The King of Hell's Genius Pampered Wife

Chapter 321: Are You Gu Yidao?

Feng Lian Ying's face was full of arrogance and pride as her delicate hands slowly fished out a bottle of medicine. Then, she poured out a Five Elements Blood Coagulation Pill and gave it to Shangguan Rui.

In less time than it takes to burn a stick of incense, Shangguan Rui, who'd initially been on the verge of dying, had started to regain his vitality. His body that had been festering, with pus continuously flowing down it like a stream, slowly stopped rotting. Even the puss-filled wounds started closing.

Shangguan Rui's face was filled with joy; he had miraculously managed to return from death's door. Kneeling in front of Feng Lian Ying, he said with a trembling voice, "I...I feel my spiritual power gradually coming back, and the burning-like pain in my internal organs is also slowly disappearing. Ice Lotus Fairy, your medical skills are really unparalleled! I, Shangguan Rui, will never forget your kindness."

As he uttered those words, an enthusiastic cheer burst forth from the crowd.

One by one, they all yelled "Ice Lotus Fairy", and they gazed at her were like they were looking at a goddess delivering salvation. They were all filled with admiration and gratefulness.

When Hexi saw this scene before her, she couldn't help but laugh lightly at Nangong Yu's side. "Look at how your Little Sister Lian Ying is worshipped. It seems like she still has an infatuation with you too. All this time, she hasn't once forgotten to cast flirtatious glances towards you, yet you aren't moved at all!"

"Such a heartless little girl!" Nangong Yu reached out his hand and pinched her elegant little nose, unhappily saying, "Who's my Little Sister Lian Ying? In this world, there's only a Nalan Hexi who's mine, understand? In the future, if you say something incorrectly again, then don't blame this King for punishing you!"

Hexi's face was bright red as she swat his misbehaving hand away, and she wanted to pay him back. Suddenly, she heard an exclamation from a Hell King Manor bodyguard.

"Master, Young Master Xi! Look at that; it looks like someone is approaching!"

From the direction of the hill, there were two silhouettes unexpectedly staggering towards them.

The faces' of these two men were also covered in blood blisters; it was a horrible sight to behold. One of them hadn't even made it out of the medicinal field before he fell to the ground and howled with grief; never to get up again.

The other man ran out of the medicinal field while swaying from side to side, incessantly shouting, "Help!"

However, when the man's eyes fell on the unconscious form of Gu Liufeng, he seemed to have forgotten all his pain and fear, and his screams were now full of worry. "Liufeng, w-what happened to you?!"

Seeing that the man was about to charge towards Gu Liufeng, the bodyguards of Hell King Manor used their Long Swords to block his way threateningly.

The man looked up in alarm and saw a group of people staring at him coldly. He couldn't help trembling as he asked, "You...W-who are you people? What did you do to Liufeng?!"

Wu Yu waved his fan, arrogantly looking at him as he asked, "And who are you? What is your relationship with Gu Liufeng? Don't you know that if you get close to him, you will infect him with the poison on your body?"

"I...I..." The man's eyes filled with fear and despair. The blood blisters on his face were even starting to pop one after another, causing his entire face to look horrifying.

Hexi suddenly frowned. "Are you Gu Yidao?"

"How...how do you know my name?!"

Hexi didn't say anything more. Instead, squatting down, she took out a bottle of medicine and waved it under Gu Liufeng's nose.

Gu Liufeng's brows creased tightly, and he quickly awoke. However, he had barely returned to consciousness, and before he could adjust his energy and restore his physical strength, he immediately shouted, "Let me go; let me go save him! I don't believe that he's dead-!"

Wu Yu patted Gu Liufeng's shoulder to appease him, and said, "First, calm down. Do you see who this person is?"

Chapter 322: The Beginning Of A Nightmare

"Liu...liufeng! Are you okay?!" Gu Yidao's voice was hoarse, and he kept releasing painful groans. "Fortunately...fortunately, you're alright...at least, there's someone who'll take care of Youlan."

Gu Liufeng looked at the man lying on the ground, barely able to recognise his face. After staring blankly for a few minutes, he finally whispered back, "You're...you're Uncle?! You didn't die?"

As he said that, Gu Liufeng went to rush towards him, only to be stopped by Hexi. "Don't touch him; you'll be infected."

Hearing that his poison really was contagious to Gu Liufeng, Gu Yidao propped himself up with his hand on the ground and moved backwards several steps before he cried sorrowfully, "Liufeng, Uncle...Uncle is already past the point of helping, don't come over... In the future, take good care of your Mother, and live well..."

"Uncle, don't talk nonsense," Gu Liufeng suddenly raised his voice. "You've just been poisoned by an insignificant and strange poison; why would you die? Didn't I tell you to leave Murong Zhangfeng and them behind when you entered the secret territory, and to wait for me in Green Wood Realm? Why didn't you listen to me, and instead followed them into Hundred Herb Mist?"

Gu Yidao's eyes were somewhat blank before they then filled with fear and pain. In the end, he just lightly sighed, and said, "I was in too much of a rush."

Gu Yidao's Younger Sister, Gu Youlan, who was also Gu Liufeng's Mother, was seriously ill. After having received treatment for so many years, she still showed no signs of recovery. Instead, she was gradually reaching her limit.

Gu Liufeng and Gu Yidao were desperate and had decided to take a chance on the secret territory of the Sealed Dragon Domain. After all, the owner of the Sealed Dragon Domain, Master Zijin, was once a person with an outstanding reputation regarding his medical skills. Furthermore, Hundred Herb Mist was filled with high level spiritual plants rare to Mi Luo Continent.

Gu Yidao was a Gold Core stage martial artist, and a bodyguard of Murong manor. This, together with a map of the secret territory he had in his possession that was handed down from generation to generation, he was able to enter Hundred Herb Mist through the Major Cloud Array. After arriving at Green Wood Realm, Gu Yidao hadn't been able to wait until Gu Liufeng arrived, and had followed the Murong family into the medicinal field.

Once they all saw the endless amount of high level spiritual plants in the medicinal field, they were nearly overcome with madness. However, some of the people who couldn't help but consume those herbs found that afterwards, their bodies were covered in a strange red rash.

Gu Yidao gazed at the medicinal field, the expression in his eyes becoming one of terror and anger. "Back then, half of the twenty-nine people we came in with showed symptoms of being poisoned. But at that time, no one panicked because we had Murong Hai with us, a third rank doctor. He gave everyone an elixir, and after taking the medicine, everyone's temperature quickly went down. On top of that, the red rashes disappeared without a trace."

"We all thought that that was the end of our trouble, but who would have thought that it was just the beginning of our nightmare."

Gu Yidao clenched his teeth, then continued, "Not long after taking the medicine, the martial artists who'd originally had the red rashes suddenly began to bleed from the seven apertures<sup>[1]</sup> of their faces'. Eventually, their bodies were completely rotten, until they were nothing but pools of blood."

"Unfortunately, our nightmare was far from over. After half of them had died, the rest of us, besides Murong Hai and Murong Zhangfeng, also started to experience the symptoms of a fever. Now, it's definite that we were infected due to coming into contact with those who were poisoned."

When Gu Yidao said that, an extremely pained expression crossed his face, and his body twitched violently.

The blood blisters on his face were festering with a speed visible to the naked eye, while black and yellow bloody-pus leaked out from his body. His current appearance was horrendous.

This appearance was due to Gu Yidao suffering from the final stages of the poison. Soon, he would meet with a violent death.

Chapter 323: Ridicule

However, he continuously kept shouting at Gu Liufeng, "Don't come near me...live well, Liufeng, live well..."

The inside of Gu Liufeng's mask had long since become damp with tears. Regardless of everything, he still wanted to shake off Wu Yu and rush over to his Uncle.

However, Hexi was faster than him and scattered a handful of white powder into the air.

The white powder landed on Gu Yidao's body, and soon, it was absorbed into his flesh. Though the wounds showed no change, Gu Yidao's painful wailing silenced, and his body stopped twitching.

Hexi looked at Gu Liufeng, and indifferently said, "This powder can only temporarily stop the poison from invading his heart, it won't last long."

Gu Liufeng stared blankly at Hexi; then he suddenly fell to his knees. "Xi Yue, can you save him? As long as you save him, my life is yours!"

Hexi's expression was somewhat grave, and while her voice came out indifferently cold like normal, it had a slight calming effect. "Even if I can save him, my method of healing people is different compared to other doctors. Moreover, it's extremely likely that your Uncle will suffer from a great amount of pain. Even then, do you still want me to save him?"

But before Gu Liufeng could answer, a soft voice interrupted. "Young Master Gu, I hope you won't take offence, but you can take one of my Five Elements Blood Coagulation Pills for your Uncle."

Gu Liufeng turned around and saw Feng Lian Ying looking back at him with a smile spread across her face.

Feng Lian Ying's expression was filled with arrogance as if she was enjoying watching other people's misfortune. Slightly raising her chin, she said, "Previously, it was Young Master Gu who injured me, but it was only because Xi Yue bewitched you; I believe that it wasn't intentional. As long as you're willing to sincerity repent, I will naturally save your Uncle's life. After all, saving a life is the noble thing to do, and on top of that, I don't want to see you heartbroken. How does that sound?"

Standing beside Feng Lian Ying, Nie Jincheng couldn't help but laugh as he said, "Gu Liufeng, you can't really think that everyone has Little Sister Lian Ying's strength and will be capable of saving your Uncle's life, right?"

"Don't make the wrong choice and cause harm to your Uncle; you'll regret it all your life!"

"If you have any self-consciousness left, then obediently come here and apologise by kowtowing to Little Sister Lian Ying. After that, we will kindly help you. How about it?"

Feng Lian Ying glanced at Nie Jincheng, as if she was trying to censure him, then slowly said, "Maybe Young Master Xi really does have a way to cure people? Although he's just on Foundation Establishment stage and doesn't have a doctor's rank..."

Nie Jincheng burst into laughter and said, "As if that waste has a way to cure people; he's just talking rubbish! Now that he sees that you, Little Sister Lian Ying, have the limelight, he's unsatisfied. There's no need for you to defend such a vicious person!!"

“That’s right! How can trash that would be so daring as to deceive everyone be compared with Ice Lotus Fairy?!”

“This Young Master, if you really want to save your Uncle, you’d better come and apologise to Ice Lotus Fairy!”

“Really, all kinds of trash are daring to impersonate being a doctor nowadays! This kind of person is simply not even worthy of carrying Ice Lotus Fairy’s shoes.”

One after another, comments were shouted through the medicinal field. Everyone was ridiculing Hexi for overestimating her capabilities.

Hexi stopped Nangong Yu who was filled with rage and ready to teach them a lesson, and coldly laughed as she whispered in his ear.

Nangong Yu stared blankly. Then, following that, he poked the tip of her nose and laughed with an indulging expression on his face.

At this moment, Feng Lian Ying saw the interaction between the two of them, and her face twisted in fury. After a few deep breaths, she managed to restrain her rage, and said, “Young Master Gu, have you thought it over? In just a few minutes it’ll be too difficult to save your Uncle.”

The King of Hell's Genius Pampered Wife

Chapter 324: I Believe In You

“Or, will you kill your Uncle for your selfishness?”

Gu Liufeng closed his eyes, and when they opened again, they were calm and tranquil. “I’ve made my decision.”

Nie Jinchun laughed and said, “Since you’ve thought about it, why don’t you hurry up and kowtow to Little Sister Lian Ying, acknowledging your mistake...”

However, before Nie Jinchun could finish speaking, Gu Liufeng had already stood up. Then, looking straight at Hexi, he slowly said, “Please, cure my Uncle!”

Hexi raised an eyebrow, and a glint of surprise flashed in her eyes. “Have you properly considered everything? I don’t have a doctor’s rank, and I’m not a member of the Doctors Association.”

Without the slightest hesitation, Gu Liufeng responded, “I believe in you!”

Looking at this scene, Nie Jinchun’s words of humiliation and ridicule seemed to be stuck in his throat. His entire face was flushed red, and it was a long while before he exclaimed, “Gu Liufeng, are you insane?! You actually believe that lying stinky brat who doesn’t have any achievements?! After you cause your Uncle’s death, you’ll regret this decision!”

The faces’ of the other people in the medicinal field were all showing their disapproval, and they gazed at Gu Liufeng like they were looking at an idiot.

This man would rather reject Ice Lotus Fairy, a fifth rank doctor, and instead chose to believe a boy only on Foundation Establishment stage.

Seeing the resolute gaze of Gu Liufeng, a corner of Hexi's mouth lifted into a slight smirk. "In that case, then I need you go into the medicinal field to pick up some herbs such as Purple Monkey Flower, Pomegranate Fire Fruit, and Dragon Grass!"

As soon as she said this, everyone was in an uproar.

"My god, did I just hear it correctly? Did he just say to pick herbs from the medicinal field? Doesn't he know those herbs are poisonous and that whoever eats them will die?"

"This is what saving people looks like? It's clearly wanting to kill people!"

"Not to mention, the herbs he just named are the same ones as Ice Lotus Fairy. This clearly means that he doesn't understand anything! He's just copying the diagnosis and prescription of Ice Lotus Fairy."

"This guy is just too shameless!"

The surrounding was filled with noise, yet Hexi's expression didn't change in the slightest; she merely watched Gu Liufeng with a relaxed gaze.

Gu Liufeng looked at his Uncle who was now unconscious yet still groaning, and clenched his teeth as he said, "Okay, I'll go!"

"Insane! This guy must be insane!"

"Entering the medicinal field is equal to courting death! Did that beautiful boy deceive him? How could he make such a decision??"

"I know about the one who wears the mask; he's the Boss of Sheng De Hall, Young Master Gu. With his shrewd intelligence, how could he unequivocally believe the boy's words yet not believe in Ice Lotus Fairy to help?"

"Perhaps he was seduced by the boy's pretty face, so he doesn't even care about his Uncle's safety. Hahaha..."

Gu Liufeng angrily grit his teeth, and in a flash, he entered the medicinal field.

He was a person who ran a pharmacy, so even though some herbs such as Purple Monkey Flower, Pomegranate Fire Fruit, and Dragon Grass were uncommon; he could still recognise them easily.

Soon, he had used jade boxes to hold a lot of these three kinds of herbs and brought them in front of Hexi.

When he came out of the medicinal field, Gu Liufeng's forehead was covered in fine layer of sweat, but his gaze was extremely resolute.

At this time, Feng Lian Ying's concerned voice was heard from afar. "Young Master Gu, since you entered the medicinal field, it's very likely that you've already been infected with the Intoxicated Blood poison. You should quickly take one of my Five Elements Blood Coagulation pills! I don't want you to kowtow and admit your mistake; I just hope that you and your Uncle stay alive... After all, we're doctors; we must have benevolent hearts and be charitable in deeds. How could I act like Young Master Xi, and treat a patient's life as a trifling matter in order to show off?"

Chapter 325: Domineering Behaviour

Feng Lian Ying thought that her words were reasonable, refined, and full of integrity.

The martial artists nearby who were unaware of her true thoughts expressed their approval—

“Ice Lotus Fairy really is as kind-hearted as the rumours say! She’s such a compassionate person!”

“Ice Lotus Fairy must have been sent from the ninth heaven; she came to deliver us salvation!”

“That brat has no medical ethics! With the way he disregards human life, he shouldn’t be allowed to leave the medicinal field alive.”

Feng Lian Ying felt like her body was emitting a holy light, and looked down at Gu Liufeng with pity.

However, she hadn’t expected that Gu Liufeng would merely glance coldly at her, and without a trace of politeness, say, “Life and death are determined by fate, there’s no need for Ice Lotus Fairy’s concern. Not to mention, I feel nauseous just from looking at such a loathsome woman like you, who acts like a white lotus on the outside but is rotten on the inside. If I had to be saved by you, I would rather die in Little Yue’er’s hands.”

After that, he turned his head away and wholly ignored Feng Lian Ying.

Feng Lian Ying was shaking all over due to her rage. As she looked at Hexi and Gu Liufeng, her gaze filled with her desire to kill them and crush their bones into dust.

At this time, after receiving the herbs, Hexi didn’t refine them into medicine as everyone expected. Rather, after releasing a strange ball of fire spiritual power, she then began to directly roast the herbs.

As the fire spiritual power burned the three herbs, the spiritual energy within the spiritual plants began to slowly be absorbed by the fire spiritual power. With the herbs starting to melt, the originally fresh and tender herbs soon dried up to resemble stalks of grass.

“What is he doing? He’s actually sucked the spiritual energy out of the herbs. What effect will be left in the herbs if he does that?”

“He’s obviously pretending to know what he’s doing. He wanted to imitate Ice Lotus Fairy and save people, but he’s unable to refine even the most basic medicine! Now he’s lost face!”

“Even if there is a problem with the herbs in this medicinal field, doing things like this to the herbs is too wasteful!”

“That kind of person thinks he deserves to be called a doctor? How can Young Master Gu believe him?!”

Hexi turned a deaf ear to everything around her. With the help of Gu Liufeng and Wu Yu, she quickly produced a medicinal liquid.

After decocting the herbs, Hexi came to stand beside Gu Yidao. The Silver Needles in her hand flew like shadows and pierced several of Gu Yidao’s major acupuncture points.

As the Silver Needles entered Gu Yidao's acupuncture points, spiritual power began to leak from his body. Gu Yidao's body that had been originally weak, at this moment, due to the loss of spiritual power, weakened until the breaths leaving his mouth were like dying gasps.

Seeing his Uncle's weak appearance, he eventually couldn't help asking, "Xi Yue, my Uncle...can he be saved?"

Currently, Hexi was confirming whether Gu Yidao's spiritual power was drained. Having heard what was asked, she laughed proudly and slowly said, "There is no end to the medical techniques I can use, but I don't dare to say that I can cure all the world's ailments. Yet, if I say that I can cure someone, then even if it's King Yama, he won't be taking their life."

"And you guys..." Her gaze landed on Gu Liufeng, Wu Yu, and Qing Long. "It would be enough if all of you just shut up!"

Gu Liufeng, Wu Yu, Qing Long: "..."

Wu Yu and Qing Long: Princess is too domineering! She's really a perfect match for Master!

Nangong Yu caressed Hexi's hair, lightly chuckling as he said, "This King likes such domineering behaviour! She really is worthy of being the woman this King fancies!"

Hexi responded to him with two efficient words. "Get lost-!"

The perfectly concocted medicinal liquid was soon poured into Gu Yidao's mouth, and after he drank the medicine, his expression suddenly twisted into one of extreme pain.

His body, which was already weak, suddenly twitched violently on the ground.

Gu Yidao's skin, which was initially only slightly festering, not only didn't heal, it instead started sprouting blackish blood blisters!

The King of Hell's Genius Pampered Wife

Chapter 326: Believe In Him To The End

For a moment, only Gu Yidao's ear-piercing screams could be heard throughout the medicinal field, drowning out the cries of the other infected people.

Everyone was silent while they looked at Gu Yidao's miserable appearance. Their faces were covered in horror and sympathy.

Then, such silence was only momentary, as soon the medicinal field broke out into even more emotional discussions than before.

"It's awful! Fortunately, it's not that brat that'll treat us but Ice Lotus Fairy. Otherwise, we'll end up like that too!"

"Yeah, he obviously could've been saved before, but now...his life..."

"Who told Young Master Gu to not in believe Ice Lotus Fairy, but to believe in that kid who has yet to mature? I wonder if he's happy now that his Uncle has been killed!"

“A quack! He’s a quack that harms people!”

The anger from those watching was like a tide that rose and fell in continuous succession, and as it mixed with Gu Yidao’s pained howls, it caused Gu Liufeng’s hands to clench into tight fists at his sides.

He couldn’t bear to watch his Uncle suffer through such torment, but reason told him to trust Xi Yue. Since he’d promised to believe in him, he must believe in him to the end.

Gu Liufeng closed his eyes. His complexion deathly pale as his body trembled slightly.

The one person in the medicinal field that wasn’t affected by the screaming was probably only Hexi.

Her expression was calm as she asked Nangong Yu for a length of Heaven Silk, and then used it to tie Gu Yidao up to prevent him from further struggling.

Then, she took out her Silver Needles and crouching down, popped the black blood blisters on Gu Yidao’s body one by one.

The black liquid slowly seeped out of the popped blood blisters, emitting a stench that could make anyone feel nauseous.

And as it flowed out of the wounds, it resulted in Hexi’s fingertips becoming slightly stained.

Yet, it was precisely that pus that could infect people!

However, Hexi’s expression didn’t change at all. Using water spiritual power, she focused it into a fine spray that landed on Gu Yidao’s body, washing clean all of the wounds.

After all the wounds had been cleaned, Gu Yidao slipped into a coma. Yet even unconscious, he still released pained groans.

Hexi looked at Gu Liufeng and indifferently said, “It’s done. I predict that he’ll be fine after half an hour.”

Gu Liufeng was startled at first, before his expression immediately turned into one of excitement. His feet staggered due to having been standing so rigidly this whole time, and he almost fell to the ground.

Hexi retreated to the side, but one of her small hands was instantly captured by Nangong Yu.

Before Hexi could react, Nangong Yu grabbed her hand and gently pressed the back of it against his lips; and that was precisely the area that had been stained with Gu Yidao’s blood.

Hexi raised her eyebrows and whispered, “Didn’t you see that I was just touching pus and blood? It was contagious; aren’t you afraid that you’ll get infected?”

The expression on Nangong Yu’s face remained calm, while his eyes were gentle as he looked at her. “If Xi’er was infected, then this King would happily share the same fate as his Princess.”

“Who’s your Princess!?” Hexi unhappily retrieved her hand, but a corner of her mouth raised as she explained, “The pus in Gu Yidao’s body is no longer contagious, but you’ve already guessed that, right?”

Hearing that, Nangong Yu snorted, “If I had thought that it posed any danger to you, Xi’er, do you think that I would’ve let you save him regardless of your safety?”

Hexi didn't speak and instead turned her head away. This guy is as overbearing as always; his desire to be in control is too strong!

However, while this scene was happening around Hexi, the people on the other side who were still watching Shangguan Rui's condition had complete faith in Feng Lian Ying.

Gu Yidao remained unconscious, with pain visible on his face. Although the blood and pus on his wounds had been cleaned up, the festering wounds still existed. Occasionally, black and yellow liquid would leak out, looking rather wretched.

Chapter 327: Begging For An Antidote

Watching Shangguan Rui, who had eaten the Five Elements Blood Coagulation Pill, they could see that he was now breathing as steadily as a normal person, that he could stand and walk normally, and that the wounds on his body had begun to heal.

Comparing both sides, Feng Lian Ying's medical skills were more advanced than Hexi's.

Consequently, everyone sneered at Hexi and Gu Liufeng, enjoying their misfortune as they asked Feng Lian Ying for a Five Elements Blood Coagulation Pill for themselves.

However, although Feng Lian Ying had a lot of Five Elements Blood Coagulation Pills, it was impossible for her to supply it to everyone. This meant that many poisoned martial artists could only helplessly watch their bodies festering, without the opportunity to be cured.

"Ice Lotus Fairy, I beg you, give me a blood coagulation pill...my Brother is going to die..."

Someone kneeling in front of Feng Lian Ying was piteously entreating her before they were soon kicked away by someone else. "Who do you think you are?! You're merely a rogue cultivator[1] without any sect or clan, but you dare to ask Ice Lotus Fairy to waste a precious Five Elements Blood Coagulation Pill on you?"

"Don't dream! Such weak people like you guys originally shouldn't have entered Hundred Herb Mist. Now that you've come here to die, blame your own bad fate, don't blame others!"

"That's right, if low martial artists like you guys are going to die then just die; why fight over medicinal pills with us! Ice Lotus Fairy, I am the disciple of Black Ice Clan's Great Elder, from Hao Yue Country. We, the Black Ice Clan, and the Liu Li Sect, have always been on good terms. Please give me the antidote."

Feng Lian Ying looked at the person who was currently kneeling at her feet and trying to win her favour as they begged for an antidote, and the pride on her face couldn't be concealed.

This kind of worship and the feeling of holding someone else's life in the palm of your hand was wonderful.

There were only two bottles of Five Elements Blood Coagulation Pills in her hands, so naturally, she couldn't assign them to those who had no sect or clan. They were of no assistance to the Feng family or her reputation.

Soon, all of the Five Elements Blood Coagulation Pills had been divided, with most of them being given to the children of influential families or the elite disciples of large sects. While those who didn't manage to receive the medicine were forcibly banished to the side by disciples of the Liu Li Sect, to prevent the infection from spreading.

Those people huddled together; the excitement on their faces had long since disappeared to be replaced with despair.

Someone couldn't help shouting, "Ice Lotus Fairy, don't you have any compassion in your heart that allows you to take pity on our lives? Why are you only saving powerful people, but ignoring us?"

"Exactly! You're unworthy of your name, you faker!"

"So if the martial artists who're children of influential families are worth saving, don't tell me...our lives are unworthy?"

"Whaaa...who will save my Father..."

However, those people's curses and protests were halted by a fierce attack technique from the disciples of the Liu Li Sect. "If anyone dares to slender Ice Lotus Fairy again, I'll let him die now!"

"Since all of you are in this condition, just blame yourselves for overestimating your capabilities and having delusions of getting your hands on the herbs in the medicinal field. As you've all fallen to such a state, you only have yourselves to blame."

These people's hearts were full of desperation, but unfortunately, they were powerless to do anything. They could only silently bear the ridicule from the children of influential families, and watch as one by one, they took a Five Elements Blood Coagulation Pill from Ice Lotus Fairy's hand, while they could only wait to die.

However, just when those people had all received a Five Elements Blood Coagulation Pill and were about to swallow them, a sudden scream was heard. Shangguan Rui, standing behind Feng Lian Ying, was releasing an ear-piercing scream.

It looked like Shangguan Rui's face that had already healed, at this moment, was being squeezed by a force from inside of his body, making his entire face continuously distort and deform.

The King of Hell's Genius Pampered Wife

Chapter 328: Exploded

Shangguan Rui's face was filled with fright and pain, and his body kept rolling about on the ground.

The blood blisters that had already disappeared were now reappearing extremely fast.

However, it was far from over.

When everyone was at a loss of what to do, a loud bang was suddenly heard from Shangguan Rui as his body unexpectedly exploded.

Black pus and blood splattered everywhere, and even two disciples of the Liu Li Sect weren't spared! It was too late for them to flee and they ended up splashed with blood.

After the explosion, everyone looked at the place where Shangguan Rui had been reclining.

Finding that there was no dead body or bones; just a large pool of blood.

The most terrible thing was that the blood seemed to be alive as it struggled to squirm towards the crowd.

For a moment, everyone was shocked by the incredible scene before their eyes.

It was only after a long while that someone finally screamed; their expression one of horror as they ran away.

When the blood neared where Hexi and the others were, a man in black clothes slowly stepped forward with an indifferent expression on his face. Opening a porcelain bottle he held in his hand; he then poured a medicinal liquid onto the blood.

The blood violently bubbled, and with an almost pained sound, it seemed to want to flee.

This medicinal liquid was like the blood's nemesis; it desperately wanted to escape, but it was powerless to do anything.

After a short time, the blood disappeared in a plume of steam.

Everyone stared blankly at the scene. They just couldn't believe their own eyes.

Shangguan Rui...he...he actually exploded! Moreover, he turned into a pool of blood?

What did that mean? Did it mean that the Five Elements Blood Coagulation Pill was ineffective at curing Shangguan Rui, and had killed him instead?

That meant that Ice Lotus Fairy was incapable of treating those infected with poison!

Instead, the Five Elements Blood Coagulation Pill that everyone had been fighting over just moments before was actually a poison that would kill them!

"Arghhh—!" Some of the martial artists let out terrified screams as they started throwing the pill, which had been so hard to get, as far away from them as possible like a hot potato.

However, several of them who'd already swallowed a Five Elements Blood Coagulation Pill went completely pale, and with their bodies twitching, they dug their fingers down their throats to vomit the pill out.

Since they'd swallowed a Five Elements Blood Coagulation Pill, then didn't that mean they would become like Shangguan Rui and ultimately turn into a pool of blood after suffering a violent death?!

No-! That was impossible-! They didn't want to die!

"Feng Lian Ying, didn't you say that the Five Elements Blood Coagulation Pill would definitely cure us? Then what on earth happened to Shangguan Rui?!"

"You vicious woman, you lied to get me to take a Five Elements Blood Coagulation Pill! If I die, my Master will never let you go!"

“What Ice Lotus Fairy!? She’s nothing but a swindler posing as a medical genius, pah!”

“Feng Lian Ying, if my Senior Brother dies, my Ling Xiao Sect will refuse to ever be allies with you!!”

Feng Lian Ying’s face had currently turned a horrid shade of green and purple; she couldn’t at all believe what had just happened!

Shangguan Rui had actually died...impossible! It was simply impossible!

Her diagnosis, her medicine, how could any of it be wrong?!

It must be that Shangguan Rui was infected by another poison...right! That’s right; the problem must’ve come from Shangguan Rui himself!

With this thought, Feng Lian Ying suddenly shouted, “The problem isn’t my medical skills, and my diagnosis wasn’t wrong!! This was just an unexpected tragedy caused by Shangguan Rui’s own problem!!”

“If you don’t believe me, try it again! The next person won’t suffer from such a situation!”

Chapter 329: Mad

“The Five Elements Blood Coagulation Pill is definitely the cure for Intoxicated Blood poison!”

However, how could any of those people still believe her, and they indignantly shouted, “You want us to try again? Do you want us to end up as miserable as Shangguan Rui? Keep dreaming!”

Feng Lian Ying was furious after hearing all the accusations and watched as the martial artists from influential families refused to eat the Five Elements Blood Coagulation Pill, while those who’d already swallowed them forcefully vomited them out.

Feng Lian Ying suddenly took out an additional three pills that she’d hidden inside her sleeve for bargaining with in the future. Then, she rushed towards the martial artists without influence.

The group of banished martial artists had initially been rejoicing that they’d escaped from such a calamity, but now that they saw Feng Lian Ying rushing over, they immediately screamed and fled in all directions.

At this moment, Feng Lian Ying had completely lost all traces of sanity. Wearing Heavenly Silk Gloves on her hands, she grabbed a person, and then stuffed a Five Elements Blood Coagulation Pill into his mouth as she murmured, “There won’t be any problem; my diagnosis will never be wrong!”

In order to speed up the effect of the Five Elements Blood Coagulation Pill, she even forced some of her spiritual power into that person’s body. This would cause the medicine to be rapidly absorbed; regardless of the impurities in the pill that might cause harm to the martial artist.

However, after the period it takes an incense stick to burn, Feng Lian Ying quickly retreated in horror.

With a loud bang, another person exploded and turned into a pool of blood that squirmed about on the ground.

“Ahhhh—!! Dead! Dead again!!”

“Shen’er—!! Feng Lian Ying, you vicious woman, return my son’s life!! Shen’er...!!”

The martial artist’s mother saw the pool of blood that used to be her son, and with her eyes red due to hatred, she charged towards Feng Lian Ying.

However, her cultivation base was nowhere near good enough for her to be an opponent with Liu Li Sect’s bodyguards, and she was quickly kicked to the ground, causing her to spit out blood.

The group of powerless martial artists were now alarmed, and they glared at Feng Lian Ying with hatred and resentment.

This woman, in their eyes, had been as beautiful and as pure as a goddess in the heavens. Now, she’d revealed herself to be a ruthless and viciously evil woman.

What’s the use of calling such a woman Ice Lotus Fairy; it’s simply insulting the title of a fairy!

At this moment, Gu Yidao, who’d remained unconscious on the ground the whole time, groaned and slowly opened his eyes.

Gu Liufeng’s face filled with surprise. Quickly helping to support his Uncle sit up, he asked, “How are you feeling, Uncle? Do you feel better now?”

Gu Yidao bared his teeth and frowned, but eventually, he stretched his lips into a smile. “You can rest assured, Liufeng; I feel much better now.”

Hexi crouched down and grabbed his wrist to take his pulse before nodding. “The poison in your body has been completely expelled, while your wounds are no longer weeping pus. You can now use your spiritual power to assist in healing your wounds.”

Sure enough, Gu Yidao’s wounds were now only leaking healthy red blood, whereas previously they’d been oozing a black-yellow liquid.

Gu Yidao bit his lip, as though he was suffering from pain, and he slowly began to circulate his spiritual power to nourish the wounds on his body.

A moment later, the wounds that had slowly been trickling blood dried up. Although it wasn’t possible for them to completely heal right away, his body seemed to be in a much better condition than it was before, and he could even see again.

Gu Yidao looked at the wounds he’d sustained that were no longer bleeding. His body trembled slightly, and he stared gratefully at Hexi. “I...I didn’t think that I’d survive. I thought I would’ve died already...”

Chapter 330: Why?

The rims of Gu Liufeng’s eyes slightly reddened and glinted as he looked at Hexi, his voice hoarse, “Xi Yue, I don’t know how to thank you. Anyway, if you need something in the future, I, Gu Liufeng, won’t hesitate to brave any danger for you, without a word of complaint.”

“Rubbish! Didn’t you help me before?” While speaking, Hexi threw a bottle of medicine to him and indifferently said, “Applying this to his wounds can help speed up the healing. However, these wounds are a bit unusual, so they might not disappear within a month.”

The meaning of her words meant that she didn’t accept Gu Liufeng’s promise to give her his life for saving Gu Yidao’s life. At most, what she’d done was only repay the favour she owed Gu Liufeng.

Moreover, the words ‘we’re friends, aren’t we?’ that Gu Liufeng had previously said remained in her mind.

Friends...hmm, she didn’t quite understand the meaning of this word though.

A smile reached Gu Liufeng’s eyes, and he finally recovered his usual languid and graceful expression. He took the medicine bottle and smiled lightly. “Unexpectedly, saving your life has turned into one of the best decisions I’ve ever made in my life!”

The atmosphere around Hexi and Gu Liufeng was very harmonious. However, Nangong Yu watching from the side had a dark and gloomy expression on his face.

He recalled that in Zijin Palace Hexi had faced him with a cold scowl as if she would off all relations with him. This made his heart pound with fear, so for a moment, he didn’t dare do anything too rash.

Nonetheless, Qing Long noticed his Master’s gloomy expression. So, quietly coughing, he stepped forward and said, “Young Master Xi, your medical skills are indeed amazing, but we still have many things that we don’t understand. Even though the ingredients for your medicine and Feng Lian Ying’s were the same, how come Gu Yidao survived, while Shanguan Rui became a pool of blood?”

“Yeah, you’re right!” Wu Yu also moved closer, his face filled with a smug excitement as he said, “Moreover if the spiritual plants in the medicinal field were eaten, wouldn’t they be poisonous? How come Gu Yidao was able to eat them but still be okay?”

At this time, everyone’s gaze and attention were focused on this lively group of people.

Gu Yidao seemed healthy, his wounds were beginning to heal, and there was no trace of a poisonous backlash. They were so shocked that their eyes were almost popping out of their sockets.

This Foundation Establishment stage boy had actually managed to cure this strange poison!

While Ice Lotus Fairy, who’d they all previously placed high hopes on, and had spoken with such confidence, had ended up terribly failing. No one expected the results to be so unexpected!

At the same time, once Feng Lian Ying had seen that Hexi had really cured Gu Yidao, she completely lost her mind.

She didn’t believe that her medical skills were inferior to that slut’s.

“Impossible-! Impossible-!! My diagnosis was absolutely not wrong! I’m a fifth rank doctor and a direct disciple of Thousand Venom Valley’s Master! How could I lose to this slut?!”

“Give me the pill, and I’ll find someone to try the medicine again! I will never admit defeat!”

Hysterical yelling like a maniac echoed around Thousand Herb Mist, and everyone looked at the woman's sinister expression, feeling nothing but disgust and hatred.

This so-called Ice Lotus Fairy was merely an idiot with an undeserved reputation. She had no excellent medical skills.

What was even more embarrassing is that she'd obviously failed, yet she still wanted to try her medicine on innocent martial artists, regardless of people lives. She was really too shameful and malicious!!

The moment when Feng Lian Ying was about to find someone else to try her medicine, a palm ruthlessly landed on her face, causing her to stagger to the ground.

When Feng Lian Ying looked up, she saw Feng Yunjing's cold, murderous look. "Until when do you want to keep losing face?"
