Chapter 141 What's That?

"Is Isabella here to have her meal too?" Roger's eyes lit up. His sparkling eyes made Lindon and Shane feel uncomfortable and strange.

They could see how much Draxton's family had suppressed the other branch families, making them excited even when they heard the name Isabella.

Yale, Bernard, and Shepard also looked at the two people from the Riker family.

Yale said, "Mr. Riker, is Isabella really here? Which private room is she in? Is my Big Brother here too?"

Her tone sounded a little nervous when she mentioned her Big Brother. It was obvious that she did not want to see him.

Recently, Olivia said Big Brother would arrange a job for them. The few of them had long been terrified. All they felt was fear when mentioning Draxton.

Her behavior confirmed they were displeased about Draxton and very afraid of him.

Lindon and Shane looked at each other and noticed they both had the same expression.

Deliberately, Lindon revealed his hesitance. He stammered, "It's not with Draxton... but..."

At this point, he put on a troubled expression as if it was something difficult to express.

The Lockwood family members looked puzzled. Roger urged, "Mr. Riker, what's wrong? Tell me, which private room is my sister-in-law in?"

Lindon sighed and said, "It's not that I don't want to say it, but... I'm afraid that if I say it, I'll cause an unnecessary misunderstanding."

"What's there to misunderstand?" Yale asked.

"That's right, Mr. Riker. What's there to misunderstand? Since Isabella is here, of course, we have to go and greet her!"

Shepard also expressed his thought.

Lindon sighed and pretended as though they were forcing him to speak the truth. "It's better if you don't go and disturb her.

Chapter 142 Complaining To Isabella

The two of them came out one after another. Ethan, who came out first, looked ahead and saw the people in the private room opposite.

He called out in surprise, "Uncle! Cousin!"

As soon as he said that, Olivia, who was behind him, looked over. She also saw the person in the private room opposite.

She was not surprised by the people of the Lockwood family. She already knew that they would come, but she was also surprised by the presence of the Riker family.

However, she quickly understood something. A trace of mockery flashed across her eyes, but she did not speak.

The two of them naturally entered the private room opposite. Ethan's gentle face was currently frowning. He looked at Lindon and Shane and said, "Uncle, cousin, why are you here?"

Shane did not say anything. Lindon smiled and quipped, "What are you talking about? Why can't we be here? "We also happened to come to Savor for dinner. We came over to greet the kids from the Lockwood family when we saw them here.

Why? Have you and Olivia finished eating so soon?"

Ethan's furrowed brows did not relax. He looked deeply at Lindon and Shane and said, "Olivia and I are just catching up."

Lindon smiled kindly and did not answer Ethan. Instead, he looked at Olivia and said with a smile, "Olivia, after dinner, ask Ethan to accompany you for a walk. You two grew up together. You should have plenty of things to talk about."

Olivia was disgusted. After spending the morning together, she understood Ethan's attitude. Fortunately, he was a frank person.

Lindon's words disgusted her.

She smiled faintly and said, "Mr. Riker, don't worry about us. Ethan and I have already said everything that needs to be said."

Her smile was plastered and indifferent. After saying that, she did not look at Lindon anymore, feeling he did not deserve it.

He smiled at Olivia and said, "You've

Chapter 143 Taking The Kids Home

Although she felt sorry for her Big Brother, she did not want to work deep down in her.

The others were probably feeling the same as Yale.

Ignoring the presence of the Riker family's outsiders, Roger, Bernard, and Shepard also squeezed over and surrounded Isabella.

"Isabella, please take pity on us. Don't let Big Brother arrange jobs for us. We are really busy, and we are not suitable for work."

That was Bernard's sincere request.

"Isabella, look at me. I'm still a child. You have to pity me. I'm really, really tired from school every day. Can you ask Big Brother to leave me alone since I'm still young?"

Roger looked pitiful when he begged.

Shepard also had a fawning look on her face. "Isabella, Big Brother is wise and capable. The Lockwood family needs only him. Besides, he has so many capable people under him. Why would he need us?"

Olivia nodded repeatedly. "That's right. They're right. Sister-in-law, you must help us persuade Big Brother not to let him arrange jobs for us."

Isabella was startled as she thought.

"What kind of brats were these?"

This was what she had not expected and she was a little taken aback. She knew that the Lockwood family kids seemed to be free, but it turned out that they were all lazy.

She could not help but feel sorry for Draxton. After all, he was her man. How could she let these little ones off so easily?

Hence, she looked at them with a mischievous grin.

She said, "Don't you guys know that if you're Big Brother gets his burden off work, he will have more time to accompany me."

Lindon waved his hand indifferently. "What are you making a fuss about? Your grandpa and I are just concerned about you."

Ethan wanted to retort, but he could not say a word.

A few years ago, he only felt that the Riker family was cold.

But now, he felt scared and disgusted:

However, this was his family. These people were all his blood relatives.

Ethan was trembling uncontrollably in anger and fear.

Chapter 144 Bella's Speeding Car

Isabella left Savor with the kids of the Lockwood family and introduced them to Jake.

The Lockwood family's people were very polite. Jake's attitude was also quite friendly.

"Isabella, Jake, we got to leave now," the few of them said obediently.

"Go ahead. Be careful on the road," Isabella reminded them with a smile.

These people came together, and only Bernard drove a car.

Olivia came by her car and also left after bidding farewell to Isabella.

In the end, only Isabella and Jake were left.

Jake smiled and said, "These young people of the Lockwood family are not bad. No wonder you're willing to accept Draxton.

"Initially, I was worried that you would have to give yourself to someone else for the sake of your children. Now, it seems that the Lockwood family has attracted you with their charm."

The expression in Jake’s pale face gradually changed. Clearly, he also recognized the car.

Isabella was filled with murderous intent. She stepped on the accelerator, and the car flew out again.

Ten minutes ago, Bernard drove into this bend and found they were surrounded.

Although they usually looked idle, they did not panic at critical moments. Even Yale, the girl, was exceptionally calm.

She said, "Bernard, charge over!"

In this situation, they had no other choice but to speed.

The other party was obviously here to kill them. They did not know which idiot actually used such a blatant method to take their lives. They did not even think about how the Lockwood family would take revenge after this.

Anyone with a brain would not do this.

Therefore, they knew that these were outlaws. They had come to take their lives, determined to ignore the consequences.

Bernard's car rushed forward, and they really managed to get a distance away. However, the other party had many cars, so they were forced to stop.

Just because someone behind them had shot and shattered their tires, they were forced to jump out of the car.

They were lucky. Fortunately, only one person on the other side had a gun, and the others held clubs.

They originally wanted to escape down the hill. The other party had more than a hundred people. No matter how powerful they were, it was difficult for them to fight against so many people.

However, the other party seemed to have seen through their intentions, and the man with the gun immediately fired in their direction.

Bernard's car was already damaged, and Isabella's car couldn't accommodate so many people. Luckily, there was no lack of cars here.

Jake was not in a hurry to go to Orchid Residences. He drove them to the hospital personally.

Isabella was left behind to deal with these hooligans.

More than a dozen of them had died, but there were still nearly a hundred of them left.

She looked at these people coldly and opened her hand. A golden butterfly was dancing in her palm.

She raised her hand and the golden butterfly flew into the air. It sensed the smell of food and flew around the hooligans, scattering golden pollen.

Then, a number of blood-red bugs crawled out of the hooligans' eyes, ears, mouths, and noses.

The bugs trembled in fear, but they could do nothing but accept their fate-to be the golden butterfly's food. While afraid, this fate was an honor they should be proudest of that could come to them.

Golden butterfly did not hesitate to nosedive and feasted on all the small insects.

After eating its fill, it flew back to Isabella in satisfaction and kissed her fair cheek gently.

A faint smile was on Isabella's lips. The satiation from the golden butterfly made her exceptionally delighted and contented.

While living in two different bodies, she and this creature shared the same fate. Their lives were closely intertwined. And if one of them died, the other would die momentarily.

When many years ago Master Grey saved her, she was already on the verge of death, but because of the golden butterfly, she survived.

As the poison bugs left their bodies, the hooligans gradually woke up, their faces filled with fear.

Chapter 147 Bridget's Uneasiness

Behind Greyson, two assistants pushed Roger's ambulance out.

Greyson said, "Roger's bleeding was stopped in advance by someone. Although the wound is deep, it didn't hurt any vital part. The surgery is a success. He will be fine after good recuperation."

Draxton glanced at the unconscious Roger, nodded slightly, and asked, "Where's Bernard?"

On hearing the name of Bernard, Greyson's face turned serious. "His leg is cataclysmically smashed. The surgery will be difficult. Even if the surgery is successful, there will inevitably be health hazards in the future." Bernard might be a cripple for the rest of his life.

Draxton's countenance fell at that, and his fists clenched unconsciously.

Greyson did not go on, nor did he dare to mention the murderer. Isabella said, "I'll do the operation on him. I will try my best to cure him without any aftereffects."

Greyson's eyes lit up.

In fact, Isabella was a Miraculous Doctor.

Greyson was lost in memories. Many years back, he was shocked that the patriarch was to marry Isabella. Now, however, he began to have a grudge admiration for him for the decision, knowing he had made a wise decision.

"If so, Bernard will be saved. Isabella, I'll be your assistant," Greyson said excitedly.

He was also a famous medical genius in the medical field, but at this moment, he was more than willing and thrilled to be Isabella's assistant.

Draxton looked at Isabella and nodded. "I'll leave him to you."

"Don't worry," Isabella said.

Isabella said to Greyson, "Get ready. We'll start now."

Greyson hurriedly nodded.

It was in the Riker family.

Patriarch Riker, Mrs. Riker, Terrence and his wife, and many other members of the Riker gathered around Bridget to appease her.

When the Riker family gave up on Bridget, Patriarch Riker feared that Bridget would feel estranged, but Bridget appeared rather calm at that.

She said, "You're my family, after all. How can I blame you, grandpa and dad?"

Patriarch Riker felt very relieved and satisfied at that. He laughed, cheering that this granddaughter didn't let

Chapter 148 Amelia And Her Daughter

A week passed in the blink of an eye.

It was 7:10 p.m., in the Riker family.

Guests arrived one after another. Lindon, the eldest son of Patriarch Riker, and the third, Terrence, stood at the entrance to greet the guests.

Hustle and bustle gradually filled the house.

A family of three walked in.

Lindon's eyes lit up as he saw them. He smiled and said, "Welcome, Mr. Hart and Madame Lockwood. Oh my, is this your daughter?"

Amelia smiled coyly.

Although she and her daughter had barged into Northernville Manor and offended Draxton, the patriarch, it had been a few months, and he might have forgotten about it now.

But she wasn't sure of it, and she tried many times to meet him, without success. Now there finally was a chance, the party. She came to the Riker family's banquet today only to take the opportunity to meet Draxton and apologize to him.

After all, she thought, her father died to save the patriarch, and therefore, the current would probably forgive them, as long as she apologized.

Cliff stepped forward, smiling, and said to Lindon, "This is my daughter, Sophia, Mr. Riker. It's our honor to be here for Patriarch Riker's birthday."

Lindon's eyes sparkled slightly. Some time ago, Draxton had punished many members of the Lockwood family, including Amelia and her families.

Her family was having a rough time these days. Lindon said with a smile, "Oh, your presence really surprised me, and we're really lucky to have you here, do come in, ladies and gentlemen."

The moment Amelia and her families entered the hall, a servant came up to serve them. And Lindon went out to greet new guests.

Sophia tugged at the pink gown she was wearing and complained under her breath to her mother, "Mom, the Riker family's too perfunctory. He's not really friendly enough at all."

"What experiment?" Sophia asked, confused.

Bridget smiled mysteriously and took her to the window, where they could see the banquet hall.

At this moment, they happened to see Isabella, Olivia, Yale, and a strange man arriving together.

Bridget's pupils constricted slightly, and she gave a sneer.

She had sent Skydragon's puppets to attack the siblings of the Lockwood family, which included Yale.

But Yale was well alive now, and he looked rather spirited.

When Bridget went to Skydragon, she found that the poison bugs in them had been removed, and somehow, she couldn't implant the bugs on them again anymore.

One thing was for sure, all was related to Isabella.

Bridget narrowed her eyes, deeming Isabella a stumbling block in her path. She had to get rid of Isabella. If not, her path ahead would definitely be much unsmooth. Coincidentally, there was now an opportunity. With the thought in mind, Bridget smiled at Sophia and said, "See that woman, Miss Hart? You're not unfamiliar with her, Isabella, right? And the woman beside her is Olivia. Do you know her?"

"I've heard of her, but I've never seen her before," replied Sophia.

Bridget said, "Miss Hart, you may start the experiment yourself now."

Sophia looked at her in bewilderment.

Bridget took two glasses of champagne and placed two artificially cultured poison bugs into them, then she said to Sophia, "Miss Hart, give the left glass to my cousin, Ethan; the right glass, to Olivia. When they drank it, you'll see the effects."

Sophia stared at her in shock, her eyes wide open.

Seeing that Sophia wouldn't believe her, Bridget went on, "Miss Hart, picture when Draxton is infatuated with you..."

Sophia gritted her teeth and said, "Alright, I'll do it." Her eyes became slightly red.

She carried the glasses and the wine downstairs and saw Ethan, Shane and Isabella talking with each other. After a while, Olivia and Ethan began to talk with each other at a corner.

Sophia was overjoyed and quickly walked over to them.

"Olivia, you shouldn't have come. Grandpa and uncle might be plotting against you."

Ethan's face was filled with apprehension.

He said, "Ethan, I'm sorry. But I'll let the Riker family pay for what they did to us.

Olivia and Yale gathered around Isabella and asked nosily, "Isabella, does Jake really like men?"

Isabella stopped laughing and coughed lightly. "How is that possible? It's just someone's underhanded trick." Olivia and Yale's expressions changed slightly. "Isabella, what's going on? Will Jake be alright?"

Isabella said, "He'll be fine. I got him."

Jake pulled Shane to the bathroom. When the door opened, Ethan, who was about to pick the lock, froze. When he saw Shane holding Jake's arm, his face immediately turned pale. He looked at Jake with a heartbroken look and said in a trembling voice, "Mr. Quillon, what... what's your relationship with my cousin?" Jake shivered and had goosebumps all over his body. However, the words coming out of his mouth made him squirm even more. "There's nothing between us. Don't get the wrong idea."

"What wrong idea? Why am I explaining? I must be out of my mind!" Jake thought.

Shane immediately turned to look at him in disbelief. "Mr. Quillon, you... What does Ethan have that I don't? Make it clear to me now."

Ethan and Shane exchanged hostile glances and then fixed their eyes on Jake in unison.

The veins on Jake's forehead throbbed. He took a deep breath and suppressed the odd feeling inside him, smiling at the two of them.

Ethan and Shane were staring at him amorously. Ethan hesitated for a moment before saying, "Mr. Quillon, HI don't mind the three of us being together..."

Shane trembled and looked at Ethan in shock. Then he gritted his teeth and compromised. "As long as I can be with you, I'm willing to do anything."

The smile on Jake's face stiffened. He replied dryly, "You mean it?"

"Yes."

Jake suddenly raised his hand and hit Shane on the back of his neck.

Shane immediately collapsed.

Ethan's eyes widened. "Mr. Quillon, what are you..."
