

Kiss Me 681

Chapter 681: Who Was the One Who Poisoned Her?

Two worlds? “You mean, I really have schizophrenia?”

“No!” Zhong Shenghao shook his head.

“Speak English!”

Beside him, Shi Yuting couldn't help but roar at him!

Being yelled at like that, Zhong Shenghao didn't dare to talk nonsense anymore and went straight to the point. “You were poisoned by someone!”

Hearing that, everyone's eyes widened in shock.

Poisoned?

Shi Yuting's black eyes became even colder, emitting a chill. “You said she was poisoned?”

“Yes.” Zhong Shenghao looked at him and nodded affirmatively. “Although I haven't determined what kind of poison it is, according to her symptoms, it should be...”

His solemn eyes swept over the three people in front of him and finally landed on Zuo Weiyi's face. “Alternative hallucinogen.”

Shi Yuting frowned. “Which alternative?”

“It's a poison that even I don't know about.”

The two men looked at each other as they became immersed in their thoughts.

Zhong Shenghao had been in the medical field for less than a year, but he had already been hailed as a medical genius. In just a few short years, he had even created countless miracles in the medical field! As long as there was a glimmer of hope for the patients in his hands, they would never die. So was there really something in this world that he did not know about?

“Poison...how did I notice it at all?” Zuo Weiyi was confused.

Her body was fine. Other than nightmares and sleepwalking, there were no other symptoms at all.

Why didn't she notice that she was poisoned at all?

More importantly, how did she get poisoned?

“Since the incident with Xiao Cui, I've been staying at home. At most, I went to Di Zun. Even when I went to there, Shi Yuting accompanied me. I haven't had any contact with anyone else. So, how did I get poisoned?”

She looked at Zhong Shenghao, hoping for answers. It couldn't be that the poison entered her body by itself, could it?

Zhong Shenghao's gaze unconsciously turned towards the main entrance.

The carnation was probably only be a medicinal catalyst.

If it was the fragrance, Yuting and Nuannuan should have been affected as well.

But only Weiyi was poisoned.

If they wanted to find out what poison it was and how it entered her body, they had to first conduct a test on the blood in Weiyi's body.

"Yes, Sister-in-Law has been staying at home most of the time and hasn't gone anywhere. How could she be poisoned?" Shi Nuannuan was also puzzled.

It couldn't be the food since they had been eating the same food.

Just when everyone was still wondering, two figures walked in from the door. They were Xiao Cui and Xiao Song.

After a few days of treatment, Xiao Song's injuries had fully recovered.

As instructed by Zuo Weiyi, they came directly to the seaside villa escorted by bodyguards the moment they were discharged from the hospital. She told them to come over because she was worried that they would be subjected to revenge again.

Xiao Cui's initially happy face suddenly faded when she saw the others the moment she entered through the door, especially Shi Yuting's cold face.

"Xiao Cui?" Zuo Weiyi was very happy to see the two of them. "So Xiao Song has been discharged."

Xiao Cui glanced at Zuo Weiyi. Under Shi Yuting's sinister gaze, she nodded slightly. "Yes, Madam."

The moment Shi Nuannuan saw Xiao Cui and Xiao Song, she seemed to have suddenly thought of something. Her eyes started quivering as she looked at Xiao Cui.

Chapter 682: Nuannuan 'Forces a Confession'!

Then, she stood up and walked to Xiao Cui seriously. Her face was no longer as pleasant as before.

"Xiao Cui, did you do something to my sister-in-law again?"

Looking at the young miss who suddenly confronted her with such stern eyes, Xiao Cui could not help but be a little scared and confused.

"I, I didn't..."

"The only one who can get close to my sister-in-law is you. Who else could it be other than you to poison her?" Shi Nuannuan raised her voice.

It was not that she was using her power to bully others, but if someone really had ulterior motives, how could she 'force a confession' if she did not put on the airs and dignity of a young miss?

Despite the allegations, Xiao Cui was still as confused as ever.

Poison?

Raising her slightly aggrieved eyes, she looked at Nuannuan. "Miss, I admit that what I did before was wrong, but I definitely have no intention of harming Madam. She protected me and Xiao Song so much, so how could I possibly poison her again?"

"That's hard to guarantee. My sister-in-law is so good to you. Didn't you still manage to poison the vegetables to save Xiao Song last time?" Shi Nuannuan approached closer.

At this moment, Xiao Cui was absolutely at a loss for words.

Last time, she was indeed forced to poison Weiyi's food, but in the end... she knew that it was abortion medicine and immediately confessed.

She really had no intention of harming Weiyi.

"Nuannuan!" Zuo Weiyi went over and pulled Nuannuan away from Xiao Cui. "Don't scare her."

Seeing her, Xiao Cui immediately knelt down and tears started coming out of her eyes. "Madam, ever since the incident last time, I really didn't do anything..."

"Get up quickly!" She reached out and helped Xiao Cui up. "I know it wasn't you."

"Sister-in-law!" Nuannuan could not help but speak. How could she be so sure that Xiao Cui did not poison her?

Zuo Weiyi turned around and looked at Nuannuan. "After that incident, Xiao Cui has been staying in the hospital to take care of Xiao Song. If she really did poison me, then how would she have done it?"

Now that she'd thought about it, Nuannuan was also confused.

No, what if she poisoned her in advance?

"Besides, no one knew that she poisoned me the last time. If she really wanted to harm me or was forced by others, I would have eaten the poison at the time. She could have just kept it a secret, right? Why would she go through so much trouble to wait for a second time?"

Therefore, she had absolute trust in Xiao Cui.

She knew that if Xiao Cui didn't do what the other party said, Xiao Song would have died at any moment. But she still came clean, convincing Weiyi of her innocence even more!

In the end, Shi Nuannuan also thought that Weiyi's words made sense.

"Then who was the one who poisoned her?"

Zhong Shenghao was listening and seemed to have noticed some flaws in the narrative. "You said that Xiao Cui has been in the hospital since the incident?"

Zuo Weiyi looked at him and nodded blankly. "Yes."

"When did you have the nightmares?"

Zuo Weiyi thought for a moment. "That night."

Zhong Shenghao fell into deep thought after hearing her words.

As he looked at Xiao Cui, he was sure that it was not her who poisoned Weiyi.

In other words, the only possibility of Weiyi being poisoned at home was very small. She must have been poisoned outside.

Chapter 683: He Would Never Harm Me!

“Did you go straight home after you came back from the hospital that day?”

“No,” said Shi Yuting.

He remembered very clearly that on that afternoon, she was having lunch with Gu Yansheng in the restaurant after leaving the hospital!

Zhong Shenghao was still surprised when Shi Yuting answered him instead. “How did you know?”

Shi Yuting’s gaze fell on Zuo Weiyi’s face. “Because that afternoon, she was eating out.”

Naturally, he wouldn’t say that his wife was eating with another man in front of Zhong Shenghao!

However, Zhong Shenghao could already sense something based on his responses.

If the only time she was out during this period of time was that day, then the chances of her being poisoned then would be very high.

He looked at Zuo Weiyi and Shi Nuannuan. “Did the two of you go together that day?”

Weiyi and Nuannuan looked at each other. Could it be that there something happened at the restaurant that day?

However, could the culprit really have predicted that they would go there for a meal and set up an ambush at that restaurant to wait for an opportunity to poison her?

“We did. Why?” Nuannuan asked cluelessly.

“Which restaurant was it?”

“It’s the one on Guangjing Road with the local specialty dishes.”

Local dishes were usually shared.

“Then, was there anything that you haven’t eaten or drunk before?” Zhong Shenghao asked in a way that really made everyone realize how serious the matter was.

Shi Nuannuan glanced at Zuo Weiyi and then looked at Zhong Shenghao. As she recalled the time at the restaurant, she replied, “No, I don’t think so. We ordered the local dishes served with rice.”

Unlike western dishes, they were served one at a time.

At this time, Zuo Weiyi’s eyes were fixed on Zhong Shenghao. “Are you saying that it’s very likely that I was poisoned that day?”

“I’m just making deductions for now.”

“But we all shared the same dishes that day. We didn’t order drinks either except for the tea that we drank, which was directly poured from the same pot. If that’s the case, then shouldn’t all of us be poisoned?” Shi Nuannuan’s reasoning made sense.

“No.” Zuo Weiyi suddenly said. “That day, Gu Yansheng changed my tea to water.”

Shi Yuting’s sinister eyes suddenly darkened. He asked, “Gu Yansheng?”

Zuo Weiyi saw the look in his eyes and quickly cleared Gu Yansheng’s name. “But he would never harm me!”

Shi Yuting narrowed his eyes. “How can you be so sure?”

“Because he treats me very well. How can he harm me?” She said it so matter-o-factly, which only made Shi Yuting feel more uncomfortable!

Zuo Weiyi paused when she met his unblinking gaze. It seemed that she had said something wrong.

Shi Yuting’s face was dark. He was particularly unhappy with the sentence ‘he treats me very well’!

However, no matter who the suspect was, he would not leave out a single person!

“Xiangyi.” His spoke coldly as his face turned dark!

Xiangyi walked over and respectfully nodded at him. “Your Excellency.”

“Check out that restaurant, and see if the Young Madam’s glass of water had been tampered with!”

“Understood!” Xiangyi immediately left to investigate the matter.

Next, he had to find out what kind of poison it was.

However, from the looks of it, other than hallucinations and nightmares, the poison did not seem to cause any harm to the human body.

Chapter 684: Will the Children Be Alright?

The other party’s goal was to make Weiyi go insane without anyone knowing about it. They wanted others to think that she was suffering from a personality disorder and die without even knowing the cause.

Tsk, tsk, tsk. This person really harbored evil intentions!

“Then my children!” Zuo Weiyi suddenly realized the risk and started to feel uneasy. “If I’m poisoned, then what about my children? Will they be in danger?!”

Although she had given her babies regular check-ups and the doctor had told her that the baby in her belly had always been healthy, now that she was poisoned, would they be...

Seeing how anxious she looked, Zhong Shenghao immediately comforted her. “Don’t worry. According to my observations, since there is nothing wrong with your body, it means that the babies are also fine.”

He had just examined her a few days ago. If the medicine would hurt the babies, it would have aborted long ago.

“But just in case, I suggest that we go to the hospital right now for a comprehensive check-up. Moreover, I must identify the poison in your body before I can prescribe the right medicine.” Zhong Shenghao was still a little worried.

Would there be an antidote for a poison that even he didn’t know about?

With his presence, a group of people arrived at the hospital and gave Zuo Weiyi a comprehensive check-up.

During the check-up, Zuo Weiyi felt extremely uneasy.

Although she didn’t know what kind of harm the hallucinogen would cause, it was still poison after all. Would it really not hurt her children?

The results were finally out.

“According to the report, there is nothing unusual about you and your children. They are very healthy.” The doctor held dozens of sheets and read them one at a time to Zuo Weiyi and the others.

“Are you sure?” She was still a little worried.

The doctor smiled. “Of course, you went through different tests. Even if it’s possible that one might have an error, they couldn’t all have errors too.”

She did a thorough examination and every test showed that there was nothing wrong with her baby.

Zuo Weiyi’s heart finally settled down.

However, what puzzled her was, who exactly hated her so much? They actually thought of using such a cruel method to push into such conditions so meticulously!

If Shi Yuting had not rushed back in time at the balcony that day, would she have fallen?

If he had not pulled her back in time by the swimming pool that day, would she have drowned?

If Nuannuan hadn’t held her by the stairs that day, would she have fallen and gone to the netherworld with the children in her belly?

Thoughts of these still gave her a chill down her spine and a lingering fear!

In the next few days, everyone was waiting for Zhong Shenghao’s test results.

Only three days had passed. As a genius in the medical field, he still couldn’t identify the poison. Other than knowing that it contained an alternative hallucinogen, he hadn’t figured out the other two poisons that were mixed in it yet.

Finally, on the fourth day, there was further progress.

“TN-648?”

“Yeah, it actually took me three days and three nights to research it!”

“What’s that?”

"It's a drug that's been smuggled by C Country in recent years. I heard that Mr. Zuo once wanted to locate the lair of this drug, but it was fruitless. After the news of his intentions leaked out, the black merchants must have found out, but they suddenly disappeared without a trace for a few years. It's a miracle I identified it."

Chapter 685: The Poisoning Will Happen a Second Time

"C Country?" Shi Yuting's dark eyes narrowed.

"Yes." Zhong Shenghao looked at him. "This drug was smuggled out of C Country. I say, president, this is the first thorny matter for your new position."

"Very good. I'm now quite interested in the lair of this drug." The corners of his mouth suddenly curled into a cold smile.

The confusion that he had been puzzled over for a long time seemed to be gradually unraveling.

To Zhong Shenghao, who had been his good friend for many years, it wasn't just a simple smile that was on Shi Yuting's face, but a sinister and scheming one!

"Is there an antidote?" Shi Yuting asked. Although the poison could not cause any harm to the body, if it could not be dispelled, the hallucinations and nightmares would always surround her.

"I'm still studying it. The poison in her body is more complicated than it appears, so there's no direct antidote. But you'd better not let her stay at the seaside villa for the time being." Zhong Shenghao advised.

Shi Yuting frowned. "Why?"

"Because the real cause of her hallucinations and abnormal behavior is the carnation bed in the garden," Zhong Shenghao continued after a pause, "That's why we didn't notice that she was poisoned. Without the bed of flowers, the drug in her body wouldn't have been effective."

Shi Yuting's eyes darkened.

In other words, before planning all this, someone had specially investigated the carnation in his villa?

It was really deliberate.

"And I think..." Zhong Shenghao suddenly turned serious, "The other party will definitely poison her again."

Hearing this, Shi Yuting frowned. "How do you know?"

"I've studied this medicine carefully. With the dosage in Weiyi's body, it won't have much effect at all. I think the other party first wanted to slowly make Weiyi's mind abnormal to make us think that she might have schizophrenia. This means that their actions can't be too obvious. If the dosage was that high from the beginning, we would definitely have investigated it. Besides, schizophrenia progresses from mild to severe. That should be their goal. Therefore, in order to aggravate Weiyi's condition, they will have to poison her twice."

Shi Yuting's deep eyes gradually emitted a bone-chilling light.

He wanted to see just how capable the murderer was!

...

Under Zhong Shenghao's suggestion, Zuo Weiyi should temporarily stay in Shi Mansion.

This made Shi Le and Shen Lanzhi extremely happy.

A family should live together.

In the morning, Shen Lanzhi sat on the sofa in the living room and asked Zuo Weiyi with concern, "Weiyi, how have you been these few days?"

"Much better." Ever since she moved into Shi Mansion, she was no longer plagued by hallucinations and nightmares. Coupled with Shen Lanzhi's meticulous care, she could clearly feel that she had gained weight in just a week.

However, the babies were only less than five months old, so the rate of growth of her stomach was a little shocking.

This made her a little worried.

Could it be because the toxins in her body had not been completely removed?

Thinking about it, she felt that it was better to go to the hospital for a check-up.

Hence, in the afternoon, Shi Yuting brought her to the downtown hospital. Shen Lanzhi was worried and wanted to follow, but Shi Yuting stopped her.

Weiyi was a little puzzled. "Son, why can't Mom Go?"

She was also very worried about her grandchildren.

Chapter 686: The Babies Are Very Healthy

"Because..." Shi Yuting's lips curled up slightly. "After the check-up, we're going to meet an 'important person'. It's not convenient for us to bring you."

"Then why is Nuannuan going?"

"She's an important person."

Shi Yuting walked out of the carved gate with Zuo Weiyi in his arms.

On the way, Zuo Weiyi could not help but ask, "You just said that we're going to meet an important person later. Who is it?"

"That's right, that's right. Who are we going to meet?" In the back seat, Shi Nuannuan curiously leaned her head over and looked at her brother who was driving.

Moreover, she was an important person? It sounded like it was going to be very fun.

Shi Yuting smiled. "An old acquaintance."

Weiyi and Nuannuan looked at each other. An old acquaintance?

Who was it?

At the hospital's Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology.

"The babies are very healthy. Don't worry," the doctor said as he read through the report and looked up at Zuo Weiyi and the others.

This mother-to-be was really careful. She would come for a check-up every three to five days.

In fact, it wasn't good to have too many checks.

The doctor couldn't help but remind her, "Mrs. Shi, there aren't any problems with your babies. In fact, there isn't a need to have so many check-ups. If you do too many, it's actually not good for the babies. It's in the middle stage now. If there's nothing abnormal, you just need to have a check-up once a month."

The doctor reminded her out of kindness.

Of course, he might offend Mr. Shi if he said this. But as a doctor, he naturally had to give good advice for the sake of the babies. He wasn't trying to curry favor with Mr. Shi by saying things that went against his conscience.

Zuo Weiyi couldn't help but pause when she heard the doctor's words.

Did the doctor mean that she was being too careful?

Well, speaking of which, she did come for the examination because of abnormalities.

She looked at the doctor with a serious expression. "I came because I felt that something was wrong."

Hearing this, the doctor pushed up his spectacles on the bridge of his nose and looked at her. "What abnormalities?"

Everything on the check-up list was normal. There was nothing unusual.

"It's just..." Zuo Weiyi looked at her stomach, which had obviously grown a lot in the past half a month. "I found that the babies are growing very fast. It's only been less than five months, but they seem to be growing very fast this month."

She had read some information and found that many five-month-old stomachs were only slightly bulging and not that big. Even Shi Yuting's mother said that her stomach seemed to be growing very fast in the past half month. Her stomach wasn't very visible previously when she wore clothes. But in the past few days, she realized that some of the loose clothes she had bought previously could no longer be worn.

Hearing her question, the doctor could not help but laugh.

"This is natural because you are pregnant with twins. The growth of two babies is naturally faster than the growth of a normal pregnant woman. You can rest assured on this point. This is the law of nature, not something abnormal."

Hearing the doctor's words, Zuo Weiyi looked as if she had just come to a sudden realization.

That's right, there were two babies in her belly.

Looking at her gradually protruding belly, Zuo Weiyi could not help but laugh.

So it was her two babies that were growing rapidly. If she counted, they would be born in four months. She was really looking forward to it.

She looked up and smiled at the doctor. "Thank you."

The doctor smiled. "You're welcome."

It was already 11 o'clock in the morning when they left the hospital.

Shi Nuannuan was a little curious. "Brother, are we going to meet that 'old acquaintance' of yours next?"

Chapter 687: Shopping Craze

Who was this old acquaintance?

Upon hearing Nuannuan's words, Zuo Weiyi could not help but raise her head and look at the man beside her, waiting for his answer.

"Well, before that, let's go buy something."

The two of them looked at each other again, completely clueless about what he was going to do.

"Buy what?"

"Whatever." Shi Yuting had already opened the door of the passenger seat and looked at Zuo Weiyi.

Zuo Weiyi walked over and sat in the passenger seat. Seeing this, Shi Nuannuan quickly slipped into the back seat as well.

The luxury car drove slowly for about ten minutes before it stopped in front of a shopping mall.

The three of them got off the car and entered the large shopping mall.

Zuo Weiyi and Shi Nuannuan did not know what he wanted to buy.

However, after entering the shopping mall, Shi Yuting only strolled around casually as if he did not really want to buy anything.

"Shi Yuting, what exactly do you want to buy?" Zuo Weiyi could not help but ask.

Even though she had only strolled around once, she was already feeling a little tired.

It seemed that as her belly bulged, her physical strength gradually could not keep up with it.

Shi Yuting suddenly stopped.

Then, he turned to the two of them.

"What do you want to buy? I'll pay for everything today."

Hearing this, Nuannuan and Weiyi were stunned again.

Immediately after, Shi Nuannuan's eyes lit up. "Really? Anything is fine?"

"Yes."

"Then let's go. I suddenly thought of something I want to buy!" As she said this, Shi Nuannuan happily hooked her arm around Zuo Weiyi's.

However, Zuo Weiyi was so tired that she did not want to walk anymore. Her legs were so sore that she did not have any strength left.

"But I..."

She wanted to speak, but Shi Nuannuan dragged her straight to the third floor.

Seeing her excited look, Zuo Weiyi didn't want to spoil her mood, so she followed her to the third floor.

The third floor sold jewelry from international brands. Any one of the items was astonishingly expensive.

"Sister-in-Law, does this look good?" Shi Nuannuan took a fancy to a pair of earrings with a red gem in the middle. She thought it looked pretty good.

Zuo Weiyi was not interested in these jewelry, but the one that Nuannuan picked up was indeed pretty good.

"It looks good," she answered truthfully.

But when she saw the price tag, she could not help but widen her eyes.

Such a small pair of earrings actually cost several million. This was truly the luxurious life of a rich person.

"I'll be taking these then!" Seeing that she said it looked good, Shi Nuannuan immediately asked the salesperson to wrap it up for her.

Then, Shi Nuannuan looked at another bracelet. It was also quite expensive, followed by a limited edition leather bag, also expensive.

Seeing that she did not stop, Zuo Weiyi could not help but feel a little worried for Shi Yuting. If he continued to buy like this, would he have enough money left on him?

The few items Nuannuan had bought were already worth tens of millions.

Zuo Weiyi's mouth could not help but twitch a few times.

She knew that he had a lot of money, but at this rate, no matter how much money he had, he would have to deal with it all, right?

"Sister-in-Law, don't you have anything to buy?" Shi Nuannuan pulled her to the fashion area on the second floor.

Seeing that she hadn't bought anything, Shi Nuannuan couldn't help but ask curiously.

It was said that women liked shopping. In fact, Shi Nuannuan really didn't deny this because she was a woman who especially liked shopping!

Chapter 688: Don't Want to Manage His Account?

After all, she had been living a pampered life since she was young. She had almost everything she wanted, which also made her a spendthrift person.

"No, I don't seem to lack anything." Especially clothes. With her current appearance, none of what she would buy would fit her anyway.

"Why, are you worried about my brother's money?" Shi Nuannuan couldn't help but tease.

Zuo Weiyi looked at her.

It was really hard to say. In just a short half hour, tens of millions were gone just like that. Although it was not her money, Nuannuan's words made her feel sorry for him.

This was tens of millions. It was a sum that she might not be able to earn in her lifetime.

No, it should be a number of lifetimes.

"Do you really feel sorry for him?" Seeing that she was silent, Shi Nuannuan could not help but be surprised!

Her reaction caused Zuo Weiyi to immediately say, "Don't misunderstand, I'm not sorry that you spent all this money. I just feel that..." She paused for a moment, not knowing how to say it. After some thought, she asked, "Have you always spent money this way?"

Shi Nuannuan raised her head and thought for a moment. "Not every time, but Brother did say that he would pay today, so of course I have to extort him!"

"Aren't you all family? Isn't his money your money? Why do you have to extort him?"

Shi Nuannuan was amused by her. Then, she raised her index finger and waved it in front of her. "No, no, no. Although brother will give me and Mommy a lot of money every month, his money is still his money. There's still a difference."

Zuo Weiyi looked at her and did not say anything.

"Of course, now my brother's money is all yours!" Shi Nuannuan said and even made an exaggerated gesture.

Zuo Weiyi came back to her senses and looked at Nuannuan. Then, she looked at the man standing at the side and said, "I'm not interested in his money."

After saying that, she turned around and saw a maternity clothing store, so she walked over curiously.

Not interested?

Shi Nuannuan froze for half a second before coming back to her senses. "Hey, Sister-in-Law, how can you not be interested in money?"

Watching her back, Shi Yuting could not help but smile.

Not only was this wife easy to raise, she was also very obedient.

“Sister-in-Law, you and my brother are married. Don’t you want to manage his account?” Shi Nuannuan chased after her and asked curiously.

“Why should I?”

“Don’t you want to find out how much money my brother has?”

“Will you be able to comprehend it?”

He probably had so much money that even he himself couldn’t figure it out, right?

Shi Nuannuan paused for a moment. She did make sense.

“But if you don’t manage it, aren’t you afraid that my brother will take the money and spend it on useless things? Or will he be like other men, having a mistress outside?” She said it so seriously as if it was really true.

Zuo Weiyi was looking at a maternity outfit. When she heard what Nuannuan said, she could not help but be startled. Then, she looked at her.

Shi Nuannuan’s shifty eyes made her feel that what she said seemed to have a certain amount of truth.

Just as Shi Nuannuan was looking at Zuo Weiyi in a serious manner, her forehead was suddenly flicked by someone. The pain made her frown!

She let out a low cry. When she turned around, she saw her brother’s slightly sullen face. “Brother, what are you doing?!”

“What nonsense are you spouting?”

Meeting his slightly displeased gaze, Shi Nuannuan pouted and rubbed her forehead, which was hurting from the slap.

Seriously, wasn’t he quite far away from them just now? Why did he suddenly come over?

Chapter 689: The Meaning of the Password

“I think...” Just as the two siblings were glaring at each other, Zuo Weiyi suddenly said, “Nuannuan is quite right.”

Shi Yuting turned towards her calm little face and narrowed his eyes slightly.

“Why don’t you give me all your bank cards from today onwards? Of course, you don’t have to tell me the password,” she said though for some reason lacked confidence.

Actually, she was already Mrs. Shi now, so it was only natural for her to care about his money, right?

Shi Yuting walked over and stared at her slightly guilty face. “Are you afraid that I’ll act recklessly outside?”

After hearing what he said, did she really care about how he spent his money?

Was there some truth in it?

She was silent and didn't answer him directly.

But in his eyes, it was a tacit agreement.

He felt happy.

He placed the entire wallet on her palm and stared at her pitch-black pupils. "The password is 150719. All the cards are the same. There are a few more cards. I'll put them in your dresser drawer tonight."

After saying that, he picked up the maternity outfit that she had seen just now and said to the salesperson, "We'll be taking this."

Zuo Weiyi stood rooted to the ground, staring blankly at the brown leather wallet in her hand. It took her quite a while to regain her senses.

He came to her and took out a card from the leather wallet in her hand. His deep voice was extremely magnetic. "The bill."

After swiping the card, he put it back into the leather wallet in her hand.

Shi Nuannuan was also shocked by this scene.

Had her cold, noble, and arrogant brother been purified by her sister-in-law?

After leaving the maternity store, Zuo Weiyi couldn't help but be curious about the password of these cards.

150719 was neither her or his birthday, nor was it Nuannuan's.

Could it be his grandfather's or mother's?

No, the first 15 didn't seem to be a birthday number. Then what was it?

"About the card's password, does it have any special meaning?" She asked as she walked and looked at him.

"Yes." He responded softly though his mind did not seem focused.

It was almost time.

"What's the meaning of it?" Curiosity killed the cat. She could not help but want to know.

He suddenly stopped and turned to look at her. "Are you sure you want me to say it here?"

She paused and looked confused.

It was just the meaning of the card's password. Could it be something shameful? Why couldn't he say it here?

She looked at him with a puzzled face.

"Well, there shouldn't anything shameful about it..." She wasn't very sure. After all, the logic of the man in front of her was sometimes different from that of ordinary people.

But if the password was a date, there shouldn't be anything shameful about it, right?

“Is it a date worth commemorating?”

“Yes.” He nodded.

As expected.

She smiled. Since it was a date worth commemorating, there was nothing shameful about it.

“Then what date is it?” She asked curiously.

Actually, what she was more concerned about was why the password on the card was neither her nor his birthday, nor was it their wedding anniversary.

He stared at her and confirmed once again, “Are you sure you want me to say it here?”

She didn’t think much of it and nodded. “Yes!”

He was silent for three seconds before saying a few words, “The day we had sex for the first time.”

Chapter 690: A Day Worth Commemorating

Shi Nuannuan could no longer hold it in!

After saying that, he turned around and walked towards the elevator. Zuo Weiyi, on the other hand, was completely stunned to the spot. Her face quickly turned red all the way down to the base of her neck!

She knew that his logic was completely different from others!

They were supposed to commemorate their wedding day, birthday, or the day they first met and fell in love. Why was he commemorating...

She really wanted to find a hole to hide in! Why did she have to ask this question?!

She looked at Nuannuan who was holding back her laughter as she moved closer to her. “Sister-in-Law, you really are a different existence to brother. You even care about him in a different way.”

After saying that, Shi Nuannuan held back her laughter again and followed after her brother.

Zuo Weiyi looked around. After all, they were in a shopping mall. Moreover, when Shi Yuting said those words just now, several people had passed by them. Now that she met their astonished gazes, they must have heard it.

Ah! She really wanted to die!

Covering her face, she strode forward and followed him!

“Shi Yuting, why do you always commemorate things that are different from others? !” She flew into a rage out of humiliation!

“Different?” He turned his head and asked her back.

That innocent look on his face was simply infuriating!

“Who would commemorate that kind of day?! And no one would use it as a password.”

“But I think it’s worth commemorating.” He stared at her as his pitch-black eyes suddenly became serious.

She did not understand him. “What’s worth commemorating? People commemorate their wedding days, acquaintance days, and love days. Why would you commemorate...”

She lowered her head and was too embarrassed to say anything. Her face was so red that it reached her ears.

However, he casually said, “Sex day.”

She looked up and glared at him. “This kind of day is not worth remembering at all!”

“Then the First Day.”

She felt blood rush up from her chest. “Is there a difference?!”

Looking at her flushed little face, he was silent for a few seconds. “The first time, the day we met.”

She suddenly paused and raised her eyes to meet his extremely serious black eyes.

The first time, the day they met?

She lowered her eyes and carefully recalled for a while.

The first time he mentioned, was he referring to the time she got drunk that day?

Uh, that seemed to be... the day they met for the first time.

Then why did he have to say something about doing...doing...Sex Day? Couldn’t he just say the day they first met?

Seriously, why did it sound so dirty when it came out of his mouth?

“Then why did you say...Sex Day...?” The last few words she said basically trailed off, because it was really difficult for her to say them out loud.

But he could say such a thing calmly. She really wondered if ‘shame’ existed in his dictionary!

“Isn’t it?” he asked flirtatiously.

When she met his flirtatious eyes, Zuo Weiyi was so angry that she wanted to stomp her feet!

“I’m not going to talk to you anymore!” She turned around and walked towards the escalator.

She would always be the loser when it came to words anyway! If she continued to argue forcefully, she would always be the one who would end up in trouble!

Seeing her embarrassed and angry, Shi Yuting’s affection for her only grew more. He smiled and followed her.

“Alright, now, let’s go home!” Shi Nuannuan was very satisfied with her shopping experience today!

“Okay.” Zuo Weiyi nodded. She was already so tired that she did not want to walk anymore.

“Ah, I suddenly feel like going to the toilet.” Shi Nuannuan suddenly felt a little anxious to pee.
