Chapter 531: Meeting Xiao Yayue

The scene of the explosion occupied her thoughts. She had already witnessed her mom's tragic death in the car accident. After spending so much time together, she had long treated Shen Lanzhi as her second mother. Were the heavens going to let her experience that helpless and dreadful pain again?

As she thought about it, tears silently slid down her face again, soaking the pillow.

The night was getting late, but she had no intention of falling asleep.

Lying in bed, she listened carefully to the wind and grass outside the window. It was three in the morning, but there was still no sound of a car engine.

No one would come back tonight, right.

The sky gradually brightened.

In winter, the day always came late. By the time the sky was completely bright, it was already seven in the morning.

Zuo Weiyi got up and changed into a fresh set of clothes. Then, she opened the door and prepared to go to the hospital.

Just as she opened the door, a car approached from afar and stopped in front of her.

The car door opened and Shi Nuannuan walked out of the car with Shi Le.

She looked up and when she saw Zuo Weiyi standing at the door, Shi Nuannuan stopped and looked at her for a few seconds. In the end, she did not say anything but chose to silently walk past her.

The moment she brushed past her, Zuo Weiyi's hands could not help but tighten slightly.

Since meeting and getting to know her, to feeling like a sister, Shi Nuannuan had never looked at her this way. So, this feeling was so uncomfortable.

Shi Le walked over and stared at her for a few seconds. In the end, he did not speak. Instead, he sighed and quietly walked past her.

Only when the footsteps behind her had completely disappeared did Zuo Weiyi take a step forward and walk towards the courtyard gate.

Just as she stepped out of the door, a Black Rolls-royce drove over not far away.

She recognized it. It was her grandpa's car.

Zuo Yi had heard yesterday that she was going to the hospital to visit Shen Lanzhi. He knew that it was not convenient to take a taxi nearby, so he had come over.

After getting out of the car, Zuo Yi gave her a set of car keys.

"It's not convenient to take a taxi here. This is the White Porsche that you drove before. After you got married, you never had the chance to drive it back." At that time, he knew that the Shi family had all kinds of luxury cars, so he did not give her a car when he was giving her a dowry, instead, he gave her a big red packet.

As for this Porsche, he kept it, waiting for her to drive it once in a while.

Looking at the keys handed to her, Zuo Weiyi took them.

If she had to go to the hospital every day, it would indeed be very convenient to have a car.

“Thank you, Grandpa.”

“Grandpa will send you to the hospital. Later, get someone to drive the car to the parking lot of the hospital.”

“Okay.” Zuo Weiyi nodded and entered the Rolls-Royce with Zuo Yi.

When the car arrived at the hospital, Zuo Yi knew that she definitely had not eaten breakfast. After getting out of the car, he said to her, “You go up first. Grandpa will be right behind you.”

She nodded and turned around to walk into the hospital.

When she entered the elevator, the moment the elevator door closed, a hurried voice sounded.

“Wait!”

Hearing this voice, Zuo Weiyi slowly raised her head and saw a hand suddenly reach into the elevator door that was about to close. Then, she saw a familiar face appear in front of the elevator door.

The moment the door was blocked, Xiao Yue raised her head and saw Zuo Weiyi standing in the elevator. She was surprised.

However, half a second later, she regained her senses and proudly walked into the elevator and stood in front of Zuo Weiyi.

Chapter 532: I Want That One in 100,000

The two of them did not speak to each other in the elevator, as if they were strangers.

Zuo Weiyi had her eyes lowered, so she did not notice the sudden smile on Xiao Yue’s face. There was also a flash of viciousness in her brown eyes.

On the ninth floor, the elevator door opened. Xiao Yue walked out arrogantly in her high heels.

As for Zuo Weiyi, she only walked out of the elevator when she reached the 10th floor.

When she arrived at the door of Shen Lanzhi’s ward, she looked through the glass window and confirmed that there was no one inside.

Thus, she pushed the door open and entered.

She walked to the front of the bed and looked at Shen Lanzhi who was lying on the bed. Although her face was a little pale, it looked so kind and gentle. Anyone would pity her if they looked at her right now.

It was 7:40 in the morning.

After glancing at Shen Lanzhi lying on the bed, Zuo Weiyi walked to the washroom specially set up in the hospital room, took out a basin, and fetched some hot water.

She soaked the towel in warm water, then wrung it dry. She wiped Shen Lanzhi's face, then her hands and feet. Her movements were extremely gentle.

Shi Yuting returned from the attending physician's place. When he walked to the door of the hospital room, he found that the door was half-closed. He frowned and looked through the glass window. He saw that familiar figure sitting by the bedside, wiping his mom's hands and feet.

His heart trembled slightly, and it stung a little.

The cell phone in his arms rang. He glanced at the ward, then walked to a corner and picked up the phone.

After wiping Shen Lanzhi's body, Zuo Weiyi put the basin and towel away. Then, she walked out and covered Shen Lanzhi with a blanket. She glanced at her and finally turned to leave the ward.

Shi Yuting finished his call and came back. The figure in the ward had already disappeared.

He stood where he was and looked at his mom on the bed. Finally, he turned around and left as well.

After asking a few nurses, Zuo Weiyi found Shen Lanzhi's attending doctor.

When she entered the office, the Doctor stood up.

"Young Madam Shi."

Hearing this address, Zuo Weiyi paused for a moment, as if she was still not used to it. However, she did not pay too much attention to it. Instead, she looked at the doctor and asked, "What is the best way to wake my mother up?"

The doctor paused for a moment before he frowned. "The way to wake her up?"

"Yes."

The doctor looked at Zuo Weiyi and did not know what she meant.

It was important to know that though Madam Shi was considered brain dead, her heart was still beating. However, unlike being in a vegetative state, she had too small of a chance of waking up.

So, what exactly did Young Madam Shi want to do then?

"Young Madam Shi, I had already told you yesterday that Madam Shi has a very tiny chance of waking up--"

"1 in 100,000, I know." Before the Doctor could finish speaking, Zuo Weiyi spoke first.

The doctor was taken aback.

If she knew that it was 1 in 100,000, then why did she still come to ask for his method of waking up?

The doctor looked at her and said, a little confusedly, "Then you..."

Zuo Weiyi looked up and her pitch-black pupils seemed to be shining with an impossible hope.

"I want that 1 in 100,000."

The doctor was shocked again at her response. "You mean... you want to wake Madam Shi?"

1 in 100,000? How was this possible!!

The doctor felt that this was simply wishful thinking and that she was being too naive.

"Young Madam Shi, I know how you feel, but..." the doctor could not help but sigh. "If you want to wake a person who is in a condition that is worse than a vegetable, I think you should just give up."

Chapter 533: He Will Not Be in Pain Anymore if You Wake Up

"You also said that there's a one in 100,000 chance, didn't you?" That was what she wanted.

If she didn't try, there would never be a one in 100,000 chance.

But in the eyes of the doctor, her idea was just a pipe dream.

If Shen Lanzhi really woke, it wouldn't be a one in 100,000 chance, but a miracle!

As she insisted, the Doctor still mentioned some methods that could instill some subconscious thoughts into the patient such as sitting by the bed; talking to her; chatting with her; reminiscing about the people and events deep in her memory; massaging her hands and feet; and stimulating her nerves touching her nerves to allow her to regain some sensations.

Of course, these were more useful for those in vegetative states than they would be for Shen Lanzhi.

After walking out of the attending doctor's office, Zuo Weiyi returned to the ward and sat by the bed. She picked up Shen Lanzhi's hand and massaged it just like the doctor had said.

"Mom, do you think that if you had gotten off the car with me, none of this would have happened?" She held Shen Lanzhi's hand and chatted with her softly, "You have to wake up. If you wake up, then Nuannuan won't blame me and Shi Yuting...won't hate me anymore; he won't be in so much pain."

At this point, her hand suddenly stopped as her voice became a little choked up. Shi Yuting's pained and merciless face flashed across her mind. She knew very well that in his heart, his mother was important.

Five years ago, he had snatched his mother from the jaws of death, but his father had died in that car accident.

Thinking about how Shen Lanzhi had been in a car accident five years later, Zuo Weiyi could almost feel the pain and heartbreak in Shi Yuting's heart at that moment.

The thoughts of it caused a wave of pain in her heart, and the tip of her nose instantly turned sour.

At that moment, the door of the ward opened.

She turned around when she heard the sound and saw Zuo Yi walking in with Ah Qiang's company, Wen Sheng.

She stood up. "Grandpa."

Zuo Yi smiled kindly at his granddaughter. "Weiyi, I bought some breakfast. Come eat with me."

After saying that, he carried the breakfast and sat down on the sofa at the side.

But Zuo Weiyi knew very well that he only said that to make her eat obediently.

She got up and walked to the sofa. As Zuo Yi watched, she chose a bowl of red bean porridge.

Seeing how much he cared about her, her grandpa was the only haven for her right now.

If she didn't have her grandpa, she didn't know if she could be calm and brave.

After just a few mouthfuls, the stuffy feeling in her chest surged up again. She frowned and felt a little uncomfortable.

"What's wrong?" Zuo Yi asked with a concerned look as he noticed her discomfort.

After a long while, she finally suppressed the feeling. She looked up at her grandpa and shook her head. "Nothing."

Zuo Yi became more worried as she always denied things.

"That rascal still hasn't spoken to you?"

His sudden words made Zuo Weiyi stop eating her porridge and her heart tightened slightly.

And there was no need for an answer—Zuo Yi just knew based on her reaction!

He was angry. "This rascal, to think that I even chose him to be the next president and yet he still treated you like this! Why don't I just cancel that vote?!"

Chapter 534: Is That All You're Going to Eat?

Zuo Yi became filled with anger towards Shi Yuting as he thought about the pain and grievance his granddaughter had suffered!

Hearing this, Zuo Weiyi could not help but quickly look at him. "Don't!"

Zuo Yi turned back to look at her. His brows were tightly knitted together. "But he treated you like that—"

"Grandpa, he is the next presidential candidate due to his own strength and ability. If you withdraw that vote, it would not be fair to him."

Zuo Yi to be at a loss for words for a moment.

The next president was indeed chosen fairly through the election assembly, and his vote was crucial. It may be unfair to the kid if he withdrew his vote but the thought of his aggrieved granddaughter made his heart feel extremely uncomfortable!

Zuo Weiyi was deeply aware that everything Grandpa had done was for her. So she said, "Grandpa, I'll settle this matter by myself." She turned her head and her gaze rested on Shen Lanzhi's face on the hospital bed. "As long as you give us some time."

She hoped that that one chance out of 100,000 would happen to Shen Lanzhi.

Looking at his granddaughter, Zuo Yi sighed heavily and didn't say anything else.

If time could really solve these problems, then that would be great.

Zuo Weiyi didn't even finish the bowl of porridge as she had lost her appetite. Moreover, she felt that if she ate another mouthful, she would feel like vomiting.

"I'm done eating." She put down the bowl and spoon and looked at Zuo Yi.

Zuo Yi frowned as he looked at the bowl. "Just that much?"

How could such a little thing maintain sufficient nutrition in the body?

"Mmhhh, my appetite has not been very good recently."

Zuo Yi looked at her and felt very helpless.

At ten in the morning, Zuo Yi had a very important meal, so he had to leave. But he was still a little worried about his granddaughter.

"Weiyi, why don't you go with Grandpa?"

Hearing this, Zuo Weiyi raised her head and glanced at her grandpa on the sofa. Then, she forced a smile and said, "No, I don't know your guest. Plus, I'm not used to such meals."

Zuo Yi didn't want to force her any further. "Then just remember to eat your lunch well. You must eat more."

It had only been less than two days but she was already looking more haggard. Her complexion was looking bad too.

"Yes, I know," Zuo Weiyi replied. She looked down at her flat stomach. Even if she couldn't eat anything, she would take good care of herself for the sake of her baby.

After repeatedly reminding her, Zuo Yi turned around and left.

Zuo Weiyi looked at the time around noon. It was already 12:10.

Nuannuan might be coming in a while.

So she got up and decided to go back first.

"Mother, I'll go back first. I'll come back to see you tomorrow." After adjusting the quilt for Shen Lanzhi, she turned around and left.

She entered the elevator. It must have been due to lunchtime as there were more people getting on and off. She pressed the button for the first floor and then waited quietly.

The elevator descended one floor before stopping again.

The door opened and two figures walked in from the ninth floor.

“Tiannan, what do you want to eat later?”

Zuo Weiyi was looking down. But when she heard this familiar voice, she suddenly looked up and saw Xiao Yayue and Shi Tiannan walking in.

After the past few days of treatment, Shi Tiannan’s injuries seemed to have recovered a lot. His face, which was originally bruised and swollen, had now returned to its original appearance. But there was still a layer of gauze wrapped around his head.

Chapter 535: She is Shi Yuting’s Woman!

Glancing at the mother and son, Zuo Weiyi calmly lowered her eyes and waited for the elevator to descend to the first floor.

Shi Tiannan noticed her as soon as he entered the elevator and was a little surprised.

Sensing that something was amiss with her son, Xiao Yayue followed his line of sight and also noticed Zuo Weiyi who was standing in the corner of the elevator. The smile on her face suddenly faded.

The road they walk on must be really narrow for such enemies to meet again!

As the elevator moved and more people entered, Zuo Weiyi found herself squeezed into Shi Tiannan’s side.

“Move aside, move aside!” Just when Zuo Weiyi managed to stand firmly, a person suddenly started pushing around behind her. As the elevator door started to close, the person shoved her out of his way as he rushed out.

Zuo Weiyi staggered a few steps but finally managed to stabilize herself with the help of a strong hand.

But she immediately felt disgusted when she saw who it was and pushed him away.

“Hey, my son helped you out of kindness. What’s with your reaction?” Seeing her son being pushed, Xiao Yayue was naturally a little unhappy.

Of course, it was mainly because she had been slapped a few times by this little b*tch before. She had even been forced her to apologize to Shen Lanzhi. Even until now, the anger in her heart had not subsided.

However, after the recent incident, she felt much better.

Speaking of which, Shen Lanzhi’s life really was great—she didn’t even die!

But she is pretty much dead anyway.

Xiao Yayue smiled smugly as she thought about it.

Zuo Weiyi didn't say anymore as she looked at Xiao Yayue. She just stood silently and patiently waited to arrive at the first floor, disdainful to be near the mother and son.

When the elevator reached the first floor, Zuo Weiyi walked out first, but who knew that Shi Tiannan would also walk out at the same time. The two of them were squeezed together at the elevator door.

She took a step back to let him go first as she felt that Shi Tiannan might have done it on purpose.

However, when he saw that she had retreated, he also retreated.

Zuo Weiyi's expression turned cold. She suddenly raised her head and glared at Shi Tiannan. "Do you know how disgusted I am to see you now?"

Shi Tiannan's expression froze. His pitch-black eyes fixed on her cold and heartless face.

Shi Tiannan walked out of the elevator and just watched her walk toward the hospital's main entrance. He was somewhat lost in thought.

Xiao Yayue knew that the reason why her son was seriously injured and hospitalized was because he had done something improper to Zuo Weiyi a few days ago. Therefore, from his gaze, she seemed to be able to tell that her son was very interested in Zuo Weiyi.

"Tiannan, she is Shi Yuting's woman."

"So what?" Shi Tiannan withdrew his gaze and walked toward the restaurant that was set up in the hospital.

Xiao Yayue was shocked.

What did he mean by that? Could it be that he wanted to snatch Shi Yuting's woman?

She hurriedly chased after him.

"Tiannan, don't forget your purpose. After what happened last time, the old master clearly has an issue with you. I'm afraid that it will be very difficult for the two of us to step into the Shi family's front door in the future!"

"I have my own plans." Shi Tiannan quickened his pace.

Xiao Yayue wanted to say something. But since he left in large strides, the words that she wanted to say were stuck in her throat.

When Zuo Weiyi returned home, Shi Nuannuan was indeed no longer there. The living room was empty.

Chapter 536: You Should Be More Understanding

She was just about to go upstairs when Shi Le came down the stairs.

She stopped and looked at Shi Le calmly.

Seeing her return, Shi Le stopped in his tracks and looked a little solemn.

“Yuting doesn’t feel good about what happened. Child, you... should be more understanding.”

Zuo Weiyi was a little surprised by his sudden words.

He had never liked her grandpa. And after what had happened, he would definitely have lost the last bit of good impression she had left in his heart. She had not expected him to actually speak to her.

She forced a smile. “I understand.”

Looking at her, Shi Le nodded, then walked past her and went downstairs.

Zuo Weiyi turned around and saw him walking towards the door. In an instant, she was the only one left in the entire house.

For lunch, she simply made a bowl of noodles. In order to balance the nutrition, she added two eggs.

As she sat in front of the dining table and took a bite, she heard the sound of a car engine door from outside.

She paused and put down her bowl and chopsticks. Just as she walked to the dining room door, she saw Shi Yuting walking in.

Their gazes met, and Shi Yuting stopped in his tracks.

However, in less than two seconds, he shifted his gaze and walked straight to the second floor.

He became so unfamiliar.

After a while, he came back downstairs with a document in hand.

Zuo Weiyi watched as he entered, go upstairs, come back down, and went out the door. Besides a short glance at her, he didn’t look at her anymore.

Her heart was in pain.

It was not until the sound of the engine at the door gradually died down that Zuo Weiyi returned to the dining room. When she sat down again, she could no longer taste the food.

In the next few days, Zuo Weiyi would go to the hospital to give Shen Lanzhi a simple massage every morning after Nuannuan came back. Then, she would chat with her the whole morning. Eventually, going to the hospital in the morning seemed to have become her habit.

At night, Shi Nuannuan would go on a vigil and would not return to the mansion.

It was another sleepless night. Zuo Weiyi laid in bed and occasionally, could not help but look at the empty seat beside her.

For five consecutive days, other than Shi Yuting returning once that afternoon, no one else came.

She did not know whether he was in the hospital or busy with his matters.

Even so, Zuo Weiyi was unable to convince herself.

Because before this, he would always come back no matter how busy he was.

He probably did not want to see her anymore, right?

Thinking about it, tears fell once again.

The next day.

Because she could not sleep, Zuo Weiyi woke up very early.

Just as she went downstairs, she saw Shi Le dressed in grand clothes, as if he was going to attend some grand banquet.

Hearing the sound of footsteps coming from the stairs, Shi Le turned around and saw her walking down the stairs.

After thinking for a while, he said, "Today is Yuting's inauguration ceremony. Do you want to go with me?"

Zuo Weiyi was taken aback.

She had heard from her grandpa that Shi Yuting had been chosen as the next President, and the inauguration ceremony was set for today, February 13th.

"There's no need for that. You can go ahead."

"Alright." Shi Le nodded and did not force her any further.

As usual, Zuo Weiyi arrived at the hospital at 7:40 in the morning.

What she needed to do every day was to improve Shen Lanzhi's sensory abilities and the nerves in her brain. Although she might not be aware of what she was doing, Zuo Weiyi did not want to give up.

Chapter 537: At the Entrance of the Hospital

At noon, she did not go home. Instead, she went to a restaurant nearby.

After lunch, she went to the mobile phone store.

She had lost her mobile phone for a long time. In today's society, it is difficult to be without a phone.

She bought a cheaper mobile phone with the same number she had previously. This way, her previous contacts would not be lost.

When she walked out of the phone shop and looked up, she was attracted by a huge commercial screen in front of her.

Looking at the familiar figure, even if he was elected president, there was not a trace of joy on his face.

Zuo Weiyi walked on the cold street aimlessly.

She did not know how much time had passed until snow started falling again in the sky. She eventually came back to her senses.

When she returned home, the sky had already darkened.

She opened the door and suddenly felt nauseous. She raised her hand to cover her mouth and rushed to the bathroom on the first floor impatiently. She started retching!

After vomiting for a while, the discomfort slowly faded away.

She calmed herself down and turned around to go upstairs.

She felt a little tired, probably from the walk that went on a bit too long. So, she lay on the bed and immediately fell asleep.

In her dreams, she felt a warm hand brush against her face. However, when she opened her eyes, she just saw a pitch-black room. As the moonlight shone in through the window, she did not notice anyone.

She got up and rested against the head of the bed. She realized that it was already two o'clock in the morning.

The spot beside her was always empty.

Zuo Weiyi did not close her eyes until daybreak.

Another half a month passed, but Shen Lanzhi's condition did not improve. And Shi Yuting still did not return to the mansion even once during the past half a month.

Today, Zuo Weiyi arrived to the hospital late.

That was because she realized that she was getting more and more lethargic. She always slept in very late before waking up. Sometimes, even after waking up, she did not want to get out of bed.

When she walked to the entrance and saw the familiar plush boots in the shoe cabinet, she knew that Nuannuan had already returned from the hospital.

Driving a White Porsche, she saw a familiar figure walking out of the hospital entrance the moment she reached it.

Looking at the figure that she had not seen for more than half a month, Zuo Weiyi forgot to get out of the car and just quietly watched.

However, the next second, the expression on her face froze.

She saw that Shi Yuting had just walked out of the door with another figure following behind him.

She did not recognize that figure, but only knew that it was a woman.

Sitting in the car, Zuo Weiyi quietly watched him and the woman get into the same black car and drive past her.

Her heart felt like it had been pricked by a needle, stinging fiercely!

This was the first time she had seen another woman by his side since she had known him.

But, why now..

She came to the ward where Shen Lanzhi was. As usual, she went to the bathroom and fetched hot water. She carefully wiped Shen Lanzhi's body and limbs.

As she wiped, her movements gradually slowed down. Her mind was filled with the two figures from before.

She thought that she could solve all of this.

She thought that she could bear all of this.

But in the end, she still lost to her own naivety.

She didn't know how long it would take for Shen Lanzhi to wake up.

She thought that she could bear all of this, bear the days without Shi Yuting, and believed that one day Shen Lanzhi would wake up.

Chapter 538: I'll Bring You Back to Z Country

However, she realized that she had been so naive these few days. It seemed that she was not as strong as she imagined.

Zuo Weiyi's tears could no longer be controlled and streamed down as she looked at Shen Lanzhi laying on the bed with eyes still closed.

Her voice trembled as she sobbed, "Mother... my heart hurts so much."

She lowered her head. The loneliness and pain that had accumulated in her heart for the past few days suddenly erupted like a massive flood, engulfing her and causing her unbearable pain.

She placed her hands on her forehead as tears flowed down without restraint. Her shoulders trembled uncontrollably from the sobs.

The pain, self-blame, and guilt in her heart had been tormenting her these past few days. She thought that she would be able to endure it, but it was all just wishful thinking.

It was merely a one in 100,000 chance that such a miracle would never happen to Shen Lanzhi. But there was no such thing as a miracle in this world.

Tears streamed down her face like a fountain. Her defenses and pretenses fell, revealing the bruises and holes that had long riddled her body.

She sat beside Shen Lanzhi's bed and wept helplessly. In this quiet morning, only her faint sobs could be heard in the desolate room.

The door of the ward suddenly opened.

Zuo Weiyi was immersed in her own thoughts and did not hear the sound of the door opening. She only lowered her head and continued to cry out in pain.

“Weiyi?”

A familiar voice suddenly could be heard in the ward. Zuo Weiyi stopped crying and looked up towards the door. She saw Gu Yansheng who had suddenly appeared.

Seeing her tearful face, Gu Yansheng felt his heart ache.

He frowned and strode to the bedside. He crouched down beside her and looked at her face that had been ruined from crying.

“What’s wrong?” Gu Yansheng felt troubled when he saw her crying so sadly.

Zuo Weiyi looked up with tears in her eyes. She was surprised that he had suddenly appeared.

“You... how could you...” She struggled to speak as she was still sobbing.

Gu Yansheng seemed to know what she wanted to ask, so he answered directly, “I just came back from Z Country. I heard from Grandfather Zuo that you come here every morning to take care of Auntie Shen.”

Zuo Weiyi glanced at him and raised her hand to wipe the tears off her face.

“Did he do something to you?”

He had heard roughly from Zuo Yi about what had happened in the Shi family before rushing back.

He knew that she had lost her phone a long time ago, so he had come here directly to look for her. He did not expect to see her crying alone as soon as he entered.

As she looked at and listened to Gu Yansheng, the figures of Shi Yuting and that woman suddenly flashed across Zuo Weiyi’s mind again. Tears once again flowed down like a river, unable to stop.

She did not dare to think about where he had been living since he had not returned home for the past few days.

As she thought about it, her heart became even more uncomfortable, and her tears fell helplessly.

Judging by how much she was crying again, Gu Yansheng already knew the answer to his question. His hands unconsciously clenched into fists!

He reached out and pulled her toward him. Even though he was only crouching, he was only a head shorter than Zuo Weiyi who was sitting.

Gu Yansheng buried her head in his shoulder and hugged her tightly, as if he could not bear to let go.

“I’ll bring you back to Z country.”

The sudden words surprised Zuo Weiyi. Just as she was about to lift her face from his shoulder, the door opened again.

PS: Based on what’s happening so far, many of you may be thinking that the female lead will be leaving with Gu Yansheng. However... no spoilers!

Chapter 539: He Was Afraid That He Wouldn’t Be Able to Stop Himself From Hugging Her

Upon hearing the door open, Zuo Weiyi instinctively straightened her body and removed her face from Gu Yansheng's shoulder. She turned her head and saw Shi Yuting who had suddenly appeared at the door of the ward.

The moment she saw him, her heart froze!

Even though the two of them immediately pulled apart, Shi Yuting had seen their intimate interaction. In an instant, he felt a ball of jealousy burning in his heart.

When he left just now, he realized that he had left his phone in the ward, so he came back to get it. However, he did not expect to see such a scene as soon as he pushed the door open. His heart felt a sharp pain.

He clenched his fists tightly and stared at the two of them in front of him with a burning gaze.

When Zuo Weiyi saw him, she did not notice the fury that was spreading in his heart at this moment. Her mind was only filled with how she felt in the past few days that he had not gone back. And when she saw him again for more than half a month, he was with another woman.

She had never thought that the man who loved her so deeply would one day so casually chat and laugh with another woman. They even rode in the same car!

Tears welled up again in her eyes.

The moment he saw her tears fall, Shi Yuting's heart also felt a sharp pain.

However, when he remembered her laying on Gu Yansheng's shoulder just now, his heart burnt with jealousy, not knowing how to vent it.

"If you want to be intimate, do it outside. Don't do it in front of my mom." He walked to the sofa and picked up the phone that he had left there. His voice was as cold as ice.

Saying that her heart felt heavy was an understatement for Zuo Weiyi. In fact, her heart suddenly felt like it had been torn apart in an instant. The pain was so unbearable she couldn't breathe, all the while with tears streaming down her face.

She slowly walked up to him. Even though she was in so much pain, she still spoke up, "I know, I've let mother down, but... how could you do this..."

Shi Yuting had his back to her. When he heard her voice tremble from the sobs, there was a piercing feeling in his heart!

But he did not dare turn around and look into her eyes, for if he did, he would not be able to resist himself from pulling her into a hug.

But he also could not accept the fact that she was the reason his mom was laying unconscious on the bed.

He looked so heartless, standing unmoving with a tall and straight back.

"I still have things to deal with." Shi Yuting continued to walk out the door.

“Shi Yuting!”

Watching him walk out just like that, Gu Yansheng could not hold it in any longer and suddenly called out to him!

Shi Yuting stopped in his tracks when he heard him, but did not turn his head. He only had his back facing the two of them.

“How could you say that to her?!” Gu Yansheng said angrily at Shi Yuting’s back, clenching his fists tightly!

Was this how he was going to hurt his woman?

“Don’t tell me that the two of you are going to continue behaving like that in front of my mom?” Shi Yuting turned around and looked at Gu Yansheng with eyes filled with endless jealousy!

His words once again stung the Zuo Weiyi.

Gu Yansheng clenched his fists even tighter!

He stared angrily at the man in front of him, “And what kind of behavior is that?”

Shi Yuting coldly turned his gaze away, “With an IQ such as yours, you won’t need me to explain.”

“Fine, since you say so, then I guess you wouldn’t mind if I take her away?”

Shi Yuting’s heart skipped a beat upon hearing Gu Yansheng’s challenge. He wanted to just crush the cell phone in his hand!

Chapter 540: For Eternity

He fixed his gaze on Gu Yansheng, eyes filled with rage. He closed in on Gu Yansheng and squeezed every word out from between his teeth. “You’re overstepping your boundaries. She will always be Shi Yuting’s wife. For eternity. And even if I no longer want her, she will never be yours!”

For eternity, she will always be his wife—it was a solemn vow. But his following words—‘even if I no longer want her, she will never be yours’—was what hurt Zuo Weiyi the most.

“Oh, really? I’m still taking her away.” As he spoke, Gu Yansheng suddenly rushed in front of Zuo Weiyi, grabbed her hand, and turned around to walk towards the door!

Zuo Weiyi did not struggle free, because at that moment, she was already badly hurt.

Shi Yuting had nowhere to vent the jealousy in his heart as he watched them leave. He raised his hand and threw the phone in his hand onto the ground. In an instant, the expensive phone shattered into pieces beyond recognition!

And yet, it was still not enough to sufficiently vent the jealousy in his heart!

After walking out of the hospital, snowflakes started falling again. There seemed to be a lot of snow this year.

Zuo Weiyi's coat was left in Shen Lanzhi's ward because she was pulled out in a hurry.

Seeing the snowflakes falling, Gu Yansheng quickly took off his black coat and put it on her shoulder.

Zuo Weiyi felt the sudden weight on her shoulders. She pulled herself out of a daze and noticed the coat on her.

"I'll send you to Grandfather Zuo's place."

"It's OK. There's no need. I'll drive by myself." As she spoke, Zuo Weiyi was going to take the coat off her shoulders, but Gu Yansheng stopped her.

"It's very cold."

After all, she was only wearing a white hollowed-out knitted sweater. Even he felt a little cold when the cold wind blew. So, how could she not be cold? Plus, when he held her hand just now, it felt icy.

"I'll send you there. I don't feel at ease letting you drive yourself like this." As he spoke, he held her hand again and walked towards his sports car. "Let's go."

With that, he led Zuo Weiyi forward with one hand while the other held onto his coat on her shoulder.

When they reached the front passenger seat, Gu Yansheng opened the car door for her. He glanced at Zuo Weiyi, who was a little hesitant.

But in the end, she still got into the car under his determined gaze.

Not far away, Shi Yuting watched the two of them get into the car and left.

His hands unconsciously clenched into tight fists.

The car arrived at the presidential villa.

Zuo Yi hurriedly walked over as he saw the two of them walk in.

"Weiyi."

Zuo Weiyi looked up but her complexion was not good. "Grandpa, I'm a little tired. I want to rest."

Zuo Weiyi spoke first as soon as she walked in, determined to avoid Zuo Yi's questions. As soon as she finished speaking, she walked up the stairs and went straight to the third floor, returning to her own room.

Although she was married and had moved out, the room on the third floor of the presidential villa had always been prepared for her.

So every time she came back, she would not have to go out of her way to tidy it up.

Zuo Yi's heart ached at the sight of her complexion as she entered her room.

Judging from her red and swollen eyes, he could tell that she must have cried just now.

Zuo Yi turned around and asked Gu Yansheng, "What happened?"

At his question, Gu Yansheng turned to Zuo Yi. The way Shi Yuting hurt Weiyi at the hospital earlier filled his mind.
