Chapter 92 Searching For The Miraculous Doctor

As soon as they returned to Northernville Manor, they were informed that distinguished guests arrived at their house.

The two of them looked at each other and entered the hall. They saw a middle-aged man in his forties and a young man in his twenties sitting upright on the sofa.

They sat up straight and their sitting postures were exactly the same. Those who didn't know better would think that they were two statues with standard sitting postures.

"General Sanders, Major General Sanders," Draxton greeted the two of them.

When the two of them saw them, they also stood up. General Sanders smiled and said, "Draxton, are you treating me like an outsider?"

Draxton corrected himself. "Godfather, Connor."

"You're even more serious than Connor." General Sanders smiled and patted Draxton's shoulder.

A smile appeared on Draxton's lips. "Fortunately, Connor is the serious one among us.

Connor nodded at him and looked at Isabella. He also nodded at her and took the initiative to say, "Thank you for the pills. We've all tried it. The effect is very good. It's also very effective against old hidden injuries that can't be healed."

Isabella smiled and said, "You're welcome. It was godmother who wanted it. You guys are just benefiting from it."

Connor pursed his lips into a straight line and said sternly, "Since you have such good medicine, you shouldn't hide it. I want to buy your prescription and mass-produce it. Just name the price."
