

King of Hell 901

Chapter 901: Fans?!

The martial artists and mortals in Yongan City were naturally attracted by this group of people.

The beautiful women, handsome men, and cute spiritual pets all walking on the street was a beautiful landscape. Many people can't help but cast their gaze.

The most eye-catching ones were of course Nangong Yu and Hexi.

Nangong Yu was tall and straight with outstanding facial features. His face was full of domineering demeanor. His gestures were full of charm that made people blush and heartbeat accelerate.

Although Hexi looked young and petite, her face looked exceptionally clear. It was almost brighter than the moon in the sky. Especially the long and narrow phoenix eyes, when they were slightly curved, they could even hook away people's souls.

Two men of 2 different types; one was a young man and the other was a teenager, but they were both breathtaking, making people unable to extricate themselves.

Soon, they had their own fans in the crowd, and the fans quarreled about which one looked better.

"Junior Sister Apprentice Lu, look! The man in black in front is so handsome! Don't you think he is a bit like the King of Hell in the legend?"

"Senior Sister Apprentice Jiang, I think the young man beside him is more handsome. His skin is as white as jade. Yaaah, I can not eat for 3 days 3 nights by just looking at his face!"

"What you know little girl? You look at a man of course depends on his figure and demeanor. Obviously, the man in black is cooler and handsomer, and I just heard him speak. Even his voice is so melodious. It's really perfect! "

"Who said that, that boy is also very imposing!"

The chattering voice came into Hexi's ears, making her feel a long-lost familiarity.

She couldn't help turning her head to look, and she showed a hearty smile.

It turns out to be them!

The world is really strange. I unintentionally come to a remote town in Tian Gang Kingdom, and I'm able to meet 2 acquaintances.

These women who were talking excitedly to her and Nangong Yu were the same women who talked about King of Hell at the Drunk Immortal House in Yanjing City that day.

At that time, she and Nangong Yu didn't know each other. When she heard them talking about King of Hell, she couldn't help but sigh. If Nangong Yu appeared in front of them, would they run to him and hold up a sign written with 'Your Royal Highness King of Hell, I love you!'

Hexi couldn't help laughing when she thought of such a scene.

Seeing her inexplicably laughing, Nangong Yu couldn't help but curiously said, "What's the matter?"

Hexi glanced at him, pursed his mouth and smiled, "Nothing. I just sighed that His Royal Highness King of Hell is really girls' dream lover. You can have fans wherever you go."

Fans? What is that?

Nangong Yu frowned suspiciously. As he was about to ask, he heard a woman's scream from behind.

"Ahhhh, Senior Sister Apprentice Jiang, did you see? The young boy just smiled at me, he looked at me, and smiled at me!"

The woman named Senior Sister Jiang couldn't help but exclaimed, "He... he really looks so handsome!"

"Right!? Right!? He is better-looking than the man next to him in black. I announced that I will give up my crush on His Royal Highness King of Hell and favor this boy instead. Aiya, I just don't know what this boy is called; which family is he from?"

Nangong Yu turned his head with a gloomy face.

Chapter 902: Dangerous Carriage

Several people were strolling leisurely all the way, and suddenly there was the sound of horses in front of the street.

Immediately afterward, a group of people appeared on both sides of the street, arrogantly driving away pedestrians on the road.

This group of people were wearing dark blue costumes and were all at the Foundation Establishment. Their actions to drive the crowd are very rude, and they kept yelling.

"Get out! Get out! Our lady's carriage is about to come over. If you crashe into the lady, can you take responsibility?"

Because the carriage came so fast, this group of people drove the pedestrians in a hurry.

Many people couldn't escape and were pushed to the ground. Some even fell in the middle of the road. They were kicked to the corner by the group of people, and they couldn't stop screaming in pain.

Such a speed had crushed the whole street into a mess.

It was a four-wheeled carriage. The carriage was huge and prosperous. It was inlaid with shining gems. There were 4 horses in front of the carriage, and each one was a fine horse that could gallop very fast.

Many hawkers' stalls were knocked directly to the ground by the horses; the goods fell all over the ground. Some people were even stomped by the horses, and they could only keep rolling on the ground in pain.

Suddenly, a woman screamed sternly from the side of the road, "Baby, come back—!!! Come back hurry—!!!"

The woman's screams were too terrifying, and it attracted the attention of many people.

Everyone saw a little boy about 3 years old staggering toward the middle of the road.

A yellow doll fell in the middle of the road. The doll was stuffed with a crystal stone which would emit a faint light at night.

His mother worked so hard to buy it for the little boy, so he liked it so much.

He staggered to the middle of the road and picked up the doll happily, then he heard his mother scream.

The little boy turned around and smiled at his mother with the doll in his arms, "Mom... Mom... baby..."

Hearing the sound of horses approaching, the little boy turned his head in horror and saw the huge horse head right in front of him.

The horse's hoof was raised high, and it was about to stomp on the boy's head.

"Mom—!!!" The boy let out a scream, hugged the doll tightly and closed his eyes in fright.

However, the expected pain did not come.

The boy was lifted into the air.

Immediately afterward, the carriage that was still running was grabbed by one hand.

That's right, it was just one hand, a snow-white, chubby little hand that grabbed the edge of the carriage.

The carriage that weighed more than a thousand kilograms and was pulled by 4 horses was actually stopped by this hand after a harsh friction.

Everyone was stunned by the scene in front of them. They all looked at the owner of the hand.

After seeing the person's appearance, everyone couldn't help taking a breath of horror.

It was a girl who looked only 16 years old, with a round apple face, snow-white skin and baby fat. She looked petite but not skinny. On the contrary, her chest had fully grown at such a young age.

Chapter 903: Ignorant Girl

But such a girl who looked so soft and cute... actually stopped a carriage and 4 horses with her bare hand.

This... who the hell was this girl?

The little boy in the arms of the girl timidly lifted his head from the doll. Seeing the girl's pinky clothes, he couldn't help but blurt out, "Rabbit."

Why is this sister looks so similar to the spiritual beast long ears rabbit in my house! It is also pinky and fat.

The girl widened her eyes when she heard this. She said curiously, "How do you know my name?"

Before the little boy could answer, the mother who was scared witless finally rushed out and held the little boy into her arms. She cried, "Baby, baby, mom is really scared by you! Fortunately, you are fine! Wuuuu..."

Then the mother looked at the girl on the side and thanked her, "Girl, thank you for your life-saving grace..."

The mother's eyes were full of gratitude, but when she looked at the people in blue who had already gotten close, her face suddenly changed.

"Girl, those people are not easy to mess with. You... you have to be careful..." After saying this, the mother didn't dare to stay anymore. She hurriedly left with the little boy in her arms.

As soon as the mother left with the child, the girl was surrounded by the people in blue.

These people in blue all had weapons in their hands, and their expressions were vicious and full of gloom.

The girl who was surrounded still looked ignorant, making her look pitiful and petite.

The crowd around the audience knew what a miserable end this girl would end up with, and they were immediately full of sympathy for her.

The girl was completely ignorant as she shouted to the men in blue, "You... you guys got in my way. Get out of the way, I'm leaving."

One of the men in blue sneered, "You did this, and now you still want to leave?"

The girl looked at them puzzledly, and she said loudly, "What I did this? What do you mean by this? I didn't do anything wrong. Little Rabbit has always followed master's teachings and has never done bad things. Why did you guys stop me?"

The man in blue only thought she was pretending to be innocent, so he shouted furiously, "You still dare to say that you don't know what you have done wrong? How dare you stop our miss' carriage and even offend our miss. Are you looking for death!?"

The girl scratched her hair in confusion. She shook her head and said, "I'm not looking for death! I'm here to find someone. Are you looking for death? Do you want me to do that for you?"

The onlookers couldn't help but laugh at what the girl said.

It was just that due to the powerful force of the men in blue, even if it was hard to hold back, they still held it.

Hexi and the others who watched the excitement didn't even think about holding back. Especially Bai Hu, he immediately laughed out loud hearing the little girl's words.

The girl's words had already made the man in blue annoyed. Now he heard the laughter coming from the crowd, his face was even more distorted.

He waved the halberd in his hand at the girl, saying sternly, "Damn girl, I think you are tired o living. I don't care who are you looking for! I will teach you a lesson today so that you know who you shouldn't mess with!"

Chapter 904: Not Considering as Fighting

As soon as the command was made, the men in blue surrounding the girl all made a move.

Seeing that the gleaming swords, spears and halberds were about to turn the delicate girl into a meat paste, many people couldn't bear to cover their eyes.

Only the faces of Hexi and others showed the expression of calmly watching the good show.

The next moment, the girl mumbled, "Why are you all attacking me? I did nothing wrong? Right, you all must be bad guys! Bad guys deserved to be beaten up!"

After speaking, her little chubby hand stretched out and grabbed one of the halberds stabbing at her.

The man in blue holding the halberd suddenly felt his weapon had pierced into a iron block. He couldn't move it no matter how.

The girl sneered and exerted force at the halberd. The man in blue couldn't help screaming, and he was lifted up forcibly.

"Haha, you all are not as strong as I'm; not my opponent!"

The girl giggled, then she spun around while grabbing the halberd.

After spinning around, the men in blue were being knocked down by a strong force, making bursts of painful screams.

The girl saw that they were all down, then she put her hands on her waist and said proudly, "Look, told you you are not my opponent. Now you all convinced now?"

But then she remembered something as she said with an anxious face, "Oh no, master said that I can't fight casually here. Little Rabbit has just fought. I won't be punished by master when I go back right?"

"No, no!" The girl immediately shook her head and denied herself. "Master said that I can't fight, but I can't be bullied by others. This group of bad guys attacked me first. I'm defending myself, not fighting! That's right, not consider as fighting! Master will definitely not blame me!"

The men in blue on the ground were only knocked down by a huge force, but they were not injured.

At this time, they had recovered. They all looked angry. They were a group of martial artists of the Foundation Establishment stage, and they were actually played by a teenage girl!

Moreover, the girl didn't seem to have cultivation at all. She was just born with a little stronger physical strength!

Thinking of this, the leader gritted his teeth and said sternly, "Okay! Damn girl, since you are so arrogant, don't blame me for being rude!"

As he said, he suddenly took out a gourd-shaped weapon in his hand.

With the injection of his spiritual power, the weapon emitted a faint blue light at the girl instantly.

As soon as the blue light touched the girl, it turned into a net that tightly bound the girl.

“Wah, what’s going on? Why can’t I move anymore?” The girl was tied up, but she still couldn’t understand the situation, “What did you use to tie to me!”

The man in blue saw that she was restrained, and he sneered in relief. He waved his hand, “Why are you all just standing there? Go and get her!”

The guards in blue immediately rushed up when they heard the command.

The girl’s petite figure was soon overwhelmed by a group of fierce men in blue.

Everyone showed unbearable expressions on their faces. Especially the mother who was holding the child, before she went far, her eyes flushed anxiously when she saw this scene.

Chapter 905: Sister Tutu Is so Great

At this moment when the mother was struggling, she suddenly heard a clear cheer from her son, “Wow, Sister Tutu is great!”

The mother quickly looked up and saw that the men in blue who had overwhelmed the girl were suddenly knocked back one by one.

In the blink of an eye, all the people in blue fell to the ground again. This time it was not like the last time where they only suffered some external injuries, most of them couldn’t get up for a while and could only keep moaning in pain.

The girl was holding a blue silk-like thing in her hand and threw it on the ground, then she pointed at the men in blue on the ground and said with a stern face, “Do you all admit your wrongdoing? Don’t bully others again in the future, otherwise I will teach you a lesson every time I see you!”

As she said, she even squeezed her chubby little fist and waved them at them.

The only one among the men in blue who was still standing was the leader.

He still held his gourd-shaped magic weapons that he was proud of, but his eyes were full of horror at this time.

My magic weapon is rank 4. Even the martial artists of Meridians Stage may not be able to resist it, this girl seems to have no cultivation. How exactly... did she do it?

Seeing that the girl had finished teaching a lesson to the people on the ground, she began to walk toward him step by step.

The leader was shocked, and he staggered back, “You... what do you want to do...”

The girl snatched the gourd in his hand, looked up and down, and snorted coldly, “You... are a bad guy. Leaving this kind of thing in your hands will only harm people!”

After she finished speaking, she exerted force and squeezed a rank 4 weapon into... a ball.

The leader's legs were trembling as if the girl was a monster to him.

The girl dropped the deformed gourd, made a fist gesture to the man in blue, raised her chin and asked, "Hey, did you hear what I said just now? No more wrongdoings in the future, otherwise I will not let you go. Do you hear me?"

"Yes... I hear you..." How did the man in blue dare to refute? He couldn't wait to kneel down and beg her for mercy.

The girl seemed to be satisfied now. After clapping her hands, she turned around and was about to leave.

At this moment, a woman's charming voice came from the carriage that had been quiet, "Who said you can go?!"

As soon as the voice sounded, a woman in a red dress jumped off the carriage.

She looked less than 10 years old with a double-ring bun. She stared at the girl with her eyes as if she was about to strip her alive.

The woman in a red dress looked quite exquisite; she had an oval face, a high nose, and slightly sunken eyes, which made her look exotic.

It was just that her skin seemed to be a little black and yellow that was close to wheat. It looked a little nondescript when paired with a red dress.

But as soon as the audience saw the woman in red dress, they immediately showed awe and fear. They stepped back a few steps in silence.

When they first saw the carriage and the guards in blue, many people guessed the identity of the person in the carriage. So, even if they were injured by the guards in blue, they dared not speak.

When Hexi and the others watched the shows by the side, they heard whispers of people around them.

Chapter 906: A Dumbass

"Brother Xian, this woman in red dress is Ren Xueling. She is the daughter of the former lord of Yongan City, and she is also the disciple of the Doctors Association's president. She is the person whom you can't offend the most in this Yongan City!"

"Doctors Association's president's disciple?!" The person who asked earlier couldn't help but exclaim, "Is it the Miluo Continent's only tenth rank physician and medicine master? Is he the Doctors Association's president, Lu Xuyang, who is known as the top genius in medical skills?"

"Who else could it be?"

"So she is his disciple. No wonder she is already at the peak of the Meridians Stage at a young age. The little girl is pitiful. It seems that she is going to suffer."

"Yeah right? This Ren Xueling has always been accustomed to behaving arrogantly in Yongan City. Whoever offends her will be ruined completely? Now this little girl, let alone she isn't Ren Xueling's opponent, even if she wins, she will most likely get revenge. Sigh~"

Hexi couldn't help but raised her eyebrow.

The president of the Doctors Association, Lu Xuyang, she had also heard of it. It was said that when he was only in his early thirties, he had already received the eighth rank doctor's title. Later, he went up all the way to the position of the president of the Doctors Association. After he took over as the president of the Doctors Association, decades have passed. The Doctors Association had become more and more prosperous under his management, seeming to monopolize the entire Miluo Continent pharmaceutical market.

Judging from all these achievements, Lu Xuyang really had some abilities.

The whispers of the crowd did not affect the development of the matter on the other side.

When Ren Xueling got out of the car, she sternly shouted at the girl, "Which rural village do you come from? You dare to stop my carriage and hurt my person, I think you are tired of living!"

When the girl was stopped again and heard the woman in a red dress' rude words, she became a little angry!

"You're the rural village girl!" The girl scolded Ren Xueling mercilessly with her arms on her waist, "Your skin is like charcoal, and yet you dressed in red, just like a dumbass in a red wedding gown. You obviously did something wrong and almost hurt someone. Not only did you not apologize, but you also scold me!? Ugly person really has a black heart as well!

"You... you dare to call me ugly—!!!"

Ren Xueling, who was only angry at first, suddenly trembled with anger. Her entire face became distorted.

What I hate most is that people say I have dark skin, and this bitch not only pokes my scars, but she also dares to say that I'm like a dumbass!

Damn it! Damn it! Damn it!

Ren Xueling almost went mad, and a whip suddenly appeared out of her hand.

As soon as this whip appeared, the temperature in the air seemed to drop a few degrees.

The onlookers who were a little closer to Ren Xueling couldn't help but shudder all over and backed away.

"You bitch, die!!!"

The whip suddenly turned into a shadow, whipping at the girl fiercely. The cold air spread to the surrounding as she whipped, giving people an illusion that even the air was freezing.

The girl seemed to be taken aback. As she was caught off guard, she directly stretched out her hand to catch the whip shadow in the air.

Seeing this, Ren Xueling couldn't help but sneer.

Chapter 907: It's so Warm

Her whip itself was refined with thousand years old ice. Combined with her own ice attribute spiritual power, not to mention the consequences of being whipped, even if she touched it lightly, a layer of her skin would be peeled off.

Not to mention, this woman actually dared to hold her whip with bare hands. In a while, her entire hand would freeze into ice and crack.

Ren Xueling was smiling triumphantly, but soon, her smile froze.

After catching the whip, the girl was stunned. She then shook it in her hand, revealing a curious smile on her face.

It was a whip that would make people suffer.

In the hands of this little girl, it looked like a toy. The girl even pulled and snatched the whip in Ren Xueling's hand.

"This is really fun." The girl smiled like she was playing with a toy. "It's so cold and cool, are you throwing it to me as a gift? Then I will accept it, hehe!"

The girl was young and ignorant, but not stupid. Of course, she knew that the fierce woman in red didn't give her the whip.

But she disliked this woman very much, so she also wanted to make her uncomfortable. It was just right that the whip was cold and fun to play, so she kept it without guilt.

Ren Xueling didn't expect that the ice whip would be snatched away.

The whip is given by my master, and it took a lot of effort to forge it successfully. It is so majestic to whip it which makes me like it so much. Now... now it is taken away by this bitch!

Ren Xueling suddenly felt anger rushing to her head, causing her to channel the spiritual power in her body desperately. She roared, "Thousands Miles Ice Seal—!!!"

As soon as she said, the icy breath suddenly filled the air.

Everyone only heard the sound of "creaking", then the temperature in the air dropped rapidly. It was now autumn, but the sky suddenly started to snow.

Suddenly, someone exclaimed, "My feet, my feet are frozen, help!"

"Mother, I'm so cold, wuu..."

For a time, the originally bustling and colorful streets seemed to be covered with frost. The wailing of everyone was heard one after another.

Thousands Miles Ice Seal quickly spread to Hexi and Nangong Yu, and they heard everyone screaming.

Bai Hu shivered with the cold. He jumped on the spot and shouted, "Master, princess, do you need us to deal with this ice?"

Before Nangong Yu and Hexi could talk, the Little Golden Dragon who was lying on Xiao Chi immediately flew into the sky and said, "Boss, let me do it! I like to deal with ice the most!"

Hexi smiled and nodded.

Little Golden Dragon immediately flew into the sky excitedly, and he spouted flames from his mouth.

The fire spread across the street in an instant, engulfing all the people and shops in it.

Everyone was frightened. If it was just ice, they could still be alive; but if it was fire, how could they escape.

However, the next moment, they were shocked by what happened.

These flames surrounded them didn't hurt them at all, but they only melted the ice.

A child even reached out his hand to poke at the flame that was rising next to him, and he couldn't help but smile, "Mother, it's so warm; it's not cold at all."

Chapter 908: Beaten into a Pig's Head

Everyone realized that it was Hexi and her group melted the ice that made them tremble. They immediately looked over with gratitude.

Ren Xueling and the pinky girl naturally also noticed the situation here.

Ren Xueling didn't see clearly. She just sneered, "Even dare to meddle my business? Wait until I deal with this bitch, it will be your turn after that!"

The pinky girl turned her head and showed a gratitude smile to Hexi and her party, then she glared at Ren Xueling, "You ugly woman with ill intentions, how can you do this? This is our fight, why do you want to involve the others? "

Little Golden Dragon only got rid of the ice on the street, but the pinky girl faced Ren Xueling's attack, so she was still covered with ice.

Seeing that her hands and feet were already covered by ice and the frost still falling in the sky also stopped her movement, Ren Xueling couldn't help laughing, "So what if I involve the others? There are just insignificant peasants in my eyes. As long as I can kill you, their death is nothing!"

The pinky girl clenched her fists and said with resentment, "You, you are too much! I have decided to teach you a lesson. Even if I will be scolded by master, I don't care!"

Ren Xueling sneered, "You're now frozen by my ice. You can't move and protect yourself, and you still want to teach me a lesson? Dreaming! I will now ruin your face. Let's see how can you come out to the public in the future!!"

As Ren Xueling said, an ice blade formed in her hand. She flew toward the pinky girl ferociously.

As the blade was about to pierce the pinky girl, the pinky girl suddenly threw a punch at Ren Xueling's chest ruthlessly.

A loud "bang" sound! Ren Xueling was in the air, vomiting a mouthful of blood.

The spiritual power shield all over her body suddenly shattered. She was like being stomped by an elephant. It was so painful that even her internal organs had moved.

Seeing that Ren Xueling was about to fly out, the pinky girl grabbed her back and smashed her face with the pinky fist.

After a few punches, Ren Xueling's face had already turned blue and purple; half of her cheek was swollen. Her somewhat delicate face was now utterly ugly.

Moreover, the force of the pinky girl's fist was too terrifying. Even if Ren Xueling put up the spiritual power shield, she still screamed in pain being beaten. In the end, she couldn't help begging for mercy.

Seeing her begging for mercy, the pinky girl let go of her with satisfaction. She stood up and said proudly, "Look, as senior said, some people won't shed tears without using brute force. After a round of beating, they will be obedient! Hmph, if you dare to bully others in the future, I will beat you into a real pig head!"

Ren Xueling knew how ugly she was now without looking in the mirror.

When the people watching saw her miserable appearance, they wanted to laugh, but thinking of her identity, no one dared to laugh out loud.

However, no one on Hexi's side would care about this.

Chapter 909: Sneak Attack

"Hahahaha... like a dumbass! Like a dumbass!" Little Egg clapped his paws and laughed, "Sister Tutu is mighty, you are the most handsome beating the dumbass!"

"Little Egg, you are wrong, she is like a dumbass in a red wedding gown, hahaha..."

Because the whole street was silent, the laughter of Little Egg and the others became very noticeable at this time.

The pinky girl looked toward the source of the laughter, then she saw many spiritual pets lining up to cheer for her.

Pink pig, mini dragon, silly cow, and cute little girl... Woah, how come they look so cute, especially the pink pig makes me want to rush over to knead it twice.

The pinky girl's eyes were bright, and the girl's heart burst.

Ren Xueling hated her; she hated not only the pinky girl, but also those who dared to laugh at her and even everyone on the street.

Ren Xueling had already made up her mind that when she returned, she would have people kill all these damned peasants, leaving no one to live!

The pinky girl, who has caused me to be so humiliated today and turned me into such a miserable appearance, I must tear her into pieces now.

Thinking of this, Ren Xueling took out an oddly shaped flying knife from her arm.

The color of this flying knife was unobtrusive and mixed-color. There was even some iron-red rust on the knife.

However, this knife was made by her master, the president of the Doctors Association, Lu Xuyang.

Some of the most powerful poisons in the world are mixed into it. After being refined by the spiritual fire, as long as it was injected with spiritual power, it could 100% penetrate the protective shields of martial artists below the Nascent Soul stage.

Once the martial artist's body was injured by this flying knife, even if it was just a small wound, the toxin would immediately transfer from the flying knife to the martial artist's body, making him immediately suffer a living hell.

No matter how strange and powerful this pinky girl is, can she even survive the deadly knife made by master?

Ren Xueling sinisterly stared at the back of the pinky girl. Seeing that she turned her head to look at the group of spiritual pets and not paying attention to her, she injected spiritual power into the flying knife and threw it at the pinky girl's back, "Bitch, just die!!"

The pinky girl turned her head when she heard the sound, then she saw a gray-black flying knife was thrown at her at lightning speed.

She hurriedly reached out to block, but the next moment, she felt a cold force coming from the flying knife.

The pinky girl instinctively felt something wrong. She had a hunch that if she took the flying knife, she would definitely be hurt by the flying knife.

At the critical moment, she leaned back and avoided the throwing knife.

Just when the pinky girl breathed a sigh of relief, Ren Xueling laughed and said, "Bitch, do you think you can escape? The deadly knife will never be retrieved without killing someone!"

Sure enough, the flying knife, that had flown past the pinky girl's head, immediately spun back.

The speed was actually several times faster than before.

The pinky girl could no longer dodge this time, finally showing a look of panic on her face.

Seeing the flying knife pierced her chest, a metallic sound came into her ears.

Immediately afterward, the flying knife seemed to have encountered its nemesis as it stopped in mid-air, making a buzzing sound.

Chapter 910: Fairy Zhixi

At the same time, green smoke began to emerge from the flying knife. However, as soon as the smoke appeared, it seemed to be swallowed by something.

When the smoke disappeared, the flying knife seemed to have lost all support. It fell to the ground with a crack.

At the same time, there were a few silver needles exuding dark purple smoke falling on the ground.

The pinky girl was in shock, staring blankly at the shattered flying knife and the silver needles on the side, then she suddenly turned her head and looked in the direction of Hexi.

At this time, Hexi had also stepped forward, picked up the silver needles from the ground, and picked up one of the fragments of the flying knife.

“Mister, did... did you save me?” The pink girl stared straight at Hexi’s face. Her face was blushing like a red apple.

Hexi smiled at her, then she said, “I’m only interested in the poison on this flying knife, not intended to save you. You don’t have to thank me.”

The pinky girl didn’t seem to hear her. She just looked at her with hot cheeks, and her eyes were reluctant to look away.

Ren Xueling also suddenly recovered, pointing at Hexi and screaming, “You... you actually ruined my deadly knife! I’m going to kill you——!!!”

With that said, Ren Xueling was about to rush toward Hexi.

But what greeted her was another round of iron fists from the pinky girl.

And this time, the pinky girl exerted 30% more force. Her first punch slammed on Ren Xueling’s stomach, which made her spout a mouthful of blood.

The pinky girl said furiously, “You have not changed after repeated lessons; you’re simply hopeless! Never mind that you sneak attack, but you even want to kill my savior? I... I won’t let you go again this time!!!”

As she said, she clenched her fist again. The seemingly ordinary fist was tinged with a light pink luster.

But Nangong Yu was the only one present to see the layer of luster. He raised his eyebrow and slowly showed a thoughtful look.

The pinky girl’s fist was about to hit Ren Xueling, and Ren Xueling was already trembling with fright.

Suddenly, a cold and pleasant voice came slowly from high above, “Stop!”

A woman wearing a light blue gauze slowly fell from the sky. Her robes were fluttering as she slowly landed in front of Ren Xueling.

The pinky girl had already launched her punch at this time, but she didn’t hit anything. It seemed to be blocked by something in mid air.

There was a pale green wind wall rippling in the air. It was this wind wall that blocked the devastating blow of the pinky girl.

The wind wall receded, and the true face of the woman in green clothes was revealed.

She had long slender eyebrows, clear almond eyes and an oval face with a perfect chin. Her snow white skin, in comparison to Ren Xueling’s black and yellow skin, was crystal clear.

The woman seemed to be in her 20s looked like she should be around 20 years old, but she gave a sense of otherworldly elegance just like the fairy above the nine heavens. People would only admire her when they look at her, but they forget to explore her age.

As soon as Ren Xueling saw this person, she immediately rushed over with a cry, "Senior Sister, save me, wuuu..."

The audience also saw the woman's face clearly at this time, and they suddenly took a deep breath.

"That... isn't that Fairy Zhixi? Why would Fairy Zhixi appear here?!"
