Chapter 761: Vicious Woman

Hexi pushed aside the table, stood up, and said leisurely, "Who spares whose life, it's still uncertain yet!"

"Okay! Very good! I will let you know today what is to die without an intact corpse!"

Nalan Yurong took out a pure black magic weapon similar to a compass as she spoke.

As spiritual power was injected into the magic artifact, a cloud of black mist slowly formed above her head. Then, it became larger and larger.

With the appearance of the black cloud, the light in the entire room became dark. The air was also cold.

The hole that was hit by the black mountain panther was also filled by the black cloud.

In the room, the black cloud shrouded everyone, including Hexi and Nalan Yurong.

In the next moment, a patter of rain began to fall below the black cloud.

However, what was frightening was that these raindrops were not transparent water, but black liquid.

The servants of Nalan Mansion, who was fighting with Qing Luan, suddenly screamed horribly when they encountered the falling raindrops.

As soon as their clothes touched the raindrops, they were completely corroded.

And their skin, when it touched the raindrops, it made a sizzling noise as if it was burning.

In just a few moments, these martial artists of the Meridians Stage were wounded, and their bodies were covered with bloody holes corroded by the black rain.

"Miss, save me, save us! Give me the cure!"

Those people rushed toward Nalan Yurong. Although she was also in the rain, the rain seemed to be rejected by the compass in her hand and avoided her, so she had not suffered any damage so far.

Seeing the miserable appearances of those servants calling for her help, Nalan Yurong didn't see the slightest pity in his eyes.

She ruthlessly avoided the martial artists who rushed over and said coldly, "You can die under this [Death Rain Disc] peerless magic weapons, it is your honor. You should rest in peace!"

"Nalan Yurong, you vicious woman, we came here to help you!"

"Nalan Yurong, how can you treat us this way!!"

Nalan Yurong snorted, "After I smash Nalan Hexi into pieces, I will bury you all well. It is an honor for you all to die for me."

After speaking, the compass in her hand turned abruptly, and the patter of rain suddenly became denser.

Even Mrs. Nalan, who was overturned in a corner and unconscious, was also affected.

It was just that she woke up in a muddle-headed manner, but she didn't seem to feel that half of her body was corroded by the rain at all. She even made a silly laughter. She had completely lost her mind.

Qing Luan opened the defensive magic weapon at the first moment when she noticed that the rain had fallen, protecting Hexi and the three little ones under it.

But seeing the horrible state of Nalan Yurong's guards, she still frowned, "Miss, this rain is indeed a bit powerful. I can already feel the magic weapon being corroded, and its spiritual power has become thinner and thinner. I'm afraid I can't hold for long! Miss, you run away first. I will stay here and hold..."

"Run? I have [Death Rain Disc] in my hand, where can Nalan Hexi, a bitch, escape? Hahahaha!"

Nalan Yurong laughed arrogantly, "Nalan Hexi, I advise you to stop struggling. The poison in this Death Rain Disc is mixed into the rain. It was refined by my master personally. So far, no one had survived after contacting this poison!"

Chapter 762: Selfishness And Indifference

Nalan Yurong stared at Hexi closely, eager to see the expression of fear and pleading on her face. She continued, "People who have been poisoned will see their flesh and skin melt bit by bit. Even if you get one drop of it, it will spread nonstop until your whole body corrodes. You will die in horrible pain. Nalan Hexi, if you are afraid, it is better to kill yourself now, lest you die without an intact body, hahaha..."

Hexi glanced at Mrs. Nalan on the side, raised her eyebrows, and said, "Your own mother has also been poisoned by this virulent poison. Are you not afraid of her poison spreading and die?"

Nalan Yurong snorted; her eyes full of disgust, "Now this Nalan Family is not a help to me, but a burden. I'm a disciple of Master Xukong and a member of the Doctors Association. If people know that my mother is a lunatic, how can I gain a foothold in the Doctors Association in the future?"

"Not to mention, my sister even married a stupid pig. They will only hinder me, hmph! When I get Jiuqu Lingshen Pill's prescription, Nalan Family doesn't need to exist anymore. Tell me, will I care about the life and death of a crazy woman?"

Even Qing Luan was ruthless, she was stunned by the selfishness and indifference of Nalan Yurong.

For the sake of her own future, this woman completely disregards the life and death of her mother and sister.

Such a woman even dares to think of marrying my master, and it is disgusting to hear it!

Nalan Yurong glanced at Qing Luan's magic weapon that was being corroded more and more, and she couldn't help laughing, "Nalan Hexi, I see how long you can hold on, I'll stand here, waiting to see your pitiful scarred body."

"Oh, is it?" Hexi raised the corner of her mouth, and her eyes were filled with disdain. She said slowly, "It's just a mere heart-corroding mushroom, thousand gold vine, poison arrow weed... the poison that is configured, wants to kill me.?Haha, Nalan Yurong, are you looking down on others too much, or are you too stupid?"

"Wh... what?" Nalan Yurong's eyes widened in disbelief, "You... how do you know that?"

Before she finished speaking, Hexi took out a bottle of powder and gave it to Little Golden Dragon.

Little Golden Dragon smiled immediately after hearing Hexi's words. It swallowed the medicine powder, then it started spraying water against the black cloud.

After a while, the black cloud was still black, but the raindrops had turned into a transparent color, and there was no more corrosive effect.

Nalan Yurong felt that there was no more corrosive toxicity in the falling rain, and she couldn't help screaming, "What did you do?"

Hexi looked at her disdainfully with a faint smile, "Can't you see what I have done? You dare to use this little trick to embarrass yourself? You even say that no one can cure explain it? Hehe, the legendary Master Xukong is just so so!"

Nalan Yurong couldn't believe her eyes.

Is this ugly woman in front of me really Nalan Hexi? Isn't she a coward and incompetent trash that let others trample on her? Why can she crack the poison made by my master?

When did Nalan Hexi become so scary?

Chapter 763: Trump Card

Could it be that the relic made that trash, Nalan Hexi, so powerful?

Perhaps His Royal Highness King of Hell would look at this bitch differently because he wanted to get the relic in her hands?

Thinking of this, Nalan Yurong couldn't help but get excited. If I get the relic in Nalan Hexi's hand, does it mean that His Royal Highness King of Hell will look at me differently?

Nalan Yurong took a deep breath, put away Death Rain Disc, and looked straight at Hexi, "Nalan Hexi, you were still a trash a year ago, but now you can even cure my master's poison. Tell me honestly, is there any treasure in your hands?"

Hexi looked at her as if she was looking at an idiot, "What are you? You think I'll do as you ask?"

Nalan Yurong's face was distorted for a while. What she hated most was Nalan Hexi's indifferent and contemptuous eyes like she didn't put her in her eyes at all.

I'm Nalan Yurong, the proudest daughter son of the Nalan Family. How can Nalan Hexi look down on me? How?!

Nalan Yurong gritted her teeth and said fiercely, "Sister, let me give you an advice. It's best not to use the little bit of chips in your hand to show off your power. You think, with your half-year experience in the poisoning method, you can compare with my master? If I'm serious, you can't even fight back."

"If you are sensible, hand over the treasure in your hand, and I can still let you die with an intact corpse. Otherwise..."

“Otherwise?” Hexi chuckled lightly, “Elder Sister might as well take out all your trump cards, Third Sister really wants to try them!”

According to the rumors, Master Xukong should have represented the pinnacle of the Miluo Continent’s doctor community, right?

What Hexi said was not bluffing. She really wanted to see how good this another world medicine and poison master was.

“Good! Good! Good! Since you are looking for death, then I will fulfill you!!”

As soon as Nalan Yurong spoke, the Death Rain Disc appeared in her hand again, and it was spinning quickly.

It was just that this time it was not black clouds that appeared, but blood-red thunderclouds the size of a fist.

The thunderclouds floated in the air with crackling noises one by one, and the air was faintly filled with a bloody and foul smell.

As the thunderclouds contacted a table in Xin Yue House, a “ping-pong” noise sounded.

Immediately afterward, the table seemed to have been burnt down by fire, turning into powder in the blink of an eye.

Qing Luan next to Hexi took a deep breath and murmured: “This is [Beauty Melt Bone], one of Miluo Continent’s top poisons. It is said that as long as it is a martial artist who has not reached the Nascent Soul stage, one drop is enough to kill the martial artist. His bones and flesh will shrink quickly, then he will turn to ashes in a short time.”

Nalan Yurong laughed when she heard Qing Luan’s words, “You are quite knowledgeable! This is one of the most powerful poisons developed by the Doctors Association. I didn’t want to use this to deal with you. It’s not because [Beauty Melt Bone] is rare and precious, but... [Beauty Melt Bone] let you die too quickly and comfortably, I really don’t want that to happen, hahaha...”

Qing Luan’s eyes were obviously anxious, and she said in a tremble, “Miss, what should I do now? How about I protect you to rush out desperately?”

Chapter 764: Beauty Melt Bone

However, Hexi’s face did not have the panic that she should have.

She looked at the fist size thunderclouds floating in the air with a half smile, and her water spiritual power turned into filaments and probed out, touching these thunderclouds seemingly.

The water spiritual power was swallowed up as soon as it hit the thundercloud.

But Hexi’s face showed a faint smile.

“Miss, don’t hesitate anymore, let’s go!” Qing Luan shouted anxiously.

Nalan Yurong laughed triumphantly when she heard Qing Luan's words, "Do you think you can still leave now? Stop dreaming?"

"Of course we can't go." Hexi sneered. "But why should we go? Qing Luan, you haven't seen my way of healing and poisoning right?"

Qing Luan said, "Huh?". Her eyes widened in surprise.

Little Golden Dragon and Little Egg, who had been silent for a while, started chatting immediately. They weren't anxious at all.

"Boss, let this shameless arrogant old woman see how good you are!"

"Yes, that's right! My mom is very skillful. Who does she think she is? Mom can defeat her in an instant! What kind of stuff is this? My mother can solve it in minutes!"

Qing Luan kept her mouth wide open. She said in her heart: This is [Beauty Melt Bone], Miluo Continent's one of the most poisonous toxin, even Wu Xing will have a trouble dealing with it. Why are Miss and her spiritual pets so calm?

As she was thinking about it, a purple vine appeared in Hexi's hand.

The purple leaves on the vine swayed gently as if expressing excitement.

Hexi reached out and touched the top of Purple Abyss Vine, and she chuckled, "Don't worry, this [Beauty Melt Bone] is still kind of powerful. If you just go on it like that, maybe you will be corroded into ashes. Let me coat with a protective film on your vines first."

After speaking, Hexi's palm had some light golden powder on her palm. She stretched out her hand and gently wiped it on the vines of Purple Abyss Vine. The original purple vines were dyed with glittering color.

Purple Abyss Vine suddenly made a rustling sound as if expressing uncomfortable and itchy.

Little Egg clapped and laughed, "Aunty Little Purple has turned golden. She looks good. Shouldn't we call her Auntie Little Golden from now on?"

Purple Abyss Vine suddenly became even more unhappy, shaking her leaves in protest.

Hexi patted it and smiled, "Okay, go! Go and swallow up all the energy in those bloody thunderclouds. When you deal with these thunderclouds, I will remove the golden powder for you. The energy in these thunderclouds is delicious and suitable for you. If you don't eat it, I will destroy them all~"

Purple Abyss Vine immediately stopped protesting. She raised her long purple... ugh, purple-gold vines, excitedly rushing toward the nearest few thunderclouds.

Seeing Hexi's actions and the purple vines that appeared out of thin air, Nalan Yurong couldn't help but sneered contemptuously, "Idiot, you think this little demonic plant can resist the corrosion of the [Beauty Melt Bone], hahaha, stop dreaming!"

Seeing that the bloody thunderclouds gathered more and more, they had already surrounded Nalan Hexi, sealing off her way to retreat. Nalan Yurong couldn't help being more excited, "Soon, you will become a pile of ashes under [Beauty Melt Bone]..."

Chapter 765: Open Your Eyes

The purple vine went inside the bloody thunderclouds. But it didn't turn into ashes by the toxin, it even devoured the thunderclouds completely.

After swallowing the thunderclouds, the excited main vine of Purple Abyss Vine trembled.

It's so delicious! It is even more delicious than those demonic plants in Hundred Herb Mist!

After Purple Abyss Vine swallowed a thundercloud, it turned around excitedly and started to swallow the second, third...

As Nalan Yurong and Qing Luan were astounded, Purple Abyss Vine swallowed up the bloody thunderclouds created by Death Rain Disc in just a few seconds.

"Impossible! Impossible! How is this possible?!" Nalan Yurong kept backing away while screaming, "This is [Beauty Melt Bone] can even devour the rank six demonic plant completely. Why... why can a vine swallow thunderclouds?"

Qing Luan's face was also full of disbelief. She couldn't believe her eyes at all.

When she looked at Hexi again, her gaze was not just worship, but the fanatic's enthusiasm for watching an idol.

Our princess is really amazing! No wonder even Qing Long, who always alienates himself, said that the only person on Miluo Continent who can heal master is our princess!

When Purple Abyss Vine returned to Hexi, all the vines seemed to become fatter. They couldn't even shake.

But she was still shaking her leaves happily, and there was a grunting sound from time to time as if it was belching.

Hexi didn't know whether to laugh or cry as she felt the excitement of Purple Abyss Vine. She gently touched her vines, and the golden powder instantly disappeared without a trace.

Nalan Yurong stared at Hexi. Finally, her arrogant voice seemed to have a tremor of fear, "Nalan Hexi, who are you? Why can you neutralize the [Beauty Melt Bone]? What did your demonic plant just do?"

Hexi raised her eyebrows and looked at her with a light smile. Her eyes were full of seeming contempt, "Nalan Yurong, don't you want to know how capable am I? Today I will open your eyes and let you know what is the real poison."

As soon as she spoke, Hexi's wrist turned over, and dozens of thin invisible needles appeared on her fingertips.

Unlimited silver needles were launched toward Nalan Yurong. The silver needle was so slender that it was almost invisible, but Nalan Yurong seemed to be able to feel the cold and bloody smell in the air.

Extreme fear surged in Nalan Yurong's heart.

Hexi can even crack [Beauty Melt Bone], how terrifying it is if she uses her poison? If I'm poisoned by this poison, wouldn't I be utterly dead?

No! I'm so young, so beautiful, and so talented, how can I die?!

Nalan Yurong was panicked, but the invisible needles were in front of her.

Her mind went blank. She grabbed Mrs. Nalan by the side and put her in front without thinking.

"Ahh—!" Mrs. Nalan who was originally crazy made a sharp scream. All of the invisible needles landed on her body.

Later, she was quickly thrown aside like some terrible garbage by Nalan Yurong.

Mrs. Nalan's body twitched violently, and her cloudy eyes suddenly became clear.

Chapter 766: Shameless Speech

Nalan Yurong was looking at Nalan Hexi with horror and resentment, but she batted an eye on her biological mother.

Mrs. Nalan opened her mouth with difficulty and muttered, "Yurong, you... how can you..."

However, before she finished speaking, she suddenly let out a painful moan.

"Itchy! It's so itchy!"

Immediately afterward, she began to scratch her whole body frantically; her face, neck, hands, and even the clothes she had worn on her body were torn apart vigorously. Her long nails scratched into the flesh without stopping!

Only a moment later, Mrs. Nalan's entire face was badly mutilated with flesh and blood from her scratches. There was almost no intact skin left on her whole body.

Especially when she couldn't catch her back, she kept rubbing and rolling on the ground, making a stern sound in her mouth; the horror and miserable was indescribable.

Nalan Yurong was shocked by the scene in front of her. She imagined that if the person who had been poisoned just now was herself, wouldn't all her beauty and appearance be ruined?

She took a deep breath. Her gaze looking at Nalan Hexi was not just hate, but a deep fear.

Hexi looked at her with a sneer, "Nalan Yurong, you just asked me just now whether I should get god's retribution for hitting my stepmother. Nalan Yaru is your mother, you actually used her as a shield, aren't you afraid of god's retribution?"

"So... what about that?" Nalan Yurong gritted her teeth; her voice was trembling, but her tone was full of indifferent, "I'm the best child of Nalan Family and the hope for the future of Nalan Family. She is just a crazy madam without any power. There is no need to think about whether whose life is more important."

“She is my mother. She naturally has to give up her life for me! What’s more, if you didn’t try to kill me, how did my mother end up like this? Nalan Hexi, you vicious bitch, you dare to complain that to me first?”

Nalan Yurong said with great joy, but she did not see tears in the eyes of her mother who was rolling on the ground. Her eyes were full of disappointment.

Hexi was amused by the speech of this “elder sister”.

If she wants to kill me, I can’t fight back? If I fight back, I’m a vicious bitch? The logic of the Nalan Family is still shameless!

Hexi was about to speak when suddenly Nalan Zhengze’s majestic voice came from outside the door, “What happened? What’s so noisy? I can even hear it in the front yard?”

Xin Yue House had just broken the roof and there was another fierce fight. Of course, the people at Nalan Mansion would hear the movement. Moreover, Hexi had no intention of covering it up.

Nalan Yurong saw Nalan Zhengze as if she had seen a savior, and said with sobs, “Father, save mother quickly. Nalan Hexi actually poisoned her and threatened to kill me!”

Nalan Zhengze, who had just entered the room, immediately looked at his bloody wife, who was rolling and wailing on the ground, and he was shocked.

He looked at Nalan Hexi viciously, “You animal, you dare to attack your stepmother, today I will not let you go!”

A triumphant smile flashed in Nalan Yurong’s eyes, but she cried, “Father, you quickly find a way to save mother. Don’t you have Jiuqu Lingshen Pill? That pill can cure all kinds of poison. It will definitely save mother!”

Chapter 767: Cold-blooded Family

But he originally planned to keep it for emergencies. Nalan Zhengze didn’t want to admit that she, the woman who was no different as a ghost, was his wife, let alone save her.

But facing his daughter’s request, he still took out the Jiuqu Lingshen Pill.

Nalan Yurong took Jiuqu Lingshen Pill with a trace of greed and desire in her eyes.

This time, apart from investigating Shengde Hall’s situation, her master also asked her to find the Jiuqu Lingshen Pill’s formula from home.

Master had promised that as long as she gets the Jiuqu Lingshen Pill formula, she will be admitted to the Doctors Association’s inner hall and be promoted to the fifth grade doctor.

Even if this Jiuqu Lingshen Pill was the future and hope of the Nalan Family, for her own future, she, Nalan Yurong, must get it.

Nalan Yurong lowered her eyebrows, kept the ambition in her eyes, knelt down, and helped Mrs. Nalan up.

Although Mrs. Nalan looked like a horrible ghost now, her sanity at this time was clear.

So, in her daughter's arms, she saw with her own eyes that Nalan Yurong secretly hid the Jiuqu Lingshen Pill that she got from Nalan Zhengze's arms, but she gave her another very similar red medicinal pills.

Mrs. Nalan moaned, and her heart was cold. There was a strong resentment in her heart.

Nalan Yurong, this is my eldest daughter whom I loved and cared for 20 years. Everything I did was for her, and I gave everything to her.

But how does she treat me now?

She didn't save her younger sister Nalan Feixue, she used me as a shield, and now she wanted to watch me die for a Jiuqu Lingshen Pill!

Nalan Yurong, how can you! How can you be so outrageously immoral and conscienceless?!

Mrs. Nalan's chest surged with anger. Her mind went blank suddenly, and she passed out.

Nalan Yurong let go of Mrs. Nalan, who spat out white foam and blood and fainted, and exclaimed, "Mother! Mother!"

She pretended to be panicked and looked at Nalan Zhengze, "Father, what should I do? Even Jiuqu Lingshen Pill can't cure the poison on mother!"

Of course, Jiuqu Lingshen Pill couldn't cure all the poisons in the world. At least the deadly poisons like [Blood Drunk] and [Beauty Melt Bone] couldn't be cured.

However, how many strange deadly poisons could there be in this world?

Nalan Zhengze's face became extremely ugly. She looked at Nalan Hexi with eyes full of gloominess and hatred, "Impudent child, how do you get the poison? Say it quickly!"

Hexi looked at the reaction of Nalan Zhengze and Nalan Yurong, and she was amused.

The two Nalan Family members in front of them were really cold-blooded.

One used her own mother as a shield, and the other saw that his wife was so miserable, but he cared more about the origin of the poison rather than saving her.

Hexi didn't have to think to figure out why Nalan Zhengze cared so much about the origin of the poison.

Isn't he just want to get An Lingyue's relic from me?

As for the life and death of Mrs. Nalan, no one cares, and no one asked her to cure the poison on Mrs. Nalan.

Haha, it's so sad enough to think about it!

Thinking of this, Hexi made a mocking smile and looked at Nalan Zhengze coldly, "Why should I tell you?"

Nalan Zhengze stretched out his hand and patted it on the table, "Animal, I'm your father! Is that how you talk to your father?"

Chapter 768: You All Should Be Punished

“Bitch! Animal! Who taught you to treat your father this way? Did you know that disobedience and unfilial piety will face the god’s retribution?!”

Hexi sneered. Her tone full of indifference, “I face the god’s retribution for being unfilial to my biological father, but Nalan Zhengze, you... are you my father?”

“Wh... what?!” Nalan Zhengze shuddered, and his eyes widened in disbelief.

Hexi stared tightly into his eyes, saying word by word, “Nalan Zhengze, are you really my father? Are you... worthy?”

Being stared at by Hexi’s faintly purple phoenix eyes, Nalan Zhengze only felt a shock in his mind as if he had seen the familiar figure saying with the same cold and alienated voice.

Almost reflexively, he exclaimed, “You... you know already?”

As soon as Nalan Zhengze said this, Nalan Yurong’s eyes widened suddenly. She looked at Nalan Zhengze in surprise, then looked at Nalan Hexi again.

What does father mean? Nalan Hexi is not a child of the Nalan Family?

Who is she then?

Hexi sneered, “Know what? Know that you are not my biological father? Know that you let Nalan Ziyun impersonate my own brother? Know that you do so much just to get my mother’s relic from me?”

As Hexi said, Nalan Zhengze’s face became more and more gloomy.

His gaze stared at Hexi like a poisonous snake, and he slowly said, “You really knew it. You still acted in front of me. You as shameless as your mother!”

He took a deep breath and sneered, “Since you know it, you’d better hand over what I want. Don’t say that you don’t have your mother’s relics, otherwise, with your original waste and cowardly appearance, how can you have the glory you have nowadays?”

Thinking of the medicine bottle he received a few days ago, he wished he could tear Nalan Hexi this bitch to pieces.

“You bitch, even if I’m not your biological father, I still raised you up after all. Your mother’s relic, you would rather give it to outsiders like Xi Yue and King of Hell than giving it to me. You are so ungrateful, aren’t you afraid of being punished by god’s retribution?”

Nalan Yurong, who was listening by the side, looked even more shocked. It could only be described as horrified.

Xi Yue? Isn’t Xi Yue the owner of Shengde Hall? That amazing young doctor?

Could it be that Nalan Hexi handed over the relic in her hands to Xi Yue, so that she can achieve what she has now? All the best quality pills in Shengde Hall come from the relic in the hands of Nalan Hexi?

Thinking of this, Nalan Yurong was agitated. If I obtain this relic? Doesn't it mean that I can be powerful in the Doctors Association? Even His Royal Highness King of Hell will come to marry her?

Hexi finally couldn't help laughing after hearing this, "Nalan Zhengze, you all conscienceless people of the Nalan Family, why do you all always like to say god's retribution? If conscienceless people should be punished by god, shouldn't you all the first to be punished?"

Nalan Zhengze's face was distorted for a while. He didn't know how much Hexi knew, but at this time he dared not say more.

However, Nalan Zhengze immediately calmed down after thinking of another matter. He looked at Hexi coldly and said, "Hehe, you can continue to be arrogant in front of me. But, you may not know, you are already inflicted by my poison. After three days at most, the poison on your body will be triggered."

Chapter 769: There Is a Problem with the Medicinal Pills

Hexi sighed, watching Nalan Zhengze and his daughter's eyes full of pity and sarcasm. She said leisurely, "Why poison again? It is even a poison that no one can cure. Hehe... this poison is indeed interesting. The main medicine is intestines sever powder, which is obviously a poison, but it is colorless and tasteless, and there is no response after taking it. It can also delay the onset of the poison."

"The reason is that it is added with a Thousand Phantoms Galan right? Thousand Phantoms Galan, that is a demonic plant that has disappeared in the Miluo Continent, and it may not even be found in the magical beast forest. You actually used such a precious medicine on me. Hmm, I'm really flattered!"

Nalan Zhengze was shocked; his eyes were full of horror, "You... how do you know...". Nalan Zhengze and Nalan Yurong were really father and son; they reacted in sync.

Although the girl in front of her didn't look amazing, her phoenix eyes were gleaming as she slightly squinted. She was obviously a thin and weak girl, but she was looking down on him like a god looking down at a mortal.

Nalan Zhengze trembled all over. He almost couldn't help exclaiming.

An Lingyue—!

At this moment, he seemed to see the shadow of An Lingyue. The person who looked at him was no longer the useless Nalan Hexi, but the pretty and talented An Lingyue!

Nalan Zhengze took a step back subconsciously, then he recollected his mind.

He squeezed his fist in anger, and he stared at Hexi fiercely, "Bitch, even if you realize that it is Thousand Phantasms Galan, there is no way for you to cure its poison. You better hand out the item, otherwise..."

Before Nalan Zhengze finished speaking, there was a sudden rush of footsteps behind him.

"Master, master! It's not good!" The butler rushed to Nalan Zhengze with a head full of sweat. "Master, you... you should go to the front hall quickly!"

"What happened? Why are you making a fuss?" Nalan Zhengze stared at the housekeeper sternly.

But the housekeeper didn't seem to notice Nalan Zhengze's annoyance at all. He just trembled with fear and panic, "Master, the people who bought Jiuqu Lingshen Pill before have come. They said that there is a problem with the medicinal pills they bought. They all come to ask for an explanation. Master, you... you should go and see now!"

Nalan Zhengze exclaimed, "How is this possible?!"

His face was full of horror and confusion. I have been refining the Jiuqu Lingshen Pill with the same method. How anything go wrong?

If Jiuqu Lingshen Pill has a problem, what hope does my Nalan Family have?

Nalan Zhengze was anxious, and his hands shook slightly. "You go to the front hall to comfort the guests first, then tell them I...I will be there soon!"

After the butler left, Nalan Zhengze gave Hexi a fierce look, and he said to the guards beside him, "Guard this Xin Yue House properly. If this bitch escapes, I will let you all die without a place to bury!"

After he finished speaking, he hurried away. Because he was so flustered that he almost tripped over his own feet when he left the courtyard.

Chapter 770: It's So Disgusting

Nalan Yurong, who was still in the room, stared greedily and hatefully at Hexi. Finally, she couldn't help asking, "Sister, what is the relic in your hand? Is it the best quality pill of Shengde Hall? "

Hexi turned around and looked at her with a half smile; she didn't speak.

Nalan Yurong clenched her fists, trying to maintain her kind and gentle expression, "Sister, you just heard what father said. You have been poisoned by him, and he will never let you go. Father has always been cruel. If you fall into his hands, even if you hand over your mother's relic, you will never end well. Why don't you give me that relic!"

Hexi raised his eyebrows, "Give it to you? Why? Just because you just wanted to kill me over and over again?"

Nalan Yurong's eyes flashed gloomily. She said coldly, "Nalan Hexi, you better don't be ungrateful. I ask you to hand over the relic because I want to help you. I'm the disciple of Master Xukong, even father has to give face to me. Only I can save you now! If you hand over the relic obediently, I can still plead for you in front of my master. Maybe he will also accept you as a registered discipline, then your future will be very promising!"

"Otherwise, you will wait for the rest of your life to be locked in a dungeon by father and spend the rest of your life in darkness. Which choice is better, don't you understand it?"

Hexi shook her head and smiled, "Elder sister is right. After seeing you and Nalan Zhengze, I also changed my mind a little."

"Are you going to give me your mother's relic?!" Nalan Yurong thought she had finally compromised, and her whole body trembled with excitement, "Quick! Show me those pill formulas!"

Hexi shook her head again and slowly said, "I initially planned to keep you and Nalan Zhengze to slowly torment you two so that you two will die after suffering. But now I have changed my mind, Nalan Yurong, all your behaviors really disgust me. I have decided, you will die now!"

As soon as she spoke, the sky full of purple vines whizzed up into the sky, enveloping this small room and isolating time and void.

The guards left by Nalan Zhengze were guarding outside the room, and Nalan Zhengze had never thought that his elder daughter who was at the peak of the Meridians Stage would lose to Nalan Hexi, so he didn't let those guards in either.

Now, the purple vines covered the hut which meant an enchantment was set up. It isolated sound and movement. Even those guards looked inside, they couldn't notice any strange.

Nalan Yurong's eyes widened in horror. Feeling the majestic spiritual power surging at her, she couldn't believe what she saw.

Isn't that Nalan Hexi can't cultivate? Didn't she have no cultivation?

Why is she exuding such a terrifying spirit pressure and showing such a powerful force?

Nalan Yurong desperately backed away, trying to escape. She said in a trembled voice, "You... Who exactly are you?"

Hexi chuckled and did not answer. As her finger channeled spiritual power, the sharp purple vine suddenly rushed toward Nalan Yurong.

Now Hexi's true strength had reached the terrifying advance level of the Gold Core Stage. Although her cultivation level was still the Meridians Stage, it was definitely not something that an ordinary Meridians Stage cultivator like Nalan Yurong could resist.

She didn't even have the power to resist Hexi's one blow.
