

King of Hell 1431

Chapter 1431: Hopeless Bird Life

However, the little ones also needed cultivation after all. They couldn't all their energy to planting and harvesting spiritual plants.

Now that the Ancient Rhyme Spiritual Field had gotten so big, should they just leave most of its land wasted?

"Mother, hurry up! Come here and have a look!" Little Egg's doubtful voice suddenly sounded, "What is this?"

Hexi walked over immediately after hearing the words. She saw a strange array in a corner of the Ancient Rhyme Spiritual Field.

Hexi knew almost nothing about the array, but she could barely recognize that it was an array somewhat similar to the spirit gathering array, but with many more complicated functions.

"Little Egg, do you know what array this is?"

Little Egg shook his head. He touched the array with his little paws.

Hexi took out a few crystal stones and placed on the array, but there was no reaction at all.

"Is this array already broken?" Hexi frowned, "There is no place to put the crystal stone, what is it powered by?"

Moreover, before the void is upgraded today, I had never seen this array in the Ancient Rhyme Spiritual Field before!

As soon as Hexi looked up, she saw the little red bird looking at them with contempt. Its expression was filled with indescribably mocking and superior.

Little Egg immediately said angrily, "Stinky Bird, what are you chirping? Do you know what this array is for?"

"Chirp chirp chirp~" Of course I know, but I won't tell you! Dead pig!

"Mother, this bird is too bad!" Little Egg complained angrily, "It clearly knows what this array is for, but it just won't tell! Let's roast it!"

"Chirp chirp chirp~" It's right to roast you, you fat pig! Make you into a roast pig!

"Wuwu, Little Egg doesn't want to be a roast pig. Mother, it bullies Little Egg!"

The very cheerful little bird that was jumping around trembled involuntarily when it met Hexi's somewhat indifferent gaze.

Hexi reached out and touched the spiritual plants beside, and she said quietly, "You don't seem to know who is the owner of this void? Tell me, what is this array for? Why can't I leave the void now?"

"If you don't want to say..." Hexi paused, then she said to Xiao Chi softly, "Xiao Chi, catch it. Sister will cook you a little red bird!"

Xiao Chi's IQ was now much higher. Although he was not very good at speaking, he could tell what Hexi meant right away.

Hearing this, without even a moment's hesitation, he grabbed the little red bird on his shoulder.

"Chirp!!" The little red bird screamed, desperately trying to break free.

Xiao Chi didn't seem to feel anything. He smiled and handed the little red bird to Hexi, "Sister... eat..."

"Chirp, chirp, chirp~" Bastard, I was so wrong to like you so much! You actually want to eat me! Bastard bastard! You're all bastards!

Hexi took the chirping bird, grabbed its claws, lifted it upside down and brought it upside down before her, then she asked slowly, "Now can you tell me, what is this array used for?"

"Chirp, chirp, chirp~" Wuuwuu, bad guys, all of you bully me. Even this pretty human brother bullies me. My bird life is hopeless. I don't want to live!

Hexi couldn't understand the words of Little Red Bird, but Little Egg could!

The little one who couldn't wait to stir up troubles excitedly said, "Mother, it said it doesn't want to live anymore. Let's roast it quickly!"

Chapter 1432: Purified Spiritual Power

"Chirp Chirp Chirp Chirp!!" I'm not, bastard! This is the [God Level Planting Array], which can only be activated with purified wood element and water element spiritual power. Of course, ordinary crystal stones are useless!

"God Level Planting Array? What is that?" Little Egg repeated Little Red Bird's words.

Hexi frowned and said, "What is purified spiritual power?" She tried to use the spiritual power of the 5 elements just now, but it didn't work at all.

"Chirp chirp~" Stupid, of course it is the spiritual power released after learning [Circle of Life]! It's such a big treasure in Xuan Xiao Palace, haven't you taken a good look at its functions?

Hexi was startled. She frowned, "So I can't leave the void now, is it also because I haven't practiced [Circle of Life]?"

"Chirp chirp chirp~" Of course! The Sumeru Void has been upgraded, and you are the owner of the void. If you do not have the ability to control the upgraded void, you will not be able to enter again after you go out!

"Chirp!" Bastard, can you let me go now?

Hexi let go of Little Red Bird's hand, and Little Red Bird flapped its wings and flew back to Xiao Chi's shoulder.

Xiao Chi looked back at it a little sluggishly. His eyes were clear and bright.

"Chirp!" Don't think you... you look at me like that, I will forgive you for your betrayal just now! You wanted to eat me just now. This is unforgivable.

"Chirp chirp~~" Well, for the sake of your initiative, I forgive you! If anyone bullies you in the future, I will protect you!

Little Egg put his hands on his hips, pointed at Little Red Bird and said, "Stupid bird, you can stay in this void, but you have to listen to me from now on. Besides mother, I'm the boss!"

"Chirp chirp chirp!" Bah, you fat pig, no one will listen to you! Let's fight now. Whoever has the strongest spells will be the boss!

The little ones were making a fuss, but Hexi ignored them. She took out the Circle of Life and sat cross-legged on the ground.

Although the techniques of Circle of Life were wood element techniques, they could also convert the spritual power of other elements into wood spritual power.

So after channeling spritual power for one cycle, Hexi only felt that her five elements piritual power had been stabilized and strengthened.

She slowly opened her eyes, and half an hour had passed.

The practice of the Circle of Life would take longer and longer every cycle. The first cycle only took half an hour, the second cycle at least one day, the third cycle took a month, and the ninth cycle couldn't even be calculated with time.

The purified wood spritual power was slowly poured into the [God Level Planting Array]. Hexi wanted to see what kind of array didn't need to be activated by spirit stones.

In the next moment, the entire void underwent obvious changes.

Hexi probed with Divine Sense and knew that they were all harvested in the Ling Xiao Palace's storage room.

The seeds that were originally in the storage room were extracted by themselves and thrown into the Ancient Rhyme Spritual Field one by one.

There was no sun above the void, but suddenly a scorching sun appeared out of nowhere. The sun shone on the spritual field, and the planted seeds germinated at a speed visible to the naked eye.

The next moment, white rain clouds floated from the sky, covered the sun, and the spiritual rain poured down, watering the spiritual field. Those spiritual grasses that originally grew out of seedlings continued to grow at a speed visible to the naked eye and bloomed beautiful flowers.

Chapter 1433: Leaving Void

After the rain stopped, the sun came out again. The poisonous bees collected from the Illusive Forest were happily shuttled among the flowers.

Then, after pollination, the flowers begin to wither and produce juicy fruit.

Hexi was dumbfounded watching this scene, even the little ones were jaw-dropping.

Even Little Red Bird, who seemed contemptuous just now, couldn't help but widened his eyes, making continuous chirps. Although he learned about the [God Level Planting Array] from the inherited memory, he never expected it to be so miraculous.

In the end, the fruits and ripe herbs were collected into Ling Xiao Palace and placed in different categories.

The array emitting green light finally lost its radiance and became gray as before.

Hexi took a deep breath. The wood spiritual power formed by her [Circle of Life] could only sustain one round of plant harvesting at most, but this round alone had left her dumbfounded.

If [Circle of Life] is practiced to the extreme in the future, wouldn't I be able to get thousands of spiritual plants every day? Moreover, the spiritual plants are high quality.

Hexi swallowed and forgot this wonderful future.

She walked up to Xiao Chi, handed over the [Circle of Life] to him, and said, "Only people with the wood spiritual root can practice this method. Xiao Chi, would you like to try it?"

In Xiao Chi's case, his dantian was completely wasted, so he was unable to cultivate. But Hexi always felt that this set of [Circle of Life] was different. Xiao Chi had such a strong wood spiritual power in his body. If he practices this set of [Circle of Life], would he regain the chance to cultivate?

Xiao Chi took the techniques with a pure smile, leaned close to Hexi, and rubbed against her neck.

After practicing [Circle of Life], Hexi tried to leave the void again. This time, she finally succeeded.

However, as soon as she left the void and opened her eyes. She heard a cry as if the sky was falling.

"King, king! Please don't die. We can't live without you!"

"Doctor Tapir, aren't you the best doctor among us? Think of a way to save the king!"

What's the situation? Hexi frowned and looked at the source of the sound. Why does it sound like someone's parent is dead?

Hexi looked around, and all she saw were ruins. She could still smell the smell of burning and blood.

And it was a group of beastkin who cried bitterly.

With Hexi’s eyesight, she could tell at a glance that this was a group of beastkins. Not only because of the beastkin aura emanating from them, but also the obvious beastkin characteristics such as claws, scales and horns.

This group of beastkins was surrounding a man in a red robe, weeping loudly. Their faces were full of despair and sadness.

As for the man in a red robe, his was in a very bad situation.

His face was covered with blood, and his face was covered with light blue scales, but most of these scales were burnt.

Hexi scanned roughly with Divine Sense, and she found that the beastkin’s body seemed to be burning with raging flames. The overbearing level of the flames could almost rival the cold poison in Nangong Yu’s body. If this burning continued for a few moments, the beastkin’s internal organs and soul would be burned completely. It would result in a miserable end.

Chapter 1434: Retarded

How did the peak of rank 11 beastkin end up like this? Hexi raised her eyebrows in surprise and asked with her eyes.

A trace of anger appeared in the Little Golden Dragon’s eyes. He gritted his teeth and said, “Boss, you forgot that in the confinement space, there was originally a teleportation array that was going to send you and the King of Hell out, but that bastard Tong Bing suddenly threw something into the teleportation array. It turned out that the thing was the notorious Sanskrit Voodoo Illusive Silk. Most of the Beastkin King’s beastkin aura was sealed.”

“In order to fight against Golden Wolf and the others, Beastkin King had to forcibly activate the Jade Fire Toad, so now that he is backlashed by the flames of Jade Fire Toad. I think he probably can’t survive. What a pity! He has cultivated to demi-divine beast!”

I remember that it is recorded in the Record of Everything that Jade Fire Toad is the remnant soul of the fire attribute toad beastkin after it failed to survive the tribulation. That had to be at least rank 11. Moreover, to be able to form a remnant soul, it must be at least rank 12.

For the remnant soul to be called the real Jade Fire Toad, it needs to be nourished at the junction of Yin and Yang for thousands of years. In the end, it will become a living spiritual body. As long as Nangong Yu carries it with him all the time, at least for a short period of time, the cold poison will not attack again.

But according to Little Egg, this Jade Fire Toad is just a remnant soul, and it has not been nourished by the extreme yin qi. It can be used as a magic weapon to launch powerful attacks or it can be swallowed as a great tonic, but whether it is attacking or swallowing, it is only one time.

Such Jade Fire Toad was actually not the most ideal treatment plan for Hexi. But Jade Fire Toad was too rare, and Nangong Yu's illness couldn't be delayed any longer, so no matter how dangerous the Jade Fire Toad was that had not been nourished, Hexi had to try it.

Little Golden Dragon hurriedly said, "Boss, don't worry, King of Hell has already got the Jade Fire Toad, and the extreme yang flame inside has not been exhausted."

Hexi breathed a sigh of relief. She was about to ask Little Golden Dragon where did Nangong Yu go, then the beastkins suddenly shouted.

"It was you. It was you humans who killed the king! I will kill you! I will die with you!!"

Feng Luan's eyes were red. He stared at Hexi with hatred and rushed toward her recklessly.

Little Golden Dragon cursed with an ugly face, "Damn, are you retarded! Go and look for those who harmed you guys. What does it have to do with us!"

Hexi's mouth twitched. She reaffirmed that Little Golden Dragon, who had been with Little Egg for a long time, was really good at cursing.

Feng Luan didn't seem to hear it at all. He had lost all reason. His paws, that were stained with blood, swiped toward Hexi fiercely.

"Since you want to die, then I will fulfill you!"

Little Golden Dragon let out a cold snort. His figure suddenly grew bigger. A ball of red flame shot out from his mouth toward Feng Luan.

At the moment Hexi advanced, several little ones had also undergone obvious changes. Little Golden Dragon had directly advanced to rank 6.

The rank 6 of Little Golden Dragon was not at the same level as the rank 6 of the magical beast. As soon as the flame shot out, the beastkins at the side immediately felt threatened.

Chapter 1435: Suffer For Eternity

That was the coercion of the golden flying dragon, a powerhouse above most creatures. Even if he had not advanced to the level of being able to transform, it was not something that ordinary beastkin could match.

“Don’t!” A clear and anxious girl’s voice came from not far away, then a yellow Yue Min Bird flew over at lightning speed. It turned into a young girl and stood in front of Feng Luan, begging anxiously, “Don’t Kill Brother Feng Luan, please!”

Seeing that the flame was about to engulf the girl, the beastkins on the side exclaimed, “Li Yu—!”

Li Yu closed her eyes in fear, and her small body trembled.

However, the expected pain did not come. Hexi just waved her hand lightly, and the flame was blown aside by a gust of wind and hit a broken wall.

Li Yu opened her eyes filled with tears, looked at Xi Yue and said lowly, “Thank you, Xi Yue!”

“Li Yu, why are you stopping me! If it weren’t for these hateful humans, how could King be in this state! I want to kill him. I want to tear all human beings to pieces!”

“Pa!” Li Yu turned around and slapped Feng Luan hard on the face. Her face seemed to be covered with frost, “Feng Luan, stop making trouble! If you don’t want King to die, don’t say a word!”

After finishing speaking, she didn’t take another look at Feng Luan who was stunned, but she walked quickly to Xi Yue and knelt down.

“Xi Yue, I... I beg you to save our King! As long as you can save King, we are willing to pay any price. From now on, no matter what you want us to do, if we refuse, let us be detested by the beast god and suffer for eternity.”

As soon as Li Yu said this, all the beastkins looked dull, then they let out cries of surprise.

“Li Yu, what... what did you say?! He can save King? Is that true?!”

“Li Yu, have you been deceived by him? Human beings are cunning and insidious...”

However, Li Yu didn’t seem to hear the words of his fellow beastkins at all. She just looked at Hexi persistently and firmly with tearful eyes.

Hexi pursed his lips, glanced at the unconscious and dying Beastkin King, and said with deep eyes, “I want Jade Fire Toad. If I save your King, he wants to take the Jade Fire Toad from me, then wouldn’t I lose more than gain?”

Before Li Yu could speak, a chubby beastkin said excitedly, “This... human doctor, I can assure you on behalf of King. As long as you save King, Jade Fire Toad will be yours. We... we don’t want it! We only want King to be alive!”

Hexi raised her eyebrows, “You give me the Jade Fire Toad on behalf of your King?”

Li Yu explained, “Mir... Miracle Healer Xi, that Jade Fire Toad is the remnant soul left by the former Beastkin King Fire Toad. Fire Toad is the ancestor of Brother Pang, so... so Brother Pang can make the decision.”

Hexi was still pondering, then a rank 9 beastkin also came forward, staring at Hexi with red eyes, “We have seen the person who took Jade Fire Toad just now. Although we don’t have time to pursue it now, no one can take away treasure from us for no reason. When we calm down, the beastkin clan will hunt down humans forever. We will not hesitate to let the magical beast army cross the border again and let the humans plunge into the abyss of misery.”

Hexi squinted her eyes, “Are you threatening me?”

Chapter 1436: Reborn from the Ashes

The rank 9 beastkin fell to his knees in front of Hexi with a thud and said in a trembling voice, “I just hope you can save our King. As long as King can survive, you can choose any treasure of our beastkin clan.”

Little Golden Dragon also whispered, “Boss, I can sense the aura of the same kind from that Beastkin King. Boss, why don’t you save him?”

The beastkins knelt down one by one, looking at Hexi expectantly. Most beastkins were simple and honest. Since Hexi said she could save the King, they fully believed that their King could really be saved.

Her spiritual power that went into Beastkin King’s body was forced out by a scorching fiery force, but the beastkin’s pulse clearly conveyed the condition in his body.

I’m right. There was a flash of understanding in Hexi’s eyes. The Beastkin King was not dead, or in other words, not dead yet. He was using Jade Fire Toad’s extreme yang flames to put his broken body to death, then it was reborn from the ashes.

However, now his fundamental essence couldn’t sustain anymore, and the burning pain of the extreme yang flames couldn’t be endured by will, so he was at the end of his strength. He would step into the abyss with just one step.

Hexi took out the gold needles and inserted them into Beastkin King’s acupuncture points one by one.

As expected, the body structure of the Beastkin King was very similar to that of the Little Golden Dragon. His true form was probably also a type of dragon. Fortunately, she had treated Little Golden Dragon, otherwise she really couldn’t find his acupuncture points in a short time.

Time passed by, and countless golden needles had been pierced into the unconscious Beastkin King’s body.

The beastkins were all watching nervously, not even daring to take another breath. Even the most irritable Feng Luan watched stiffly, for fear of disturbing Hexi.

The needles that were originally inserted into Beastkin King’s body seemed to be ejected with some kind of force.

Beastkin King’s body slowly floated up in the air. Red and blue lights began to radiate from his body.

“What is this going?”

“King, how are you?”

“King, are you okay!”

It was not the Beastkin King’s answer that responded to the beastkins, but the thundercloud that came from nowhere in the sky.

“Boom—boom—” There were thunder and lightning flashing in the sky as if the end of the world was coming.

At this moment, all the beastkins screamed in shock. Under the cover of these thunderclouds, their panic and despair all turned into surprise and worry.

They were surprised because these weren’t ordinary thunderclouds, but the tribulation clouds when the beastkin faced the tribulation. Now that the tribulation clouds appeared, it meant that their King was about to advance to rank 12 divine beast.

They were worried that the tribulation of the divine beast was not to be taken lightly. Their King had just suffered such a serious injury. Could he still withstand the thunderclouds now?

Hexi was also shocked. She didn’t expect that the Beastkin King would actually be reborn from the ashes. He even gained great power from the extreme yang flames. Hexi couldn’t help admiring the Beastkin King’s tenacity for enduring such pain that could kill him.

She smiled and murmured silently, “Since it has come to this point, wouldn’t it be a pity if you are killed by the tribulation clouds now? Then let me help you!”

Chapter 1437: Feng Family Patriarch

As she spoke, a green light ball flew toward the Beastkin King in the air without a sound.

This was the wood spiritual power purified by the Circle of Life. Although it was not as overpowered as the source of life, it was also the best repairing and nourishing thing. Coupled with the water and fire spiritual power possessed by the Beastkin King, after complementing each other, it would have an unexpected beneficial effect.

No beastkin noticed the existence of the green light ball. They only saw that after their King was struck by the first thunder, a dazzling green light suddenly radiated from his body.

Where the green light covered, the withered vegetation was thriving again. Even the air seemed to emit a rich fragrance.

The beastkins also felt that the wounds on their bodies had healed again. Their bodies were filled with endless power.

“King! King! King!”

They knelt down and kowtowed in joy. Their voices were full of joy and admiration.

This time, the blue-green light that appeared on Beastkin King didn't just fill the magical beast forest like Hexi did at the beginning, but it rose directly into the sky and even echoed the thunderclouds.

Therefore, such a change, whether it was the people in the magical beast forest or the people near the magical beast forest, they could clearly see it.

Many people felt the traces of wood spiritual power, which also triggered the greed in their hearts.

"Patriarch? Why are you here?!"

"The Venerable! Aren't you retreating? Why?"

The master of the Feng Family and the elders were watching the movement in the magical beast forest in bewilderment and shock, then they suddenly heard the noise.

When Feng Batian looked back, he was also startled.

Not far from the forbidden area, a tall and thin white-bearded old man walked over quickly. It was the patriarch of their Feng Family, Venerable Mu Hua?

Venerable Mu Hua had reached the Nascent Soul Stage perfect stage decades ago, and his pill refining technique had reached the great grandmaster level. No matter in terms of strength or medicinal pills support, Venerable Mu Hua was the pillar of Feng Family. He was the most important existence for the Feng Family to survive.

A few years ago, Venerable Mu Hua began to retreat in order to reach the Soul Splitting Stage. He once said that if he could not break through the bottleneck, he would never leave the forbidden area.

Why did Venerable Mu Hua the Venerable appear here today? There were no tribulation clouds when breaking through to the Soul Splitting Stage in the past few days, and the patriarch doesn't seem to have advanced. Why...

Venerable Mu Hua ignored everyone's inquiries, but he locked his eyes firmly on the depths of the magical beast forest that was shrouded in the green light. His eyes were filled with scorching desires.

"Batian, gather your people immediately and follow me into the magical beast forest!"

Feng Batian was full of surprise and doubt. He forgot about the green light. He wanted to ask what it was, but the patriarch's prestige made him dare not say more.

He just bowed and said, "How many people does patriarch want?"

Venerable Mu Hua squinted and said in a deep voice, "Gather all the people who are above the Gold Core Stage intermediate stage and Nascent Soul Stage. This is the moment of our Feng Family's life and death. No matter what, we must get that thing!"

Feng Batian's face suddenly changed.

Calling people who are above the Gold Core Stage intermediate stage and Nascent Soul Stage, that is almost 90% of Feng Family's combat power. If they are lost in the magical beast forest, then Feng Family will really be over this time!

Chapter 1438: Greed

Feng Yunjing standing next to Feng Batian was taught by Venerable Mu Hua when he was young, so he was a little presumptuous when facing Venerable Mu Hua. He said, "The Venerable, what exactly is that thing you are talking about?"

"Wood source." Venerable Mu Hua said slowly. His voice was calm and hoarse, but the fiery flames in his eyes seemed to burst out at any moment, "As long as I have a wood source, let alone breaking through the Soul Splitting Stage, even creating hundreds of Nascent Soul Stage cultivators is not a problem for our Feng Family."

As Venerable Mu Hua said that, his eyes fell on Feng Yunjing with burning with temptation, "Even you Yunjing, as long as you have the wood source, you will definitely be able to break through to the Soul Splitting Stage within 10 years."

Break through to the Soul Splitting Stage within ten years?! Feng Yunjing gasped. The shock on his face slowly turned into a greedy burning desire.

Wood source? As long as I get this thing, I will be stronger than Nangong Yu. I can take revenge for being randomly sent to the endless glacier that day, and I can imprison Xi Yue by my side!

Feng Batian's eyes were also burning with desire. He exchanged a glance with the other elders, then he turned around and quickly went to gather the people.

I never expect that the wood source that even the upper realms have been searching for thousands of years will appear in Miluo Continent.

If I hadn't experienced the power of a virtual wood source in Siam Continent, I would have missed it this time.

Hahaha, perhaps, this is a blessing to our Feng Family, so we can become the real ruler of unifying Miluo Continent. Even our Feng Family will have a place in Siam Continent!

There was no figure behind him, no sound of footsteps, no sound of flying through the air, but Golden Wolf felt the hairs all over his body stand on end. An invisible fear clutched his mind, making him feel the despair and anger of being played with as a prey.

This trip to the magical beast forest was originally planned perfectly.

But who knows, accidents happened again and again.

First, someone suddenly advanced with the perfect stage, the captured beastkin recovered, and the Heavenly Mulberry Sacred Tree grew again, and then such a boy with superb cultivation appeared.

A mere low rank martial artist from Miluo Continent actually cultivates to the Soul Splitting Stage intermediate stage, and he even possesses the most terrifying dark element spiritual root.

If I had known earlier, if I had known this would happen...

Just as he was thinking, suddenly the sky was densely covered with tribulation thunderclouds. Amidst the thunder and lightning, the entire magical beast forest seemed to tremble violently.

Golden Wolf looked up at the thunderclouds in horror.

Soon, something that even stunned Golden Wolf happened.

A green light suddenly soared into the sky, then it enveloped half of the magical beast forest.

Where Golden Wolf was located, he could still feel the vitality brought by the slight wood spiritual power.

“Wood... wood source!” Golden Wolf gasped. His voice was trembling, “Although there is only a small amount, ... it is indeed the wood source. This Miluo Continent actually has the wood source?!”

Chapter 1439: I Hope... It Isn't You...

This time, Golden Wolf was not calm at all. Originally, he planned to escape from the magical beast forest with his own strength, then he would use the teleportation array to escape. The magical beast forest was different from other places. This was the territory of the beastkin. Except for the beastkin, other martial artists who used space technique would be torn to pieces by the space-time fissure.

Golden Wolf took out an old compass. The compass was given to him by the Lord. it was the most important life-saving magic weapon. As long as he activated it, it could directly send him back to Siam Continent.

This disastrous defeat made him afraid to use the compass, otherwise, even if he went back, the Lord would definitely punish him severely.

But now it was different, he got the news of the wood source. As long as he brought this news back...

Spiritual power was poured into the compass. When the compass was about to light up, a cold and chilling murderous intent shrouded him.

Golden Wolf was astounded. He was about to resist when he suddenly felt a chill in his neck and was directly strangled by someone.

He opened his eyes wide and looked at the person who appeared in front of him out of thin air.

It was a man in black with a stern face. Every inch of his body seemed to carry the indifference that no one should get close.

He held Golden Wolf's throat with his hand. Golden Wolf was obviously a master at the Soul Splitting Stage later stage, but in his eyes, there was not even the slightest ripple as if he was looking at a lifeless stone.

This person, Golden Wolf knew him! However, it wasn't Nangong Yu who Golden Wolf thought was chasing him, but... but...

"You're... you..."

Before Golden Wolf could finish speaking, a strange red bag suddenly appeared on the other hand of the man in black. As the hand that clutched Golden Wolf's neck flicked, the man in a black shirt threw Golden Wolf into the red bag.

After putting away the bag, the man in black didn't leave immediately. Instead, he looked at the direction shrouded in a green light, frowning slightly.

"Wood source...Xi Yue. I hope... it's not you..."

After only a few seconds, Nangong Yu caught up, but he saw no one around. He raised his eyebrows.

He smelled the smell of blood in the air, and there seemed to be a strange and familiar powerful aura.

"Tsk~" Nangong Yu curled his lips unhappily. I'm one step late. Someone got him before me.

It's just a prey. If it's gone, it's gone. For me, Xi'er's safety is the most important.

Hexi who caused this commotion was also very depressed.

I just wanted to help the Beastkin King who had exhausted his spiritual power to survive the tribulation.

But I never expected that just a little bit of purified wood spiritual power would cause such a big commotion.

However, Hexi could feel that the wood spiritual power emanating from the Beastkin King seemed to be much thinner than the wood spiritual power in her body, and it was also tainted with the water spiritual power.

"Xi'er, you are awake?"

Nangong Yu's voice came from behind, then she was quickly embraced into a broad embrace.

Nangong Yu is back!

Hexi turned around in surprise. She was relieved to see that Nangong Yu was safe and sound.

Just now she was uneasy because of the movement caused by the wood spiritual power, but now seeing Nangong Yu, all her worries were replaced by peace of mind and trust.

TL: Is that man in black Xuan Mu? He is from the same faction as Golden Wolf?

Chapter 1440: Everything Is Up to My Lady

Hexi coughed lowly and said with a guilty conscience, "The Beastkin King was originally burned by the flames of the Jade Fire Toad. I helped him with golden needles, but I didn't expect to help him absorb the extreme yang flames and caused a thunder tribulation."

If he survived the thunder Tribulation, he would be a true divine beast. Even Nangong Yu was no match to him.

Nangong Yu felt that Hexi didn't tell everything, especially the green light that obviously contained a powerful wood spiritual power. He always felt that it had something to do with Hexi. But there were beastkin everywhere at this moment, so he held back the desire to ask.

"Where's Jade Fire Toad?" This was what Hexi cared most about.

Nangong Yu took Jade Fire Toad out of his arms. Before Jade Fire Toad had never been nourished, it belonged to the most yang treasure in the world. Anything, including storage bags, could only be burned by it.

After Nangong Yu destroyed a storage bag and a bag of crystal stones, he had to keep it close to his body. Only the cold poison on his body could restrain the blazing flames of the Jade Fire Toad.

Hexi wanted to reach out to touch Jade Fire Toad, but she was quickly stopped by Nangong Yu.

But even though Nangong Yu's speed was so fast, Hexi's index fingertip was still a little red.

Nangong Yu's face was so unsightly that it was frightening, but the movement of grabbing Hexi's hand was very gentle. He gently sucked the red-hot index finger into his mouth.

Hexi's face turned red all of a sudden. She looked around, only to see that many beastkins had noticed the movement here and looked over one after another.

Hexi quickly retracted her hand, only to see that the burn marks on it had disappeared, but it became wet.

This guy!

But immediately, Hexi's face changed slightly.

She grabbed Nangong Yu's hand and released spiritual power into it. Sure enough, a bone-chilling chill penetrated into her body, making her shiver uncontrollably.

The cold poison has struck ahead of time! Why?!

Nangong Yu could grab Jade Fire Toad with bare hands because he had the cold poison in his body that was at the same level as the Jade Fire Toad. But also because of touching the extreme yang flames, the cold poison that had been dormant was awakened.

Just like rivals of the same level competing with each other, the cold poison was activated in advance.

Hexi looked solemn. She said calmly, "It can't delay any longer. I will find a place to treat you right now."

Of course, Nangong Yu of course knew best about his own body. The cold poison in his body was spreading crazily. If there was no Jade Toad Fire to suppress it, he would be completely unable to move in half an hour.

But just as Hexi trusted him, he also trusted Hexi's medical skills and judgment unconditionally.

Hearing this, he didn't feel worried or panicked at all. He just smiled and said, "Okay, everything is up to my lady."

Hexi rolled her eyes at him. This guy can still joke at this time.

They were about to leave, but they were stopped by the beastkins.

Hexi frowned and said, "You said that as long as I save the Beastkin King, the Jade Fire Toad will be mine. Are you going to renege!"

"Absolutely not!" The beastkins shook their heads again and again, looking at Hexi with gratitude and admiration, "Miracle Healer Xi has great kindness to us. Let alone a mere Jade Fire Toad, except Heavenly Mulberry Sacred Tree, even if you want to take all of our treasures. We will never hesitate."
