

King of Hell 861

Chapter 861: Give You A Chance

Huangfu Cheng stared at him. Seeing that he was conscious and his aura was stable, his voice became more hoarse and trembling, but it was full of hope, “Ming’er, are you really suffering anymore? You don’t want to take the cold eating pill pill?”

“Cold eating pill? cold eating pill—!!!” Huangfu Ming woke up suddenly. There was a frightened expression on his face.

He grabbed Huangfu Cheng’s hand. The muscles on his face twitched, showing his extreme fear, “Father, something is wrong with the cold eating pill. After taking the cold eating pill, although I have improved in a short time, when I was in retreat for more than half a month, I felt extremely uncomfortable. The itchiness and heat in my body almost made me crazy. I can’t think of anything. I just want to take the cold eating pill crazily. Dad... please save me!!”

He couldn’t help but said, “Ming’er, do you really not want to take the cold eating pill now? You won’t feel mad and uncomfortable any more?”

Huangfu Ming was stunned, then he circled the spiritual power in his body. He was overjoyed immediately, “Father, I’m no longer uncomfortable now. My meridians seem to have been injected with a cold spring. Because of this spring, the heat and itchiness seem to be relieved a lot! Father, did you find someone to treat me?”

Huangfu Ming’s words made Huangfu Cheng’s eye sockets redder, but he was still worried. He let go of his son and let the doctor of the Huangfu Family check Huangfu Ming’s pulse.

The doctor checked for a while and immediately nodded and said, “Young master’s body has indeed recovered a lot now. Although the heat has not disappeared, it has been completely suppressed.

Huangfu Cheng didn’t hesitate anymore when he heard the words. He pulled up Huangfu Ming who was still lying on the ground and knelt toward Hexi, “Thank you Miracle Healer Xi for the life-saving grace!”

Chang Sheng watched Huangfu Ming stop groaning and returned to normal, and he could even use spiritual power. He fell into incredible madness.

He was tied up, but he stood up abruptly, rushed to Huangfu Ming, and shouted, “I don’t believe it. The cold eating pill has no cure. Xi Yue, you must be lying. Quickly untie me and let me check his pulse! I will expose his tricks!”

Huangfu Cheng kicked Chang Sheng into the air and sneered, “You still dare to defame Miracle Healer Xi when you are about to die? Chang Sheng, do you think you can live without the cold eating pill as a threat?”

Chang Sheng’s body became stiff. The fear and disbelief toward Hexi were replaced by the fear of death in an instant.

He crawled in front of Hexi frantically, and he said with tears, "Miracle Healer Xi, I was wrong, I shouldn't slander you. Please forgive me because of my medical skills! I will do my best to serve you in the future. If you let me go east, I will never go west. Miracle Healer Xi, please spare me!"

Hexi looked at him condescendingly. She chuckled, "Didn't you always admire the effect of the cold eating pill? Didn't you say that as long as one keeps taking the cold eating pill, it will be a great supplement and will never cause harm to people right? I will give you a chance now."

"What... what?!"

Chapter 862: End Up like This

Hexi shook the small glass bottle and said with a smile, "I extract it myself. The cold eating flower pollen in it is equivalent to the amount of 1000 cold eating pills. Didn't you say that the cold eating pill is harmless right? Then, can you please try it now?"

Chang Sheng's eyes widened in horror. He stepped back frantically, "No— no! No... please forgive me..."

In Liu Li Sect, he had seen how those people who had taken the cold eating pill for many years died.

That was more terrifying than a dry corpse. Only flesh and skin were left; their eyes protruded like they were unwilling to die.

No! No! I don't want to become like that!

Before Hexi finished speaking, the martial artists who were protecting Chang Sheng among the crowd suddenly rushed over, grabbed the glass bottle in Hexi's hand, and rushed toward Chang Sheng.

"Didn't you just say that cold eating pill is a supplement? Didn't you just say that watching others begging for you because of the cold eating pill drug makes you very happy? You can taste this now too!"

"Son of a bitch! You dare to tempt us to take the cold eating pill, and want to ruin our life. You should die now!"

They held down Chang Sheng; someone held the bottle and someone forced open Chang Sheng's mouth. Seeing that he wanted to bit his tongue to commit suicide, someone pulled his chin down directly.

The liquid in the glass bottle was finally poured into Chang Sheng's mouth.

In the next moment, everyone saw Chang Sheng's eyes turn white. His body convulsed nonstop. After that, he yelled frantically and scratched his body until his flesh became mangled; until he felt nothing.

The most terrifying thing was that everyone saw Chang Sheng's belly bulging out like a pregnant woman, and the flesh on his body, including his face, seemed to disappear.

In other words, these flesh and spirit were absorbed by the bulge on the belly.

After about 5 minutes, “bang”, along with Chang Sheng’s short scream, his flesh exploded and turned into a pile of dead meat.

Everyone was stunned by the scene.

Thinking that if they kept taking the cold eating pill, they would end up like this, they couldn’t help being terrified.

Suddenly, someone rushed to Hexi and knelt down, “Miracle Healer Xi, please save me! Please give me the antidote of the cold eating pill!”

There was the first person to kneel, then there was the second and the third. All of them looked at Hexi pleadingly as if looking at their last hope, hoping that she could save their lives.

Even Huangfu Cheng knelt down and pleaded again. Because in addition to Huangfu Ming, other people in the Huangfu Family also took the cold eating pill.

Hexi looked at the people kneeling in front of them with a cold expression, “Who said that the addiction in Huangfu Ming’s body has all been cured? To eradicate the addiction caused by the cold eating pill, you have to go through a 3 months withdrawal period. My pill can only ease the pain during the withdrawal period so that you can stay sane and endure it.”

This kind of medicinal pill was developed after her continuous improvement during the treatment of Gu Youlan.

Compared with the hardship of treating Gu Youlan at the beginning, now with this kind of medicinal pill, although they also needed to bear the pain of withdrawal, it was much more comfortable than Gu Youlan at the beginning.

After hearing Hexi’s words, not only were they not disappointed, but they believed even more that the young man, Miracle Healer, really had a way to treat them.

Chapter 863: Medical Sain

Huangfu Cheng said loudly, “Miracle Healer Xi, as long as you can completely abstain my Huangfu Family people from the cold eating pill, my Huangfu Family is willing to listen to the commands of doctor. If I break my word...”

Hexi put his hands around her chest and interrupted him mercilessly, “No, it’s too fake. It’s better to buy with crystal stone instead. I do have a lot of medicinal pills at this stage of the cold eating pill. If you all want it, you can! Go to Shengde Hall to buy it. The price is clearly marked, and you won’t be fooled!”

Everyone in Benevolence Hall looked at her with wide-eyed eyes, not daring to breathe out.

If they could buy their life and freedom only with crystal stone, then why not!

They were now afraid that Miracle Healer Xi would renege, then no one could help them by the time!

Hexi added at the end, “If the crystal stone is not enough, you can use the spirit beast or spirit plant as a replacement. It doesn’t need to be rare, as long as it has enough portion.”

With that, she took out a storage ring and threw it to Xi San, saying softly, "I will leave everything to you."

Not bad, as a result, Zhenwei Army's rations are at least half resolved! She feels very satisfied.

The rest of the people looked at Xi San and the storage ring in his hand.

Xi San was not afraid at all. He threw the ring up, caught it, and returned to Shengde Hall with a smile.

He didn't believe that these people dared to snatch it, otherwise was his identity of confidant butler of King of Hell's princess for nothing? The Iron Kirins were patrolling everywhere outside.

Moreover, what he enjoyed most was the feeling that everyone was rushing to flatter him and want to buy medicinal pills from him!

It's cool to follow Miss. I almost become the most popular person in Yanjing City!

After 7 days of purging, Feng Family's forces in Yanjing City were finally wiped out.

During this period, Iron Kirin also unearthed many secret bases that Feng Family endangered the people of Yanjing in Yanjing City.

The cellar in the backyard of Benevolence Hall was one of them. There were dozens of virgins with spiritual root qualifications. Chang Sheng originally planned to send these children out to Feng Family these days as raw materials for refining the cold eating pill.

In this cellar, there were still many poor people who were used as the nourishment of the dark spirit plant. Even the Iron Kirin soldiers were calm and self-restraint, their complexions changed seeing their unrecognizable appearances.

In the end, the broken corpses of the people who served as the nourishment for the dark spirit plant were sent out. Their relatives couldn't help crying when they saw the corpses; they hated the Feng Family to their cores.

Coupled with the harm and sequelae caused by cold eating pill to everyone in Yanjing City- Although Shengde Hall's medicine could help people withdraw from cold eating pill, the process was very painful. Even after withdrawal, their cultivation would also regress.

Because this kind of conspiracy was exposed, the miserable appearances of the victims appeared, making the people in Yanjing City hated the Feng Family; they praised King of Hell Mansion and Iron Kirin for their actions to clean up the Feng Family forces.

The Shengde Hall owner, who could provide the antidote to the cold eating pill, was regarded as a medical saint by the people of Yanjing City.

For a time, the reputation of King of Hell Mansion and Shengde Hall reached their peak in Yanjing City.

Chapter 864: Shen Qingchuo's Daily Life

The homeless virgins found in the cellar of Benevolence Hall were sent to Virtue Home.

The virgins sent this time were all very young. The experience in the dark basement made them feel uneasy all day; unable to eat, sleep, and even a little movement would make them cry nonstop.

Most of the people in Virtue Home in charge of looking after children were kind-looking middle-aged women who were specially selected and hired by Gu Liufeng. Even so, there were still not enough staff here as the children increased.

Shen Qingchuo had been in this Virtue Home for several days. Even her uncle asked her to go back, she refused it.

She first came to Virtue Home because of some inexplicable reasons; she wanted to continue arguing with Gu Liufeng, and she wanted to see Gu Liufeng.

But after arriving here, getting along with those children every day, she slowly fell in love with this kind of life.

She just felt that if she couldn't see these children every day, she felt there was a missing piece in her heart.

At this time, Shen Qingchuo was holding a young crying child, and she said softly, "Little Wan, be a good girl. Although your brother has passed away, he has not left yet! He is so worried about you, he must have become a soul and watch over you. You don't eat well and sleep well, how sad he would be to see it!"

Although more than 30 children were rescued this time, before that, a group of children had been sent out by Chang Sheng and used as the nourishment for cold eating flower.

After being rescued, Xiaowan was seriously ill; she had a high fever. She kept crying "brother" in her mouth.

Shen Qingchuo felt distressed for this poor little girl, so she had been taking care of her restlessly days and nights.

Even though Little Wan still cried often, her dependence on Shen Qingchuo was a little more deep.

Hearing Shen Qingchuo's words, Little Wan grabbed her sleeve and choked up, "Sister Xi, is what you said is true? My brother is really looking at me? Will my brother really feel sad?"

"Yeah!" Shen Qingchuo stroked the girl's face, saying softly. "Little Wan's brother likes Little Wan the most. Seeing that Little Wan is so sad and even sick, how can he be willing to leave?"

Xiao Wan was overjoyed at first. She turned her head vigorously to look around, then she immediately became worried, "But brother is a soul, and everyone can't see him. Isn't brother alone now?"

Miluo Continent assumed that people had souls after death, but even children knew that souls cannot stay in the world for a long time. They must enter reincarnate in the 6 realms of samsara. Otherwise, they would become wandering ghosts that would disappear in the end.

Shen Qingchuo nodded and said, "Yeah! Your brother stays because he is worried about Xiaowan. Only when Little Wan eats well and is not sad, your brother can only reincarnate at ease! Does Little Wan want brother become a wandering ghost?"

Xiaowan immediately burst into tears and shook her head vigorously with her mouth flat, "No! No! Little Wan wants brother to be good! From now on, Little Wan must eat and sleep well. Brother, you can go! Don't worry about Little Wan anymore. Little Wan will be obedient!"

The little girl's voice was hoarse and persistent, and Shen Qingchuo felt sore in her heart hearing that.

Her mouth was too small and she stuffed too much the rice, so she could only chew with her cheeks bulging to try her best to eat it.

Chapter 865: Wishful Thoughts

The food that couldn't fit fell on the clothes, Shen Qingchuo picked up the food carefully and wiped off the soup at the corner of her mouth. As the Miss of the Qingxia Sect, she didn't feel any disgust at all for doing these things.

Xiaowan raised her head and showed her a bright smile. She asked with her eyes "Am I a good girl?"

Shen Qingchuo felt distressed for her, but she still smiled softly, "Little Wan is a good girl. If your brother sees that you live well, he will definitely reincarnate into a good family."

Gu Liufeng walked in through the gate and couldn't help being slightly startled when he saw this scene. He didn't look away for a long while.

A little boy ran over, took Xiaowan's hand, and took her to play.

Soon, there was laughter from the children. It was the purest and most transparent laugh in the world which could penetrate people's hearts and make people forget all unpleasant things.

Her face blushed, and she immediately woke up. She ran forward a few steps, "Hey, why you come here only now? Are you busy in Shengde Hall?"

Gu Liufeng regained his senses, then he put up the usual smile on his face, "Because too many people buy cold eating pill, Shengde Hall is too busy these few days. I went to make arrangements in the morning. I didn't intend to come here late."

Shen Qingchuo was accustomed to hearing Gu Liufeng's perfunctory or slightly ridiculous remarks to her. At this time, listening to him answering her so solemnly, he couldn't react for a while.

Why do I sound like I'm purposely explaining to Shen Qingchuo?

Shen Qingchuo looked at her brows that were covered by the mask, but the romantic peach eyes were not covered. At this time, he looked at her with glittering eyes that were truly moving.

Her face turned red all of a sudden, and she couldn't help whispering, "You...why are you wearing a mask? I think you look good without a mask!"

Gu Liufeng was taken aback, and then a bit of embarrassment appeared in his eyes. He put his hand on his mask and said in a low voice, "No, I'm afraid I will scare the children if I don't wear a mask."

That hideous scar, that unbearable past, they aren't worthy of Qingxia Sect's Miss.

No! Wait, what am I thinking?

Gu Liufeng almost escaped in the end, but before he walked into the inner hall, a noise came from the door.

"I'm out of alcohol; it's all finished. Aiya, I'm really going to die! Good disciple, come out now. Your master has finished all the alcohols..."

While talking, an old man covered in mud appeared at the door, holding an empty wine bottle in his hand. He walked in staggeringly.

As soon as he saw Gu Liufeng, the old man rushed over excitedly, "Oh, Little Boy Gu, it's great that you are here! Quickly find my good disciple for me. Tell her my alcohol is finished and let her send more here!"

The 'Little Boy Gu' made Shen Qingchuo's eyes widened in surprise. She looked at Gu Liufeng with surprise. Her small hand covered her mouth; her small face was flushing like she was trying hard not to laugh.

Gu Liufeng blushed, stepped forward and said, "Immortal, where did you go? You suddenly left without noticing us. Xi Yue has been looking for you for a long time."

Chapter 866: Was Abducted?

"Oh, about this, after I took the alcohol, I of course find a good place to enjoy them! However, you see. All the alcohols are finished now, hehehe~"

Gu Liufeng sighed helplessly, "Then please wait for a while, I will send a letter to Xi Yue."

It was just that she didn't come alone, but she brought someone with her.

Standing on the left-hand side of Hexi was an unparalleled handsome young man. He stood side by side with Hexi. Although he did not show any intimacy with Hexi, the occasional action and eye expression could always blind the others.

No matter it is appearance, talent, or momentum, my disciple is already shocking in that.

But the momentum of this man doesn't get overwhelmed by my disciple, and he even gives an impression of protecting my disciple in his wings.

Could this man be the sweetheart my little disciple mentioned before?

Tsk tsk, how old my disciple is? She is actually abducted by a man so early?

In the future, aren't the delicacies and alcohol made by my little disciple will all be given to this kid?

Tsk! What's so good about this kid? Isn't he just looks a little more handsome, has a little higher cultivation base, and has a little more amazing aura...

The old man assessed Nangong Yu up and down; Nangong Yu was also looking at the old man with a strange light flashing in his eyes.

Hexi did not notice the turbulent waves between the two.

She stepped forward and said with a frown, "Master, I'm actually not your apprentice but your professional winemaker right?"

"Aiya, my good disciple, why did you say this? You're master's most favorite disciple, hehe~~"

Hexi sneered, "What kind of master who likes his disciple will leave without saying goodbye repeatedly? Only when there is no alcohol will he come to the door? I'm not your professional winemaker, who am I then?"

The old man was very guilty when he heard that. He immediately said apologetically with a smile, "Aiyaya, I'm getting older, so I forgot to tell the good disciple! Good disciple, don't be angry. For the alcohols..."

Hexi gave him an angry look, but she still took out a few large jars of alcohol.

Once the lid of one of the jars of alcohol was lifted, the old man smelled a pungent scent of alcohol that was mixed with strong spiritual power. It immediately aroused him.

Seeing him staring at the alcohols with straight eyes, Hexi couldn't help but smiled triumphantly, "Master, this is the strongest alcohol disciple has made. I name it 'Immortal Drunk'. Master, didn't you say my alcohol isn't strong enough? I will let you taste a potent one this time.

This alcohol was brewed according to Erguotou's method in her previous life. She let Little Egg steam it 70 times repeatedly. Even an elephant would be drunk by it.

The old man was stunned for a long time. He shouted, pounced on the jar, held it and drank it.

The old man yelled, "Good alcohol! Really good alcohol! Hahaha, I didn't expect that in me, Xuanqing's, lifetime, I can still drink such good alcohol. My life is really worthy!"

Chapter 867: Size Up

But what made Hexi dumbfounded was that the old man didn't immediately bottom up the alcohols like last time. Instead, he carefully stored them in the storage device.

After keeping the alcohols, the old man was satisfied. After that, he glanced at Nangong Yu, who was standing next to his disciple, and said in a hostile tone, "Disciple, this little white face is not the sweetheart you said last time right?"

Hexi blushed and glanced around.

She saw Gu Liufeng and Shen Qingchuo looking at her; Shen Qingchuo's eyes even widened in shock. The few children like Xi Lang and the others curiously surrounded her and looked at her and Nangong Yu.

Hexi felt that it was really a disgrace to have such a master.

But she was really unwilling to deny Nangong Yu's identity.

So, under the gaze of Nangong Yu's scorching anticipation, Hexi still blushed and gave a low "en" before saying, "He is Nangong Yu. I brought him to see Master."

The old man squinted his eyes and glanced at Nangong Yu critically. He snorted coldly and said in a strange way, "Aiya, you even brought him to see master. Is this kid really that good?"

Nangong Yu was high-spirited at this time. Even the coldness in his eyes had faded a lot.

This is the first time Xi'er has admitted our relationship in public!

Now she even brought me to see her master! Doesn't that mean we aren't far from getting married?

Thinking of this, Nangong Yu couldn't help smiling a little; he no longer cared about the rude comments of the old man.

He took a step forward and slowly cupped his fist toward the old man, "Immortal Xuan Qing, it's a pleasure to meet you."

This time, it was Hexi's turn to be stunned.

She looked at the old man with a hostile face, then she looked at Nangong Yu and said in wonder, "You two know each other?"

Hexi glanced at her master, and she saw that he frowned and said unwillingly, "A few years ago you were just a little guy whose hairs were even grown fully yet. You even had a sissy tone. In just a few years, you have already abducted my most beloved disciple."

Nangong Yu did not get angry when he heard the words, but he reached out and shook Hexi's little hand. He said softly, "Immortal Xuan Qing, I really like Xi'er; I want to marry her as a wife, and I will only love Xi'er alone in my life. I will never have any relationship with other women. I hope Immortal Xuan Qing can approve our marriage."

When Nangong Yu said this, everyone on the sidelines was moved.

Most of the people here were women and children. They had little knowledge, so they didn't recognize Nangong Yu's identity. However, judging by his demeanor and excellent appearance, they knew that he was extraordinary.

In Miluo Continent, men usually had few wives and concubines. This man actually promised "not to have any relationship with other women". That was really too shocking.

Only Immortal Xuan Qing snorted. He disdainfully said, "Isn't it natural not to have a relationship with other women? Or you think that my Xuan Qing's disciple can simply marry anyone? If it weren't for your excellent talent and there is no one better than you in the Miluo Continent, do you think you are worthy of my disciple?"

Nangong Yu smiled with scorching eyes, "I only recognize Xi'er as my partner. Since I want to marry her, I will naturally try to be worthy of her; I will protect her for the rest of my life!"

Chapter 868: You Are a Woman?

Immortal Xuan Qing nodded unwillingly, "Hmph! At least, you have a good taste!"

Then he thought of Nangong Yu's identity, and his strength that was now considered powerful in the Miluo Continent. He then looked at the way he was fascinated by his disciple, and he couldn't help but be delighted again.

Hehehe, if the old guy knew that his descendant is being so obedient to my disciple; he can only be a slave who doesn't dare to disobey his wife, I wonder how angry will he be.

Among all the people onlookers, the most shocked was Shen Qingchuo.

When Xi Yue appeared just now, Shen Qingchuo was very surprised.

She stayed in Yanjing City for Xi Yue, but during this time, she followed Gu Liufeng to help out in this Virtue Home. She kept arguing with Gu Liufeng while taking care of the children, so she forgot about Xi Yue for a while.

Now that Xi Yue suddenly appeared, she was very happy. However, she suddenly heard that Xi Yue had a sweetheart already.

When she saw Nangong Yu holding Xi Yue's hand without shyness, she couldn't help being shocked.

She grabbed Gu Liufeng's hand and asked in disbelief, "Heart, sweetheart? Wh...what heart..."

Gu Liufeng saw that she was nervous and shocked; she couldn't even speak coherently. He couldn't help asking with worry, "What's the matter?"

Shen Qingchuo pointed at Nangong Yu and Hexi, and she said in a tremble, "They are, aren't both of them... how come?"

Seeing her fainting expression, he couldn't help teasing her, "Don't you know that man and man can be together in this world?"

"Ahh—!" Shen Qingchuo's face turned pale.

Hexi heard the conversation between them, and she couldn't help but glare at Gu Liufeng. She stepped forward and said openly to Shen Qingchuo, "Miss Shen, I'm sorry to not tell you before that I'm actually a woman. Xi Yue is just the man whom I disguise. It's just a convenient identity for me to use outside."

Shen Qingchuo covered her mouth and said in disbelief, "You... you are a woman? But... how could it be? How are you not a man?"

Hexi saw that her face turned green and white for a while, and she looked like she was about to cry. She couldn't help but ask with concern, "Miss Shen, are you okay?"

I never expect that the person I fall in love with is actually a woman!

If my seniors and uncles know about it, how am I going to face their ridicule?

Also, Gu Liufeng. Shen Qingchuo couldn't help but look at Gu Liufeng with tears and shame.

Gu Liufeng must have seen my eagerness toward Xi Yue. He must have known that Xi Yue is a woman, so he must be laughing at my action long ago, right?

For some reason, thinking that Gu Liufeng might laugh at her and look down on her, Shen Qingchuo felt that she was a hundred times sadder than knowing that Xi Yue was a woman! It's a hundred times sadder than being laughed at by her seniors!

Hexi was still looking at Shen Qingchuo with doubt and concern.

The little girl from Qingxia Sect had a naive, hearty, and kind personality. She quite liked this little girl.

Xi Lang, who watched the excitement, said for fear that things wouldn't go wrong, "Sister Shen doesn't know that big brother is a woman, so she must be secretly in love with the big brother! Oh, no, I should be calling her big sister now!"

Chapter 869: Attracting Affections

Gu Liufeng was right by her side, and quickly helped her, and said with concern: "Qingyu, are you okay?"

Shen Qingchuo finally couldn't help it anymore and cry out, "Gu Liufeng, you knew it all along. Why didn't you tell me? Is it that you want to see me embarrassing myself; you want to laugh at me secretly. Wuwuwu..."

As Shen Qingchuo said, she shook off Gu Liufeng's hand, covered her sad face and ran out.

Hexi felt that no matter how dumb she was, she could smell something from the 2 of them.

She looked at the Gu Liufeng who seemed to have lost his soul, and she said with a smile, “Why are you still standing here? Why don’t you go after her quickly? Qingchuo’s cultivation isn’t high. What if anything happens to her out there?”

Anything happens to her?

Gu Liufeng’s heart was tense. Thinking that something would happen to the little girl who was chattering in his ears every day, his heart seemed to be gripped by something; his mind went blank.

The next moment, he didn’t even figure out the reason, but he had rushed out instinctively.

I really can’t let Xi’er leave my side. She is too easy to attract attention.

I only left for just a few months. Not to mention Ouyang Haoxuan who follows Xi’er with an ill-intention, even a woman was fascinated by Xi’er.

No way! I have to watch her more closely in the future!

Hexi hurried to see Immortal Xuan Qing today. Apart from introducing Nangong Yu to him, there was one more important thing.

Among all the people Hexi knew, apart from Nangong Yu, the person with the most unfathomable strength was her master.

Even Nangong Yu was helpless about Xiao Chi’s situation. Coupled with the seal in his dantian and the thing in the seal, it had always made her uneasy and worried.

If there was anyone at Miluo Continent who was more knowledgeable and knew more secrets than Nangong Yu, then it must be the mysterious and cheap master.

As Hexi was about to ask her master to follow her back to the courtyard, she was unexpectedly pulled back by Nangong Yu.

Before Hexi could say anything, she felt a heat on her lips; the man’s hot breath had swept her lips and teeth.

However, this kiss was very restrained; it was separated with just a touch.

But just such a short touch was enough for everyone in this Virtue Home to stare wide. They all walked away in horror and embarrassment.

Hexi’s swollen cheeks were flushed, and she punched at the man’s chest, saying angrily, “What are you doing?”

This guy, his shamelessness is getting more and more out of control!

Nangong Yu hugged her into his arms, snorted coldly, and whispered in her ear, "This is Xi'er's punishment for attracting affections. Even a woman has become your admirer. I'm not happy about this, so I have to get back some interest!"

"You—!"

Hexi was dumbfounded. She pushed away the man, ignored his crazy speech and walked to Immortal Xuan Qing, "Master, I want your help for one thing!"

Immortal Xuan Qing was staring angrily at the man who had just taken advantage of his disciple; he was thinking furiously about whether to teach this kid a lesson.

Chapter 870: I'm Stupid?

But when he thought that he could not simply use his high-level cultivation in this world, and the 20 years old boy in front of him already had a terrifying Soul Splitting stage's strength. If they were really fighting, he was not necessarily his opponent.

So, hearing Hexi's words, Immortal Xuan Qing immediately raised his eyebrows and said, "Okay! Good disciple, you want my help, of course, master is willing to help you! But this kid is displeasing to my eyes. You ask him to stay away from you, then master will help you. How about that?"

Hexi was taken aback, and she couldn't help smiling. When she turned around and saw Nangong Yu's gloomy face, she could no longer hold her smile.

At this time, Gu Liufeng had already caught up with Shen Qingchuo.

Shen Qingchuo was standing alone by the lake. She was wiping her tears, and her shoulders were twitched as she cried. The sobbing sound could even soften people's hearts.

Gu Liufeng only felt that his heart was also aching with the low sobbing sound, but he was more at a loss.

He raised his hand and wanted to pat Shen Qingchuo's shoulder to comfort her, but he still didn't have the gut to pat her.

It took him a long while to say in a low voice, "Qingchuo, don't cry. You won't look pretty if your eyes get swollen!"

Shen Qingchuo was even sadder hearing that, and she cried even harder. She complained with a grievance in a sobbing tone, "You all are laughing at me behind me anyway; I hate you all!"

Gu Liufeng hurriedly said, "Why would I laugh at you? I didn't tell you Xi Yue's identity as a woman at the beginning because it would be harmful to Xi Yue; I didn't mean to hide from you."

Seeing that she was really so sad, Gu Liufeng felt uncomfortable as if his chest was blocked by something.

He sighed slightly and said, "Do you really like Xi Yue that much?"

Shen Qingchuo was taken aback. She put down the hand covering his face, revealing a small face full of tears and big red eyes.

She flattened her lips and nodded, then she shook her head again. She wiped the tears from her face embarrassedly and said, "Actually, knowing that Xi Yue is a woman, I... I'm not particularly sad. Now I think about it, I think she is amazing! She is obviously a girl like me; she is not older than me and her cultivation is about the same as mine, but she is so amazing. She operates the Shengde Hall, and she can teach the Feng Family bastards a good lesson. I... I really admire her when I think about it!"

Gu Liufeng saw her eyes sparkling when she talked about it; it was full of admiration and excitement as if she had forgotten all the sadness she had just said. He also felt funny for her in his mind.

He took out a clean handkerchief and handed it to Shen Qingchuo, then he said with a soft tone, "Since you are not sad, what do you still cry? Even your little face becomes so dirty."

Shen Qingchuo took the handkerchief and wiped her face. As soon as the silk handkerchief came close to the end of her nose, she smelled a faint fragrance.

It was like the smell of this person; it was warm and not strong, but it smelled like sunshine.

Shen Qingchuo blushed, put his handkerchief on her face, and said in a low voice, "I just felt too embarrassed. At that time, I was very courteous to Xi Yue in Shengde Hall. You must have seen it. You... do you think I'm stupid?"
