

Kiss Me 121

Chapter 121: Is That A Term Of Endearment?

Glancing at that man's darkened face, Zuo Weiyi turned her face around while still being on her phone. She whispered, "Not yet, I was just about to eat."

She was worried that Shi Yuting would be enraged and quickly found an excuse to end the call.

"Gu Yansheng, I'll call you next time."

The moment she wanted to hang up, Gu Yansheng opened his mouth to talk again.

"Weiyi, just call me Yansheng. You never addressed me by my full name when we were young," Although they had not met in a long time, he still remembered their time together as children.

Zuo Weiyi paused and glanced at Shi Yuting again.

"Sure. Yan, Yansheng..."

As she finished, she quickly ended the call.

"Yansheng? Is that a term of endearment?"

She turned her head toward Shi Yuting and was met by his displeasure.

He was with her for such a long time but she had never called him anything but his full name.

Zuo Weiyi was dumbfounded. It was just his name, so it would not be right to call it a term of endearment.

Did friends not address each other like, too? How was it a term of endearment?

"He's my friend, is it not normal to call him by his name?" She asked reasonably.

"I sleep in the same bed and share the same blanket with you, yet you've never addressed me by my name only," Shi Yuting subconsciously said.

It was just a way of referral, when did he become so sensitive about it?

Zuo Weiyi was bewildered. She in fact did only call him by his full name but was it not because he was extremely unapproachable?

Moreover, he was the one who had pushed her away most of the time.

"Then how would you like me to address you?" Zuo Weiyi squinted as she looked at him.

Shi Yuting paused for a moment. As if to cover up the awareness he was feeling, he quickly stood up.

"Whatever you want!"

After finishing, he headed upstairs.

Aunt Yu was standing at the side, looking at the figure that had walked upstairs.

Ever since Miss Zuo's arrival, Young Master had changed. He had become more talkative too.

In the past, he would not stay in the living room for more than thirty minutes and he would never talk to the servants. In the servants' eyes, he had always been a man of a few words.

The doorbell rang.

When the servant opened the door, Zhong Chenghao walked in.

Shi Yuting turned around instead of continuing to the study upon seeing his arrival.

"It's just a scratch on your arm, it should be fine after applying for some medicine. Is there any other injury left?" After checking up on her, Zhong Chenghao looked at Zuo Weiyi with a smile.

Zuo Weiyi shook her head. "No."

After he finished packing up his stuff, Zhong Chenghao turned his head to Shi Yuting.

He teased, "Oh Brother, for an injury as small as this, can't you just apply the medicine on your own in the future?"

Zhong Chenghao had already realized that his best friend's heart was occupied by Zuo Weiyi, but with his EQ being so low, he still had not come to realize that he had fallen in love with her.

"Never! That money and equipment I have donated to you, do you think they are for nothing?" Shi Yuting raised his eyebrows and Zhong Chenghao shut his mouth.

He only raised an 'OK' sign, signaling that he surrendered.

Knowing that both of them were returning, Aunt Yu had already instructed the kitchen crew to prepare a table of healthy meals.

After a few days without seeing Miss Zuo, she realized that she had gotten thinner.

Chapter 122: Absence Makes The Heart Grow Fonder (1)

Zhong Chenghao was immediately on call as soon as he had woken up, he might as well stay to eat breakfast.

Zuo Weiyi had almost finished her meal, so she wanted to head upstairs.

She had not showered for so long while since she was staying at the public security bureau and was feeling miserable.

At the dinner table, one of the men was looking at her leaving the table.

Zhong Chenghao lifted his head up and stared at Shi Yuting, his mouth slowly opened to ask a question.

"Ting, the thing about Xinlei, was it you who had done it?"

Shi Yuting was eating his porridge when the question was raised. He paused for a moment before replying, "Yes."

Zhong Chenghao grew uneasy. "Why would you do that?"

Shi Yuting put down the bowl in his hand and looked into Zhong Chenghao's eyes, his face cold. "Am I obligated to explain my actions to you?"

Zhong Chenghao hesitated and quickly explained, "I don't mean that. I just mean you don't have to…"

"When someone exploits me, they should expect to pay a price."

Destroying Jing Corporate and banishing Jing Xinlei from his life, these actions were not results of the sole reason that she had exploited his feelings toward her, it was also…

The fact that she wanted to murder Zuo Weiyi to hide it from him!

If he had not headed to the corridor to pick up the phone call that day, would Zuo Weiyi have been gotten rid of by the mother-daughter pair?

While listening to him, Zhong Chenghao stayed silent.

Their relationship had probably ended five years ago.

If he still had some feelings toward Xinlei, he would not have removed her name from the entertainment circle.

Speaking about it, he wondered what happened when Shi Yuting had headed to Country C because of the presidential candidate issue a few days back.

"Let's stop talking about this. Do you have everything settled?"

Shi Yuting remained calm after hearing his friend's question. He leaned back against the chair and fiddled with the ring on his little finger.

"Not yet."

Zhong Chenghao could not help but feel stunned.

"Not yet? Isn't it decided already?"

For Zhong Chenghao, Shi Yuting was the most perfect candidate for the presidential position.

His grandfather was a cabinet speaker, and Shi Yuting had already begun to settle  a few years back. It was a widespread rumor that he would become the next president.

Shi Yuting looked at him, annoyed. "Don't you need to go to your hospital today?"

His eyes seemed to be asking him, 'Why are you so talkative today? Don't you have a job to do?'

Zhong Chenghao decided to compromise and gave him another 'OK' sign, "I'll take my leave now then. Thank you for the meal."

After he left, Shi Yuting stood up as well. He went to the living room but did not see Zuo Weiyi, so he headed upstairs to their bedroom.

When he opened the door, there was no one there too.

Just as he wanted to turn around, he heard the room to the bathroom being opened.

Her exposed shoulder, long legs, and her curvy body caught Shi Yuting's attention.

After days of not seeing her, he had indeed missed her scent.

Zuo Weiyi was stunned as well because she did not expect that he would come upstairs.

Even though they slept together every night, appearing in front of him with just a single towel made her feel exposed.

Silence descended in the room and was quickly replaced by an air of intimacy. Zuo Weiyi bit her bottom lip and was attempting to break this awkward silence.

"Uhm… Has your friend left?"

Shi Yuting walked toward her. Instead of answering her, his lips curled into a charming smile. "You're getting to know me more and more."

Chapter 123: Absence Makes The Heart Grow Fonder (2)

Zuo Weiyi blanked out, she did not understand what he meant.

She was about to open her mouth but the man quickly carried her in his arms and headed toward the king-sized bed.

Zuo Weiyi's eyes widened. She could not struggle as Shi Yuting pinned her against the bed.

God! The sun was still out, was he planning to do it now?!

"Shi Yuting, it's still morn… Ugh..."

Not giving her a chance to speak, Shi Yuting dipped his head down and sealed her pink and soft lips with his. He pried the rows of her teeth apart with his hot tongue and slid it inside her cavity. He probed her tongue, her taste lingering on his tongue.

Absence makes the heart grow fonder. With just a kiss, a wave of heat began to rush to Shi Yuting's lower part of the body.

The kiss was like magic, Zuo Weiyi was quickly drowned in pleasure. The familiar bliss brought her to cloud nine, making her moan uncontrollably…

After a long while of embracing one another, Shi Yuting finally let her go.

Of course, he still had some work to take care at the office when he had left for so long.

"Stay home and rest, alright?"

Zuo Weiyi nodded and looked at his disappearing figure.

As Shi Yuting left, Zuo Weiyi got out of bed and took another shower.

She was in awe of his inhumane stamina. Was he not tired of working for a whole day? Yet, he still had the energy to do… those stuff with her!

Zuo Weiyi was feeling bored the whole afternoon, so she took out her phone to kill some time.

She saw that her best friend, Bei Xingcheng's profile picture was lit up when she logged into QQ.

With a flick of her finger, she sent her a message, "What are you doing now?"

"I'm taking a break and reading a novel. What about you?"

"I'm bored. What genre is it?"

"Romance."

"It is good?"

"Yeah, do you want to read it?"

Looking at Bei Xingcheng's message, Zuo Weiyi bit her bottom lip. She was bored anyway, so she might as well read something to kill her time.

She replied, "Sure, what's the name of the novel?"

Bei Xingcheng sent the title of the novel within a few seconds. Since she had nothing else to do, she opened the reading section of QQ and began reading the romance novel that her best friend had recommended.

Just as her best friend had claimed, the novel was really good. Zuo Weiyi was instantly absorbed into the story.

Yet the more she progressed into the story, the deeper her heart sank.

The first half of the story was about the female lead sleeping with the male lead in a drunken stupor. To no one's expectation, she was pregnant with his child after the one nightstand. After knowing that the male lead had a fiancée, she had to force herself to abort the baby.

Yet, everyone had only found out about this later in the story, and the female lead lived in criticisms and insults for the rest of her life, which led to her getting depression…

Zuo Weiyi put down her phone when she had reached this part.

Although her situation was different, she had also slept with Shi Yuting in a drunken stupor.

She also remembered that Shi Yuting said that it was impossible for her to become 'Mrs. Shi'.

What if one day, she was pregnant with his child?!

As she thought of this, she quickly jumped out of the sofa, her eyes widened.

The maid next to her asked her in confusion, "Miss Zuo, are you alright?"

Zuo Weiyi turned her head and looked at her, but her mind was full of the image of Shi Yuting abandoning her if she got pregnant.

Chapter 124: Buying Birth Control Pills

What if that happened, would her only friend and Gu Yansheng look down on her?

The more she thought about it, the more uneasy Zuo Weiyi felt. She decided to pick up her phone and Google for some information.

Even though it was almost impossible to get pregnant after doing it just one time, they were doing it almost every night when they stayed together...

What if she was really pregnant?

She did not want to live what her mother went through and be treated with scorn and contempt!

She had just finished doing it with Shi Yuting, who knew if she might get pregnant this time...

As she thought of this, she quickly got up after finish researching and drove her Maserati away from Shi Residence.

Google said that there was a pill that could prevent pregnancy for ladies within the twenty-four hours of doing it.

It was not long until she found a pharmacy. Buying this kind of medication for the first time, Zuo Weiyi could not help but feel a little embarrassed.

"Excuse me... Do you have... Birth control pills?" She was practically mumbling the last three words.

"Yes, which kind would you prefer?" The cashier asked.

Zuo Weiyi paused and thought for a while before looking at him. "I don't know... Just the kind that can prevent pregnancy within the first twenty-four hours..."

It was her first time buying this stuff, how would she know there were different kinds?

After hearing her answer, the cashier turned around and took a small box from the cabinet.

As she left the pharmacy, Zuo Weiyi immediately bought a bottle of water, wanting to take it as soon as she was in her car.

Yet a familiar voice called out to her.

"Weiyi?"

Zuo Weiyi turned her head toward the owner of the voice who was driving an extravagant Lamborghini. When the door was opened, it was revealed to be Gu Yansheng.

"Weiyi, it's really you!"

Gu Yansheng was surprised to meet her at this place.

Zuo Weiyi was shocked too.

Being aware of the birth control pills she was holding, Zuo Weiyi quickly hid it in her pocket so that Gu Yansheng would not see it.

After all, these things made her embarrassed.

“Gu...” She was about to open her mouth but she remembered their previous conversation. “Yansheng, why are you here?”

“I’m heading to my office, but I saw you exiting the market. I thought I got the wrong person. You’re... buying water?” Gu Yansheng smiled gently while glancing at the bottle she was holding.

Zuo Weiyi paused for a moment and looked at the bottle too. Then, she nodded. “Yes.”

“Only water?”

He knew she would not buy only water now that she was with Shi Yuting.

“Not really,” she answered awkwardly. “I’m just... window shopping.”

“What happened to your hand?” Looking at her hand, Gu Yansheng noticed the medicine applied to her wound. Concern flashed in his eyes.

Zuo Weiyi moved her gaze to her hand and smiled to reassure him. “It’s nothing, just a scratch I got when I fell down.”

“You should be more careful.”

Zuo Weiyi still could not get used to him being so caring, so she quickly changed the topic. “Didn’t you say you’re heading to your office?”

“I’m not in a rush. Why don’t get a drink somewhere and sit down for a chat?” He suggested.

Zuo Weiyi bit her bottom lip. She had nothing to do anyway, finding a place to sit down and chat was better than talking under the sun.

She agreed. “Sure.”

When she was in the car and saw that Gu Yansheng had returned to his, she quickly took out the pills and took them as instructed by the manual.

Chapter 125: The Culprit

She then drove to the restaurant Gu Yansheng had suggested.

Dizun Organization, the CEO office.

Shi Yuting was sitting in front of his desk, his expression stern while listening to Xiang Yi’s reports.

“All of the evidence points to Miss Zuo. There are only her fingerprints on the neck of the deceased. But that noon, someone had entered your district and they kept standing underneath the tree in front of the door.”

As he heard this, Shi Yuting’s face grew cold. “Who was it.”

Xiang Yi hesitated before answering, “Miss Jing.”

“Do we know where she is?” Shi Yuting was not surprised.

He had already expected her name. Aside from Qiu Yun, that mother-daughter pair, Jing Xinlei was the only person left who wanted to get rid of Zuo Weiyi.

As for his enemies, Zuo Weiyi was still a useless piece to them, so they would not be the culprit.

“We do, Miss Jing and her family are currently living in her aunt’s house. I have also found out that Miss Jing was involved in Miss Zuo’s imprisonment. She was the one who has built a connection with someone inside the prison in hopes of cutting off every connection Miss Zuo has with the outside world so she would be granted a death sentence.”

Shi Yuting’s expression did not change when he heard about this. He simply drummed on the table with his fingers.

Was he too merciful toward this woman that he had once loved?

All of a sudden, Shi Yuting’s lips curled into a malicious smile, his dark eyes cold.

He looked at Xiang Yi. “Give the same punishment as the Jing family to anyone who is involved with them.”

Xiang Yi was stunned for a moment before obliging his orders after a half-second pause.

Did Mr. Shi mean that every person who took in and helped the Jing family would face the same consequences?

Which meant that he wanted the Jing family to be homeless?

“Yes! I’ll do it right away.”

Xiang Yi obeyed his orders, yet when he was about to leave, Shi Yuting assigned him with another task.

“While you are doing that, assign a few men to secretly look after Zuo Weiyi.”

Xiang Yi was stunned again but eventually complied. “Yes!”

Xiang Yi turned around and left while silently exclaiming in his heart.

Those who provoked Mr. Shi would really have a taste of hell, and that did not exclude his past lover too.

Then again, the only one who dared to exploit Mr. Shi was Jing Xinlei. Now that the Jing family was in ruins, it was all thanks to her.

Five years ago, she had abandoned Mr. Shi. Five years from then, she had tried to exploit his feelings to help her own family, but it was all for naught.

It was 2:15 in the afternoon when Zuo Weiyi came out of the restaurant.

When she returned to Shi Residence, she saw a stretch limousine parked in front of the entrance.

She stopped her Maserati and felt a little shocked.

Shi Yuting indeed had many extravagant cars, but she could not recall him having a stretch limousine. She parked her car into the garage and took the bottle of water with her to the living room. She had always lived frugally, even if it was just mineral water, she did not want to simply throw it away. When she walked into the living room, she saw two figures sitting on the sofa. One of them was Shi Nuannuan. However, she did not know who the other person was.

Hearing that someone had come in, Shi Nuannuan and Shen Lanzhi turned their heads around. They were expecting Shi Yuting, yet a woman was standing there.

Shen Lanzhi frowned and stood up, looking at Zuo Weiyi in confusion.

“Aunty Yu...” Shen Lanzhi turned her head to Aunty Yu who was standing nearby. “Who is she?”

Chapter 126: She’s Our New Maid

She remembered that her son’s mansion had no women aside from all the maids.

Aunty Yu glanced at Zuo Weiyi and lowered her head, she answered in an extremely courteous tone, “Missus, she is...”

“A maid!” Before Aunty Yu could answer, Shi Nuannuan stood up suddenly, making eyes at her.

After seeing her eyes, Aunty Yu quickly understood her meaning.

She turned her head back to Shen Lanzhi and lowered her head once again, “As young mistress said, she’s our new maid.”

As she finished explaining, Aunty Yu glared at Zuo Weiyi and scolded her, “Zuo Weiyi, you’re late! Quit standing there and get changed!”

Zuo Weiyi was stunned.

What happened? When had she become a maid?

No, wait, the atmosphere was weird...

She glanced at Shi Nuannuan, who kept making eyes at her.

She was still confused, but she understood the meaning behind Shi Nuannuan’s action. She just had to admit she was a new maid.

“This is our missus, she has just returned from Country C.”

Aunty Yu said, hoping that Zuo Weiyi would realize what she meant.

Zuo Weiyi shifted her gaze and glanced at Aunty Yu. She then walked toward the sofa with a maid-like attitude and bowed at 90 degrees. “Good day, Missus.”

Shen Lanzhi threw a look at Zuo Weiyi.

This girl had exquisite features. If Aunty Yu and her daughter did not say that she was a maid, she would have thought it was her son’s lady.

Her gaze landed on the cheap water bottle Zuo Weiyi was holding. Maybe she was thinking too much. She bit her bottom lip and opened her mouth to speak to Zuo Weiyi, "You can take your leave now." Zuo Weiyi nodded and left.

She knew really well that she could not step foot to the second floor, so she headed to the changing room for maids on the first floor and changed into the maid's outfit.

When she stepped out of the changing room, she still had no idea what to do. It was unknown to her what maids do at this time.

Thankfully, Aunt Yu who was serving Shen Lanzhi seemed to read her mind and came over, "Clean the swimming pool at the back garden."

Zuo Weiyi blanked out for a while but she almost sobbed upon hearing the order.

Clean! The! Swimming! Pool!

She had to clean the swimming pool under this hot weather!

'Aunt Yu, could you not have assigned me an easier job?!

"Yes."

But the worse thing was that she had no choice but to obey.

"Xiao Cui, you'll work with her."

Worried that Zuo Weiyi would not know how to clean, Aunt Yu assigned Xiao Cui to help her.

To clean the swimming pool was no easy job, all the corners should be cleaned to perfection.

This was because Shi Yuting was a clean freak who would not allow any impurities around his house.

Zuo Weiyi was covered in sweat under the cruel heat. She only wanted to return to the air-conditioned living room and lie down.

As she thought about Shi Yuting's mother in there, her mind began to turn.

The reason Aunt Yu and Nuannuan wanted her to pretend to be a maid was most probably because she was present.

A smile appeared on her face as if she was mocking herself.

Sometimes, the maid in this mansion would respect her to a certain extent, yet before his family, there was no difference between her and the maids.

She was only a tool to keep his bed warm.

Chapter 127: Missing The Sight Of Zuo Weiyi

It was four in the afternoon when Shi Yuting had finished his work in the office and returned to Shi Residence.

As he stepped into the living room and saw his mother, he was shocked.

“Mom?”

Shen Lanzhi turned around and stood up smiling upon seeing her son, “Yuting, welcome back. You’re early today.”

Aunty Yu was surprised too, she had never seen him returning home at this time.

“What may be the reason for your visit, Mom?” Shi Yuting asked with an indifferent expression, but deep down he was shocked to see her.

As Shen Lanzhi heard his question, her face darkened and her smile disappeared.

“How dare you ask me this?! What was so important that you had to rush back? Your grandfather was furious!”

Shi Yuting bit his bottom lip and sat down on the sofa.

Shen Lanzhi approached him again, “Tell me, what was more important than you being the president?”

“Nothing, just something unnecessary,” Shi Yuting answered softly.

Aunty Yu, on the other hand, was baffled.

As expected, the young master had given up on being the president because of Miss Zuo!

“Unnecessary? What kind of ‘unnecessary’ stuff was it that you had to return at midnight? Couldn’t it wait until the next morning?”

Shi Yuting turned his head away, his expression calm.

He did not need to explain his actions once they were done.

“Mom, I’m already back. Explaining any of this is useless.”

Shen Lanzhi paused and frowned. “I just want you to think thoroughly before you do something. If it’s not for your grandfather who was controlling the situation, you would have lost this chance.”

“But I haven’t, no?”

Because he knew that his grandfather would take control, that was why he had dared to left without any worries.

But he had no time to think about these for now.

His mother was here, but what about Zuo Weiyi?

He looked around but did not see Zuo Weiyi’s figure, so he stood up and decided to head upstairs.

“I’ll be taking my leave to get changed.”

Zuo Weiyi was still not there in the master bedroom.

Shi Yuting frowned. Did Aunty Yu hide her away?

He was clearer than anyone that at this crucial moment, Zuo Weiyi's presence should not be known by his mother and grandfather.

He knew very well about his grandfather, Shi Yue's personality. In order to get what he wanted, he would not hesitate to get rid of anything and anyone like a kid kicking away pebbles.

If his grandfather were to know that he had come back for her, her life would be in danger.

After he changed his clothes and was about to leave the room, he heard voices from his balcony.

He frowned again and headed to the balcony where he could see the swimming pool. Two maids were cleaning there.

When he saw a familiar figure, he frowned even harder.

She was wearing a maid outfit while cleaning? Who had allowed it?

Zuo Weiyi's back was growing sore as she was kneeling in the dried-up swimming pool. She lifted her head up and stared into the sky. Even though it was four in the afternoon, the sun was still hanging high, she was feeling dizzy from the heat.

It was almost autumn, why was it still so hot?

Xiao Cui who was standing beside noticed her fatigue and asked quickly, "Miss Zuo, do you want to rest for a while? There is only a little left to clean, I'll do it."

Zuo Weiyi straightened her back and looked at the rest of the swimming pool that had not been cleaned. She was feeling really dizzy and wanted to stand up to take a rest before continuing.

"I'm fine, let's finish this up quickly so we can head inside," She smiled while standing up, wanting to rest.

Chapter 128: This Is Bad, Miss Zuo Has Fainted!

Because she had been kneeling, her waist and kneecaps were almost broken!

Yet when she was trying to stand up, she suddenly saw black dots. Zuo Weiyi could only see that the world was spinning around.

In the next second, she fell into the pool.

On the balcony, Shi Yuting witnessed everything and felt his heart tightened painfully. Without any hesitation, he quickly rushed downstairs.

He ran down the stairs and headed to the swimming pool, but was stopped by Aunt Yu.

"This is bad, Miss Zuo has fainted!"

Xiao Cui barged into the living room and yelled anxiously.

Shen Lanzhi who was sitting on the sofa turned her head toward the distressed maid.

Did someone faint?

Aunty Yu threw a look to Shi Yuting before turning to two other maids in the living room, "You two, come with me."

As they arrived at the backyard, Zuo Weiyi was out cold in the swimming pool, her face was pale white.

"Quick, take her inside!" Aunty Yu ordered and the two maids quickly lifted her up and moved to the living room.

From the beginning until the end, Shi Yuting clenched his fists while looking at the unconscious Zuo Weiyi.

She was a woman he, Shi Yuting, truly loved, why did he need to act so sneakily about it?

The more he thought about it, the more annoyed Shi Yuting got. He stepped forward toward Zuo Weiyi who was on the sofa and, under everyone's shocked gaze, he picked her up and headed upstairs.

Seeing his unexpected action, Shen Lanzhi was so shocked she could not move.

Although Shi Nuannuan inhaled sharply, she secretly complimented her brother's courage.

Or else her brother would be a useless boyfriend!

"Call Zhong Chenghao here!"

He ordered. Aunty Yu paused for a second and glanced at Shen Lanzhi who was in shock but went upstairs anyway.

Miss Zuo probably had a heat stroke.

Looking at the figures that had disappeared to the second floor, Shen Lanzhi still had not recovered from the shock.

Her son had just carried a maid upstairs? What was going on?

She slowly turned her head and looked at Shi Nuannuan.

Sensing her interrogating gaze, Shi Nuannuan bit her bottom lip. It was better to let her brother do the talking!

"Mommy, let's go upstairs too!"

She rushed to the second floor at that instance, leaving a stunned Shen Lanzhi behind.

"Young Master, Miss Zuo probably had a heat stroke. It's best to bathe her in cold water to decrease her temperature quickly."

After placing Zuo Weiyi on the bed, Zuo Weiyi looked at Aunty Yu with a frown, "Are you sure it's a heat stroke?"

Aunty Yu glanced at the person on the bed and nodded. "Yes."

She had already lived this long, of course, she would be able to recognize the symptoms of heatstroke.

Shi Yuting lowered his gaze and looked at Zuo Weiyi. After a moment of hesitation, he carried her and walked toward the bathroom.

“Get some ice.” Aunt Yu turned her head and ordered a maid.

The maid quickly left the room to get some ice from the kitchen.

It was the first time Aunt Yu had seen such a worried expression on Shi Yuting who was fiddling around the bathtub, so she could not help but reassured him.

After soaking her in the cold water for a few minutes, Aunt Yu checked Zuo Weiyi’s temperature again. She heaved a sigh of relief after her fever had been brought down.

Chapter 129: What? Bathe With Me!

Shen Lanzhen walked in, but when she saw her son’s anxiety-riddled expression, her heart was shaken.

Who was this woman?

Judging by how her son was looking, she was someone far more important than a maid.

Twenty minutes passed, some color returned to Zuo Weiyi’s face, and she had finally opened her eyes.

‘Mmm... So cool, feels so nice...’

As her senses gradually returned to her, she felt a nice coolness slowly washing over her before she registered a huge wave of coldness, causing her to jolt up in the bathtub.

“Oh my god!”

She quickly got up, the water splashing everywhere out of the bathtub.

Especially Shi Yuting who was the closest to her, his face was instantly splashed with water...

Zuo Weiyi only realized the situation when she had stood up properly.

Her face was blank as she scanned everyone in the bathroom.

What was going on?

Water slid dripped from Shi Yuting’s handsome face. Usually, he would have been furious when someone splashed water on him.

Yet, his anger quickly died down as soon as he saw Zuo Weiyi looking fine again.

“Weiyi, you’re finally awake!” Shi Nuannuan was soaked as well, but her face was filled with happiness.

Zuo Weiyi turned her head to the voice and remembered something when she saw Shi Nuannuan.

She was cleaning the swimming pool. When she had wanted to stand up and rest, the whole world spun around and... She fainted?

“Achoo!”

She sneezed. Even though the weather was hot, but to wake up in such icy cold water, Zuo Weiyi could not get used to it and trembled.

“Miss Zuo, it’s better if you warm yourself up with a shower,” Aunt Yu said.

“All of you get out.”

Shi Yuting stood up. He was saying it to Aunt Yu and his sister, but his gaze was fixed on Zuo Weiyi.

The soaking wet outfit clung to Zuo Weiyi’s curvy body, making her appeared as if she was naked, enticing his desire.

Aunt Yu left first but Shi Nuannuan was still eyeing them with concern.

Still, she left in the end.

When everyone was gone, Shi Yuting locked the door and slowly undressed...

Zuo Weiyi was still standing in the bathtub, staring at the man in front of her, petrified. She opened her mouth after a long while, “What are you doing?”

Shi Yuting removed the last piece of clothing and walked toward her, quickly carrying her to the bigger bathtub.

“Bathe with me.”

Zuo Weiyi was surprised, but before she could struggle, she was placed in the bathtub.

“Bathe properly.” As if she had seen through this man’s intention, Zuo Weiyi planned to resist.

Aunt Yu was just worried that she would get cold so she had suggested a warm bath, but why was this man here?

“You’re still weak, let me help you,” he said with a lecherous smile and forced her to sit in the bath with him.

Zuo Weiyi’s eyes widened. She had a good idea that this man would not ‘help’ her in any way!

As she was planning to struggle away from his grip, she suddenly stopped.

The man behind her picked up a soft towel and was gently rubbing her back.

This did not seem like him.

Every time they bathed together, he was always the one to do something suggestive.

Chapter 130: The Strange Thing In The Drawer

When did he become this gentle?

Shi Yuting sat behind her and saw the scar on her back. He could not help but lift his hand and caress that scar.

“Does it still hurt?”

Hearing that deep voice that was so gentle, Zuo Weiyi was shocked.

What was with this man? He was being too gentle.

She paused for half a second and answered, "Uh, not anymore."

This scar was already one month old, it no longer hurt.

All of a sudden, she remembered something and turned her head to look at the man.

"Shi Yuting."

"Yes." He did not look at her. The focused look he had when he was washing her back was quite charming.

"Has your mother come back?"

"Yes."

After hearing that, she quickly spun her body around, her face shocked. "Then, is it really alright for you to be with me?!"

She remembered that when she got back, Aunty Yu and Nuannuan wanted her to pretend to be a maid, implying that they did not want his mother to find out about them. Yet, they were sharing a bath now, would that not mean that their relationship was already exposed?

Or had his mother left?

As he heard her words, he looked into her eyes and raised his eyebrows. "Why would it not be alright?"

Zuo Weiyi paused.

Why was this man so indifferent?

"Aren't you scared that your mother will find out about us?"

"Why would I be? It's my right that I can keep any woman," He smiled and kissed her on the lips.

Zuo Weiyi was still bewildered by his statement.

His 'keeping' must have meant 'supporting', right?

So he meant that whoever he was with, as long as they did not become his wife then it should be fine.

To simplify it, playing around? Yes. Marriage? No.

Half an hour passed and Shi Yuting really had not attempted to do anything, aside from the kiss just now.

After bathing and putting on her clothes, Zuo Weiyi was reminded of something.

Her birth control pills were still in the pockets of the outfit!

She quickly rushed to the bathroom and scoured for the pills in the pocket of the wet outfit, but the package was all wet.

Fortunately, the pills themselves were not affected.

When she exited the bathroom and wanted to put the pills somewhere else, she saw Aunty Yu entering and said to the dressed-up Shi Yuting, "Young Master, Missus wants to see you downstairs."

Shi Yuting looked up as if he had already known the reason behind his mother's request.

Looking at his figure leaving, Zuo Weiyi stood while thoughts quietly ran in her mind. She then headed to the bedside table and was prepared to place her pills in the drawer.

Yet, when she pulled open the drawer, it was all Shi Yuting's belongings.

If she put her pills inside, he would notice it.

Wait, so what if he found out?

This was a safety precaution for him too!

She was not like the female celebrities on the news who used threats and schemes like pregnancy to wed a rich man.

As she thought of that, Zuo Weiyi put the pills in without hesitation.

Yet, when she was putting it in, her eyes caught a familiar box.

Was this not the box that had the couple rings?

If he had taken it back, did it mean that he knew about Jing Xinlei's scheme and had decided not to give it to her?

She did not care, it was not her business.

When she was done keeping her pills in the drawer, her eyes caught something else before closing the drawer.

What was this?

She took out the small bag that looked like shampoo and stared at it for a long while.
