"hukum you won't if you do so I won't leave anyone stay still I will make hell"

"is it not now because of you?"

"Hukum this is not fare ladies fight is not your ground you always go away from it then why now?"

"I said she is most important for me then you should have listened to me and stay away from her you slapped her it's your crime and I won't tolerate"

"ok then we will have fight so that who loses will seek oppology"

Manik laughed "she is srinivas Murthy daughter don't forget that who is guru of many kings and his father was one who trained my father and he even trained Nandini do you think you will win on her and she is pregnant she can't fight"

"so already lost the fight then let her ask oppology and leave your room forever"

"no!!! She won't I already said what is mine will be always mine by hook or crook?"

"I will" Nandini said

All looked at Nandini in horror

Manik's mothers came to her warned her about pregnancy

"we will have to set rules for that and father will be the judge of fight"

Nandini said in firm voice Manik knew what she is trying to do he also know her stubborness

"I will set rules" Manik said "but bet is the one who loses will leave the queen position and whole life will be salve of other, and next one who tries to cheat or kill other will be send out of country naming gadhar and you both know what people do to such one in our country. Now rules, no one will attach stomachs, fight is on ground not on horse next there will be three rounds in each game. First one is about politics, second one is about country rules and regulations the laws applied last one is sword fight. Each fight will take on each day. Scores will be declared then and their fight is in our royal ground among people so no chance of cheating last one if one player imposes to loose the game on other one will be declare to hang on the same place"

Both agreed

Manik when they are out dragged Nandini to room and made her pinned to wall of his bedroom and shouted "I said you are mine totally mine I can protect you then why did you say yes to this stupid fight when you know that you are pregnant dammit you are carrying twins you need strength rest care and love not such stupid fights and how dare you disobey me when I clearly said I don't want you to disobey me?"
