Chapter 411: Letting One's Self Become Strong

"One way is to leave me and go to the magical beast forest. There's an abundant amount of enchanted energy there, it can help you advance in your cultivation. I'll give you a life saving jade slip, if you meet some calamity..."

"I don't want to leave Miss!" Hexi didn't get to finish speaking before Xiao Li threw herself into her arms and impatiently said, "I promised gege I would follow by Miss' side. Moreover, I would hate to... Hate to part with Miss... Miss, can you not push me away?"

Hexi rubbed her head and helplessly replied, "I didn't want to push you away. It's just that, the second option is rather dangerous. Not only that, it'll raise your murderous thoughts, you're still young, I originally didn't wish for you to..."

"I'm not afraid of danger nor murderous thoughts!" Xiao Li's face was firm, clenching her fist, she vowed, "I want to become extremely strong and powerful, so I can help out Miss. So I can protect Miss and gege."

Hexi nodded her head, "Since it's like this, then I'll send you to Desolate Desert Realm's Black Desert. But, it isn't as safe as a training location as Xi Jia and the others', rather it's the desert with the most concentrated amount of magical beasts."

"Although Sealed Dragon Domain doesn't contain enchanted power, the internal core of the magical beasts contains a large quantity of enchanted power. If you refine their internal cores, you can change them into enchanted power to cultivate."

"But, the magical beasts inside Desolate Desert Realm's Black Desert are incomparably cruel and powerful, and they have already lost all rationality long ago. All that's left is a bloodthirsty instinct. Even with your charming ability and ability to talk to all creatures, they would be unable to display affection. There will be nothing but continuous battling before you can obtain what you want. With it like this, do you still wish to go and try your hand?"

Without the slightest hesitation, Xiao Li nodded her head. Her snowy face didn't have any trace of wavering, "I want to go. As long as I can help Miss, I'm not afraid of any hardship. Not only that, Miss is so awesome, Xiao Li doesn't wish to pull Miss' leg."

Xiao Li, Xi Jia, and the others were quickly sent into the Desolate Desert Realm. The Little Golden Dragon also began it's cultivation inside her space.

All that was left was Dan Dan, the little foodie. As before, he ate fine foods, slept, and he rolled about in all types of fields, acting cute and spoiled. His days couldn't have been passed more comfortably.

But, in Hexi's heart, Dan Dan was different.

Dan Dan was her closest relative in this world, Hexi wished to pamper him, indulge him, and give him the happiest and most comfortable life.

As for Hexi, she wouldn't let herself waste any second of time that could be used to let herself become stronger.

After settling everyone, she quickly entered her space and began to cultivate nonstop.

The methods in Hexi's hands currently weren't few, but after she began to cultivate the Maha Inheritance, these methods, that she had taken from the hands of other martial artists, couldn't meet her eyes.

But, Hexi also discovered an odd thing.

Because her body possessed the five elements of spiritual power, Hexi originally wanted to study all the attributes of the method, so she could balance her cultivation. After all, nowadays she used her fire and water attributes the most, much more compared to her other attributes.

But after searching through the methods, she discovered to her shock— There wasn't any method correlating to the wood attribute.

In addition, she remembered that in the Overflowing Pill Cauldron Scripture, it had clearly said that the wood attribute was considered the strongest attribute for a doctor, representing the origin and recovery of one's life.

But, she had never seen anyone using a wooden attribute to treat injuries before in these ancient books or records.

Truly is strange. Don't tell her that this method was incomplete and only the wood attribute was missing?

Chapter 412: Clear Meditative State

For a moment, Hexi was at a loss. But, then she no longer thought about this problem and began to earnestly practice the Maha Inheritance.

The terror and power of this inheritance was evident in her battle with Elder Jiang, it caused Hexi to feel unlimited yearning and confidence towards it.

If so, she could replicate her capabilities at the time and completely copy her opponent's unique skills.

So in this way, wouldn't she be invincible?

But, what caused Hexi to feel gloomy was that, ever since she had ignited her dantian, she was unable to attain a clear meditative state.

When she was in Bie Courtyard, she allowed Wu Xin to display his unique skill. After trying to duplicate it, she couldn't.

Hexi sat cross-legged inside the mustard subspace of the Spirit Firmament Palace Hall, she was recalling the scene of her and Elder Jiang fighting earlier.

Alongside the images of their fighting slowly playing out in her mind, the spiritual power in her body began to flow along a predetermined trajectory.

The spiritual power began to revolve faster and faster, soon, a small whirlpool appeared in her dantian.

When these whirlpools appeared, Hexi found that her senses became unprecedentedly keen and penetrating.

Everything around her became incomparably wonderful, it was as if it had become apart of her body. There weren't any secrets.

She could even sense the spiritual qi and nutrient transportation in the spiritual plants located in the medicinal field. She could detect each inhabitant in the soil of the Ancient Rhyme Spiritual field.

Obviously, she had not used any godly records. But when she closed her eyes, she could clearly see everything, within ten meters, inside and outside her space.

This feeling was truly too profound, not only was her perception magnified, it seemed like she had become the master of this piece of land.

If Hexi stayed in this world for a bit longer, she would come to understand that this state is called-- Clear Meditation.

In Miluo Continent, even if one was a high rank Nascent Soul stage martial artist, it was impossible to attain. This mental state was classified as something in legends.

The Maha Inheritance's function was to speed up the cultivator's spiritual power revolving and forcibly reach this state.

But, with Hexi's current spiritual power, she was only able to stay in this state for a second before she was forced out.

After a month passed, when Hexi left her space, she felt defeated.

Throughout this month, without rest, she had squeezed out her spiritual power to practice the Maha Inheritance.

But, after a month had flown by, she was only able to touch the doorstep of the Maha Inheritance.

As for the Clear Meditation state that allowed her to replicate others' abilities, she was only able to stay in it for three seconds.

Three seconds, this was too short. Wanting to learn other people's abilities in three seconds was a fantasy.

Hearing Hexi's unconscious grumbles, the Little Golden Dragon, who was off to the side cultivating, felt the corner of his mouth twitching and his face was filled with secrecy.

Laoda already earned an advantage but was still ungrateful!

One had to understand that entering the Maha Inheritance's doorway was the hardest step. In order for ordinary martial artists to even touch the doorstep of Clear Meditation, it would take them a year's time.

His previous master was the creator of the Maha Inheritance, but when he first replicated someone else's ability, he still failed.

But his family's laoda? On her first try, she was able to replicate two big skills. Currently, she was still at Meridians stage and could already touch the doorstep to Clear Meditation.

Yet she still feels it's too slow, does she even let the other martial artists live?!

Chapter 413: Borderless Blackmarket

After exiting the mountain, Hexi first went to offer sacrifices to Wet Nurse Chen. Then, she checked Xiao Li, Xi Jia, and the others' progress in their cultivation before she left Sealed Dragon Domain's Secret Territory and returned to Bie Courtyard.

Currently, Bie Courtyard at the foot of Cang Mountain was completely different than she had left it.

She didn't know where Xi San had bought several servants from, they cleaned Bie Courtyard and left it neat and tidy.

Currently, people were going in and out of Bie Courtyard, it was full of life. It contrasted against the previously bloody and gloomy scene.

"Miss, you're here!" When Xi San saw Hexi he was pleasantly surprised and immediately greeted her.

Hexi nodded her head and offered a sentence of praise, "Bie Courtyard has been managed quite well."

Xi San was brimming with happiness, his eyes were filled with cheerfulness and complacentnes. "Many thanks for Miss' compliment, xiao de [1] doesn't have any cultivation skills and can't protect Miss like Xi Jia and the others can. I'm very happy to be able to handle matters for Miss."

Xi San welcomed Hexi into Bie Courtyard's central room to sit down and he quickly arranged for some servant girls to deliver refreshments.

Earlier, these servant girls and menservants already saw Hexi's portrait, therefore, they knew that she was this Bie Courtyard's true master.

Naturally, Hexi had no interest towards these bland refreshments, she just softly turned her teacup around as she listened to Xi San report what had happened these past few days.

"Miss, you [2] don't know, last time, when you gave me the Supplement Spirit Pill before you entered Sealed Dragon Domain, I went to get it appraised at Imperial Pharmaceutical Institution. In the end, the result of the evaluation alarmed the manager of the medicine courtyard."

"Including crystal spiritual power, the pill's pure essence was ninety-nine percent, ah! Miss, you didn't see the look of that group of people's eyes bulging out. The group of people captured me, wishing they could immediately sign a big order with me."

Hexi raised her eyebrow, "Did you sign with them?"

“Where would I dare to, ah!” Xi San promptly responded, “Xiao de understands the argument Miss previously said about money not being able to be revealed, if xiao de signs a contract with Imperial Pharmaceutical Institution’s people, it would be easy for them to track everything back to here.”

“Therefore, xiao de just obtained the evaluation list before secretly running away, afterward, I put the pill on sale in black market.”

Speaking up to here, Xi San saw that Hexi’s eyes were already bright, full of admiration and disbelief. “Hei hei, Miss, do you know how high the price was raised for this Supplement Spirit Pills?”

“In the beginning, it was only two thousand yuan crystals per pill. Moreover, there were also some people in the black market who cursed those people as fools, certain that I had tricked them with fake appraisal documents.”

Xi San still remembered the reversal and disturbance in the black market over these Supplement Spirit Pills, several days before.

He colorfully and vividly described everything, from start to finish, that happened these few days in the black market to Hexi, who was listening with interest.

Originally, there were some mysterious, fantasy novels online that had similar blackmarkets to Miluo Continent’s Borderless Blackmarket, in her previous life.

The person who established the Boundless Blackmarket was an unknown, almighty person, he opened a fictitious room.

All martial artists could link their soul to the black market through the provided jade slips.

At the same time, martial artists could engrave product’s attributes and information in images to put for sale in this Boundless Blackmarket.

Naturally, for Boundless Blackmarket to be able to do such business deals, the most important factor was that the creator had a very powerful refining tools expert.

They created a sort of mechanism, it’s speed was extremely fast. It could travel a thousand miles in a day and it’s protective quality was very high. It was extremely secretive, it could transport purchased and sold items through long distances.

Naturally, the pills and magic weapons sold on the blackmarket couldn’t be bought at real prices. In addition, Boundless Blackmarket also had to successfully transport the items, but it’s secrecy was very strong, it didn’t attract much attention.

Chapter 414: Billionaire

Xi San gave Hexi the two thousand yuan crystals that the Replenishing Spirit Pill was sold at, this already surpassed the price of the top quality Replenishing Spirit Pill. Naturally, nobody wanted to buy it in the beginning.

But, three days after the first Replenishing Spirit Pill had been sold, suddenly the rest of the Replenishing Spirit Pills he put up for sale had all been bought.

And the black market's interaction page, which had been silent for a few years, suddenly blew up—

“Wow, crazy! My didi ate three of those two thousand yuan crystal Replenishing Spirit Pills and he directly advanced to Foundation Establishment stage, ah! But, I wanted to buy some, but unexpectedly, you can't buy anymore!”

“Me too, I bought that high quality Replenishing Spirit Pill and went to go fight in my sect. In the middle of the battle, I swallowed a Replenishing Spirit Pill and my spiritual power instantly replenished. To my surprise, I even defeated the most powerful senior brother of the outside sect! Wow, from now on, I'm a disciple of the inner sect!”

“In the end, which great person refined this Replenishing Spirit Pill, ah. So powerful of a spiritual force, such a terrifying amount of essence purity. Unexpectedly, it's only first rank, even Qi Refining stage martial artists can take it!”

All the martial artists, that habitually bought medicinal pills off the black market, had gone crazy over these outrageous Replenishing Spirit Pills!

How many people had used their mysterious jade slips to link back into the blackmarket's virtual space, just to be able to immediately snatch these pills away.

Naturally, Xi San also quickly discovered this “grand occasion”, therefore, he raised the price of each Replenishing Spirit Pill to ten thousand yuan crystals.

But, despite the price being so terrifyingly high, each time more pills were put up for sale, they were immediately sold out.

And when the pills Xi San had on hand were all sold away, everyone was wailing like ghosts and howling like wolves on the blackmarket's interaction page.

Everyday, people would yell, why weren't the top quality Replenishing Spirit Pills being sold anymore.

Hexi watched as Xi San took out rows of storage rings, the corner of her mouth twitched.

These rings were completely filled with the yuan crystals they had earned from their business.

Xi San mischievously laughed as he pointed towards the first row of rings. “These are the money collected from the flying swords Miss had me sell, as well as the method records. All together, we earned 98.530.000 yuan crystals.

Afterwards, he pointed towards the back row of rings. “These are from the Replenishing Spirit Pills that Miss gave me, there are also some other yuan crystals gained from selling other pills. All together, it's 6.660 yuan crystals*.”

In other words, she had turned from a poverty-stricken peasant to a billionaire.

What was most terrifying was the fact that this was only a third of it, she earned this amount with the pills she had refined out of convenience.

Although the magic weapons she handed to Xi San were those that she deemed unable to reach her eyes, but the Replenishing Spirit Pills could be sold for even more than the magic weapons. This was too outrageous.

But, when Hexi turned her head to ponder for a moment, she recalled the scene of that group of people who threw out countless yuan crystals to buy the furnace. Immediately after, she felt relieved.

In reality, 100 million yuan crystals wasn't much. Especially because she wished to help a group of people promote their cultivation levels.

Hexi threw a few storage rings to Xi San, faintly saying, "Go to Pig Market to select some slaves, when selecting, pay attention to their behavior, ability to work hard, and endure hardships. Innate skill isn't crucial. The remaining money can be used to employ some subordinates and guards for yourself."

Everyday, Xi San ran about outside. He was also in contact with many wealthy individuals, safety needed to be ensured.

Xi San was overjoyed, he didn't decline. After taking the ring, he kowtowed to Hexi several times, his face was full of smiles.

"Have there been any other matters lately?"

Upon hearing what she said, at once, he replied, "Indeed, there are two things Miss needs to be informed of."

Chapter 415: Must Not Come By All Means?

"Senior Wu Xin wishes for me to tell Miss, Hell King Manor has received an invitation from Ouyang family. The content of the invitation wishes for His Highness Hell King to pass on this information: They wish to invite you, Miss, to attend Jin Ling's annual hunting competition."

Xi San handed Hexi the jade slip, she looked it over it for a moment and her heart rate began to speed up.

This year's annual hunting competition had Ouyang Haoxuan's father, Ouyang Zhixiong, overseeing it. Furthermore, the prize was a fourth rank Fire Binding method.

Nowadays, what Hexi lacked the most of were high level attribute cultivation methods. Naturally, this reward was quite tempting to her.

She nodded her head and said, "Tell Wu Xin to inform Ouyang Family that I will participate."

"What was the other matter?"

From his bosom, Xi San took out another paper and handed it to Hexi. "A few days ago there was a magic record that flew into Bie Courtyard, subordinate doesn't know what this is either."

When Hexi looked upon the magic record, she was startled. This was a talisman.

Originally, the male who had his wife and children murdered by Feng Lian Ying gave her a thousand mile transmitting talisman to be able to inform her of the time when he found Feng Lian Ying, so that she could take revenge for him.

After leaving, this middle aged man had given her a few more transmitting talismen.

These transmitting talismen were much better compared to Miluo Continent's summoning jade slips. The information it could transmit was much clearer and detailed. Therefore, at the time, Hexi had given Gu Liufeng, Nangong Yu, and Wu Yu a few.

Then, why would there be a transmitting talisman that flew into Bie Courtyard?

Hexi used spiritual force to ignite the transmitting talisman and immediately heard Zhou Yan'an's horse voice, which was filled with despair. "Sorry, Xi gongzi! Originally, we agreed for you to come to Sheng De Hall to treat someone, one month later. You need not come anymore. No... By all means, you must not come!

Must not come by all means?

Hexi's eyebrows pursued, why would Zhou Yan'an request this? What happened?

Zhou Yan'an didn't wish for her to go look, as expected, Hexi must go take a look.

»»———— * —————««

Early in the morning, on the second day, Hexi had already left Bie Courtyard, early on, to head towards Yan Jing city.

Before entering Yan Jing city, she changed herself into an ordinary youngster.

Before she walked onto the east street, Hexi heard the sounds of a racket, the sounds of screaming voices.

"Today Ji Sheng Hall opened for business again, in order to express gratitude to everyone, anyone who purchases pills from my medicine hall will also receive a free inspection from Doctor Gu."

The people in the crowd let out enthusiastic cheers, surrounding Ji Sheng Hall in an impenetrable crowd.

Although that Doctor Gu was merely a first rank doctor, but doctors were uncommon and arrogant. Examining people, free of charge today, this was a good matter that couldn't be requested of.

Hexi looked at the lively seen in front of her, then looked towards Ji Sheng Hall's tightly closed doors. It gave a cold and deserted feeling, she deeply pursued her eyebrows.

She lightly knocked on the door, there weren't any noises coming from inside and nobody came to answer.

Then, she suddenly heard a little manservant's cordial voice. "This gongzi, do you wish to buy medicinal pills? Would it be better to come inside Ji Sheng Hall to take a look? We've just received large quantities of medicinal pills, we have whatever attribute or type you have!"

When Hexi turned her head, she saw someone coming over and was startled.

She recognized this little manservant, he once ran errands inside Sheng De Hall. But now, this person ran to Sheng Ji Hall to be a manservant.

What happened during this month? What about Zhou Yan'an and Gu Liufeng?

The King of Hell's Genius Pampered Wife

Chapter 416: Sheng De Hall Is Bankrupt

Hexi muttered to herself for a moment, then she suddenly took a crystal stone out of her bosom and waved it in front of the little manservant. "Tell me what happened in Sheng De Hall and this crystal stone is yours. If what you tell me is very detailed, I'll give you an even larger reward."

When the little manservant saw the crystal stone, his eyes brightened. At once, he lowered his voice and narrated what happened, from start to finish.

Originally, one month before, the matters regarding Sealed Dragon Domain's Secret Territory hadn't been settled for long, when suddenly, rumors spread across the capital about Gu Liufeng.

Some said that Sheng De Hall's master, Gu Liufeng, was actually Murong family's bas*, Murong Liufeng.

Some people also said that, in Sealed Dragon Domain's Secret Territory, this Murong Liufeng was unfilial. Unexpectedly, he used crafty plots and machinations to murder Murong family's elder and head (of the household).

Because of this information, people in Yan Jing city were criticizing Sheng De Hall.

Sheng De Hall, that was originally charitable and prestigious in the people's eyes, suffered under people's boycotting.

Adding onto this fact was that during this period of time, the medicinal ingredients and pills they could obtain became less and less. This also caused their business to slowly become bleaker and bleaker.

The little manservant sighed, "At that time, I was also Sheng De Hall's manservant. The circumstances in the shop were so terrible, it spoiled shopkeeper Zhou. But, one didn't expect that even worse things were yet to come."

"A few days prior, there was suddenly a group of people who charged into Sheng De Hall, wanting to take away our master."

"This group of people called themselves Murong family's people, they came over to clean up the door. At first, the master also fought with this group of people. Sheng De Hall was smashed into pieces, nearly drawing the guards over."

"But suddenly, the fighting stopped. Master didn't retaliate, even a little bit, and was beat senseless by this group of people. Afterward, they even took master away."

A sad expression appeared on the little manservant's face. "Shopkeeper and master were both very good to us, if it was possible, we wouldn't want to leave. But, master is gone, naturally, Sheng De Hall can't continue running."

“Actually, the massacre of Ji Sheng Hall, from one month previous, has yet to be forgotten. Didn’t expect that it started again now, infecting elsewhere. I also need to support my family, so...”

Hexi threw two crystal stones to the little manservant, sending him away.

Then, she stood in the doorway of Sheng De Hall, contemplating. Suddenly, she sensed a faint breath on the second floor.

This breath was very hidden, if it weren’t for Hexi’s meticulous searching, she wouldn’t be able to find anything.

Hexi’s eyes concentrated and her figure suddenly flashed, jumping onto Sheng De Hall’s second floor.

The second floor’s sliding window seemed to have been smashed, half open in the air. As the wind was blowing over, a creaking and crunching sound was heard.

Just when Hexi jumped through the window, she felt an icy sword’s qi hitting her in the face.

This sword’s qi wasn’t very great, but it was filled with the intent of ending in mutual destruction. Furthermore, the might wasn’t small, it scared Hexi a bit.

Fortunately, the Purple Abyss Vine in her hands reacted quickly. Immediately, it flew out, blocking this strike.

Naturally, the Purple Abyss Vine was very angry that Hexi was being attacked. Screaming, it wanted to go and tear the person, attacking Hexi, into pieces and suck the person clean.

But, Hexi’s left hand merely beckoned and pulled the Purple Abyss Vine back. Her eyes were attentively staring at the person hidden in a secret place, saying, “Zhou Yan’an, come out!”

From the darkness, a faintly shivering body slowly walked out. His hand still held onto the flying sword, his eyes were red as he stared at Hexi. With a fighting attitude he said, “Young Master has already been taken away by you guys, what are you guys coming to do! Where is Young Master?! What did you do to him?”

Chapter 417: In The End, What Happened?

Hexi slightly frowned, she used her hand to wipe her face and take off her disguise. Lowering her voice, “Zhou Yan’an, clearly look at who I am!”

“Xi... Xi gongzi!”

There was the sound of something clattering and the flying sword fell to the ground. Zhou Yan’an seemed to be like a deflated ball. His two knees were soft, falling to the floor.

Suddenly, he seemed to have thought of something and his face had a bit of alarm on it. He repeatedly said, “Xi gongzi, no! Genius Doctor Xi, you... You quickly leave, don’t come here again!”

“Before Young Master left, he said to tell you to no longer speak to him. He... He doesn’t want you to be implicated alongside him. That agreement is dropped, Xi gongzi, quickly leave!”

On the contrary, Hexi didn't leave. Instead, she began to speak in a cold tone. "You joke, you let me come and I'll come? Let me leave and I'll leave? I, Xi Yue, will always keep my word on the things I've agreed to. I disdain not returning kindness even more."

"Speak, what happened to Gu Liufeng?"

In a daze, Zhou Yan'an looked at Hexi. The youth in front of him had handsome eyebrows and phoenix eyes. His skin was like jade, clearly he looked like a weak youth. Clearly he was no more than Foundation Establishment stage. But, he always emitted an imposing manner.

It seemed as if, no matter how big a plight it was, he could settle it.

It seemed like, no matter how challenging or dangerous something was, as long as he was there, they would be able to overcome any difficulties.

Zhou Yan'an thought of what happened inside Sealed Dragon Domain's Secret Territory. When confronting the formidable Ice Lotus Fairy, he, as a Gold Core stage martial artist, could only give up all hope and wait to die. But, he would try his best when fighting the Ice Lotus Fairy, even going as far as to injure her.

If... If it was this youth's words, perhaps there's still a chance for Young Master to be saved?

A rush of hope bubbled forth in Zhou Yan'an's heart. He knew very well that this kind of mood was preposterous, but he couldn't help but want to continue to believe in and pray for this mere Foundation Establishment stage youth.

"After exiting the Secret Territory, it was very hard on our Sheng De Hall. Not only was it Murong family, there's also a large power, in the back, that's also suppressing us."

"Inside Yan Jing city, there are many people who spoke of the knews of Young Master, our means of replenishing stock also became an issue. The medicinal hall's business took a devastating decline."

"At the time, Young Master seemed to already have a premonition. He even said, if something happened to him, I should send a letter to Xi gongzi, telling you not to come here at all costs. What Young Master didn't want to happen was to include you."

Hexi frowned and replied, "As far as I know, Murong family only has one high level Gold Core stage martial artist. It was Murong Hai, who died in the Secret Territory. The remaining people, even if there was a Gold Core stage, they wouldn't be Gu Liufeng's opponent."

"If Gu Liufeng had the thought to run, how could there be someone who took him away?"

Zhou Yan'an tearfully wiped at his face. "In the beginning, Young Master beat the people who come into a sorry state. But afterwards, one person among them was the surrogate head of the household for Murong family— Murong Feng. He took out a jade slip to give to Young Master to see."

"After Young Master saw the jade slip, his complexion changed. Then, that Murong Feng also said that if Young Master didn't follow him back, he would announce the contents of the jade slip to everyone. This caused Young Master to not have the face to keep living anymore. Afterwards, Young Master gave up resisting and allowed those people to take him away."

Hexi frowned, "What was inside the jade slip?"

"I don't know either, but it must be something that Young Master wouldn't want others to know, even if he died." Zhou Yan'an recalled Young Master's appearance when he was leaving, it was full of despair. He couldn't help but feel a burst of chilliness in his heart, his voice began to shudder. "Xi gongzi, you... Do you have methods to save Young Master?"

The King of Hell's Genius Pampered Wife

Chapter 418: Eccentricity of Murong Manor

"Young Master has already suffered under their hands for a few days now. This group of beasts, I really don't know how they'll torture Young Master. If I could, I would want to rush up and fight with them, but I'm too weak. I'm a Gold Core stage martial artist, but I don't know any magical techniques... Xi gongzi. I'm begging you... I'm begging you to save Young Master!"

Darkness is falling, there are a sea of stars. The entirety of Yan Jing city was enveloped in a tranquil, hazy ambiance.

Hexi lowered the spiritual power in her body and changed to qing gong. Her whole body resembled a swallow as she traversed across Yan Jing city's streets.

Yan Jing city prevented flying and fighting inside the city. If a martial artist used spiritual power to fly, the imperial city's large-scale spiritual restriction barrier would discover them and the martial artist would also receive a severe punishment.

But Hexi's qing gong couldn't be detected by any spiritual restriction barrier.

She soared high in the air while using the divine knowledge to try and figure out what the information on Murong Family was on the jade slip.

After looking through all the information, Hexi pursed her brows. Her face let out a confused expression.

Suddenly, a small golden dragon's head poked out from her collar and softly said in her ears, "Laoda, what's up? Is it that this Murong Manor is very hard to deal with? How about we call upon Wu Xin, that little fellow?"

Currently, Wu Xin was still in Cang Mountain. Although he wasn't inside Sealed Dragon Domain's Secret Territory, he was somewhere near it.

The spiritual qi there was very advantageous towards cultivators. Coupled with high interest, you could see Cang mountain's entire circumstances at a glance.

Therefore, as long as anyone entered Cang Mountain, Wu Xin would become aware.

Of course, if Hexi encountered any danger on her part, the mind brand that Wu Xin left on her would stir up. He would then immediately rush over and help her.

Hexi shook her head and softly replied, "It's exactly the opposite, from these resources, this Murong manor is possibly weak. But, I'm not sure why. In spite of everything, they're able to become one of the four biggest families in Yan Jing city."

One had to understand that Yan Jing city's four biggest families, most has their own characteristics. Each has their own respective domain.

For example, Nalan manor's Nalan Zhengze's medical expertise level was the highest in Jin Ling kingdom. He was a high level doctor in the imperial family and he was also a member in the Doctor Association. Most of all, the Nine Unequal Wrongs Pill in his hands was the pill everyone in the cultivation world wanted.

Currently, Ouyang family was in Ouyang Zhixiong's control, passed under direct blood descendants, the talented persons in the collateral family withered. It was nearly ten years and there weren't any high level martial artists. But, for many generations, Ouyang family held onto a hundred thousand soldiers. They had Jin Ling kingdom's royal family's deep trust as well as Ouyang Haoxuan's outstanding aptitude. Therefore, their position as one of the biggest families was steady.

After nearly ten years, Huangfu family finally raised a powerful person. In a short while, the clan suddenly had five high level martial artists. Moreover, Huangfu's main elder seemed to be about to advance to Nascent Soul stage. With this sort of peak strength, it caused Huangfu family to jump to one of the four best families. Rather than running neck and neck with the other three major families, it seemed to have power that slightly surpassed the other three.

But only this Murong family caused Hexi to become extremely puzzled.

Although Murong manor also had business in medicine, there were also experts inside the clan who were able to refine pills. But their levels couldn't even match up to Nalan Zhengze's.

And Murong family's Gold Core expert paled so much in comparison, it was pitiful. Only, the two Gold Core stage's clan head and elder died in Sealed Dragon Domain. But even like this, it didn't budge Murong family's position as one of the most powerful families?

The King of Hell's Genius Pampered Wife

Chapter 419: Cloaked Person

Who was Murong family relying on?

By the time Hexi arrived at Murong manor, darkness had already fully settled.

In one leap, Hexi jumped to the highest roof. Just as she was about to come down and explore, she felt her heart tremble. She forgot to breath and let Dan Dan conceal any motion of her spiritual power before she cautiously began to explore.

Murong manor's layout was similar to a siheyuan [1] in her previous life.

They used tall perimeters to surround everything, and on the wall, they had drawn many restrictions. Anyone with spiritual power who entered would stir up the restriction.

Inside the manor, there were patrolling guards everywhere. Every three steps was a whistle and every five was a post. This small Murong manor was guarded with an iron fist.

The Little Golden Dragon couldn't resist using the divine knowledge to say in Hexi's mind, "Not sure how much shady business this Murong manor has hidden away. Ben zun has seen the guards in the imperial palace before, they weren't as tight to this degree!"

In the end, he still hasn't forgot to lick Hexi's boots. "Fortunately, laoda has amazing skills, not a cultivated body nor a cultivated spirit. When pushing through this method, you didn't even touch the barrier. That awesome ability is from your blood, next time call on me, okay?"

But, Hexi had no time to pay attention to the Little Golden Dragon's chatter, her gaze was firmly glued on a nearby courtyard and her expression was grave.

All she saw was a cloaked male, on top of the eaves of that courtyard, speaking to a middle-aged man.

This cloaked person's breath was barely sensible and his spiritual power didn't have any movements. But, by instinct, Hexi was tense from head to toe, a little bit of cold sweat seeped out of her palms.

This cloaked person's strength wasn't simple. He was, at least, several times stronger than Elder Jiang!

Although Hexi hadn't seen this middle aged man before, she could tell by his style of clothing that he was someone from Murong manor. Moreover, his status was definitely high.

But at this moment, the middle aged man had a respectful and fearful appearance when speaking to the cloaked man. Even his eyes were facing the floor, not daring to randomly look around.

Hexi poured her internal power into her ears and began to listen in on the two people's conversation.

"Reporting to superior, all the pills have been refined. Requesting you to check over them."

Whilst speaking, the middle aged man took out a storage bag and respectfully handed it over to the cloaked man.

The cloaked man held the storage bag and quickly checked it over. Then, he replied, pleased, "Very good. I'll definitely pay back Elder Murong for his contributions. When that time comes, there will definitely be many benefits for you."

"As long as Murong family properly handles affairs for us, there will be a day when the head of the four biggest families will be you."

The cloaked man's voice was hoarse and gloomy, but it sounded vague and fuzzy. Clearly, he had altered his voice.

When the middle aged man heard this, he was overjoyed with good news. "Superior Xie, my Murong family developing into how it is today, we definitely won't forget Superior Xie's support and kindness."

The cloaked man satisfyingly nodded his hand and put the storage bag away. Then, he threw another storage bag to him, "This is the second half of the year's material. Properly store this away, you must deliver these goods on time..."

The cloaked man's words hadn't finished yet before his expression suddenly turned cold. Suddenly, he turned his head and looked in Hexi's direction.

At once, the middle aged man nervously asked, "Superior, what's wrong?"

"It's nothing." The cloaked man confusedly shook his head and immediately mumbled, "Don't tell me it was my imagination? It must be my imagination... If there was someone, how can they escape from my divine knowledge's examining?"

Soon after, the cloaked man and middle aged man left together. Hexi, who was concealed on the rooftop, finally let out a loose breath. Immediately after, she unhappily swat the Little Golden Dragon's head.

Chapter 420: Underground Interrogation Room

The Little Golden Dragon knew he was wrong and his horn drooped down. "Laoda, I was wrong. I didn't expect that all black person to be so great, I only spit out a breath. Fortunately, laoda was quick to react and threw me into your space..."

Hexi coldly snorted and didn't pay attention to it. She made sure the cloaked man was far away before jumping off the roof.

Now, the most important thing was to find who was controlling everything and have him lead her to where Gu Liufeng was imprisoned.

In the cold and gloomy underground dungeon a scarlet flame was burning.

Three guards wearing black clothes were currently adding more coal to the fire and placing an iron stove above it.

Following the fire burning more and more, the iron stove let out zi zi sounds. In this dark environment, just hearing these noises would turn your scalp numb.

Murong manor's prisoner interrogation room wasn't big, nor did it have a bloody smell. But, there were shackles, whips, and poisoned stingers on the wall.

The entire prisoner room only had one captive who seemed to be no more than twenty years old.

All four limbs of the youth's body were firmly shackled to shelves by black chains. So much so that even his neck, wrist, and ankles had something similar twisted around them. Their entire person was rigidly stuck to the wall, unable to move even an inch.

The youth's face carried a strange, white mask. His clothes were disheveled, exposing a bruised and scar riddled body.

But, this youth's body was excellent. The youth had broad shoulders, narrow buttocks, and fair skin. With the added scars on his body, he didn't seem to be a sorry figure. Instead, he looked even more sensational.

The guard, who was roasting a flatiron in the fire, looked at the chained up youth several times. In the end, he couldn't help but remark, "This Sixth Young Master is truly very unyielding. He had been tortured for several days and still hasn't uttered a word."

"What Sixth Young Master!" Another guard disdainfully replied, "He's nothing more than a scoundrel who shamelessly betrayed Murong family. What Young Master. He'll soon turn into a lunatic, just like that mother of his."

“I’ve heard this Murong Liufeng has the cultivation of a Gold Core summit stage. I didn’t expect he would be so easily taken into our Murong family... ze ze. Looking at his pitiful and miserable appearance, he doesn’t look like a Gold Core stage at all, he may as well be a normal person!”

Together, the three guards laughed. They were just about to say another round of insults to the prisoner when suddenly, heavy footsteps sounded from the doorway.

The prison door was quickly opened and a tall figure appeared in the doorway. “All of you get out, guard the doorway. I have some words I want to say to my sixth di, alone.”

The youth that appeared in the doorway looked to be about twenty seven or twenty eight years old. His appearance could be said to be handsome and bright, but his eyes were slightly picked up, his nose was curved, and his eyes were flickering. His entire aura seemed to be someone who did good deeds in secret.

When the three guards see the young man, their eyes all held fear in them and they simultaneously greeted him, “Third Young Master.”

The person who arrived was Murong Linfeng, the unsurpassed in talent and rarely seen third generation. At such a young age he was already at the summit of Meridians stage. But, when compared to Gu Liufeng, his advancement speed wasn’t anything to look at.

Murong Linfeng looked at the three guards who were looking at each other in dismay. Immediately, his expression turned cold.

The spiritual power in his hands suddenly rolled and the whip that was boiling in the iron stove suddenly appeared in his hand.
