

King of Hell 1471

Chapter 1471: Shriveled Corpse

In particular, Lu Zhixi's clothes were tattered, revealing her pretty chest. Her thighs were even more glistening in the sun.

Several young men couldn't help swallowing after seeing her in such a state.

The people at Huang Medical Branch hated Lu Zhixi to the bone. This woman wanted to make trouble for Xi Yue when she was breaking through. She almost killed all of them with outsiders. Now she still had the nerve to pretend to be pitiful?

Qian Dazhuang spat out a mouthful of phlegm at Lu Zhixi's half-exposed chest and said with disgust, "Bah! Help? Help what? I haven't settled the scores with you yet! You dare to scream for help? Who are you trying to fool?"

Lu Zhixi looked at the mouthful of phlegm sticking to her skin, and she almost vomited in disgust.

However, Lu Zhixi finally forced himself to endure it, wiped his tears, and cried in panic, "Beastkin, there was a beastkin who killed everyone in front. They all died miserably. I'm so scared. Wu wu wu..."

Deputy Dean Jiang and the others were shocked when they heard this. Many students showed panicked expressions.

Do those beastkins really plan not to let us go? They want to kill us all in the magical beast forest?

Wei Chengyuan frowned and said, "You said there was a beastkin killing people? What kind of beastkin? How many people were killed? How did you escape?"

Lu Zhixi shook her head with tearful eyes, "I don't know what beastkin is it. I only saw the shadow of a monster. He kidnapped us, then he killed the elders of the Doctors Association and the students of the pioneer branch. Wu wu wu... I was lucky to escape from death."

Wei Chengyuan squinted and glanced at Lu Zhixi. He felt that the woman was lying.

Zeng Shouyue stroked his beard and said, "Tie up Lu Zhixi first, then let's go to the place she said."

In any case, Lu Zhixi colluded with the Doctors Association, so she couldn't escape from the crime of murdering her classmates.

When they arrived at the place Lu Zhixi mentioned, everyone couldn't help but gasp when they saw the shriveled corpses there.

8 martial artists at the Nascent Soul Stage and a few at the Gold Core Stage, were all sucked into mummies.

What kind of spell is this, and what beastkin did it?

Hexi frowned when she saw the corpses. She took a few steps forward and examined the dantians and meridians of the mummies.

Sure enough, their spiritual power and vitality disappeared completely.

Rather than saying it was done by the beastkin, it was done by a terrifying devouring force.

Hexi raised her head and glanced at Nangong Yu. They saw a trace of shock and understanding in each other's eyes.

It was Lu Xuyang!

Because Nangong Yu hurt Lu Xuyang, Lu Xuyang absorbed the vitality of these people.

This mean is so ruthless. He didn't even let go of his subordinates.

"Jiang Dean, Zhixi was just confused. She was coerced by the Doctors Association at that time, so she did that stupid act. Dean, please forgive her!"

"Yeah! What's more, isn't Xiyue doing well now? Zhixi has suffered such a disaster. No matter how serious the crime is, it should be cleared. Dean, don't you think so?"

The anxious and pity voices of the students of the pioneer branch came from behind.

Hexi turned around and saw a young man of the pioneer branch helping Lu Zhixi who was tied up.

Lu Zhixi's clothes were half uncovered. Her frail and boneless body leaned against the young man's body. Her soft chest rubbed against the young man's arm, making him flush and infatuated.

Chapter 1472: Fabricate Lies

The young man became even more indignant, feeling that he was protecting the weak president, "Dean, Zhixi has worked hard as the president of the Academy Student Council, and she has done a lot for the academy. Even if she hasn't done anything particularly noteworthy, she has still made great efforts. Are you going to sacrifice Zhixi just for Xi Yue?"

"Bah!" Qian Dazhuang couldn't listen anymore. He cursed, "This ruthless bitch, did she just make a little mistake? She literally wanted to kill Xi Yue. Why should we let her go? Have you forgotten how many people died from the corpse puppet virus because of her."

When Lu Zhixi heard Qian Dazhuang's words, crystal tears welled up in her eyes. She looked extremely pitiful.

She walked up to Hexi slowly and knelt down toward Hexi with a plop, "Xi Yue, I admit that I was blinded by hatred before. I was threatened by the elders of the Doctors Association, so I did something that hurt you."

"But these things, including poisoning the people of Miracle Healer Academy, were all done by Elder Qi and the others on their own initiative. I just couldn't help myself. It has nothing to do with my father either."

"I hate you so much only because I'm angry that you seduced the King of Hell, spoke ill of me in front of the King of Hell, made the King of Hell despise me, but he instead likes a man like you. That would make him be condemned by everyone in the world!"

Lu Zhixi cried more and more sadly, "Now I know that I was wrong. For the sake of giving His Highness King of Hell to you, please forgive me. From now on, I will never compete with you again!"

Hexi half-smiled and looked up at Nangong Yu: You give him to me?

Nangong Yu stared coldly at the more alluring woman who deliberately twisted her body to reveal her chest line, and his aura suddenly burst out.

Dare to fabricate lies in front of me and Xi'er, this woman must be tired of living.

The pitiful Lu Zhixi who was crying was stiff all over as if she was suddenly poured by a basin of ice water in winter.

Nangong Yu grabbed her neck and lifted her up high. His dark eyes were as deep as the abyss, "If you dare, you can say one more sentence. You said that you have something to do with King of Hell? You said that Xi'er took the King of Hell from you? Sorry! Why don't I know about this?"

"You... you... you are... what..." Lu Zhixi spoke with difficulty. Her feet kicked desperately, trying to struggle out of Nangong Yu's grasp.

Nangong Yu suddenly took off the mask on his face.

All of a sudden, everyone's eyes were on his face, and there was a neat gasp.

God, how could there be such a handsome and graceful man in the world?

The sun shone on his handsome and delicate face and on his nose bridge, seeming to cast a layer of golden light on him.

Just a light sweep of the deep starry eyes made people's legs tremble. They wished they could crawl on the ground and lick his shoes.

It was clear that the students who would enter Miracle Healer Academy were the most proud and elite geniuses of Miluo Continent, but these geniuses were inconspicuous in front of this man.

"It's... it's King of Hell Nangong Yu!!" Someone exclaimed in surprise.

Then everyone's eyes lit up, and they couldn't help staring at him excitedly.

This is King of Hell Nangong Yu, the God of War who broke through the Nascent Soul Stage when he was less than twenty years old. The first genius of the Miluo Continent?!

Even Lu Zhixi, whose throat was clutched by Nangong Yu, was stunned. Her frightened eyes turned into fascination. She stared blankly at the handsome and beautiful face in front.

Chapter 1473: These Idiots

Nangong Yu slowly tightened his hand on Lu Zhixi's neck. There was a cruel smile on his mouth, "What are you? You have the nerve to say that I have an affair with you. You!? You aren't even worth lifting Xi'er shoes!"

There was a horrible clicking sound from the tightly squeezed throat.

The obsession in Lu Zhixi's eyes turned into fear again, as well as deep jealousy and resentment.

Seeing that Lu Zhixi was about to be strangled to death, the dean from the pioneer branch of Miracle Healer Academy quickly stood up and shouted nervously, "Your Royal Highness King of Hell, please be merciful. Zhixi is still a student of our Miracle Healer Academy. Please..."

Deputy Dean Jiang also said nervously, "Please let us handle her, King of Hell."

No matter how much Deputy Dean Jiang and the others hated the Doctors Association now, as long as Lu Xuyang still existed, they would not be able to directly confront the Doctors Association, so Lu Zhixi must be kept. As for the enmity with the Doctors Association, of course they would find a way to avenge it.

Nangong Yu sneered and shook his hand.

Lu Zhixi was thrown out like rubbish, hit a tree hard, and then spat out a mouthful of blood.

Nangong Yu said coldly without even looking at her, "Don't appear in front of Xi'er again and stop your dirty tricks, otherwise I will let you know what is worse than death!"

After finishing speaking, he hugged Xi Yue, flew up, and flew out of the magical beast forest.

No one would doubt whether a magical beast would come to attack Nangong Yu, because he could instantly kill Nascent Soul Stage martial artists. Those beastkins would be stupid enough to provoke them.

Everyone who stayed in place looked at each other in dismay and shock.

Zhang Yi suddenly exclaimed, "It turned out that the unattractive brother guard was disguised by King of Hell Nangong Yu, no wonder! How can the brother guard be worthy of Brother Xi Yue? Hehe, I think King of Hell looks better than Senior Xuan Mu!"

Qian Dazhuang immediately retorted, "What's the use of being good-looking? I think Senior Xuan Mu is stronger and more reliable. I think it's better for Xi Yue to choose Senior Xuan Mu."

Wei Chengyuan: "....." You idiots. Don't you realize something wrong in this? King of Hell is a man, Xuan Mu is a man, and Xi Yue is a man.

Jin Zeyu's cold eyes swept across Lu Zhixi not far away who was wiping tears and accepting comfort from the students of the pioneer branch, and he frowned slightly.

I remember that before Lu Zhixi left, she was poisoned by the corpse puppet virus. The wound on her face couldn't be healed with spiritual power.

Why did she recover after just one day?

Why does she still come back in a servile manner? She even doesn't hesitate to let the students of the pioneer branch to plead for her. What exactly is she trying to do?

Jin Zeyu and Wei Chengyuan looked at each other, and they both saw the solemnity in each other's eyes.

Jin Zeyu said to Chen Xiaofeng who was beside him, "After returning to the academy, pay close attention to Lu Zhixi's movements. Remember to tell me and Wei Chengyuan if there is anything unusual."

===

The news of the extermination of the Feng Family swept through the entire Miluo Continent like a hurricane.

In the past few years, the Feng Family had done all kinds of bad deeds with their overwhelming strength. They had killed countless people and destroyed many sects.

Now that the Feng Family had been wiped out, many people were secretly laughing. Some people bowed down to the grassy tomb, thanking God for avenging their vengeance. Jiang Huai, who lost his wife and son in Sealed Dragon Domain and had been making recording talismans for Hexi, was one of them.

Chapter 1474: Turned Hostile

However, Jiang Huai did not know that Feng Lianying was not dead yet. But now, she was not much better than death.

Feng Lianying escaped from Feng Family and wanted to go to the extreme northern ice land, where her master, the master of the Thousand Poison Valley, lived.

But, where was the land of the extreme northern ice land? It at least took more than half a month to travel even with the fastest airship.

Feng Family and Thousand Poison Valley originally had a teleportation array, but it required a large amount of high grade crystal stones, but now, Feng Family was destroyed and was surrounded by the Iron Kirin. If Feng Lianying wanted to go to Thousand Poison Valley, she could only fly there.

Nie Jinchen had been by Feng Lianying's side, accompanying her to the ice land.

This also made Feng Lianying feel better. At least her charm really completely fascinated Nie Jinchen. Even at this time, Nie Jinchen didn't leave her.

However, without the crystal stones, Feng Lianying couldn't even get a good rest under the pursuit of the King of Hell Mansion and Shengde Hall all over the continent. Her storage device was even confiscated when she was confined.

How could a noble lady like Feng Lianying endure such a life?

At dusk, they landed in a mountain field. Feng Lianying couldn't bear this hard life anymore, and she angrily shouted at Nie Jinchen, "You trash can't even find a spiritual food. Do you want me to starve to death on the way? Or do you think that I have lost power now, so you don't take me seriously? Let me tell you, after turning over this mountain, we will reach the ice land where my master lives. When I get there, I will let you suffer!"

Nie Jinchen's eyes dimmed with a hint of ruthlessness.

But he still showed a gentle smile and said, "Lianying, don't be angry. I'll get you some fruit and water."

Feng Lianying cursed a few more times. Seeing Nie Jinchen walk away, she took out her dagger and stabbed it into the ground, cursing, "Xi Yue, Xi Yue! You must die! I will let you die terribly!"

Nie Jinchen quickly brought back the water along with a few shriveled fruits.

Feng Lianying took the fruits with a cold face, took a bite with disgust on his face, then spat on the ground, "Is this even edible? Nie Jinchen, why are you so useless?"

However, Nie Jinchen still had a good-tempered smile. She fed the water to Feng Lianying's mouth and gave her a spirit healing pill. Watching her eat the pill, he sneered.

===

Feng Lianying didn't know when she fell asleep, but she only remembered that she lost consciousness after drinking the water.

When she regained consciousness, she only felt incomparably severe pain in her limbs and lower abdomen. She couldn't help crying immediately due to the pain.

Nie Jinchen's laughing voice suddenly came from above, "Feng Lianying, how is the feeling of dantian being abolished and the tendons and veins of limbs being severed? Does it feel good?"

Feng Lianying widened her eyes and looked at the man looking down at her in disbelief, "Nie Jinchen, what... what did you do to me?!"

"What did I do?" Nie Jinchen sneered with a sinister gaze, "I abolished your cultivation. From now on, you, Feng Lianying, are no longer the Miss of the Feng Family, but a trash that can be bullied and trampled at will."

"How... how could you treat me like this?!" Feng Lianying mobilized dantian, feeling a burning pain instead of spiritual power. She suddenly panicked, "Nie Jinchen, how dare you do this to me? Are you not afraid that my master will rip you apart?"

Chapter 1475: So Vicious

Nie Jinchen laughed loudly, then his face twisted. He kicked Feng Lianying hard.

Feng Lianying screamed in pain. Until she finally couldn't take it anymore, she begged for mercy. Nie Jinchen smiled and said, "Don't worry, I will crush your throat, blind your eyes and destroy your face later, then I will sell you to the barbaric tribe in the extreme north. At that time, no one will know that you, Feng Lianying, are still alive."

"And I will take your token to Thousand Poison Valley and tell the master of Thousand Poison Valley that you have been killed by Nangong Yu. Hahaha... At that time, I will get the true inheritance of the master of Thousand Poison Valley. You, Feng Lianying, will be tortured for the rest of your life in that barren land and wait for your miserable death."

Feng Lianying's eyes widened in horror. She couldn't believe her ears.

She looked up at Nie Jinchen's distorted face as if she didn't know this man who was once obsessed with her.

Feng Lianying was extremely angry and hated, wishing to rip Nie Jinchen apart.

However, at this moment, her heart was occupied by fear the most. Her face was wet with tears. She wanted to grab the corner of Nie Jinchen's robe, but found that her hands were in severe pain. Her tendons were actually severed.

Feng Lianying was even more frightened. She couldn't help crying, "Nie Jinchen, don't you like me? Why are you doing this to me? I... I like you too. I'm willing to spend the rest of my life with you. Can you let me go?"

Nie Jinchen lowered his head, looked at her with disgust, and sneered, "Like me? If you like me, you will command me like a dog? If you like me, you will push me into the magical beasts and let me be your scapegoat?"

"Feng Lianying, don't flatter yourself. Do you think that I will still like you after you were tarnished by those men? Let me tell you, I hate you to the extreme on the way here. I follow you because I want to let you taste what it's like to be a dog with my own hands and see your miserable end!"

"Nie Jinchen, how... how can you be so vicious!" Feng Lianying screamed loudly, "You will not succeed. Even if you take my token, my master will..."

Before Feng Lianying finished speaking, Nie Jinchen had cut her throat.

Feng Lianying widened her mouth, but she could only make a broken and desperate sound.

Nie Jinchen sneered and said, "Listening to your voice for a moment longer makes me sick. Feng Lianying, the people from the barbaric tribe I contacted will come here soon. Your hell is waiting for you!"

Feng Lianying stared in horror, watching Nie Jinchen's sword stabbing toward her eyes.

"Aaaa—!" A miserable scream sounded through the sky.

With Feng Lianying's deep resentment and unwillingness, and the despair of never turning back.

===

Ouyang Haoxuan followed Feng Lianying's trail all the way, and he flew to the extreme northern ice land.

But after arriving at the extreme northern ice land, the clues were divided into 2.

One was in the direction of the jungle, and the other was deep in the glacier.

Ouyang Haoxuan only thought for a moment, then he went to the jungle.

After flying for a certain distance, he saw a barbaric tribe.

The people here were all dressed in animal skins and bone ornaments, lived in caves and houses made of mud embryos, and had spiritual power. However, most of them only were only at the Qi refining stage and the Foundation Establishment stage.

Chapter 1476: The Ending of Feng Lianying

These people were startled when they saw Ouyang Haoxuan. They all made exclams of unknown meanings.

This was their language. Ouyang Haoxuan couldn't understand.

He stood on the canopy and soon saw a woman placed in the center of the altar.

The woman was completely naked. There were bloodstains of severed tendons on her hands and feet, her face was sliced several times, her one eye was gouged out, and the other eye was full of fear and despair. She opened her mouth trying to speak, but she could only make a "click" sound.

There were several men wrapped in animal skins surrounding her, taking out copper sharp knives as if they wanted to cut off the flesh from the woman as a sacrificial offering.

Ouyang Haoxuan appeared on top of the altar and glanced at the woman who was being sacrificed.

As soon as the woman saw him, her only eye immediately widened, her broken throat made a clicking sound, and her body began to struggle violently.

There was pleading in her tearful eyes.

Ouyang Haoxuan slightly sneered. Even a fool could see the joy in his eyes.

Feng Lianying? This really is a suitable ending for you.

Good luck then!

After laughing, Ouyang Haoxuan jumped up and flew straight toward the glacier.

On Feng Lianying's side, the tribesmen who had stopped the sacrificial activities after being frightened were finally relieved.

Some of them lit a fire, some danced in feathered clothes, and some took a knife to slice off Feng Lianying's meat piece by piece.

There was peace and tranquility beyond the deep mountains. No one knew that the former Miss of the Feng Family, the sought-after Ice Lotus Fairy, was suffering her tragic ending here.

===

The temperature in the extreme northern ice land was below minus 40 to 50 degrees all year round, even high-level martial artists would not be able to withstand it if they stayed here for a long time.

Nie Jinchun's already cold teeth were chattering. His eyebrows and hair were covered with frost.

However, he had been searching here for a day, but he still hadn't found the entrance to Thousand Poison Valley.

The Thousand Poison Valley token found on Feng Lianying did not respond either. If he still couldn't find the place, he would freeze to death here.

As he was thinking about whether to leave the glacier first and think of a way.

Suddenly, a flaming red sword light rushed toward him.

Nie Jinchen was frightened. He hurriedly channeled spiritual power to move back, but the flames still brushed against his shoulder.

Severe burning pain came from his shoulder, and he couldn't help screaming.

Ouyang Haoxuan slowly descended from the sky with the Red Lotus Sword in his hand.

The thin clothes rattled fiercely in the glacier. It was obviously minus 50 degrees, but Ouyang Haoxuan didn't seem to feel the cold at all. There was even a leisurely smile on his handsome face.

"Ouyang Haoxuan!" Nie Jinchen exclaimed, "Why... why are you here? What do you want to do?"

Ouyang Haoxuan smiled faintly with a bloodthirsty gleam in his eyes, "What am I doing here? Of course, I'm here to wipe out the members of the Feng Family!"

"I... I'm not from the Feng Family!" Nie Jinchen felt deep fear. He remembered that the young master of the Ouyang Family was only at the Gold Core Stage, but the person standing in front of him gave him the illusion that he was completely unmatched, "I even also killed Feng Lianying. I even... avenge your Ouyang Family! The Feng Family you want to kill has nothing to do with me!"

Chapter 1477: Master of Thousand Poison Valley

Ouyang Haoxuan squinted slightly and said with a light smile, "Yeah! you're not from the Feng Family, and you didn't harm me either. But, you once wanted to kill Xi Yue right? I'm really sorry. Everyone who wanted to kill Xi Yue should all die!"

Before Ouyang Haoxuan finished speaking, he already soared into the sky, and the Red Lotus Sword was shining with dazzling fire and rushing toward Nie Jinchen.

Nie Jinchen's eyes widened in horror. The flames were about to hit his face, and the fiery aura seemed to burn his skin... Suddenly, there was a "ding". A white light flashed and deflected the Red Lotus Sword.

Ouyang Haoxuan stepped back more than 10 meters and looked at a group of people in white clothes who suddenly appeared not far away.

The leader was a slender woman in white. She had a white veil covering her face, revealing only a pair of soul-stirring watery eyes.

However, the woman in white was not standing, she was sitting on top of a giant unicorn. Around her were several handsome, slender young men with cold expressions and 2 women who had veils on their faces.

As soon as Nie Jinchen saw the woman in white, he cried and rushed over, "Valley Master, help, help me!"

Ouyang Haoxuan frowned slightly, and his heart tightened.

He had heard about the relationship between the valley master of the Thousand Poison Valley and the Feng Family from Xi Yue. She was Feng Lianying's master and the most mysterious person in the entire Miluo Continent. Bai Hu once said that the master of the Thousand Poison Valley was actually not belong to the Miluo Continent, but from the upper realm.

The woman in white looked down at Nie Jinchen who was rushing in front of her, and she suddenly raised her bare hand. The Thousand Poison Valley token in Nie Jinchen's arms was in her hand.

Nie Jinchen's eyes flashed, and he cried even more mournfully, "Valley Master, please avenge the Feng Family and Sister Lianying! The Feng Family was wiped out by the King of Hell Mansion and Sister Lianying was brutally murdered by Nangong Yu and Xi Yue. They are really miserable. I want to revenge, but I'm not Nangong Yu's opponent. I was even hunted by them to this extreme north. Please help me, Valley Master!"

The eyes of the woman in white froze. She jumped off the unicorn.

The young man next to her immediately stepped forward and served her attentively, looking at her with eyes filled with passion and love.

The woman in white seemed to be used to such a scene. She rubbed the token in her hand and said to Nie Jinchen, "You said Feng Family was destroyed and Lianying died too? And it was Nangong Yu who did it? How did Nangong Yu have such power?"

"Valley Master, it's true!" Nie Jinchen said hastily. "This has spread in the entire Miluo Continent. Everyone knows that it was Nangong Yu who exterminated the Feng Family. Moreover, the person who eliminated Liu Li Sect was also Nangong Yu."

"Nangong Yu, this ungrateful bastard. If the Feng Family hadn't saved him, he would have died long ago. However, he turned against Feng Family just because of Xi Yue, and he even wiped out the Feng Family. Valley Master, Sister Lianying died so miserably, you must avenge her!"

Did Nie Jinchen hate Nangong Yu? Of course, he did, and he hated him to the extreme.

He had a crush on Feng Lianying since he was a child, but Feng Lianying treated him like a dog for Nangong Yu. She didn't care about his life or death at all.

In Feng Family and Liu Li Sect, although he was a senior and he had been talented since he was a child, no one had ever taken him seriously. Because in everyone's mind, the real genius was only Nangong Yu, not even Feng Yunjing could be compared with him.

Chapter 1478: Old Woman

Therefore, Nie Jinchen hated Feng Lianying and wanted this woman to end miserably, but he hated Nangong Yu even more. In his dreams, he wanted to see Nangong Yu fall into the abyss and end up in the same desperation as him.

"Nangong..." The woman in white murmured in a trance, then she looked at Nie Jinchen with her beautiful eyes, "Xi Yue... is he Nangong Yu's favorite toy boy?"

Nie Jinchen was taken aback. He knew that Xi Yue was a woman, but when he heard the woman in white asking, he said without hesitation, "That's right, Nangong Yu disregards the ethical guidelines just for a toy boy. Obviously, Sister Lianying grew up with him, but he even killed Sister Lianying for a toy boy..."

"You said it was Nangong Yu who killed Lianying?" The woman in white suddenly chuckled.

She suddenly injected spiritual power into the token. The next moment, a white light curtain appeared in front of Nie Jinchen.

It showed the scene of Nie Jinchen crushing Feng Lianying's throat, stabbing her blind in one eye, and selling her to the barbarian tribe.

Nie Jinchen's eyes widened in horro. His body trembled with fear.

The girl standing behind the woman in white sneered and said, "Where do you think our Thousand Poison Valley is and what is the token of Thousand Poison Valley? Do you think anyone can simply impersonate?"

"You sold my senior sister and wanted to blame Nangong Yu. Nie Jinchen, do you really think my master is so easy to be deceived?"

"Valley Master... Valley Master!" Nie Jinchen snapped back to his senses. He knelt and crawled toward the woman in white, "Valley Master, I know I was wrong, but I really didn't kill Feng Lianying, I can take you there to look for her... Please let me go..."

The woman in white frowned in disgust. The girl beside her immediately took a step forward and sprinkled medicinal powder on him.

Before Nie Jinchen finished begging for mercy, he suddenly let out a shrill scream.

Immediately afterward, his body slowly turned into a pile of mud at a speed visible to the naked eye. The flesh and blood were evaporated in the freezing cold. What was left was a black lump of suspicious objects that exuded the smell of corpses.

The girl didn't feel disgusted at all, but she said happily, "Master, our man eating flowers have fertilizer again."

As she spoke, she collected the lump of black stuff and put it into her portable void. In the portable void, there was a field of tens of acres, on which various spiritual plants were planted.

One of the plants was like sunflower-like flower, but the center of the flower was a ferocious human face.

The girl put Nie Jinchen's corpse on the field ridge and threw in a black seed. Immediately, a huge flower with Nie Jinchen's face appeared in the field, revealing a ferocious and distorted smile in the light of the void crystal stone.

The woman in white looked at Ouyang Haoxuan.

The soul-stirring eyes scanned Ouyang Haoxuan from top to bottom, then she suddenly smiled and said, "I don't care who you are, as long as you are willing to become my toy boy, I will let you go and let you have a better future."

As the woman in white spoke, she slowly approached Ouyang Haoxuan. Her eyes reflected a tempting brilliant, "My patience is not very good. Now, can you give me an answer?"

Ouyang Haoxuan chuckled, which was obviously an elegant and lazy move, but the smile in his eyes contained deep irony, "I'm so sorry, I'm not interested in serving an old woman."

Chapter 1479: Old Cow Chewing Tender Grass

The woman in white stopped. Her gaze became blurred and distant.

Looking at the handsome man in front of her, she seemed to see the tall and straight man with an evil smile decades ago.

Nangong Aotian... That was the first time I was so obsessed with a man; wanted him so much; wanted to possess him.

I even let go of my airs as a young lady and humbled myself, hoping to gain his affection and become his wife.

But what did Nangong Aotian respond to me?

It was the unhesitating contempt and sarcasm, the dismissive eyes that treated me like a trash.

That man even married low rank martial artists who had no background or strength at all, threw my heart into the mud, trampled and humiliated me, and made me the laughingstock of the entire Siam Continent.

Nangong Aotian and Yun Churan, these two people who brought me unforgettable hatred! I will never forget them in my life!

Even if the two of them die, so what? The child will pay off their debt. I will let the son of that bitch, Yun Churan, taste the pain of despair and torture like hell!

Lou Wushuang took a deep breath and looked at Ouyang Haoxuan again.

This man's appearance is not as good as Nangong Aotian's, but the evil enchanting aura exuding from him is so similar to Nangong Aotian's.

I must let this proud man bow his head, kneel and lick my toes, and become my captive.

Thinking of this, Lou Wushuang sneered slightly, "Are you Xi Yue's subordinate? I heard that Xi Yue is only at the Foundation Establishment stage. You, a martial artist at the Nascent Soul Stage, are willing to follow behind a Foundation Establishment stage? You are also seduced by that toy boy?"

She suddenly waved her hand lightly, removing the veil on her face. A beautiful face was revealed, "What do you think? Is my appearance comparable to Xi Yue's?"

"If I say, I can give you more than Xi Yue, can improve your strength, and let you enjoy the otherworldly feeling, are you willing to abandon Xi Yue and follow me?"

Ouyang Haoxuan looked down at her face. His eyes were calm without any expression.

Lou Wushuang wasn't reconciled, so she waved behind her. 2 young men immediately came forward.

One kissed Lou Wushuang's fingers reverently, the other sniffed the fragrance of Lou Wushuang's body intoxicatedly, and a pair of trembling hands stroked Lou Wushuang's soft waist and body. They both breathed heavily.

Although the scene in front was not an entanglement of bodies, it could make the blood of all the men surge.

The other toy boys behind Lou Wushuang already had fiery eyes, eager to rush up and replace them.

Lou Wushuang's heart was full of certainty. Except for Nangong Aotian, no man in the world can resist such beauty. As long as Ouyang Haoxuan is enchanted, I can completely make this man my captive.

Ouyang Haoxuan watched this scene for a long time, and he finally sneered and let out a low laugh.

Lou Wushuang originally raised her head, making a slight seductive moaning motion.

Ouyang Haoxuan sneered, "It's really disgusting to see a group of tender grass being chewed by an old cow. You guys go ahead. I won't bother you."

After speaking, he turned and left ruthlessly.

Lou Wushuang was astounded. The anger in her chest gushed out, almost distorting her entire face.

Suddenly, she shouted, transfigure an ice sword in her hand, and rushed toward Ouyang Haoxuan, "Court death—!"

Chapter 1480: Broken Arm

Ouyang Haoxuan's eyes focused, and the Red Lotus Sword soared into the sky, going at Lou Wushuang's attack without hesitation.

After 15 minutes, everything in the glacier returned to tranquility.

However, there was a big puddle of blood and a severed arm on the glacier. The blood even splashed all over Lou Wushuang's body, reflecting Lou Wushuang's livid face. Lou Wushuang's disciples and toy boys tremble with fear.

Lou Wushuang gritted her teeth and looked at the broken arm on the ground in disbelief.

Never mind that he rejected my lure, but when my ice prison was about to trap him, he actually used flames to cut off the ice prison together with his own arm without hesitation. Then, he quickly ran away.

Even when he gave up his arm, there was a gentle smile on his mouth as if he was missing something interesting; as if what he gave up was not an arm at all, but an insignificant piece of garbage.

"Good! Good!" Lou Wushuang gritted her teeth and sneered, "Xi Yue? I want to see, who can make Nangong Yu and make other men fall in love with him to such extent, what kind of fox is he!"

"Ouyang Haoxuan, we shall see. Do you think you can escape from my palm?!"

The girl behind Lou Wushuang took a step forward and asked cautiously, "Master, shall we go save Senior Sister Feng?"

“Save her?!” Lou Wushuang sneered. Her face was full of disgust and sarcasm, “She can’t even deal with a man. What a waste of all my hard work on her in the past few years. This kind of trash deserves to end up like that .”

The huge airship landed slowly on the square of Miracle Healer Academy.

At this time, the Miracle Healer Academy was already crowded with people. Even Dean Jin Licheng, who seldom appeared in public, was standing on the high platform of the square, looking nervously at the huge airship above the sky.

The hatch of the airship opened, and students and elders descended from the sky one by one.

Seeing that almost 90% of the people returned safely, Jin Licheng was finally relieved.

Golden Wolf actually used his students and elders as bait to hunt the beastkins in the magical beast forest.

When Jin Licheng heard the news, he lost balance as if he was struck by lightning.

He never expected that the people in Mojing Pavilion could be so ruthless. He never expected that a compromise of his own would send all the students into hell.

However, Jin Licheng did not expect that he would receive a message from Deputy Dean Jiang 2 days ago.

The students and elders were all fine, only a few died. The others were on their way back safely.

How could he not be excited and nervous?

Many of the students who landed from the sky couldn’t help sobbing when they saw the familiar scenery and friends in front of them.

Some, who were emotionally sensitive, even threw themselves into the arms of their friends and burst into tears.

This short half month seemed like a nightmare to them. They thought they were going to die, but they narrowly escaped death and returned.

Jin Licheng excitedly grabbed Deputy Dean Jiang’s hand and asked him about his experience in the magical beast forest.

When he heard Deputy Dean Jiang say that the Doctors Association was the accomplice behind the scenes, and they were finally rescued because of Xi Yue, he just felt incredible.

Jin Licheng looked around, trying to find Xi Yue and ask him about his situation, but she was no longer around.
