Chapter 401 Fifth Master

Ricky looked at him expressionlessly.

President's smile widened as he picked up the phone. "My dear brother, after so many years, you're finally willing to talk to me!"

"Eason, you're unscrupulous. You're worse now. You can even make use of a kid."

Mr. Lyons's cold and angry voice was heard.

Ricky couldn't help but look up when he heard Grandpa Lyons's voice.

President glanced at Ricky and smiled happily. "How can you say that I'm using the kid? Ricky is right beside me. Wesley, I'll let you guys talk later. We haven't seen each other for many years. Why don't we chat a little more?"

"I have nothing to say to you. Get Ricky to pick up the call."

President sighed. "Wesley, aren't you too heartless? I'm still your brother, no matter what. Why would I use Ricky to invite you back if you weren't unwilling to come back?"

"I didn't invite Grandpa Lyons back." Ricky frowned and retorted very seriously.

"Eason, I will never let you off if you dare to hurt Ricky. I hope you won't regret it since you want me to go back."

The call ended. President stared at the phone and laughed. He looked at Ricky. "Your Grandpa Lyons is coming back!"

District 5 of Paradise Settlement.

The moon was bright, and the stars were sparse. Isabella and Draxton quietly infiltrated the district master's manor. They thought that the Fifth Master's manor should be heavily guarded, but they did not expect that the huge manor would be silent and that there would be no one around. It was desolate.

Isabella pulled out the weeds and looked at Draxton. "We didn't go to the wrong place, right?"

Draxton smiled and said, "Interesting!"

"Bella, isn't this more fun?" He held Isabella's hand and looked around excitedly.

Isabella was speechless. "Fun?"

"Being with you, no matter what is full of fun. Bella, don't you think it's fun to adventure with me?" Draxton tilted her head and asked casually.

However, his eyes were fixed on her, as if he would not stop if she dared to say no.

The Fifth Master glared at them and sneered. He asked, "What can you do? Do you want to investigate the death of the old president?"

"We want to investigate," Draxton said.

"Why should I believe you?" the Fifth Master's gaze became sharp, and he stared at them as if he wanted to determine if their words were true or false.

"Because we're Julian's enemy," Draxton said.

The Fifth Master was silent for a moment before saying, "I have evidence of Julian killing the old president."

Isabella looked at him appraisingly.

The Fifth Master looked at the two of them and said, "My lover's name is Hannah. She worked for the old president. She organized and kept the old president's important documents.

"On the day Julian and Cecilia killed the old president, the old president probably had a premonition that something was going to happen, so he handed a case to Hannah and asked her to take it out and hand it to Landon.

"Unexpectedly, she was discovered by Julian's people in the end. They killed her."

"Where's the case? Is that the potion in the case?"

The Fifth Master recovered from his sorrow and glared at them again. He said angrily, "And you mention you're not here for the Black Crystal Potion? Hmph!"

Isabella did not argue with him and asked again, "How do you know all this?"

"I went to look for Hannah at that time. Coincidentally, Landon's people reached there quite quickly. Julian's people were afraid of being exposed, so they ran away.

"Hannah was still breathing when I found her. She told me that she had hidden the case below the stone table behind the old president's office.

Chapter 403 The Beck Family

Seeing Paul and Andy's scheming expressions, Fionna's face turned ashen.

However, she did not dare to say anything. If she dared to object, she would be going against them. She knew Paul and Andy very well. If anyone dared to block their interests, they would turn on someone.

She had always been good at reading people's expressions and being very smart. Even if she did not like it, she still did not dare to say anything.

Paul and Andy happily made their decision..

Fionna lowered her head, her eyes filled with coldness.

Upon returning to the room, Andy's eyes flashed when he saw that Fionna was silent. He knew that she was unhappy.

He could not help but step forward and hold her hand. "Fionna, are you unhappy? Because of father's decision?"

Fionna immediately changed her expression and said, "Yes, I'm very worried. James probably hates us very much. What if he refuses to come back?"

Andy was stunned. "You're worried about that? I thought you didn't want him to come back."

Fionna was reluctant because she did not want that bastard to come back. However, she didn't show her thoughts. She rebuked, "Andy, what kind of person do you take me for? Although I like to throw a tantrum sometimes, this concerns the opportunity of our Beck family. Why would I throw a tantrum?"

Andy was immediately moved. He went up to her and hugged her. "Fionna, you're indeed open-minded and magnanimous."

'Don't worry. I will find an opportunity to get rid of him as long as James gives us the Red Crystal.'

He had no father-son relationship with James. When he said this, his expression did not change at all.

Fionna was still satisfied. She smiled and said, "If he's obedient and has our Beck family in his heart, it's not impossible to keep him. What's scary is..."

"He dares!" A sinister light flashed across Andy's eyes.

After saying this, Andy stared sharply at James, wanting to see his expression.

James' silver-framed glasses concealed all the emotions in his eyes. He stared expressionlessly at Andy before replying calmly, "Alright."

Andy's eyes flashed, and the corners of his lips curled up slightly. As expected, this unfilial son of James would compromise as long as it involved his damned mother.

If he had known earlier, he would have used his mother to control him earlier and avoid being so angry.

Fionna lowered her head to hide the viciousness in her eyes. Then, she looked up and smiled. "That's great, James. Welcome home."

James did not say anything.

Andy stood up and walked to James's side. "Then there's no need to wait. Pack up now and bring the Red Crystal home."

James said, "You guys go back first. I have to find the Red Crystal to inform them. It will take an entire morning. I'll bring them to the Beck family in the afternoon."

Andy nodded in agreement and left in satisfaction.

Fionna immediately followed.

Brandon and Annie quickly followed. When they passed by James, Brandon glanced at him and snorted in disdain.

He looked at James contemptuously and said in a low voice, "Poor thing!"

Annie looked at Brandon in fear. She felt that Brandon was courting death.

James looked terrifying to behave like this.

However, she had no proof to say that.

She was also powerless to convince her parents.

Chapter 405 James’ Revenge

As James spoke, he laughed.

The Beck family members were dumbfounded.

Andy was so angry that he strode forward without another word. He raised his hand and ruthlessly slapped James’s face.

He was so angry that his face contorted with malevolence. A look of disdain flashed across the corners of James’s lips as he grabbed Andy’s arm.

Suddenly, a cold glint flashed across James's eyes under the silver wire frame. He grabbed Andy's wrist and exerted force. With a cracking sound, the sound of bones breaking rang out. Andy's arm was broken at an abnormal angle.

"Ah!"

Andy let out a scream as his face turned pale. James pushed him backward, causing him to fall to the ground.

James took a step forward and stepped on his chest with a sneer.

Andy carried his injured arm with his other hand as he lay on the ground and inhaled deeply. He was unable to resist James.

Annie was scared silly by this scene, while Brandon roared, "James, what are you doing? You dare to hit father?"

James turned his head to look at him. At the same time, he raised his hand and took off his silver-framed glasses, revealing his exceptionally dark eyes.

His eyes were as dark as an ocean, and there seemed to be endless black fog surging, making people not dare to look at him.

Brandon only took a glance before his entire body trembled, and he subconsciously fell silent.

James glared at Brandon coldly and ignored him. Then he turned his gaze back to Andy.

Paul finally couldn't stand it anymore. "James, he is your father. The Beck family did have a misunderstanding with you, but this is your home after all. You're harming others without benefiting yourself. It won't do you any good."

Paul stared at James, wanting to see even a trace of hesitation and cowardice on his face.

James looked up at him with a fierce expression. "Shut up! I'll deal with you later. Even if you want to take advantage of your seniority, you should see if I buy it!"

"James, if you dare to hurt me, the Beck family will not let you off!" Brandon snapped.

"Really? Hahaha, then I'll see what you plan to do."

James smiled with interest and said, "Brandon, I'll give you a chance now. As long as you obediently lie down and suffer for your father, I'll let him go, alright?"

"I remember that your father doted on you very much. There was once when you framed me. For you, he beat me up with a belt until my skin split, and I couldn't get out of bed for half a month.

"He dotes on you so much. You should have no objections to suffering for him, right?"

Brandon stared at James angrily.

Andy stared at James, but he also looked at Brandon at the same time.

Brandon did not have Fiona's skillful acting skills. His face was filled with resistance and fear, and he even moved back.

Andy's face immediately darkened.

James laughed heartily. "This is too interesting. Andy, did you see that? Your son is truly outstanding!"

Fiona was dizzy, but she was nervous. She was so anxious that she did not know what to do.

But at this moment, James's expression suddenly changed. He said in a deep voice, "Since Brandon isn't willing to suffer for his father, let him suffer alone.

Cut off one of his hands and let him bleed so someone will be obedient."

Chapter 407 Nine Old Men

When Ian and Kimberly rushed to the Beck family, they happened to see that all the Beck family members were being chased out.

Paul and Old Madam Beck, who were in the lead, were gagged.

Andy and Fionna were dragged out.

Andy's eyes widened when he saw Ian. He let out a whimper, his posture extremely urgent.

Anyone could tell that he was asking for help.

Ian revealed a shocked expression. James was capable of causing the Beck family to be in such a state.

He ignored Andy and the others. Then, he exchanged a glance with Kimberly before leading his men into the Beck family's main entrance.

Red Crystal glanced at them and did not stop them.

Isabella found a random seat and sat down. She said, “He’s fine. He should be with Joshua. Don’t worry.”

James said, “That’s great. Mrs. Lockwood, are you planning to show yourself now?”

Isabella smiled and said, “Our goal of faking our deaths has been achieved. Naturally, I can show up openly.”

As soon as she finished speaking, the Sullivan family barged in. Kimberly chuckled. “I didn’t expect Mr. Beck to shock the world. I admire an expert like you the most. I want to be with you. What do you think, James?”

As soon as she entered, Kimberly’s charming voice sounded.

James’s face turned green as he glared at Kimberly with a cold expression.

Isabella sneered and turned to stare at the Sullivan family with a faint smile.

Kimberly originally wanted to tease James again, but just as she opened her mouth, her voice stopped.

She stared at Isabella as if she had seen a ghost.

Ian also saw Isabella and immediately gasped. He could not help but exclaim, “Butterfly! Isabella, you’re not dead?”

"Nine old men?" Isabella asked in surprise.

James said with a solemn expression, "Mrs. Lockwood, they must be those people from the council."

Isabella also thought of it. She said, "Invite them in. The rumors these few days are strange. It's obvious that someone is spreading them maliciously behind the scene. It's really useful. They alarmed the people from the council so quickly."

After a while, a group of old men dressed similarly were invited in.

Isabella looked at this scene and her lips could not help but twitch. She felt inexplicably amused.

Isabella stood up and took two steps forward. Just as she was about to speak, the old man in the lead snorted coldly "Hmph, are you the Miraculous Doctor, Isabella? You're so arrogant. You actually made us old men wait for so long."

The Red Crystal Warrior's face darkened. He was very angry. This old man was obviously looking for trouble on purpose. They had not waited outside for long.

However, he did not dare to interrupt.

Judging from the old man's attitude, Isabella knew that they were deliberately making trouble.

Her expression did not change as she said indifferently. "Then I'm sorry for my rudeness. In order to express my apology, I'll invite you to stay for dinner."

"Hmph, who cares? Do you think the meal here is precious enough? We're not hungry!" The second old man walked out, blowing his beard and glaring.

Isabella looked at him and said with a good temper, "Is that so? Since you're not hungry, let's sit down and have a cup of coffee."

"Hmph, so be it. Do you think we don't dare? But where do you want us to sit? There aren't many chairs in this hall, right?"

The third old man also appeared.

Isabella looked at these old men who were stirring up trouble one by one. The corners of her eyes could not help but twitch. At this point, she could clearly tell that these old men were deliberately making things difficult for her.

Isabella said, "Elders, there are still enough chairs in the hall."

As expected, the fourth old man came out and said, "Don't tell me you want us to sit on the lower side. This is too much. Do you know who we are?"

Isabella looked at her daughter silently. She did not expect that these troublesome old men would actually be obedient to Betty Betty was really... amazing!

Isabella raised her eyebrows. Without the dignity of a mother, she complained to her daughter, "Betty, they're lying. They clearly bullied me just now!"

When Betty heard this, she immediately pouted and revealed a displeased expression.

The nine old men widened their eyes and looked at Isabella in disbelief. Wasn't she shameless?

She actually complained to Betty?

Well...

How shameless!

"Pfft... Why are you like this?" In order to prove that he was only here to drink coffee, Peter had just drunk a cup of coffee and choked on it. He coughed violently and pointed at Isabella angrily as if he was looking at an enemy who had hurt him.

Isabella's expression was rather innocent.

"Mom, Betty will protect you!"

Betty puffed out her chest proudly. In the past, it was always her mother who protected them. This time, it was finally her turn to protect her mother.

She would not let the old men bully her mother.

She walked in front of Jaye and asked with a pout, "Grandpa Jaye, do you still want to hear me tell you a story in the future?"

Jaye hurriedly nodded. "Yes, yes."

Betty snorted and looked at Richard. "Grandpa Richard, do you still want me to sing and dance for you in the Richard also hurriedly nodded.

"In addition, Mystical Island is no longer sealed off. We will cooperate with the Lockwood family in all aspects. From now on, Mystical Island will have everything you have. You will also have everything on Mystical Island."

Isabella raised an eyebrow. "Mystical Island is 50 years behind the outside world. If you want us to instantly synchronize the development of Mystical Island with the outside world, the price is extraordinary. No matter how I think about it, it's a losing deal."

Jocelyn said, "How is that possible? Mystical Island's rare mineral veins are completely worth it. When you see those mineral veins, you'll know that you've definitely taken advantage of us.

"This was because the mineral veins and metals on Mystical Island could increase the technology of the outside world by at least another 50 years.

"Mystical Island only wanted to protect itself. Cooperating with the outside world could guarantee that Mystical Island had these powers.

"With the mineral veins provided by Mystical Island, the power of the outside world will also increase qualitatively. No matter how you think about it, this is a more beneficial business for you."

Isabella pondered for a moment and said, "I agree to this deal on behalf of the Lockwood family. When Draxton comes back, we'll get to know about those mineral veins. I hope those mineral veins can surprise us."

"Of course." Jocelyn smiled.

Isabella also smiled and said teasingly, "Jocelyn, you're so confident."

Jocelyn glared at her and said, "Bella, don't worry. Mystical Island will definitely not disappoint the Lockwood family."

"I naturally believe you, Master Grey."

After saying that, she looked at the old men. The old men obviously did not expect the conversation to go so smoothly Isabella skipped the collaboration and took out a USB flash drive.
