Chapter 781: Can You Lend Me Your Phone?

“But, how can we keep this a secret? Wouldn’t Weiyi find out eventually?”

The news of C Country’s president getting into such a terrible accident would shock the entire world. It was likely that the entire Z Country had already found out about it.

Even if they did not say anything, wouldn’t she find out just from switching on the television? How would they keep this from her?

Xingchen couldn’t imagine how Weiyi would be able to bear it if she knew that something had happened to Shi Yuting.

“You don’t have to worry about that. Shi Yuting’s life and death are unknown. Mr. Shi is doing his best to determine his whereabouts. Before then, just don’t tell Weiyi,” said Gu Yansheng.

Despite his words, Xingchen still worried for Weiyi—she had just asked about Yuting earlier.

“I understand,” said Xingchen dejectedly.

On her way out of the hospital, Xingchen took her phone out and read the news. The moment she opened it, she saw the headlines about C Country’s president.

In an instant, all major media platforms were broadcasting this shocking news!

Bei Xingchen suddenly remembered that Weiyi’s VIP ward was equipped with an LCD TV. If she turned on the TV, she would definitely see the news!

Xingchen wanted to turn around and rush back to the inpatient department. But then she remembered that Gu Yansheng was around, so should be fine.

Feeling slightly more reassured, she finally remembered why she was leaving the hospital in the first place. She looked at the time and quickly rushed out.

In the ward, Zuo Weiyi was lying on the bed. The ward that was filled with people earlier was suddenly empty. She thought of her grandpa and the others looking at the babies. She also wanted to take a look at them. She longed for the cute looks of the two little fellows.

She closed her eyes, feeling a little tired. She wanted to rest, but the wound on her lower abdomen hurt so much that she could not fall asleep.

At this moment, the door of the ward opened. She looked up and saw Gu Yansheng walking in.

She was a little surprised to see Gu Yansheng again.

“Yansheng, didn’t you go back to the company?”

When he walked in and saw her pale face on the bed, Gu Yansheng’s heartache returned.

He walked over and sat down on by the bed.

“The meeting was suddenly rescheduled to tomorrow, so I came back.”

Zuo Weiyi did not sense anything from his calm expression and smiled. “Well, you don’t actually have to stay by my side all the time.”

“Why? Are you afraid that Shi Yuting will be jealous?”

Zuo Weiyi’s heart sank slightly when he mentioned the name.

Even though her best friend had assured her, the uneasiness in her heart gradually deepened.

Gu Yansheng was trying to keep the conversation light. If he deliberately hid something, she might become even more suspicious.

“No.” She smiled, trying to hide the fact that she did have some misgivings in her heart.

She thought that Shi Yuting might come at any time. If she and Gu Yansheng were the only ones in this huge ward, even if there was nothing going on between them, Shi Yuting would definitely fly into a rage if he saw them like this!

She suddenly remembered what she had wanted to do earlier. “Yansheng, can I borrow your phone?”

Initially, she wanted to wait until Nuannuan and the others came back before asking to borrow one of their phones to call Shi Yuting.

Chapter 782: Concealment (1)

But at this time, they still hadn’t returned to the ward and she couldn’t wait any longer.

The moment she asked, Gu Yansheng had already seen through her thoughts.

Other than calling Shi Yuting, what else would she want to do with the phone?

His deep black eyes stared at her quietly for a few seconds. Then, a faint smile appeared on his face. He lifted his hand to lift up his suit jacket and pretended to look for his phone.

The moment he touched his pocket, he paused and looked apologetically at the person on the bed. “I’m sorry, I think I left my phone in the car.”

He could only wait for the Shi family to come back before they could come up with a unified explanation about Shi Yuting’s absence. If she had called Shi Yuting at this moment and knew that his phone was still switched off, she would definitely be suspicious. He could only pretend that he did not bring his phone with him.

Zuo Weiyi could not help but look down in disappointment.

“Oh, it’s alright,” said she with a faint smile.

In the end, she could only wait for Shen Lanzhi and Nuannuan to arrive.

“Are Grandpa and the others still with the twins?”

Gu Yansheng remained silent for a few seconds before replying. “Mr. Shi was a little excited when he saw the two little babies and started to feel a little uncomfortable in his chest, so he went back to rest first. Grandpa Zuo was a little worried about him, so he followed him to Shi Mansion." Auntie Shi has been watching over you all night and Nuannuan was worried that her body wouldn't be able to take it, so she sent her back to rest as well. She will come back later."

Gu Yansheng found a reason for each of them to leave this place.

Zuo Weiyi became a little worried upon hearing that Shi Le was not feeling well. "Is Grandpa alright?"

"He's fine. I heard that it's an old man's problem." Gu Yansheng smiled lightly. That calm face of his really made it impossible to sense any trace of bad news.

When he said that, Zuo Weiyi also remembered that Shi Le's heart was indeed not in a good condition and could not be stimulated. However, she did not expect that the joy of the birth of the two babies would cause his heart problem to relapse.

But when she heard that he was fine, she was relieved.

"You're right."

"Is the wound is still very painful?" Gu Yansheng changed the topic.

"Yes." She did not hide it. After the anesthesia had faded, the wound had felt so painful that she could not move.

On the other side.

After settling her mother down, Shi Nuannuan, who rushed back to the hospital in the evening, worried about Zuo Weiyi.

Zhong Shenghao had also rushed over at the same time as she arrived.

"When we go in later, Weiyi will definitely ask about your brother's condition. We must give her a sufficiently calm reason so that she will be convinced," Zhong Shenghao discussed with Shi Nuannuan.

After two hours of rest, Shi Nuannuan's complexion looked much better. Just to be on the safe side, she put on a little powder. Her eyes didn't look as red and swollen as before.

"I know. I will say that my brother had something to do and went to a disaster area in C Country. It was surrounded by mountains and the signal wasn't good, so the phone couldn't get through. He will come back later." She had already thought of an excuse. She only hoped that in the next few days, Grandfather Zuo and Grandpa Shi's people could find her brother's whereabouts as soon as possible.

Since his death had not been confirmed, it was perhaps a slightly good news for them.

At least the only thing confirmed was the wreckage and not her brother's and Xiangyi's deaths...

After listening to the excuse that she had prepared, Zhong Shenghao nodded.

"Okay."

Before entering the door, Shi Nuannuan took a deep breath and hid all her grief in the bottom of her heart. Then, the two of them walked into Zuo Weiyi's ward.

Chapter 783: concealment (2)

She knew that her sister-in-law's life had been dragged back from the jaws of death. Before her brother returned, nothing must happen to her!

Otherwise, her brother would definitely be heartbroken when he returned.

After recollecting her emotions, Shi Nuannuan reached out, turned the doorknob, and pushed the door open.

Zuo Weiyi and Gu Yansheng looked towards the door.

Zuo Weiyi smiled. "Nuannuan."

Shi Nuannuan paused for a moment before putting on a smile and walking over to sit down on the sofa. "Sister-in-Law, what do you think?"

Shi Nuannuan was able to conceal her emotions behind her eyes well. Zuo Weiyi did not suspect a thing.

She smiled. "I'm fine. Shenghao said that the pain in my wound will be alleviated in two days."

Nuannuan could tell that the wound on her stomach was clearly hurting just from how weak and pale her face looked, but her sister-in-law still showed perseverance, trying to assure the others that she is fine. But her efforts only made Nuannuan sadder, challenging her ability to continue holding back her tears.

A sour feeling surged into her eyes, making her nose ache.

Zhong Shenghao's words echoed in her head, reminding her to keep her emotions in check. In an instant, she converted her sadness into another smile.

"By the way, when I was sending Mommy back, my brother called."

Nuannuan's words made Zuo Weiyi's heart throb as she looked at Nuannuan anxiously.

"My brother planned to come back last night, but the president of another country had arrived. The president wanted to understand some of the ancient history and culture of C Country, so he went to a relatively ancient and remote mountain area. Who knew that the moment he arrived there, a mountain road suddenly collapsed. Upon hearing that the president was injured, my brother had to get off the plane and rush there."

Despite Nuannuan's story, Zuo Weiyi's heart was still hanging in the air

"Then is he alright?" asked she anxiously.

Shi Nuannuan paused as she looked at Zuo Weiyi.

She knew that her sister-in-law was asking if her brother had encountered another mountain road collapse when he rushed there, but the contents of the news suddenly flashed through her mind unconsciously, 'Yesterday morning, the private jet of the president of C Country, Shi Yuting, was attacked by terrorists and crashed...'

Shi Nuannuan's heart skipped a beat. However, when she looked at Zuo Weiyi, Shi Nuannuan forced herself to calm down.

She smiled and shook her head. "Brother is fine. However, I heard that the president is injured and is undergoing emergency treatment. Brother will have to wait until the president wakes up before he can come back."

She had already discussed with her mother at home. She had also told her grandfather and Zuo Yi about the cover-up so that she would not give herself away when her sister-in-law asked about it.

Shi Nuannuan continued, "Also, that place is in a remote mountain area and there is often no signal on the phone, so it's very difficult to get through. Brother said... that you should take good care of your body and he'll come back when he's done with everything."

Hearing Nuannuan's words, Zuo Weiyi's uneasy heart finally settled down.

Zuo Weiyi's face finally revealed a smile. "Does he know about Mo Mo and Lian Lian's existence?"

She wondered how Shi Yuting would feel if he knew about the two little babies.

Shi Nuannuan was stunned. The palm on her lap unconsciously tightened, and her heart was filled with sadness.

However, she still nodded and tried to hold back the tears in her eyes. "Yes, I told my brother about the twins. Mo Mo came out a minute earlier. He was very excited and looked forward to coming back to see the two little babies as soon as possible."

Chapter 784: Concealment (3)

Even though Shi Nuannuan had been holding back the pain in her heart, she could not control the tears that filled her eyes. She tried her best to hold them back, but her eyes still turned red.

In order to hide her reddened eyes, she lowered her head and tried her best not to let Zuo Weiyi notice her.

"Is that so?" Zuo Weiyi smiled. She did not notice the sudden change in Shi Nuannuan.

Gu Yansheng could tell that if Shi Nuannuan were to speak again, her voice would probably be choked with sobs, so he changed the topic.

"Weiyi, what do you want to eat tonight? I'll go buy you something."

Zuo Weiyi looked at Gu Yansheng with a smile, "Uh, I don't think I can eat yet."

Zhong Shenghao had told her that because of the surgery, she had to wait for her wound to heal before she could eat.

Zhong Shenghao was concerned. He didn't know this.

"You can't eat? But you haven't eaten since last night. Aren't you hungry?"

Zuo Weiyi shook her head. "I won't feel hungry. It's just that..." she licked her dry lips, "I'm very thirsty."

Since last night, she hadn't taken a drop of water so she was feeling quite thirsty. But Zhong Shenghao said that she couldn't drink water for the time being either.

"Don't worry, she won't feel hungry with the IV drip." At this time, Zhong Shenghao also joined in.

Thanks to the change in topic, Shi Nuannuan finally calmed down.

Zuo Weiyi's attention was fully focused on Zhong Shenghao and Gu Yansheng, so she didn't notice Shi Nuannuan wiping away her tears.

"Then when can she eat?" asked Gu Yansheng.

"Maybe tonight or tomorrow." Zhong Shenghao replied. This would depend on her current physical condition.

When she could take a breather, when she could eat, and when she could drink water.

"Then, I'll go buy some food for Miss Shi," said Gu Yansheng. He wasn't very familiar with the Shi family, but he wasn't unfamiliar with them. Still, he didn't quite know how to address Shi Nuannuan.

Zhong Shenghao nodded.

"Nuannuan, is grandfather alright?"

Shi Nuannuan looked up again, and thankfully her expression had already returned to normal.

"He's fine. He and Mommy might not be able to come today, so I'll stay with you!"

Even though Shi Nuannuan pretended to be fine, the trauma in a person's heart can still surface in the subtlest of ways.

That was why Zuo Weiyi could tell at a glance that Shi Nuannuan's face was slightly tired and haggard.

However, Weiyi just thought that Nuannuan's complexion was due to the lack of sleep.

Hence, she could not help but say, "Nuannuan, you should go back and rest too. I have given birth to the babies now. It's fine as long as the nurse is here."

"I'm fine. I can rest here too! You don't have to worry about me," said she softly as she threw Zuo Weiyi a reassuring smile!

Since she insisted, Zuo Weiyi didn't force her anymore.

Instead, she turned to Zhong Shenghao. "Can I see the babies tomorrow?"

A day had passed since they were born but she had only managed to take a look at them in the operating room.

At that time, her consciousness was a little blurry, so she could not see the two little faces clearly.

She wanted to know who they looked like up close.

Hearing this, Zhong Shenghao thought for a while before replying.

Chapter 785: Concealment (4)

"Tomorrow night. You can get out of bed tomorrow night. By then, you can go see the babies."

"Okay." Zuo Weiyi's mood was lifted at the thought of finally seeing her babies.

Then, another question appeared in her mind. "How long do I have to stay in the hospital?"

Zhong Shenghao responded. "If you don't want to stay in the hospital for too long, you can be discharged in a week. Of course, I still have to see how your blood pressure and body are recovering. If there aren't too many problems, I can let you leave."

Ting wasn't here, so he had to take care of Weiyi in every way.

Zuo Weiyi suddenly remembered that he mentioned that he had only returned to deal with some things before leaving again.

However, it was already evening. Moreover, he had said that he would wait for a week to check on her recovery before letting her leave.

In other words, wouldn't he be around for another week?

"Then, you're not leaving?"

Zhong Shenghao paused for a moment. Jing Xinlei's face suddenly flashed across his mind.

His hesitation caused Zuo Weiyi to misunderstand. She hurriedly explained, "Don't misunderstand. I didn't mean to make you leave immediately. I just..."

Jing Xinlei's figure also flashed across her mind.

She knew that Zhong Shenghao liked Jing Xinlei, which was why she was worried. He left her in that city while he was taking care of Weiyi in the hospital. How could he be at ease with being away from Jing Xinlei?

In the face of her sudden explanation, Zhong Shenghao smiled. "I know. I didn't misunderstand. You're worried about Xinlei, right?"

Zuo Weiyi looked at him without saying anything. It was a tacit agreement.

"I've already told her that I'm going to stay here for a while. I've already sent someone to pick her up this afternoon. But don't worry. Even if we reach this city, I won't let her appear in front of you again."

He had brought Xinlei here because he was worried that she would be alone in that city. So he had someone bring her to his villa. That way, he could keep a close watch on her.

He also knew that since Ting was not around, even if Weiyi knew that Xinlei was back, Weiyi would not react as badly as Ting would. However, the reason why he did not let Xinlei be present around Weiyi was because he was worried that she would do something to Weiyi. That was why he asked someone to keep a close watch on her.

His last sentence made Zuo Weiyi feel a little awkward.

However, it was not because she hated Jing Xinlei. Instead, it was because if Jing Xinlei was in her presence again, and plotted to harm her and even her children, she would really regret not letting Shi Yuting finish her off.

She glanced at Zhong Shenghao and didn't say anything, she only smiled instead.

Not long after, Gu Yansheng bought the food.

Even while watching Shi Nuannuan and Gu Yansheng eat, Zuo Weiyi didn't have much of an appetite. She didn't feel hungry at all, just a little thirsty.

However, she noticed that Nuannuan didn't seem to have much of an appetite either. She had picked up some white rice with her chopsticks, but she couldn't swallow it. She ate it one mouthful at a time.

"Nuannuan, what's wrong?"

Shi Nuannuan was completely immersed in her own thoughts. It took her awhile before she responded to Weiyi.

"The food doesn't suit your appetite?" Zuo Weiyi looked at her and suddenly realized that she seemed to have something on her mind.

Shi Nuannuan came back to her senses and looked at the food in the lunchbox. Then, she looked back at Zuo Weiyi.

Chapter 786: Concealment (5)

She smiled back. "Yeah, this restaurant's food isn't great!"

Weiyi looked at Nuannuan and then looked at Gu Yansheng sitting opposite her. He was eating slowly, as if he did not know the taste of food.

"Why don't I go get food from another restaurant?" He was about to get up, but he knew very well that the reason Shi Nuannuan could not eat was not really because of the food. But he did not want Weiyi to notice.

Obviously, he had to work with the situation.

When she saw him get up, Shi Nuannuan hurriedly said, "No, there's no need. It's just that I'm not very hungry. I ate some snacks at home before I came!"

"Nuannuan, are you...worried about something?"

Shi Nuannuan's heart suddenly sank when she was asked this question.

She looked up at Zuo Weiyi. She knew that her sister-in-law must have noticed her absent-mindedness when she was eating just now.

If she said that she didn't, it would be even more suspicious.

Therefore, she nodded and pretended to be very unhappy. "Yes! I sent Xiangyi a WeChat message, but he never replied to me!"

In the past two days, she had sent countless messages to Xiangyi and called him countless times, but in the end, he didn't reply to her, not even once...

Zuo Weiyi knew that Nuannuan liked Xiangyi. She also knew that due to the disparity in their statuses, Xiangyi always had a heart that wanted to return her love but didn't dare to. Even though Nuannuan had taken the initiative countless times, he did not dare to respond to her easily.

He was afraid that this relationship that should not exist would only become a bubble in the end.

Shi Nuannuan's excuse worked. It made Zuo Weiyi think that the reason she was unhappy and became lost in her thoughts was because Xiangyi did not reply to her messages.

"Nuannuan, I believe that Xiangyi cares about you. But he has his reservations. I believe that one day, he will open his heart to you. Do you still remember that time when we thought you were poisoned? At that time, Xiangyi cared about you a lot."

Shi Nuannuan's mind suddenly flashed back to that moment. The anxious expression on Xiangyi's face only made her heart hurt even more.

Tears unconsciously slid down her face.

Zuo Weiyi was taken aback. She was about to get up to comfort Shi Nuannuan, "Nuannuan, don't—"

Just as she was about to lean forward to comfort Nuannuan, the wound on her stomach suddenly felt like it was splitting open from her movements. The pain caused her to frown in pain!

Seeing this, Gu Yansheng hurriedly got up and walked over with a concerned look on his face. "Weiyi, you can't move around!"

Upon hearing his words, Shi Nuannuan suddenly looked up and realized that Weiyi had aggravated her wound.

She also became anxious and worried. "Sister-in-Law! Are you...are you alright?"

Taking a deep breath, Zuo Weiyi felt that the pain in the wound on her stomach had eased up a little. "I'm fine, I'm fine."

"Sister-in-Law, don't worry about Xiangyi and me anymore! Brother Shenghao said that your condition during the surgery wasn't good and that you need to recuperate properly. If your wound ruptures again, it won't be good!" Shi Nuannuan's face was filled with anxiety as she saw Weiyi in so much pain that she started sweating.

"Let me see if the wound has ruptured." As she spoke, Shi Nuannuan carefully lifted the blanket a little and examined the wound in her lower abdomen. Fortunately, there was no blood oozing out, so it should be fine.

She put the blanket down and looked up at Zuo Weiyi. "Sister-in-Law, you must not move recklessly next time."

Chapter 787: Concealment (6)

Seeing how worried Nuannuan looked, Zuo weiyi nodded and smiled, "Yes, I just forgot about it for a moment."

Seeing that she was fine, Gu Yansheng's worried heart finally settled down.

It was nine o'clock at night by the time they finished dinner.

Under Zuo Weiyi's insistence, Gu Yansheng left the hospital. She also thought that Nuannuan would go back to rest, but the Nuannuan insisted on staying with her.

Unable to persuade her, Zuo Weiyi decided to leave it be.

The next day.

Early in the morning, Zuo Yi arrived at the hospital. When he entered the ward, Shi Nuannuan was still sleeping on the sofa beside Weiyi.

Zuo Weiyi opened her eyes slightly when she heard the door open. Due to the pain from her wound, she could not fall asleep the entire night.

Shi Nuannuan also woke up from the sound. When she saw Zuo Yi, there was a hint of eagerness in her eyes!

She really wanted to ask if there was any news about her brother, but when she saw her sister-in-law lying on the bed, all of her eagerness could only be temporarily suppressed at the bottom of her heart.

"The wound still hurts, right?" Zuo Yi looked at his granddaughter with a face full of heartache as he made his way over to her bed.

His heart felt heavy with the condition his granddaughter was in and the unknown whereabouts of his grandson-in-law.

But he couldn't say anything in her presence.

He didn't know if Old Man Shi had any news.

Zuo Weiyi forced a smile at the sight of her grandpa. "I'm feeling better than yesterday."

"Grandfather Zuo." Shi Nuannuan also sat up from the sofa and couldn't help but call Zuo Yi.

Zuo Yi turned and saw Nuannuan who obviously looked a little haggard, and his eyes were filled with pity.

"Child, you've been watching over her all night. Go back and rest. I'm here now."

Zuo Weiyi also echoed, "That's right, Nuannuan. You've been keeping watch for two days and two nights. Go back and rest."

With Grandpa Zuo around, she felt more relieved.

"Okay."

With that, she got up, picked up her bag, and walked to the door of the ward. Zuo Yi also walked her to the door.

Once they were out, Shi Nuannuan turned around anxiously and asked Zuo Yi quietly, “Grandpa Zuo, is there any news about my brother?”

Her anxiousness only made it more difficult to respond, but in the end he shook his head and told the bitter truth.

“We are still searching. There is no news at the moment. But perhaps no news is the best news, so don’t worry too much.” Zuo Yi patted her shoulder, hoping to reassure her.

But even though he had every intention of comforting her, his words didn’t sound very convincing either.

After all, in such an accident, the survival rate was really too low.

His answer only made Shi Nuannuan’s heart sink, and her hands that were hanging by her sides could not help but tighten.

Then, with a sorrowful expression, she turned around and walked slowly towards the exit of the corridor. She looked so sad and miserable.

These two days, Shen Lanzhi tried her best to pull herself together, but even after two days, her entire person seemed to have changed. She looked so haggard that people could not recognize her.

Two days had passed, and there was still no news of Shi Yuting.

At this point, the Shi family no longer knew whether this was good or bad.

No one knew whether Shi Yuting was still alive or had fallen into the bottomless sea and become the shark’s meal.

Chapter 788: Concealment (7)

If he didn’t die, why weren’t there any news of him after searching for so many days?

Shen Lanzhi’s endurance seemed to have reached its limit.

But when she thought of her daughter-in-law who was still in the ward, and her newly-born grandchildren, she could only temporarily bury her sadness at the bottom of her heart and go to the hospital.

What made them even more worried was that in a few days, Weiyi would be discharged from the hospital. Even though they had already made up a story, it could not be hidden. As soon as she was discharged, Weiyi would definitely find out about it.

Shi Nuannuan supported her mother and went to Zuo Weiyi’s ward.

On the third day, Zuo Weiyi was completely ready to eat. So Shen Lanzhi cooked some soup for her and brought it over.

When the mother and daughter walked into the ward, they saw Zuo Weiyi holding the TV remote control as if she was about to turn on the TV.

Zuo Weiyi was just about to press the button when she heard the door open. She turned and saw Shen Lanzhi and Nuannuan walking in.

“Mom, Nuannuan.”

Shen Lanzhi and Shi Nuannuan were shocked when they saw what she was just about to do. They rushed over and Shi Nuannuan snatched the remote control away from her hand!

Zuo Weiyi was stunned. Before she could react, Shi Nuannuan had snatched the remote control away from her!

It was the third day, and she was almost able to get out of bed to walk around. Feeling a little bored, she had planned to turn on the television to pass the time, but Nuannuan’s reaction surprised her.

She paused for a moment before asking, “What’s wrong?”

Shi Nuannuan did not know how to explain herself.

In a moment of desperation, she blurted out, “You can’t turn on the TV!”

Zuo Weiyi was stunned again. “Why?”

She just wanted to relieve her boredom.

“Because...” Shi Nuannuan bit her lower lip nervously, but she did not know how to continue.

At this moment, Shen Lanzhi walked over from behind her. Compared to Nuannuan, her tone was clearly much calmer.

“Weiyi, you’re currently in labor, so you’re not allowed to watch TV.”

Shi Nuannuan heaved a sigh of relief and looked at her gratefully.

Zuo Weiyi was shocked by Shen Lanzhi’s words.

Not allowed to watch TV?

Although she had heard that there were many taboos during the month, she watch TV too?

If she couldn’t watch TV, then why was there a TV in this ward? And she’s in the Obs-Gyn ward too!

“Why can’t I watch TV?” She asked in a daze.

“Well, you just had a baby. Watching TV is bad for your eyes,” said Shen Lanzhi.

“Yes, yes. Brother Shenghao also told me that you shouldn’t watch TV for now. It’s bad for your eyes! But I must have forgotten to tell you!” Shi Nuannuan quickly echoed her mother’s words!

Zuo Weiyi nodded doubtfully. “Oh.”

“Weiyi, I made some chicken soup for you.” Shen Lanzhi placed the thermos box on the round table and opened it. She scooped out a bowl of soup and handed it to Zuo Weiyi. “Drink it while it’s still warm.”

When she was at home, she especially waited until the soup was not hot before putting it in the thermos box. This way, Weiyi could drink it directly by the time Shen Lanzhi arrived at the hospital,

Chapter 789: Concealment (8)

Her gentle tone warmed Weiyi's heart.

After finishing a bowl of soup, Zhong Shenghao walked in with a tray of medicine. He smiled at Zuo Weiyi and said, "Weiyi, it's time to take your medication."

Hearing this, Zuo Weiyi nodded and said, "Okay."

After administering her medication, Zhong Shenghao said, "I have to go back this afternoon. If anything happens, remember to call me."

He still hadn't gone back for three days. So he was really worried about Lei.

"Okay, go ahead," said Zuo Weiyi with a smile.

Zhong Shenghao's heart was filled with mixed feelings as he saw her calm and smiling face.

What should he do if Weiyi knew about Ting's situation?

Three days had passed, but there was still no news!

Even if he was dead, there should be at least some traces left. But there were none!

In the area where the plane crashed, other than the wreckage of the fuselage, there only the bodies of eight bodyguards. The identities of the eight bodyguards had also been confirmed.

As for Ting and Xiangyi, they could not find any information related to them at all.

Before leaving, Zhong Shenghao did not forget to tell Shi Nuannuan.

"In the afternoon, help her out and walk around more. This will be beneficial to her body. Of course, she can only be in the hospital. Don't go anywhere else."

"Yes, I know." Shi Nuannuan replied.

In the afternoon, with the help of Nuannuan and Shen Lanzhi, the three of them strolled along the corridor and unknowingly reached the babies' room.

Looking at the two little lives in the incubator, even though Shen Lanzhi and Shi Nuannuan's hearts were filled with grief, their faces still unconsciously brimmed with blissful smiles.

The two little kids were really too cute.

"Ah, Mo Mo has opened his eyes!" Shi Nuannuan could not help but exclaim!

Hearing this, Zuo Weiyi and Shen Lanzhi, who had their eyes on Shi Lian's incubator, quickly turned around. Sure enough, they saw her brother, Shi Mo, blinking his big black eyes.

“Mo Mo...” This was the first time Zuo Weiyi saw him open his eyes, and she felt a little strange on the inside.

Those pitch-black and deep eyes were exactly the same as Shi Yuting’s.

As she was thinking, Shen Lanzhi unconsciously muttered next to her, “Those eyes and nose are practically carved out of the same mold as his father...”

The scene of Shi Yuting opening his eyes for the first time after he was born suddenly flashed across her mind.

At that time, he opened his eyes just like Mo Mo did now and looked at this world that was very unfamiliar to him. His black eyes were filled with curiosity.

Zuo Weiyi turned towards Shen Lanzhi and noticed her expression had suddenly darkened. She even looked a little sad.

She was surprised and a little confused.

“Mom, what’s wrong?”

Shen Lanzhi came back to her senses after hearing her question. She glanced at her and quickly recollected her emotions. She smiled and said, “Ah... nothing. I just thought of the time when Yuting was young. At that time, he was like Mo Mo, opening his eyes to look at me for the first time.”

Shen Lanzhi’s explanation wasn’t convincing enough, and put Zuo Weiyi’s heart in turmoil. She didn’t know if she was thinking too much, but she felt that Shen Lanzhi looked too haggard these few days.

Was it really because she was too tired from the past two days?

“Oh right, Nuannuan.” Weiyi turned around and suddenly looked at Nuannuan. “Your brother’s phone is still disconnected?”

Shi Nuannuan and Shen Lanzhi were startled by her question, and their expressions turned a little tense!

Chapter 790: Concealment (9)

After a long while, Shi Nuannuan finally came back to her senses and said, “Yeah, I still can’t get through. Maybe the signal over there is really bad!”

As she spoke, in order to hide the panic in her eyes, she even deliberately turned her gaze back to the incubator. She changed the topic and said, “Ah... Mo Mo is asleep again.”

Upon hearing this, Zuo Weiyi also turned her gaze and found that Mo Mo in the incubator had indeed closed his eyes again.

“Really...?”

As her wound had yet to heal, Zuo Weiyi could only take a short walk before she had to return to her bed.

In the afternoon, Shen Lanzhi had to go back and make some soup for Weiyi to nourish her body. She left at four in the afternoon and came back when it was time for dinner.

Actually, there were all kinds of soup in the restaurants and the hospital cafeteria, but she felt that the food there were not as nutritious as the ones she made herself. So naturally, she wanted to have them homemade.

“Nuannuan, aren’t you bored being with me like this every day?”

Since she could not watch TV, Zuo Weiyi chose to chat with Shi Nuannuan.

Nuannuan looked up and smiled. “No, I’m not. I’m so happy that you gave our family two cute babies. I won’t be bored!”

Zuo Weiyi smiled and did not say anything else.

Shi Nuannuan had just finished speaking when she realized that the drip above the bed was gone. She reached out and pressed the call bell on the bedside.

In the infirmary.

“Lan Lan, has your baby’s fever subsided?”

“Yes, thank you, Xiao Hui. You must have been very busy these few days when I asked for leave, right?” Nurse Lan Lan said to another nurse next to her as she prepared the medicine for Zuo Weiyi.

Xiao Hui said, “Of course. There have been a lot of patients recently. We’re almost exhausted!”

“I’ll treat you to a meal after work today. I’ll go change the IV drip for the patient in the VIP ward first!” As she said that, Nurse Lan Lan turned around and left.

However, when she looked at the name written on the bed card, she suddenly frowned.

Zuo Weiyi? Why does this name sound so familiar?

After being confused for a few seconds, the nurse finished changing IV drip and left.

However, before she left and closed the door, she could not help but look at Zuo Weiyi on the bed.

She seemed to have seen her somewhere before.

The moment she closed the ward door, Nurse Lan Lan came to a sudden realization. She quickly took out the phone in her pocket and flipped through the news that had been trending in the city for the past few days!

When she saw a photo of Weiyi with Shi Yuting, the nurse’s eyes widened!

Mr. Shi’s wife, Zuo Weiyi, was actually staying in the VIP ward! No wonder she felt that her name and face were so familiar just now!

Mrs. Shi had actually given birth to twins, and Mr. Shi had been in a plane accident a few days ago. His whereabouts and fate were still unknown.

Mrs. Shi must be very sad right now, right?

Sigh! She really didn’t expect that the first lady of C Country would actually stay in their hospital. This was really something to be proud of!

But when she thought of Shi Yuting's accident, the smile on the nurse's face suddenly froze.

The children had just been born, but the father had suffered a tragic accident. What a tragic thing. And here she was, getting so excited about the VIP ward. She really had no sympathy at all!

After cursing herself a million times in her heart, the nurse turned around and left.

In a luxurious European villa.

Zhong Shenghao walked up to the second floor and turned his head. He saw the figure standing on the balcony.

"Xinlei."

Hearing the voice, the figure on the balcony looked away from the newspaper in her hand. She turned her head back and looked at the man walking over with an expressionless face.
