her phone buzzed she thought it was Nore calling She clicked on the screen and realized that it was a message from the court After seeing the contents clearly, Galilea immediately stood up from her chair and beckoned for a taxi. "Miss, where are you going? the driver asked. Maple Bay District A' When Galilea mentioned this place, her eyes flickered. It was the address of the Frankie family's old house. Ever since her father had an accident, this place had been seized and mortgaged by the court.

Chapter 245 Unpredictable After that, this place had nothing to do with her anymore When she really stood at the door of the Frankie family's old house, she felt as if she was stepping on the clouds. That unreal feeling was like a dream Her hand slowly reached out, and only when she touched the mottled spots on the iron door did she heave a sigh of relief. "Miss Frankie, your luck is really good. This house of yours has always been sealed and has not been sold successfully. As long as you fulfill the application procedures, this house will automatically be transferred under your name.' The staff member handled the matter formally and took out a pen and paper. 'Sign it.

When Galilea signed, her hands were shaking.

"Can I really take this house back?" "This is the key," the staff nodded. "How can there be such a good thing in this day and age? It's like a pie falling from the sky Although this house had been abandoned for several years and the yard was full of weeds, for Galilea, this was her own safe haven. She took a deep breath, pushed the door open, and slowly walked in. Not far behind her, a black car stopped at the intersection.

“Mr. Lorenzo, everything that you have instructed has been taken care of. Miss Frankie’ apartment has indeed been deliberately set on fire. The relevant personnel is currently investigating it, and her father’s old house will soon be registered under her name.”

Hearing this, the other side gave a few more instructions. ‘You’re too polite, Mr. Lorenzo. This is what I should do,’ said Lawyer Liu with a smile. He glanced at the cash bag on the co-pilot’s seat and thought to himself that the Lorenzo group was indeed strong and powerful. This was the number he gave the moment he made a move, At this time, the man sitting in the conference room on the top floor of the Royal Court Hotel put his phone aside. There were hundreds of documents piled on the table, and Keith was taking the staff to sort them out. “Did you really return the Frankie family’s old house to her? Did she accept it?’ Jasper rushed over in a hurry. Micah nodded. His eyes were deep and one could not see through his thoughts. “It’s good to return it to her. The two of you will be even. Although I don’t know why you have kept this house all the time.” When the Frankie family was in trouble, Micah had already prepared and cleared all the responsibilities. He also paid for the credited Frankie Group and the old house of the Frankie family as a third party. All these years, he had been secretly sending people to manage it. Otherwise, that old house would have been broken through by the Frankie family’s creditor. It seemed that Micah had won this revenge plan, but he had spent so much wealth and energy on the Frankie family that normal people could hardly imagine it. “However, you don’t seem to be very happy!”

Jasper said.

Micah paused as he flipped through the documents. His deep gaze fell on the information. ‘There was a small problem with the artificial intelligence project that the Lorenzo group invested in last year. Can I be happy?’ ‘Wasn’t Terry responsible for the project of that artificial intelligence robot?’ As soon as Jasper spoke, he thought of something. That kid can’t really have a betraying thought, right? “The Xu Group made the first step to publicize the various data of the new generation of intelligent robots. Every progress of theirs is one step faster than ours. The legal department has already started to prosecute the work.” Keith said from the side.

Chapter 246 She Slept Soundly

“You suspect that Terry betrayed the Lorenzo group?” Jasper reacted and gasped. He slapped his thigh and said, “No way. Although that kid has been a little arrogant in recent years, in the Lorenzo group he has been working with you until now. Is he really willing to destroy all the hard work?” Micah did not speak What he suspected Terry about was more than this. “If it really is him, then you have to be on guard.” Jasper furrowed his brows. The Lorenzo group had expanded very quickly these past few years. Many people were eyeing Micah’s every move like a tiger eyeing its prey At this time, if something went wrong, the consequences would be unimaginable. “The lawyer you helped me find is very agile. I still want to ask him to do something.” Micah put down the document and said slowly. “What?”

“My marriage procedures.” This time, Jasper was completely stunned. “You have decided. You really want to marry Dayana.” Micah did not answer. He just asked Keith to prepare his personal identification and then put on his coat. “I will go to the Quincy family and clean up those things that should have been cleared up. Galilea was right. He should not be an irresponsible person. Since he had repaid everything he owed her, he could now give her a free life in the end. Looking at Micah’s back, Jasper furrowed his brows. “Something is wrong.”

Galilea had no money to hire a part-time worker, so she cleaned the entire house with a broom and a rag.

She was exhausted and sweating. By the time she felt hungry, it was already past nine in the evening. Although she was so tired that she could not stand up, and there was no furniture in the house, she just sat in the living room on the first floor, which had long been emptied. The smile between her lips was so relaxed. “Dad, Mom, I’m back: She casually rested on a few pieces of clothes and slept on the floor for a night, She didn’t know if it were because she was too tired or because she had returned to a place she was familiar with. That night, she slept exceptionally soundly. A reminder from her mobile calendar sounded. Today was the first time that the Lorenzo group and the Frankie Group had accepted a collaboration project. After a simple wash, Galilea changed into some formal clothes and went to the Lorenzo group. She was alone and helpless. But this time, the Lorenzo group’s bodyguard did not block her outside the door. The staff at the front desk also came to greet her. Galilea nodded slightly and was about to go in when she heard footsteps behind her. ‘I was wondering who it was. Isn’t this Mr. Lorenzo’s ex-wife?’ Hanyu Williams sized up Galilea, looked up and down, and clicked his tongue, ‘I heard that you have been dating with the Armstrong family’s grandson again. Why are you still dressed so shabbily!’ Young Master Xu’s words are still so unpleasant to hear. Haven’t you been beaten enough?’ Galilea frowned. *You I’m too lazy to argue with you. I came here today to discuss big business with the Lorenzo group!’ Hanyu extended a finger and glared at her angrily There were dozens of assistant secretaries behind him. Compared to Galilea, they were on a completely different level. ‘If you know what’s good for you, get out of my way! “With only a beautiful face, you dare to block my way?’ Galilea stood where she was and took a deep breath. The employee of the Lorenzo group beside her also felt that Hanyu’s words were too unpleasant to hear. When she was about to comfort Galilea, she found that Galilea’s expression had recovered its calm. She even smiled and asked, ‘Is the cooperation between the Xu Group and the Lorenzo group going well? I saw the news that it is an artificial intelligence project “Ah, yes!’ The Lorenzo group’s employee did not expect Galilea’s psychological endurance to be so strong. She quickly pressed the elevator button, ‘That is the project that Mr. Xiao is in charge of. Before it is going to be released to the market, it is now waiting for the reply from the court.”

The court?”

“We have enough evidence in our hands, so the Xu Group has come to cooperate with us.’

Chapter 246 She Slept Soundly Galilea pondered this matter, and the more she thought about it, the more she felt that it was not so simple

Just looking at Hanyu who was in high spints just now, it did not look like he had stolen something from others and came to apologize It was clear that they had stolen the Lorenzo group's confidential data through some shady method, and they had made it public first just to force the Lorenzo group to cooperate with them. The Lorenzo group had no choice but to work together with the Williams Group in order to withdraw the funds that had been invested in the early stage *This is no longer a secret Everyone in the company has already spread the news. The employee brought Galilea to the door of the conference room. "When Mr. Lorenzo and Manager Gao arrive, there will be people from the project department to bring you there "Okay, thank you. Galilea was still thinking about the cooperation between the Xu Group and the Lorenzo group. Micah was such a shrewd person, it was impossible for him to be easily schemed against unless As she was thinking, she saw a group of people coming over from afar Micah walked in the front exuding a cold aura

His long and narrow eyes swept across her face Without stopping, he walked straight in front of her and pushed open the door to the conference room

Then, it was the Lorenzo group's people Galilea felt as if a cold wind had blown in front of her Before she could react, a stack of documents had been stuffed into her hands "Ms Frankie, let's have a meeting first. After the meeting, we will go to the project site. "Oh, okay Even though Galilea had been mentally prepared and learned a lot dunnig this period of time, when she really sat in the same conference room as Micah, she could still feel the pressure from his body What's the problem with the delay of seven days?' "After it's confirmed, hand it over to the third party." "And..

Every word he said was accurate and hit the point In just 15 minutes, he had finalized all the things before the check "Mr Lorenzo, the car is already waiting at the company entrance' Keith stepped forward and said, "The estimated distance is one hour

Micah did not say anything and just got up and walked out

Throughout the whole journey, he did not deliberately take care of Galilea as if she did not exist Even Keith was a little surprised, but he did not ask more

Before leaving, Galilea was arranged to go with Manager Gao of the project department and an employee in the same car

“Mr Lorenzo, we can go now The man glanced out of the window and watched the figure get into the car at the back. “Let’s go It was supposed to be an hour’s drive, but because the road to the west city was being repaired, after they were forced to take a detour, the three cars were blocked on the viaduct The whole road was filled with the sound of cars honking “Mr Lorenzo, Manager Gao and the others ate blocked at the back fork They can only get off the viaduct first and drive through the provincial road Keith reported immediately

The man who was sitting behind with his eyes closed suddenly opened his eyes Galilea was also in the car *19 it safe?

Keith was stunned for a moment and immediately replied, ‘There should be no problem.’

Should be? The man’s voice suddenly sank Two thirds of the land in the western city is in construction state If they took a detour, they would definitely pass through some undeveloped factories and villages. “At next intersection, take a detour

Chapter 247 Common Sense

Seeing that the sky was gradually darkening, Manager Gao frowned and looked at the time. It’s already forty minutes late. Is this the right route?

“Manager Gao, the navigation system has lost its function due to the positioning problem. We can only go to the main road first. After we have the signal, we can determine the direction. The assistant immediately said. Galilea looked at the weeds on the side of the road. “There should be no problem in this direction. That is the moat, but... I remember that there was a swamp here.” “Ms. Frankie, you don’t have to worry about this. The driver is a local.’

Galilea looked at the lights outside the window and unbuckled her seat belt.

“Mr. Lorenzo, all the people in their car have been lost. They can’t be accurately located, I only know that they are heading to the West City District *Dont tell me they are stuck in a swamp?’ Someone suggested. Inside the car, the man’s voice was cold and solemn. ‘Go find them immediately. “Yes, Mr.

Lorenzo!" Half an hour passed and there was no news.

The Lorenzo group immediately set up a few small teams and looked for them separately along the way to the West City District. "Mr. Lorenzo, are you going too? You have to meet Mr. Wilson tomorrow. If something goes wrong..." Keith hesitated Micah furrowed his brows and walked down the ramp. He remembered that Galilea was only wearing a thin windbreaker. The night wind was cold at this time, so he had to find her quickly. "Mr. Lorenzo, be careful!" "Is there a tire mark nearby?" Micah stepped on the slippery mud under his feet. "Yes, but it stopped here. Either they changed the way, or... they fell down.' The employee's voice became softer as he spoke because the expression of Micah was too scary. The man's cold gaze looked down under the moonlight, and it was dark "Mr. Lorenzo, the rescue team will arrive soon. For safety reasons, you should go back to the car first." Keith took the risk of being scolded.

Others might not know, but as Micah's personal assistant, he knew very well what the consequences would be if he could not find Galilea "Continue searching Micah only said these two words. Carrying his suit jacket, he walked down the hill. He couldn't bet on Galilea's safety.

"The two of you follow Mr. Lorenzo."

"Yes.

However, Micah was too eager to find her, so the Lorenzo group's employees lost him not long after they followed him. In addition, there was no signal on his phone. The two of them could only stay where they were and wait for orders. The other person quickly turned back and told Keith that their Mr. Lorenzo had also been out of contact! The soles of her shoes stepped on the dry leaves, making a creaking sound Galilea tilted her head and looked at the small fire burning in front of her. The three people sitting on the other side of her were more or less injured

"Do you want to eat it?*" Galilea shook the branch in her hand. There was a roasted sweet potato. The three of the looked at her pitifully at the same time and nodded repeatedly Galilea was very satisfied with their reaction. It's okay. It's not freezing yel. Since I found this, I can eat it." *Can you give us some...' 'NoGalilea refused without waiting for them to finish their sentence.

God knew how long it would take for the rescuers to find them. She had to maintain her strength and could not be dragged down by these tree fools. Shefiad said that there was a swamp nearby, but they did not listen. When the car rolled down the hill only Galilea jumped out of the car in time. The three of them were badly injured from the fall, and she was the one who pulled them out of the mire. Now, they still wanted to eat her dinner? There was no way! if not for their mistake, she would not have starved and frozen here. Galilea thought this and ate even faster. The three people on the opposite side were dooling

Chapter 247 Common Sense But Galilea had no intention of sharing with them at all.

The three men were hungry at this time, and their bodies were injured. They gasped in pain. "There is no signal in this broken place. What bad luck."

Galilea was too lazy to listen to their complaints. She got up to pack up the garbage and then stepped on the fire to extinguish it.

"What are you doing! Are you going to freeze us to death?" the driver screamed Galilea couldn't help but roll her eyes She looked at the three sleepy men in front of her. "Are you sure that you won't sleep for a night and watch this fire? If the fire breaks out, all the trees will be burned away. Do you want to be burned to death?"

The driver had nothing to say and sat back down resentfully, muttering something

Galilea was too lazy to pay attention to him. She sat under a big tree on the other side. Above her was the endless night sky, but there was no star

She wrapped her coat around herself and suddenly heard the rustling sound of footsteps.

It was very light, but it was getting closer and closer,

She looked back at the three men, frowned, and walked towards them,

"Get up

"Don't even think about stealing our place!" "Alright, then you can sit down." Galilea turned around and looked at the three men. The three men looked at each other. Manager Gao was the first to stand up and follow Galilea up the hill. The driver and the employee were still squatting in place. But in a few minutes, they screamed and ran. "There are dogs!" They were not pet dogs in the community, but a group of wild dogs living nearby and looking for food everywhere Galilea and Manager Gao had walked in the other direction and they did not need to run away. Manager Gao took a breath Fortunately, he had made the right choice!

The luck of those two people was obviously not as good as his Manager Gao squeezed out a smile. "Ms. Frankie, how did you know?"

"Common sense

Galilea only replied with this one sentence, her eyes searching the path beneath her feet.

Manager Gao followed her carefully. He didn't dare to move or ask too much No wonder she was Micah's woman.

"Manager Gao "Yes! Manager Gao immediately perked up when he heard Galilea call for him. "Ms. Frankie, what is it?"

"Can you lend me your tie?" Manager Gao looked down and immediately took it off. "No problem," he said. Galilea weighed the tie in her hand and shook it a few times Then, she threw it away. The tie was hung on the highest branch and the silver decorative threads on it were very eye-catching

"The search and rescue team will find it easily like this.' Galilea was quite satisfied.

Manager Gao nodded reluctantly behind her He had just bought his lie "Ms Frankie, what should we do now? Should we look for them? "No, Galilea said as she looked down the bridge.

"Then.

"If you want to go, you can go by yourself."

Manager Goo immediately shook his head I will follow you!*

But in fact, he still had a bigger question in his mind. Galileo was clearly a rich young lady who lived a comfortable life. How could she have so much common sense?

Chapter 248 Survival Instinct

Galilea walked to the bridge, looked around, and compared it to the tree with Manager Gao's tie. "This distance is just right. If there are rescue personnel coming over, we can see them immediately. If bad people come, we will have a way out." "Who else can it be other than rescue personnel? Manager Gao did not understand "There are unfinished factories and shanty areas nearby. There are no surveillance cameras, and there is no signal on the mobile phone. Anything can happen." Galilea lowered her head and sorted out the branches under her feet. It was a good thing to encounter a group of wild dogs. In this world, people were the most terrifying, especially those who had no way out. In order to survive, they could do anything "Manager Gao, was the route to the project inspection today decided in advance?

.. Yes, it was decided at the meeting." Manager Gao looked at Galilea. A few seconds later, he shook his head repeatedly. "There won't be anyone behind the scenes, right? 'Not necessarily.' The corners of Galilea's mouth twitched. It was not difficult to create a few traffic accidents. Especially for powerful people like Terry. Galilea narrowed her eyes. Assuming that all of this had been secretly planned by someone, this night would be destined not to be peaceful. They might not be able to wait until rescue personnel came at all. Manager Gao was also a smart person After Galilea said this, he muttered in a low voice, "It was Vice President Xiao's assistant who asked before. : As soon as he finished speaking, he suddenly opened his eyes wide, "Ms. Frankie, you won't suspect that there is a traitor in our company, right? That is Vice President Xiao, it's impossible. Galilea lowered her head. She was not sure who Manager Gao was.

I didn't say that I was just casually asking about your company's arrangements. These words were watertight Manager Gao swallowed his saliva and wiped the cold sweat off his forehead in a panic "Yes, yes, yes. You didn't ask anything, and I didn't say anything" The night was dark and the wind was high. The bridge hole that Galilea found was well sheltered from the wind and they were not very cold

Manager Gao squatted on the ground and was extremely sleepy Galilea tilted her head and saw someone walking towards the tree with a lie from afar. But there was only one person Galilea narrowed her eyes and subconsciously hid behind. It just so happened that Manager Gao's head sank, and he fell onto a withered tree branch next to him. "Ah", As he shouted, the man noticed their position 'Stupid! Run!' Galilea reached out and grabbed Manager Gao. She had already seen the nearby terrain and knew where to hide. Manager Gao was so scared that his head was covered in a cold sweat 'Ms. Frankie, who is chasing us?' 'I don't know.'" Galilea was too lazy to explain to him Firstly, she was indeed unsure of the other party's identity. Secondly, under such circumstances, she had no time to waste on him "Then are we still going to run? I can't run anymore." "Up to you." Galilea said coldly. She continued to run forward. Not long after, she heard Manager Gao's scream). Galilea's physical strength was almost at its limit, so she had to find a place to hide. She vaguely saw three or four men huddled together, speaking in a foreign accent, "Bitch, you run pretty fast. You even know how to ask for help. Fortunately, I found it out early." "She can't run too far. Let's spread out to search!" Galilea bent down, afraid that she would be discovered and reluctantly hid in a patch of dry grass, not daring to make a sound. After about five or six minutes, she was about to look up to see the situation when she suddenly noticed someone behind her. She immediately took out a sharpened branch and held it in her palm. Just as the man's hand touched her shoulder, she turned around and stabbed out with her right hand.

Chapter 248 Survival Instinct

He dodged to the side as his arm scratched

Micah? Galilea did not see his face clearly, but his voice was familiar to her. "Wiry and you here?" Could it be that Terry really wanted to take the Lorenzo group for himself, and he even dared to scheme against Micah? The man's eyes looked even colder in the night. After confirming with his own eyes that she was fine and that she still had the strength to defend herself, the worry between his brows gradually dissipated. "My car also went the wrong way," he said, looking behind Galilea. "Someone is chasing you. He was very concerned about her nervous and guarded appearance just now. She also had a self-defense branch in her hand. If the first person to find her was not him, the consequences would be hard to predict." "Yes, three or four foreign men. I didn't see their faces clearly," Galilea said and put the branch back into her pocket. She turned back and looked. There is no signal in this cell phone. The search and rescue team has not arrived until now. I suspect. "Come with me first. Without waiting for her to finish, Micah daped his coat over her and grabbed her waist. On the way here just now, he had already left a mark on Keith and the others. However, he had only taken a few steps when Galilea tugged at him. "Don't you feel that it's too quiet?" The man tilted his head, his eyes deep. Galilea still wanted to explain, but he had already pulled her into his arms. Then, he exerted force on his wrist and pulled her over. She raised her head to resist. He lowered his eyes, lowered his voice, and said in an extremely cold tone, "Someone is coming." Galilea did not dare to move and leaned into his arms. Otherwise, both of them would be discovered. Sure enough it was the few foreign men that Galilea had seen. One of them found the mark left by Micah along the way and found this place. Galilea raised her head and glared at him.

It was as if she was blaming him!

Micah nodded helplessly. His lips moved as he silently replied. "It's my fault. Galilea was too lazy to argue with him. She frowned as she looked at the few people and listened carefully to the movements. However, the closest thing to her ears was the sound of Micah's heartbeat. It was steady and powerful.

striking straight at her soul again and again. Galilea couldn't help but want to retaliate! But the man stopped her and shook his head lightly. The situation was special. Galilea had to maintain her original posture. Micah's lower jaw was pressed against her cheek, and the man's thin lips slowly curved up.

"I didn't see anyone!" Search again. Those people are also about to find this place too. Hutuyup. The leader card. Therefore, Micah tugged the person in his arms even tighter. Galilea did not resist.

The two of them wobbled in place for a long time before Galilea felt her body freeze. She slowly raised her head and asked in a low voice, "Here they left?" From her angle, she could not see the situation over there.

No! Yes! Micah said directly. His selfishness caused Tom to reluctantly let go only when he saw Keith's car. It is a right now. Galilea immediately took a big step back and kept a distance from him. The man frowned. She couldn't wait 10 seconds to clear a line with him as soon as she was out of danger? This feeling made him very displeased. "Mr. Lorenzo, it will take an hour for the rescue team to arrive. In addition, the Priestley family and Luciferny's personal bodyguards have been dispatched and Zongeng Priestley has come personally. "Uncle Priestley is here too. Galilea hurriedly ran over.

Chapter 250 As Expected

He was too close to her.

It was so close that Galilea could clearly hear his heartbeat. In a trance, her mind was in a mess. She gnashed her teeth and pushed. "That is my business. You have no right to interfere." A hint of disappointment lashed through Micah's eyes, but it quickly disappeared without a trace. He suppressed his expression and nodded lightly. "That's right." The moonlight enveloped both of them, and no one spoke again. "Dayana and I. Before Micah could finish his sentence, there was a knock on the door. "Mr. Lorenzo, we've investigated everything. Keith answered. "Come in. Micah rubbed his forehead and walked to the single couch beside him. Keith brought Manager Gao and the others in and saw the messy bedsheets, dim lights, Galilea who was sitting on the bed, and Micah, who had a displeased expression on the side. All of a sudden, the few of them sucked in a breath of cold air. Keith was even more silently cursing in his heart. Could it be that he was going to lose his job? Micah didn't see them open their mouths and coldly berated, "Speak!" "Mr. Lorenzo, we have checked the GPS and everyone's mobile phones. We found that Manager Gao and Manager Zhang's mobile phones have been installed with locators and bugs. They suspect that a commercial spy has stolen the information. 'The foreigners who chased Manager Gao and Ms. Frankie have also been found. They are stowaways, but they have not revealed anything yet.' "Who is the most suspicious? I only need the result. Micah looked over.

His personality had always been like this. They all looked at Keith at the same time

Vice President Xiao' After Keith finished speaking, he glanced at Manager Gao. Manager Gao and the others quickly explained 'The few of us have carefully thought about it. The person who is most likely to leak the information is Vice President Xiao's assistant

Other than him, there can't be anyone else." "Do you know what you are talking about?' Micah narrowed his eyes. Manager Gao trembled "Mr Lorenzo, we don't dare to make wild guesses, but the matter is definitely related to Vice President Xiao's assistant Manager Gao humedly ben! dowth and bowed ninety degrees

71 it were someone else asking you would your answers be the same? "Same!"

Only then did Micalis expression ease up a bit. He raised his hand, and Keith immediately took them out. The door closed, and the few of them heaved a sigh of relief at the same time Especially Manager Goo On this day, he had followed Galilea everywhere and was already under great pressure Now that he was finally safe, he still had to face Micah's interrogation He must eat some pills to calm his mind!

Keith immediately told the hotel to send a double person food package to Micah's room with a boitle of red wine Manajer Goo heard it from the side and couldn't help but give a thumbs up, "Keith, you are the best in this case, you can still work so calmly Keith reluctantly moved the comers of his lips and quickly left He only knew better than them who the president cored about the most

There was a reason why he could remain in his position for so long Sure enough, when Galilea saw the table full of dishes, she temporarily forgot her dissatisfaction with the man next to her and started to eat like a worland

Micah cow that she was eating happily, and his frown slowly relaxed

Alter eatng and drinking her fills, Galiton put down the chopsticks and was about to leave 'The nearby roads are under construction Do you plan to walk back to the city?' His light words shallered Gallego thoughts of

Chapter 250 A xpected

Then you go out

Galilea looked at him as if she was guarding against a thief "Alright Micalis expression was cold and gloomy Only when he left would she be able to sleep at ease. However, in this kind of unclear situation, he was worried that she would be alone 'Go to sleep

As he npoke, he closed the door

Galilea tilted her head and listened by the door for a while. After making sure that the footsteps were getting farther and farther away, she turned back to look at the empty room and took a deep breath. She fell on the bed and soon fell asleep again. Outside the door, Mical swiped his card and took off his coat. He stayed on the sofa in the other room. Only in the way could he confirm that she was alone.

The next morning

"Mr. Lorenzo Vice President Xino is here." Keith knocked on the door. Mical looked up and saw Dayana following behind Terry. The two of them walked over one after the other. When Terry saw that Mical was pale and round, his frown deepened. However, when he saw Mical he was full of concern. "Are you all right? I rushed over as soon as I received the news. What do you need me for?"

Mical did not say anything and just looked at him.

Terry scratched his head anxiously "Mical, don't look at me like that. No matter how different I am in terms of future development, we are partners who have walked together until now. I want you to live more than anyone else if something happens to you, the first suspect is me. Am I that stupid?"

This was also one of the reasons why Mical had never been sure Terry had always been slaved and arrogant. He could have openly declared war on him face to face. Moreover, it was Galilea who had been forgotten. He should know that if something happened to Galilea, it would be very difficult to end the matter. Terry looked at the crying Dayana behind him and said angrily, "Neo, your lancee insisted on coming with me. I have nothing to do with her. I'll wait for you downstairs."

He turned around and fell without looking at Dayana, On the other side, Dayana cried and threw herself into Micah's arms. 'Micah, why didn't you pick up your phone when I called you?! I was worried to death The news said that there were many traffic accidents here. I was afraid that something would happen to you! I would have thought that our child would lose his father before he was born

She cried more and more, and her tears seemed to be unable to stop

Micah held her hand, Helvad already made it clear last time

'Don't cry He was really upset. He looked back at the closed door and had to take Dayana out first However, he did not know that Galileo had woken up a long time ago,

Ever since the family had an accident, she had become a light sleeper She would wake up from her dream if there was even the slightest movement,

When Keith knocked on the door just now, she had already woken up

It was unintentional to have heard their conversation After all, the hotel room was not soundproof

It was quiet again outside

Galilea looked at her face reflected in the mirror Her eyes shook slightly, and she chuckled 'So, there is no difference

Whether Micah really cared about her or not was not important

After sorting Dayana down, Micah returned to his room, but he could not find Galilea

"Mr Lorenzo, Ms Frankie has already returned to the city Keith's eyebrows were locked
