

Kiss Me 791

Chapter 791: Concealment (10)

Zhong Shenghao stopped in front of her and looked at the newspaper in her hand. It was the newspaper about Ting's recent accident.

He glanced at the newspaper and looked back at her face.

Jing Xinlei glanced at him and coldly walked past him into the house.

"You still haven't let go of Ting?"

Jing Xinlei stopped in her tracks.

"The chance of surviving such an accident is zero, right?" asked her coldly as her back faced him.

Zhong Shenghao furrowed his brows, unable to believe her words. "You want Ting to die?"

"That's right."

"The three of us have known each other for so many years. Haven't you always liked him—"

"So what if we've known each other for so many years?!" Jing Xinlei suddenly turned around. Her eyes were cold and ruthless, full of anger. "So what if I like him? Doesn't he still want to kill me?!"

"That's because you've been scheming to harm Weiyi! She's his wife. You know how Ting does things. Why do you keep pushing his buttons?" asked Zhong Shenghao with heartache!

Ting didn't even kill her.

If it were anyone else, even Weiyi, Ting would never forgive a woman who tried to kill his wife. Why couldn't Xinlei didn't understand this?

"Who told her to take away what belongs to me?!"

"Did she really take it away?" asked Zhong Shenghao exasperatedly. "You abandoned Ting six years ago!"

"But later—"

"He had no obligation to wait for you to come back!" Zhong Shenghao suddenly shouted, but then his eyes dimmed and he continued painfully, "Only a fool would wait for you indefinitely."

He might sound like he was reprimanding Jing Xinlei, but he was also scolding himself.

So what if he had liked and waited for her all these years? He had never been in her heart from the start.

He suddenly felt as if he was just abusing himself. Even though he knew that she did not have him in her heart, he was still reluctant to part with her and let her go.

"Are you reprimanding me like them too?" Jing Xinlei's heart suddenly felt sorrowful with an unprecedented hesitation.

Zhong Shenghao glanced at her and finally turned his gaze away helplessly.

No matter what he said, she could only feel jealousy and hatred toward Ting and Weiyi. She would never understand no matter what!

“Forget it. I’m going to the hospital later. I’ll ask Nanny Liu to prepare dinner. You can eat by yourself.”

With that, he walked past her and headed straight for the stairs.

“Wait!”

Just as he was walking towards the stairs, Jing Xinlei suddenly called out to him.

Shenghao topped in his tracks, but he didn’t turn around.

“I want to go out.”

Zhong Shenghao turned around and looked at her in confusion. “Where?”

“I’ve been imprisoned by you for a month. I want to go out. If this continues, I’ll go crazy!”

He looked at her for a long time before speaking softly, “You still want to escape?”

“I don’t want to escape. I just want to go out for a walk!”

“I won’t allow that.” He refused flatly and coldly.

“Zhong Shenghao! You have no right to imprison me!” Jing Xinlei roared.

However, Zhong Shenghao ignored her and went straight down.

She followed him down too, unwilling to give up.

“Zhong Shenghao!”

But he still had no intention of stopping.

Jing Xinlei knew that Zhong Shenghao liked her.

“I just want to go out for a walk, just once. As long as you promise me, I, I will promise you anything!”

The condition that she suddenly blurted out made Zhong Shenghao stop in his tracks, just as he was about to walk out the door.

Jing Xinlei continued, “Just for once! Otherwise, I’m really going to go insane.”

“If you’re so desperate to go out, how did you survive the year in prison?” Zhong Shenghao seemed to have read her mind.

She probably knew her position in his heart and wanted to take advantage of him. She thought that his feelings for her would make him agree.

However, he knew very well where they stood in that point in time. She knew that something had happened to Ting, and she also knew that Weiyi had given birth. Now that she was in his hospital, if he really let her out, Weiyi and the babies' lives would be in danger.

Jing Xinlei paused as her heart ached with frustration.

Didn't he like her? Why didn't he agree to such a small matter?

She didn't want to be imprisoned here anymore. She wanted to get out!

When she looked up again, Zhong Shenghao had already left.

"Ah!" She was a little angry from embarrassment. In a fit of anger, she broke an antique vase on a shelf!

Two maids stood by silently, scared out of their wits.

When he heard the sound, Zhong Shenghao stopped in his tracks. But in the end, he didn't turn back. Instead, he walked straight to a Lotus sports car parked not far away.

Inside the house, Jing Xinlei clenched her fists tightly as she looked at the shards on the ground. An idea suddenly popped up in her mind.

She suddenly picked up a piece of shard from the ground and cut her left wrist with it without thinking!

Nanny Liu witnessed her action in shock and cried out, "Miss Jing!"

Nanny Liu rushed over and saw a deep gash on her fair wrist. Blood instantly gushed out, scaring her!

The other maid couldn't help but rush out of the door. But by the time she rushed out, Zhong Shenghao's car had already left.

She panicked and ran back. She looked at Jing Xinlei and Nanny Liu on the ground, not knowing what to do.

"Mr. Zhong has already left. What should we do?!" They didn't know how to stop the bleeding or deal with it.

Auntie Liu was also at a loss. She could only use her apron to tightly cover Jing Xinlei's wound, hoping to slow the blood flow.

"Hurry up and make the call!"

The maid rushed to the phone and dialed Zhong Shenghao's cell phone.

Zhong Shenghao was driving when his cell phone suddenly rang.

He glanced at the caller ID. It was the number from his villa.

He thought it was Jing Xinlei calling, so he didn't pick it up.

The maid was even more anxious the longer the line dialled!

"Nanny Liu, Mr. Zhong didn't pick up the phone..."

"Call again!"

Zhong Shenghao was able to bring Jing Xinlei back this time due to what he had agreed on with Ting and Weiyi. Afraid that she would find Weiyi again, Zhong Shenghao specially arranged for her to stay in the villa halfway up the mountain. It was relatively remote from the city.

Ten minutes later, his phone was still ringing nonstop.

Zhong Shenghao started to feel uneasy.

Chapter 793: Concealment (12)

Based on Xinlei's usual personality, if he didn't pick up after a long time, she would call him two or three times at most before stopping. However, the phone had been ringing repeatedly. By now, there were already more than a dozen calls.

Could something have happened?

He frowned and pondered.

But on second thought, he had just left. What could have happened?

But looking at the increasingly urgent phone call, Zhong Shenghao couldn't help but pick it up in the end as the car slowly drove towards the city.

"Hello?" He was expecting Jing Xinlei's voice to come from the other side.

However, he heard the maid's extremely anxious voice instead. "Mr. Zhong, it's bad! Miss Jing, she... she suddenly cut her wrist with a fragment of a vase!"

Hearing this, Zhong Shenghao's pupils constricted. He slammed on the brakes and squeaked!

He put down the phone in his hand and turned the car around!

It had been more than ten minutes since he left the villa but Jing Xinlei's side was already covered in blood. Nanny Liu and the maid were pressing on her wound in panic, but blood was still gushing out.

"Xinlei!"

Zhong Shenghao walked in and saw Jing xinlei lying on the ground. Her face was as pale as snow, and it was obvious that she had lost too much blood.

He rushed to a room in the living room, took out the medical equipment, and provided an emergency first aid. Then, he carried her out the door and rushed straight to the hospital!

She had obviously lost too much blood and urgently needs a blood transfusion!

At the hospital, after an emergency blood transfusion, Jing Xinlei was finally out of danger.

Zhong Shenghao's expression was a little heavy as he looked at Xinlei.

He had never thought that she would be so dramatic that she would end her own life. Was it because she felt that she was being imprisoned by him?

His heart felt a tight squeeze. Fortunately, she was fine. Otherwise, he would hate himself to death!

Zhong Shenghao stood up and turned around to leave the ward.

In order to take care of her and Zuo Weiyi at the same time, Zhong Shenghao specially arranged Jing Xinlei's room in the same building of the obstetrics and gynecology department, but not on the same floor.

It was 5:50pm in the evening. After autumn, the night always came quickly. At this moment, the sky outside the window had gradually darkened, and the lights of the city had slowly lit up.

After a night of rest, Jing Xinlei woke up slowly the next morning, but her face was still a little pale.

"Do you still feel uncomfortable anywhere?" Zhong Shenghao asked softly.

However, Jing Xinlei turned her head away, as if she didn't want to pay attention to him.

He knew that she still hated that he had imprisoned her freedom, but he did this because he wanted her to live in peace and stability.

Of course, he was also afraid that she would find trouble with Weiyi again after she arrived in this city.

"I'll go buy you some breakfast." Zhong Shenghao stood up.

Jing Xinlei remained unmoved.

It wasn't until she heard the sound of the ward door opening and closing, confirming that he had left, that she turned her head and looked at the tightly shut ward door.

Ten minutes later, Zhong Shenghao came in with breakfast.

He picked up the porridge and wanted to feed her personally, but she turned her face away.

Zhong Shenghao felt a little helpless, but if she really went on a hunger strike, there was nothing he could do.

So, he said, "As long as you eat obediently, I promise to let you go out for a walk after you recover."

Chapter 794: Concealment (13)

Hearing this, Jing Xinlei finally turned around and looked at him. "Really?"

"Yes." He nodded.

She hesitated for a moment as if she was thinking about something. In the end, she opened her mouth and ate the porridge he fed her.

Zhong Shenghao had just finished cleaning up after the porridge was finished when there was a knock on the door and a nurse walked in.

"Director, Mrs. Shi from the VIP ward of the Obstetrics Department asked you to come over," said the nurse to Zhong Shenghao with a face full of adoration. After all, he was the youngest, most handsome, and richest director in the entire Z City. It would be a lie to say that she was not infatuated.

Jing Xinlei saw how the nurse looked at Shenghao and her heart suddenly felt a little unhappy!

She once had the same feeling: when she returned to the country and found out that Shi Yuting had Zuo Weiyi by his side, her heart was also filled with anxiety.

However, she did not understand why she was feeling the same way about the female nurse at this moment. Regardless, she was more concerned about what the nurse said.

Mrs. Shi in the VIP Ward? Could it be Zuo Weiyi?

Her gaze fell on Zhong Shenghao's back.

So he hadn't been back these days because he was taking care of Zuo Weiyi in the hospital?

Was it because Shi Yuting had an accident that he took care of that woman on his behalf?

Why? Why were all men so good to her? Whether it was lovers or friends, as long as they were men, they seemed to have no resistance in Weiyi's presence. Why was God so kind to her?

Jing Xinlei couldn't help but clench her fists as she stared at Zhong Shenghao's handsome side profile.

Didn't he like her? Why did he have to take Shi Yuting's place to take care of Zuo Weiyi?

"I understand," Zhong Shenghao replied as he looked at the nurse.

After the nurse left, he turned around and looked at Jing Xinlei. "I need to leave for a while. Have a good rest."

"Compared to Shi Yuting's wife, I'm just a dispensable person in your heart, right?" Even Jing Xinlei herself did not realize how sour she sounded.

Zhong Shenghao was stunned by her words. He furrowed his brows slightly as he did not understand why she suddenly said that.

"Why do you always like to look at a matter or person with jealousy? You clearly know my relationship with Ting. In public, I'm a doctor. In private, she's my brother's wife. If something happens to Ting, I definitely can't turn a blind eye to Weiyi." Though he spoke lightly, his heart was heavy.

She didn't know that the only reason she was able to live safely until now was because of Weiyi. Otherwise, given Ting's personality, she would have long been doomed!

However, his words instantly hurt Jing Xinlei.

She had never thought that there would be a day that Zhong Shenghao would also use such a tone to scold her.

"That's right, I'm jealous. I'm just jealous of her. Why do all men treat her well?"

"That's the difference between you and her! Xinlei, why don't you understand until now? If it were you that day, would you have wanted to Weiyi to die without any consideration? Weiyi was willing to spare you. Why don't you understand?"

"That's because she wants me to live under her charity, making me feel even more embarrassed and inferior than her!"

"It's not like that!" Zhong Shenghao roared, his eyes filled with heartache. "That's the difference between the two of you. She didn't want you to die, but you have been using every single means to kill her!"

Chapter 795: Concealment (14)

With that, Zhong Shenghao turned around and left the ward without looking back.

"Zhong Shenghao!" Jing Xinlei was so angry that she shouted at him.

So, he despised her that much? If that was the case, why did he defend her in front of Shi Yuting and plead on her behalf?

"She's so nice that even you are tempted, right?"

Once the words left her mouth, Zhong Shenghao, who was about to leave, suddenly stopped in his tracks.

He turned to look at the person on the bed. A deep pain flashed across his eyes.

A few seconds later, he spoke each word with disappointment, "A woman like her is indeed worthy of every man's heart. But I, Zhong Shenghao, am extremely stupid. I had to fall in love with a woman who only knows how to be jealous of others!"

With that, he turned and walked away!

His words shocked Jing Xinlei as she remained transfixed on the bed.

If he despised her for being jealous of others, why did he say he fell in love with such a woman? What the hell did he mean?

— * * * —

Moments later, Shenghao arrived at the Zuo Weiyi's ward.

As soon as he entered, he saw Zuo Yi, Shi Le and the others as well.

Zhong Shenghao was surprised, and based on how they behaved, he knew that there had not been much progress with Shi Yuting's whereabouts.

"Shenghao." Weiyi called out to him from her bed.

Zhong Shenghao heard her call him and walked to her.

"I was wondering if I could be discharged in two days."

"There shouldn't be any problem. The wound is recovering well, and the blood pressure has also returned to normal. You can go through the discharge procedures the day after tomorrow."

"Then, what about the babies? Can they be discharged too?"

"Not yet. I'll have to keep observing them on the day you're discharged."

Zuo Weiyi couldn't help but feel a little disappointed.

So she can be discharged but her babies had to remain?

Seeing the worry and disappointment on her face, Zhong Shenghao quickly said, "Don't worry. If the babies are in good health, they can be discharged with you."

Zuo Weiyi finally felt at ease as she smiled and nodded. "Okay."

In the afternoon.

Zuo Yi suddenly said to his granddaughter before he left, "Weiyi, Grandpa is going to C Country for a few days, so I might not be accompany you out of the hospital."

Zuo Weiyi was a little surprised when she heard that. "You're going to C Country?"

"Yes, there's something urgent over there. After all, that kid, Yuting, isn't able to come back for the time being, right? There's something urgent so I have to rush over to take care of it."

Upon hearing her grandfather's words, Zuo Weiyi instantly understood.

"Alright, be careful then." Although he was still strong and healthy, she was still a little worried because he was getting old.

And Zuo Yi was equally as worried about his granddaughter too.

After searching for so many days, there was still no news about Shi Yuting's status. He was most worried about her finding out about the situation once she gets discharged from the hospital. He could only rely on the Shi family to continue hiding the matter.

But the truth would have to come out eventually. No matter how hard they tried to hide it, the more they prolonged it, the more suspicious Weiyi would be.

Zuo Weiyi's wound had been healing very quickly and she was gradually getting enough sleep.

Shen Lanzhi stayed behind to keep watch over her at night.

In the middle of the night, Zuo Weiyi was suddenly awoken by a nightmare. She sat up from the bed in terror!

Her sudden movements caused a sharp pain in her abdomen.

Her heart was beating fast as she remembered her dream: Shi Yuting all bloodied from getting hit by rocks falling off a mountain.

Chapter 796: Concealment (15)

The more she thought about it, the more uneasy she felt.

She turned around and saw Shen Lanzhi sitting on the sofa with her head tilted. Shen Lanzhi had a hard time falling asleep. She heard movement and looked up to see Zuo Weiyi sitting up in bed.

"Weiyi, what happened to you?" She got up and walked over, looking at her with a worried expression.

Zuo Weiyi looked at Shen Lanzhi with her frightened and uneasy eyes. "I, I had a dream. Shi Yuting was covered in blood..."

Her words made Shen Lanzhi tremble, and her heart felt as if it was pierced by a sharp sword!

“Mom?” Zuo Weiyi was a little surprised to see her mother-in-law’s reaction.

Shen Lanzhi realized how she was reacting and quickly recollected herself. She hurriedly said, “Oh, it’s nothing. It was just a dream. Yuting is fine, don’t let your imagination run wild.”

Zuo Weiyi was stunned.

She also knew that it was a dream. Though she was feeling a little uneasy, she might just be overthinking things. And it was obvious that her mother-in-law was even more uneasy than she was, which made her a little surprised.

“Mom, can you lend me your phone?”

She had left her phone at home. After giving birth, Nuannuan had not brought it over to her. She said that Weiyi should not look at electronic products that were harmful to her eyes during her confinement.

However, after that dream, she really wanted to give Shi Yuting a call. Although she heard that he was in the mountains and there was no signal, perhaps she might be able to get through.

Moreover, she was really missing him these days.

In the past, he would call her every day when he left. But now, she had not heard his voice.

Shen Lanzhi was a little stunned by her sudden question.

She stared at her for a few seconds before saying, “Weiyi, it’s already so late. Let’s call him tomorrow.”

Zuo Weiyi looked out of the dark window. It must be midnight now.

In the end, she let up and decided to call tomorrow in the day.

But even so, she did not sleep the entire night and lay in bed until daybreak.

Early in the morning, at seven o’clock in the morning, the ward door opened and Shi Nuannuan walked in with breakfast.

Zuo Weiyi’s mind was filled with the dream from last night so she did not have the mood to eat.

“Mommy, please go back and rest,” said Shi Nuannuan as she looked at her mother.

Shen Lanzhi looked worriedly at Zuo Weiyi on the bed and finally nodded. “Yes, take good care of your sister-in-law.”

“I know, don’t worry!” Shi Nuannuan replied.

After sending her mother off and returning to the ward, Zuo Weiyi could not wait to speak.

“Nuannuan, do you have your phone with you?”

Shi Nuannuan was stunned when she heard that. Although she was puzzled, she still nodded hesitantly.

“Yes, why?”

“I want to call your brother.”

“Uh, didn’t I say that I can’t get through to Brother?” At this moment, Shi Nuannuan suddenly felt uneasy. Could it be that her sister-in-law had discovered something?

“Try calling him again. I had a bad dream last night, and I’m a little worried about him.”

“Dream? What dream?”

“I dreamt that...there was a landslide and your brother was covered in blood.”

Shi Nuannuan was shocked, but seeing how determined and deep Weiyi’s feelings were, she had no choice but to call him.

So, she lowered her head and took out the phone from her bag.

Before the call went through, Shi Nuannuan already knew what the outcome of the call would be.

Looking at Nuannuan, Zuo Weiyi’s face was filled with uneasiness as she lowered his face dejectedly.

“I’ll call Xiangyi in a while. Let’s eat breakfast first, okay?”

As she spoke, Shi Nuannuan opened the breakfast pack, but Zuo Weiyi had no appetite.

Chapter 797: Plane Crash? Zuo Weiyi’s Shocked!

After breakfast, Shi Nuannuan was about to pour a glass of water for her sister-in-law to take her medicine, but she realized that there wasn’t enough in the jug. So, she took the Thermos cup and left the ward with it to get it filled up.

Zuo Weiyi leaned on the bed as her mind was still filled with the dream she had last night.

At this moment, the door opened and a nurse walked in with the medicine.

“Mrs. Shi, I will have to take you off the drip for a short moment as there’s another small injection. It might be a little painful, so please bear with it,” said the nurse gently.

After the injection, the nurse started the drip again.

Zuo Weiyi was absent-minded throughout the entire process, her mind still filled with the bloody scene from her dream.

As the nurse hung the drip bag for her, she noticed the patient’s dejected appearance and blurted out, “Mrs. Shi, you’re worried about Mr. Shi, right?”

The nurse’s words caught Weiyi’s attention as the latter looked at the former in confusion.

How did she know that she was worried about Shi Yuting?

Could it was all written so clearly on her face?

Zuo Weiyi touched her face with her hands. Surely her face wasn’t that easy to read?

“Don’t worry, Mr. Shi will definitely be blessed. Although it was a plane crash, Mr. Shi’s body has not been found yet. This is a good thing. Don’t worry too much. The most important thing is to take good care of your body.”

But the nurse did not notice the sudden change in Weiyi’s expression as she spoke.

Plane crash? Body?

What did all of these meant?

Due to her identity as the wife of the president of a country, who wouldn’t want to get close to her? The young nurse just wanted to express her goodwill and be on her good side.

Little did she know that the carefully planned cover-up by the Shi family and Zhong Shenghao had fallen through at this moment.

Zuo Weiyi looked at the nurse in a daze. “Did you say that it was a plane crash?”

The nurse was surprised to see the look of astonishment on Weiyi’s face.

What was the meaning of Mrs. Shi’s expression?

Puzzled, she nodded slowly. “Yes...”

Zuo Weiyi immediately looked incomparably shocked and in disbelief!

Even her lips and teeth were trembling. “You’re saying that Shi Yuting...was a plane crash?”

The nurse was completely confused by Weiyi’s increasingly horrified expression. Then, a terrifying thought flashed through her mind.

Could it be that Mrs. Shi did not know about this?!

But that wasn’t right. Who in the world didn’t know about this news? And of all people, how could Mrs. Shi not know about it?

Seeing that the nurse was no longer speaking, Zuo Weiyi hurriedly sat up on the bed and grabbed the nurse’s hand.

Her voice trembled slightly. “Quick, tell me... What did you mean by what you said just now?! Shi Yuting’s plane crash? Where did you find out about it?”

The nurse was shocked and suddenly didn’t know what to do.

It turned out that Mrs. Shi really didn’t know about this matter, but everyone in Z Country clearly knew about it. As long as she turned on the television or her cell phone, she would have seen it reported all over the news. How could Mrs. Shi not know about it?

The nurse remained stunned as she watched Weiyi become distressed and anxious.

She suddenly looked at the television in the room. It was turned off. And now that she thought about it, she had never seen the television here turned on every time she came in to attend to Mrs. Shi. Could it be that the Shi family had deliberately concealed this matter?

Then... did she just make a huge mistake?!

The nurse started to get flustered and began to worry about her job.

Chapter 798: The Shattered Heart!

"I, I don't know..." The nurse pulled her hand away and quickly left the ward with the medicine tray.

Zuo Weiyi collapsed on the hospital bed as she watched the nurse leave in a hurry. It was as if a huge hole had been dug in her heart, and she was in so much pain that she could not breathe.

"Plane crash... body... what happened..." Zuo Weiyi started muttering to herself.

She looked up at the LCD TV on the wall. Her mind suddenly remembered the day she wanted to watch TV, but her mother-in-law and Nuannuan had taken away the remote control from her hands. Now that she thought about it, even if she couldn't watch TV, surely there was no need for such an overreaction.

She suddenly stood up to look for the remote control.

Although it had been five days, it was inevitable that her wound would hurt when she made any drastic movements.

As soon as she got out of bed, her brows furrowed in pain!

Where was the remote control? She wanted to switch on the TV!

If what the nurse said was true, Shi Yuting had truly been in an accident. And even if she was in Z Country now, there should have been news reports everywhere.

She searched the entire VIP ward but could not find the remote control. Could it be that Nuannuan and her mother-in-law had hidden the remote control? Did they not want her to watch TV?

Why? Why did they hide it from her? What happened to Shi Yuting?

Tears poured down like a dam that had been broken, swallowing her heart in pain and despair.

Finally, she found the remote control in a drawer. She turned on the TV, and it immediately showed a news report about Shi Yuting being attacked and ending up in a plane crash.

"After searching for the past few days, the current president of C Country, Shi Yuting, is still missing and his fate is still unknown. Other than the bodies of his eight bodyguards, his and his personal assistant's bodies have yet to be found at the location of the incident. The matter is still under further investigation..."

The remote control in Zuo Weiyi's hand fell to the ground and shattered into pieces.

It finally made sense, the recent behaviour of Nuannuan and her mother-in-law, her grandpa's sudden trip to C Country and her grandfather's relapse. These were all to protect her.

She gripped her chest tightly feeling as if her heart was being pierced by thousands of arrows. Her heart was in so much pain that she could not breathe.

Her weak body slowly slid down. If it were not for the round table beside her, she might have collapsed completely.

She tried using the table for support, but her heart throbbed too painfully.

She slowly bent down and cried out loud. Her slender body trembled helplessly as she sobbed. Her tears slid down her face like beads.

Through her blurry vision, she caught a glimpse of the broken remote control on the ground. She reached out weakly, picked it up and replaced the battery. Then, she flipped through all the channels reporting Shi Yuting's incident, but none of them had stated that Shi Yuting was still alive.

She bent over and cried out again.

Hardly anyone passed by the VIP ward, so no one would have heard her cries. That was exactly what Weiyi needed.

Shi Nuannuan, on the other hand, had to go to the lower floor to get warm water as there were no such facilities on the VIP ward floor.

Since it was still morning, there were also many other people fetching water. She had to wait for a long time before she managed to return to the VIP floor with the Thermos.

On her way back to Weiyi's room, she passed by the nursery and couldn't help but want to take a look at the two little fellows because she thought of them. So she walked in.

Chapter 799: The Person in the Babies' Room

However, just as she entered, she was surprised to see a figure standing in front of the two baby incubators. Furthermore, the figure was wearing a patient gown.

Shi Nuannuan stopped in her tracks, stunned.

Who was this? Was the person there to see Mo Mo and Lian Lian?

Jing Xinlei heard footsteps and turned around to see Shi Nuannuan standing at the door.

The moment she saw her, Shi Nuannuan's eyes widened and her expression changed!!

"Jing Xinlei?! What are you doing here?!"

She knew that Brother Shenghao had stayed behind to take care of Sister-in-Law, and Jing Xinlei had been brought back to this city a few days ago. But why was she in the hospital? And so close to Mo Mo and Lian Lian too! What was she trying to do?!

Recalling what she had done to Weiyi, Shi Nuannuan dashed towards Jing Xinlei and pushed the latter away and put herself between Xinlei and the babies to protect Mo Mo and Lian Lian.

She shouted angrily at Jing Xinlei. "What are you planning to do?!"

Jing Xinlei had suddenly appeared in the hospital and she was wearing a patient gown. Could it be that she had sneaked into the hospital to harm her niece and nephew?

Shi Nuannuan's heart tightened.

Why did this Jing Xinlei never change? Why did Brother Shenghao and Sister-in-Law treated her so well!

Jing Xinlei stumbled after Nuannuan pushed her, still a little weak. With the help of an object at the side, she barely managed to support herself. Then, she stood firm and faced Shi Nuannuan indifferently.

She glanced at the two babies behind her, then turned around and left without another word.

Shi Nuannuan watched Xinlei leave, still feeling uneasy.

Why was Jing Xinlei here? No, she had to find Brother Hao and ask him to move the babies. Also, she had to ask him to keep an eye on Jing Xinlei. If she were to commit any misdeeds, even without her brother, Nuannuan would definitely shoot her!

She took out her phone and dialed Zhong Shenghao's number. There was no one here now. What if she left and Jing Xinlei came back?

The more she thought about it, the more uneasy she felt.

The call went through and she couldn't wait to speak. "Brother Hao, didn't you say that you would keep an eye on Jing Xinlei? Why is she in the hospital? She's even with the babies! What on earth is she trying to do?!"

Zhong Shenghao was startled.

"Have you seen Xinlei?" He had just gone to her ward and found that she was gone. He had been anxiously looking for her everywhere.

"Were you the one who brought her to the hospital?" Shi Nuannuan seemed to have sensed something.

"No, she was injured, only—"

He glanced around and saw Jing Xinlei walking toward him from not far away.

"Don't worry. I won't let her hurt Weiyi and the children," said Zhong Shenghao before he hung up the phone.

Then, he faced Jing Xinlei.

"Xinlei."

Seeing her walk past him, straight to the ward, Zhong Shenghao couldn't help but speak with heartache.

Jing Xinlei stopped in her tracks as if she knew what he wanted to ask.

"I didn't do anything."

"Then why did you go to the babies' ward?"

"To take a look." Her tone was very cold.

"You have to leave the hospital!" For Weiyi and the children's safety, he needed her to be away from the hospital.

Her current condition would still allow her to recuperate at home.

“I was only going to take a look at their children. Do you think I want to harm them?” Jing Xinlei clenched her fists, and her heart suddenly tightened.

Chapter 800: You Were Clearly in So Much Pain

Zhong Shenghao didn't say anything. Instead, he grabbed her and packed up her things to directly discharge her from the hospital.

As long as there was even the slightest bit of danger, he had to keep her away from here, away from her Weiyi and her children.

Once she heard that Jing Xinlei had left the hospital in a hurry, Shi Nuannuan finally felt at ease. She took the Thermos and returned to the ward.

She pushed the door open and walked to the bed. While preparing the medicine for Zuo Weiyi, Shi Nuannuan said, “There were too many people so I had to wait quite a while to get the water!”

She was afraid that Xinlei's appearance would trouble Weiyi, so she did not intend to say anything about it.

Brother Hao had taken her away anyway.

However, just for precaution, she would have to ask her grandfather to send a few bodyguards to guard the entrance of her sister-in-law's and babies' wards.

She poured some water and held the medicine. When she looked at Weiyi, she realized that there was something wrong with her sister-in-law as she leaned against the bed.

She was worried and asked, “Sister-in-law, what's wrong?”

Zuo Weiyi slowly met Shi Nuannuan's pitch-black pupils.

These past few days, they had all pretended as if nothing had happened in order to protect her.

But what kind of torture was Nuannuan enduring in her heart at this moment?

She knew that Xiangyi had also met with an accident, yet she suppressed her feelings and pretended as if nothing had happened just to protect Weiyi.

And her mother, how much pain did she feel after knowing that Shi Yuting had met with an accident? How did she bear this blow?

They had hidden everything and protected her at all costs, not allowing her to be affected or hurt in the slightest.

Zuo Weiyi's heart throbbed the more she reflected.

Shi Nuannuan grew increasingly worried as Weiyi's eyes started to turn red.

“Sister-in-law, what...what's wrong with you?”

Tears blurred Zuo Weiyi's vision. She reached out and pulled Shi Nuannuan down towards the bed. Then, she hugged Nuannuan and closed her eyes as tears streamed down her face..

"Nuannuan..."

Her voice was choked with sobs, and her body began to tremble.

Shi Nuannuan was shocked and did not understand what had happened to her all of a sudden.

"Sister-in-law, what...what happened to you?"

As she asked, she started to feel uneasy. Could it be that Sister-in-Law knew?

As she was thinking, she suddenly caught a glimpse of the remote control on the bed. Her eyes widened in shock and her face turned pale in an instant!

She had clearly hidden the remote control in the drawer with her mommy last time. Why did it appear on the bed?

And from the looks of it, Sister-in-Law had obviously touched the remote control just now. Could it be...?

"Sister-in-Law, did...did you watch TV?"

"I'm sorry, Nuannuan...you were clearly in so much pain, but you still had to protect me..." Zuo Weiyi choked on her sobs and could not speak.

How did Nuannuan, her mother and grandfather survive these past few days?

With just one sentence, all of Shi Nuannuan's pretenses disintegrated and her heart throbbed in pain..

She pushed her away, her vision already blurred with tears. "You...you already knew?"

Zuo Weiyi nodded, her eyes already red and swollen from crying.

For some reason, knowing that Weiyi already knew the truth, Shi Nuannuan's tears flowed even more fiercely.

Other than her brother and sister-in-law, no one knew that she liked Xiangyi, and no one understood the heavy blow that this accident had brought her.

In order to protect her sister-in-law, she could not cry or reveal her feelings. She could only bury her feelings in the bottom of her heart. Only when there was no one else at night could she hide under the blanket and cry secretly.
