

King of Hell 711

Chapter 711: Likes Both Men and Women

Nalan Feixue heard Nalan Ziyun's words and immediately laughed and said, "What now? Nalan Hexi, don't you want to save your brother's life?"

He Xiang and Chui Lu knelt in front of Hexi, and they kept crying and kowtowing, "Third Miss, please save young master, have you forgotten? When Mrs. Nalan was about to beat you, young master desperately stood in front of you. Young master even sent to serve you Miss. Miss should remember young master's kindness to you right?"

"If Miss doesn't save young master, you are really worse than the animal; you're not a human at all!"

Standing next to Hexi, Mai Xiang frowned angrily. She wanted to speak, but she was pulled back by Hexi.

Hexi looked at Nalan Ziyun and smiled, "Oh, dear brother, how do you want me to save you?"

Nalan Ziyun coughed twice and quickly said, "Sister, just listen to Nalan Feixue's words and marry Zhu Zhongba. Otherwise, they will really kill me."

"Although King of Hell said that he wanted to marry you, you also heard that it was because King of Hell wanted to attract the attention of the elder sister. He doesn't really like you at all. Zhu Zhongba is different. Zhu Family's power is similar to our Nalan Family. Even if sister marries him, Zhu Family will not dare to disrespect you."

"What's more, Zhu Family is even the richest family in Jin Ling Kingdom. Sister will definitely enjoy endless glory and wealth after marrying. My sister, you should agree to it!"

Even Hexi's mood was calm as usual, she couldn't refrain herself from laughing when she saw their amusing performance.

She shook her head and sighed, "You really deserve to be my good brother. You still concern about my happiness at this time. However, I think second sister wants me to marry me just because she doesn't want to marry Zhu Zhongba right?"

Without waiting for Nalan Feixue to speak, Hexi had continued, "If this is the case, let Nalan Ziyun replace you instead. Anyway, I heard that Zhu Zhongba likes both men and women. Nalan Ziyun is still a young man. In addition to being handsome, everything else is fine except that he can't have children. I believe the Zhu Family will be satisfied too!"

"You—!" Nalan Ziyun's face twisted.

He Xiang and Chui Lu were also dumbfounded. They immediately couldn't help crying and yelling at Hexi, "Third Miss, how can you say this? Young master is your brother! Is your conscience eaten by dogs? Young Master is really wrong to treat you so good!"

"Treat me good?" Hexi burst into laughter. She said with disdain, "Nalan Ziyun, I kindly remind you that if you really want to express the affection between you and me, can you please make the makeup on your face be more realistic and tie the rope on your body tighter? You all really think Nalan Hexi is a fool who you can simply fool around?"

The expression on Nalan Ziyun's face became stiff, and his eyes gradually looked gloomy.

Nalan Feixue sneered impatiently, "I told you that this trick doesn't work, this slut is shameless and selfish, how can he really care about you. Why are we talking so much nonsense? Just take her down!"

Chapter 712: You Are Even More Cruel

He stood up, looked at Hexi with a gloomy gaze, and slowly said, "Sister, I thought I have treated you wholeheartedly during this period of time. I take care of you meticulously, but I didn't expect you to be so cruel. You just watch me die like that. Your brother is so sad!!"

Hexi shook her head and smiled, "Nalan Ziyun, if you don't have enough IQ, don't treat others as a fool like you. With your crappy acting skills, do you really think I'm a fool who can't see through it?"

"Good! Very good! Since you are so ignorant, don't blame me for ignoring the affection between brother and sister!"

As soon as Nalan Ziyun said, he turned his wrist, and a white powder spread silently in the room.

The sound of "thump— thump—" came from the room.

After just a few seconds, except for Nalan Ziyun and Nalan Hexi, as well as the people they brought, everyone else fell soft to the ground.

Including He Xiang and Chui Lu who just pleaded for Nalan Ziyun.

When Mai Xiang fell to the ground, she desperately tried to open her eyes and looked anxiously in Hexi's direction. But in the end, she still couldn't resist the soreness of her body and the blur of consciousness and fell unconscious.

Seeing everyone fainted on the ground, even the annoying Nalan Hexi was lying motionless at the foot of the bed, Nalan Feixue suddenly clapped and laughed happily.

While smiling, she looked at Nalan Ziyun and said with a chuckle, "You are even more cruel. You can even harm your own sister. This bitch was so arrogant just now, but she still fell into your trap."

Nalan Ziyun snorted coldly, "She is just a trash. How can she be worthy of being my sister? She will only ruin my reputation."

Nalan Feixue nodded in satisfaction, "You did a good job. I will report to the elder sister later. She will think of a way to let you join the Doctors Association!"

Hearing the promise of joining the Doctors Association, a scorching light appeared in Nalan Ziyun's eyes.

He suppressed the excitement in his heart, and bowed his head, "Thank you second sister, and also thank elder sister for me! I will never forget the kindness of second sister in the future."

Nalan Feixue waved her hand, stepped forward to Hexi, kicked Hexi's body twice, and said sinisterly, "If it weren't because it would leave some scars on the bride's body, and the fat pig would be unsatisfied when playing with her, I really couldn't wait to tear off the skin of this bitch!"

"Second sister calms down. If we simply kill Nalan Hexi like this, wouldn't we make it too easy for her."

Nalan Ziyun also had an evil smile in his eyes, "Second sister, do you have any instructions from the elder sister? What should we do next?"

Nalan Feixue nodded immediately and said excitedly: "Let's kill these two eye-catching girls first. Elder sister said that these two maids are not from our Nalan Mansion. Who knows they were given to Hexi by the men she seduced? Leaving them by our side may be harmful for us."

Nalan Ziyun remembered that he had been conspired in the courtyard, and a ruthlessness flashed in his eyes. He nodded and laughed, "Elder sister is really thoughtful."

"As for this bitch." Nalan Feixue raised her eyebrows. A gleeful gloating smile appeared on her face, "Get her to my room. Elder sister's drug will take twelve hours for her to wake up. When she wakes up, it will be tomorrow late at night. She would probably be spoiled by Zhu Zhongba by the time, hahaha..."

Chapter 713: The Wedding Ceremony

As Nalan Feixue was about to ask the maids and manservants behind her to lift the people out, she suddenly felt something was wrong.

At the same time, Nalan Ziyun also felt something was wrong.

The originally silent room was even more silent now. It was as if there were only the breathing and voice of the remaining two people.

However, there should still be the guards and maids I brought in this room!

Nalan Feixue thought in surprise and horror, then she turned to look.

What appeared before her was Qing Luan's cold and ordinary face, as well as those eyes full of contempt and disgust.

This... isn't this the maid of Nalan Hexi? Shouldn't she be unconscious?

Nalan Feixue only had such a thought in her mind, and she fainted right away.

Similarly, Nalan Ziyun also fainted without making a sound.

Nalan Ziyun was even thinking that after Nalan Hexi was spoiled by Zhu Zhongba, this bitch would beg him for mercy. By the time, he would join the Doctors Association and get the relics of An Lingyue. The entire Nalan Mansion would belong to him.

Even Nalan Zhengze, he couldn't ignore Nalan Ziyun.

However, as soon as his thoughts turned, he saw Nalan Hexi's half smile eyes with pity and disdain like she was looking at ants. It was as if he would step into the abyss in the next moment.

After that, he completely lost consciousness.

On the second day, the Nalan Mansion was decorated with lanterns and streamers, and it was very lively.

Because of the hurried preparation, and the Zhu Family wanted to marry the pretty wife and let his son go through the consummation, the wedding time was set at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

However, because Zhu Zhongba and Zhu Yiqun were anxious, the sedan chair was already in front of the Nalan Mansion just after noon.

Just in case, Zhu Family also hired a lot of experts to help out, and he invited the Sixth Prince to his house to join the wedding dinner, so as to prevent the Nalan Family from going back on their words.

But the whole process went smoothly beyond their imagination.

Even when the bride was welcomed into the sedan chair, there was no slightest resistance.

Zhu Yiqun was relieved as he thought that Nalan Mansion was afraid of King of Hell, so they didn't dare to make trouble.

Zhu Zhongba's pig face was smiling happily. Thinking that he could marry such a tempting pretty wife, he couldn't help drooling. He wished it was night now so he could consummate now.

After taking the bride, the groom's procession team of the Zhu Family left in a huge commotion. The sound of gongs and drums resounded throughout the street, attracting countless onlookers.

Mrs. Nalan and Nalan Yurong saw the sedan chair leaving, and a cheerful smile appeared on her face.

Nalan Yurong whispered, "Have you confirmed with Feixue that there is nothing wrong with the whole thing right?"

"Yurong rest assured, this is related to Feixue's lifelong event. How could she not do it with all her heart." Mrs. Nalan smiled lightly. She was looking at her eldest daughter with full of pride. "Feixue did it according to your instructions."

"After the consummation in the bridal chamber tonight is over, even if Zhu Zhongba didn't consummate with Nalan Hexi, they still worshipped heaven and earth after all. Even if she wanted to renege it, it would almost be impossible!"

"When the time comes, we will spread the news, saying that Nalan Hexi didn't hesitate to knock Feixue out in order to marry Zhu Zhongba. She even pretended to be Feixue to go into the sedan chair. Hahaha... By the time, Nalan Hexi's reputation will be ruined completely. How would King of Hell still want her!"

Chapter 714: Threw Herself In

She squinted her eyes and said, "Mother, it is not good for you to spread these words. Let Nalan Ziyun spread it. He is the younger brother of Nalan Hexi. Whatever comes out of his mouth, I believe more people will trust him!"

"Yes! Yes!" Mrs. Nalan replied repeatedly. She said excitedly, "Yurong, you are really thoughtful. Nalan Ziyun is also an illegitimate child who can't be present at the proper event. If he wants you to help him joining the Doctors Association, he should at least do something right!"

Nalan Yurong nodded, turned, and walked toward her room.

As she walked, the handsome face of King of Hell, Nangong Yu appeared in her mind, and there was also the tender and gentle gaze when he looked at Hexi.

The hand hanging on her sides suddenly clenched, and her nails were deeply embedded in her palm.

Nalan Hexi, you will soon be ruined and become a woman who is violated. Let's see how you want to seduce my King of Hell by then!

===

The bride was picked up by the Zhu Family long ago, but the banquet at Nalan Mansion did not end.

In the front yard, there were guests who were toasting each other to congratulate the marriage between the Nalan Family and the Zhu Family.

However, these guests said congratulations, but they were full of doubts.

In Yanjing City, who didn't know the virtues of the Zhu Family's unique son. Not to mention that he was fat, he didn't have any cultivation as well. He would most likely stay in the Foundation Establishment stage for the rest of his life.

What about Nalan Feixue? She was already at the Foundation Establishment stage at a young age. Coupled with her beautiful appearance and good family background, what kind of man she couldn't marry? She actually married herself to that pig, Zhu Zhongba?

The strangest thing was that this was obviously not a good marriage, but Mrs. Nalan entertained the guests with a smile. There wasn't any sadness of throwing her daughter into the fire pit.

Nalan Zhengze always had a serious look, but it could be seen that his mood wasn't so bad from his occasionally lifted lips.

Although the guests were full of curiosity and doubts, they were still sensible people. Of course, they wouldn't purposely ask for trouble themselves.

Therefore, the hurriedly prepared wedding banquet between the Nalan Mansion and the Zhu Family turned out to be very lively.

In the entire Nalan Mansion, only one place had been quiet since yesterday.

That was Xin Yue House.

Although the owner of this house did not ask for food today, did not come out to attend the wedding banquet, and there was not even a slight noise in the yard, no one in the Nalan Mansion felt strange. No one even came here to look for the owner of the yard.

However, in the bedroom of Xin Yue House at this time, there was a figure lying on the bed. The breathing was light and shallow.

She obviously didn't move, but the white gauze dress she was wearing suddenly turned into a black tight shirt.

The beautiful figure showed exquisite lines under the tightly wrapped black outfit.

When Hexi was putting on her clothes, she felt a wave of fluctuations in the space.

Someone approached her sleeping body.

Hexi smiled slightly, and her mind went back to her physical body. She quickly sat up from the bed.

Who knows, as soon as she sat up, she ran into a strong embrace.

Nangong Yu's low and smiling voice sounded above her head, "My little girl is so enthusiastic. She immediately throws herself into me when she sees me."

"Get up!" Hexi pushed him away, laughing and cursing, "Stop talking nonsense."

Nangong Yu didn't let go. He bent down to hug her horizontally.

Chapter 715: Annoyed

But at this time, she was like a petty doll in Nangong Yu's arms. She was almost entirely embraced by Nangong Yu's arms.

Hexi's face blushed. She struggled and said, "We are going to do serious matter today, you... you let me down quickly!"

Nangong Yu has a serious face, "For me, getting in touch with my princess and cultivating feelings is the most important thing."

Hexi: .....I really want to slap him!

Seeing Hexi getting angry, Nangong Yu finally kissed her on her cheek and put her down.

Just as soon as he put her down, he saw the girl's appearance under the moonlight outside the window, and his face looked serious immediately.

Tonight, Hexi did not wear a human skin mask, revealing her original exquisite and beautiful face. Although she still wore a man's hair bun, she couldn't hide her stunning appearance at all.

Hexi was wearing an ordinary black costume that tightly wrapped her body.

The tight costume highlighted her slender body shape.

Obviously she was just a young girl, but she was already so tempting; so enchanting.

If she grows a little bit, what kind of unparalleled beauty she would become?

Nangong Yu stared straight at Hexi, and he didn't even hear Hexi speaking to him.

After a long time, he breathed out abruptly, hugged the person into his arms, and muttered, "In the future, you are not allowed to dress like this in front of other men!"

Hexi was startled at first; she didn't understand what he meant.

When she reacted, she was dumbfounded, "King of Hell, you know that I'm either an ugly person in front of other people, or I dress up as a man. Do you think everyone has the same habit of liking man like you?"

Hexi hadn't called Nangong Yu as King of Hell for a long time.

When she called last time, it was alienation and resistance, but now it had become flirtatious.

Nangong Yu was very satisfied with it. He laughed and said beside her ear, "Xi'er, what you said is right. For you, I'm willing to be rumored as liking man. Xi'er, you must be responsible for it!"

Hexi was amused by him. She looked up at his handsome face, and her eyes were flickering. She said, "You came so hurriedly, I don't have enough time to disguise my face and wear a corset. You wait for a while. We will set off after I'm done with it."

She would never admit that she wanted Nangong Yu to see her beautiful side.

Especially after experiencing yesterday incident, Nalan Yurong said that she was an ugly monster, shriveled daylily, and something else in front of Nangong Yu.

Hexi knew for the first time that she would care about this too.

She cared about how she looked like in front of the person she loved.

Nangong Yu didn't think so much about the nonsense that an irrelevant woman like Nalan Yurong said, he didn't even hear a word of her.

"Forget it, you don't have to disguise your face anymore." Nangong Yu hugged Hexi without letting go, and he chuckled, "Anyway, only the two of us will act together tonight. Only I can see the true face of Xi'er."

He held up the girl's tender cheeks, lowered his head, and gently kissed the soft lips, "All this belongs to me; me alone."

In short, when the two of them were ready to intrude into the Nalan Zhengze's study room, it was already half an hour later.

Chapter 716: So Amazing

At this time, Nalan Mansion was at the most lively timing on the banquet, so Nalan Zhengze was in the front hall.

However, Nalan Zhengze did not relax in the guard of the study room.

Even more than usual, there seemed to be twice as many guards patrolling around the study room.

However, the guards of the mere Nalan Mansion were of course a piece of cake for Hexi and Nangong Yu.

After a while, these guards all fainted to the ground, sleeping like dead pigs.

Hexi took out the silver needle, poked the heads of these guards a few times, and asked Nangong Yu to help them up and maintain a standing posture.

"After another incense stick time, they will wake up, but they won't remember what happened."

Hexi retracted the silver needle and chuckled lightly, "So even if someone comes to this study room halfway, they won't find anything unusual."

Someone of the Immortal Realm knew such methods of controlling human memory and perception temporarily, but they couldn't do it as easy as Hexi.

The girl in front of her, in the field of medical skills, seemed to have reached the top. Nothing really seemed difficult for her.

Nangong Yu lowered his eyebrows, concealing the pampering and hot desire in his eyes. A gentle smile appeared at the corner of his mouth.

Such a Xi'er, if she shines brightly one day, she will definitely become the existence that many people covet and desire right?

However, even if those people covet it, it's useless, because I will definitely guard Hexi by my side.

After dealing with the guards, the two quickly entered the study room.

As soon as Hexi entered the room, Nangong Yu's gaze fell on one of the corners of the study room.

Seeing Nangong Yu walking in that direction, Hexi immediately grabbed his hand, "This array is very weird. As long as anything gets closer, it seems that Nalan Zhengze will feel it. Even if it's something without spiritual fluctuation, it is no exception."

Nangong Yu smiled slightly. He held Hexi's soft little hand and pulled her forward.

Just as he was about to approach the range of the array, Nangong Yu paused and formed a unique symbol in his hand.

Then, a pure black spiritual power spread from his fingertips to the every corner of the room.

As the pure black spiritual power permeated, the vague feeling of something watching over them disappeared instantly.

The array in front of them was still strange, but Xi'er had a feeling that no matter what they did, Nalan Zhengze would no longer sense it.

She looked at the black spiritual power that had dissipated in the air, and she couldn't help but widen her mouth, exclaiming, "Dark spiritual power?"

Nangong Yu scratched the tip of his nose and smiled braggingly, "Now that you find your man is amazing?"

Hexi's mouth opened for a long time, and she didn't even react to refute Nangong Yu's flirt.

Because the dark spiritual power... was really amazing!

Hexi remembered that there were many powerful forces in nature, wind, rain, thunder, ice, frost, and frost. But all in all, these forces were derived from the five original elements, gold, wood, water, fire and earth.

Therefore, the most powerful thing between heaven and earth was the power of the five elements. The purer the spiritual power of the five elements, the stronger it was.

Chapter 717: Breaching the Array

Dark spiritual power, if it was cultivated to a certain extent, could absorb and transform other spiritual power for its own use. Even in close combat, other spiritual power would be restrained by dark spiritual power and couldn't be used.

It was not an exaggeration to say that dark spiritual power was the nemesis of all other spiritual powers.

I didn't expect Nangong Yu to possess the unique dark spiritual power in the Miluo Continent?

Nangong Yu looked at her who was dumbfounded, and the smile in his eyes was even greater. He showed a pampering look, "Silly girl, your abilities are so special, so rare, and there are so many people coveting my baby. If your man isn't strong enough, how can I protect you?"

Hexi's face blushed, and she finally recovered. She coughed and turned her eyes aside, "I... I see this array is quite strange. Can you really breach the array?"

Having said that, suspiciousness appeared on his face again.

If I remember correctly, Nangong Yu should be in his early twenties. He has reached the Nascent Soul stage at a young age. No, maybe higher than the Nascent Soul stage. He also established the Iron Kirin and trained Qing Long, Wu Xing, and other subordinates.

Then, he still has time to learn about arrays?

What is in this man's head? Is he giving a chance for ordinary people to live?

However, Hexi had never thought that her own cultivation had progressed from a mortal without spiritual power to the peak of Meridians Stage in just a few months. That was even more impossible for ordinary people.

Nangong Yu laughed and walked slowly into the array.

His steps after entering the array were strange as if he was stepping on the direction of the five elements and eight trigrams.

Every few steps he took, he would condense the spiritual power (ordinary spiritual power) on the array eye.

When the array eye was in contact with Nangong Yu's spiritual power, it would emit a faint light. The entire array would fluctuate, even the air in the study room seemed to be distorted.

After about the time for an incense, Nangong Yu took the last step and flicked his slender fingers.

Hexi only heard a "ding" sound and the array that had made her feel threatened instantly disappeared.

As the array disappeared, Nangong Yu flickered to a mahogany shelf, grabbed an inconspicuous vase on it, and turned it left and right.

Soon, a mechanical sound rang in the room.

The originally tightly-fitted mahogany shelf slowly separated to the two sides, revealing a bottomless passage.

Nangong Yu and Hexi glanced at each other, and they flashed into the passage without hesitation.

And as the two disappeared, the mahogany shelf moved slowly and closed tightly.

Even the array that had been destroyed had been restored to its original state.

Hexi looked around and found that he was in a dark passageway, but crystal stones for lighting were hung on the walls on both sides, so she could vaguely see the road ahead.

She remembered Nangong Yu's actions just now, and couldn't help but exclaimed, "That array is breached just like this?"

She and Little Golden Dragon were now considered to have the strength of the Gold Core Stage, but facing this array, they always feel that there was a kind of inexplicable fear.

Hexi knew a little bit about the simple array, which he learned from Old Man Xu Mi's Record of Everything.

But it was just the entry level.

But this entry level made her realize the wonder and power of the array.

Martial artists, who were not high in cultivation and didn't have powerful strength, could exert the strength that was a hundred times stronger than themselves after mastering array.

Chapter 718: Who Is Jealous?

Of course, the precious materials and crystal stones that were required to arrange and maintain a complex array were unimaginable.

Nangong Yu nodded and said, "This array should have evolved from an ancient array. Many complicated arrays are removed from it. Relatively speaking, it is not difficult to crack. At best, it can only be regarded as a fifth grade array."

"If the original array here is now, it won't be so easy for me to crack it."

Hexi's eyes looked yearning for it. She couldn't help but said, "Array is really wonderful, I also want to learn."

Nangong Yu rubbed her head and smiled pampering, "Okay, I will teach you!"

The two followed the passage all the way and soon came to a place similar to a pill refining room.

The most conspicuous thing in this room was not the pill furnace and the table, but the portrait hanging behind the table.

The woman in the portrait had a cold expression, but her face and eyes were beautiful. She was Nalan Hexi's biological mother – An Lingyue.

Nangong Yu saw the portrait of An Lingyue, and his face showed a clear look of surprise.

After that, he stared at the portrait blankly. He was in a daze for a long while; he couldn't even hear Hexi calling him.

Hexi was a little unhappy inexplicably, and she leaned close to Nangong Yu's ear and said quietly, "Why? Isn't she beautiful?"

Nangong Yu suddenly recovered, and he immediately reflexively said, "Xi'er is the most beautiful in my heart."

"Cut it!" Hexi snorted coldly, "I saw you were in a daze looking at it. You just almost didn't drool. You still say that she is not pretty?"

Nangong Yu looked at the little girl in front of him staring at him with her nose wrinkled, and he couldn't help laughing.

He hugged the little girl in his arms, pinched her nose, and smiled very happily and sweetly, "Xi'er, you are so cute! You can even be jealous of a portrait, but how you look like when you are jealous!"

Seeing Hexi getting angry, he quickly said, "Don't worry, except Xi'er, other women look the same to me. Even if they stand naked in front of me, I won't be moved."

Hexi wanted to sullenly refute his "who is jealous", but she couldn't help smiling.

Nangong Yu felt that she was more beautiful the more he looked at her. He lowered his head and kissed her lips, then he continued, "Xi'er, this woman is a bit familiar to me as if I have seen her before? Hmm... it seems I saw her a long time ago."

Hexi said, "Don't think about it, she is Nalan Hexi's mother An Lingyue, and you have seen her portrait in Hundred Herb Mist, so it's normal to look familiar!"

Nangong Yu shook his head and said, "The portrait of An Lingyue in Hundred Herb Mist has gentler eyebrows. At that time, I just thought she was like you, so I didn't think much about it. But now I see this painting, but I always feel a little familiar. Where did I see it?"

"Don't think about it! There are similar people and similar things. Maybe you saw it wrong?"

Nangong Yu nodded thoughtfully, "Maybe!"

The two wandered around the room for a while, and they soon found another secret passage leading to the deeper underground.

Hexi had a hunch that the things hid in this secret path was the real secret of Nalan Zhengze.

The two concealed their traces and walked quickly into the secret passage.

Chapter 719: Beastly Boy

Nangong Yu took out the lighting crystal stone and took Hexi's hand step by step down.

The closer to the depths of the secret road, the more obvious the noise was. There was a disgusting rancid smell.

After walking for a long time in such a place, their vision finally became clear.

Hexi was about to pick up the crystal stone to illuminate the surrounding environment, then she suddenly felt a breath quickly approaching her body.

Purple Abyss Vine flew out immediately, tangling toward the object that was close to her.

And Nangong Yu moved faster than her. He launched the natural silk to entangle the figure who was coming.

He stretched out his hand and hugged Hexi into his arms. The flying sword in his hand was cast out, stabbing toward the figure that wanted to attack Hexi.

“Wait!” Hexi quickly stopped Nangong Yu’s action.

From the information reported by Purple Abyss Vine, the breath that just attacked her seems to be a person.

There was no killing intent on this person, and he didn’t have the power to threaten her.

Hexi took out more lighting crystal stones to illuminate the place in front of her.

However, when she saw the sight in front of her clearly, she took a deep breath.

This was a cave that was only a dozen square meters in size. There was a disgusting rancid smell in the cave.

Because there was a wooden barrel in the corner of the cave, and the wooden barrel was filled with excrement.

The ground of the cave was not clean. There were mud, blood, and food.

The food had been rotten for many days. It emitted a disgusting smell and attracted many insects.

And what shocked Hexi the most was the person who attacked her just now.

Looking at the size and bones, this should be a young boy.

It was just that this young man was naked. He crouched on the ground like an animal with four limbs on the ground.

His body was covered with mud, leftovers from food, and even smelly excrement.

A few small bugs crawled up and down on his naked body, gnawing at his flesh, but he didn’t notice it.

An iron helmet was put on the boy’s face, completely covering his face. Only two eyes were exposed.

Those eyes were staring straight at her at this moment, exuding a purple light.

That’s right, they were a pair of completely purple eyes which were almost exactly the same as the purple that appeared in her eyes when she was emotional.

However, such a pair of phoenix eyes that were extremely similar to her eyes showed a dull and ignorant expression.

He was like a domesticated beast that was well-behaved, obedient, and wouldn't resist. However, he was like a walking corpse without self-consciousness.

Looking at those purple eyes, Hexi's heart twitched slightly. This person gave her an inexplicably depressing heartache.

She stepped forward and slowly approached the boy.

Seeing her coming, the young man seemed to be frightened, desperately trying to retreat.

However, Purple Abyss Vine and natural silk were wrapped around him, so he couldn't move at all.

So there was a bit of fear in those purple eyes.

Hexi waved her hand to call back Purple Abyss Vine; Nangong Yu also took back the natural silk in time.

Once the boy was free, he quickly fled back to the corner with his hands and feet on the ground.

Chapter 720: Who Exactly Is He?

Only then did Hexi discover that there were chains around his neck and limbs. The thin chains strangled his neck and limbs, tearing off his flesh.

Old and new scars of varying thickness were all over his body. It looked horrifying.

Hexi clenched her hands abruptly. Her nails deeply pierced into her palms.

She didn't know what kind of emotion was surging in her heart.

Regarding Nalan Family and Nalan Zhengze, Hexi had always maintained an indifferent attitude. Apart from Nalan Feixue and Nalan Ziyun, the culprits who hurt Nalan Hexi, she did not have the intention to retaliate against others.

But now, seeing this young man who was tortured in the underground by Nalan Zhengze, she felt a strong killing intent in her heart.

Who is this boy?

Hexi walked slowly toward the young man lying on the ground, trying to restrain her aura as much as possible.

The young boy's purple eyes stared at her while blinking. There was confusion in his eyes due to longing; there was fear due to yearning, but his trembling body kept retreating.

Just when Hexi was about to approach the young boy, Nangong Yu suddenly frowned.

He quickly appeared next to Hexi, and took her into his arms, making a gesture to hint that someone was coming.

Hexi's heart was stunned. She quickly kept all the lighting crystal stones into her arms. She and Nangongyu jumped to a corner of the cave and hid their body.

Losing the brief light and Hexi's figure, the boy lying on the ground became excited.

The chain that restrained his neck trembled violently, making a ringing sound.

There was also a low and dull sound, like the cry of a dying beast.

Hexi finally knew why the voice she heard above was so dull because the boy's face was covered by an iron cover.

Hearing the desperate and sorrowful roar of the young man, it seemed as if he was calling.

Hexi's body trembled for a while, and she almost couldn't help jumping down and telling the boy that she was still here.

Nangong Yu quickly hugged her in her arms and whispered in her ear, "Xi'er, don't worry, I'm here!"

The man's low voice sounded in her ears. The clear breath filled the tip of his nose as if to say over and over again: no matter what you want to do, I will accompany you until it is over.

The original fierce heartbeat slowly subsided, Hexi stretched out her arm to embrace Nangong Yu, took a deep breath, and condensed all her aura.

At almost the same time, there was a slight sound of footsteps in the secret passage.

Immediately afterward, the light in the small cave lit up, and Nalan Zhengze's suspicious face was soon reflected.

Nalan Zhengze himself couldn't tell why, he always felt uneasy at the dinner tonight.

Logically, I know about Nalan Yurong's plan. I also let someone monitor it by the side to ensure that nothing went wrong.

Nalan Hexi was married into the Zhu Family instead of Nalan Feixue. After her chastity is ruined by Zhu Zhongba, so what if King of Hell still wants to marry her again? Would he really want a woman who was ruined by the other?

In this way, Nalan Hexi still can't escape from my hands, and An Lingyue's relic will sooner or later belong to me.

After thinking about all the plans, the plans should be flawless.

But at today's wedding banquet, he always felt like sitting on pins and needles as if something bad was happening.

Nalan Zhengze quickly thought of his study room and the great secret hidden under the study room.
