Chapter 83 Ambition Exposed

“Grandpa Bridget exclaimed in disbelief. “Grandpa, what happened to you?”

She was held by two guards and wanted to rush forward to check on Patriarch Riker, but she was held tightly and could not move.

Although Patriarch Riker was in extreme pain, he could see Bridget’s condition clearly. He couldn’t help but widened his eyes, and the veins on his forehead bulged.

“Why was my granddaughter detained by the Lockwood family’s guards?” he thought.

Thinking of his current situation, Patriarch Riker couldn’t help but wonder if the Lockwood family wanted to attack the Riker family.

As soon as he thought of this, he could not help but get shocked. However, Draxton’s voice suddenly sounded. He said in a deep voice, “Call an ambulance and send Patriarch Riker to the hospital. Then call the other people in charge of the Riker family and inform them of the situation here.”

One of the guards immediately took out his phone and made a call.

Draxton glanced at Patriarch Riker indifferently.

Patriarch Riker laughed out loud, his eyes filled with shock.

He finally realized that something was wrong. “Wasn’t Draxton poisoned? Why did he look fine?” he thought.

He couldn’t help but look in Bridget’s direction. Bridget instantly understood what Patriarch Riker meant. She knew that she shouldn’t say it, but she couldn’t help but speak all the same.

“Grandpa, I don’t know why Draxton is fine. Not only did he come back alive, but he wasn’t poisoned either. I’m also very surprised that our previous plan didn’t work. We can’t use the excuse of detoxifying Draxton to coerce the Lockwood family.
