Chapter 90 Carlos' Ambition

After Isabella smiled, she knew that something was wrong. Sure enough, in the next moment, the man kissed her directly out of rage and humiliation, engulfing her laughter with a passionate kiss.

The moonlight was just right, and the room was warm.

As for the Riker family, there was no way it would be anything other than a sleepless night.

After Patriarch Riker was injected with a tranquilizer, he was carried back to the Riker family home.

At the moment, Carlos was living in the Riker family's estate. They went back to ask Carlos to save their patriarch.

Carlos was the president of the Traditional Medicine Association, a position that saw change every ten years Carlos had been re-elected for four decades and was about to start his fifth election that year.

If this fifth election was successful, then Carlos would become the first president of the Traditional Medicine Association in the history of the empire to serve for 50 years.

Carlos had such results because he was capable. Patriarch Riker could not wait to go home as soon as possible and let Carlos cure him of that strangeness in his body.
