

Kiss Me 341

Chapter 341: The Man in the Dark Alley

A few tall figures stood in a dark alley but the men's faces could not be seen in the night.

"Failed?"

The leading man wore a black coat as he held a high-end cigar in his hand. There was a little smoke, accompanied by a low and dangerous voice.

The other man dressed in black was very respectful, but at the same time, he was also a little scared as he looked at the other man.

The man glanced at the leading man as he said in a trembling voice, "Yes, Young Master Nan. I clearly saw Mr. Shi falling to the ground after taking that shot but I don't know what happened. I don't know how he could stand up again..."

"Do you know?"

Before the man could even finish his sentence, the man referred to as 'Young Master Nan suddenly turned around and looked at the man dressed in black as he called him out coldly.

The man raised his eyes and could vaguely see the man's dark and terrifying eyes, which were murderous under the moonlight.

"I do not like people who make excuses."

As soon as he said that, Young Master Nan dropped the cigar before he turned around to walk toward a black car that was parked not too far away.

The man dressed in black seemed to be unresponsive for a few seconds as he watched Young Master Nan leave. However, in the next second, he felt a sudden paralysis in his heart as a bullet passed through his body and the man collapsed and fell to the ground in the next instance.

In the dark night, a corpse in the dark alley looked extremely desolate and terrifying.

Three days had already passed but Zuo Weiyi still had not woken up.

Moreover, the words given by the chairman and the doctors were always the same. "We will continue to keep her under observation."

This was an answer that both Shi Yuting and Zuo Yi did not want to hear anymore. However, to Gu Yansheng, this might not necessarily be the best situation, but it was not bad either.

As long as Zuo Weiyi was still alive, then there was still hope.

Early in the morning, Shen Lanzhi brought some home-cooked soup and breakfast over to the hospital for her son because she knew that he had not eaten for a few days. However, she could not enter the ward at all as Zuo Yi's men were still standing guard outside.

Shi Nuannuan was also very eager.

It had already been three days, and she had no idea about how Zuo Weiyi was doing at the moment.

As she was thinking about it, Xiangyi stepped out of the ward. When Shi Nuannuan saw him, she could not help but glance at his injured arm.

“Xiangyi! Does your arm still hurt?” Shi Nuannuan frowned as she looked at Xiangyi.

As he met her concerned eyes, a warm current passed through Xiangyi’s heart.

“I am fine,” Xiangyi replied calmly as he looked at Shi Nuannuan.

“Xiangyi.” Shen Lanzhi did not notice anything amiss with her daughter. However, she seemed a little hopeful after seeing Xiangyi.

As soon as he heard the mistress calling his name, Xiangyi turned around to look at Shen Lanzhi before he nodded respectfully, “Mistress.”

After glancing at Xiangyi, Shen Lanzhi handed the thermal flask in her hand over to him before she said, “I made some food. Please bring it in and ask Yuting to eat something.”

Shen Lanzhi was very worried when she heard that Shi Yuting had not eaten anything for the past three days.

Xiangyi sighed as he glanced at the thermal flask in his hand.

He knew that even if he brought the food in, Shi Yuting would not eat it at all.

If the mistress and young lady could see Shi Yuting now, they would be in shock.

Xiangyi had already served Shi Yuting for more than eight years but he had never seen Shi Yuting in this state before. Shi Yuting looked like a completely different person.

However, to worry Shen Lanzhi, Xiangyi took the thermal flask in his hand.

As he turned around, his eyes immediately fell on Shi Nuannuan’s face.

Thinking of it, he felt as though he hadn’t seen her in a long time.

Shi Nuannuan had been staring at him all this while but when his eyes locked eyes with hers, she felt a little dizzy for a moment. She could feel her heart beating slightly faster and was deeply attracted to him once again.

Chapter 342: A Long Wait (1)

As she was feeling excited and ready to smile brilliantly at him, Xiangyi turned around and walked into the ward.

Shi Nuannuan smiled stiffly as she pouted and narrowed her eyes in dissatisfaction as she stared at Xiangyi entering the ward.

It was only until the door to the ward was closed behind him that the mother and daughter sighed sadly.

They did not know anything about the current situation at all.

“Mommy, you should go back and rest. I will wait here and I will tell you as soon as Weiyi wakes up,” Shi Nuannuan said as she looked at Shen Lanzhi.

She was indeed very tired for the past few days. She had stayed up late every night and gotten up early every morning to prepare food for Shi Yuting and her daughter to eat. Perhaps, this was because she simply felt too guilty about Zuo Weiyi after leaving her behind in Country Z.

As she glanced at her daughter, Shen Lanzhi shook her head before she smiled slightly. “I am fine.”

“Oh, Mommy! You will not be able to do anything if you stay here anyway. You should go back and rest or take a nap. I promise I will let you know as soon as Weiyi wakes up!”

Her persistence left Shen Lanzhi speechless and somehow felt that her daughter was right. Even if she stayed here, there was nothing that she could do. She could not even enter the ward either. If she continued to wait outside the ward, this seemed to be a bit contrived.

As she thought about this, Shen Lanzhi listened to her daughter’s advice and headed home to rest.

For three days in a row, Zuo Yi had already pushed aside all major national affairs relating to the country. He had been staying in the ward for three consecutive days, and he only went home occasionally to take a shower and change into a new set of clothes. After that, he would spend most of his day at the ward, waiting for Zuo Weiyi to wake up.

However, his granddaughter showed no signs of waking up at all even though three days had passed.

Zuo Yi glanced at Shi Yuting who had not closed his eyes or eaten anything at all for the past three days and nights. He simply stayed guarded by Zuo Weiyi’s bed, refusing to leave her even for a moment. Perhaps, other people would be touched by this scene but Shi Yuting could not move Zuo Yi’s heart at all.

The reason why his granddaughter was injured was all because of him.

There was also the incident the last time when Zuo Weiyi almost lost her life because she thought that Shi Yuting had gotten engaged to Tengtang Xi. He had not forgotten any of this.

“Mr. Shi, the mistress asked me to deliver this to you.”

Xiangyi said in a soft and low voice as he walked to the bedside and looked at Shi Yuting.

Shi Yuting did not respond or say anything but he simply stared at Zuo Weiyi blankly.

In fact, Xiangyi knew very well that no one would be able to force him to eat if he did not want to eat. Therefore, he did not say anything else but he simply placed the thermos on the table.

This was the first time that he had ever seen Shi Yuting looking so haggard and desperate. Gu Yansheng felt a little shock when he saw Shi Yuting who looked like he had already lost all the authority and charm that he used to have.

Later at noon, Xiangyi walked out of the ward only to find Shi Nuannuan sitting all by herself on the lounge chair along the corridor. His heart wavered a little when he saw her.

He walked over to Shi Nuannuan who was feeling a little bored. She was holding the sides of her chair as she swung her feet back and forth from time to time, and she looked like a very innocent and lively child.

Xiangyi stared at Shi Nuannuan for a short while as he was lost in his thoughts for a moment.

When Shi Nuannuan felt as though someone was approaching her, she subconsciously raised her head, only to see Xiangyi standing about one meter away from her.

As soon as she saw him, Shi Nuannuan stood up immediately as she said, "Xiangyi!"

It wasn't until she had called out to Xiangyi that he suddenly came to his senses and said, "Miss, why haven't you gone home yet?"

As soon as she heard his words, Shi Nuannuan lowered her head disappointedly. After that, she sighed as she replied, "I am worried about Weiyi." Shi Nuannuan suddenly looked at Xiangyi and asked, "Has she woken up?"

Xiangyi shook his head slightly when he saw the worried expression on her face and said, "No, not yet."

Chapter 343: A Long Wait (2)

"How can it be? It has already been more than three days..." Shi Nuannuan lowered her head as she was very worried.

What if, Zuo Weiyi never woke up again?

Nonsense! Touchwood! Touchwood!

Shi Nuannuan quickly dismissed the thoughts that flashed through her mind. Zuo Weiyi would definitely wake up!

Correct!

Shi Nuannuan raised her head as she looked at Xiangyi and said cautiously, "Well, is the president still there?"

Xiangyi lowered his head because he was also very curious and surprised.

What kind of relationship did Miss Zuo share with the President? He had actually stayed here for three days and three nights, without any intention to leave at all. This seemed a little unreasonable, and it did not make sense at all.

"Yes," Xiangyi replied softly as he raised his eyes to look at the person in front of him.

Shi Nuannuan raised her head as if she had suddenly thought of something. When she saw the handsome Xiangyi standing before her, she had a look of admiration on her face as she said, "Well, Xiangyi, can you go in and ask the president if he can allow me to go in the ward and see Weiyi? I am really very worried about Weiyi and my brother."

Shi Nuannuan pursed her lips tightly together, and she looked like an innocent and pitiful rabbit. She looked so innocent, as though she had been seriously wronged and the coquettish look on her face could easily melt any man's heart.

Xiangyi really wanted to express the affection that he was feeling for Shi Nuannuan as he stared at her playful and yet aggrieved expression. However, he clearly understood the great disparity between both their identities and status, and he did not want to reveal his feelings for her.

However, he could not turn down her request.

Therefore, he simply turned around as he headed back into the ward.

Shi Nuannuan was in shock as she said in a low and anxious voice, "Hey! Xiangyi!"

Damn it! Why was he always so cold toward her? No matter what it was, she was still the young lady of the family. However, it seemed as though Xiangyi did not spare any respect for her, at all. This was simply unacceptable!

Shi Nuannuan was very dissatisfied as she stared at Xiangyi's back after he entered the ward.

However, in a blink of an eye, she suddenly turned starry-eyed as she stared at Xiangyi's back with an intoxicated look on her face. Shi Nuannuan muttered in her heart: Well, her Xiangyi was really very cool and handsome, and the reason why she fell for him in the first place was that he was cool and arrogant. Hehehe...

After walking into the ward, Xiangyi looked at Zuo Yi who was sitting on the sofa before he walked directly over to him.

When Gu Yansheng saw Xiangyi suddenly approaching them, he could not help but raise his head to glance at him.

"In Country Z, Miss Nuannuan was Miss Zuo's best friend. She is not waiting outside the ward, and she is very worried about Miss Zuo's situation. Can you allow her to come in?"

Xiangyi did not like to beat around the bush. Therefore, he simply went straight to the point without sugarcoating anything at all.

Zuo Yi raised his head to glance at Xiangyi as soon as he heard his words.

When he was in Country Z, Zuo Yi had secretly sent someone to investigate and look into Zuo Weiyi's life. Therefore, Zuo Yi also knew that Zuo Weiyi had a very close and good relationship with Shi Nuannuan.

As he thought about it, Zuo Yi decided to let her in.

"She can come in."

As soon as he heard Zuo Yi's words, Xiangyi nodded gratefully before he turned around and walked outside the ward.

After a short while, Shi Nuannuan finally walked into the ward. When she saw that Zuo Weiyi was still in a coma, she was very worried.

She suddenly noticed her brother who was sitting by the bedside. He looked so haggard and sluggish.

Was that man really her brother? He looked like a completely different person...

“Brother, you...” Oh my god. He had not shaved, his clothes were all wrinkled and even his hair was a complete mess!

This was the first time that Shi Nuannuan had ever seen her brother in this state. He was completely different compared to his usual demeanor.

Shi Yuting did not pay any attention to her and simply continued staring at Zuo Weiyi without saying anything at all. It felt as though he was completely in his own world and could not hear Shi Nuannuan’s words at all.

After staring at her brother for a short while, Shi Nuannuan suddenly turned around and rushed out of the ward.

Xiangyi could not help but frown as he wondered what was wrong with her.

Chapter 344: No Heartbeat

About twenty minutes later, Shi Nuannuan suddenly walked in with a few paper bags in her hand.

“Brother!” Shi Nuannuan walked toward Shi Yuting as she placed a mirror in front of his face. “Just look at how you look right now! If Weiyi wakes up and sees the state that you are in, then she will probably faint and fall unconscious again!”

Shi Nuannuan could not stand her brother’s wretched state anymore.

Shi Yuting raised his head to look at himself in the mirror. He could see a completely different person in his reflection, and it felt as though he had already lost all of his former glory.

He had always paid extra attention to his appearance and had never allowed himself to look so unkempt and messy in his entire life. If he was seen by the media right now, he would definitely make it to the headlines!

“I bought you a new set of clothes and a razor blade. You should take a shower, shave, and change into this set of clothes. Who knows if Weiyi might wake up today?”

As soon as Shi Yuting heard her last sentence, he raised his head to look at Shi Nuannuan before turned around to look at the person who was still lying on the hospital bed.

It had already been three days. Would she really wake up?

As he thought about it, the ECG monitor by Zuo Weiyi’s bedside suddenly beeped. As soon as they heard the sound, everyone turned their eyes to look at the instrument next to the bed. They saw that the wavy lifeline on the screen suddenly turned into a straight line. There were no vital signs at all.

Anyone with common sense knew what this straight line meant!

In an instant, everyone in the ward started to panic.

“This... what is going on?” Shi Nuannuan asked in disbelief as she stared at the instrument.

Shi Yuting's heart seemed to have stopped along with the lifeline that turned into a straight line. He felt as though a cold and sharp blade had penetrated deep into his heart, and his heartbeat was gradually stagnating!

"Doctor... doctor!" Gu Yansheng, who had just recovered from the shock quickly rushed out of the ward as he called for the doctors. "Doctor! Doctor!"

When they heard his roar, several doctors, including the chairman ran over in a panicked state. When they saw the straight line on the monitor, they were all equally shocked. They quickly took out all their medical equipment before they proceeded to resuscitate Zuo Weiyi.

"Pulse!"

"0!"

"Heart rate!"

"0!"

Shi Yuting felt that his heart was extremely heavy as he listened to the rescue protocol and the conversations between the doctors.

He fixed his eyes on the person lying on the hospital bed and really could not believe that she had no heartbeat. Her heart had stopped completely!

He could not imagine what his life would be like if she died and disappeared from his world from now on. He did not dare to think about it and refused to accept this!

Shi Nuannuan was crying as she trembled in fear.

"Weiyi... Weiyi..."

Zuo Yi stood up and when he saw the monitor showing that there were no signs of life in his granddaughter, who was lying on the hospital bed, he could not withstand the huge blow. He felt a sharp pain in his heart and he collapsed to the ground!

"Grandpa Zuo!" Gu Yansheng exclaimed in shock when he saw Zuo Yi falling to the ground.

The doctors in the ward were all very confused, and they were all panicking when they saw that the president of the country had just collapsed.

The rescue and resuscitation process lasted for at least half an hour before Shi Yuting finally heard, "Pulse, heart rate, 65!"

There was finally movement on the monitor next to the bedside again.

The doctors quickly took out their masks as they heaved a huge sigh of relief.

They had finally resuscitated her.

After that, the chairman looked at Shi Yuting before he said, "Mr. Shi, don't worry. Her heartbeat and pulse are already back to normal."

Shi Yuting's tight heart finally settled down a little when he heard the doctor's words.

Chapter 345: Awake

He lowered his head in relief as he raised his head to cover his forehead and eyes. A drop of clear tears rolled between his fingers before dripping on the cold hard floor...

He felt as though his heart was already hollowed out. The pain of losing his loved one was really heart-breaking. This was the first time that he had ever felt this way in his twenty-eight years of life!

Five years ago when Shi Xiaotian died in a car accident, Shi Yuting almost collapsed but he was not as desolate as he was right now. He felt as though his heart had been pierced by a sharp and cold blade. The piercing pain was simply unbearable, and it was propelling him into the bottomless abyss. Shi Yuting felt as though he would never be able to recover from this!

Shi Yuting looked at the person who was now safe and sound on the hospital bed. He could feel his heart trembling like never before.

The person sitting nearest to him was Shi Nuannuan, and she was really shocked when she saw his bloodshot eyes.

Her brother... was crying?

Even though she was crying desperately when she thought she had lost Zuo Weiyi, she had never seen her brother cry, not even when she was a child!

Shi Nuannuan was at a loss for words as she stared at her brother.

Perhaps, no one would ever understand the position that Zuo Weiyi occupied in her brother's heart.

The resuscitation process went smoothly and the doctors unexpectedly discovered that after this scare, Zuo Weiyi's vital signs were actually stronger and much better compared to before.

This made all of them feel very surprised.

Later that afternoon, Zuo Yi who had been admitted to another ward finally woke up before he hurriedly ran back to Zuo Weiyi's ward.

As soon as he woke up, he had been anxiously asking about Zuo Weiyi. Even though Gu Yansheng already told him that the situation had already stabilized and that Zuo Weiyi's pulse and heartbeat had already returned to normal, Zuo Yi did not believe him. He had to see it for himself before he could finally feel relieved.

After walking into the ward and seeing his granddaughter who was lying on the hospital bed, Zuo Yi finally settled and calm down a little. His eyes were also a little moist.

Gu Yansheng could not help but feel very curious as he fell deep into his own thoughts.

Who was Zuo Weiyi to Grandpa Zuo? Why was Grandpa Zuo so worried and concerned about Zuo Weiyi? This was obviously not a mere affection but it was more like... an emotion that only existed between family members.

However, Grandpa Zuo had never been married in his life. Therefore, it was impossible for him to have any relatives in this world. So, what was it?

Was Grandpa Zuo really attracted to Zuo Weiyi?

As he thought about Zuo Yi's personality, Gu Yansheng immediately erased those thoughts from his mind. Grandpa Zuo was not that kind of person.

After the shock, the atmosphere in the ward was very quiet.

In the evening, Shi Yuting entered the bathroom in the ward before he took a quick shower, shaved, and changed into a set of clean clothes. He looked like a completely different person, and it seemed as though he had been restored to his old handsome, charming self.

However, he looked more haggard compared to the past.

As he sat at the side of the hospital bed, Shi Yuting felt that Zuo Weiyi's complexion looked a lot better compared to the past few days, but she was still not awake.

The sky was gradually getting darker, and Zuo Yi decided to go home and take a bath.

Gu Yansheng and Zuo Yi left the hospital at the same time today. Soon, only Shi Yuting, Shi Nuannuan, and Xiangyi were left in the ward.

After checking the time, Xiangyi realized that it was already seven o'clock in the evening. Therefore, he stood up and said, "I will go out to buy some food."

After that, Xiangyi turned around as he walked toward the door.

Shi Nuannuan suddenly said, "I will go with you!"

Shi Nuannuan quickly followed Xiangyi out of the ward and could not help but feel a little happy as she walked beside Xiangyi.

Shi Yuting was all alone in the ward with Zuo Weiyi. As he stared at the person lying in bed, he felt that his heart had calmed down a little compared to the past few days.

Shi Yuting continued staring at her slightly pale face but suddenly, he felt as though he saw her eyelids moving.

Chapter 346: As Long As You Like It

He was just staring at her slightly pale face when her eyelids suddenly moved.

After that, the person lying on the bed suddenly opened her eyes.

After all the worry and anxiety that he has felt for the past few days, Shi Yuting's heart was filled with an unspeakable joy that he has never felt before. His voice trembled as he spoke.

"Weiyi..."

As soon as Zuo Weiyi opened her eyes, she could see the handsome face that was staring right at her.

He was much skinnier compared to how she looked like in her memory.

“Shi Yuting...”

As soon as Shi Yuting heard Zuo Weiyi calling his name for the first time in three days, he felt that those words were very pleasing to his ears.

“You are finally awake.”

His words suddenly reminded Zuo Weiyi of the scene that had happened before she fell into a coma. The child in her stomach...

She lowered her eyes as she placed her hand on her flat lower abdomen, which was still aching.

Tears welled up in her eyes but she quickly held back her tears.

Shi Yuting could see right through her thoughts, and he could not help but feel very distressed.

“We will definitely have many more children in the future. We can have as many children as you want to.”

Even though he was clearly trying to comfort her, Zuo Weiyi felt that her heart was still aching terribly.

However, Zuo Weiyi knew very well that there was nothing that she could do to bring her baby back to life. No matter how much tears she shed, it would simply be impossible for her baby to come back.

Zuo Weiyi raised her eyes to look at the handsome face in front of her before she raised her head to stroke his slightly haggard face.

Zuo Weiyi’s voice was very soft and gentle as she asked, “Why did you lose so much weight?”

Shi Yuting could feel his heart beating frantically, and he could not hide the excitement and joy that he was feeling from the bottom of his heart.

Shi Yuting held her fair and slender hand in his hands before he smiled and replied gently, “Because I missed you so much.”

Zuo Weiyi could not help but smile a little when she heard his words. “When did you learn how to sweet talk?”

“As long as you like it, I will whisper sweet nothings into your ear every day.” Shi Yuting was deliberately talking about light and humorous topics because he wanted to divert Zuo Weiyi’s attention away from her pain.

He knew that Zuo Weiyi was deliberately hiding the pain that she was feeling from the loss of her baby. He did not want her to bear all the pain.

Suddenly, the door of the ward was pushed open and Shi Nuannuan walked into the ward with Xiangyi.

Shi Nuannuan was extremely shocked when she saw that Zuo Weiyi was already awake. She stared at Zuo Weiyi in disbelief because she could not believe her own eyes!

After regaining her senses, Shi Nuannuan yelled excitedly, “Weiyi! Weiyi... you... you are awake. You are finally awake!”

“Splash!”

Perhaps it was because she was too excited, Shi Nuannuan completely forgot that she was holding the dinner that they had just bought in her hands. She ran toward Zuo Weiyi’s bed as she dropped the dinner that she was holding onto the ground. Her tears couldn’t stop flowing because she was overjoyed and filled with excitement.

Xiangyi’s could not stop his mouth from twitching slightly as he stared at the messy dinner that was splattered all over the floor.

“Weiyi!”

However, Shi Yuting raised his hands to stop her.

He had resisted the urge and desire to hold Zuo Weiyi in his arms because he knew that she had a gunshot wound in her back and was afraid that he would hurt her.

If he did not even have the opportunity to hug her, how could he possibly allow his sister to hug her?

Shi Nuannuan froze in midstep because Shi Yuting suddenly stopped her.

She sniffed before she glanced at her brother with a blank and surprised expression on her face. “What are you doing?”

Chapter 347: Life Experience (1)

“What do you think?” Shi Yuting asked Shi Nuannuan.

Shi Nuannuan stared at her brother with her big and dark eyes before she came to a sudden realization!

Zuo Weiyi had just woken up. She still had a gunshot wound on her body. Therefore, it was only natural for Shi Yuting to be so defensive and not allow Shi Nuannuan to hug her. Shi Nuannuan lowered her arms as she stared at Zuo Weiyi excitedly and happily.

“Yes! Weiyi, you are still injured. I will hug you when you recover!”

The bitterness that Zuo Weiyi was feeling in her heart suddenly faded after seeing Shi Nuannuan’s warm and smiling face.

The name Shi Nuannuan really suited her because she really brought people a lot of warmth and comfort. She also had the ability to make people temporarily forget their sadness and pain.

That night, Zuo Yi and Gu Yansheng were also very excited when they saw that Zuo Weiyi was already awake!

Zuo Yi was especially relieved and his eyes were extremely moist. It was as though he was going to burst out in tears.

During this joyous moment, everyone in the room became silent and they were all looking at Zuo Yi in shock when they heard his words.

“Weiyi, starting from today, your grandpa will not allow anyone to bully you anymore.”

Everyone in the ward, including Shi Yuting could not help but turn around to look at Zuo Yi in surprise.

Zuo Weiyi, who was lying on the hospital bed, was also in a daze.

Her grandpa? What did he mean?

Did he mean Grandpa Zuo?

No, that was not right. She could no longer call him 'Grandpa Zuo'.

Zuo Weiyi smiled before she looked at Zuo Yi and said, "Mr. President, I am sorry if I have offended you in the past because I did not know about your identity..."

"Weiyi."

Zuo Yi interrupted her before she could even finish her sentence. He stared at her with eyes that have gone through the vicissitudes of life. He looked at her sadly. The love and adoration that he felt for Zuo Weiyi were clearly visible to everyone.

"You don't need to call me Mr. President because..." Zuo Yi paused for a moment as he recalled the scene when he realized that Shen Ruoxi had already left him. His eyes turned red immediately.

"Your grandmother, Shen Ruoxi, was my former wife."

As soon as Zuo Yi spoke, everyone in the ward could not help but widen their eyes in shock!

Zuo Weiyi was naturally no exception.

Even though she did not know anything about Zuo Yi's identity as the president of Country C, she could vividly remember Zuo Yi telling her that he had never been married.

Now, he was telling her that her grandmother was his former wife. What was going on here?

As soon as Gu Yansheng heard Zuo Yi's words, all the confusion in his heart finally seemed to be resolved.

Everything would make sense if Zuo Weiyi was Grandpa Zuo's granddaughter. It would then be normal for Zuo Yi to worry, love, and care about Zuo Weiyi.

However, Gu Yansheng knew that Grandpa Zuo had always been single and did not marry anyone at all. So, who was Shen Ruoxi?

Even though Shi Yuting was also shocked, he was visibly calmer compared to everyone else in the ward.

Zuo Yi, Zuo Weiyi. Both of them shared the same last name.

Shi Yuting knew that his grandfather turned against Zuo Yi more than forty years ago because of a woman. Was it possible that this woman was related to Zuo Weiyi?

As he thought about it, Shi Yuting subconsciously gazed at Zuo Weiyi.

"What do you mean? My grandmother is your wife?" Zuo Weiyi frowned as she lay on the hospital bed. She was very confused and shock at the sudden information!

Zuo Yi's heart felt a little heavy when he saw the shocked expression on Zuo Weiyi's face.

When he was about to become the president of Country C a couple of decades ago, his parents drove the pregnant Shen Ruoxi away from his villa without his knowledge.

He had misunderstood her back then. Time simply flew by and he never had the opportunity to see her again in this life.

Chapter 348: Life Experience (2)

Whenever he thought about this, Zuo Yi was always filled with regrets.

"Your mother should be forty-one years old this year, right?" Zuo Yi raised his head and his eyes were extremely moist.

No one had seen the president in such a miserable state before.

After all, it had already been forty-one years and seven months since Shen Ruoxi left him. Back then, she had probably just found out that she was pregnant with Zuo Qing.

Zuo Weiyi frowned as she stared at Zuo Yi and asked, "What do you mean?"

Shi Nuannuan was still in shock when she heard Zuo Yi saying that he was Zuo Weiyi's grandfather. Her mouth was wide open because she was in disbelief.

"Do you remember the story I told you?"

As she stared at Zuo Yi, Zuo Weiyi suddenly recalled what happened when she was in Zuo Yi's villa in Country Z. Zuo Yi once told her that the woman that he loved dearly has already passed away due to an illness. Could it be that... this so-called woman that he was talking about, was none other than her grandmother?

But, her grandfather was dead.

"Don't you remember feeling that the woman in the oil painting looked extremely familiar to you?" Zuo Yi asked as he looked at Zuo Weiyi. He could feel his heart throbbing when he thought about Shen Ruoxi.

Over forty years ago, if he had not believed the contents of the letter that Shen Ruoxi left behind and if only he had actually taken the effort to try to look for her immediately, would things have turned out differently today? If he had not believed that Shen Ruoxi left him on her own accord, would this have happened today?

If Shen Ruoxi had not left and if only he had put aside his so-called self-esteem to go after her, would they have been able to avoid this fate?

The three of them would have been able to live happily as a family, right?

No, it would not just be the three of them. If Shen Ruoxi had not left, they would have had many more children together.

When Zuo Yi discovered that everything was just a conspiracy by his parents, it was already too late.

As soon as she heard Zuo Yi's words, the oil painting in Zuo Yi's villa suddenly flashed across her mind. The woman in the oil painting was...

Her grandmother, Shen Ruoxi?

Zuo Weiyi raised her eyes to look at Zuo Yi as she asked in shock, "The woman in the oil painting is what my grandmother looked like when she was young? My grandmother is your wife?"

Zuo Yi had told her before that he had been all alone his whole life and that he never had the opportunity to marry the person that he loved dearly.

But now, he was saying that her grandmother was his wife. What was going on here?

As soon as she saw the oil painting, Zuo Weiyi had already felt that the woman in the picture was very kind and beautiful. Zuo Weiyi would have never imagined that the woman in the oil painting was actually what her grandmother looked like when she was young.

As memories of her childhood were already gradually blurring, Zuo Weiyi would never have thought that the woman in the oil painting would be her grandmother, Shen Ruoxi!

"I know that it is hard for you to accept everything so suddenly. You might think that this is unbelievable but you have to trust your grandfather. In this life, the only woman that I have ever loved, is your grandmother, Shen Ruoxi."

As soon as Zuo Yi spoke, everyone in the ward, including Zuo Weiyi was shocked.

In fact, everyone in the country had always been very puzzled because the majestic and powerful president had never thought of getting married in his life. It seemed as though the puzzle had finally been solved.

It turned out that he already had the love of his life in his heart. He would rather stay single and not marry at all if he could not have her!

"So many things have happened more than forty years ago and it will take me some time to explain everything to you. However, you do not need to question the fact that you are indeed my granddaughter."

He had already confirmed all of this more than forty years ago.

He also firmly believed that Shen Ruoxi would never abandon him even if she had to abandon the whole world.

If he had found out this truth one year earlier, he would not have lost his daughter and the love of his life.

Zuo Yi confirmed everything in a very firm and confident tone but Zuo Weiyi was still in disbelief. She found everything a little unbelievable.

How could her grandmother possibly be the wife of the president of a country?

Chapter 349: Life Experience (3)

Zuo Yi could not help but feel a little helpless when he saw the questioning expression on Zuo Weiyi's face.

Suddenly, the door of the ward was pushed open and everyone turned to look in the direction of the door as soon as they heard the sound. Uncle Yu walked into the ward.

When he found out that Zuo Weiyi was injured, Uncle Yu was also very worried. Therefore, after he was done with his work that night, he decided to come and visit Zuo Weiyi at the hospital. Unexpectedly, when he arrived at the door, he heard Zuo Yi talking about the incident that had happened more than forty years ago.

In order not to interrupt Zuo Yi's story, he had been standing outside the door until he finally opened the door after Zuo Yi was done.

As soon as Uncle Yu walked in, the first person that he looked at was Zuo Weiyi, who was lying on the hospital bed.

There was sadness and regret in his tone as he said, "Miss Zuo, more than forty years ago, Miss Ruoxi left when she was pregnant with your mother. Back then, Mr. President had already obtained a marriage certificate with Miss Ruoxi. However, no one, including Miss Ruoxi herself, knew about this matter at all."

That year, the day Shen Ruoxi left was the day that Zuo Yi was promoted to the president of Country C. He initially thought that he would give Shen Ruoxi a surprise when he came home after attending the succession ceremony. Unexpectedly, when he returned to his villa, he found out that young Shen Ruoxi had already disappeared without a trace, leaving only a letter behind.

After that, Zuo Yi had been frantically searching for her the entire year but it seemed as though she had completely vanished into thin air. It was only in the second year that Zuo Yi found out where she was living. However, he also found out that she already had a child with another man.

Ever since then, Zuo Yi became very upset because he finally believed that Shen Ruoxi was the one who left him.

It was only when he ran into Shen Ruoxi's best friend later that he finally found out the truth. He discovered that his parents were the ones who forced Shen Ruoxi to leave him and that she was already pregnant with his child when she left.

The so-called man who was living with her at that time was nothing more than her childhood friend who was simply helping her out. Even though that man had tried to pursue Shen Ruoxi for many years, she would always turn him down. After that, Shen Ruoxi had left the country and given birth to a daughter named Zuo Qing.

Zuo Yi was filled with regrets when he found out the truth. Unfortunately, when he finally found Shen Ruoxi and Zuo Qing, forty years have already passed by. Shen Ruoxi has also passed away due to her illness.

Not being able to see Shen Ruoxi for the last time was the greatest regret and the biggest sorrow in Zuo Yi's life!

Everyone in the ward was shocked when they heard Uncle Yu's words.

They would never have expected the president to have such a sad story.

What was even more shocking was the fact that Zuo Weiyi was actually the granddaughter of the president of Country C!

As she thought about this, Shi Nuannuan finally closed her mouth as she swallowed a mouthful of saliva.

She... did she hear it wrongly?

Zuo Weiyi was actually the president's granddaughter! Oh my god! This news was simply too shocking! Her heart... her heart could not take this any longer. Xiangyi, where was Xiangyi... he had to come and help support her...

Oh my god! Zuo Weiyi was actually the granddaughter of the president of Country C! So, that meant that her identity was actually even nobler than Tengtang Xi's identity!

Shi Nuannuan suddenly felt very excited when she thought about it.

If this was true, Shi Nuannuan could not help but wonder how her grandfather and Tengtang Xi would react when they found out about this.

She was already looking forward to it!

At this time, Zuo Weiyi who was lying on the hospital bed was a little flustered and confused as she looked at Zuo Yi and Uncle Yu.

"Miss Zuo, your last name is also 'Zuo', isn't it?" Uncle Yu spoke again as he brought up this undeniable fact.

As soon as she heard his words, Zuo Weiyi's eyes widened again.

Chapter 350: Life Experience (4)

Both Zuo Yi and she shared the same last name, 'Zuo'.

Was her grandmother really Zuo Yi's wife?

Did her grandmother really leave Grandpa Zuo when she was pregnant with her mother back then? What kind of heavy heart and feelings did she have when she left back then?

Zuo Weiyi could not help but feel her heart aching badly for her grandmother when she imagined everything that happened that year.

The atmosphere in the ward was very heavy.

No one said anything at all for a long time.

Uncle Yu wanted to continue speaking but Zuo Weiyi interrupted him immediately.

Zuo Weiyi turned the other way, she could feel that her wound was still hurting as she said, "I am feeling a little tired. I want to rest for a short while."

After she spoke, Zuo Weiyi turned around as she closed her eyes to go to sleep.

When they saw that Zuo Weiyi was about to sleep, Zuo Yi and Uncle Yu did not speak anymore.

Shi Yuting was still sitting at the side of the bed. He felt a little unsettled, his eyes were filled with pity as he noticed Zuo Weiyi's tightly knitted brows.

No matter what it was, everyone was finally relieved because Zuo Weiyi was finally awake from her coma.

Zuo Yi had been camping at the ward for the past few days without dealing with any of the country's affairs at all. When he saw that Zuo Weiyi had already woken up from her coma and when the doctor told him that she was recovering well, he decided not to spend the night at the hospital. Zuo Yi left the hospital at ten o'clock that night.

Gu Yansheng initially planned to stay at the hospital but when he saw that Zuo Weiyi was fast asleep, he finally decided to leave.

After most of them left the hospital, Shi Yuting looked at Zuo Weiyi, who seemed to be still sleeping with a peaceful expression on her face, before he said, "They are all gone."

As soon as his voice fell, Zuo Weiyi slowly opened her eyes to look at the extremely handsome man who was sitting in front of her.

Shi Yuting smiled slightly as he stared at her with eyes that were filled with love and tenderness.

It was only at this time that Shi Nuannuan could no longer restrain herself. She was still in shock and disbelief as she rushed toward the bed as she stared at Zuo Weiyi who was still lying on the bed.

"Weiyi! You... you... are you really the granddaughter of the president of Country C?"

Zuo Weiyi had a calm expression on her face as she looked at Shi Nuannuan.

She made a gesture, stating that she wanted to sit up a little. As soon as Shi Yuting saw that, he quickly stood up before he moved Zuo Weiyi up gently and placed an extra pillow behind her back so that she could lean against it and sit up more comfortably.

Shi Nuannuan never knew that her brother could actually be so caring and thoughtful!

However, she was not interested in her brother at all right now. All she cared about was Zuo Weiyi's true identity!

She stared intensely at Zuo Weiyi who was sitting on the bed.

When Zuo Weiyi saw the excited expression on Shi Nuannuan's face, she did not know whether she should be surprised about the truth about herself or feel sad about her grandmother's past.

"I... I don't know," Zuo Weiyi replied as she pursed her lips slightly.

Shi Nuannuan frowned and had a dazed expression on her face when she said, "Huh? What do you mean you don't know?"

Zuo Weiyi smiled before she said, "I do not know anything about my grandmother's past, nor have I ever heard my mother talking about it. So..."

"But Mr. President has already admitted and acknowledged that you are indeed his granddaughter! This cannot be wrong!" Shi Nuannuan replied affirmatively with an envious expression on her face. "Oh my god! Weiyi, I really did not expect you to be the president's granddaughter! I wonder how Grandpa and Tengtang Xi would react when they find out about this! Hahaha... I am really looking forward to it now."

Shi Nuannuan was really extremely excited.

On the other hand, Shi Yuting who was sitting beside the bed seemed a little too calm.

When Zuo Weiyi heard Shi Nuannuan's words, she lowered her eyes as she sank deep into her own thoughts.
