The Billionaire's Kick-Ass Wife Chapter 481

The next afternoon, the big shots of Maestria's related industries all gathered in the Page family's house.

Now that Stanton was in charge of the Barker family with Patriarch Barker stepping aside, Stanton would be the one to represent the Chamber of Commerce. Stanton brought his wife and son along with him.

Megan, although having an argument with Stanton, was very sensible when it came to important matters.

Hector, on the other hand, was not willing to make such a trip. He was forced to come here by Stanton and Megan.

Hector was young and unsettled. He did not care much about his family's business. Most of the time, he did not like to participate in such business gatherings.

When Stanton and his family made it there, they ran into Michael, who had also gotten out of the car. There was a young man beside Michael. "Mr. Barker, Mrs. Barker." Michael went forward to greet them with a hint of guilty on his face. After all, Erica had hurt Yvette again and again. Although she did not succeed, it wouldn't change the fact that she attempted to hurt others.

Stanton and Megan had no intention of venting their anger on Michael. This person was willing to work with Draxton for their daughter. At the very least, he was different from the Wheeler family.

Stanton's attitude was quite friendly, and he responded politely. Michael was about to take the opportunity to apologize when the Wheeler family arrived.

"Michael!" Denver shouted.

Michael turned around and saw Denver, Lydia, and Yax.

Edric stood beside Michael, and his face flushed with anger at the sight of Lydia and Denver. He almost failed to control the urge to rush forward.

Michael took a step forward and blocked Edric. He looked at Denver indifferently.

"What brings you guys here?" Michael asked, "How's the company?"

Denver had some resentment toward Michael. When he heard this, he said crossly, "Michael, I didn't expect you to care about the company."

Michael looked at him and said, "Sorry about that. I got tied up with so many things that happened. I gotta take care of Shelly and your sister."

At the mention of Shelly, Denver was also speechless. An unnatural expression flashed across his face as he said, "We were careless and failed to protect Shelly well. How is she now? Dad and Mom are very concerned about her."

Michael looked at him deeply and said, "She's much better. We still have to move on."

Megan and Hector were stunned.

Seeing that his father's face was stiff, Hector hurriedly went forward and said, "Heh, well, Mr. Anthony, my father admires you very much, and so do I. How about..."

As he spoke, he extended his hand.

Hector only wanted to save Stanton, but when he said that, Anthony's eyes lit up. He said happily, "Really? Mr. Barker admires me, haha..."

He shook Stanton's hand again.

Hector was speechless.

At this moment, someone came over and bent an arm around Hector's shoulder. That person chuckled and said, "Haha, you admire my father too? What's so good about him? I think we hit it off very well. Let's have a chat?"

Hector thought to himself, "Who the hell is this? Hit it off with you?"

He turned around and saw a young man with red hair and green eyes looking at him with a smile.

Looking at the red hair on his head and then at his green eyes, Hector slowly realized that this man was Anthony's son.

Arvid smiled warmly and looked at Hector expectantly, as if he really wanted to have a good chat.

Hector's expression was strange. His eyes shifted between Arvid and then Anthony as he wondered if there was something wrong with them.

Their behaviors dumbfounded everyone present. It was too unexpected. Old Mr. Page's expression turned visibly sullen.

Denver was also a little anxious and could not help but look at Joseph.

Joseph's eyes flashed as he gave the butler a look.

The butler took his hint and turned to leave.

Not long after, the butler came out with a young woman.

With her baby bump slightly visible, she should be more than four months pregnant.

Stanton and Megan were livid. Megan was secretly angry at Stanton, but at this moment, she was definitely on the same side as Stanton.

Her eyes were sharp as she sneered. 'Madam, it's unknown whose baby you're carrying. Everyone knows how our Barker family is like.

"On the other hand, you keep saying that Stanton is the father of the child in your belly. Then, show me the evidence."

The woman said, "What evidence do you need for such a thing? That day, Mr. Barker drank too much, so he... he..."

"I refused it at first, but I'm just a weak woman. Mrs. Barker, I know this matter brings disgrace to your family, but... I beg you to let me and the child live..."

The surrounding people were all watching the show.

Michael's expression changed slightly. He looked at Edric and asked, "What happened?"

Edric's face paled visibly as he stared at Stanton's figure and said, "No, it's not like that. The person related to my sister is clearly..."

"Since things have come to this, I think it necessary to do a paternity test in order to prove Stanton's innocence.

"Although the child had yet to be born, some high-level medical institutions had their own ways of doing so.

"Madam, you're not afraid of a test, are you? After all, it's your one-sided story, and there's no evidence.

"Well, it's possible for some people to frame Stanton with fake scandals.

"If the child is confirmed to be his, then I, Megan, hereby declare that I will divorce Stanton. You will be the madam of the Barker family.

"But if the child is proved not to be Stanton's, and you frame him, our Barker family will not let you go. We won't let the mastermind behind you off either!"

Megan stood in front of Stanton with a scowl, full of imposing manner.

Some of the onlookers secretly admired her boldness, but there were also people who revealed mocking expressions.

The woman was slightly stunned. It was obvious that she never expected Megan to say something like that.

Anthony's words were instantly met with dead silence.

This silence was broken by a chuckle suddenly, which was especially abrupt.

The voice came from Arvid's phone.

Everyone's attention shifted to Arvid.

Arvid raised his head, his eyes sweeping across everyone. He smiled and waved his hand. He said heartily, "Haha, it's fine. It's fine. It's a friend of mine. She might have found it a little funny, so she laughed. It's none of your business, hahaha."

Isabella stopped laughing. Arvid switched the camera and looked at Isabella as if he was asking for credit.

'Miraculous Doctor, did you get laughed at?' He asked very frankly, ignoring the fact that the expression on the Page family turn more awkward.

Isabella complimented, 'Indeed, you did well!'

Arvid's eyes lit up. He was as smug as a dog that had been praised by its master, and there seemed to be an invisible big tail wagging behind him.

Everyone already knew who was on the phone with Arvid.

Isabella was Miraculous Doctor, and it was needless to say Isabella's relationship with the Barker family.

For a moment, the atmosphere at the scene was a little subtle.

Why didn't they think of this before?

With Miraculous Doctor's relationship, what was the Barker family worried about?

Stanton seemed to have just realized this. He looked at Anthony and said, "Mr. Anthony, you are a sensible person. I admire you.

"However, if you choose to cooperate with the Barker family, I hope that you're not doing it because of Bella. I'd rather hope you see the Barker family's credibility and strength.

They looked at Edric angrily and said, "Where did this wild kid come from? How dare he spouts nonsense here! Bodyguard!"

' Don't get carried away. This young man has no reason to frame you here,' Stanton sneered and stopped them.

Eileen's expression changed. She gritted her teeth and walked over to Edric's side. She said to Stanton, "Mr. Barker, I'm sorry. I shouldn't have framed you. I'm deeply sorry about this.'

With that, she bowed deeply.

Then, she continued, "Joseph forced me. He said that if I didn't listen to him, he would kill my boyfriend. He even wanted to show those private photos of mine to my boyfriend. I really had no choice, so... Mr. and Mrs. Barker, I hope you can let me off."

'Since you can stand up now and tell the truth, we'll forgive you. After all, you're not the mastermind behind this matter,' said Megan.

She looked at Denver and Lydia and said with a sneer, 'Lydia, should I overestimate you or look down on you?

"Your husband did a nasty thing, yet you are still so protective of him. You are really a piece of work. I, Megan, admire you!"

Her expression was mocking and sympathetic, making Lydia feel embarrassed. Denver was even more exasperated.

At this moment, Stanton said, ' Meg, there's no need to waste your breath on such people. Since the Page family dared to harm me, I won't be kind to them.

"I don't think there's a need for this Chamber of Commerce to go on. Mr. Anthony, I think you have your own judgment now that things have come to this point. However, I still have to say. the Page family and the Wheeler family shouldn't be your choices for partners, even if you haven't decided to cooperate with the Barker family."

Anthony nodded in all seriousness. He looked at the Page family and Denver in disgust and said, "Mr. Stanton, what you said makes sense. I can't stay here anymore. You don't mind if I leave with you, right?"

"Sure!"

Stanton said.

After saying that, he looked at Eileen and Edric. "If you trust me, then follow me. I promise to protect you."

Edric and Eileen exchanged a glance with each other before they followed Stanton without hesitation. They were aware of the strength of the Page and Wheeler families. It was a piece of cake for the two families to take revenge on them.

Betty and Ricky seemed to understand their words. The two kids looked at each other and climbed down from the sofa together. They puffed out their little chests and said to Patriarch and Madame Barker seriously, "Great-grandpa, Great-grandma, we're very powerful. We can protect you and Mommy."

As he spoke, Betty grabbed Silver General from her head.

Silver General moved. Only then did the old couple realize that the little thing on the girl's head, which they had always thought was a hair clip, was actually a worm, no, a scorpion.

Betty patted her chest proudly and said, "If bad people come, Silver General will bite them to death!

"Furthermore, I got poison..."

As she spoke, the little girl began to take out the poison from her body.

First, she opened the pendant hanging around her neck. The pills inside rolled out.

Then came the bracelets, then the buttons, and then she began rummaging through the pockets...

Isabella silently rubbed her forehead. Her daughter had dug out everything she had.

Patriarch Barker and Madame Barker were dumbfounded.

After a moment, Madame Barker looked at Isabella in shock and said, "Bella, she's a kid. How can you let her hide poison in her body? What if it hurts her? And that worm...'

Madame Barker's face turned pale.

Betty blinked her big watery eyes as she said seriously, "Great-grandma, these things were learned when I was two years old. Great grandma, be good. I'm very powerful!"

Ricky silently took a glance at his sister who was bragging and started to decorate the house alone.

Without a word, Ricky released all his worms and scattered medicinal powder at the same time. In an instant, the entire living room was filled with traps.

That person slowly took a step back and said, "Don't come any closer. You should know that even though you're Butterfly, you're not my match now.'

As he spoke, he opened his palm where lay an exquisite silver flying dagger.

There was an exquisite pentagon engraved on the handle of the flying knife, like a star.

Isabella was silent for a moment. She sighed softly and said, "So it's you!"

The man did not say anything. He looked at Isabella quietly for a while before saying, "Now, are you willing to come with me?'

"Of course not.' Isabella flashed a smile. "I've heard a lot about King. I've finally met you today. Well, even though you're ranked second on the Gold Assassin List, do you think you can get anything out of me? You can't take me away."

Isabella closed in on him.

This time, the man did not retreat. Instead, he stared at Isabella and said in a deep voice, "If you don't want to go others implicate, it's best..."

Suddenly, he groaned.

Isabella's fingertips shook slightly, and a fine needle pierced into the man's shoulder.

The man covered his shoulder and suddenly looked up at Isabella. With a slight turn of her palm, the thin Butterfly Wings emerged.

The man stared at the Butterfly Wing. His pupils constricted slightly. Without a word, he dodged nimbly and jumped out of the window.

Isabella retracted the Butterfly Wing and stared thoughtfully in the direction that the person had left with a slight frown.

"Mommy!"

"Bella!"

Downstairs, Betty and Patriarch Barker called out at the same time.

Isabella came out of her trance and said, 'It's fine now.'

Isabella turned around and went downstairs. Madame Barker said in surprise, "That person left just like that?"

The two doctors quickly took out syringes to draw blood.

Vernon said, "Father, don't worry. I've received special training. This bit of poison won't kill me.'

Henderson said in a low voice, "I didn't expect Isabella's such a hard nut even though she's pregnant. Otherwise, I wouldn't have let you take the risk."

Vernon lowered her eyes and said, "Isabella is not only Butterfly but also Miraculous Doctor. Father, Miraculous Doctor can save both people and kill them. I was careless.'

' Rest well. I won't let anything happen to you.'" After Henderson finished speaking, he turned around and walked out.

Vernon slowly closed his eyes and placed his hand on his heart expressionlessly.

On the other side of the Barker family, when Draxton brought everyone back, the Barker family's family doctor was already waiting.

Isabella kept herself busy. Together with a few family doctors, she treated the injuries of Stanton and the others.

Anthony and Arvid had both suffered moderate injuries. They were not life-threatening, but they had to suffer a little.

Megan was well-protected and Hector was slightly injured.

Due to the special situation, Edric and his sister were also brought to the Barker family. Edric's arm was slashed so deeply that his bones could be seen.

Isabella took a homemade ointment and applied it on him. She looked up and was surprised that Edric endured the pain without making a sound, though his face paled from the pain.

"You can stand the pain!" she said with a smile.

Hector came over and said, "Isabella, this kid is quite ruthless in fighting, but he's too weak."

Edric raised his eyes and gave Hector a sullen glare.

Stanton scolded him jokingly, "Brat, you're no better than him. Yet you're still laughing at him."

Denver said sternly.

'You...'" Joseph was furious. Just as he was about to say something, he was silenced by a hint from Old Mr. Page.

Old Mr. Page shook his head at Joseph, who snorted and bit back the words he was about to say.

Old Mr. Page said, Denver, we're all on the same side. Harmony is all that matters. Still, what happened today was indeed because of you."

Denver snorted coldly and turned around to leave.

With a gloomy face, Lydia looked at one side and then at the other. Old Mr. Page said, 'Lydia, why are you still here? Do you really want a divorce?'"

Lydia came back to her sense and hurriedly chased after Denver.

Joseph said, "Dad, don't tell me you still have expectations for the Wheeler family. The Barker family is backed by the Lockwood family. The Wheeler family is not going to make it through."

Old Mr. Page narrowed his eyes slightly and said, Although that's the case, the result is yet to be revealed. We must leave a way out when doing things.

"It's a fact that the Wheeler family is cooperating with the Chancely family in Southeast Aelinne, where the Chancely family's power is intertwined. Who knows if the Wheeler family can make a comeback after cooperating with them?'"

A villa by the river was heavily guarded. Three black cars arrived at the entrance of the villa one after another.

Immediately, two rows of bodyguards in black rushed out of the villa to stop them. The leader of the bodyguards said sternly, "Who are you? Do you have an invitation?"

The window of the car in the lead was rolled down. A hand was stretched out. In his hand was a black plaque engraved with the logo of the Lockwood family's Big Dipper. It shone coldly under the sunlight.

The lead of the bodyguards was stunned for a moment before he heard the person in the car say, 'Patriarch is here. Open the door.'

The bodyguard hesitated for a moment and said, 'Please wait for a moment. I'll report to Mr. Lockwood!'

The person in the car retracted his hand. A moment later, he stretched it out again with a gun and took a shot. The bullet hit the bodyguard's feet.

Even though they were separated by a flight of stairs, he could still feel the powerful aura downstairs.

But Draxton just sat on the sofa without making a move, and his subordinates did not do anything either.

Suddenly, Draxton raised his head and looked upstairs.

That indifferent expression made it seem like the person upstairs was just an insignificant ant.

Before Harlow could react, his body's instincts had already made him retreat quickly and hide his figure.

Draxton turned to look at Henderson, who was in fear.

Henderson did not know how to explain at all. He could not explain either.

' Before you did that, did you think about the consequences?' Draxton asked.

"Patriarch..."

The point was that, before he did that, he didn't expect that Jasper and Vernon would lose.
