

Kick Ass Wife 451

Chapter 451

Patriarch Wheeler glared at Isabella fiercely. Isabella is too arrogant. I can't let her go easily."

On second thought, he realized the Lockwood family had already given the Vernon Group to President. The shareholders of the Vernon Group must hate Draxton.

Therefore, he said to Vernon, "Mr. Vernon, let me introduce the person upstairs to you. She is Mrs. Isabella Lockwood.

"I heard that the Lockwood family has already handed the Vernon Group over to President. Would you like to greet her?"

Vernon glanced coldly at Patriarch Wheeler before looking up.

Patriarch Wheeler's lips were secretly curved into a cold smile. If Vernon wanted to make things difficult for Isabella, it would be a blessing for the Wheeler family.

At this moment, Isabella led Yvette downstairs with Big Dippers following them closely behind.

Frieda looked ferocious as she stared resentfully at Isabella's back. She also rose to her feet and walked downstairs.

Watching the scene, Erica hurriedly pulled Shelly forward and whispered, "Shelly, Mr. Vernon is here."

Shelly froze and asked, flustered, "Mom, is my hair messy?"

Erica glanced at Shelly's hair and answered, "No. Let's go downstairs and meet him."

Shelly followed her mom down the stairs with a shy look.

When she went downstairs and saw Jerico receiving treatment in the corner, she turned slightly panicked.

She whispered to Erica, Mom, will Mr. Chancelly take his anger out on us?"

Erica suddenly wore a gloomy expression. She was worried about it as well. She then whispered to Shelly, "Shelly, don't worry about this. Your grandparents and I are here.

We won't let Mr. Chancelly pester you anymore.

You just need to talk to Vernon and leave a good impression on him."

As soon as Draxton entered, he landed his eyes on Isabella.

A little shocked, Isabella immediately looked at the seven Big Dippers and asked,

'Who informed Draxton?'

The seven of them lowered their heads guiltily. The only girl replied, 'Mrs. Lockwood, we were afraid that we wouldn't be able to handle it, so we called Mr. Lockwood.'

Isabella was rendered speechless and rolled her eyes. "Aren't I here? What can these few cowards do to me?”

‘ What did you say?’ Draxton gnashed his teeth as he walked over.

At the sight of Draxton’s sullen look, Isabella immediately shut her mouth obediently.

She sighed sadly in her heart, “No matter how arrogant I am in front of outsiders, I have to follow this man’s instructions.”

Seeing her innocent and timid look, Draxton was both angry and amused. He sized her up and asked with concern, “Are you tired?”

Isabella looked into Draxton’s dark blue eyes which were filled with worry. With guilt in her mind, she replied gently, “A little.’

Draxton answered without hesitation, Why didn’t you call me since you were tired? If it weren’t for Big Dippers, would you have personally fought with these people tonight?”

Isabella was really mortified with guilt. She drooped her head, not as majestic as before.

With her mouth slightly wide, Yvette was dumbfounded as she watched the scene.

“Is this upset girl in front of me really the ferocious thug who grabbed Jerico’s head and slammed it against the door?’

At the thought of this, Yvette unconsciously darted a glance at Draxton in admiration.

Her cousin Draxton was the only person that Isabella would listen to!

One of the Big Dippers complained, “Mr. Lockwood, Mrs. Lockwood and Miss Baker were almost in trouble. But for Mrs. Lockwood’s self-protection, the consequences would have been too ghastly to contemplate.’

Isabella was throwing a fit. She crossed her arms over her chest and glared at Big Dippers. “Hey! Who is your boss? When did you learn to be a whistle-blower?”

Big Dippers quickly lowered their heads obediently, looking as innocent and pitiful as pets reprimanded by their masters.

Isabella was furious with her eyes wide. Fine, they had learned from Isabella to pretend they were being abused!

Yvette covered her mouth and chuckled.

Draxton was also amused by Isabella. He whispered to Isabella while wrapping his arms around her, Give me ten minutes. We'll go home in ten minutes.”

The person on the other end of the line remained silent for a moment before saying, 'Got it. Don't tell Wesley about this. I'll take care of it.'

Draxton's phone had been on speaker mode, so when the President's voice sounded, everyone heard it clearly.

Patriarch Wheeler's face suddenly turned pale, a trace of panic flashing across his eyes.

Draxton hung up the phone and looked up at him, saying, "The Wheeler family will soon be nothing.'

Patriarch Wheeler's face became even paler.

Draxton turned to Isabella and said, "Bella, it's done. Let's go home.'

Isabella nodded and left with him.

Vernon and Harlow stood there. When meeting Draxton's gaze, Vernon nodded slightly and said, "Patriarch.'

Draxton nodded, without saying anything or looking at Harlow.

Harlow's expression was solemn. From the way Draxton treated Jerico, he already knew that the rumors about how ruthless Draxton was were true.

He did not say anything but watched Draxton leave with Vernon.

After Draxton and the others left, Patriarch Wheeler looked dejectedly at the mess in the hall.

However, when he saw Shelly standing not far away from Vernon, he got a plan.

"I'm not dead yet!" At this moment, Frieda's faint voice sounded.

Patriarch Wheeler and Michael turned around, only to find that Frieda had just woken up and overheard their conversation. Her face was pale, and her eyes were filled with hatred.

Erica supported Frieda, who was struggling to sit up. Frieda stared fiercely at Michael and Patriarch Wheeler, saying angrily, "Don't beg them! I'm not dead yet. As long as I'm still alive, I won't allow the Wheeler family to bow down to the Barker family.

"How dare they treat us like this?! I won't show mercy this time!"

Michael's face darkened, but he still patiently pursued, "Mom, leave this to me. You've just woken up. Go get some rest."

Frieda said, No hurry. Let's take some rest today. Tomorrow morning, I'll go to the Barker family's house and ask them to explain it!

Michael didn't seem to agree with her. Frieda glanced at him and said, "Michael, leave it to me. I know what to do."

Michael was even more worried. After a short silence, he questioned, "Dad, Mom, why are you working with Jerico and hiding this from me?"

Patriarch Wheeler felt a bit uneasy. He kept it from Michael because he thought Michael was too conservative. If he told Michael about this, he might not agree with him and ruin his plans.

He did so also for the benefit of the Wheeler family. After all, the Flouder family was quite competitive. What if Jerico changed his mind and cooperated with the Flouder family?

‘ Michael, I’ll explain it to you in the future. Let’s solve our current problem first.

Michael, the President only said that he no longer trusted the Wheeler family, but he didn’t say that he lost faith in the Flouder family. Why don’t you go talk to him? If you put in a good word for us with the President, perhaps he will change his mind for the sake that you’re my daughter-in-law.”

Michael was a bit disheartened.

How could he not know what Patriarch Wheeler was thinking?

When he married Erica back then, he knew that she liked Philip, but he didn’t care. He believe as long as he treated her well, Erica would feel it and fall in love with him one day.

Frieda leaned against the headboard tiredly with Patriarch Wheeler lying beside her.

They couldn't fall asleep. Frieda said, with a grim look in her eyes, “Hubby, you saw it

‘She could even make someone like Mr. Chancely suffer.

‘Hmph, the Lockwood family is really something. I heard that Isabella came from an ordinary family. The Lockwood family probably allowed Draxton to marry her because she had something special.”

Patriarch Wheeler said with a sigh, “What's the use of saying this? What happened today is a huge blow to our Wheeler family.”

His face turned gloomy as he spoke. The next second, he continued angrily, ‘ But you’re right. Isabella is indeed a tough woman. Everything that happened today was because of Isabella. If it weren’t for her, Mr. Chancelly would have already gotten Yvette. Then our cooperation with him would continue smoothly.

‘ Draxton alone already gives us a headache, and now, there’s another troublemaker.

‘But it doesn’t matter. I’ll go to the Barker family’s house tomorrow morning and ask them for an explanation. They ruined Shelly’s birthday party and our family’s plans.

They offended Mr. Chancelly and the President. I’ll go ask them to make it up to us!”

Patriarch Wheeler frowned and said, “But... it has been years since the Barker family cut their relationship with us. What if they reject our request?”

In Frieda's opinion, Manfre wouldn't have had the guts to hit her because he was guilty about her.

That was why she dared to make a scene here.

Patriarch Barker looked at her coldly and said, "Why wouldn't I dare to hit you? Frieda,
I have my bottom line and my patience has grown thin.

You've challenged me again and again. Do you still want me to show you mercy?'

"You!"

Frieda was heartbroken. Tears welled up as she stared resentfully at Patriarch Barker.

"Manfred, you're not worthy of being my brother!"

"Of course, he's not worthy of being your brother because he doesn't want to have a sister like you.

"Frieda, think about what you've done. Who would want to have a younger sister like you?"

Madame Barker sneered.

"Shut up. This is between us siblings. You're just an outsider. It's none of your business."

Frieda shot her a fierce glare.

Madame Barker found it ridiculous. She looked at Patriarch Barker and said, Manfred, did you hear that? I'm an outsider!

"It's so funny. I've lived with you for dozens of years and we already have grandchildren. Now, someone is saying that I'm an outsider. Am I hearing things or is that person a lunatic?"

The look in Madame Barker's eyes became stern as she spoke.

Manfred also got mad. He looked at Frieda coldly and said, 'Frieda, don't you know who the outsider really is? After you kidnapped Draxton, I already cut ties with you. I, Manfred Barker, don't have a sister!"

"You!" Frieda was about to retort, but she just could not come up with anything.

"Frieda, get out of my house. I've had nothing to do with you since a long time ago. If you continue to make a scene here, I won't show mercy!"

At this moment, Manfred's face finally darkened.

Without him, the Barker family might have fallen a long time ago, and there was no way it would become the current business giant. He was also a legendary figure when he was young. As time went on, he became increasingly gentler. Even so, if he really put on a stern look, his aura would definitely intimidate everyone.

Patriarch Wheeler was frightened because he could tell that Manfred was really annoyed. He reached out to pull Frieda.

However, Frieda did not buy it. She said angrily, "Manfred, your daughter is doing so well. What's the big deal about me having your granddaughter do Shelly a favor? Why are you so heartless?"

"You know that the Wheeler family offended Mr. Chancelly and the President, but you just turn a blind eye to it. Isn't it too impersonal?"

Manfred was so angry that he could not utter a word.

Erica, who had been lowering her head without saying anything, stepped forward and said with tears in her eyes, "Uncle, Aunt, I know that my mother did something wrong, but she's your sister after all.

' No matter what happened, we're still family. Please ask Draxton to let the Wheeler family off for the sake that we're related by blood!"

Madame Barker looked at her in disgust. Erica was good at acting when she was young. Every man would want to protect her when they saw the tears in this beauty's eyes. Fortunately, Philip loved Jean very much. Otherwise, Erica might have succeeded in seducing him.

Madame Barker sneered, "Erica, stop acting in front of us. I'll put it straight. Our two families will be enemies from now on.

Isabella and Draxton were right. Jerico did not escape at all because there was no way he could leave Lucsia. No one could escape the Lockwood family's hunting in Lucsia unless there was a miracle.

When Draxton offered to play the game, he did not mean to let Jerico go. He just wanted to tease him, get back at him, and torture him.

Jerico found a place to hide and let his subordinates distract the Lockwood family's men. Even so, he had a hard time the whole day.

Late at night, he returned to the Wheeler family's residence under the escort of his two subordinates.

In the dark, a few North Star members were watching coldly without alarming Jerico.

Frieda and Patriarch Wheeler were in low spirits the whole day. They were dealt with a heavy blow after they made a scene at the Barker family's house this morning. Frieda felt even worse than Patriarch Wheeler. She was so angry that she fell ill after returning home.

In the afternoon, the Wheeler family suddenly received a piece of grievous news. The Barker family announced that they would refuse to cooperate with anyone who had business collaborations with the Wheeler family in the future.

In addition to this, the news of the President abandoning the Wheeler family got out.

The Wheeler family's business partners became hesitant.

There were also people who didn't believe that the Wheeler family would be taken down with the support of the Flouder family, so they had no plan to terminate the cooperation with them.

However, most people were smart and conservative, unwilling to take any risks. After their partners terminated or delayed their cooperation with them one by one, the Wheeler family's huge business empire stopped working and things became really tough.

Patriarch Wheeler was so angry and worried that he fainted immediately at the news. Fortunately, the Wheeler family still had Denver and Yax dealing with the hassle.

Later, Michael joined them.

The three of them temporarily kept the family from falling.

Even so, the Wheelers are in a difficult situation. If they wanted their business to return to normal, they had to make the Barker family take back their words. But how was that possible?

Michael closed his eyes and said, "I know, Dad."

After a pause, he continued, "Dad, Mom, listen, if I'm not wrong, Jerico can't escape from Maestria at all. The Lockwood family is so powerful that no one can escape their hunting in Lucsia.

‘ Jerico also knows this, so he’s very likely to come back to our house to seek your help.’

Patriarch Wheeler, Frieda, and even Erica’s eyes lit up at the same time.

On the contrary, Michael’s eyes darkened. “Jerico is a murderer who might do anything crazy. It was because of the Wheeler family that he ended up so miserable.

So, if he really comes to us, you’d better contain him and hand him over to the Barkers to ease the tension between the two families.

“I know what you’re thinking. You still want to befriend him, but I think cooperating with him is like asking a tiger for its skin. It won’t end well.

“If you don’t want the Wheeler family to fall, do as I say.”

Patriarch Wheeler and Frieda remained silent.

Michael continued, “Dad, Mom, you’d better remember my words. Otherwise, you can’t afford the consequences.”

Michael had no idea if they would take his words to heart, but he could do nothing about it even if they did not listen to him.

He had done his best to convince them. Anyway, he could not lock the Wheelers up to keep them from getting in touch with Jerico.

There were some things that he could not help with even if he wanted to. He only hoped that they would take his warning seriously.

Patriarch Wheeler said, ‘ Michael, we know what you mean. Don’t worry, we know what to do.’

Hearing that, Michael knew that there was no way he could change their minds, so he stopped trying to convince them and said, ‘ Dad, Mom, take a good rest. I still have to deal with. I’m

Seeing Shelly taken aback, Erica calmed down and pulled her aside, whispering, Don't call your dad. He doesn't want the Wheeler family to cooperate with Mr.

"Shelly, you don't understand. Now, the Wheeler family doesn't have an option other

At the mention of this, Erica let out a sigh. "Shelly, your dad... After all, he's not a “Alright, Shelly, go to sleep. Lock the door. As long as you don’t show up in front of Mr. Chancelly, he won’t do anything to you. He’s still counting on your grandpa to help him return to Southeast Aelinne.”

Shelly looked at Erica in a daze and asked, “Mom, Dad is one of us. Why don’t you trust him?”

“It’s not that I don’t trust him, but it’s we have different positions. Only the Wheelers will fight for what they want. Your dad doesn’t care what the Wheeler family wants.”

Shelly’s face turned gloomy. She returned to her room in a daze and locked the door. Sitting on the bed, she hugged herself tightly and stared blankly ahead, feeling confused and torn.

When Jerico saw that only Erica came back with the medicine box, a fierce look flashed across his eyes, making him look like a wild beast. He kept talking to Patriarch Wheeler and Frieda while his subordinates were treating his wound.

“My injuries are serious, and I need to rest and eat, so I won’t leave tonight. You guys can figure out a way to send me away tomorrow morning,” Jerico said.
