

KINDA SWEET 951

Chapter 951 The Devil

With a cold face, he turned his head to look at Fiona and asked, "Hey, isn't that thing put in a coffin?"

Fiona was tied to the tree, and she shook her head for a while, and nodded.

In fact, she wasn't sure whether Mr. Quill came to bury this thing that night, because she didn't even know there was this thing at home, and she didn't know what it was.

Just listening to Gary Lee talk about it, I remembered the great grandfather who had behaved strangely recently, just once, so I brought him here.

At this time, when I heard him ask this question, I couldn't help but look at a loss.

How did he know if he had buried something in the coffin?

Seeing that she didn't respond, Gary Lee didn't bother to wait for her any longer. He picked up the iron grip and started to pry the coffin.

Rao is young and courageous, but after all, this is a person who has been dead for decades, and he is still a little scared.

After a long time of prying, the lid of the coffin was finally pried open.

An indescribable rotten stench rushed towards his face at once, and he was so smoked that he stepped back several steps, and only approached after the smell of corpse dissipated a little.

But there was nothing in the coffin except a white bone.

His face changed greatly.

He refused to believe it, so he fiddled with the coffin a few times, turned the bones over and over, and made sure that nothing was hidden inside.

An anger suddenly rose from the bottom of my heart, throwing the thing, and walked over to Fiona's location.

When Fiona saw his face, she knew that things were bad.

He must have not found what he wanted, and he is going to use her for surgery. What should I do?

How to do?

Fiona was so panicked, and at this time, Gary Lee was already approaching.

He pinched her face, raised her head, gritted his teeth and said, "Okay, damn girl, how dare you lie to me!"

With tears in her eyes, Fiona shook her head again and again.

Gary Lee sneered.

"You said something was buried here, where is it? Where is it? Come and show me!"

As he spoke, he untied the rope on her body, then grabbed her hair and dragged her to the cemetery.

Fiona was frightened by his series of actions, and when she reacted, she had been dragged to the edge of the grave by him.

Gary Lee pressed her body, forced her to face the bones in the coffin, and said angrily: "Find it for me, find it for me, if you can't find it today, I'll let you find it here for you. Grandma is buried with you!"

His words made Fiona's face turn pale with fright.

He nodded again and again, and then quickly bent over to look around.

Now, the ropes on her feet are only loose, and her wrists are still tied behind her back. It is not very convenient for her to move, but she is still trying hard to find it on the ground.

I was afraid that Gary Lee would get angry and buried her alive.

Gary Lee stood up and looked at her coldly.

I saw Fiona, little by little, found the front from the back, and finally, suddenly stopped in front of the tombstone.

She raised her head in surprise, looked at him, and whimpered twice.

Gary Lee frowned, wondering if he really let this little girl find her? So he squatted down.

Just the next second, his face changed greatly.

"Go away!"

He suddenly knocked her to the ground with a palm, and then he didn't even bother to care about her,

and quickly dug up the tie in front of the tombstone.

After digging twice, it stopped.

He crouched down and looked at the piece carefully.

I saw that the soil was soft, it was indeed dug up not long ago, and the soil was firm when we went further down. It hasn't rained recently, so the level of firmness doesn't seem to be recent, which means that the pit has come to an end here. .

But there was nothing inside.

So... they were dug out in advance!

His face changed, and it was very ugly in an instant. He carefully observed the soil again, and sure enough, it was new soil.

"Oh shit!"

Gary Lee couldn't help but utter a foul language, and threw the raft on the ground.

Fiona didn't know what was wrong with him, and looked at him with some fear.

Gary Lee turned to look at Fiona.

He sneered: "It seems that the old man in your family really treats this thing like a treasure. He would rather not have your life to keep that thing. You said that you still keep secrets for him, is it worth it?"

Fiona looked at him blankly, but she didn't quite understand what he was talking about.

Gary Lee crouched down, looked at her, and suddenly changed his tone.

"Little girl, how about we discuss something?"

Fiona was stunned.

I heard him say shady and cool: "Your old man is like a stone in a hut, stinky and hard. Before seeing you, he would not let go of his hand and give me that piece of jade silk. Since that's the case, I have to. Let him see something and let him know that now the right to speak is not in his hands, but in mine, don't you think?"

Fiona didn't understand what he wanted to do, and she didn't dare to express her position casually, so she could only watch him vigilantly.

I saw Gary Lee suddenly pulled out a bright dagger from his waist.

"Anyway, it's pretty close to your house, so let me cut off your finger and send it to him. When he sees it, he knows that you need him very much now, and he knows that Gary Lee is a good man. A person who can do it, maybe this way, he can endure for a while and exchange that treasure for you, what do you think?"

Fiona widened her eyes in horror.

Ask her how she feels?

She doesn't feel so good!

She was angry and scared for a while, staring at him desperately, and at the same time, sitting on the ground, she stepped back in fear.

Gary Lee was still talking to himself, and he followed step by step to force forward.

He smiled coldly and said: "Don't worry, my skills are good, you don't know yet, I have studied medicine before, and I have been a surgeon. The kung fu on this scalpel is very consummate, I promise, say yes. If you only cut one of your fingers, it will never be cut into two.

And even if you lose a finger, you won't die. The most important thing is that the finger is this thing, if your old man helps you save it well and save you in time, you can still go back. Go to the hospital to pick you up, although you may not be active in the future, but you can't do anything about it. If you are a human being, you should treat it as a good deed, how about it? "

Fiona was about to cry from fright just listening to him say that.

She has never seen such a perverted person!

Where is this person, this is clearly the devil!

Gary Lee's face suddenly turned cold, "Okay, don't retreat, you can't retreat anywhere, just give me your hand!"

Saying that, he is about to grab her hand.

However, at this moment, Fiona suddenly lifted her foot and kicked him, right between his legs.

This is a man's weakest point. Gary Lee groaned and immediately bent down in pain.

It was too late to speak, and Fiona kicked up another burst of soil, all of which fell into Gary Lee's eyes.

He screamed, the knife in his hand suddenly loosened, and then raised his hand to cover his eyes.

Chapter 952 Don't have a purpose

Fiona didn't dare to delay any longer, she stood up and ran down the mountain.

Seeing her running away, Gary Lee immediately ran after her.

However, in the end, he still hurt his eyes and hurt the place again, and when he started running again, he was naturally not as fast as usual.

Coupled with the steep mountain road, Fiona grew up here since she was a child. She is so familiar with the nearby roads that she can walk with her eyes closed.

Therefore, how could Gary Lee catch up when she ran away like this?

After realizing this problem, Gary Lee stopped, stared at Fiona's back angrily, and suddenly took out a gun.

"boom!"

Stone and soil splashed immediately at the feet of Fiona.

She was so frightened that she stopped and turned to look at Gary Lee in disbelief.

I saw that Gary Lee at this time was already different from the previous appearance, and the whole person exuded a cold atmosphere.

He held the gun, pointed at Fiona, and said coldly, "Run, I'll shoot you to death if you run again!"

Fiona's face turned pale and did not dare to move.

Gary Lee strode forward and grabbed her at once.

Meanwhile, in the villa.

Several people were discussing, when they heard a sudden "bang" gunshot outside.

They are all experienced people, so they are not unfamiliar with this voice. The expressions of several people changed, and in the next second, people rushed out.

Behind them was the old man Quill, who also rushed out, looking at the dark night sky, and said angrily,

"That kid is here!"

Natalia was startled and asked, "How do you know?"

"It can't be wrong, it must be him."

As he said that, he began to walk quickly in the direction of the gunshot.

A few people didn't dare to delay, they immediately followed and walked all the way to the cemetery, only to find that there was no one around, but Mrs. Quill's tomb was torn open.

The expression on the old man's face changed immediately, and it was extremely ugly.

To dig up people's graves after death is simply a loss of conscience.

Natalia and the others couldn't see it anymore. Archie squatted down and observed the ground, then pointed in one direction, and said solemnly, "Run over there."

Felix Bissel said immediately, "I'll go after him!"

"Let's go together."

Queeny immediately followed.

However, he was stopped by Felix Bissel.

He glanced at Natalia and said, "You stay here with Natalia, take care of the old man, Archie, let's go together."

Archie nodded, but Natalia didn't say anything, grabbed Queeny and whispered, "A Gary Lee is not their opponent, let's rest assured and wait."

Queeny nodded.

After watching Archie and Felix Bissel go away, Natalia and Queeny helped Mr. Quill restore the old lady's tomb before returning to the villa.

By this time, it was four in the morning.

Several people have not slept all night, but they are not sleepy at all.

The old man Quill was still sitting in the main seat, silently smoking a dry cigarette.

Natalia hesitated for a moment and asked, "You said, if the tomb was really dug by Gary Lee, would he actually know that the Heavenly Book and Jade Silk were buried there?"

The old man Quill replied, "It's possible."

He paused and sighed.

"Fiona doesn't know about this, but maybe she came out that night and found out that I buried something there, but she didn't know the exact location, so she asked Gary Lee to dig around."

Natalia nodded, this explanation is reasonable.

Seeing the sadness on the old man's brows, she couldn't help but relieved: "Old man, don't worry too much, Fiona can bring Gary Lee here now, which means that she should be fine. Maybe it's because

Fiona wants to escape and has the ability to escape, or at least she didn't suffer much injury, now Felix

Bissel and Archie have chased after him, I believe they will be brought back soon, you don't have to worry."

The old man Quill nodded again.

Immediately afterwards, I didn't know what to think, and laughed at myself.

"I have always felt sorry for the Gary Lee family. If I hadn't accidentally killed John Lee's parents, I would not have made their family what they are now, but if he really hates me, he can come to me. , even if he wants to kill me, I won't resist, but Fiona is innocent, why should he put his eyes on Fiona?"

Natalia was silent for a while, then said, "Actually, there is a sentence that I don't know if I should say it or not."

The old man waved his hand, "You say."

Natalia said solemnly: "Actually, when things have developed to this point, I don't think that Gary Lee's coming this time has much to do with seeking vengeance. Otherwise, he could have killed Fiona directly, so why would he threaten her again? You, let you hand over that piece of heavenly book and jade silk?"

Mr. Quill frowned, "What do you mean?"

Natalia smiled lightly, "I just think that he should just use the guise of hatred to make you feel guilty about him, and you can't bear to kill him, and then take the opportunity to get what you want, as to whether or not to avenge him in the end. In fact, he doesn't care at all, and even he suspects that John Lee's death has something to do with you, it's just an excuse."

As soon as these words came out, the old man was shocked.

It does bring back some flavors.

He frowned, was silent for a while, and said: "You are right, I was blinded by a leaf before, it seems that the kid must have been instigated by someone, even if Fiona comes back, it has to be investigated. clear."

He said with anger in his voice.

After all, it's one thing to seek revenge, and it's another thing to be instigated to tie Fiona for other purposes.

Seeing this, Natalia was silent for a while, and it was not easy to say anything.

She glanced at the time, and saw that it was about to dawn, Felix Bissel and Archie didn't know when they would be back, so they said, "Master, why don't you take a rest first, and I'll call you when they come back."

However, where is the old man sleepy?

Now he is angry and angry, just waiting for them to catch people back and question them.

So he just waved his hand, "I'm not going to sleep, if you are tired, you can go to sleep, there are several guest rooms on the first floor, you are all girls, I will not help you clean up, you can clean up and go to sleep."

Natalia smiled and said, "Of course we are not tired, we are just worried about your body."

The old man looked at her and smiled, "Worry about me? Don't worry! When I was sleeping in the open, old man, you weren't even born yet. It's just a little late night, but I can handle it."

Since he said so, Natalia stopped persuading him.

After nodding, the three continued to sit in the living room and wait.

It wasn't until dawn, nearly six o'clock, that Felix Bissel and Archie came back full of dust.

There were two people behind them, one was tied with a rope, the other was held in Felix Bissel's hand, and the other was a panic-stricken Fiona.

Chapter 953 Other Identities

"Grandpa!"

As soon as she entered the door, Fiona pounced towards Elder Quill.

Elder Quill stood up trembling and caught her, unable to hold back his old tears.

"Eh, my good granddaughter, you're finally back!"

Fiona buried her head in his arms, and both grandparents and grandchildren cried tears of joy.

Only after the tears were over did Elder Quill lift her face and look at it like a treasure, "Let grandpa take a look, did you hurt anything? Is everything okay?"

Fiona shook her head, "I'm fine, Grandpa, it was these two brothers who saved me."

She said, turning her head to point at Felix Bissel and Archie McCarthy.

Elder Quill smiled gratefully, "Tai Grandpa knows, they are Tai Grandpa's friends, I'm the one who invited them to save you."

Fiona smiled and gave them a grateful look.

At this moment, Gary Lee, who had been silent, said angrily, "The surname Quill! You caused the tragic death of my grandparents and killed my father, I swear to you! What's the point of tying me up like this?

Untie me if you can. Come on! Let's fight! Let's fight like you and your brother did! Come on!"

He went crazy and tried to rush forward, but he was firmly held by Felix Bissel.

He kicked him in the crook of the leg, making him fall to his knees.

Only then did Elder Quill turn his head to look at him, but his gaze was cold and calm.

"Gary Lee, you claim that you want to take revenge, but let's not talk about what you're doing now, whether it's like seeking revenge or not, just talk about your father, what does his death have to do with me?"

Gary Lee sneered, "How dare you argue? You dare to say that you didn't secretly send someone to kill him?"

Elder Quill sneered, "I have always acted openly and honestly, if someone was killed by me, I never deny it, but if not, don't try to blame it on me."

"You are nonsense!"

Gary Lee's eyes were cracking, but Elder Quill seemed too lazy to care about him.

He turned his head to look at Natalia.

"Since you have saved Fiona back as promised, then what I promised you before, I should naturally do."

Saying that, he took out the piece of Heavenly Book jade silk from his pocket and handed it to her.

"This is what you want, keep it."

Natalia's face was filled with joy as she hastily took it and said solemnly, "Many thanks, old master."

Elder Quill smiled and didn't say anything.

Next to him, however, Gary Lee got excited.

"The Heavenly Book and Jade Palette, it's the Heavenly Book and Jade Palette."

His pupils widened, his mouth muttered, and his entire person was as mad as a demon, staring at the jade piece in Natalia's hand with a deadly gaze.

"It's really the Heavenly Book and Jade Palette, that's my stuff, give it to me, give it to me!"

With that, he tried to struggle and rush towards Natalia.

However, how could Felix Bissel let him get what he wanted?

Another kick and another punch directly knocked him to the ground, making it difficult for him to get up again.

Felix Bissel said in a deep voice, "Master Quill, I have another unrequited request."

Master Quill raised his hand generously, "Please speak."

Felix Bissel turned his eyes to Gary Lee, who was lying on the ground with a white face, and his gaze was cold, "I think this person looks like a member of one of my rival families, so I want to take him back for a proper interrogation, and I ask Master Quill's permission."

Elder Quill smiled and frowned.

In any case, Gary Lee was considered the descendant of his former brother and he was ashamed of the Lees, as well as John Lee, so when John Lee designed the death of Fiona's parents, that's why he didn't make a move to retaliate back.

Therefore, in fact, even if he knew that Gary Lee had kidnapped Fiona, he was not willing to pursue Gary Lee when Fiona's life was not in danger.

Felix Bissel saw his dilemma and added: "I promise not to hurt his life."

Only then did Elder Quill nod his head, "Okay, this is your business, I won't interfere."

When Gary Lee saw this, he shouted in horror.

"No way! I'm not going with them! I won't go with them! Quill, you killed my grandparents, killed my father, and now you want to hand me over to this group of people, do you still have a conscience? Are you crazy?"

Felix Bissel frowned, not bothering to listen to him yell and scream, and directly struck him with a hand slash, knocking him out.

The old man Quill looked at this scene, although some heart can not bear, but in the end also did not say anything.

After dealing with all this, the group said goodbye to the pair of grandparents and left the village.

They did not rush back to the capital, but first landed in another city, ready to wait for a good rest before going back.

Last night without sleep, several people are exhausted, Felix Bissel will be tied up Gary Lee to Ford to look after, and only then take Queeny rest assured to go to rest.

When I woke up, it was already afternoon.

The only people who came with them this time were the few people Ford brought with him, Brian and Nancy were left in the capital to help handle matters.

Ford had already prepared a meal for them, several people got up and simply washed up, ate together, and only then came to the room where Gary Lee was held.

After so many hours, Gary Lee looked apparently much quieter, his whole body was tied up, just sitting on the floor looking at them coldly.

Felix Bissel and his group, settled on the sofa, took a look at him and said indifferently, "Say, what is your origin?"

Gary Lee did not say anything, turned his head to the side, a big sign of resistance to the end.

Felix Bissel was not in a hurry, sneered, just slightly raised his chin and passed a look to Ford.

The next second, a knife fiercely stabbed Gary Lee's thigh.

He screamed, his face went white, his body trembled with pain, and cold sweat fell down in a swish.

Felix Bissel drew a cigarette and lit it, still in that cloudy tone.

"You can not say, I have a variety of ways to slowly and you around, you do not believe that you can try."

Gary Lee gritted his teeth and stared at him, half a sound, "bah" a sound.

"You want to get any information from my mouth, dream on!"

Felix Bissel's eyes narrowed slightly and he smiled lightly.

"So, you really have another identity?"

Gary Lee choked for a moment.

Felix Bissel laughed again, "There's no rush, as I said, I can slowly maneuver with you."

He gestured again, and immediately after that, he saw Ford pull out the knife that was stuck on his thigh and slammed it into his calf with another slash.

Gary Lee's whole face was blue with pain, his forehead was bruised, and sweat was like staying in a steamer, bubbling out one after another.

After Natalia gave birth, she was not quite able to watch such bloody scenes, coughed lightly and said to Archie McCarthy: "You walk with me out for a walk."

Archie nodded and got up to help her walk out together.

Two more screams came from behind.

Natalia's heart also followed two beats, Archie held her hand tightly, whispered: "Some people, do not use this method, can not pry their mouth."

Natalia nodded, "I understand."

Her face is still a little pale, looking at the long corridor in front of her, said softly: "I just see that the blood is a little uncomfortable, not quite breathing over the same, come out to get some air and it's okay."

Chapter 954 Pregnant again

Archie's eyes were slightly deep, and she nodded, "Okay."

The two walked all the way to the end of the corridor. Here, the screams in the room could not be heard. She looked out the window and asked softly, "You said, who is that Gary Lee?"

Archie carelessly played with her soft fingers, "the Zircon Association."

Natalia was taken aback.

"The Zircon Association? Didn't they long ago..."

Before he could finish speaking, he stopped.

Archie looked at her and said lightly: "Although the Zircon Association has collapsed, there are still many small forces left. I guess this Gary Lee should be one of their core characters. If they want to get the Celestial Book this time, it is estimated that I also heard that the Zaccardi family wants to collect this thing and want to make a deal."

Natalia nodded, thinking of what happened last night, and still a little scared.

"Fortunately, fortunately, we got the thing one step ahead of him. Otherwise, if this thing falls into his hands, Felix Bissel can't get six dollars, and Queeny's disease is in danger."

Archie nodded too.

"So this is probably good luck. She shouldn't die, and even God is helping her."

The two stood for a while until there was a bang in the hallway and Felix Bissel and Queeny came out of the room.

They walked up together holding hands.

"How about it?"

Felix Bissel frowned coldly and said solemnly, "People from the Zircon Association."

Archie winked at Natalia.

Natalia sighed, "Sure enough."

Her words made Felix Bissel stunned for a moment, but she quickly reacted and glanced at Archie again.

"What are you going to do with it?" Archie asked.

Felix Bissel said in a cold voice, "Beat it, let it go."

He promised Mr.Quill that he would not kill him, of course he would do what he said.

Archie nodded, then raised her wrist and glanced at the time.

"It's getting late. We booked a flight back to Eqitin. How about you? Are you going back to Eqitin with us, or back to Lanceham?"

Felix Bissel glanced at him without hesitation, "Go back to Lanceham."

"Okay, then be careful on the road, and call anytime if you have anything."

The two nodded, and the four said goodbye to each other before leaving separately.

When I returned to Eqitin, it was already night.

Since Natalia saw the blood this afternoon, she has been feeling a little uncomfortable for the rest of the time, and she is sullen when she gets home.

Archie was afraid that she might catch a cold after running around all night last night, so she called the family doctor to take a look for her.

While lying on the bed for the doctor's examination, Natalia smiled and blamed him, "I'm just a little tired. Seeing that you are so nervous, you even called the doctor. I don't know how sick I think I am."

Archie was beside her, guarding her while working on the computer, without raising her head back:

"Don't underestimate minor illnesses, sometimes a cold can cause a lot of sequelae, so be careful."

Since he said that, Natalia can't say anything else.

Seeing that the doctor's examination was not over for a long time, I couldn't help but ask curiously,

"Doctor, haven't I finished the examination yet? Should I be fine?"

The doctor frowned and didn't answer her, but suddenly turned around and took out a pregnancy test stick from the box and handed it over.

"Ma'am, please go to the bathroom and check it out."

Natalia was stunned for a moment, in disbelief.

"This..." She turned to look at Archie, and Archie saw it too, and was a little stunned.

Natalia smiled awkwardly, "It won't work, we... we have something to do."

The doctor was silent for two seconds, and then explained: "All contraceptive measures cannot be 100% effective, so I still recommend that you test first. If the result is positive, I will do an in-depth examination for you."

Natalia was helpless, and was actually a little apprehensive, so she took it over and got up to check.

Unexpectedly, at this time, Archie also stood up and strode nervously, "I'll go with you."

Natalia's face suddenly stiffened.

Looking up, he glared at him.

"You give me a good seat!"

The doctor is still there, two people go to the bathroom, what does it look like?

Archie was inexplicably beaten by her, feeling a little aggrieved, but thinking about the possibility that the doctor just said made him a little excited.

In fact, he had always wanted to have another child, but firstly, he was afraid of Natalia's hard work.

After all, having a child was too tiring and painful. Second, Natalia had been busy with work and accompanying Anne and little Oliver in recent years, and had never had time to give birth. child.

Therefore, the two have been taking contraceptive measures for the past few years.

Except...that night at Lanceham before.

Thinking of this, his face couldn't help changing.

At this time, Natalia had entered the bathroom and closed the door.

He didn't dare to go in, for fear of being scolded by her, so he could only guard at the door.

The doctor stood beside him, and it was the first time he saw his own president look so frightened, anxious and cautious, he couldn't help lowering his head and pursing his lips and laughing.

Unexpectedly, Archie glared at him as soon as he showed a slight smile.

"Don't laugh!"

The doctor hurriedly looked solemn and nodded solemnly, "Yes."

Soon, Natalia came out.

Archie hurried up to meet him, "How is it?"

Natalia's face was ugly, she threw the pregnancy test stick into his arms, and said coldly: "How is it?"

See for yourself!"

After saying that, he lay back on the bed angrily.

Archie picked up the pregnancy test stick and took a closer look. Sure enough, there were two bars!

There was a touch of joy in my heart, but I quickly thought that Natalia should not want to have a child at this time, so she quickly restrained her smile and walked over with a serious face.

"Wife."

He sat down beside the bed, put his arms around her shoulders, and said warmly, "It doesn't matter, if you don't want this child, we can kill it, as long as you're happy..."

Before he could finish speaking, Natalia pushed him away.

She looked at Archie in disbelief, like she was looking at a heinous scumbag.

"Archie! What are you talking about? Do you still have humanity? This is your child. You actually said you want to kill it! Are you crazy?"

Archie was stunned, a little confused.

This, how is this style different from what he imagined?

Natalia sat back angrily, didn't look at him, and said coldly, "I don't care, I want to give birth to this child!"

Archie finally reacted, and she was very happy.

He nodded again and again, "Okay, live! It must be born!"

He said, turning to look at the doctor, "You! Immediately prepare a detailed examination for the wife, and make sure that she and the child are safe and healthy."

The doctor nodded and replied, "Yes."

He said, and thought for a while, "How about setting it up tomorrow? Do a detailed early pregnancy test first, and then arrange for subsequent tests after confirmation."

Archie nodded, "Okay, just do as you said, go down and prepare."

"Yes."

The doctor just left.

Chapter 955 Never gave birth

News of Natalia's pregnancy spread quickly.

Everyone in The McCarthy family naturally knows all about it, and the Brown family has also heard of it.

Louis Brown specially took time to come to see her. The two nephews and uncles hadn't seen each other for a long time, so it was a lively chat.

At noon, Natalia wanted to stay for dinner, but Louis Brown refused.

He looked at her lovingly and said with a smile: "I just took the time to come and see you, and I had a dinner appointment with a friend at noon, so I won't eat here, you should pay more attention to your body, be careful of your stomach, don't be too tired, what's the matter? Call me anytime."

Natalia nodded and didn't force him any more, she personally sent him out, and then turned back.

Unexpectedly, after going back, the butt was still hot, William and Ariana, and even Faye McCarthy, Archie's aunt, came.

She and Archie now live in the Fengqiao Villa, and don't go to the old house very often. First, they are busy, and second, the two old people are not ordinary old people. They feel lonely in their later years.

They have their own lives. I also don't like being disturbed.

Therefore, she and Archie just visit every weekend, and usually don't come to the door.

At this time, the two old people were dispatched together, thinking with their noses that they were here for the child.

Natalia greeted them in the door with a smile, Ariana looked at her belly, it was still flat and couldn't see anything, but she seemed to be able to see her great-grandson, smiling from ear to ear.

"Oh, Natalia, don't get up, sit down! I tell you, don't think you can be more casual when you have a second child. This woman has a child, and she has passed the gate of hell, even a second child is no better than the second child. An easy baby."

Natalia smiled and ordered Mrs. Dottie to make tea before asking, "Why are you here today?"

Ariana glared at her, "Silly boy, you have good news, can we come and see?"

At this time, Faye McCarthy, who had been silent for a while, also interjected, "Yes, yes, we are all happy for you, and came to see you specially."

In the past, Faye McCarthy didn't like Natalia and stumbled on her a lot.

But after so many years, maybe it was because of being together for a long time, that Natalia was not as bad as she imagined, or maybe it was because she saw that Archie and Natalia had a long-term relationship and could not be separated again, so she also accepted her fate. .

In short, in the past few years, she no longer targeted her as she did at the beginning, and sometimes even had a close acquaintance.

Natalia knew that Archie's parents died early, and she was often taken care of by this aunt when she was a child, so naturally she was happy to push the boat.

Seeing that Faye McCarthy was so affectionate, she also smiled and said, "Thank you aunt for your concern, and you are tired of running. We also only got the news two days ago. The doctor said that the child is fine, just need to rest assured to raise the baby, don't worry too much. ."

Ariana nodded again and again, "That's fine, that's fine."

After speaking, he asked with concern, "How old is it?"

Natalia replied, "Just turned six weeks."

"Oh, it's been six weeks, how did you find out?"

Faye McCarthy yelled, "You know the first three months are the most dangerous. What if something happens?"

As soon as these words came out, Ariana was suddenly unhappy.

Turning his head and glaring at her, "What happened? What can happen? Don't be surprised, okay?

What are the most dangerous three months? It's like you have been born before."

"I....."

Faye McCarthy was so angry that although she was married, she had long since separated because of her relationship with her husband. Now she is single, let alone having children, she never thought about it.

Now Ariana took this to slap her. Obviously, she said it unintentionally, and the listener has a heart.

Seeing that her eyes were about to turn red, Natalia hurriedly smiled and said, "Even if my aunt never gave birth, I've seen her a lot over the years. Besides, Natalia is still her aunt's one-handed pull, so she naturally knows better than me in this regard, I know my aunt's concern."

As Natalia explained this, Faye McCarthy's expression softened slightly.

Plus, it was her old mother, Ariana, who said this, and she didn't dare to really care.

So she just snorted softly, "Mom, look at it, Natalia can still speak."

Ariana replied calmly: "She is taking care of your self-esteem, you think everyone is the same as you, and it's not worth it when you're old, let you find someone to marry, if you don't want it, just do it all.

What does it look like to mix with a group of people who are not three or four?"

Ariana's words made Faye McCarthy's face soothed, darkened again.

She stood up and said excitedly, "Mom, what are you talking about? What kind of person is there?"

Ariana's brows didn't change, but her tone was obviously contemptuous, "Aren't the two third-rate little stars who were with you last time?"

"They're actors! They're art! Mom, don't talk nonsense if you don't know!"

"Doing art? Oh, why haven't I seen them come up with some kind of art? There aren't many good people like this, so stop messing with them."

She said, as if realizing something, and explained to Natalia with a smile, "I'm referring to those little actors who don't film well and think about hooking up all day long, not you."

Natalia smiled, of course she understood what Ariana meant.

In fact, she also bumped into several times, Faye McCarthy was with a little fresh meat, because of work reasons, she also knew that little fresh meat, it seemed that he was a rookie actor who only gained some popularity with an online drama last year.

It's hard to say what kind of character she has never met before, but Faye McCarthy is in her forties this year, and that little fresh meat is only in her early twenties. It depends on Faye McCarthy's temperament and disposition. It is because he likes her. Connotation and personality, she really didn't believe it.

However, after all, these are personal affairs of other people, and according to Faye McCarthy's identity, if she really wants to take care of a few white faces, it's fine.

Therefore, she was inconvenienced to say more.

Natalia changed the subject with a smile, "Grandma, Anne and Oliver may not be able to take care of me during my pregnancy, and I may need your help at that time."

Ariana smiled and said, "Where is this, family, help should be done."

She said, clapping her hand with a smile, "I know, you have to work, you are pregnant, and you have to take care of two children. In this way, I will take Oliver and Anne to the old house after a while, and you can just take a good rest."

Natalia shook her head.

"No need, grandma, just take Anne over to take care of me for a while. As for Oliver, let him stay here."

Chapter 956 Ask her to borrow money

In fact, Natalia's idea is that the two old people are too old to bear the burden and listen to the noise.

Anne is now nine years old, and her temperament has become calmer than when she was a child. It is naturally not difficult for the two old people to help take care of her, but she is just watching some of her homework and daily company.

In addition, Anne has a caring personality. The two elderly people are old. Although they like quietness, sometimes they miss the company of their children and grandchildren. It is not a bad thing to have her with William and Ariana these few months.

But little Oliver was different.

At the age of three or four, it was the most noisy time, and the house was messed up all day long. If the two old people took care of him, I am afraid it would be very hard.

Ariana didn't understand her thoughts, her distress for Natalia rose to a higher level, she patted her hand, and sighed: "Natalia, you have worked hard these past few years."

Natalia smiled slightly, "It's not hard, it's all I should do."

Faye McCarthy saw them chatting hotly, and reluctantly interjected.

"That's right, I see Natalia's hard work over the years. Fortunately, our family has her, otherwise it would be a mess."

She can't speak, and as soon as she said this, the originally warm and harmonious atmosphere suddenly became extremely embarrassing.

Ariana gave her a dissatisfied look, "What do you mean, I used to be bad at managing?"

Faye McCarthy was stunned for a moment, and his heart groaned.

He quickly smiled, "No, I didn't mean that, Mom, I mean Natalia managed well."

Natalia smiled too.

Now that Ariana doesn't care about anything, she takes care of the whole The McCarthy family, and Archie trusts her very much. Faye McCarthy probably knows that her housekeeper is hopeless, so she is more and more flattering to her.

Natalia's attitude has always been, if you are good to me, I will be good to you, the kind of person who goes down the stairs after handing over a ladder.

So he didn't take Qiao and smiled: "Grandma is naturally the best, and aunt is not bad. Didn't you hear that before, what business did you invest in and made a lot of money?"

At the mention of this, Faye McCarthy's face froze.

But he recovered quickly, and smiled dryly: "Yes, I made money, but it's not big money, I just play small things and I don't have any business brains anyway, right? Mom."

After finishing speaking, he also deliberately sought Ariana's approval.

Ariana snorted softly, "You are self-aware of this."

Faye McCarthy's face was embarrassed, and Natalia couldn't say anything else. Seeing that it was almost time, he ordered Mrs. Dottie to have dinner.

"Grandpa, grandma, shall we go to the dining room for dinner?"

Both William and Ariana nodded, and the group walked towards the dining room together.

After dinner, Ariana and William went back first, but Faye McCarthy did not rush to leave.

Sitting in the living room, her fingers were tangled a little bit. When she saw Natalia coming downstairs, she got up quickly, "Natalia, why did you come down? Don't you have a lunch break?"

Natalia was amused, wondering if she was still here? How can you take a lunch break by yourself?

But she didn't say it, she just smiled and asked, "What's wrong with aunt?"

Faye McCarthy's face froze, and he smiled awkwardly, "I-I have something to tell you."

Natalia nodded.

In fact, she had long expected that Faye McCarthy would feel wrong from the moment he entered the door today.

Although she was friendly to herself in the past, she was by no means flattering, at most she was friendly on face.

Today, she has repeatedly praised her, thinking that she has something to ask herself.

Thinking of this, Natalia's mind was already a little clear, so she walked across to her and sat down, "If you have something to do with aunt, you might as well say it directly."

Faye McCarthy also sat down, hesitated for a while, and then said uneasily: "I told you about this, you are not allowed to tell Ariana and William, and you are not allowed to tell Jingshen, okay?"

Natalia thought for a moment, then nodded in agreement.

"I don't have to say it, but if they know from other sources, they can't blame me."

Faye McCarthy nodded quickly, "I understand, I understand."

She said, hesitated again, and then said it as if she had made up her mind.

"Natalia, it's like this, didn't I invest in a business before, that business has been doing very well and making money, that is, the money is earned, but you have to keep investing and investing, if you don't invest the money, you can't get it. Come out, you know what I mean?"

Natalia frowned slightly, tapped her knees unconsciously with her fingertips, and nodded for a moment,

"I understand."

Faye McCarthy suddenly relaxed and said with a smile: "You can understand, I have already invested part of it, but I found that it is not enough, so I want to ask you if it is inconvenient to lend me money, don't worry, I am borrowing money. Yes, when I realize the money I invested, I will definitely pay it back!"

Natalia looked at her, Faye McCarthy wringing his hands nervously, expectantly.

She asked softly, "I don't know what business my aunt invested in?"

"Yushi, you know what, I like to do this."

Natalia nodded knowingly.

Faye McCarthy is notoriously fond of jade, which is true. She used to love collecting jade and buying jade, and later developed into gambling on stones. Now... Listening to her tone, she is actually even bigger?

She raised her eyebrows and asked tentatively, "Could it be that my aunt has built a mine?"

Faye McCarthy's eyes widened in surprise.

Looking at Natalia's eyes, like looking at a monster.

"Oh, I just said that our Natalia is smart, I didn't say it, how did you guess right?"

Natalia smiled, but it wasn't too difficult.

Since Faye McCarthy gambled with others and lost all her family property, Ariana has been very strict with her financial card, and she has become a lot more honest in recent years.

Honestly, he naturally saved a lot of money. Although Natalia doesn't know the exact amount, there must be several hundred million.

So much money, but now he came to her to borrow money, and said that he had invested in a big business related to jade, so there was nothing else but to buy mines.

She doesn't object to Faye McCarthy doing this, but she knows that she looks shrewd, but actually has a very simple mind.

Thinking like this, she thought for a while and asked, "How much do you want to borrow?"

Faye McCarthy smiled and pointed a finger, "Not much, just a hundred million."

Natalia frowned.

One hundred million, even for The McCarthy family, is not a small amount.

She did not agree directly, but said solemnly: "I need to discuss this matter with Jingshen, and I can't give it to you rashly. If he agrees, I will call you the money again."

Faye McCarthy's eyes widened when he heard this.

"No, I said I can't let them know, how come you can't understand human language?"

Chapter 957 Sowing Discord

Natalia smiled, "But Auntie, 100 million is not a small amount. As long as I move the money, Jingshen will definitely know. When he will ask, what should I say?"

Faye McCarthy thought about it, too.

She hesitated for a moment, "How about you tell him that you spent the money on shopping? Natalia spoils you so much, a mere 100 million won't care about you."

Natalia didn't know whether to laugh or cry, "To buy things...then you have to see things."

"Damn, that's easy!" Faye McCarthy waved his hand and said, "You can fool him with a few pieces of jewelry. Anyway, he's a big man, and he won't read it very carefully, so you just say you bought the money. Jewelry is spent, and he won't say anything."

Having said that, she winked her eyes again, and said somewhat mysteriously: "When the time comes,

I will return the 100 million yuan to you in private. This money is yours. Are you stupid?"

Natalia was taken aback.

Seeing her winking, she suddenly felt a little sad.

The dignified sister-in-law of The McCarthy family, how could she be like this?

Can you even come up with the idea of filling your own pockets?

She shook her head, "Auntie, I'm sorry, I can't lie to Natalia, and I have no intention of stealing this 100 million yuan, so if you really want to borrow it, I must discuss this with Jingshen, if you don't want him to know ."

She paused, took a bank card from the bag next to her, and handed it to Faye McCarthy.

"Here is my own money, not much, only more than 20 million yuan. Even Jingshen doesn't know this money. If you don't dislike it, use it."

Faye McCarthy's face sank when he saw this.

She stood up with a swipe, looked at Natalia with a cold face, and said angrily: "Natalia! Who do you think of me? Are you getting rid of me like a beggar? Twenty million? You can think of it! Do you really think that you are It's amazing to be a housekeeper and be the mistress of The McCarthy family? Don't forget, I'm your aunt!"

Natalia has long been accustomed to her ruthless appearance. Seeing that she refuses to accept it, she put the card away and said lightly, "Since aunt dislikes it, then forget it. I have finished what I have to say. You can think about it for yourself. Just a moment."

After he finished speaking, he ignored her, turned around and walked upstairs.

Faye McCarthy was furious when he saw this.

He pointed at her back and cursed.

"Natalia! What do you mean? Don't think you married into The McCarthy family, everything in the McCarthy family is yours! I tell you your surname is Dawson, not McCarthy, the person surnamed McCarthy is me, don't go! You ..."

She was about to rush up, but was stopped by two servants.

Mrs. Dottie bowed his head slightly and said respectfully, "Mrs. Aunt, our wife is still pregnant. She is tired and needs to rest. Please keep your voice down."

Faye McCarthy glared at her hard.

"Why should I be quiet? What's wrong with her pregnancy? She's a baby when she's pregnant? It's not the first time she's been wearing anything!"

But that's what I said, but considering that it was Archie's child, the consequences would be serious, so in the end, they left angrily.

When he was leaving, he happened to see the servant pick up Anne.

Today is Friday, and Anne's school only has half-day classes, and she can come back after lunch.

Therefore, the driver went to pick her up early in the morning, just entered the door at this time, and bumped into her.

Anne's eyes lit up when she saw her, and she shouted, "Auntie."

Faye McCarthy naturally saw her too, and his eyes rolled, and there was a flash of viciousness.

She walked over and smiled: "Anne came back so early today?"

Anne nodded happily, "Well, today is Friday, and the school only has half-day classes."

Faye McCarthy stroked her little head, "That's right, then you can pack up later and move in with you William and Ariana."

Anne was stunned for a moment, and Shui Lingling's eyes flashed with doubts and confusion.

"Moving to Grandpa and Grandma? Why?"

Faye McCarthy crouched down. "Don't you know? Your mommy has a baby again."

Anne was even more puzzled, "I know, Mommy asked me last night whether I wanted a little sister or a little brother. I chose the little sister."

She said, squinting her eyes and smiling happily.

Faye McCarthy shook his head and sighed.

"Little fool, what about the little sister, don't you know that if you have a little sister, you will be abandoned?"

As soon as these words came out, Anne was stunned and looked at her blankly.

Faye McCarthy added: "You have to understand that no matter how good your mommy is to you, you are not her own, little Oliver is a boy, you still can't feel it, if your mommy really gave birth to a daughter, two When the girls are together, you can feel it, and you will regret it."

Anne finally understood what she meant.

He pushed her away and said angrily: "You are talking nonsense! Mommy loves me the most, and she will not only love my little sister but not me, you are talking nonsense!"

Faye McCarthy stood up and looked at her coldly.

"I'm talking nonsense, you'll know when you go back, your mommy will foster you to your Ariana's house for the sake of your little sister, if you don't believe it, go back later and see if she tells you that,

by then you will will believe me."

Anne looked at her and pushed her away sadly, without speaking to her, she rushed straight to the villa.

The driver followed behind, his face was not very good-looking, but he didn't dare to say anything, and he followed closely.

in the villa.

After Natalia returned to her room, she remembered that it was Friday and Anne only had half a day of class, so she should be back by now.

She quickly came out and asked Mrs. Dottie, "Mrs. Dottie, is Anne coming back?"

Mrs. Dottie remembered and patted his head, "Oh, yes, look at my memory, I almost forgot, I'll go pick her up."

Just as he was talking, he suddenly saw a small figure rushing in at the door. Who was it if it wasn't

Anne?

The driver followed her and held her schoolbag for her. Seeing Natalia, he quickly greeted respectfully,

"Ma'am."

Natalia nodded, noticing that something was wrong with Anne's face, she went downstairs and asked,

"Anne, what's wrong with you? Why is your face so ugly?"

Anne looked at her angrily and asked, "Mummy, are you going to send me to live with my great grandma?"

Natalia was stunned, a little puzzled.

"How did you know?"

When Anne heard this, she suddenly exploded with anger.

Pushing her away, he said angrily, "I don't want you anymore, I hate you."

After speaking, he rushed to his room.

Natalia was pushed back a few steps by her, so scared that Mrs. Dottie's face changed, and he rushed up to support her.

"How are you, ma'am? Are you all right?"

Natalia waved her hand and looked towards Anne's room, frowning.

Anne has a well-behaved temperament and would never make such a big fire usually. What's the matter?

Chapter 958 Careful enlightenment

She turned to look at the driver who came in with Anne, "What happened on the road?"

The driver lowered his head, looking a little guilty.

"No on the way. When I came in just now, I met my auntie."

Natalia frowned.

Faye?

The driver looked up at her and quickly added, "Mrs. aunt and Miss said something."

Natalia's face sank, thinking of what Anne said just now, how could she not understand what Faye said to her?

She said solemnly: "I see, you go down."

After the driver left, he went to Anne's room.

In the room, Anne was sitting on the bed sulking.

Seeing Natalia coming in, he ignored her, twisted his body, and went in.

Natalia looked at her hairy head and smiled helplessly.

"Tsk, what happened to our Anne? Who has the guts to make her angry?"

Natalia sat down with a smile and asked softly over her small shoulders.

Anne twisted, broke free from her hand, and said angrily, "No one! I'm not angry."

Natalia couldn't help but smile, "I'm not angry, who was yelling at me just now?"

Anne pursed her lips, a little aggrieved.

Natalia sighed.

"Anne, what did Mommy tell you before? No matter how angry you are, you can't ignore people. If you are unhappy, just say it. The problem can only be solved by saying it, right?"

Anne hesitated.

After a while, he turned to look at her awkwardly.

Natalia asked sternly, "Tell Mommy, what happened?"

Anne's eyes were red, her mouth was shriveled, and she looked so wronged, "Mommy, my aunt said that you won't love me when you have a little sister, and you have to send me to my great grandmother for the little sister, is that true?"

Natalia was taken aback.

She only thought that Faye might say something bad to Anne to make her angry, but she didn't expect that she would say it.

Natalia's face sank. "Then do you think what Auntie said is true?"

Anne was stunned for a moment, her little face flashing a daze.

Natalia continued to guide, "Just according to your own true feelings, if Mommy has a little sister, will she really not love you and abandon you?"

Anne seemed to be asked this question, and stood there in a daze, not speaking for a long time.

Natalia rubbed her head, "Think about it, and tell me."

After a while, Anne finally spoke, her voice low.

"Won't."

"Then why do you still believe what she said?"

"I....."

Anne was at a loss for words, she looked at Natalia, and the corners of her mouth shriveled.

"I'm just scared, Mommy, I don't want to leave you."

As she spoke, she burst into tears and threw herself into Natalia's arms.

Natalia's heart softened, her eyes red for no reason.

She put her arms around Anne, stroking her back again and again, without speaking, and let her cry.

After a long while, Anne stopped crying and looked up at her.

Natalia gently wiped away her tears, "Anne, you are Mommy's little baby, just like your younger siblings, Mommy loves them and loves you too, the reason why I let you live at your grandfather's and grandma's house for a few months is because your mother Mi is too tired to be pregnant. I'm afraid that you will not be able to take care of your three siblings. My younger brother is naughty and would quarrel with my grandma in the past, so I let you go, but if you don't want to, you can not go, but you have to be obedient in the future. Naughty, don't let Mommy worry too much, okay?"

Anne nodded heavily and wrapped her arms around her waist again.

"I'm not going anywhere, I'm going to follow Mommy."

Natalia couldn't help laughing and said softly: "Okay, Anne is not going anywhere, Anne will stay by my side."

The mother and daughter talked for a while before Natalia calmed her down.

After crying, Anne was also tired, Natalia coaxed her to take a nap, and when she fell asleep, she exited the room.

After she came out, she closed the door softly, and saw Mrs. Dottie standing not far away, looking at him worriedly.

"Madam, are you alright, miss?"

Natalia shook her head, pointed outside, and motioned for her to go out.

The two went back to the living room, Natalia sat down on the sofa, took a sip of tea, and then said,

"It's my aunt, I told her that now that I am pregnant with my little sister, I won't want her, and I told her to go to my grandmother. Living there is to abandon her."

Mrs. Dottie's eyes widened in astonishment.

"How can my aunt say that? Everyone else expects the family to be harmonious, but she's better, but she's also stirring up divisions?"

Natalia smiled sarcastically.

Mrs. Dottie said angrily: "I don't care if others believe it or not, I don't believe it anyway, don't say anything else, I can see how you have treated Miss Anne at home over the past few years, it is absolutely It's just as if it's gone, there's no second-mindedness at all."

Natalia said softly: "Anne has no biological mother since she was a child, she is a poor child, so she will be more sensitive and careful than other children in this regard. I can ignore how many wrongs my aunt has done these years, but she You shouldn't, you shouldn't instigate Anne to use the child for her own purposes."

Speaking of which, Natalia was also a little angry.

Mrs. Dottie agreed: "That's right, Mrs. aunt went too far this time."

Natalia thought for a moment, then sighed.

"Okay, let's talk about it later. I'm tired. I'll go back to my room to rest first."

Mrs. Dottie nodded before helping her back to the room.

In the evening, when Archie came back, Natalia told him about it.

She didn't have anything to complain about, but whether it was what Faye and Anne said, or the fact that she asked herself to borrow 100 million yuan, it had to be known to Archie.

After Archie heard this, she was furious.

He threw a word directly, "Don't borrow it!"

Natalia smiled and said, "There's no need to reject it so quickly. Although I'm angry that she said nonsense to Anne, if she's doing business this time, it's okay to give her the money."

Archie said coldly, "What can she do? It's nothing more than gambling."

Natalia shook her head, "Not really."

Archie thought for a while, and finally agreed.

"Then you can figure it out. If there is really something serious, give it to her."

After a pause, he added, "Let her see the child less in the future, and don't spoil the child."

Natalia looked at him so angry that she was not so angry, and smiled: "Okay, I've written it down, you go take a shower, and eat after taking a bath."

Archie then walked to the bathroom.

At dinner, Anne's mood was much better, and she knew that she was cheated by her aunt, so not only was she not angry, but she was also a little embarrassed.

Natalia just pretended not to see, and the dinner party was as happy as ever.

Anne put a piece of spareribs into her bowl and said with a smile, "Mummy, eat this."

Chapter 959 Asking for news

Natalia looked at the ribs in her bowl and smiled, "Aren't you angry now?"

Anne blushed in embarrassment, and Archie glared at her.

"Let you listen to other people's nonsense."

Natalia bumped his arm, beckoning him not to scare the child, then took a bite of the chop.

"Well, the ribs that we have in Anne's are better than others."

Anne heard the words and smiled happily.

I brought her several dishes, and Natalia was so amused by her that she felt a lot better, and she even ate an extra half bowl for dinner.

After dinner, she called the old mansion and told them that Anne would not go.

She didn't say the specific reason, for fear of saying too much, the two elderly people were worried, but only said that Anne didn't want to go there, and it was fine to stay here, but if she couldn't, she would ask two more babysitters to take care of them.

When the old man and Ariana saw this, they didn't insist any longer.

The next day, early in the morning, Natalia had just sent Anne out to learn the piano when she heard that Faye had come again.

Natalia knew why she came, and after returning to the living room, sure enough, she was sitting on the sofa, waiting for her with a look of anticipation.

"Ningning, you're back, has Anne gone to school?"

Natalia walked over without smiling, "Well, why is Auntie here again today?"

Faye glanced at her angrily, "Look at what you said, what are you talking about? This is my nephew's house, am I wrong?"

Natalia smiled even more lightly, "Of course, Auntie, please take a seat."

Faye sat down.

After sitting down, he hesitated for a while, "That...Ningning, it was me who was wrong yesterday. I was in a hurry and didn't choose to say anything. You wouldn't blame me, would you?"

Natalia picked up a cup of tea, took a sip, and said softly, "Auntie is an elder, of course I won't blame you."

When Faye heard this, he was relieved.

"The money thing..."

"I have already told Jingshen that he is willing to lend it to you."

Natalia said, and took out a check, "This is the 100 million you asked for. I hope my aunt can make a smooth investment this time and win."

Faye quickly took it with a smile and nodded again and again.

"Okay, let's borrow your auspicious words. When I make money, I will definitely be without you."

She stood up, "I'll go first if I have nothing else to do, I'm still busy."

Natalia nodded and watched her leave.

After she left, Mrs. Dottie came over, a little dissatisfied.

"Madam, you are kind. My aunt provokes your relationship with the eldest lady like that, and you give her back the money."

Natalia said indifferently: "She is from the Lu family after all. She has no credit or hard work for Archie in the past. One hundred million, just let her be."

Seeing her say this, Mrs. Dottie couldn't say anything for a while.

So I packed up and went down.

And this time, the other side.

Faye finally got the money and happily went out of Pinewood Manor.

As soon as I went out, I received a call.

"Hey, Miss McCarthy, where are you? Are you still going to today's Stone Gamble?"

Faye smiled and said, "Of course, I'll pick you up where you are."

"Okay, then I'll send the address to your phone."

"it is good."

Hanging up the phone, she glanced at the address on her phone and drove to that address.

Half an hour later, she received someone outside an international trade.

It was a handsome young man who looked no more than twenty years old.

Seeing her, he smiled sweetly, "Miss McCarthy, you're finally here, I've been waiting for you for a long time."

Faye glanced left and right, making sure no one he knew passed by, and then he waved to him, "Then what are you still doing? Get in the car quickly!"

After getting in the car, the man gave her a whistling smile, "Miss McCarthy, I heard that today's stone gambling club is filled with very powerful people. Do you know who they are?"

Faye smiled contemptuously, "Who else could it be, isn't it just those people? How powerful is it?"

What young men like most is her confident look, and said with a smile: "Then we will go there today, and we must come back with a big win!"

Faye paused and turned to look at him.

"I'll say it first, we're just going to have a look today, I don't want to gamble."

The young man was startled, "Ah? Bet on the stone, why don't you bet on the stone?"

Faye shook his head, "You don't understand this, huh! But it doesn't matter, I don't want to tell you now, you'll know when the time comes."

The two said, and soon drove the car to their destination.

Since the last time Faye nearly went bankrupt because of stone gambling, Ariana told the outside world that all stone gambling venues would not allow her to enter.

So Faye hasn't been to this kind of place for a long time.

This time, I heard that the person behind the stone gambling club was someone who came back from overseas. She probably didn't know the rules, so she found two tickets and was able to participate.

But Faye is not stupid. She has already played stone gambling, and she knows that's what it is. Now she is not very interested in this. She is more interested in where they shipped these stones from. .

Recently, she took a fancy to a mine, but she is still waiting and watching. She came here today to find out what happened there.

The two entered the venue, and there was a lot of people inside.

Faye found his seat and sat down, and said to the young man beside him, "Tony, you can help me see where they got the stones from later."

Tony frowned, "How can I see that?"

Faye glared at him, "You can't see with your eyes, you can't hear with your ears. So many people, there are always some leaks, just be careful."

Tony just let out a muffled "oh".

However, this is a stone gambling club after all, because today's stones are said to be very promising, and the threshold for joining the club has also been raised accordingly.

Everyone finally got an admission ticket, why would they sit on the side and waste it?

Therefore, the two sat in the rest area for a long time, but no one came.

Tony looked at the stone gambling area not far away and tugged at her sleeve, "Miss McCarthy, look at a lot of people over there, you want to find out, shouldn't we sit here and wait, we should go over there

Turn around?"

Faye glanced up, then glanced sideways at Tony.

The corner of his mouth was half-smiling, "Are you trying to help me find out the news, or do you want to gamble yourself?"

The little abacus in his heart was dismantled, and Tony pouted and said, "Miss McCarthy, I didn't..."

"Okay." Faye interrupted him and got up, "Since you want to see it, I'll accompany you to see it, but I've agreed, I'm only allowed to buy one piece today, I'm short of money recently, but I don't have much money to pay. You squander."

A happy smile appeared on Tony's face immediately, and he stood up and took her hand, "I see, thank you Miss McCarthy."

Chapter 960 Casino Encounter

Although Faye has always been unreliable, he is notoriously generous to the people around him.

Coupled with her prominent status, her parents are both founding fathers, and her nephew is the head of the first chaebol McCarthy Properties in Ambario.

Therefore, although she has been divorced over the years, her private life has always been very rich, and the little fresh meat who have rushed forward and succeeded do not know how many.

Faye was very happy, because Ariana said that she was never allowed to join the company. She knew in her heart that Ariana did not intend to give her a share of the company, so she stopped thinking about having children.

After all, if this child is born, it is said to be the same generation as Archie, but there is a difference between the brothers, which she cannot accept no matter what.

Therefore, it is better not to be born than to be looked down upon by others.

Faye thought very openly, she knew that although Archie was always glaring at him now, he still thought of his aunt in his heart.

If it's really old age and she's incapable, Archie won't let her go.

Therefore, she has nothing to worry about at all. It is a beautiful thing to be drunk now.

This kind of mentality made her more and more generous, and the little fresh meat who were attracted by her identity and beauty became more and more rush to her.

Faye took Tony for a walk around, and sure enough he heard a lot of news that he was interested in.

Only then did she know that this stone gambling meeting was organized by a large foreign jade merchant, and their quarry was not in China, but in Tacitus.

She wants to invest in a quarry, and she has sent people to inquire about several famous mining sites in Tacitus before, but she has not heard of any good jade that has been mined recently.

I don't know where these people were picked this time.

While thinking about it in my heart, I heard an exclamation from the front.

She walked over with Tony, only to see a group of people around there. After inquiring, she found out that someone bought the stone, cut it open on the spot, and found a good jade.

Curious, she asked Tony to wait outside and squeezed in to take a look.

Seeing this, his eyes lit up.

Really good jade!

I saw one person holding such a big stone, and only cut one edge and corner, and it glowed with a green luster like water. At a glance, we knew that it was at least a good jade of the emperor green level.

The people around were very excited, and they all guessed how big this piece of jade was.

People talk about gold, and naturally they can say anything, but Faye sees from his own experience that the piece of jade will never be small, at least it should be as big as four fists.

How much is such a big piece of jade worth?

Later, when I learned that the man bought the jade and spent more than two million yuan, his eyes turned red.

She hurriedly withdrew from the crowd, and was about to find someone to inquire about the boss here, when suddenly, she was hit by someone.

Faye didn't notice, but was staggered by the bump, and subconsciously shouted: "Who is it? Don't you have eyes when you walk?"

"sorry Sorry....."

A soft female voice sounded, she looked up, but was stunned for a moment.

I saw that standing in front of her was a middle-aged woman about her age, with a gentle temperament and stunning facial features.

The woman was wearing a light-colored long dress, her hair was pulled up high, revealing a slender and graceful swan neck. She was obviously middle-aged, but her whole body showed a bright and charming feeling that can only be found in an indescribable girl.

Her face sank immediately.

A beautiful woman will always subconsciously dislike another beautiful woman, especially when the other person is prettier than herself.

This is called same-sex exclusion.

She said with a cold face, "Didn't you see anyone here? You bumped into it recklessly. Are you responsible for the injury?"

The woman smiled embarrassedly, "I'm really sorry. I was in a hurry to find someone and didn't pay attention. So, where do you see your injury? If necessary, I can compensate you for your medical expenses, or take you to the hospital for a checkup?"

When Faye heard this, he became even more angry.

"Who wants your medical bills? Do you look down on me? Do you think I'm corrupting your money? Do you know who I am to dare to speak to me like that!"

The shrill voice caused the people who were still watching the stone cutting over there to turn their heads one after another.

The woman's face was a little embarrassed, and she seemed to be frightened by such a situation. She was at a loss for a while, not knowing what to do.

At this moment, a man in a casual suit hurried over.

"Kiera!"

The woman, who was still at a loss, suddenly walked over as if she had found the backbone.

"Ian."

"what happened?"

The man called Ian took her hand, frowned, and glanced at Faye.

Kiera shook her head, looking guilty, "I'm sorry Ian, I seem to have caused you trouble again, I..."

Faye interrupted her.

"Hey! Is this your man? If you bump into someone without apologizing, you still look arrogant, why? Do you want to pull your man to support you?"

Her words made Kiera even more embarrassed.

She wanted to explain, but because of her momentum, she couldn't say a word in the end.

Ian has analyzed what happened from the conversation between the two.

He pulled Kiera behind him and looked at Faye sullenly.

"I'm sorry, lady, it was my wife who accidentally bumped into you. I apologize to you on her behalf, but this is not an excuse for you to insult people at will?"

What Faye hated most in his life was when someone contradicted him.

Usually in the Lu family, it is because I know I have no right to speak, so I am humble.

But outside, who saw her and called Miss McCarthy disrespectfully?

Now that this man was talking to her in this tone, Faye's anger rose up.

"I insult people? What if I insult her? If she doesn't bump me, can I tell her? What? You bump into people and you seem reasonable, don't you?"

Her unreasonable attitude made Ian's brows furrow deeper, and a look of disgust flashed in his eyes.

More and more people were attracted around, Kiera looked embarrassed and pulled his sleeve.

"Ian, forget it."

Ian knew that she was afraid of being surrounded by people, so he protected her in his arms and said solemnly, "This lady, my wife is kind and weak, and doesn't want to argue with you. Since you said she bumped into you, well, how do you want to be straight? That said, there's no need to make a fuss here."

Faye snorted proudly when he saw that the other party was subdued.

"I don't want to do anything. You let her say sorry to me three times in front of everyone."

Hearing this, Kiera hurriedly said three times of sorry in a low voice.

Ian's face was very ugly, not because Kiera apologized, but because the woman in front of her was being arrogant and arrogant.

He looked at Faye coldly, "Okay, now the apology is over, can we go?"
