Chapter 71 It Started Again

Galilea's evaluation was reasonable, and her eyes were not blinded by hatred. She also affirmed the Lorenzo group's mature operation method.

"So, I think that the Lorenzo group is still the best choice among the many cooperation candidates. What do you think?" Galilea asked.

"What Miss Frankie said is exactly what I thought. I just deliberately kept you in suspense. I didn't expect you to give me such a big surprise." Mr. Opplé couldn't help but praise.

"Then I wish you a pleasant cooperation in advance." Galilea raised her champagne glass.

Mr. Opplé also raised his glass at the same time, but after touching it, he did not drink it directly. "Miss Frankie, can I ask you a question?"

"Please go ahead."

"Why do you want to help him?"

He was referring to Micah.

Galilea's eyes darkened as she pushed the champagne glass to the side. "He was my husband. If he falls because of this, I will look down on him."

Moreover, the Lorenzo group would fall sooner or later, but it could only fall into her hands.

She wanted to see the high and mighty Micah lose. It was just a cooperative relationship. What she wanted to tell Micah was that she, Galilea, could play the Lorenzo group's future in her hands.

Mr. Opplé did not understand the meaning.

The man behind the curtain heard it clearly. Galilea's hatred for him had increased, but the current Galilea would not be so reckless as to throw herself into a flame like a moth. She was just waiting for a chance to defeat him in one blow.

Micah rubbed the silver watch on his wrist, and his face was full of coldness.

A few minutes later, Galilea excused herself,

Micah took the opportunity and took the initiative to show up. The two of them had an extremely tacit understanding of each other. After a few chats, Micah cut to the chase and gave Mr. Opplé a minimum price that he could not refuse.

"You clearly heard the conversation between me and Miss Frankie just now. Why are you still giving me such a low price?" Mr. Opplé smiled deeply

"Of course, I don't want to lose such a good partner like your company. Happy cooperation."

He raised his glass. The crisp clinking sound reminded him of the night of a business meeting.

Galilea called a few times, but he did not pick up.

At that time, they were not married. The friends around him all envied him for having such a fiancée who cared about him, but only he knew in his heart that Galilea wanted him to attend Onyx's birthday banquet.

How could he go?

From beginning to end, he was using Galilea.

There would be no extra feelings between them, absolutely not

The banquet was still going on. In another fifteen minutes, there would be a catwalk performance on the central runway Galilea looked at the time on her watch, thinking that she should find an opportunity to slip away.

Chapter 71 It Started Again Unexpectedly, someone bumped into her.

"Galilea, stop right there." Dayana lifted her skirt, her eyes filled with hatred.

Galilea turned to look at her and asked in amusement, "What's the matter?"

"Why did you seduce Micah again? He already has a fiancée. You are really shameless."

Her voice was not loud, and the people around looked over.

One of them was dressed gorgeously and started to curse.

The other one had an indifferent expression and an outstanding temperament.

When they heard this, everyone looked at Galilea with more disdain.

Some of MON's employees saw this scene from afar and even specially took a photo and sent it to the small group of employees. "Sister Anna, Galilea is fighting with someone again." Anna, who was helping Zhang Min choose the ring, saw this message and sent a voice message in anger.

"Can't you watch Galilea? Tell her that if she causes trouble again, she should get out of the company immediately!"

Zhang Min looked up at the makeup mirror and pretended to ask her assistant, "Who matched this set of jewelry?" "It's MON's Galilea. She seems to be a newcomer. Sister Min, if you are not satisfied, you still have time to change," the assistant said.

"No need, I like it very much. I will need her for the next show," Zhang Min said with a smile.

She casually picked a golden ring and walked backstage.

Hearing the meaning of this, Anna wiped the cold sweat on her forehead and gritted her teeth, "This Galilea..."

She put down the things at hand and immediately rushed over.

If Galilea and Dayana had a head-on conflict, the Lorenzo group was behind Dayana!

But Anna rushed over and saw many people gathered together.

She squeezed in with great difficulty and saw Dayana standing there crying. Galilea had already disappeared.

“What’s going on? Galilea hit her?” Anna grabbed Liu Yuanyuan.

Liu Yuanyuan shook her head.

“Then why is Dayana crying?” Anna frowned. In this line of work, they had more or less dealt with artists and celebrities. With Dayana’s appearance, she was destined to be unable to make a name for herself.

Everyone gave her face and called her Sister Dayana because they saw that there was the Lorenzo group behind her.

If there was no Micah, even if Dayana cried to death here, no one would pay attention to her.

Liu Yuanyuan opened her mouth and slowly said, “She cried because of Galilea. Galilea’s quarrel was too fierce.”

“What?”

“Where is Galilea?” Anna was speechless.

“She was taken away by Nore and went to the back.” Liu Yuanyuan’s mind was still surrounded by the scene of Galilea cursing just now.

She felt she had learned a lot from Colila

Chapter 71 It Started Again Dayana cried more and more without tears, leaving only a pair of eyes with thick makeup, blinking non-stop.

She wanted to cry until Micah came to find her, but after crying for a long time, Micah still did not come over, with only more and more people gathering around. “Dayana, let’s go first.” Elisa couldn’t stand it anymore and whispered into Dayana’s ear, “Your makeup is all over now. It won’t be good if you get photographed by the reporters.”

The company still had to spend money to change the hot search for her. No, with Dayana’s position, even her ugly photos were not qualified to enter the hot search. “Where is Micah?” Dayana gnashed her teeth. “I don’t know. I didn’t see Mr. Lorenzo just now. Let’s go first.” Elisa forcefully pulled Dayana up.

Dayana wiped her tears and had no choice but to follow her.

In the distance, Micah’s figure appeared ‘next to the fence on the second floor. He had just ended his conversation with Mr. Opple when he saw Galilea’s talks reducing Dayana to nothing.

Behind him, Keith asked in a low voice, “Mr. Lorenzo, the contract has been finalized. When do you want to book the plane ticket?”

Chapter 72 Apologize!

His words pulled back Micah’s thoughts.

He pressed down on his aching temple and said coldly, “Tomorrow.”

Micah's line of sight circled the banquet hall and fixed on a certain figure. He stepped down the steps with long legs and walked straight through the crowd.

On the other side of his line of sight, Galilea was being pulled out by Nore.

"How was my performance just now? I think there is still room for improvement." Galilea lifted her skirt and asked with a frown.

Nore glanced at her with a headache, "You will definitely become a popular person in this Fashion Week tomorrow."

He knew that she had already restrained her sharpness.

That Dayana was too soft.

"Of course, I..." There was still some pride in Galilea's words.

"Let's talk." Micah interrupted her next words.

Galilea was shocked to see such a person suddenly appear behind her. Then, she said, "Oh," and was about to go over.

Nore frowned and pulled Galilea to his side. "What are you going to talk about? She has nothing to talk about with you."

"It's fine," Galilea poked her head out from behind him and patted his shoulder.

Nore did not move.

"Mr. Lubi does not treat himself as an outsider, but you have no right to interfere in the matters between me and Galilea," Micah said coldly.

After he finished speaking, he walked out.

"He still owes me a promise that he has not fulfilled, I will go and urge him," Galilea said softly.

As she spoke, she chased after Micah.

Nore stood where he was, his fists slowly tightening under his sleeves. At least there was one sentence that Micah was not wrong about.

He could not force Galilea to erase a part of her life as a pursuer.

And that part was Micah. The sea breeze was blowing outside, and Galilea, who was wearing a strapless outfit, shivered from the cold.

Micah glanced at her and continued to walk to the car in front. He opened the door and got in.

Galilea did not hesitate and followed closely behind.

Although she did not want to be in the same car as him, she did not want to catch a cold from the sea breeze,

After a while, Micah gave the driver a look, and the driver pressed the button on the air conditioner and got out of the car.

Galilea felt much more comfortable and breathed a sigh of relief.

"When will you hold the wedding?" She asked directly.

"Very soon" Micah said as he lanced at Galilea

No one would be urged to get mated by their wives

"Ok, then I'll wait for your news, Galilea said

She spoke so

sually as if she was waiting for a good show

Suddenly, a hand grabbed her wrist followed by a mans deep warning Dont think about destroying anything anymore

She pretended to be calm "Mi Lorenzo is afraid, you can be a villain who goes back on this word ! can't do anything to you."

" Mr Lorenzo has nothing to do, stay away from me, lest your fiancee comes to make a scene in front of me again

"Next time, I wont have such a good temper, she said as she pushed open the door.

Micano face was filled with coldness as his gaze locred onto the figure that had walked far away

Just now, when Dayana went to pick a fight, he was watching from not far away

Boyana had only said one sentence when she was scolded by Galilea until she couldn't speak

When you were leaning against Micah, he hadnt divorced me yet Alent you a thief now shouting to

"I have a grudge against the Lorenzo group, and I will never want him back Swallow your dirty thoughts back to your stomach I can do something as stupid as putting my face on his cold butt like you."

The man touched his eyebrows Why haanine known that Calilea had such a side in the past?

Micah pursed his thin lips

He tumed his head and saw that Galilea and Nore had walked down the stairs together. She was wearing Norts out on her shoulder

This would be the only time they were working together.

Back at the hotel, Galilea changed her clothes and removed her makeup Liu Yuanyuan knocked on the

"You came at the right time I'll return these accessories to you. Thank you for today." Galilea yawned as the spore She was a little sleepy

Liu Yuanyuan looked at her womedly, "This is a small matter Aren't you afraid after scolding Dayana in public today? What ami afraid of? Galilea leaned on the sofa with a suspicious look in her eyes

“Her fiancé is Micah. Moreover, she is the Quincy family’s daughter. Although the Quincy family’s status in Cloud Town is not high, she is still the daughter of a rich family. Liu Yuanyuan read too many gossip magazines and snickered in a low voice

“Ah, the world has really changed. Any Tom, Dick, or Harry can be a rich family, Galilea shook her head in contempt, ‘Rainerber Cloud Town only has three big families.’” including the Frankie group and the Lorenzo group, they were all ordinary families in front of the three. As for the Quincy family, Galilea really couldn’t hold back her laughter.

Chapter 72 Apologize! Were they even worthy? “It’s good that you know what to do. Galilea, I really admire you. You were so brave.” “Doesn’t that sound derogatory?” Galilea thought.

“No, it doesn’t.”

Liu Yuanyuan shook her head. She did not dare to provoke Galilea. “However, Sister Anna should have already received the news. Maybe she will come to you.”

Galilea supported her chin with one hand. Before she could speak, there was already a sound outside.

She raised her chin, and Liu Yuanyuan immediately got up to open the door,

Anna walked in the front, followed by Dayana, her agent Elisa, and a few employees of MON. Galilea saw a group of people walking in, who instantly filled her room to the brim. They had disturbed her sleepiness, and she immediately became somewhat unhappy. “Go and apologize to Miss Quincy.” Anna said with a frown.

“That’s impossible,” Galilea said as she raised her eyes.

“I’ll tell you as the head of the interns. If you don’t apologize today, leave MON immediately after we return to the country.” Anna said with a stern expression,

“Why?”

Galilea pointed at Dayana, “Just because of my personal grudge with her? I didn’t expect that Dayana was so powerful that she could control MON’S HR.”

“Or are you secretly colluding with each other?”

“Don’t talk nonsense!” Anna immediately shouted.

She wanted to give Galilea a way out. If Galilea stayed with MON, she would have to deal with celebrities. There was no need to make enemies for herself.

Moreover, as the person in charge, she didn’t want her subordinates to be at odds with Dayana.

“Galilea, Sister Anna only asked you to apologize. What are you talking about?” Someone said from behind.

“You are now an intern of MON. Your every move represents the image of the company. What’s the use of being eloquent? If you do have the ability, take your ex-husband back!”

Chapter 73 Under Control

The word “ex-husband” was really harsh.

Galilea ignored them, but that did not mean that she would continue to tolerate them.

As more and more discussions arose, Dayana’s tsundere temper surged up, “For the sake of Anna, I can forgive you this time, as long as...”

“Do you want me to kneel down and apologize to you, or do you want me to be your assistant for a week and let you bully me?” Dayana raised her eyebrows. So what if she was once the daughter of the Frankie family!

Wasn’t she going to admit defeat in front of her now? No one was going to support her anymore.

“Either way. I am very easygoing. If you knew this would happen, you shouldn’t have treated me like that in the banquet hall just now. You were really asking for trouble.” Dayana smiled coquettishly

Those who denounced Galilea for Dayana all showed a deep contempt.

In this circle, if you won, you would have everything.

If you lost...

Galilea curled her lips and walked towards Dayana step by step. She raised her hand and pressed her fingertips on Dayana’s shoulder. “I didn’t make a move just now because I was wearing a dress. It might have caused you to misunderstand. In fact, I am a violent woman.” Dayana was shocked and subconsciously retreated,

She was pregnant now!

In her mind, what Galilea had done to her that day in the bathroom popped up

“It’s too late to be afraid now,” Galilea said with a chuckle.

She didn’t even need to make a move. Dayana was already frightened to the point that her legs went soft. There were even people who had stepped forward to protect Dayana.

“Galilea, don’t go too far. Miss Quincy is pregnant!”

“That’s right. You and Mr. Lorenzo are history now. Is it appropriate for you to stare at her like this?” Dayana hid in the crowd and revealed a triumphant smile. She wanted to see how Galilea would drown in everyone’s spittle.

However, when Galilea heard these words, she rubbed her ears impatiently. “Have you said enough?

This is my room. Please, get out.”

“I have already given you a way out. Don’t be so ungrateful. Although Dayana is not famous, she is still a star. Why do you have to make things difficult for her? You are just a small intern. What are you proud of?”

Galilea blinked, her bright eyes filled with helplessness,

She took out her phone and dialed a number.

She only said two words.

“Hurry up and apologize to her and settle this matter. Otherwise, when you return to the company, no one will protect you.” Anna urged,

“Wait a little longer,” Galilea said with a faint smile.

“Woi! for what?” Anna did not understand.

Then, Elisa’s phone rang.

Chapter 73 Under Control “Alright, alright, I got it. I... I’ll deal with it right away,” she said, looking at Galilea in shock.

“Alright, we think this is their private matter after all. Let them talk alone. Sorry to have troubled everyone, let’s go rest first.”

Elisa kept winking at Dayana.

“Galilea got some photos of you before your debut. It has a great impact on your image. She also sent an email to the company, asking for five hundred thousand.”

“What?”

“In her dreams!” Dayana widened her beautiful eyes.

“Take a look first.”

Elisa stuffed her phone into Dayana’s hands. Then, she pulled MON’s employees away and closed the door from the outside. In the room, only Dayana and Galilea were left,

Galilea leaned back and sat on the sofa. “Originally, I didn’t intend to act so quickly, but if you keep provoking me, don’t blame me.”

“I have a lot of interesting content like that. Although you are not famous, your fiance is Micah. If his partners see his fiancée’s private life being so chaotic...”

Dayana’s hands kept shaking.

She had clearly spent money to get people to delete these photos!

“Galilea, I’ll give you the money. You want 500,000, right? I’ll send you right now. Give me the rest of the photos.”

“Is this your attitude of asking for help?”

Galilea tilted her head, took out her phone, opened the video, and waved.

Dayana swallowed her saliva and walked over.

“Laugh.”

Dayana grinned.

“So ugly, try again?”

Galilea was not satisfied, so Dayana could only continue to laugh. Not only did she have to laugh, but Galilea also made her wear the expression that was about to cry, singing and dancing.

Occasionally she would lazily remind Dayana to control her expression.

“With such acting skills, how can you be a star?”

“Look at the camera, I’m still recording.”

Galilea’s impatient voice sounded from the room from time to time.

Elisa leaned against the door and listened nervously. When the lift door opened, Micah and Keith walked out. She immediately ran over. “Mr. Lorenzo, go and take a look. Dayana was bullied by Galilea again. She locked Dayana inside. I don’t know what’s going on!”

“Where is Galilea?” Micah asked with a cold frown.

“She’s inside too,” Elisa explained what had happened just now, not mentioning how Dayana had brought a large group of people to Galilea’s room to cause trouble.

She put all the blames on Galilea. “I’m really too worried, and I don’t dare to tell the people in the hotel. If it gets out of hand, it will affect Dayana’s future career.” “Mr. Lorenzo, I’ll go knock first.” Keith interrupted her

Chapter 73 Under Control Micah didn’t stop him, so he acquiesced.

Dong.

Galilea raised her eyebrows. They came so late that her phone was almost out of battery.

“Who is it?”

“Miss Frankie, it’s me, Keith.” Dayana immediately laughed with tears in her eyes. Looking at her expression, Galilea tsked and lowered her voice. “You must think that your Prince Charming has come to save you.” Dayana choked on her words.

She did not dare to answer.

If she answered it in the wrong way, Galilea would definitely change her ways to torment her again. She was really tired, and her ankle was starting to ache.

“Maybe Micah has something to talk to me about. I should go out for a while, lest he becomes suspicious and thinks that you were bullying me.”

Chapter 74 Coincidence

After Dayana finished speaking, she quickly walked towards the door.

Unexpectedly, Galilea lightly said from behind, “What about the photos?”

Dayana’s hand even touched the doorknob.

"I remember the phone number of the Quincy Group is.." Galilea deliberately raised the decibel.

If she sent those photos to her father, Dayana did not dare to imagine the consequences.

"Keith, I am fine. You can go back." Dayana shouted at the outside, then took a few steps back and stood aside obediently.

Galilea smiled in satisfaction at her quick wits.

She gestured for her to step back.

Of course, Dayana did as she said.

Galilea frowned. Wouldn't it be boring if she was so obedient?

She opened the door and looked at Keith confidently. Finally, her eyes fell on Micah, who was behind him.

"What's the matter?"

Elisa immediately rushed in and pulled Dayana, saying, "It's okay. Dayana, Mr. Lorenzo is here. He is here to save you."

These words sounded like Galilea's room was a place of tigers and wolves.

Micah stepped forward and looked around Dayana to confirm that she was fine. Then he looked at Galilea.

"What happened?"

His expression was like questioning his subordinates who had done something wrong.

Hearing the official tone, Galilea calmly took out her phone. "Your fiancée is afraid that I haven't seen enough performances in the Fashion Week, so she came to my room to show me the dance. There is a video as proof."

Who would believe this?

Micah looked at the pictures on the screen and frowned.

He turned and said to Keith, "Send her back to her room first."

"Yes."

Galilea looked at him, her eyes blinking as if she was planning something again.

The door closed again.

"Elisa, you guard the door. If anything happens, tell me immediately." Dayana looked back, unwilling to give up.

Elisa hurriedly nodded.

But before she could take a step, she was stopped by Keith.

“The two of you should return to your room first. Don’t make Mr. Lorenzo unhappy.”

“I’m worried about him.” Dayana forced a smile. Her heart was about to jump out of her throat. What if Galilea was fickle and showed those photos to Micah? What should she do?

She could not sit still and wait for death!

Chapter 74 Coincidence “Elisa, go.”

“Miss Quincy should return to your room first. Maybe later, Mr. Lorenzo will personally tell you a piece of good news.”

Dayana knew that he was one of the most trusted people around Micah. She did not want to have a conflict with him.

But how could she care about the good news in her mind right now?

She pushed open the door in a daze and Elisa followed closely behind.

“Dayana, what should we do? Are we really going to give her five hundred thousand?”

“Yes.” Dayana gnashed her teeth in hatred. At this time, Wendy called.

Due to the time difference, the Fashion Week had just been broadcasted by Cloud Town.

Wendy had thought Dayana must be in a good mood and had specially called to close the relationship.

She did not expect that Dayana had just been fooled by Galilea and was in a bad mood.

“Don’t call me if you have nothing to do!” Dayana shouted at the phone.

Wendy originally wanted to let Lachlan know how much she was trying to curry favor with his daughter, and also wanted to tell him that they had eased their relationship.

Lachlan was reading the newspaper, and when he heard his daughter’s voice, his face immediately fell.

“What’s wrong, Dayana? Who made you unhappy? Is it Galilea?” Wendy asked in a low voice.

With this thought in her mind, she immediately walked into the restaurant.

“Who else could it be?” Dayana shouted and told the story.

On the other side, Wendy did not speak for a long time.

“Speak! Are you dumb?”

“Um, I have some money here. I will transfer it to you first. You should buy the photos first. Then, you...”

After listening to Wendy, Dayana’s expression slowly eased.

Galilea patiently beat around the bush with Micah.

At this time, Micah stared at her and felt that she was like a cunning cat. No one could catch her tail or escape her calculations.

“I have already sent people to prepare for the wedding as you said.” His tone relaxed and he changed the topic.

“Mr. Lorenzo has always been very efficient.” Galilea nodded.

In fact, even if she didn’t say it, they would have a wedding sooner or later. Would he, Micah, treat his woman unfairly?

Galilea just wanted her plan to progress faster.

It was time for her to meet that person.

As for Micah, he was just a chess piece in her hand.

She raised her eyes, the light in her eyes so faint that she did not care about the man in front of her at all.

Micah could clearly feel her alienation towards him.

Before he could finish his sentence, someone knocked on the door.

Galilea frowned in annoyance. The door opened and Nore stood outside with some midnight snacks in 10:11

Chapter 74 Coincidence his hand. “Are you hungry? I bought you some side dishes and porridge.” As he spoke, his gaze caught a glimpse of the man on the sofa inside. Galilea thanked him and was not surprised to see that Xu Ya was following behind Nore. Xu Ya leaned out and asked cautiously, “Sister Galilea, are you alright? I saw that the situation was not right just now, so I specially called Brother Nore over.”

The way she called him Brother Nore was really intimate. If not for the fact that Galilea had no crush on Nore, she might really have been angered by Xu Ya. “Just now, Dayana really went overboard. Although I don’t know what happened between the two of you, she must have slandered Sister Galilea.”

Xu Ya stood behind Nore, unaware that there was another person in the room.

When she saw Micah walk out of the room, she immediately shut her mouth. After her shock was endless regret. Micah bypassed Galilea and walked straight back to the room.

Bang.

The door closed and Galilea retracted her gaze. “You guys aren’t coming in, are you?” She smiled and was about to close the door. “Brother Nore, let’s go downstairs first. Sister Galilea is so tired today, it’s time for her to rest.” Nore was about to open his mouth when Xu Ya pulled him back. Nore furrowed his brows. He had many questions he wanted to ask. His expression was too obvious, and everything was already written on his face.

Galilea listened to Xu Ya’s explanation and yawned. “Let’s talk tomorrow.”

Then, Nore was pulled into the lift by Xu Ya. Galilea just watched them leave and then closed the door. Her heart was not calm, but she was thinking about how to let Micah have a taste of the pain, so she had no time to care about this.

The day after tomorrow, she would return to Cloud Town.

She didn't have much time left.

Chapter 75 Trap in Trap

That night, something big happened in Cloud Town.

MON Company's design director Susan had a car accident. It was originally just a traffic accident, but because she was sitting in the car of Cloud Town Real Estate's boss Wu Chen, who was over fifty years old and whose wife had just passed away two months ago.

After they were sent to the hospital, Cloud Town's media reporters swarmed in.

Galilea had been excluded by the company, so she was not aware of this matter.

By the time she learned of this news, she was already on the plane back to Cloud Town. She sent a message to Susan and then turned off her phone.

She still had many things to do and needed to be well-rested. However, after she closed her eyes, the thoughts swirling in her mind became even more clear. Chen Wu was Davis' uncle. The new building that the Lorenzo group would have next year was under the construction of Chen Wu's company. Now that Chen had an accident, there would be some news about the Lorenzo group. After all, it was Micah who had supported Chen's company at the beginning, which had led to this cooperation.

The corners of Galilea's mouth curled up. It was smoother than she had expected.

After the plane landed at the airport, Galilea followed MON's people at the back and happened to meet Micah and Dayana who were coming out of another passage.

Dayana was still as usual, acting like a spoiled child with Micah.

"Micah, can you send me home? My dad is too busy with business, so he definitely won't come to pick me up."

Galilea carried her bag and calculated in her heart. Yes, her dad was indeed very busy today.

Micah seemed to be worried about something.

He put down his phone and said lightly, "The driver will send you back."

"I don't want the driver to send me. I want you to send me back." Dayana began to act shamelessly. Little did she know that this was what men like Micah hated the most.

In his heart, the Lorenzo group was always above everything.

She no longer wanted to continue watching the show and quickened her pace, wanting to walk over.

However, Micah was one step ahead and grabbed her luggage.

“What’s the matter?” Galilea looked sideways.

“Lorenzo group’s file mainframe has been hacked. Did you do it?”

His eyes were so shrewd that Galilea almost gave herself away.

But she smiled slyly, “Which god did such a heroic thing? I really should treat him to a meal. However, it’s not me. I don’t have the money to hire a hacker.”

This was the truth.

The Lorenzo group’s mainframe could not have been conquered by a layperson’s technology. Most importantly, no one would be bored enough to do such a thing.

Galilea would not have the money to offer such a high price.

“Can you let me go? Otherwise, your fiancée’s eyes will pop out. Anyway, we still have a chance to

10:11 (2)

Chapter 75 Trap In Trap meet. See you at the wedding.” Galilea smiled indifferently.

She slapped away Micah’s hand in disgust and turned around to leave.

Nore came out of the exit after being entangled by Xu Ya. He looked at Galilea and immediately chased after her

In the distance, Micah watched the two of them walk out of the airport together and frowned even more.

“Micah, what did she mean just now? What wedding?” Dayana’s heart skipped a beat. Why did he feel that Galilea and Micah were getting closer and closer?

Weren’t the two of them enemies?

Dayana bit the corner of her lips, her thoughts written all over her face.

“I forgot to tell you. I’ve already sent someone to prepare the wedding. It’s on Friday.”

“Really?” Dayana was overjoyed.

But before she could be happy, the sleeve of the suit that she was holding had already left her fingertips.

It was obviously a great thing, but why had she heard it from Galilea? At this time, a thin figure stood at the exit,

She was wearing a hat and a mask, covering her face tightly.

Galilea was very clear that it must be Wendy.

It seemed that Wendy was determined to spend the rest of her life with Lachlan. She was so eager to curry favor with Dayana, but no matter how hard she tried, it was useless.

Galilea sneered.

Thinking of the gift she prepared for the Quincy family, she felt comfortable.

Even Xu Ya, who was chasing after Nore, was not so annoying.

va

“Galilea, where are you going? I’ll send you.” Nore only had her in his eyes.

“I’m going to the hospital to see a friend. It’s not convenient for you to go.” Galilea looked at her phone. Susan had already replied to her.

In this case, it would be a little awkward if she took Nore there.

“Okay, I’ll contact you later.” Nore felt a headache when he thought about how his family had repeatedly urged him to return home.

Why did his mother dislike Galilea so much?

“Sir, Zhonglin Hospital” Galilea hailed a taxi.

Watching the taxi drive away and Nore’s eyes still following it, Xu Ya felt jealous and gritted her teeth.

“Brother Nore, are you worried that it will be difficult to explain when you go home? How about go back with you to see Auntie? You can say that you were following me. She should not be so angry with you and Sister Galilea.”

Nore’s eyebrows jumped.

“I don’t want to use you.”

“It doesn’t matter. I’m willing to be used by you. Besides, don’t worry. I won’t talk too much.” A gentle smile bloomed on Xu Ya’s face.

“No need. There’s no need for us to meet again in the future. You can tell your family that you don’t like me. I’m a terrible person.” Nore looked away and said in a distant tone.

After he finished speaking, he left Xu Ya behind and left.

Chapter 75 Trap in Trap Xu Ya held back her tears. “Terrible? The woman you like is even worse! She has been divorced and has been in prison. You still like her. How am I inferior to her?”

Her bright eyes flashed with hatred.

The next second, she wiped away her tears and made a call. “Come and pick me up.”

She used a commanding tone.

She was, after all, the daughter of the Xu family. Even if Nore did not choose her, he absolutely could not choose a woman like Galilea. Moreover, after being in prison once, it was very likely that she would be put there again.

At the airport.

When Wendy saw Dayana come out, she immediately walked over.

She never thought that her popularity would be so bad that no one would pay attention to her at all. "It's me, Dayana, it's me!" When Wendy saw that Galilea had already left, she took off her hat and mask. "Why are you dressed like this?" Dayana had a look of disdain on her face. Seeing that Micah was about to walk away, she immediately wanted to shake off Wendy. "I'm very busy right now. You should go away." "No, Dayana. Come home with me first. Something happened at home." Wendy leaned close to her ear and muttered a few words. "What? How could my dad be related to Wu Chen's car accident?" Dayana glared at her. No matter how stupid she was, she knew that she had to keep her identity as the Quincy family's daughter. Otherwise, wouldn't she have to give up on her wedding with Micah? "Go home, let's go home immediately."

Chapter 76 The Lawful Wife

Galilea hailed a taxi and did not leave directly. Instead, she asked the driver to take a detour before *** returning to the exit and stopping on a nearby path.

Seeing Dayana and Wendy get into the car and leave together, she chuckled.

"Please follow that car."

The driver glanced at the car tag and then looked at Galilea. "Miss, who are they to you? I am a proper taxi and I don't do that kind of business."

"She is my father's ex-girlfriend."

Galilea said lightly and continued to look down at her phone. The stock price of Quincy Group had dropped again.

Wendy was obsessed with the dream of marrying into a rich family, so she should be anxious now.

Lachlan was different from her father.

At most, Lachlan was just a nouveau riche. Now that the economic bubble was so serious, without the support of the capital chain, they, the Quincy family, were like a tiger made of paper. Galilea hummed all the way, watching the mother and daughter enter the Quincy family's door in a pleasant mood.

The driver kindly advised her, "Miss, ahead is the high-end residential area. You can't enter without the key.""

Galilea ignored him, took out her mobile phone, and dialed the number that she had got a few days ago.

In Quincy family's villa.

"Dad, what's going on?" Dayana asked anxiously.

"Shut up!" Lachlan was calling his old friend for help. He turned around and shouted at Dayana.

Dayana's heart skipped a beat. She looked at Wendy and did not dare to make a sound.

Wendy's phone rang. She looked at it. It was an unknown number.

However, she still hesitated to pick it up.

"Who is it?"

"It's me. I'm outside the Quincy family's door now. Is it convenient for me to go in?" Galilea looked down at the soil on the tip of her shoe and was not surprised to hear the urgent voice over there.

"I'll come out, I'll come out immediately!"

Soon, Wendy came out anxiously with a handbag.

"Galilea, you've suffered a lot during this period of time. Look, you've lost weight. Why didn't you come to find me earlier?"

Galilea's eyebrows twitched.

She had never realized that Wendy was so good at acting.

"How could I find you? All your contact details have changed, and you even moved home," Galilea said expressionlessly "That's... that's because I'm being watched by those debt collectors. I really couldn't do anything about it. I was incompetent and couldn't protect you for your father." As Wendy spoke, her tears grew even more.

The last bit of hesitation in Galilea's eyes disappeared completely.

Chapter 76 The Lawful Wife Even if Wendy still had a trace of true feelings for her father, even if she revealed a bit of regret.

She didn't.

Wendy said, carefully looking at Galilea's expression.

She sobbed as she dragged Galilea to the side.

"This is my savings from all these years. I don't know much. I hope it can help you."

"Your savings?"

"Yes, you know, I don't have much money on hand. Moreover, I was not your father's wife at that time, so I couldn't help with the funeral. Even if I stayed with the Frankie family, it would be useless. Do you understand?"

Got it.

She wanted her to take revenge at other people's door, so as not to disturb her being a rich wife?

"But, my dad left something for you when he was alive and told me to give it to you." Galilea suppressed the strange look in her eyes and made a difficult expression.

"What is it?" Wendy was a little surprised.

She did not expect such an unexpected harvest. However, she turned back to look at the Quincy family's villa and squeezed out a smile. "Galilea, you should go back first today. Auntie has something to do here. I will find you tomorrow, okay?"

"Alright then. Auntie, you go ahead first. I'll be leaving."

Galilea simply left. When she turned around, Wendy was already nowhere to be seen. Just like when the Frankie family had an accident, she disappeared in an instant. She held the envelope in her hand, a chill spreading in her eyes.

Now that the bait was set, she was only waiting for the best opportunity.

Galilea looked at the time and took the taxi to the hospital.

When Wendy went back, she found that Lachlan was scolding Dayana. "I told you to get along well with Micah. What did you do? The Lorenzo group actually withdrew its investment at this time! Call that kid immediately. Does he still want to be my son-in-law?" Lachlan was furious.

He thought that his daughter was in high demand. He did not expect that Micah would impatiently withdraw his funds after such a small accident. Wasn't this adding insult to injury?

"Dad, I can't make this call. Micah has been a little distant from me recently. I'm afraid that I will annoy him because of this matter and make him hate me more."

When Wendy heard this, she recalled Galilea's attitude towards her just now. She hurriedly said, "Lachlan, I have a few words to say to you.

"What?"

Lachlan was furious.

However, Wendy was very good at reading eyes. In addition, she had maintained herself well over the years. Her entire body lightly touched his arm.

No matter how angry he was, it was all gone now.

He let Wendy pull him in.

A few minutes later, Lachlan said repeatedly, "Well, you can give it a try. If you can make Micah change his mind and make a contribution to it, I will buy everything you want."

Chapter 76 The Lawful Wife "For the sake of you and Dayana, I don't want anything." Wendy pushed him playfully, then gathered her hair and walked out with a twist of her waist.

The collar of Lachlan's shirt was open, and he lit a cigarette with satisfaction.

He had married the right wife. Dayana listened to the commotion outside and looked at Wendy in confusion. "Have you coaxed my dad well?"

"As for how to coax a man, there are some things that I will teach you slowly. Now, give Micah a call and ask him to meet tomorrow. I will go with you." "But..."

"I have a way to make him change his mind. Moreover, I can let you live in his Lorenzo family."

Chapter 77 The Acquaintance Came

In the hospital ward, Galilea peeled an apple and placed it in Susan's hand.

apologetically.

Susan held a cigarette between her fingers and lay on the bed with gauze on her forehead.

“If I don’t do this, the Wu family won’t believe me, and they won’t link this matter to Lachlan.” The corners of Susan’s mouth twitched, but it still hurt a little.

She looked up at Galilea. “Don’t think that I helped you for free. Don’t forget your promise. You must win the championship of MON’s design competition next quarter.”

“Otherwise...”

“Otherwise, I will be at your disposal.” Galilea still felt very guilty and forced a joke.

Before going to Fashion Week, she had taken the initiative to find Susan and lay her cards on the table with her

Frankly, she had entered MON through Micah, but she did not know his purpose.

wa

When Galilea first went to meet Susan in Brook Villa, one of those people was Wu Chen. Moreover, he wanted Susan. He had pressured Susan again and again. The news about Susan’s private life outside was also spread by him. It was to force Susan to submit and become his secret lover.

Galilea’s request was that she hoped that Susan could let something happen to Wu Chen and frame Lachlan.

However, she did not expect that Susan would use such an extreme method which almost endangered her own life.

When she learned of this news on the plane, there was only one thought in Galilea’s mind. If something happened to Susan, she would blame herself for a lifetime.

Susan chuckled, “I know that you must be a person who keeps your word. You don’t have to feel burdened. That person’s death is not a pity.”

She crushed the cigarette in her hand and blew gently.

She had helped Galilea this time because Galilea’s proposal had clicked with her.

Compared to money, she had long wanted to uproot the Wu family.

“However, I can’t go to the company for now. Take care of yourself. I think those people will continue to exclude you. You don’t have to come to see me all the time. I’m fine on my own,” Susan said as she lay down.

Galilea watched as she closed her eyes, a cold and aloof look on her face.

“But I don’t have anywhere to go either. I’m afraid that once I leave this door, my arms and legs will be cut off by those loan sharks.”

“It hasn’t been resolved yet?” Susan slowly opened her eyes.

Galilea lowered her head, peeled an apple, and ate it herself. "Maybe there are too many people who hate me."

On the way here just now, she had discovered that there were several people following her. They stopped until she entered the hospital,

Chapter 77 The Acquaintance Came Because there were security guards at the entrance of the hospital, there were also nurses and surveillance cameras on duty in the corridor. It was not so easy to make a move.

Susan looked at her with a little sympathy.

"So, can I sleep on the floor here?" Galilea squeezed out a smile.

"No, I snore at night."

"But it's very dangerous for me to go out!"

Susan frowned and threw the pillow under her arm to Galilea. "Only today."

This tone was very similar to that of a certain man.

Galilea was stunned for a moment. Then, she said yes. The phone scanned the QR code on the bedside table. Then, she took out the temporarily rented bed and tidied it up. Then, she lay down on the bed.

The windows of the ward revealed the lights of the corridor.

"Why do you study design?" Susan asked gloomily. "Before my family went bankrupt, I didn't need to learn any practical skills. I just needed to choose one I liked." Galilea closed her eyes and said quietly.

She really regarded Susan as her first friend after she was released from prison.

Not only in terms of design but even in terms of men, they would both only choose one that they liked.

At that time, how proud must she have been to think that it was impossible for Micah not to love her?

She was good-looking, had a good education, and had a good family background... She never thought that he would hate the Frankie family so much. Galilea frowned, and a drop of unknown tears flowed down the corner of her eyes. The night was quiet, and Susan seemed to have said something. Galilea did not hear it clearly. The next morning, after Galilea washed up in the public bathroom, she went to the company. On the way, her mobile phone kept vibrating, because of news reminders.

'The Lorenzo group has announced to stop the cooperation with the Quincy Group.

'The new building project of the Lorenzo group is temporarily called to a stop.'

'The real estate tycoon, Chen Wu, met a beauty at night and got into an accident. What is the truth?'

Galilea yawned, looked through it briefly, and pursed her lips.

"There really isn't anything new."

She had already given the five thousand yuan that Wendy had given her to these paparazzi companies. How could the things they wrote be so old and lacking in highlights at all?

Looking at the screen, Galilea imagined Micah's expression at this time. He was probably in a meeting at the Lorenzo group. "Let me see how much you like Dayana. The Quincy family is already going downhill. Will you still go through the wedding ceremony with her?" she asked with a smile.

Galilea was resolute.

She wanted Micah to grow old alone. The Quincy family was just the beginning.

After Galilea arrived at the company, she found that everyone had gathered together to gossip. They did not reject her so much. This was all thanks to Liu Yuanyuan. She told the other interns a lot of Galilea's merits.

Moreover, everyone gradually found that it was Xu Ya who was looking for trouble with Galilea.

Chapter 77 The Acquaintance Came "Sister Galilea, over here!" Liu Yuanyuan enthusiastically waved her hand. "The atmosphere is so lively?" Galilea walked over, pulled out a chair, and sat down. "You don't know yet, but Xu Ya has quit the internship training! Moreover, our intern trainer has also changed. It's not Anna. I heard it is a handsome guy." Galilea nodded.

She was not interested in any handsome man.

"He's here, he's here!" "He's too handsome. Oh my god!" Someone ran in from outside. Galilea propped up her chin and followed everyone's line of sight. How handsome could he be? A cold and emotionless face appeared in her mind. How could he be compared to Micah? The door was pushed open and a tall and thin figure walked in. He was wearing a checkered shirt with long and straight jeans, but the shirt on his wrist was rolled up, revealing the wheat-colored muscles after the fitness. He was especially sexy. This was really a sunny and attractive handsome guy.

Galilea raised her eyebrows, not because she was also as impressed as the others. It was because she knew this person. The man walked up to the platform and looked around with a smile. His gaze was particularly calm as it paused on Galilea. Then, with a pleasant foreign accent, he said gently, "Hello everyone. From today on, I am your trainer. My name is Qi Xinglang."

Chapter 78 Let Her Watch a Play

The young master of the Qi family was Galilea's college classmate.

It could be said that Qi Xinglang previously hated Galilea very much because there had been a competitive relationship between the two families.

But after the Frankie family fell, the business of the Qi family did not expand as expected. Galilea did not understand what happened either.

But it was certain that with Micah's commercial ambition, he would definitely not be taken advantage of.

The portion of market share that the Frankie family had lost had basically all been taken by the Lorenzo group.

Galilea remembered that when she was about to marry Micah, Qi Xinglang had gone abroad to study at the top design school that she had liked the most.

It should be that after she gave up the quota, he took it.

Things were really unpredictable.

“Alright, don’t let me waste your time. Let’s talk about the original intention of the design at seven o’clock tonight,” “Alright!” The female interns below the stage all revealed looks of admiration. Galilea should be the calmest of them all.

She calmly packed her things and planned to go to Susan’s office to get something for her.

“Galilea.”

She stepped down the stairs.

The clear voice suddenly called out to her.

Galilea turned back to look. Qi Xinglang smiled and said, “I owe you a cup of coffee. Let me buy you one today.”

She blinked, unable to remember when it had happened.

However, Qi Xinglang had always insisted, so Galilea could not refuse, because the eyes of the surrounding female interns were about to swallow her whole.

“Sure.”

Galilea walked over and left with Qi Xinglang.

Behind them, the interns immediately gathered together.

“What’s going on? Does the new trainer know Galilea? No way, I heard that he just came back from abroad.”

“This Galilea is really amazing. The people around her are all handsome guys!”

“It’s going to be the design competition next quarter soon. If Galilea has a good relationship with the trainer, her position with Mon should be able to be confirmed.”

Liu Yuanyuan stood behind them, looking at the backs of Galilea and Qi Xinglang in confusion.

She felt that it was not the case.

Just now, there was a moment when Qi Xinglang looked at Galilea with eyes full of resentment.

The atmosphere in the coffee shop was very good. Galilea looked at the person in front of her, but she looked confused. “You want to help me win the design competition? Why?”

Chapter 78 Let Her Watch a Play Qi Xinglang's beautiful fingers circled around the coffee cup.

"There is no reason! With your strength, those interns are no match for you. Moreover, I know what happened at your home. What you lack is only a chance."

Galilea did not speak.

He paused and continued, "Moreover, the person who went abroad was supposed to be you. Everything I have now should be yours."

Qi Xinglang smiled, his eyes especially deep. Galilea shook her head. "What you have now has been exchanged for by your own hard work. It has nothing to do with me. I admit that I really need to win, but I don't want to use any means."

After she finished speaking, she got up and was about to leave.

In the air that was filled with the aroma of the coffee, a chuckle was heard.

"Stop pretending. I know what you really are."

Galilea stopped in her tracks and turned around to look at him.

Qi Xinglang took out a name card and placed it on the table. It was the paparazzi company that Galilea had entrusted.

She frowned. There wasn't a wall which hasn't a rack. Those people only worked for money. They would listen to whoever offered the most money.

Galilea thought that she would be exposed, but she did not expect it to be so soon.

"What do you mean?"

She walked back and looked at Qi Xinglang, not quite understanding.

"Work with me. I hate Micah just like you."

Half an hour later, Galilea was on her way home.

Thoughts swirled in her mind. Qi Xinglang's words were indeed very tempting. If she had a trainer as an insider, with her strength, she would definitely win.

Should she agree?

Was there a trap in this?

The more she thought about it, the slower she walked. Suddenly, a black commercial car appeared in front of her and the electric door slowly opened.

"Miss Frankie, Mr. Lorenzo invites you to go." Keith got out of the car.

Galilea looked at the other three bodyguards sitting in the car and sneered, "Keith, are you sure it is an invitation?"

Keith did not say a word and just raised his hand.

Galilea had no other choice.

She watched as the car door closed and reached into her backpack.

However, before she could do anything, her left hand and right hand were restrained at the same time. Her bag and phone were also taken away.

“Micah is playing dirty with me now?” Galilea asked angrily.

Then he might as well just kill her.

According to his style, he would probably take out the roots after cutting off the grass.

“Miss Frankie, don’t misunderstand. Mr. Lorenzo has no ill intentions. It’s just that the place you are going to later is not suitable for any electronic equipment.” Keith pushed up his glasses.

Chapter 78 Let Her Watch a Play Galilea frowned even more tightly.

Then, she found that the route was very familiar.

The car turned left and right and actually entered the back door of Brook Villa.

“What are we doing here?”

“Mr. Lorenzo wants to treat Miss Frankie to a meal,” Keith said as he winked at the bodyguards behind him.

Galilea was immediately ‘escorted’ into a room.

When she sat in the private room and looked at the table full of dishes, she was really confused.

“Did Micah’s brain get squeezed by the door?”

How could he be so kind as to treat her to a big meal?

Keith raised his wrist and motioned for the bodyguards to go out. He then told Galilea, “Mr. Lorenzo’s guests will arrive soon. He hopes Miss Frankie will eat quietly and not disturb them.” Galilea wanted to ask again, but Keith had already closed the door. The private room fell into a state of silence.

Galilea picked up her chopsticks. She had just picked up a piece of pineapple meat when she heard the sound of the electric curtain rolling up. The curtain of the landscape painting on her right was rolled up, and behind it was a piece of two-faced glass.

She could clearly see and hear the sound of the private room next door. Galilea chewed the meat in her mouth and quietly watched...

Micah was already sitting there. He also heard Keith say something in his ear. He immediately turned to this side, and his deep eyes were cold.

Then he turned his head and closed his eyes to rest.

Galilea was baffled by that stare.

However, it would be a waste not to eat the free lunch.,

Just as she was about to gorge herself, two people walked into the opposite room. They were none other than Wendy and Dayana.

The moment they saw Micah, they both revealed brilliant smiles. It was fine for Dayana, but Wendy was simply about to reveal her molars.

“Micah, I’m really sorry for having kept you waiting. There was a bit of traffic on the road.”

Flattery, lowly, and disgusting.

Galilea frowned. She had no appetite at all.

Had Micah invited her to watch a play?

Or was he deliberately trying to disgust her?

Chapter 79 The Scheme in Scheme

When she returned home last night, she had received a message from Wendy, hoping that she would not tell the Quincy family about their previous relationship.

Galilea picked up the fruit juice on the table and took a sip. It was really sour.

After refreshing her mind, she smiled and looked at the good show over there.

She was wondering when to tell Wendy that there was another person who knew about her relationship with the Frankie family, and she was sitting opposite her. Micah’s expression remained indifferent, as cold as ice.

“Micah, I’ve talked to Dayana’s father. This time, something happened at home, and we didn’t handle it properly. I hope you won’t take your anger out on Dayana. She’s a very simple girl who doesn’t know anything.” Wendy smiled and picked up a cup of tea. “With this cup, let me represent her father to toast you and apologize to you.”

Her words were really powerful.

People who didn’t know would think that she was Dayana’s biological mother.

Galilea propped up her chin and her gaze fell on Micah. The man raised his chin slightly. “Did you see me just to say this?” His impatience was written all over his face.

“No. Hurry up and tell him!” Dayana anxiously tugged at Wendy.

Before leaving the house this morning, Wendy had told her that she was very confident that she would be able to close the relationship between her family and Micah.

Wendy patted the back of her hand. “Dayana, don’t worry. You and Micah have a baby now. No matter what happens to the Quincy family, Micah will not really draw a clear line between him and the Quincy family. If that happens, what will you do for the rest of your life?”

Tsk tsk.

When Galilea heard this, she wanted to praise Wendy’s courage.

She actually openly used the matter of Dayana being pregnant to threaten Micah. If he were an ordinary person, at this time, he would most likely pretend to say a few words out of respect and reputation.

"I will take responsibility," Micah warned coldly. "But we can't mix up my private matters with the Lorenzo group."

"Why not? The Quincy family's development is related to you. Moreover, the truth of Wu Chen's accident is still being investigated. It can't be confirmed that it necessarily has something to do with the Quincy family. Where is the evidence?" Wendy smiled.

"I think that all of this may have something to do with one person."

Micah looked over. "Who is it?"

"Galilea."

Separated by the glass, Galilea was stunned. Her brows slowly furrowed.

Did she reveal a flaw somewhere?

Or was there some problem on Susan's side?

As she thought this, she didn't want to look anymore. Just as she was about to leave, Micah said, "Give Chapter 79 The Scheme in Scheme me a reason."

He didn't believe it?

Galilea turned around. She knew that Micah couldn't see her, but she felt that he had imperceptibly glanced at her.

His eyes were cold to the bone.

"The moment Galilea was released from prison, your wedding with Dayana was ruined. Also, the woman who has an unknown relationship with Wu Chen this time is someone that Galilea knows."

Galilea snorted when she heard this.

She sat down and continued to eat.

On the other side, Keith, who had been watching Galilea outside the door, immediately sent a message to Micah.

"Miss Frankie is fine. She is eating happily."

Micah glanced at the phone screen, and his eyes became colder.

He had thought of this a long time ago. He had prepared this game today to test Galilea personally.

If she had really played him behind his back...

"Yes, Micah. I also think that Galilea is very suspicious! If not for her, we would have been a real couple long ago." Dayana couldn't hold it in anymore and echoed from the side.

Wendy looked at Dayana with satisfaction and continued to say casually, "You should hold the wedding as soon as possible. The two companies should continue to cooperate. Even if outsiders don't believe in Lachlan, as his son-in-law, Micah, you shouldn't think that way."

First, she poured dirty water on Galilea, and then she put a good son-in-law on Micah?

Galilea ate the spicy crab in her mouth.

"It's really delicious."

However, she did not expect Wendy to be right. The reason why Micah had asked her to come was that he was also suspicious.

She was not afraid of going against Micah, but if she admitted it directly, she was afraid that she would not be able to walk out of this door. Moreover, she still had a second plan that had not been implemented yet!

On the other side, Micah's slender fingers tapped on the table, again and again.

Dayana looked over with a guilty conscience and carefully probed, "Micah, do you think that other than her, there is anyone else? No one hates you so much like her, right?"

"Of course there is. I have made a lot of enemies over the years." Micah smiled contemptuously.

In order to succeed, he had given up many things and offended many people. From his perspective, he did not feel that he was wrong. Since he had become a man above others, there were naturally people who had gone downhill.

Onyx Frankie was a good example.

Although Micah was smiling, his eyes seemed to be covered with ice.

"How could Galilea create such a big storm?"

Impossible, how could she do it?

Galilea chewed the crab meat in her mouth and clicked.

She curled her lips in disgust and spat out a hard shell. She muttered in her heart, "Who are you looking down on?"

Chapter 79 The Scheme in Scheme "It's not completely impossible." Wendy's smile froze. She had no confidence either. She thought about it and took out the things she had prepared beforehand "This card was given to me by Galilea yesterday. She asked me to help her keep an eye on Dayana, but I didn't agree." Wendy turned the card around. "This card is under Galilea's name. The password is her birthday, and there are 100,000 yuan in it." Pa da. Galilea put down the chopsticks and stared at Wendy angrily. So she still had money, but Wendy had taken it for herself. Micah glanced at the card and looked at Wendy again. "With your relationship with Galilea, will you betray her?" Wendy's smile became more and more awkward. She pressed down on Dayana's wrist under the table and smiled at Micah, "Our relationship is history now. I'm now wholeheartedly thinking about Dayana and the Quincy family." "Is that so?" The smile on Micah's lips became even more interesting. 'If you don't believe me, you can investigate.” Wendy coughed lightly. “The wedding is the day after tomorrow. You should prepare in advance,” Micah said as he glanced at Galilea, and took the card without a trace. Dayana’s smile widened to the corners of her eyes. “That’s great, Micah. I will definitely perform well. I’m so happy.” Wendy heaved a sigh of relief and stopped looking at Micah. If she didn’t have Galilea’s card, she might not have been able to fool him.

Chapter 80 The Conditions

Seeing their undisguised thoughts, the man said lightly. “Do you know who suggested the wedding?” Dayana stopped smiling and shook her head. “Galilea.”

Micah walked away, leaving only the stunned Dayana and Wendy behind.

“What did he mean by that? Could it be that Galilea changed his mind and he was willing to continue the wedding with me?” Dayana’s nails dug into her palms. No matter how she thought about it, she could not accept this fact.

Wendy could only comfort her from the side, “Just hold the wedding on time. Don’t think about anything else. Just wait to be a bride in peace. This time, you must let Micah marry you.”

“But...”

Dayana felt a knot in her heart.

She felt that things would not go so smoothly. Last time, their wedding was ruined by Galilea. Would she be so kind this time?

The more Dayana thought about it, the more she felt that something was wrong. “No, I have to let them make a move quickly. We can’t delay anymore.”

“Yes, yes, yes. Let’s go first. Don’t let others hear us.”

Wendy pulled her, turned around, and took both their bags and scarves in her hands, protecting Dayana out of the door.

On this side, Galilea was still eating. She had eaten all the crabs. She picked up the chopsticks and began to eat again.

With Brook Villa’s grade, this meal would definitely not be cheap.

She might not be able to eat such a good meal in the next half a month, and the first rule of the Frankie family was never to waste resources.

Micah returned and saw her sitting there and enjoying the meal very much.

He sat on the opposite seat, his legs crossed.

For a long time, Galilea did not seem to notice him entering the door.

“Say something.” The man frowned.

“You invited me here. You should be the one who paid for it, right?” Galilea muttered, holding the chicken leg in one hand.

Micah looked at her silently, his temples throbbing. "En, I'll pay, using your money."

He put the card on the table.

The next second, Galilea's eyes lit up and she immediately put down her chopsticks. "Mr. Lorenzo, you are wrong to do this. You know that it is my money."

"Yours?"

The corners of Micah's mouth curled into a playful smile. When she mentioned the money, she became spirited.

The next second, his words shattered Galilea's pride. "You owe me tens of millions. This amount of money is not even enough for the interest."

Chapter 80 The Conditions Galilea took a deep breath.

She had nothing to say and continued to eat.

"I can give you this card." Micah suddenly opened his mouth and threw out the bait.

"What are the conditions?" Galilea chewed the food in her mouth.

This man was so bad that he could not easily give her the money.

"During the wedding, you must dress up and congratulate me in person." The look in Micah's eyes grew colder. He held the card between his fingers and waved it in front of Galilea, "After that, it will be yours."

Galilea gritted her teeth. "Okay."

For the sake of money, she could do anything.

"If you dare to lie to me, don't even think about staying in Cloud Town." Micah stared at her, his voice cold.

"Yes, I got it."

"Are we done?" Galilea nodded perfunctorily, then wiped her mouth. "I'm leaving."

Before Micah could say anything, Galilea had already left the door like a gust of wind.

"Follow her," he said.

"Yes, Mr. Lorenzo." Keith immediately responded and sent someone to follow Galilea in secret.

The man glanced at the card and snorted with disdain, "Galilea, oh Galilea, you are now willing to give up your face for 100,000 yuan?" He originally thought that he would have a hint of the pleasure of having successfully taken revenge.

He wanted Galilea to see how Wendy sold her out with her own eyes.

He wanted to let her eat a delicious meal, feeling the taste of being abandoned by the world.

But looking at the empty plates in front of him, Micah realized that the current Galilea had completely changed.

After leaving Brook Villa, Galilea called Susan and said a few words of concern.

“Perhaps, the Quincy family and Micah’s people will go to you. If you... want to tell them directly, I am not afraid of them.”

Susan was lying on the hospital bed and watching variety shows.

“Do I look like such a lowly person? Alright, I’m not a fool. From now on, I will definitely stay far away from you so as not to cause trouble for myself.”

And this time, Galilea’s suggestion had just happened to be exactly what she wanted.

She had long wanted to get rid of Chen Wu, that lustful and overbearing person.

“Alright then, I’ll find time to visit you again.”

On the other side of the line, Susan urged, “The design competition will be set at the beginning of next month. You have to practice more during this period of time and find more inspiration, all right?”

“Canlask, why do you insist on me winning?” Galilea did not quite understand, so she simply asked clearly.

“I don’t want you to follow in my footsteps,” Susan said after a long time.

After saying that, she hung up the phone.

These words had no rhyme or reason.

Galilea put the phone back in her pocket and took a taxi back home.

Chapter 80 The Conditions For the next few days, everything was peaceful. This morning, before Galilea got up, she was woken up by Keith’s phone call.

“Miss Frankie, the car is already downstairs.” Galilea tried hard to think about it and sat up in a sudden realization. She almost forgot that she had to attend her ex–husband’s wedding. She had to dress up and attend. “Okay, got it.”

She got up and washed her face. She changed into the red dress she had bought abroad and put on a pair of high heels.

The clothes that were not so expensive now gave her a cold temperament. She looked at the mirror and smiled with satisfaction. As a spectator, she naturally had to be happy. “You still want to go? Then I’ll go with you.” “There’s no need. Aren’t you going to the race today? There’s your solo match on the weekend, right? I’ll go see it when I am done. Alright, I’ll hang up first.”

Galilea sat in the car.

She saw that Keith was doing as usual today. He didn’t dress up at all, still wearing the black suit that he had not changed for thousands of years.

She suddenly felt a little sympathy for Dayana. Marrying a man who didn't care about marriage and love, what was even sadder was that she was happy about it.

Galilea took a deep breath and shook her head.

"Miss Frankie, do you feel anything unusual recently?" Keith asked as he drove.

"What?" Galilea didn't quite understand. "In other words, when you usually go in and out of here, do you feel that someone is following you? After you left Brook Villa that day, we found that a group of people had been following you in secret." Keith asked slowly. Galilea frowned.

"Now, their car is behind us."
