Chapter 471: Push Her in!

When she walked out, she realized that the yacht was already in the middle of the ocean. Behind her, the ocean dock had long disappeared.

It was just ocean all around her. Zuo Weiyi could not help but feel a little nervous, and a strong sense of uneasiness began to spread throughout her body.

“What? You’re only thinking of escaping now?”

Behind her, with Ah Hu’s support, Tengtang Xi gradually walked out.

When she saw her uneasy expression, she smiled smugly.

Since she had done everything she could to lure her onto this yacht, how could she let her return to Shi Yuting’s side alive??

Zuo Weiyi turned around and saw Tengtang Xi walking out with Ah Hu’s help. Even though she was covered in scars, there was no hiding the smugness in her heart!

Ah Hu supported and sat her down on the deck. The part of her leg that had been stabbed was roughly bandaged with a piece of cloth. However, the wound on her face could only be covered with her hand.

“PUSH HER IN!” With her eyes on Zuo Weiyi on the deck, Tengtang Xi gave the order. Her eyes flashed with a vicious light. Oh, how she wished that she could push her into the sea with her own hands!

The yacht had already stopped, but it was still drifting along with the waves.

Zuo Weiyi stood against the guardrails of the yacht. She gripped the guardrail tightly and used it to stabilize her swaying body.

She looked at Tengtang Xi and knew that at this moment, it was either her death or the other’s!

Upon receiving her order, Ah Hu’s expression turned cold. He turned towards Zuo Weiyi and gradually approached her!

Seeing the man approaching her, Zuo Weiyi was getting nervous. Her hand that gripped the railing also gradually tightened.

She had to be careful. This was the first time she stood on a yacht. Her entire body felt a little unsteady, and she could not stand upright at all. If she was not careful, she could fall into the piercing-cold sea at any time, or become a shark bait!

It was indeed easy for a man to deal with a woman.

However, Ah Hu was bare-handed. If he wanted to deal with Zuo Weiyi, who was holding a dagger, he had to wait for an opportunity before making a move.

“Don’t come over!” Looking at Ah Hu, who was already in front of her, Zuo Weiyi held the dagger tightly in both hands in front of her, guarding herself against Ah Hu!

However, Ah Hu did not have the slightest intention of stopping. Instead, he was looking for an opportunity to see how he could push her into the sea!

She held the dagger tightly, but in her head, she was already thinking of ways to see how she could reverse the current situation!

She had to turn defeat into victory in order to safely return to shore!

She did not want to think about falling into the ice-cold sea in the middle of the night. Even the heavens would not be able to stop her from crying. What would Shi Yuting, who was still far away in Country Z, do if he found out?

Just as she was thinking, her phone suddenly rang, breaking the silence of the night.

In Country Z, Shi Yuting put his phone on the bed after taking a shower. He still had some official business to take care of before attending a social event.

In order to return to Country C earlier, he arranged for the night's social event to take place after ten o'clock.

Just as he was about to pick up his coat and phone to go out, he realized that there was an unread text message on his phone.

When he opened the message and saw the content, he was a little surprised.

It was late at night, what was she doing at the ocean dock alone?

Suddenly, a terrible possibility flashed through his mind, so he quickly dialed Zuo Weiyi's number.

The phone suddenly rang, and the three people on the yacht could not help but be stunned!

Chapter 472: The Disappearing Voice

In a moment of desperation, Zuo Weiyi already sensed that this call was definitely made after Shi Yuting saw her message, so she took out the phone without thinking!

"Hello?!"

She quickly picked up the call, and this action gave Ah Hu a chance!

In a flash, he appeared in front of her, snatched the phone from her hand, and immediately threw it into the sea!

On the phone, Shi Yuting clearly heard her anxious voice with a trace of panic. However, in the next second, her voice disappeared!

"Weiyi?"

He called again, but the signal was gone.

Shi Yuting's eyes grew with anger, shrouded in a cold and ruthless aura. He immediately dialed another number.

After hanging up the phone, he had already rushed out of the Di Zun building!

Watching the phone fall after Ah Hu threw it, Tengtang Xi smiled smugly.

The caller was definitely Shi Yuting, but at this moment, he was far away in Country Z. How was he going to save his beloved?

HAHAHA!

Thinking of this, Tengtang Xi could not help but laugh even more wildly and arrogantly!

She knew that Shi Yuting had gone abroad, so she had chosen this time. Moreover, even if someone came now, it would probably be too late!

After throwing her phone away, Ah Hu seized the opportunity to pursue her, and immediately pounced towards Zuo Weiyi!

However, just as his hand was about to touch Zuo Weiyi's body, she managed to react quickly and instinctively brandished the dagger in her hand, cutting right into Ah Hu's right hand. In an instant, fresh blood flowed out, and a very deep gash could clearly be seen!

She held the dagger tightly, afraid that the only thing beneficial to her now would be taken away. If she lost this dagger, she might really have to sit and wait for death!

"Don't come any closer!" She raised the dagger and looked at Ah Hu in front of her with horror in her eyes!

Ah Hu looked at his cut hand. He could not help but feel a little angry. He immediately pounced towards Zuo Weiyi once again!

This time, he saw the opportunity. The moment her arm swung over, he forcefully grabbed her wrist. Then, with a twist, he tried to snatch dagger!

However, how could Zuo Weiyi be willing to hand over the dagger? Without it, would she still have a chance to live? Thus, when the two of them struggled, they immediately began to tussle on the deck!

On the surface of the sea, the yacht was already swaying a little. At this moment, as the two of them wrestled, it swayed even more violently.

As it was Zuo Weiyi's first time on a boat, she was already unable to stand firmly. At this moment, she was at a disadvantage. However, the hand that was holding the dagger had no intentions of letting go

Ah Hu's expression became furious. His pair of eyes stared fixedly at her dagger. "Give it to me!"

"No..." Zuo Weiyi used all her strength, desperately trying to break free from his grip.

"HURRY UP, PUSH HER IN!" On the side, seeing that Ah Hu had already pushed Zuo Weiyi against the railing, Tengtang Xi felt that this was a good opportunity. As long as he pushed a little harder, she would be buried in the sea!

She remembered that she was not good at swimming. What would the feeling of being swallowed by the cold sea feel like? Just thinking about it made Tengtang Xi feel extremely happy!

She wanted her to suffer. Just like that, she would be swallowed by the sea and become shark bait!

Hearing her voice, Ah Hu immediately reacted. He no longer chose to snatch her dagger. Instead, he wanted to use all his strength to push Zuo Weiyi over the railing.

Chapter 473: A Moment of Life and Death

As he reacted to Tengtang Xi's voice, Zuo Weiyi braced herself. The moment he exerted force, she suddenly flipped and broke free from his grasp. Just like that, following their huge movements, the yacht swayed violently. Meanwhile, at this moment, Ah Hu might have exerted a little too much force as he did not expect Zuo Weiyi to suddenly change her position. With a pull, his entire body missed and he flew over the railing. Fortunately, he caught the railing in time and hung on the edge of the yacht.

Looking at Ah Hu who had suddenly fallen over, Tengtang Xi suddenly felt anxious. She flew into a rage out of humiliation. "Trash!"

She really wanted to stand up on her own, but her legs were injured. It would be difficult for her to get up.

Next to the railing, Zuo Weiyi held on tightly. After a while, she stabilized her body and took a few deep breaths!

She thought that Ah Hu had fallen, but she did not expect him to grab onto the railing. At this moment, he started to climb up.

Seeing this, Zuo Weiyi also felt anxious!

If Ah Hu came up, she would definitely die!

With that in mind, she bent down, picked up the dagger, and ruthlessly stabbed the back of Ah Hu's hand that held onto the railing!

Suddenly, Ah Hu felt a sharp pain as he cried out. He instinctively let go and in the next second, his entire body fell into the ice-cold water!

It was already a cold winter. At the moment he fell into the sea, he immediately felt that the sea piercing through his bones. His hands and feet were instantly frozen to the point that they could not be controlled by him!

Ah Hu used all his strength and tried his best to climb back onto the yacht. However, the yacht was very high, and he could not find a place to hold onto!

Moreover, Zuo Weiyi also realized that this Ah Hu seemed to be like her – he was not very good at swimming.

This was the first time that Zuo Weiyi did not think of extending a helping hand when facing a person in need, especially in a moment of life and death. She knew that if she saved Ah Hu, she would be the one to die!

However, looking at Ah Hu who was constantly struggling in the sea, her heart was trembling with fear.

She stared at Ah Hu. Her hand that was holding the dagger was also gradually tightening due to nervousness. Her heart could not stop trembling with fear!

This was the second time she had watched a person die in front of her eyes. The feeling of her mother lying in a pool of blood suddenly flashed in her mind. Her heart was in extreme pain!

While she was in a daze, Tengtang Xi, who was not far away, had managed to slowly get up with the help of a door. She wanted to take advantage of Zuo Weiyi's distraction to push her into the sea from behind!

However, because of her leg injury, the instant Tengtang Xi reached out her hand to push Zuo Weiyi, the latter instantly came back to her senses. She turned around and saw Tengtang Xi's furious face. Then, Tengtang Xi flung herself towards her!

Hit by the impact, Zuo Weiyi staggered a few steps back. Seeing that she was about to fly over the railing like Ah Hu, she reacted quickly and immediately grabbed Tengtang Xi's arm!

Tengtang Xi did not expect to be grabbed. In addition to the injury on her leg, she could not exert any more strength. Her entire body was pulled along and she flew over the railing!

Splash!

The sound of something falling into the water could be heard. By the time Zuo Weiyi came back to her senses, she was already hanging on the edge of the railing, and below her was where Tengtang Xi fell into the sea.

Tengtang Xi was supposed to be a very good swimmer, but with her injured legs, she was like a landlubber in the water, struggling endlessly. She kept slapping the water, trying to grab onto something.

Chapter 474: Tengtang Xi's Cry for help

Zuo Weiyi glanced at the struggling figure below her, then raised her head and grabbed the railing tightly. She used all her strength to climb back over the railing and finally landed on the deck. Only then did she escape from danger.

"Zuo Weiyi... Save- save me... quickly save me..."

Just as she climbed onto the deck, she heard Tengtang Xi desperately screaming for help in the water.

Zuo Weiyi looked down and saw that the woman was about to be swallowed by the sea!

"Zuo Weiyi, I was wrong... I beg you, quickly- quickly save me..."

Looking at her struggling in the water, Zuo Weiyi's heart did not have the slightest bit of pity.

In the past, she might have saved her, but now, thinking of the child she lost, her heart was throbbing with pain, so much so that she could not breathe.

In this world, the fairest thing was a life for a life!

"Zuo Weiyi... I beg you, quickly save me... I... Uh... " she tried her best to stay afloat on the surface of the sea, but her legs were numbed by the bone-piercing seawater, causing her to suffer severe pain and lose her ability to swim. She felt like the cold seawater was about to swallow her completely!

“I know I’m wrong... as long as you save me... I- I promise I won’t come after you in the future... Zuo Weiyi, save- save me!”

Sitting on the deck, Zuo Weiyi’s heart was like a pool of stagnant water – calm and still. Her eyes that were looking at Tengtang Xi also became unusually cold and heartless.

How could she possibly save a woman who had killed her child with her own hands?

Just like that, she sat on the deck and watched Tengtang Xi slowly get swallowed by the ice-cold water. She did not have the slightest bit of compassion. Her heart was just like the sea, ice-cold to the bone – she did not feel a thing!

At the same time, at the ocean dock.

Shi Nuannuan held her phone in her hand and stood beside Zuo Weiyi’s white Porsche. Her heart was filled with anxiety!

“Brother, I don’t see sister-in-law, but... but her car is indeed here, but she’s gone!” Shi Nuannuan spoke anxiously into the phone to Shi Yuting on the other end of the line.

“Get someone to look for her!” On the other end of the line, Shi Yuting’s voice was clearly mixed with a hint of anxiety and panic!

“I’ve already asked them to search the entire pier! But... sister-in-law’s phone has been disconnected. I- I’m worried about her...”

Shi Yuting had already hung up the phone and boarded his private plane!

In the middle of it, the sea is vast. Zuo Weiyi did not know where the yacht was going with the wind.

At sea, she did not have much sense of direction. She could only rely on the bright moon to know that she was gradually drifting away from the dock in the opposite direction.

She went to the cockpit and looked at the steering wheel. She knew nothing about driving a yacht and starting the engine. She was even more afraid that if she touched anything, the yacht would capsize and she would die at sea.

She sat in the cabin and curled her body together. Only in this way could she feel a trace of warmth.

An hour had passed. Shi Nuannuan turned the whole place over, but she still did not see Zuo Weiyi’s figure anywhere at the dock.

However, she managed to ask a person who said that she saw two women going out to sea in the middle of the night.

Two women..

Those were undoubtedly sister-in-law and that DAMNED TENG TANG XI!

In Country C, besides Tengtang Xi, who else would want Zuo Weiyi dead?

Chapter 476: Shi Nuannuan's Decision

Hearing this, Shi Nuannuan's expression turned serious and she immediately rushed out. She saw that the yacht that was lit up not far away was instantly swallowed by a huge wave!

Looking at the yacht that disappeared, Shi Nuannuan's heart sank as well. Her expression changed instantly!

When the bodyguards at the side saw that a yacht had been sunk by the waves, their search and rescue team became even more flustered.

"Ma'am, if we continue forward, all of us will die here!" One of the bodyguards turned around and looked at Shi Nuannuan anxiously, hoping that she would make a clear decision at this moment.

Although the search and rescue of the young mistress was very important, they couldn't just jump in knowing that they were going to die, right? This was clearly a foolish act. If they didn't find the young mistress by then, they would have already been buried by the waves!

The bodyguard looked at Shi Nuannuan anxiously.

On one hand, there was the little sister-in-law who was waiting to be rescued, and on the other hand were the lives of many people. The decision laid with her.

If they continued to move forward, they would definitely be sucked into the waves like the yacht just now. However, if they did not move forward, what would happen if the little sister-in-law was also caught in the waves?

In an instant, Shi Nuannuan was caught in a dilemma.

"Another- another one sank. Quick, protect her!"

The waves grew bigger and bigger, swallowing another yacht in seconds.

"Ma'am!" The bodyguards were anxious. It was not that they were afraid of death, but if they continued to move forward, only death awaited them!

Looking at the surging waves, Shi Nuannuan finally made a difficult decision after a long time.

"Let's go back."

Even if she would be reprimanded by her brother, all she could do was to go back.

She had no choice. She couldn't watch so many lives lost here.

Hearing that she had finally made a decision, the bodyguards immediately turned the yacht around and drove it to the dock.

...

At three o'clock in the morning, the storm continued.

On the couch, Shi Nuannuan had lost her usual liveliness. She sat on the couch with a depressed expression.

“This Tengtang Xi really doesn’t change at all!”

Sitting on the couch as well, Shi Le couldn’t help but kick the crutch in his hand, his face full of anger!

“This Weiyi, why did she follow Tengtang Xi out to sea? Isn’t it obvious that she wants to kill her?” Shen Lanzhi was also puzzled.

“She must have used some special method to lure sister-in-law onto the yacht,” Shi Nuannuan said.

Since she had sent a message to her brother before going out to sea, it meant that she knew that something might happen to her. However, since she knew, there must be a reason why she went anyway.

Shi Nuannuan did not know what it was exactly.

Just then, the door to the living room was pushed open.

Everyone looked over when they heard the sound and saw Shi Yuting walk in with a dark expression!

When she saw him, Shi Nuannuan suddenly stood up. There was a hint of panic, helplessness, and fear in her voice. “Brother...”

When Shi Yuting heard the voice, his sharp gaze fell on her face, masking a sense of anxiety and worry.

“The storm is too big. I- I couldn’t find sister-in-law...”

These words were like an ice-cold sharp blade, piercing into his chest.

His hands gradually tightened, and that helpless sense of defeat seethed in his body, like fire burning and oil bubbling.

He turned around and was about to walk towards the door.

Shen Lanzhi, who was on the couch, seemed to have read his mind. She stood up and pulled him back.

“Son, what are you planning?!”

Shi Yuting turned his head and looked at his mother’s anxious expression. His face was ice-cold, and even his voice was so cold that there was not a trace of warmth in it.

Chapter 477: Sister-in-law, You’re Finally Awake!

How could Shen Lanzhi let go?

“Son, I know you’re only worried about Weiyi, and we’re also very worried. But you’ve also seen the situation outside. The storm out at sea is several times stronger than this. If you go out to sea now, won’t you die?!”

“Brother, two of our yachts have already been sunk by the waves. It’s not that I don’t want to find sister-in-law, but... but the wind on the sea is too strong. I’ve never seen such a big storm before...”

At this moment, Shi Nuannuan did not feel good either. She did not want to watch her brother send himself to his death.

However, his mother and sister's dissuasion did not stop Shi Yuting.

He had a cold expression on his face. His determined eyes had long decided – no one could change his mind.

He pulled his arm away coldly and turned to walk towards the main door.

“Yuting!” Shen Lanzhi's face was full of worry as she watched him leave resolutely.

From the beginning to the end, Shi Le did not make a sound. It was as if he knew that this grandson of his was going to do something, and no one could stop him.

Therefore, he didn't see the point of opening his mouth to say some meaningless words.

Looking at the door, Shi Nuannuan's face was also full of worry and anxiety. She only hoped that he could find his sister-in-law as soon as possible.

...

In the early morning, a ray of bright and beautiful sunlight fell on beach. It looked a little deserted and dirty.

Beside a huge rock, there was a body lying on the ground. It seemed to have been washed ashore by the sea.

Not far away, a huge cruise ship was gradually sailing towards the beach, following the direction of the wind yesterday.

When she woke up again, she saw a familiar room.

Then, Zuo Weiyi heard a familiar voice.

“Sister-in-law, you're finally awake!”

Hearing the voice, Zuo Weiyi turned her head weakly and saw Shi Nuannuan looking at her with an anxious face.

“Weiyi, you're finally awake.” Shen Lanzhi finally let out a sigh of relief when she her wake up.

When she saw the familiar faces in front of her, Zuo Weiyi's mind suddenly flashed past the violent storm and waves at sea last night!

She... didn't die?

“Sister-in-law, do you know that you scared us to death?” Shi Nuannuan's face was full of tears.

Zuo Weiyi slowly sat up on the bed as she looked at her.

“How did I come back?”

She remembered that last night, she did not know where she had drifted to, but a huge wave had attacked her yacht and swallowed it whole. Then, she felt that she was choked by the seawater and could not breathe, and she could not remember anything after that.

“Brother saw you on a deserted beach. At that time, you were lying on the edge of a rock, and you were on your very last breaths ” Shi Nuannuan said, and she felt the fear in her heart as she thought about it again.

Hearing Nuannuan’s words, Zuo Weiyi could not help but look up. She scanned the room once, but did not see Shi Yuting.

As if sensing that she was looking for her brother, Shi Nuannuan was about to speak when the door opened and Shi Yuting walked in.

Seeing that she had woken up, his heart settled down in an instant.

He walked to the bedside gradually. “Do you still remember how you floated there?”

He was surprised. Someone had said that she had gone out to sea with Tengtang Xi, but she was the only one who had drifted onto the beach. And why had she gone to the dock in the first place?

Chapter 478: She Killed Our Child

Upon hearing his words, Tengtang Xi’s words last night suddenly flashed through Zuo Weiyi’s mind.

Her hands unconsciously tightened the bedsheets.

Shi Yuting obviously noticed her abnormal behavior, and his gaze deepened.

“What happened?”

Zuo Weiyi lowered her head, and she began to sob. “Tengtang Xi... she killed our child...”

Her voice trembled slightly. The moment she said that, everyone in the room was shocked, except for Shi Yuting.

Before he went to Country Z, he had already known about this matter. However, he did not expect that Tengtang Xi would actually use this matter to lure Zuo Weiyi out to sea with her.

Looking at her body, which was trembling and sobbing due to anger and grief, Shi Yuting reached out and pulled her into his arms. In a very soft voice, he asked, “Where is she?”

“She- she’s dead...”

Upon hearing this, Shen Lanzhi and Shi Nuannuan eyes widened in shock!

Dead?! How could she be dead?

As if suddenly remembering something, Zuo Weiyi, who was sobbing, suddenly looked up at the man in front of her.

Why didn’t he react at all after hearing that their child had been killed by Tengtang Xi?

Wasn’t he still investigating this matter earlier?

“You, why are you...” she looked at him with a hint of confusion in her eyes.

Could it be that their child deserved to die? Why did he look so calm at this moment, as if he had known about this matter for a long time.

Seeing through her thoughts, Shi Yuting had no choice but to say, “I knew.”

Hearing this, Zuo Weiyi was stunned.

He knew? He had known all along that their child was been killed by Tengtang Xi? That she was the one who had fired that shot?

Then, why hadn't he gone to look for Tengtang Xi?!

Instinctively, Zuo Weiyi pushed the man away and looked at him in disbelief. “You knew all this time that Tengtang Xi was the one who had fired that shot?”

Her sudden reaction startled him and caught him off guard. He met her eyes, which were filled with hurt.

Shi Nuannuan, who was standing by the side looked at him in disbelief as well.

If he had known about this long ago, why didn't he go to Tengtang Xi to settle the score?

Sensing that she had misunderstood him, Shi Yuting had no choice but to say, “I- ”

“You knew about this all along, so why didn't you go look for her? She killed our child!” Looking at him, Zuo Weiyi felt as if thousands of arrows had pierced through her heart; she was in so much pain that she could not breathe.

“Brother... you... you really knew about this? Then why didn't you go look for Tengtang Xi?” Shi Nuannuan could not help but ask as well.

She did not understand. According to her brother's personality, shouldn't he have rushed to Tengtang Xi's house immediately after finding out that she was the one who fired the shot? Shouldn't he have torn Tengtang Xi into pieces? Why didn't he go? Why did he hide all of this?

But Shi Nuannuan's words only added fuel to the fire. Shi Yuting wanted to just throw her out of the room!

He shot a sharp gaze over and glared fiercely at Shi Nuannuan!

Shi Nuannuan paused when she met his eyes. She was so frightened that she did not dare to speak again, but she was still so confused.

After glaring at his sister, Shi Yuting turned his head and looked at the injured person in front of him. “I only found out about it this morning, before I went to Country Z.”

Chapter 479: The Intense Pain of Losing a Child

Hearing this, Zuo Weiyi looked up, her dark eyes still filled with heartache. “Then why didn't you tell me? Why didn't you take revenge for our child? She killed our child... that's my child... my... ”

Her heart was in so much pain that she couldn't breathe.

At the beginning, she thought that her child had only been lost accidentally in that chaotic battle, so she couldn't blame anyone. She had always buried the pain of losing her child at the bottom of her heart and endured it alone.

It wasn't until yesterday that she realized that her child hadn't been lost accidentally. Instead, Tengtang Xi had shot her.

But he had known all along, yet he had concealed it from her. He hadn't even punished the murderer who had killed their child.

Her heart felt as if it was being stabbed by a knife. Zuo Weiyi clutched her chest. She felt as if a sharp blade was ruthlessly gouging and digging at her.

Looking at her pained expression, he felt as if his heart was being torn apart.

He closed his eyes and opened them. He said to his mother and sister, "You two go out first."

Shen Lanzhi and Shi Nuannuan looked at him. They were a little worried, but looking at the situation they chose to leave the space for the two of them.

After the mother and sister left, he reached out and pulled Zuo Weiyi into his arms again, binding her tightly.

Zuo Weiyi struggled, as if she was angry at him and didn't want to be touched by him.

But the more she struggled, the tighter his embrace became, not letting her break free.

"It's my fault. I'm sorry," he said softly as he hugged her tightly.

If he had known that Tengtang Xi would do this to her last night, he would have dealt with Tengtang Xi first.

He didn't dare to think about what he would have done if she hadn't been washed up on that shore last night but been swallowed by the sea instead.

He was wrong, completely wrong.

Zuo Weiyi only stopped struggling after hearing his apology.

However, her heart was truly in pain.

"Do you know how much I looked forward to him coming into this world... I... prepared... so many clothes for him... shoes, toys... but he suddenly disappeared. I wasn't prepared at all... he suddenly disappeared..." Zuo Weiyi sobbed.

As he hugged and listened to her sobbing voice, Shi Yuting's heart was torn apart; he hugged her even tighter.

He knew that the loss of the child had always been a pain in her heart.

But all this while, he had never seen her make a scene. Only that night, she had secretly shed tears in the hospital.

But it turned out that she had been hiding this matter at the bottom of her heart, making him think that she had already come to peace with it in her heart.

“It doesn’t matter to you whether this child is or not...”

His indifference made her heart ache even more.

The moment she said it, it made his heart tremble.

He let go of her and let her look at him. “How can I be indifferent? That’s my child!”

There were many things that he did not say or reveal, but that did not mean that he did not care.

This was his first time experiencing the feeling of being a father. God knew how excited and happy he was, and even a little flustered. He was also looking forward to his child’s arrival in this world.

Looking at her heartbroken eyes, Shi Yuting’s heart instantly felt like it had been ruthlessly slashed by something. It was so painful that he could not breathe!

However, hearing his explanation, Zuo Weiyi lowered her eyes.

Chapter 480: Did This Bastard Bully You Again?

“I killed Tengtang Xi. Before that, I was almost pushed into the sea by her people.. ” as she said that, she suddenly looked up at the man in front of her. “You knew that she was the one who killed our child, but you didn’t look for her. My heart... hurts so much.”

She looked at him and her heart-wrenching eyes slowly lowered. Then, she turned around and lay down with her back facing him.

She didn’t regret getting on Tengtang Xi’s yacht even when she was almost pushed into the sea.

On the contrary, she didn’t regret it at all. If she hadn’t gone up, she wouldn’t have been able to kill the murderer of her child.

However, what made her heart ache was why, as the child’s father, he didn’t go after Tengtang Xi, but chose to go to Country Z instead? Was the child really not important to him at all?

Because the child had already been lost, he could deal with Tengtang Xi whenever he wanted – was that what he thought?

Her hand gripped the blanket tightly. Her heart ached so much that she could not breathe.

Looking at the cold back, Shi Yuting’s heart was also stabbed with pain.

She had almost been pushed into the sea by Tengtang Xi’s men?

Thinking of this, he could not help but blame himself.

At this moment, his phone suddenly rang.

He took out his phone and realized that it was a local landline number.

He walked to the window and picked it up.

“Hello?”

“Where’s my granddaughter? Did something happen to her?” Zuo Yi’s slightly anxious voice sounded on the phone. He only found out about what happened last night when he woke up this morning.

As he had not rested well for the past few days, he slept all the way until 10 am before he woke up.

When he did, he was obviously in a hurry to find his granddaughter. However, she was nowhere to be seen at the presidential villa. Hence, he tried to call her on her cell phone, but no matter how hard he tried, he could not get through.

Later, he asked Uncle Yu and heard that she had gone to look for Tengtang Xi last night and was only found this morning.

At this moment, he was already on his way to the Shi family home by car.

Hearing Zuo Yi’s voice on the phone, Shi Yuting could not help but glance at the person lying on the bed. Then, he said into the phone, “She’s fine.”

“I’ll be there right away!” As soon as he said that, Zuo Yi cut off the call.

When he arrived at the Shi family’s house, it was just in time for lunch.

As soon as he entered the bedroom, he saw his precious granddaughter lying on the bed in a depressed mood. He could not help but feel a little heartache.

“Weiyi?”

Hearing her grandfather’s voice, Zuo Weiyi turned her head around. She suddenly felt guilty. Perhaps this was the feeling of having a relative.

Her eyes reddened immediately, causing Zuo Yi’s heart to ache terribly.

“What’s wrong? Did old man Shi bully you again?”

Zuo Weiyi shook her head, indicating that he did not.

“Then, did Shi Yuting bully you?”

This time, Zuo Weiyi did not make a sound. In Zuo Yi’s eyes, it was naturally a tacit agreement, and he was instantly enraged!

He stood up, raised the crutch in his hand, and without saying a word, he struck at Shi Yuting with merciless force!

“You little brat, you bullied my granddaughter?!”

“Old man! What are you doing?!”

Zuo Yi had just struck down with his crutch when Shi Wei, who had suddenly appeared at the door, saw this scene and was instantly enraged!

“Old man, what right do you have to hit my grandson?!”

“Who told your grandson to bully my granddaughter?”

“How did he bully her?!”

“He-!” Zuo Yi was suddenly at a loss for words. He turned around to look at his granddaughter and asked, “Weiyi, how did he bully you? “
