

Kiss Me 761

Chapter 761: Get Hospitalized Immediately!

Shen Lanzhi raised her head and looked at the doctor. "Doctor, do you mean that the babies need to be born prematurely?"

The doctor nodded solemnly. "Yes, it's best to be hospitalized right now. After a series of examinations, we'll decide on the date and time of the surgery."

"S-Surgery?" Zuo Weiyi, who had never experienced this before, was completely confused and did not understand what was going on.

"It will be a C-section surgery. Once pregnancy-induced hypertension appears, we don't recommend a natural birth."

Zuo Weiyi was stunned. Her babies were only eight months and seven days old. "But, my babies aren't even full-term yet! They need to be delivered already?"

The doctor laughed at this point.

"Mrs. Shi, your babies are twins. I've told you before that it's normal for twins to be less than full-term. Moreover, with your current physical condition, if you continue with the pregnancy, your babies' and your life will be in danger at any time!" The doctor emphasized the last sentence with added seriousness.

Pregnancy-induced hypertension really wasn't a joke.

It was best to be hospitalized now. Once the examination had been conducted, the operation would be carried out as soon as possible!

The doctor's words were like a huge rock, weighing heavily on Zuo Weiyi's heart.

Her brows started to knit into each other as she asked the doctor once more, "Is my life truly in danger? Other than feeling a little dizzy and having trouble sleeping recently, I don't have any other symptoms that are particularly uncomfortable. Is this all completely necessary?"

The doctor remained relatively calm.

Most pregnant women did not know about pregnancy-induced hypertension, so they are not usually aware about the dangers involved.

"Pregnancy-induced hypertension do not have any other serious symptoms. Its real danger lies in the fact that it can take the lives of you and your children at any moment!" The doctor said seriously. He just wanted to make them to understand the dangers involved!

"Doctor, doctor, as long as you take the children out now, my daughter-in-law and grandchildren will be safe and sound, right?" Shen Lanzhi asked. As long as the mother and children were safe and sound, it would be fine to deliver the children at any time.

"I can't completely guarantee this, but it will definitely be much safer than continuing with the pregnancy. It's also your best choice."

Things were happening too quickly. Shen Lanzhi was also a little uncertain. Nuannuan was also born prematurely. But at that time, she had given birth naturally and did not have any symptoms like pregnancy-induced hypertension.

“She was fine when she came for the check-up two weeks ago. Why did she suddenly have pregnancy-induced hypertension?” Shen Lanzhi frowned in confusion.

“Madam Shi, you don’t have to worry too much about this. This is a normal condition that occurs suddenly in the later stages of pregnancy. That’s why it’s called pregnancy-induced hypertension.” The name really said it all.

“Then, does she have to stay in the hospital in her current condition?” This was too sudden so they were not mentally prepared at all.

“Of course. Fortunately, you come for regular checkups. That’s how you found out in time. Many pregnant women think that the later stage checkups are not important, so they only come for the earlier regular checkups. That’s why many pregnant women have accidents.”

When the doctor said this, Zuo Weiyi’s heart became even more unsettled.

“Then, should we go back and pack our things before coming back?” Shen Lanzhi asked nervously as she looked at the doctor.

Since Weiyi was going to be hospitalized, she definitely had to go back and pack some things.

“I suggest Mrs. Shi to be hospitalized immediately. You can instruct your family to bring the things that you need.”

Chapter 762: The Operation Will Happen Tonight!

The three were taken aback.

Was the pregnancy-induced hypertension really that serious?

But since the doctor said so, they could only do as he said.

It was not wrong to listen to the doctor. Moreover, this concerned Weiyi’s and the babies’ lives, so they naturally could not let down their guard. It was better to be cautious.

“Then, Nuannuan, quickly go help with the hospitalization procedures,” Shen Lanzhi said to her daughter.

Shi Nuannuan nodded, slightly nervous. “Okay!”

She immediately left to deal with the hospitalization procedures!

By the time Weiyi arrived at the inpatient department and completed a series of examinations, it was already noon.

Zuo Weiyi was lying on the hospital bed. Very soon, a nurse brought over an IV drip and gave her an infusion.

Not long after, the attending doctor came over. "Mrs. Shi, based on your physical condition, we suggest that you have the C-section tonight. To prepare for the surgery, you will have to start fasting now."

Zuo Weiyi and Shen Lanzhi were shocked once again.

A surgery today? This was happening too quickly and suddenly!

None of them were even prepared for this at all.

Shi Yuting's words suddenly rang in her ears.

Before he left, he repeatedly said that she must inform him before the children was born.

It was already past twelve o'clock. If the surgery was performed tonight, would he be able to make it back in time?

Thinking of this, she could not help but ask the doctor. "Does it have to be tonight? Is it that urgent?"

Looking at her face, the doctor paused for a moment. "According to your health condition, the sooner the better. However, tomorrow morning is fine too. That's also when the doctors will be at their best. Generally speaking, the risks will be less."

"Then tomorrow morning it is!" Zuo Weiyi hurriedly said.

If having the surgery on the next day would give her better prospects, then obviously she would wait for tomorrow. She wondered if Shi Yuting would be able to rush back before tomorrow morning.

But he did say that he'd be quite busy in C Country for the next few days. Wouldn't it be difficult for him to return in time?

Although she did not want to disturb him in dealing with national affairs, she still hoped that Shi Yuting would be by her side the moment the babies came into the world. How could such a surprise happen in his absence?

"That's right. If it can be tomorrow, then tomorrow it will be. Having it tonight is too sudden. We're not mentally prepared at all. My son is still abroad at the moment," said Shen Lanzhi helplessly, thinking the same thing as Zuo Weiyi.

Having children was such an important matter. Naturally, the father of the child had to be by her side.

"Sure, then we'll set for your surgery to be tomorrow morning." The doctor calculated the amount of time needed for her to fast—it was best not to eat before the laparotomy. "After 12 midnight tonight, Mrs. Shi must not eat or drink anything, including water."

Zuo Weiyi looked at the doctor and nodded. "Okay."

After the doctor left, Shen Lanzhi turned around and said to Shi Nuannuan, "Nuannuan, go back and pack some things for Weiyi. Also, tell your grandfather and Zuo Weiyi about her current situation."

"Okay!" Shi Nuannuan nodded before leaving.

Shi Nuannuan was also extremely anxious, but her heart was filled with anticipation.

She was actually going to be an aunt! She wondered what the two babies in her sister-in-law's stomach looked like. Would they look like her sister-in-law or her brother?

The elevator reached the first floor. Just as she exited the hospital entrance, Nuannuan was running a little hurriedly and bumped into a figure. Fortunately, that person caught her in time so she did not fall.

Chapter 763: A Familiar Face

"Thank you—"

Shi Nuannuan abruptly stopped speaking when she looked up and saw the familiar face looking down at her.

"Brother Shenghao?! You..." Didn't he leave with Jing Xinlei? Why would he appear here again?

Could he be lying to her brother?

Of course, Shi Nuannuan didn't want brother Shenghao to really disappear from their circle because of Jing Xinlei. However, if he was here, what about Jing Xinlei? Could she have also returned?

Shi Nuannuan remembered what Jing Xinlei did to her sister-in-law, and how she left the two lines of scar on Weiyi's palm.

"Nuannuan." Zhong Shenghao was also a little surprised to see Shi Nuannuan.

"Didn't you leave?" She asked in surprise.

Zhong Shenghao came back to his senses and smiled slightly.

"Yes, but there are still some matters that need to be handled by the trusted director."

Speaking of which, he had come here secretly and tried his best not to let Ting find out. However, he didn't expect to meet Nuannuan as soon as he arrived at the hospital. If he had come a minute earlier or played for a minute later, he wouldn't have met her. Yet, such a big world seemed so small.

Hearing this, Shi Nuannuan paused. Only then did she remember that this hospital belonged to Brother Shenghao!

Because of him, they had always come directly to his hospital every time they needed medical attention or assistance.

Speaking of which, once he left, such a big hospital would have to be handed over to someone else to manage. Thinking about it, she felt very sorry for Zhong Shenghao!

"Oh..." She nodded. "Brother Shenghao, I don't understand. Why do you have to do this for a woman like Jing Xinlei?"

Zhong Shenghao smiled. "You're still young. There are some things you haven't experienced before, so naturally, you won't understand."

"I'm not young anymore. I'm the same age as sister-in-law. She's about to have a baby. How am I young?!"

Shi Nuannuan suddenly remembered her mission. "Ah, Brother Shenghao, I can't talk to you anymore. I have to go back and help Sister-in-Law get her things!"

As she said this, she was about to leave, but was caught by Zhong Shenghao!

"Weiyi, what's wrong?" Zhong Shenghao's face also showed a hint of concern.

In the half-month since he left, he had almost never asked for any news about them.

"We came to bring Sister-in-Law for a checkup today, but the doctor said that he wanted to operate immediately to get the babies out. She's already been hospitalized, so I have to go back to get the things and tell Grandpa about it!"

Hearing this, Zhong Shenghao couldn't help but be a little worried. "Where's your brother?"

"He's still in C Country dealing with some matters. Mommy said that she'll call him later."

"When will the surgery begin?"

"Tomorrow. Brother Shenghao, I really can't talk to you any longer!" After saying this, Shi Nuannuan hurriedly left the hospital's main door!

Zhong Shenghao looked in the direction of the inpatient department.

Although he had promised Weiyi that he would never appear in front of them again, he couldn't help but want to go and see her.

According to the monthly calculation, her children shouldn't be full-term yet. Why did she need to perform a C-section immediately?

Zhong Shenghao couldn't help but walk toward the inpatient department out of concern.

In the ward, Shen Lanzhi looked at Zuo Weiyi on the bed with concern. She knew that Weiyi was nervous and scared, so she couldn't help but say softly, "Don't worry. You and the children will be fine. You have to trust the doctor."

Zuo Weiyi nodded. "Okay."

As if she suddenly remembered something, she said, "Mom, can you lend me your phone?"

Chapter 764: I've Been Hospitalized

She had promised Shi Yuting that she would call him in advance, but she didn't bring her phone with her.

"Okay." Shen Lanzhi took out her phone and handed it to her. She had intended to call him herself, but after thinking about it, she decided that it was better for Weiyi to tell her son about such an important matter in person.

Zuo Weiyi immediately dialed his number.

The phone rang a few times, but no one picked up.

“What’s wrong?” Shen Lanzhi could not help but ask when she noticed that Zuo Weiyi hadn’t spoken into the phone at all by the time she put it back down.

“No one picked up. He’s probably in a meeting.”

At this moment, Shi Yuting was taking a shower in the bathroom. After changing into a set of clean clothes, he was ready to go to the party in the afternoon.

When he returned to the bed, he saw that his mother had called him, so he called back.

“It’s from Yuting.” Seeing the caller ID, Shen Lanzhi quickly handed her phone to Zuo Weiyi.

Zuo Weiyi took the phone and picked it up. “Hello?”

Hearing her voice, Shi Yuting was a little surprised. “Are you done with the examination?”

“Yes, I’ve been...hospitalized.”

Hearing this, Shi Yuting’s pupils constricted, and his expression changed. “What’s wrong?”

“Are you...very busy?”

Hearing her misgivings, Shi Yuting’s tone turned anxious. “Tell me, what’s wrong with you?”

“After the checkup today, the doctor said that I have pregnancy-induced hypertension and must be hospitalized.”

“Get the doctor here. I want to talk to him on the phone.”

Zuo Weiyi felt that he was making a mountain out of a molehill. Wouldn’t it be sufficient to just listen to her? Why did he have to talk to the doctor on the phone?

“But, the doctor isn’t here.”

“I’ll call the doctor then!” Shen Lanzhi heard what her son had said on the phone and quickly stood up.

If her son, who was far away in C Country, could not talk to the doctor on the phone, he would not be able to feel at ease in his heart.

Seeing Shen Lanzhi leave the ward, Zuo Weiyi could not help but speak to Shi Yuting on the phone, “You don’t have to make such a fuss. The doctor said that as long as the operation is carried out tomorrow and the babies are taken out, it will be fine.”

“Tomorrow?”

“Yes, via a C-section.” After hesitating for a second, she still could not help but ask, “Are you going to be very busy?”

“I’m not busy! I’ll rush back this afternoon!”

Didn’t he just say this morning that he would be busy for the next week or so?

“You don’t have to be in such a hurry. It’ll be fine as long as you can rush back by tomorrow morning.” If he suddenly said that he was going to come back, wouldn’t he be leaving behind many open ends?

He also seemed to have a very important cocktail party this afternoon.

“Shenghao?” Shen Lanzhi had just brought the doctor to the door of the ward when she saw a figure standing at the door. Upon closer inspection, it was her son’s good friend, Zhong Shenghao.

Shen Lanzhi did not know about the incident last time, so she thought that Zhong Shenghao had received the news and came to visit Weiyi.

However, they had only been in the hospital for less than an hour, so how did he already know about it?

Zhong Shenghao turned around when he heard her. He felt a little uneasy the moment he saw Shen Lanzhi.

He wanted to sneak a look at Weiyi, and did not expect Ting’s mother to see him.

“Auntie.” He greeted her softly.

“You’re here to see Weiyi?” Shen Lanzhi thought about it. This hospital belonged to him, so it seemed normal for him to know about Weiyi’s hospitalization so quickly.

Hearing Shen Lanzhi’s words, Zhong Shenghao didn’t know what to say for a moment, so he nodded. “Yes.”

“Then let’s go in.” With that, she brought Zhong Shenghao into the ward.

Chapter 765: Your Best Friend Is Also Here

Zuo Weiyi heard the door open and looked up. When she saw Zhong Shenghao’s figure, she was slightly surprised.

“Weiyi, Shenghao is here to see you,” Shen Lanzhi announced as she walked over.

Zuo Weiyi held her phone, but her eyes were fixed on Zhong Shenghao’s face.

Zhong Shenghao walked over and looked at her with a smile. “I heard that you’re going into labor.”

Zuo Weiyi also smiled. “Well, you...”

She wanted to ask why he was here, but at that moment, Shi Yuting’s deep voice came from the other side of the phone.

“The doctor is here?”

Zuo Weiyi remembered about Shi Yuting and said into the phone, “Yes, he’s here.”

As she spoke, she handed the phone to the attending doctor who had also just walked in.

After the doctor took the phone, he silently walked to the balcony to answer the call.

“Shenghao, you... are back?”

It wasn’t that she didn’t want Zhong Shenghao to return, but if Shi Yuting knew that they were back, would he let Jing Xinlei off again?

Seeing the confusion on her face, Zhong Shenghao immediately gave an explanation, "Don't misunderstand. Xinlei didn't come back with me. I came back this time only because I left in a hurry last time. There was still a lot of work to be done in the hospital. I will leave after I've dealt with those."

Zuo Weiyi felt as if he had misunderstood her meaning.

"Well, I think you're also misunderstanding me. It's not that I did not want you to come back..."

On the contrary, if it weren't for Jing Xinlei's incident, she wouldn't have wanted Zhong Shenghao to leave this place. After all, he was Shi Yuting's best friend and had saved their lives time and time again.

Listening to their conversation, Shen Lanzhi was confused. She didn't understand their strange conversation.

"Your surgery is scheduled for tomorrow morning?" asked Zhong Shenghao.

Zuo Weiyi nodded. "Yes."

"Can Ting make it back in time?"

"He said he will," Zuo Weiyi said with a smile. She naturally didn't have any hostility toward Zhong Shenghao.

Zhong Shenghao also gave her a faint smile and didn't say anything else.

The doctor finally came back in and handed the phone back to Zuo Weiyi.

"Are you done?" asked she to Shi Yuting on the phone.

"Yes, I'll rush back after the reception." As he couldn't rush back immediately, he wanted to make sure that she wasn't in any immediate danger.

"Okay," said she as her eyes remained on Zhong Shenghao.

He and Shi Yuting used to be so close. It would be a pity if they did not get along because of Jing Xinlei.

Zuo Weiyi suddenly said to Shi Yuting, "Your best friend is here too."

Hearing this, Shi Yuting frowned. Other than Zhong Shenghao, no one else was his best friend.

"Zhong Shenghao?"

"Yes. He seems to have some things to take care of at the hospital."

Shi Yuting was silent for two seconds and suddenly said, "Give him the phone."

Zuo Weiyi wasn't expecting that but handed the phone to Zhong Shenghao anyway. "It's Shi Yuting."

Zhong Shenghao was also surprised as he slowly put the phone to his ear.

"When are you leaving?"

"Tomorrow."

"Help me take care of her before I go back."

“You should know that all the doctors in my hospital are very skilled. You don’t have to worry.”

“Just answer me, are you going to help or not?”

Chapter 766: Be on Standby to Return to Z Country!

Yuting had just asked the doctor about the dangers of pregnancy-induced hypertension and was told that it could endanger the lives of the mother and children at any time. So, before he rushed back, he would be completely at ease if Zhong Shenghao was there.

“Do I have the option to refuse?”

“No.”

“When will you come back?”

“I’ll be back after the reception.”

He said that he would be back after the reception, but after hanging up the phone, Shi Yuting could not hold it in any longer.

He had just greeted the foreign president, and he could not wait to leave the venue.

However, just as he walked to the door, a member of parliament behind him called out to him.

“Sir, where are you going?”

Shi Yuting’s grip on the wine glass he was holding tightened.

This group of annoying old flies really couldn’t leave him alone!

He took a deep breath, closed his eyes and turned around. His malicious gaze darted straight at the member of Parliament. “My wife is going to give birth soon. It’s extremely urgent. I have to rush back!”

He placed his wine glass on a passing waiter’s tray annoyedly, turned around and walked towards the main entrance!

“Sir, the banquet is not over yet...”

Ignoring the words of the man, Shi Yuting left the venue of the banquet without turning back.

Little did he know that the waiter who was holding the tray just now had looked towards Shi Yuting with a murderous gaze.

“Sir, are you going back now?”

Shi Yuting’s footsteps were extremely fast, and one could see the impatience on his face.

Xiangyi appeared behind him, trying to keep pace with him.

“Standby, return to Z Country!”

“Yes, sir!”

* * *

After accepting Shi Yuting's request, Zhong Shenghao stayed in the hospital in the afternoon to observe Zuo Weiyi's condition. Zuo Yi and Shi Le found out about her condition and had rushed over. After knowing that she and the children in her belly were fine, they felt slightly relieved.

"Fortunately, her blood pressure didn't continue to rise." Zhong Shenghao had measured her blood pressure again that evening.

After dinner, he told her that it was best not to eat anymore.

At night, Zuo Weiyi lay on the bed but couldn't fall asleep. She opened her eyes and calculated the time when Shi Yuting would arrive.

Would it be midnight?

"Sister-in-Law, are the babies coming out tomorrow morning?" Shi Nuannuan noticed that Zuo Weiyi had not fallen asleep yet, and she could not help but ask curiously.

Zuo Weiyi looked at Nuannuan's curious face. "Most probably?"

She was getting more and more nervous at this moment.

Would it hurt? Would her babies be born safely? Would it be two girls, or a boy and a girl? Would they look like her, or Shi Yuting?

At this moment, Zuo Weiyi was both nervous and full of anticipation. She was looking forward to the moment when the babies would be born.

Eventually, her thoughts lulled her to sleep.

Shi Nuannuan and Shen Lanzhi also fell asleep on the sofa.

Weiyi did not know how long she had slept for as she woke up in a daze in the middle of the night. As usual, she had not slept well. There was only a small light in the ward. Without a clock, she did not know what time it was.

She turned around and glanced at Shen Lanzhi and Shi Nuannuan sleeping soundly on the sofa. She did not want to disturb them.

What time was it now? How much longer would Shi Yuting take to arrive?

She turned around and saw that it was still pitch-black outside the window. It was probably still very early.

With that thought, she gradually fell asleep again.

When she woke up again, it was already 6:53 in the morning.

Chapter 767: Shi Yuting Had Yet to Arrive

"Weiyi, you're awake." Shen Lanzhi had also woken up early in the morning.

"Yes." Once she woke up, her gaze swept through the ward, searching for the familiar figure.

After a while, Nuannuan brought in some breakfast.

“Sister-in-Law, it’s time for breakfast! I bought your favorite meal, big wantons!”

Zuo Weiyi recalled Zhong Shenghao’s instructions to the doctor as she looked at the wantons.

“I can’t eat. I’ll be entering the operating theater in a while.”

The surgery was scheduled for eight o’clock in the morning and it was already seven o’clock.

As she spoke, she looked in the direction of the door of the ward again.

It was already morning. Why hadn’t Shi Yuting arrived yet?

“Ah, I forgot.” Shi Nuannuan finally remembered that her sister-in-law had been forbidden from eating since last night. She couldn’t even drink water.

At this moment, Shi Le and Zuo Yi arrived early in the morning. Even Gu Yansheng and Bei Xingchen came.

“Weiyi!”

Zuo Weiyi was very surprised to see her best friend, Bei Xingchen walking in.

“Xingchen, you’re here too.”

“How are you? Are you scared?” Bei Xingchen was also looking forward to the birth of her two children.

“A little. Aren’t you very busy?”

“No matter how busy I am, I have to come over. Today is the birth ceremony of my godsons, goddaughters, or both! How can I not come?”

In an instant, the spacious VIP ward was filled with people. Each and every one of them was looking forward to the arrival of the two little lives.

Zuo Weiyi smiled at her best friend and Gu Yansheng.

If Shi Yuting saw Gu Yansheng, he would probably be jealous again.

Thinking of this, Zuo Weiyi’s thoughts were pulled back.

It was already past seven o’clock. Even if he had rushed back in the evening, shouldn’t he have arrived by now?

“Mom, is Shi Yuting still not back yet?” Weiyi asked Shen Lanzhi.

Yesterday, he said that he would leave right after the banquet ended, so it didn’t make sense that he was still there yet.

Shen Lanzhi was also wondering the same.

In fact, she had called her son that morning only to find that it had been turned off. She didn’t even know if he was already on the plane.

“Not yet. His cell phone is turned off so he must still be on the plane.”

Zuo Weiyi started to feel a little uneasy.

If he was still on the plane, what could have possibly delayed him?

“Weiyi.”

At this moment, Zhong Shenghao and a few obstetricians walked in.

“We’re about to enter the operating theater. Are you ready?”

Zuo Weiyi took a deep breath before nodding. “Yes.”

She could only hope that the uneasiness she felt was mainly due to nervousness about the surgery and nothing else.

“Don’t think too much. Ting’s probably on the plane over as we speak. So do enter the operating theater in peace. Maybe Ting will be waiting for you outside the door when you come out.”

“Okay.” She nodded. Zhong Shenghao’s words slightly comforted her.

After all, Shi Yuting was the president of a country. He made the decision to return to Z Country so suddenly that it shouldn’t be a wonder that something else turned up and delayed him slightly.

Zuo Weiyi tried to calm her nervous heart.

After preparing for the operation, at 7:40 am, Zuo Weiyi was pushed into the operating theater.

“Weiyi, you can do it!” Bei Xingchen shouted in encouragement as the doors to the operating room closed.

Chapter 768: The Long Wait Outside the Operating Room

“Sister-in-Law, you can do it!”

The door to the operating theater closed as everyone else looked on in worry.

What followed was a long wait.

Outside the operating theater, everyone was anxiously pacing back and forth. If they did not see the mother and children come out, they would not be able to feel at ease.

Shen Lanzhi stood in front of the window and clasped her hands together, praying for the safety of the mother and children.

“Why haven’t you come out yet?” Ten minutes had passed, but Shi Nuannuan felt as if she had waited a century. No matter how much she waited, she still did not see her sister-in-law come out.

Shen Lanzhi tried to calm the impatient Shi Nuannuan.

“It’s still early. Giving birth is not something that can be done in a short period of time.”

“How long will that take?”

“One or two hours.”

“But I feel like Sister-in-Law has been in there for a long time!”

“Don’t scare yourself. Weiyi has only been in there for ten minutes or so,” Gu Yansheng could not help but say. Compared to them, he was much calmer.

“Why hasn’t Shi Yuting arrived yet?” Zuo Yi frowned as he sat on the chair.

His wife was going into labor, a life-and-death moment and that b*stard was actually late. Did he care about his granddaughter at all?

“I’ve made a call but his phone is still switched off. He must still be on the plane.” Shi Nuannuan explained.

But she also felt that it was a little strange. With her brother’s personality, even if it was something very important, he would still have definitely dropped everything and rushed back to be present when Sister-in-Law went into labor. It was already eight o’clock, yet there was no sign of him.

“Didn’t you say that he would arrive at night?” Zuo Yi was very unhappy.

“He should be arriving soon,” said Shen Lanzhi helplessly. Right now, she did not really care why her son had not arrived yet. She was only worried about the mother and children in the operating theater. She hoped that everything would be safe.

A long hour had passed, but the door to the operating theater was still tightly shut!

“Why hasn’t she come out yet?” Shi Nuannuan was the one who was the most anxious. Her gaze lingered on the door to the operating theater.

“She should be out soon.” Bei Xingchen was also looking at the door of the operating theater with a worried expression.

“Why isn’t Shi Yuting here yet?” Although Zuo Yi was worried about his granddaughter in the operating theater, he was still a little dissatisfied about Shi Yuting’s absence.

It was such a big deal to have a child, but the father of the child was actually absent. How infuriating!

“Grandpa Zuo, shouldn’t you be concerned about Sister-in-Law at this time? Why do you keep asking about when my brother will arrive?” Shi Nuannuan could not help but ask Zuo Yi.

“Of course I care. Weiyi is suffering in there and that rascal is not around to be there for her. He doesn’t care about my granddaughter at all!” As he said this, Zuo Weiyi blew his beard and glared at her!

“That won’t happen. Brother cares so much about Sister-in-Law. He must have something to do at the last minute, so he’s late.”

“Tsk, that’d better be the reason!”

At this moment, the door of the operating theater suddenly opened. Everyone held their breaths and looked at the doctor who walked out.

“How is it? Are the mother and children safe?” Shen Lanzhi rushed forward and asked with concern when she saw the doctor.

The doctor looked at everyone waiting outside the operating room. He was wearing a mask, so no one could see the doctor’s serious expression.

“The mother is bleeding badly. Is there anyone among you who has Rh-negative blood?”

Everyone was shocked to the core by what they heard!

Chapter 769: Major Blood Lost!

Major blood lost?

Everyone’s faces turned pale!

Bei Xingchen came back to her senses. She remembered that her best friend had a rare type of blood. When Aunt Zuo was still alive, she had always been worried about Weiyi bleeding in an injury. D*mn it, she was actually bleeding out now!

“The patient is Rh-negative blood. Shouldn’t you have known from the start?! Why didn’t you prepare the blood in advance? Don’t you know that her blood type is very rare?” Bei Xingchen asked anxiously. Rh-negative blood was rare to begin with, so there was no point in obtaining it at the last minute!

These doctors were really derelict in their duties!

“We have brought over all the remaining Rh-negative blood in the blood bank, but the amount of bleeding from the pregnant woman is too large. There is no more blood in the blood bank now!” The doctor responded anxiously.

Everyone’s faces turned pale once again!

The blood bank was the backup in cases of emergency and even it had ran out of the blood?!

What should they do?

Looking at the door of the operating theater, Zuo Yi’s face was filled with heartache.

How could he not have known that his own granddaughter had such a rare blood type?

“None of us here have that blood. Quickly contact the other hospitals to see if there is any!” Gu Yansheng instructed.

“Black Dragon,” Shi Le called the man next to him, “Go check if any of your subordinates have the same blood type.”

“Yes, sir!”

“I, I will also ask in my WeChat Moments!” Shi Nuannuan also quickly took out her phone!

Bei Xingchen’s palm tightened. She also took out her phone and dialed a number.

Gu Yansheng was not idle either. He used the group messaging method to send a message to his employees. Those with Rh-negative blood type would be required to immediately come to XX Hospital's obstetrics and gynecology department!

Ten minutes later, everyone received a reply.

"No."

"No!"

"No one has the same blood!"

"What should we do? No one has it, only brother does!" As she spoke, Shi Nuannuan dialed Shi Yuting's number again. However, the phone was still turned off.

"What's going on? Why is brother's phone always off!" Shi Nuannuan was so anxious that she almost smashed her phone!

"Have you found the blood?!" Zhong Shenghao also let out a furious roar in the operating room!

He had promised Ting that he would take care of Weiyi before he returned. If anything happened, how would he face him?

After Ting's injury and blood transfusion, he also knew that Weiyi had a rare blood type. Before the operation, he had brought all the Rh-negative blood from the hospital. However, to his surprise, Weiyi's blood loss was too much that even the supply from their blood bank was not enough!

By this time, two small lives had been delivered safely. One was a boy and the other was a girl.

The child's cries rang out, but Zhong Shenghao only felt more powerless. His emotions were mixed with sadness and joy!

"I'm already contacting all the major hospitals!" A doctor replied anxiously!

On the operating table, Zuo Weiyi heard the children's cries. She wanted to turn her head, but the instrument blocked her line of sight. She could not see her children.

She felt that her consciousness was gradually fading, and her eyelids were getting heavier.

Noticing her reaction, Zhong Shenghao looked at her and said, "Weiyi, don't sleep. Talk to me."

"I...want to see the children..." Her voice was so soft and weak that only Zhong Shenghao, who was closest to her, could hear it.

"Bring the children over!" Zhong Shenghao said to the two medical staff holding the children.

Chapter 770: A Pair of Boy-Girl Twins!

"Look, your and Ting's child, a boy-girl pair have been safely delivered." Looking at the weak Zuo Weiyi, Zhong Shenghao's eyes reddened, and his heart was filled with impatience.

But now, what he needed to do was to keep talking to Weiyi to keep her awake.

He hoped that he could use the joy of the child to maintain her consciousness!

Her vision was getting a little blurry, but Zuo Weiyi could still see the two small faces clearly. The corners of her mouth curled up weakly.

“My children...”

“Yes.”

“Where’s Shi Yuting... is he here?”

Zhong Shenghao couldn’t help but pause by the question.

He knew that Shi Yuting hadn’t come yet. If he did, he could directly enter the operating theater to give her a blood transfusion.

“He just got off the plane and is on his way here.” Knowing that this was what she cared about the most, Zhong Shenghao could only tell a white lie.

Hearing his words, Zuo Weiyi felt very relieved. Her nerves relaxed, and she wanted to close her eyes.

Zhong Shenghao was anxious. “Weiyi, you can’t sleep! Listen to me and talk to me. You can’t sleep at this time!”

“But...I’m so tired. I want to close my eyes...”

“You can’t!”

Under his roar, Zuo Weiyi opened her eyes weakly again. Although she was powerless, she knew why Zhong Shenghao wanted to keep her awake.

If she fell asleep now, wouldn’t she be in bigger danger?

But she was really tired...

“What should we do? What should we do?!” Outside the operating theater, Shen Lanzhi was growing increasingly anxious!

Zuo Yi, Shi Le, Gu Yansheng and Shi Nuannuan were still unable to find a compatible person.

They knew that panda blood was rare, but was it this rare?

“I found someone!” Seeing a new reply, Gu Yansheng immediately said in surprise.

Everyone’s eyes were all focused on him.

“Did you find the person with Rh-negative blood?!”

“Did you find someone?!”

Shi Nuannuan and Bei Xingchen rushed to him in synchrony and looked at his phone screen!

But in the next second, the joy on Gu Yansheng’s face suddenly froze, and he slowly frowned!

“What’s wrong?” asked Shi Nuannuan.

“There’s someone in the branch office, but that’s in A City. The person will take at least three hours to get here!”

Three hours was definitely not enough time!

“If we use a military helicopter, wouldn’t that be faster?!” asked Shi Nuannuan anxiously. She believed that if it was Grandpa Zuo or her grandfather, it would not be difficult to find a military helicopter.

“That would take at least an hour and a half. We just can’t wait that long!” At this moment, Gu Yansheng was also beginning to lose his mind.

“Then what should we do?!” Shi Nuannuan was about to go crazy from anxiety!

She turned her head and her gaze fell on Zuo Yi and Shi Le.

“Grandpa, Grandfather Zuo, you have such a wide network of people. Don’t you have people with Rh-negative blood?!”

“Yes, but none of them are here. If they rush over, they wouldn’t make it in time.” Shi Le said as he looked at his granddaughter. He was extremely anxious too!

Zuo Yi’s situation was similar to Shi Le’s. Although his connections were all over the world, none would be able to rush to this hospital immediately!

He used to have all the power in the country, but at this moment, he was so flustered and powerless.

Seeing everyone’s anxious expressions, Bei Xingchen secretly gripped the phone in her hand tightly, hoping that there was still a chance of survival!
