

King of Hell 1441

Chapter 1441: Huge Cost

Although they hated humans, they had heard from Li Yu that the human in front of them saved the beastkins time and time again. She could be said to be the biggest benefactor of the beastkins in the magical beast forest.

Li Yu said on behalf of the other beastkins, "Miracle Healer Xi, if you don't mind, you can perform healing in the magical beast forest. Behind this forest, there is a cave. That... that place is very hidden. If you need us to protect, we can also..."

Hexi breathed a sigh of relief. She showed a gentle expression, "There is no need to guard us. Please take us to that cave!"

When she was treating Nangong Yu, she would probably use wood spiritual power, which couldn't be discovered by any human or beastkin.

===

In the magical beast forest, thunderclouds were still densely covered, but the green light had disappeared without a trace.

It could be said that the Feng Family had paid a huge cost to get this wood source.

Venerable Mu Hua took out the directional teleportation array and teleported the people Feng Tianba had gathered to the depths of the magical beast forest in one go.

The directional teleportation array was the top-level array in Miluo Continent. The teleportation distance could reach thousands of kilometers, and the approximate landing point could be specified.

However, it would cost tens of thousands of upper grade crystal stones to activate the directional teleportation array, and it would also require Nascent Soul Stage martial artists to overdraw their lifespan to activate it.

So originally, the ancestors of the Feng Family left this directional teleportation array to allow the family to escape in times of crisis.

For the wood source, Venerable Mu Hua couldn't care much. If he was one step later and the vision disappeared, it would be extremely difficult to find the wood source.

The sky was getting closer to dusk. Because of the thunderclouds, the forest looked dark, giving people a sense of oppression.

Feng Yunjing led a dozen Gold Core Stage martial artists and a Nascent Soul Stage elder to shuttle in the forest, inspecting the surrounding suspicious phenomena little by little.

Venerable Mu Hua and Feng Batian had already rushed to the direction where the tribulation thunderclouds gathered.

Feng Yunjing and the others led their own teams to guard the surrounding areas. They searched for clues while blocking all possible escape routes of the "wood source".

From time to time, Feng Yunjing's gaze would look toward the direction where lightning struck.

He also really wanted to go there to the wood source as soon as possible. If... if I can get the wood source myself...

Feng Yunjing swallowed with unwillingness and greed in his eyes.

"Young master, come and take a look. There seems to be something strange here."

The subordinate's voice quickly brought Feng Yunjing back from his thoughts.

A Gold Core Stage martial artist discovered an extremely hidden cave. When they didn't get close, they might just treat this cave as an ordinary bush.

However, when the martial artist looked closely for a moment out of curiosity, he felt a fiery aura rushing toward them.

He had retreated as fast as he could, but a large piece of his hair was still scorched.

Feng Yunjing also approached the cave, but what he felt was not the scorching heat, but the freezing cold that would freeze his breath.

"What is inside?" He murmured suspiciously, "Is this where beastkins hide their treasures?"

Thinking of this, Feng Yunjing's eyes lit up. A long sword transfigured in his hand, and he struck suddenly.

The weeds that originally covered the cave made a piercing sound, then they were uprooted by the sword blow.

All eyes were on the cave.

After seeing the scene in the cave clearly, Feng Yunjing's breath was stagnant. There was a trace of disbelief in his eyes.

Chapter 1442: Fated Encounter

Afterward, a smile was evoked on his face slowly. The smile became more and more wanton; more and more vicious!

After the bushes were blown away, a spacious cave was revealed.

But what appeared in the cave was not any beastkin treasure, but 2 people.

The young handsome man's eyes were closed tightly. His body constantly exuded hot and cold aura alternately. His body trembled unconsciously. Obviously, he was in great pain.

And behind the young man, a handsome young man only wearing thin clothes was putting his palms on the young man's back.

A light green spiritual power slowly penetrated into the man's heart along his back.

The young man's expression was dignified and anxious as if he had forgotten the whole world. His eyes were full of worries about the young man.

Feng Yunjing recognized at just one glance that the young man was Nangong Yu, and that handsome young man like a moon elf was none other than Xi Yue disguised as a man!

Of these 2 people, one was the man he dreamed of getting rid of and the other was the woman he dreamed of getting.

Today, God really favors me and send these 2 people to me, and it is with this method, hahaha!

At this moment, the elder walking with Feng Yunjing suddenly exclaimed, "Yunjing, look at the green spiritual power circulating in that young man's hand, does it look like the wood source?"

Feng Yunjing's heart suddenly constricted upon hearing this.

Even the other Feng Family's disciples stared straight at each other with eyes full of excitement and greed.

After looking carefully, they could find that the air seemed to be filled with a vitality that was stronger than in other places.

This kind of green spiritual power, even if it was not a wood source, must be extremely precious.

"Should we notify the patriarch immediately?" The elder of the Feng Family asked.

Feng Yunjing swallowed and said decisively, "The Venerable and the others are busy, let's catch them first."

After a pause, he looked at the elder with eyes full of temptation and suggestion and said faintly, "Elder Liu, although the wood source is precious, it is not available to everyone in the Feng Family. But if it is only the 2 of us find the wood source?"

The elder's eyes lit up. He immediately agreed to Feng Yunjing's suggestion.

Not only because of the temptation of the wood source, but also because of the 2 people in the cave. Their condition didn't seem very good. Especially King of Hell, no matter how terrifying he was at the beginning, now he seemed to be on the verge of death.

Feng Yunjing clenched the sword in his hand, walked slowly into the cave, stared at Xi Yue who was wearing thin clothes. His eyes swept across her delicate face and radiant skin before softly saying, "Xi Yue, do you still remember how you escaped from my hands on the Breaking Spirit Mountain? However, I also said that this was your last chance. This time, I will never let you escape from my grasp!"

The flame light on Nangong Yu's body flickered, and the temperature in the air rose again.

The faces of several Gold Core Stage disciples were red, but to Feng Yunjing from Nascent Soul Stage, this heat was nothing.

Hexi frowned suddenly. She increased the output of the wood spiritual power again, and a hoarse voice came from her mouth, "Nangong Yu concentrates. Now is the most critical moment!"

Afterward, she shouted in a low voice, "Little Golden Dragon!"

Chapter 1443: Vicious

As soon as she called out, Feng Yunjing felt a gust of wind blowing toward his face, making him take a step back involuntarily.

In front of Hexi and Nangong Yu, the little ones appeared.

The Little Golden Dragon hovered in the air and raised his voice, "Boss, don't worry. We will definitely stop these guys!"

As he said that, his contemptuous and loathing eyes fell on Feng Yunjing, "You really won't give up, will you? A piece of trash like you even dreams of touching my boss? I think your brain has been filled with too much shit!"

"Little Golden Dragon, you're wrong!" Little Egg said angrily with his little hooves on his waist, "This kind of idiot who asked for humiliation repeatedly and doesn't even know how to write the word 'ugly', does he have any brains?"

"Chirp chirp chip~" It's none of my business! Why even I have to fight! And who are these people? Their smell is so stinky. They should all be burned to death, so as not to pollute the air.

Feng Yunjing's face was as gloomy as water.

It wasn't the first time he was insulted by these little beasts. As early as Breaking Spirit Mountain, he wanted to tear these beasts into pieces.

This time, I will never give them another chance to be alive!

"Just a bunch of beasts. I'll make you all speechless in no time!"

The long sword in Feng Yunjing's hand suddenly floated up. At the same time, the black flag he had repaired rose up into the sky.

Feng Yunjing had fought with these spiritual pets of Xi Yue.

Although he knew that their abilities were very special, he didn't pay them in his eyes at all.

But after fighting, Feng Yunjing discovered that the cultivation of these little beasts had improved a lot in just half a year.

And the few little beasts had cooperated very tacitly now.

Little Dumb Cow was defending, Little Golden Dragon was attacking, Xiao Li was in charge of field control, Little Red Bird was flying around to harass them, and Little Egg was responsible for replenishing their beastkin power.

2 Nascent Soul Stage plus a dozen Gold Core Stage were in a stalemate when facing these 5 spiritual pets.

Feng Yunjing glanced at Nangong Yu at the side, wondering if he was having an illusion. Nangong Yu's erratic aura seemed to have stabilized a lot.

If this gets dragged like this, Nangong Yu's injury will be healed by Xi Yue. By then, what chance would we have to survive?

A glint of sternness flashed in Feng Yunjing's eyes. He suddenly sneered and said, "Xi Yue, do you still remember the kind of intimate contact I had with you in Breaking Spirit Mountain? I still remember the delicate fragrance emanating from your body. "

"There has never been a woman who can haunt me so much. When I think of being able to ravage you under my body, I'm so excited. For more than half a year, every night I dream of you lying in my arms..."

"Boom—" There was a loud noise.

The fiery aura that had stabilized on Nangong Yu's body suddenly tumbled like a storm.

Nangong Yu's originally closed eyes suddenly opened.

Hexi let out a muffled grunt, and she was ejected away by a huge force.

Immediately afterward, a crimson flame burst out from Nangong Yu's dantian, surging into her body.

Fiery, burning, incineration... The pain of the soul being scorched caused Hexi to groan.

Afterward, the wood spiritual power in her body instantly wrapped up the heat source as if it was alive. It devoured and melted the heat bit by bit.

When Hexi fell to the ground, Nangong Yu had already stood up.

Chapter 1444: Regret

It was just that something was completely wrong to him.

His one eye was blue and the other eye was fiery red, staring firmly at Feng Yunjing.

His body, with the nose as the middle, was half burning and half condensing into frosts.

Feng Yunjing and the others were stunned. An inexplicable fear surged in their minds. They wanted to scream and run away.

But their feet seemed to be fixed by something. They couldn't move at all.

Not to mention the people of the Feng Family, even Little Egg and a few other little ones were stunned by this scene.

Seeing Hexi being ejected, Little Egg wanted to rush over, but seeing Nangong Yu's appearance, he trembled all over.

Daddy... Daddy looks so scary. Little Egg is so scared, wuu wuu... Mother!

Little Red Bird, who was the least courageous, fled into the void in panic and got into Xiao Chi's arms.

Really scary! Really terrible aura!

Is he a god or a demon? What is that aura? Why do I feel the despair of destruction?

Nangong Yu stretched out his flaming hand and grabbed Feng Yunjing's head.

Feng Yunjing's pupils constricted. At that very moment, he gathered his strength miraculously, let out a short scream, and grabbed a disciple to block for him.

With the sizzling sound, the Feng Family's disciple was burned into ashes without even making a sound.

Nangong Yu's other hand grabbed at another Feng Family's disciple. "Crack", his warm body was frozen into ice cubes in the blink of an eye, then he shattered.

Just in the blink of an eye, 2 martial artists at the peak of the Gold Core Stage were erased.

Feng Yunjing regretted it; so regretful that his intestines turned green.

He originally wanted to provoke Nangong Yu so that he would go crazy and perhaps die due to the heavy injury.

I didn't expect him to go crazy, and even become so powerful.

The Feng Family's disciples were reduced to ashes one by one in the hands of Nangong Yu. Each of them died so easily like what Nangong Yu killed was not a high rank martial artist but an insignificant ant.

Elder Liu trembled all over. He suddenly said in a trembling voice, "Run, run now! Inform the great elder!"

Feng Yunjing didn't want to fight for any wood source at this time. He just hoped to escape quickly.

Hexi frowned and woke up from the endless pain.

The first thing she saw was Nangong Yu who had completely lost his mind and changed beyond recognition.

In the eyes of others, Nangong Yu was only scary and invincible, but Hexi only took one look, and her heart skipped a beat.

Nangong Yu's cold poison was fully stimulated. It was about to devour the lingering flames of the Jade Fire Toad bit by bit.

Moreover, with Nangong Yu's attack, the cold attribute of the cold poison would become stronger and stronger.

The moment the extreme yang flame was completely devoured, Nangong Yu would be killed by the cold poison.

Hexi sat up abruptly and shot the silver needles in his hand toward Nangong Yu.

However, before the silver needles even got close to Nangong Yu's body, they were already reduced to ashes.

Hexi tried to call out a few more times, but Nangong Yu couldn't hear her voice at all.

Feng Yunjing and the others had just escaped to the entrance of the cave, but the crackling sound suddenly came from the entrance. An ice wall quickly condensed, blocking their way.

The exit was blocked, and there was death behind.

Chapter 1445: Bone-Piercing Pain

Elder Liu's face was distorted. His eyes were filled with fear and madness. He suddenly roared, "Since you won't give us a way out, I will fight to the death with you! We are both at the Nascent Soul Stage, I don't believe you can be any stronger than us!"

A large amount of spiritual power gushed out from Elder Liu. At the same time, the soil in the cave also began to shake.

The next moment, a large piece of rock raised from the ground, enveloping Nangong Yu in it.

Elder Liu had already pierced his sword toward Nangong Yu's heart.

The long sword pierced into Nangong Yu's body, and Elder Liu's face showed ecstasy.

But the next moment, the ecstasy turned into panic.

There was an icy breath from the grade 9 sword in his hand. The sharp blade slowly condensed with frost, then it turned into powder inch by inch.

The frost continued to spread onto his body.

The last scene Elder Liu saw was a face that was half flaming and half frosty and, the red and blue eyes. They looked indifferent and cruel as if he was looking at a dead man.

"Ahh—!! Elder Liu's death made the people of the Feng Family collapse.

Nangong Yu did not stop, and he walked toward Feng Yunjing.

Feng Yunjing was terrified. He was retreating in despair, and he suddenly stumbled and fell to the ground.

"Don't come over! Don't come over! Nangong Yu, if you kill me, my father and the Venerable will not let you go!"

The disciples of the Feng Family swung their swords desperately to resist. The fear in their eyes had turned into despair.

In their eyes, Nangong Yu was the god of death from hell, who could kill them at will.

But only Hexi present knew how bad Nangong Yu's situation was at the moment.

The flames on his body had become increasingly dimmer. Most of his body had been covered in frost, and his originally red pupil had also turned blue.

Just a little longer and just a few more attacks, Nangong Yu's dantian and fundamental essence would be completely swallowed by the cold poison.

Nangong Yu... will die?

No! I will never allow this to happen!

A hint of determination flashed in Hexi's eyes. She rushed toward Nangong Yu without hesitation.

"Mom, don't!"

"Boss, you are crazy. You will be frozen into ice crystals!"

The little ones were going crazy, desperately trying to stop Hexi, but it was too late.

Hexi threw herself behind Nangong Yu and hugged him tightly from behind.

The bone-piercing cold mixed with scorching heat came from Nangong Yu's body.

Hexi could almost hear the sound of his own blood being frozen, and the sound of his flesh being scorched.

It hurts, it hurts! It hurts so badly!

However, if I let go, Nangong Yu will die! How can I allow it?

"Nangong Yu, stop!" Hexi shouted hoarsely behind him, "If this keeps on, you will die! I don't want to lose you, do you hear me?"

Nangong Yu's original forward movement stagnated slightly, and the cold poison that was spreading seemed to have slowed down a little.

A faint hoarse voice came from the cave, "Xi'er... I want... to kill him..."

"Nangong Yu!" Hexi gritted her teeth, "Trust me, let me handle it, okay? I will kill him and never let him have the slightest chance to humiliate me! Yu, trust me!"

Chapter 1446: Arrogant and Smug

The ice-blue pupils flickered for a while, then Nangong Yu closed his eyes and removed the spiritual power shield on his body.

Hexi made a prompt decision, took out the silver needles, and pierced several big acupuncture points of Nangong Yu.

Almost at the moment when the silver needles entered his body, Nangong Yu's body shook and he passed out.

"Mom, wuuuu. Mom, are you alright?" Little Egg threw himself into Hexi's arms, touched the burn marks on Hexi's body, and cried very sadly.

Hexi let out a breath, smiled, and comforted, "Little Egg, don't worry, when I clean the wound with Circle of Life tomorrow, it will heal. Don't worry, I'm fine."

Now the wood spiritual power that Circle of Life could purify had been completely exhausted while healing Nangong Yu.

At the beginning, Jade Fire Toad refused to enter Nangong Yu's body no matter what. It was Hexi who used the wood spiritual power purified by the Circle of Life to guide it bit by bit with a difficulty. Finally, she managed to slowly merge the Jade Fire Toad with Nangong Yu's dantian.

Who knew that this hidden cave would be found by Feng Yunjing.

Everything fell short. Jade Fire Toad was absorbed by her body, and Nangong Yu's cold poison was triggered completely. His life was on the verge of dying.

All of this was caused by Feng Yunjing and his people!

"Ha...haha...hahahaha..." Feng Yunjing's laughter suddenly came from behind.

From the intermittent and shocked at the beginning, he became arrogant and smug later.

He thought he was going to die, but he didn't expect Xi Yue to bring Nangong Yu down herself.

"Haha, Xi Yue, are you interested in me, that's why you took action against Nangong Yu?"

Feng Yunjing stood up from the ground, patted the dust on his clothes, and turned back into the aloof young master of the Feng Family in an instant.

His burning eyes were fixed on Hexi, "Xi Yue, I will never forget your love for me. Hehe, as long as you kill Nangong Yu now, I promise that the position of young madam of the Feng Family is definitely yours!"

Feng Yunjing had already confirmed that Xi Yue attacked Nangong Yu was because she had fallen for him.

Otherwise, why would she save me from Nangong Yu's hands?

Since Xi Yue has such affection for him, I will not let her down. The precious wood source is also mine too. Haha!

With the help of the Little Golden Dragon, Hexi moved the unconscious Nangong Yu to a clean rock, then she slowly got up and looked at Feng Yunjing not far away.

The cave was still blocked by a thick layer of ice, but without Nangong Yu's spiritual power containing cold poison, the ice layer was just ordinary ice. A Nascent Soul Stage martial artist could blast it away with a sword.

So at this time, Feng Yunjing didn't want to run away at all. Instead, he showed a determined smile and walked toward Hexi.

Hexi stretched out her slender fingers, and the Li Shui Sword exuding colorful light slowly appeared in her hand.

Feng Yunjing looked at the girl in front, and he suddenly felt in a trance.

The willow eyebrows were dark without painting, the lips were red without cinnabar, and the bright phoenix pupils had a breathtaking beauty under the light of the ice.

Xi Yue, Xi Yue, this is the woman I long for! This is the first woman I dream of getting!

Today, I finally got her completely.

If she still wants to resist, I will also get her first! Feng Yunjing squinted with a hint of ruthlessness.

Hexi raised the Li Shui Sword, and it burst into colorful light.

Chapter 1447: The Death Of Feng Yunjing

The sword flew to the top of the cave, then thousands of swords rained down instantly.

Feng Yunjing had seen this move before. Flying Flower Sword Rain. Although it was somewhat interesting, it did not pose a threat to him at all.

“Swoosh—” Thousands of sword lights suddenly fell like rain.

The young girl on the opposite smirked. The already delicate face was instantly radiant and beautiful.

A bad premonition suddenly surged in Feng Yunjing’s heart.

The next moment, he heard the miserable screams of the remaining Feng Family’s disciples around him.

He suddenly turned his head to look, then he widened his eyes in horror and disbelief.

He saw bleeding corpses being pinned to the ground. Their chests had big holes, and their hearts burst.

Every corpse was full of disbelief, and their hands were still held stiffly in the air as if trying to grab the sword that pierced them.

These... These are the martial artists at the Gold Core Stage? All... all of them are the martial artists at the peak of the Gold Core Stage!

Li Shui Sword circled around and returned to Hexi’s hands.

The leisurely sneering eyes fell on Feng Yunjing’s shocked face, and a clear voice sounded slowly in the cave, “Feng Yunjing, as I said, one day, I will repay the humiliation you did on me on the Breaking Spirit Mountain.”

“So, if you are dead under the others, how can I be happy? You, and Feng Lianying, have to die. Of course, you are all going to die by my hands!”

Feng Yunjing staggered back. The young girl in front of him obviously looked no more than 17 years old. She looked so slender and so weak, but he felt the fear of extinction from her.

“Xi Yue, I... I just like you! I just want you to be my woman. I even promised you the position of young madam of the Feng Family. How could you kill me? How could you...”

The Li Shui Sword whistled toward him and obliquely slashed through Feng Yunjing’s Adam’s Apple.

In an instant, blood spurted out, and the panic shout stopped abruptly.

Feng Yunjing didn't realize until his death that he actually fell for this woman whom he had been playing with in his hands all this time. He was not reconciled to die like this.

After He Xi dealt with Feng Yunjing, she hurried back to check on Nangong Yu's situation. If it wasn't for the special situation now, she wouldn't let him die so easily.

Near Toad Jade Palace, Feng Tianba, who was guarding the periphery and waiting for instructions from Venerable Mu Hua, suddenly felt a palpitation in his heart as if his heart had been grabbed by something. It caused him unspeakable panic.

Immediately afterward, there was a "pop" sound from his chest.

Feng Tianba quickly took out the thing. His eyes turned red after seeing it.

That was the vital jade pendant of his only son, Feng Yunjing.

When the vital jade pendant was broken, it meant that Feng Yunjing was dead.

Who? Who killed Yunjing? Who killed my proudest son whom I spent the most effort to train?

Feng Batian's body kept trembling. His eyes stared in one direction. The hatred and anger in his eyes surged like a tide.

Wood source and the responsibility of the master of the Feng Family were completely forgotten by him at this moment.

Feng Tianba crushed the shattered jade pendant into powder, then sprinkled it into the air. The powder of the jade pendant flew toward a certain direction automatically.

"Come with me!" Feng Batian greeted all his subordinates and flew towards the direction where the powder was flying.

Chapter 1448: Scary Man

At this time, Hexi also fell into a state of anxiety.

The cold poison on Nangong Yu's body became more and more fierce, and the extreme yang flames of the Jade Fire Toad that he had absorbed were swallowed up by the cold poison little by little.

Even because of the cold poison, no one except her could resist the invasion of the cold. The little ones had long been hiding in the void, not daring to show up.

Hexi tried to mobilize the Jade Fire Toad in her body, but Jade Fire Toad seemed to disappear completely.

No matter how she used Divine Sense to look inside and how she channeled her spiritual power, she couldn't even feel a trace of the toad.

If this continues, Nangong Yu will definitely die!

What to do? What to do?

Hexi took a deep breath to calm herself down.

Now she had no choice but to channel her own fire spiritual power in her body to see if she could relieve the spread of the cold poison.

The pure fire spiritual power circulated in her dantian for one around and slowly condensed in her palm.

Hexi didn't realize that when she was channeling the fire spiritual power. She also channeled the Circle of Life out of habit.

The fire spiritual power entered Nangong Yu's body and was instantly swallowed by the cold poison without any suspense. To make matters worse, the cold poison in Nangong Yu's body seemed to have a suction force. When it came into contact with the fire spiritual power, it automatically drained a large amount.

Hexi gritted her teeth and continued to channel fire spiritual power. Her face turned pale bit by bit. Her originally rosy lips cracked and oozed blood.

Just when Hexi felt that her dantian was getting more and more exhausted, and her strength was slowly fading.

Nangong Yu, who was originally in a coma, opened his eyes suddenly. The blue eyes that were originally infected by the cold poison were now deep and dark like the abyss. There was no light in them at all.

At the same time, there was the sound of ice shattering at the entrance of the cave.

===

Li Yu was still worried about Xi Yue's safety in Toad Jade Palace.

The beastkins only thought that Xi Yue rescued them in the Mojing Pavilion, and she later rescued the Beastkin King with medical skills.

But they didn't know that the wood source that suddenly emanated from Beastkin King also came from Xi Yue.

It could be said that Xi Yue had the grace of rebuilding the beastkin clan.

After Xi Yue and that scary man left, Li Yu considered for a long time, and she finally turned into Yue Min Bird and quietly came near the cave.

That's right, Li Yu felt that man named Nangong Yu, who was Xi Yue's partner, was scary.

There was a terrifying coercion on her body, as well as an aura that was like the Death that made both human and beastkin tremble.

Li Yu was very afraid that Xi Yue would get hurt when she was treating the man named Nangong Yu.

However, even Li Yu had already thought about the horror of Nangong Yu many times in her mind.

When she saw the scene in front of it, she still couldn't help being frightened until her feather stood up.

The cave in front of her was still a place Li Yu was familiar with. She and Brother Feng Shan found this place by chance. Many beastkins couldn't discover it.

However, this familiar place was completely covered in blood and severed limbs.

The strong smell of blood spread throughout the entire. Even the flowers and plants beside withered because of being contaminated with too much evil aura.

Standing in this pool of blood was a person in a black robe with an extraordinary demeanor, but he was terrifying like a demon from hell — Nangong Yu.

Li Yu saw Xi Yue sitting cross-legged in a corner of the cave.

At this moment, the bloody man who had killed everyone was walking toward Xi Yue, her savior, step by step.

Chapter 1449: Ten Thousand Years Old Cold Jade

Li Yu was still terrified, but she turned into a human form without hesitation and rushed to Xi Yue's side.

"Sister Xi Yue, hurry up and leave this place with me. It's so dangerous here!"

"I... I will turn into a bird, and I will take you out immediately!"

As Li Yu spoke, she transformed into the Yue Min Bird that was 10 times bigger than before.

The wings could almost fill the entire cave, and the wind and sand mixed with blood filled the sky.

The claws quickly grabbed Hexi's shoulders and flew out of the cave.

Hexi woke up from the meditation, cursed in her mind, and raised her voice as much as possible, "Li Yu, put me down!!"

All these happened in the blink of an eye.

The cave entrance sealed by Nangong Yuyue's ice was broken, and Feng Tianba led his people in.

Seeing Feng Yunjing's body, Feng Tianba nearly went mad. He attacked Nangong Yu and Hexi in a desperate manner.

At that time, Hexi was absorbed by Nangong Yu most of the spiritual power, the whole is already at the end of its strength.

As they were about to be slaughtered by Feng Tianba, Nangong Yu suddenly woke up.

This woke up was completely different from when he slaughtered Elder Liu and the disciples of the Feng Family just now.

Hexi's current strength was close to the late stage of Nascent Soul, so she could clearly feel that Nangong Yu's strength at this time had far exceeded the Soul Splitting Stage.

The 3 Nascent Soul Stage elders and a dozen Gold Core Stage brought by Feng Tianba were killed in a few simple moves.

Many people were torn to pieces by Nangong Yu across the distance. Their internal organs, limbs and blood sprayed all over the ground.

At the last moment of death, Feng Tianba couldn't believe that he, the master of the Feng Family, would die like this.

And the one who killed him was Nangong Yu, whom he looked down upon and thought he had cheated for 20 years.

As soon as Hexi uttered the words, Nangong Yu made a move.

Yue Min Bird was the fastest among birds, especially the instantaneous burst speed.

However, just as Li Yu grabbed Hexi and was about to leave the cave, she suddenly felt a sharp pain in his two wings.

Then she involuntarily changed into a human form and fell heavily to the ground.

Nangong Yu's eyes were gloomy and black. He looked at her coldly as if looking at a lifeless object, "Whoever wants to take her away, die!"

"Nangong Yu, wait—!" Hexi rushed over and held Nangong Yu's raised hand.

She turned around sharply and sternly said to Li Yu, "Get out of here immediately. Seal the entrance and don't let anyone come in again!"

"But... but... Xi Yue, he is so scary..."

Hexi frowned, "Little Golden Dragon!"

The Little Golden Dragon in the void rushed out quickly, grabbed Li Yu and moved out of the cave. At the same time, he cast a spell to lift the ground to seal the entrance, leaving only a narrow gap.

The cave was instantly darkened.

Hexi felt the frosty chill on Nangong Yu's body. It had reached at least -40 degrees.

She shivered and grabbed his hand, "Nangong Yu, you must immediately..."

Before she could finish speaking, she was pushed to the ground by a huge force.

Her lips were blocked in an instant, and the soft and slippery tongue with a cold breath forcefully pried open her lips and teeth, occupying all her breathing.

Hexi took a breath. She felt as if she was holding a popsicle in her mouth and her body was pressed by a ten thousand years old cold jade.

Chapter 1450: It Doesn't Seem To Be Him

She stretched out and pushed the man away, “Nangong Yu, what’s happening to you?”

The next moment, she heard a “tearing” sound. Half of her clothes were torn off.

Her naked skin felt a more bone-chilling chill.

Hexi shivered. Her body felt chilly. In the darkness, she raised her head and met those dark eyes, which were darker than the night. She had a creepy feeling in her heart.

The man in front of her was clearly Nangong Yu, but it didn’t seem to be him.

Hexi was terrified by the unfamiliar coercion. She instinctively wanted to struggle and scream.

However, the cold hands had already restrained all her movements. The rough palms with thin calluses were groping and kneading her smooth and jade-like skin. There was an obvious domineering and possessive desire!

“Nangong Yu—!” Hexi’s hoarse calling sounded so abrupt and obvious in the darkness.

The originally dark eyes suddenly flickered, and Nangong Yu’s eyes showed a hint of struggle. The eyes were stained with ice blue color.

“Xi’er... Xi’er... I’m cold...” The hoarse voice was full of uneasiness and loneliness, “Don’t leave me, Xi’er. Don’t leave me alone!”

Hexi seemed to be stabbed by something in the heart, and she stretched out to hug the man’s cold body. The water light in her eyes was faintly visible.

The cold poison was triggered and Nangong Yu’s life was at stake, but she couldn’t do anything.

Jade Fire Toad, the Jade Fire Toad that I finally found, why did it fall short?

My medical skills can obviously save so many people, but why can’t I save the man I love the most?

Desperate anger surged in Hexi’s heart. She hugged the man’s cold body tightly as if she had endless grievances and unwillingness.

She didn’t realize that there was a faint red light emitting from her body with a warm temperature.

And Nangong Yu seemed to have suddenly found some way to save himself, and he suddenly hugged the soft body of the girl under him.

A messy and rough kiss landed on Hexi’s neck, his cold body desperately looking for a source of warmth.

The sharp teeth bit the delicate skin on the neck, and the warm and sweet liquid poured into the tip of the tongue.

Nangong Yu’s body stiffened suddenly.

At the moment the blood flowed down his throat, he felt the long-lost warmth.

He seemed to have finally found the bond that could protect him for a lifetime. It was as if the cold poison that had tortured him for more than a dozen years had suddenly disappeared without a trace. It also seemed that he had obtained everything he desired most in the world.

In the silent night, only the sound of sucking blood remained.

The moment Hexi's skin was torn by the bite, her consciousness felt chaotic. Her eyes were heavy and could no longer be opened.

Finally, she fell asleep.

In the dark night, Nangong Yu propped up his body and held the unconscious girl tightly in his arms.

Even if it was pitch black, he could clearly see the girl's long eyelashes hanging down. The eyelashes were stained with crystal water droplets.

Even in the dark, the soft white skin exuded a fascinating shimmer.

I obviously hug her in my arms, but it isn't enough, far from enough. I want more. I want to own such a wonderful person forever. I will never let her leave my side.

The scorching palms covered the girl's smooth skin, wanting to devour her desperately.

But there was a voice in his heart that said: No! Not now!

Nangong Yu lowered his head and hugged the girl tightly into his arms. His heavy and tired eyes were slowly closed, but his hands did not let go at all. They tightly guarded like a giant dragon guarding his treasure, not allowing anyone to covet.
