

Planning for war

Words: 1554

After a long pleading and getting checked by a bunch of healers Nandini was allowed to roam inside mahal. Manik too went out leaving her for his duties.

Nandini is not allowed to do any work but she walked to kitchen met all ladies and elders. Daughters too greeted her and enquired about her health. She is happy to see all once again.

All her Co sisters explained to her how Manik was panicked and acted like insane. She guessed almost. When she is tired she came to the room and had seat on couch watching.

She never had time or thought of glancing mahal so started to look at Mahal. It is so so so huge. All most bigger than her eyes can reach. Everywhere stonework is sculptured rich in architecture work and beauty.

Each place has its beauty. Her left side is of garden swimming pool, some swings, sit-outs small animals birds are located. She smiled seeing them.

There is Vasantha Mandapam which is full of creepers flowers and beauty.

Next to it is some other mahal then the right side is huge building may be it Raja prastha where all meetings of King occurs then main building soon she couldn't figure out all

When she is watching all her surroundings Manik came back hugged her by sideways. He placed his hands on her stomach creasing

"you came back hukum?"

"Yes I couldn't concentrate"

"you should have, I am all right hukum"

"I know"

"I never looked at all the places it's so huge"

"Yes it is to see all the mahal and inside the the the room, you may take ten days."

"O my God "

"we are even planning to build new ones for some works"

"oooh!!!!!! So our children will know all these areas?"

"Especially son"

"Yes he has to"

"how are you?"

"Fine hukum can we go to Vasantha mandap?"

"Now?"

"Can't we go?"

"Not like that, for going to Vasantha mandap no!!!! It's bit dangerous and I don't want to take the risk"

"risk was for you the aim was you not me"

"ya I know but still," Manik said with straight lips. Smiled fake

Nandini kept quiet she leaned back on Manik chest and stood to watch the whole palace. She is feeling bliss all these days Manik's presence is giving her happiness

Next day Manik planned to attack the pithori he sent a person to inform about war. King already started preparations for war as Manik want to have war. Hurt Nandini was his weakest side and he wants to compensate for war.

Nandini herself doesn't want war. She hates killing people, now involving Manik in this war is making her freaking out. She tried in all means to stop the war but Manik is adamant

King is angrier than Manik. As they aimed Manik to kill he us only son and yuvaraj of the kingdom future of this kingdom their only successor at any cost he can't lose Manik. so war is compulsory

Malik checked all warriors personally, he made arrangements like food materials medical aids required materials and some dancers along with them to entertain warriors in-between war

War is her by so they might return early if needed any time. Malik wants to come home the daily night after the war called off for the day but it's against the rule so he cannot come

Malik informed all ladies and children to be safe and even warned them to be united so that outsider may not get to them quickly. Malik warned everyone to take care of Nandini very well

Nandini is angry and sad on Manik as he leaves her side for the stupid war which she hates already. Being pregnant hormones are kicking her, she is a bit emotional or kinky sometimes.

Even cravings are also shown up. Malik is always patient in her case. He is trying to make her comfortable and happy. War is the only thing he can't avoid

Malik after his last moment works and checkings he came to the room. Nandini is sleeping like a baby with a little baby bump Manik got changed and came to her inside the blanket she within no time hugged him and tangled to his body as always

He is having a strong urge to have sex but watching her sleeping made him drop the idea. So he gave and kissed her forehead and closed his eye for sleep. When sleep is almost overtaking him, Nandini started sucking his jawline in sleep she is very lazily sucking his jawline neck and going down.

Malik dick went rock hard he wants to give Nandini rest but she is totally making this hard. So Manik took her lips and started to kiss her madly. He entered her mouth and explored her mouth inch by inch when both felt breathless Manik le her lips and she woke up

"I thought you are tired but you tho want me" Manik teased

Nandini blushed.

"come on show me how much you want me" he demanded

"hukum!!!!!!" she felt embarrassed

"nandu! I really want to see how much you want, so keep your shy aside and show me make me satisfied today and be wild very much wild"

Nandini got a glimpse of lust in his eyes pure lust along with lots of love.

Nandini for up removed her dress, she tried to cover herself with her tiny hands while walking towards him "don't don't you dare cover what is mine" walk freely" she blushed and came to him. When she reached Manik grabbed her and started sucking her boobs like no tomorrow pressing the other one playing nibbling and sucking she is moaning with her sweet voice

When he satisfied with her so and heavy boobs he made her sit on his stomach as he already removed his last piece of cloth hugging him, she instantly got a touch of his dick. She blushed hard he smiled at her blush and li ed her placed her on his manhood which started to go inside her slowly both started moaning Manik took her boobs in hands and started playing with them when she totally entered she started jumping slowly.

When Manik felt he want to explore more he flipped their position and started to give a hard thrust making her scream his name in pleasure. Nandini got exhausted Manik when had to the climax of both he kissed her forehead and peeked her lips "beautiful" he kissed her neck and got up from her took her arms and made her sleep on him and slept peacefully.

Next morning when Nandini is leaving the bed Manik stopped her dragged her to himself and hovered her without any warning started playing with her body and entered "I want you more and more until the time I wanted to go out so prepared to be with me like this" while giving her strokes she moaning in answer

When it was morning a bell is been struck as a warning for every warrior to come to the assembly. Malik already got ready Nandini knew ow she can't do anything so tied him a black thread on his leg and gave arthi and sent him smiling through tears.

"you hukum is an undefeated worrier so be happy I will wrap this war as early as possible" he kissed her forehead and bid bye hugged her tight and le .

Manik trained Nandini how to know his letters and how to reply them. He gave her necessary information like when he does a red dot on the letter it's confidential and important if green it carries green dot then it's good news blue one it carries personal stu . He also stressed on his letter opening will be with Sri letter to know that it's not manipulated and even he said that if he writes any puzzles that means he is in some influence.

Nandini too gave her hints like she always makes a letter with the only blue colour ink if she uses other colours then taken to be as she is in danger. She starts the letter with an om and in a letter, she adds a pearl pin means it's important. If any silver metal pin added means it's danger. Manik took everything in the note

Manik gi ed an eagle to Nandini "this fast going bird and fly very high so no one can notice it. His name is nattu"

Nandini took him and patted became a friend with him.

When Manik le , for war. Pithori is kingdom besides their kingdom they always want the land of smahalgharh, Manik being the only heir of the king they aimed Manik. According to them if Manik is been killed there will be no ruler after the present king which makes a king weak and easy to the kingdom which is very prosperous and secured land among all kingdoms.

They also know that Manik is an undefeated warrior so they planned to kill him by hook or crook so they sent the best arrow shooter to kill Manik, as known that arrow was been taken by Nandini and Manik is safe which made the king of pithori get frustrated and Manik to call for war.

After minimum rules discussion war started
