

Hema punishment

Words:2163

Nandini is training for sword fight, Manik he himself is training, he is making her tough and hard to fight with him, not like last time. He want Nandini to win in all means he want Hema shut for life time.

When Nandini was fighting with him, she herself found fighting with her father, he was always tough and strong when he was teaching her sword fight. She has to put all energy in her hands and fight and legs to be strong at place, stand still so that she can atleast defend herself. Here Manik is too strong for her but she is not letting him to win that easy.

Manik when fighting with her got to know her weakness being short in size she is easy in escaping but tough when comes to attack so he made sure she knows how to attack so for atleast half he taught her how to attack when it was dawn he stopped training her.

When he stopped she almost slipped herself and about to fell down Manik was sharp to catch her in one hand she felt dizzy Manik led her in arms and took her to wash area and made her sleep on couch which is placed near the pool, made Dasi to remove her chappels dress and wrap in a cloth which is comfortable, Manik ordered oil for massage when Dasi brought Luke warm oil he started to massage her feet Nandini got up in second and took her legs away from him "hukum!!!! Never try to touch my feet again in life I prefer to die than making you do that" she said with tears "I am just massaging"

"Dasi will do it please you be with my side that's it" Manik smiled ordered Dasi to give massage he sat besides her hold her in arms "we will postpone fight for two days" "no hukum let me do this, I will be fine" "you are carrying two more kids inside you" "they are your kids, they have blood line to fight back so don't worry" Manik smiled "you are really something which I never expected to happen in my life, relax" he kissed her forehead Nandini blushed as he kissed her in front of Dasi

Whole night Manik made Nandini feel relaxed, he made room be pleasant, a smell of herbs which body and mind light was added a Dasi is always pressing her arms and one her feet so that the pain which caused in sword practice is minimized. Manik is besides her talking sweet nothings. She slept fast.

Manik when confirmed Nandini is sleeping he made all Dasis go away, he covered her with duvet and crossed her so ly then walked to balcony.

"What is life for him???? It's not what everyone felt for him, he was always lonely in spite having these many people but now he is not, he have Nandini beside him, presence of her makes him feel comfort and content. He still feels it's a miracle that happened to him, in case of Nandini.

The way he cooked for him just a er he forced her and took her innocence without any so ness, which he still feels sorry, her small gestures which took his heart away being stubborn her contradictions in some things all made him amused

Manik thought she is just in lady for money, but knowing Nandini he is out of words she herself sacrificed her self respect to himself, when some days back she said she was seen naked by some others he felt like his blood boiled and heart burnt but when she said he had killed them he felt little better. But..... What she felt about he watching her been naked made him overwhelming and pleasing. "So she already decided me as her husband?"

Manik smiled by that thought he looked at Nandini he walked to her and kissed her lips so which lingered lazily, she reacted even in her deep sleep, unknowingly his hand traveled to her boobs she moaned so ly he is sexually aroused instantly but stopped himself as she is tried beyond her energy

Manik slept besides her, pu ing last lamp in the room, she gripped his waist tight and kept half of her body on his, he wrapped his hands around her happily. She started rubbing herself on him, Manik looked at her in confusion she is deep sleep but her body is reaching to his bodily touch. He remembered from the day he first time had till now he never made her sleep just like that without sex when he is around her, it's first time and she is missing their make outs, and being pregnant her hormones ditched her sane he smiled started to play with her body and kissing her jaw line, Nandini is giving him more accesses to kiss her more he smiled and gave her love bite she woke up.

"Hukum!!!!" She moaned Manik hovered her and slid himself into her without giving her chance to speak, he kissed lips she moaned inside her sleep, he slowly and with good peace made her release he too poured his seeds. Both smiled "so you can't sleep without this?" He teased "no its not true it's you who woke up" "you was the one rubbing yourself to my body" She widened her eyes and felt most embarrassing "and I loved it very much" he kissed her pout which she made unknowingly She hugged him tight in shy he held her tight in arms and made her sleep he too slept this time.

Next day is again fight day but last one.

A top class worries came and explained all the rules and regulations again, he even made them clear how they get points. Both agreed

Hema is not at all nervous, she is much confident than she has to be which made Manik frown his forehead.

Manik called a person and said something. That person went away listening to Manik quickly.

Before fight started Manik stopped saying "I want to check each other's swords so that no one can miss use the swords like adding any poison to swords" Hema frowned "this is ridiculous hukum!!!! You should have atleast faith on me" "the one which is lacking since our childhood" he said smirking and asked guard to bring rats. He brought Manik took Nandini sword and killed rat waited for few minutes it turned to green color Manik smirked "look Hema I am correct"

"it's your new rani sword she is one who ditched not me hukum she planned to kill me and you are accusing me why?" Hema yelled loudly Manik laughed "ramsingh!" Manik shouted A man tied in chains was brought to the ground Hema face turned pale "this man is ramsingh from smahalgharh Hema parental country, he brought a poison which makes a person go unconscious for some time but don't kill, he made that poison added to Nandini sword so that she can be accused and sent out of country. Hema you cheated" Manik declared

"no I didn't, this all because of you moron she raised her sword and try to kill Nandini in angry" Manik immediately reacted and held his sword to stop her, but Nandini got a small cut on her neck

Manik with in second thrown out Hema sword from her hand and placed it on her neck "how dare you try to kill her? Submit or let me kill you" "hukum!!!!" Nandini stopped Manik King got up from his chair all the gossips and gasps stopped, ground went silent Manik dropped his sword down

"Hema this is not expected from you nor acceptable we were already clear that the one cheats will be send out of country then why you did this???? And in front of me you try to kill choti bahurani???? This is crime and you will pay for this" Before king declare his punishment for Hema Nandini interrupted "shakma Raja sa!!!!!! Before you declare punishment can I put a word in front of me?" All gasped again Manik looked at her annoyed "Yes you can"

"I want to fight with didi sa!!!! Win is not win until you win it, then you give her punishment I don't want be declared win without proper fight so can you please give me permission to fight with didi sa?" Nandini asked politely. Every word she used and spoke made everyone in ground go amused, all started to talk among themselves again and most of them are speaking about Nandini's point of view on this particular situation

"no!!!! This not possible!!!! I don't think we should risk any more, she tried to kill her" Manik yelled "hukum!!! Still let her have her own talent win or loose for once" Nandini pleaded Manik got angry "Nandini!!!! Don't you dare cross your limit!!!! I pamper you doesn't give you rights to take advantage of it when I said no means no" Nandini flinched in horror!!!!

"Yuvaraj!!!! What chotibahu rani asked is fair one, let them have a fight but whoever win punishment for the prior will be given to Hema and if Hema wins, she gets a easy punishment if she loses punishment will be harsh" king declared Manik turned to Nandini "if you wanted loose you will see my dead body" Manik Wishpered in Nandini ears in low voice Nandini looked at him in horrified face

Fight started this time rules are strict and Manik himself stood to watch their fight. Hema is throwing sword on Nandini with all her anger where as Nandini is defending with all her skill. Manik eyes fell on Nandini neck which had drained blood clots his palm fistened in angry, he is hell angry on Nandini

First round completed Hema and Nandini did well both got equal points. Manik signaled Dasi she brought wipes to clean Nandini wound and other Dasi added some herbal liquid to it which made her hiss in pain Manik jaw clenched he grinned his teeth in anger.

Second round started Manik before angry "if you don't give your best I will show what I am, she is angry just get rid of her it's her weakness go for it" he warned Nandini this time made smart moves which made Hema amused, she herself felt surprised by her moves Nandini got three marks more

Next round is the do and die round for Hema is giving her best her talent and skill is been exhibited, which made Nandini get tough competition but Nandini is all together best among the two so she got one point more than Hema

Warrior declared Nandini as winner, all ground gave applauses. Hema fell on ground all tired emotionally mentally and physically. King declared Nandini as winner.

King called Manik on stage "what punishment you want to give to Hema?" "Send her away from country" "what answer will you give to your two daughters???? How can anyone marry your two daughters, when their mother is one who got such punishment? Why do you want to ruin their future for her mistake Nandini is alive and I don't think she want Hema to be sent out of country so give some other harsh punishment" King requested Manik

Manik looked at Nandini he is helpless he want to kill Hema same time his father is right all the time he is barring her just because of them but now he want her to repent for life time for doing this to him. "Hema should be punished harshly that is for sure you decide it father because for me killing her now is only I can think" Manik said in angry

King patted Manik's shoulder and rubbed slightly to calm him down "today in this competition Nandini is the winner, Hema lost and even cheated in the games, so she deserves punishment, and the punishment. A lady who can't even win a competition without cheating, a lady who want to take her own Co wives, a lady who can't control on her own emotion cannot become a Queen, so I declare her as normal wife of Yuvaraj she cannot be queen forever, I here by produce a written declaration, and for doing conspiracy she has to get punishment so that in future neither she nor anyone will try to do such again, she will be never treated as a princess and she is not allowed to go out of mahal or meet anyone she is arrested in her own room for six months"

"Maharaj no!!!! This can't do that, you punish me as much as you can, but I am born to become queen you can't take it from me" Hema cried "you should have checked your own behavior if you want to be queen, and now it's declared" king raised his voice Hema shattered "the fights are over so you all can disperse" Minster declared All walked away making Hema le back all alone
