Chapter 1 – One Drop of Allure

The desert prison on the rocky island of Colorado, ADX, is considered to be the world's most guarded jail where no one can escape from.

In the silence of the night, the wind mixed with dust blowing over and over again, the temperature in the desert had reached minus five degrees.

No one saw that in the dark moonlight, wearing white tights, a girl deftly climbed up 3.28 meters of wire to quietly slip into this prison called "Sin Prison".

The girl was named He Xi, she was merely nineteen years old but had already become the fearless gold medal assassin of the dark world.

If she deployed one drop of poison she could destroy a whole city; If she flipped her silver needles she can revive the dead and restore flesh to bones.

She was an impenetrable defense in ordinary people's eyes, however she had a little trouble with this level.

An hour later He Xi passed through the lasers on the wall that seemed like a knitted net finally arriving in front of unremarkable prison door.

"He Xi, you really came to save me!" The prison door opened and a young handsome man looking pleasantly surprised rushed out to hold her.

She could feel the man's slightly trembling body and tightly embraced him. He Xi's chilled heart held a trace of softness.

Experience from childhood had made He Xi's nature become firm, persistent and icily arrogant, but only this man – Leng Ye, was different to her.

The two had become partners in the organization and trained together, completed missions together, helping each other through mountains of daggers and seas of flames. They are not lovers but their friendship is more profound than love.

He Xi hugged him gently and softly said: "We are partners, if you are in danger how can I not come to save you?"

"He Xi, He Xi!" Leng Ye's hoarse voice was trembling, he was holding her hands but couldn't relax, "I really want to be with you in this lifetime, unfortunately..."

He Xi wanted to ask unfortunately what, when she felt a sharp pain come from her abdomen.

She suddenly pushed Leng Ye away and staggered back a few steps, shocked at the knife she could see inserted into her abdomen, she looked back at Leng Ye: "Why...."

Under the dim light Leng Ye's complexion become sinister, from his mouth emerged a crazy laugh: "He Xi I blame you....blame you for not willing to be loved by me, refusing to accept me as your man....since I can't have you, it would be better to follow the organization's order to kill you!"

He Xi's body was shaking, looking into the man's eyes she saw that they were filled with pain and anger.

She didn't love Leng Ye and had rejected his proposal, in her eyes Leng Ye was just a brother, the best partner. However was their companionship all false? Don't love, so must obliterate.

And why did the organization want to get rid of her?

He Xi could feel the wound spreading open, making her limp and numb with a feeling of suffocation, this dagger had been smeared with poison! This is the blood sealing throat poison!

"The organization...why do they want to kill me?" From He Xi's forehead beads of sweat formed, making her pale face become more beautiful, "I never thought I did anything unworthy to the organization, in the end why?...."

"Blame that your life isn't good!" Leng Ye stepped forward, extending his hand gently he hooked his fingers under He Xi's lower jaw, at this moment He Xi gave him the illusion of being beautiful and gentle, making his coveting heart begin to stir, "Shen Master predicted you have the power to curse, one day bringing disaster for the organization, even destroying the world. The organization gave you three or four chances to let you contribute this mysterious power but you refused to give in, humph humph, how would the organization allow you to live?"

He Xi's body was shaking, her whole body felt as if it was numb.

Just because of a prophecy from God they wanted to kill her!

And Leng Ye kept on saying that he loved her. How many times had she saved him in their missions? And this is his payback, cruelly sending her to her death.

In this world sure enough besides oneself, one must not believe in anyone!

He Xi suddenly pushed away Leng Ye and laughed crazily: “Because you all feared me destroying the organization and the world you want to kill me? In that case you all open your dogeyes wide to take a good look at what kind of disaster my death will bring about to the organization!”

Her voice faded and He Xi suddenly pulled out the dagger in her abdomen, fiercely stabbing it into her heart.

Leng Ye was shocked by her action but thinking that she was only committing suicide sighed: “Humph, He Xi you always were unable to differentiate good from bad, if you had obeyed me earlier...”

Leng Ye’s words were not yet finished when suddenly an ear ringing sound burst forth followed by a violent explosion. Tightly grabbing hold of Leng Ye, He Xi felt a sharp pain as if her body was tearing apart. Her head and four limbs all split up in pieces till not even screams could come out, not ending until there was no life left in her.

“Rumble—!!” The whole prison’s base loudly collapsed into dust due to the ear-splitting explosion sound.

No one knew that within He Xi’s body there was a space. Her body was the carrier of this space and once He Xi died, the space exploded ten kilometers all around.

At the same time, He Xi’s space stored her handmade poison “Allure”. So when the explosion occurred it quietly mingled in the air, spreading out into the world.

The so-called “Allure”, just one drop can immediately destroy all living things, this is the real curse and destruction from the prophecy!
