

Kiss Me 861

Chapter 861: Full Moon Celebration (8)

Jing Xinlei?! Why was she here?

She looked at Mo Mo and Lian Lian next to Xinlei and Weiyi immediately felt her heart tighten.

The previous scene of Jing Xinlei holding a knife at her flashed through her mind!

Her heart felt like it was being pulled to the edge of her throat. Her expression changed drastically as she dashed towards Jing Xinlei and pushed her out of the crib with all her might.

She immediately shouted. "What are you doing to my children?!"

Perhaps it was because she used too much strength, or perhaps Jing Xinlei was a little dazed for a moment, but she was completely caught off guard and immediately fell hard to the floor.

Zuo Weiyi looked at her warily as she protected the two babies behind her.

Jing Xinlei had accidentally sprained her foot, causing her to be in some pain.

She struggled to stand up from the ground as the pain from her ankle caused her to frown.

"Jing Xinlei, why? I've already spared your life. Why are you still scheming to kill my children?" At this moment, Zuo Weiyi's heart was filled with hatred. Only then did she realize that a person like her would never be able to turn over a new leaf!

Even as she struggled to stand, Jing Xinlei still returned Weiyi's remarks with a cold smile.

"Kill?"

"Then what were you planning to do to my children just now?" From what Zuo Weiyi could see, it was as if she was stretching out her hands to strangle her children to death.

Jing Xinlei didn't say anything. She merely glanced at her, then turned to leave.

"Stop!" Zuo Weiyi shouted at her sternly.

Xinlei stopped and turned to look at Zuo Weiyi.

Zuo Weiyi clenched her fists tightly. Although she felt a little pity for Zhong Shenghao, she couldn't risk her children.

She had told him to keep an eye on Jing Xinlei, so why was she here? She almost hurt her babies!

No, she couldn't let her go. Even if she didn't kill her, she had to let her go to the first prison like last time!

At this moment, a nanny walked in.

Zuo Weiyi rarely got angry at maids, but when she thought about how Jing Xinlei had almost hurt her babies, she couldn't help but feel anxious!

She said to the nanny, "Where did you go? How could you leave the babies here alone?"

The nanny was a little confused by her sudden words. Since entering Shi Mansion for more than a month, the Young Madam had always been gentle and kind. She would never get angry at a servant. The nanny had to leave the babies earlier because she had forgotten to bring the young master's bottle over.

The other nanny had left, and just when she was at a loss for what to do.. a young lady suddenly came in.

At that time, she was feeding the young lady's milk, and the young master had been crying and making a fuss. She was worried about what to do, but who knew that the young lady who had just come in would suddenly pick up the young master, and then hold him and gently coax him? In fact, the young master stopped crying immediately!

She had just finished feeding the young lady's milk, and she couldn't wait to go to the bathroom to wash the bottle, preparing to feed the young master next.

However, afraid of the Young Master and Young Madam's anger, the nanny naturally became scared to admit her mistake and even knelt down directly!

Chapter 862: Full Moon Celebration (9)

Although the young madam had always been gentle, if Mr. Shi were to find out about this, she might not be able to survive!

"I'm sorry, Young Madam! It's because...I forgot to bring Mo Mo's bottle over. So I... I went to wash Lian Lian's bottle to be used again, so..."

This was the 30th floor, and there were security guards inside and outside. Those who entered were all distinguished guests invited by the Shi family. Without an invitation, they could not enter at all. Therefore, she did not expect that there would be bad people entering this place, waiting for an opportunity to harm the baby.

"I'm sorry, Young Madam. I won't do it again!"

The nanny kept apologizing, but at the same time, she couldn't help but look at the young lady in a long gown. Could it be that this young lady was a bad person?

She had clearly helped her to pacify the baby, and she seemed to like children very much. In fact, when she saw Mo Mo, she couldn't help but smile, and there was no trace of malice on her face.

However, the young madam suddenly became so angry. Could it be that this Miss had done something to the children?

"So, you also get angry at servants." Jing Xinlei remarked at Zuo Weiyi with a faint smile. "I thought you were the so-called Holy Mother who never knew how to get angry."

Zuo Weiyi ignored her comment. "What did you do to my children just now?"

Jing Xinlei stood back up with a cold face. "Nothing."

Zuo Weiyi frowned. The image of her assassinating her flashed in her mind again.

Nothing? Was that possible?

She turned to look at her babies in the crib. Lian Lian was already asleep while Mo Mo opened his beautiful eyes and admired the room curiously. There was nothing unusual on his face.

Did she really do nothing?

Zuo Weiyi calmed herself down and looked at the nanny still kneeling on the ground.

She calmly said to the nanny, "Get up."

The nanny raised her head and after making sure that the anger on Weiyi's face had disappeared, she slowly stood up.

"Next time, don't leave my children alone in the room. What if a bad person came in?" Mo Mo and Lian Lian were her entire world. The thought of them disappearing from her side made her feel uneasy, as if her life would be worse than death.

The nanny nodded, "I know. The twins woke up crying when Ah Xiu left but I could only attend to one at a time. Then this young miss happened to come in at the time and said that she was your friend before helping to coax the young master. By the time I had fed Lian Lian milk, the Mo Mo also stopped crying. Then I went to the bathroom to wash the bottle so that I can use it to feed Mo Mo."

Zuo Weiyi had come in while the nanny was away so she didn't know what had happened during that period of time.

Zuo Weiyi looked back at Jing Xinlei.

Jing Xinlei had always been on bad terms with Weiyi. But now that she had calmed down, she realized that Jing Xinlei's face did not seem to have the hatred of the past. There was only coldness and indifference, as if everything had nothing to do with her.

The once ruthless Jing Xinlei had always hated her to the bone—she wanted nothing more than to get rid of her. But today, she had come all the way to see her children, and yet she did nothing. Was this possible?

Chapter 863: Full Moon Celebration (10)

Zuo Weiyi found it hard to believe that she hadn't done anything to the children.

Jing Xinlei remained composed, with neither a hint of malice nor arrogance.

"How did you get here?"

Zhong Shenghao had come alone and didn't seem to have brought her along. So how did she get in?

Everyone who came here needed an invitation letter. Even the business celebrities who brought their female companions were given double copies. No one could enter without showing an invitation letter, and the Shi family didn't give an extra one. Each invitation letter was specific to each attending guest for the very reason of preventing random people from sneaking in.

The only exception would be Old Man Cheng's grandson, Cheng Huan, which was only possible because Shi Le himself invited the boy personally. But this couldn't have been the case for Jing Xinlei.

Jing Xinlei continued to remain silent, obviously unwilling to answer Zuo Weiyi.

Since she didn't want to say, Zuo Weiyi didn't bother to ask any more.

"You really didn't do anything to my children? Then what's your purpose of sneaking in here?"

Jing Xinlei looked up at Zuo Weiyi. "If you don't believe me, you can ask Zhong Shenghao to come take a look at them."

Zuo Weiyi couldn't help but frown.

Yes, if she wanted to confirm whether the babies were alright, she could ask Zhong Shenghao.

Just as she was thinking, she heard footsteps coming from the other side of the door.

"You brat, your life is really complete now. Not only are you successful and famous, but you also have a beautiful and virtuous wife along with a pair of children. Why am I so miserable?" Zuo Weiyi and Jing Xinlei turned their heads toward the door when they heard Zhong Shenghao's voice.

The banquet was about to begin. Knowing that Shi Yuting had come to the lounge to call for Weiyi, Zhong Shenghao followed him since he wanted to see the babies too.

The two men had just entered the lounge when they saw Jing Xinlei in a gown.

The moment he saw her, Shi Yuting's eyes turned cold.

Zhong Shenghao's eyes widened in shock as he asked in disbelief, "Xinlei? Why are you here?!"

Shi Yuting quickly looked at Zuo Weiyi and the children. After making sure that they were unharmed, his heart temporarily calmed down, but the coldness in his cold eyes remained threatening.

Upon seeing Zhong Shenghao, Weiyi quickly rushed to pull him over anxiously. "Shenghao, can you please check on the children to make sure they're OK?"

Jing Xinlei used to be so evil, making it difficult for Weiyi to believe her.

As soon as she said this, Shi Yuting suddenly seemed to have realized something. He rushed to Jing Xinlei and grabbed her neck without any hesitation. His eyes were bloodshot and full of killing intent!

Jing Xinlei felt as if her breath was taken away in an instant. Her face quickly turned red from the pain and she couldn't make a sound.

She tried to pry Shi Yuting's hand away.

Zhong Shenghao heard the commotion and quickly turned around, only to see a soul-stirring scene in front of him!

"Xinlei!"

He rushed over and was about to stop Shi Yuting, but it was already too late.

Chapter 864: Full Moon Celebration (11)

Zuo Weiyi also turned around. When she saw the scene, she could not help, her eyes couldn't help but widen in disbelief.

Shi Yuting's slender fingers gradually tightened. He had no intention of letting go at all. His sharp eyes wished that he could tear Jing Xinlei into a thousand pieces!

Jing Xinlei struggled, but it was futile!

"Ting, let her go!" Zhong Shenghao grew extremely anxious as he reached out to Yuting. He tried to pry away the hand that was strangling her neck, but Shi Yuting completely ignored his existence.

His eyes remained cold and filled with killing intent. He forced each word out through clenched teeth. "You should have remember what I said."

Zuo Weiyi stood stunned on the sidelines, at a lost as to what to do.

"Ting, I beg you, let her go!" Zhong Shenghao was so anxious that his heart was burning. He only wanted to protect the woman in front of him.

However, he just couldn't understand why, after everything that had been said and done, she was still so persistent to harm Weiyi and her children. Why could she not change her nature?

He loved her, but also hated her, especially that side of her! Why couldn't she just quietly stay away?

At that moment, Jing Xinlei seemed to want to speak, but gradually-tightening grip prevented her from emitting any sounds.

Shi Yuting's fingers continued to tighten, and his arms gradually lifted up. In an instant, Jing Xinlei felt her feet leave the ground, and her breathing became even more restricted.

She struggled in pain. The suffocation made her feel like she was on the verge of death!

Zhong Shenghao looked at the change in color on Xinlei's face and knew that she was going to die in front of him in the next second.

He clenched his fists, knowing that Ting would not let her off today.

And how could he just watch the woman he loved die in front of him?

Helpless, he clenched his fists and swung them at Shi Yuting's face!

Zuo Weiyi snapped out of her daze when she saw the escalating situation. "Be caref—!"

Before she could finish, Shi Yuting managed to catch Zhong Shenghao's fist with his other hand!

He turned to look at Zhong Shenghao. "You're going to turn against me for this woman?"

Zhong Shenghao's black eyes emitted a hint of pain. But it was his heart that was suffering!

He was in a dilemma. On the left was his sworn brother, but on the right was the woman he had loved for 9 years.

"If this was Weiyi, and you were watching her die in the hands of your best friend, what would you do?"

His words struck a chord in Shi Yuting's heart as he looked into Shenghao's hurt eyes.

He didn't want to lose his best friend, but he just had to fall in love with this woman who had been scheming to kill his wife and son. What choice did he have?

"I gave her a chance once."

Zhong Shenghao nodded, his black eyes filled with pain. "I know you want to kill her, but what do you want me to do? Just stand there and watch you strangle her to death? Ting, if it were you, wouldn't you have done the same?"

Although Shi Yuting couldn't bear to see his best friend in pain, he had no plans of letting Jing Xinlei go.

Why did the two of them had to be tortured so by this woman?

His looked back at Jing Xinlei's face, which had turned slightly blue, and his fingers tightened again.

Zhong Shenghao withdrew his fist and attacked again!

At this moment, Xiangyi and Nuannuan arrived.

Xiangyi intercepted as fast as lightning as he stopped Zhong Shenghao's attack!

He needed to, otherwise Shenghao might have really tried to kill Yuting!

Chapter 865: Full Moon Celebration (12)

Shi Nuannuan's eyes widened in shock when she saw the scene that greeted her the moment she entered!

"Jing Xinlei, why is it you again?! What are you trying to do this time?!" Shi Nuannuan had no sympathy for the dying Jing Xinlei at all. The last time she appeared in front of the two babies at the hospital suddenly flashed in her mind.

She could not help but say, "I knew it. You didn't have any good intentions when you were in the hospital last time. Jing Xinlei, why are you so stubborn?!"

Zuo Weiyi turned to Nuannuan in shock. "Nuannuan, what do you mean by 'last time'?"

Shi Nuannuan met Zuo Weiyi's shocked face and angrily said, "The last time you were in the hospital, she also came to the hospital and went to the babies' room. If I didn't see it in time, she would have definitely harm the baby!"

As expected, since she didn't succeed the last time she wanted to act again!

However, a month had passed, and the babies didn't show any abnormalities. Did she not do anything at all, or was it because Nuannuan arrived in time that she couldn't act in time?

Her gaze returned to Jing Xinlei again before she turned to Shi Yuting. The anger on his face was clearly visible. He was determined to strangle Jing Xinlei to death. At this moment, even if she rushed over, she might not be able to stop his determination.

With so much to digest, Zuo Weiyi's vision suddenly went black. She collapsed to the ground and lost consciousness.

Shi Nuannuan saw what happened and cried out in surprise as she rushed over. "Sister-in-Law!"

Shi Yuting also saw Weiyi collapse and his heart tightened. He suddenly let go of Jing Xinlei and rushed to Zuo Weiyi's side!

"Weiyi?" His voice trembled as his eyes focused on the love of his life.

Zhong Shenghao was also shocked beyond words by what he witnessed. Could it be that Xinlei did something to Weiyi when they were not here?

He looked back at Jing Xinlei as she collapsed to the ground and breathed in the hard-earned air hastily. It was as if she had come back from the dead.

Zhong Shenghao felt a flash of gratitude in his heart, but he was also heartbroken.

As a doctor, he had forgotten to check on Zuo Weiyi's condition. Instead, he broke free from Xiangyi's control and walked slowly to Jing Xinlei. He looked at her fixedly with his heartbroken eyes.

He grabbed her shoulders as he screamed in pain, "Why? Why can't you change your nature?! Why do you always want to kill others? Why can't you just stay by my side quietly?! Jing Xinlei, can you open your eyes and look at me? Is there only hatred in you?!"

Why couldn't she just let go of all her hatred and jealousy?

Jing Xinlei was momentarily out of breath, trying her best to find a sense of balance as Shenghao grabbed and shook her. Her heart started to hurt.

She looked up at him and said with difficulty, "I... I didn't do anything."

For the first time, he didn't want to believe her, so he asked in pain, "You didn't do anything? Then tell me what happened to Weiyi?!"

Jing Xinlei felt as if her chest was being pricked by needles. She had never felt such pain before.

Chapter 866: Full Moon Celebration (13)

However, before she could say anything, a force suddenly lifted her up and threw her to the side. She crashed heavily into a cabinet, and her forehead hit a corner of the cabinet. Blood instantly oozed out.

Zhong Shenghao could only watch in shock as Jing Xinlei was sent flying. It all happened too quickly!

"Shi Yuting!"

Just as Shi Yuting was about to attack Jing Xinlei again, Zuo Weiyi suddenly woke up and shouted at Shi Yuting.

Shi Yuting and Zhong Shenghao both turned their heads and saw her standing up safely from the ground. Everyone was stunned.

Jing Xinlei slowly started to get back up, also a little stunned when she saw Weiyi regain consciousness.

Weiyi actually fainted earlier to distract Yuting. But instead, it had backfired and only infuriated him even more.

She walked over Shi Yuting, "I'm fine. Calm down. She..." she paused as she looked at Jing Xinlei, "She really didn't do anything."

For some reason, Zuo Weiyi felt a little guilty when she saw Jing Xinlei, whose forehead was bleeding. However, on second thought, it was worth her life.

With Shi Yuting's anger just now, he might really have strangled her to death on the spot!

Shi Yuting was a little surprised to see Weiyi recover so quickly. Then, he glanced at Jing Xinlei.

Nothing? Then why did she ask Zhong Shenghao to look after the children just now?

Zuo Weiyi turned her gaze to Zhong Shenghao. "Now, can you please take a look at the children?"

If the children were truly fine, then it meant that Jing Xinlei was telling the truth.

Based on her behavior, she didn't seem to have any hostility anymore. Although Jing Xinlei still acted coldly towards her, she really couldn't feel the hostility from before.

And now that she thought about it, Jing Xinlei was so close to the babies. She had the chance to use the them to threaten her, but she didn't. If this was in the past, she would have definitely used the babies to threaten her!

Zhong Shenghao let go of Jing Xinlei and slowly stood up.

He only hoped that the babies were really fine. Only then would Ting let go of Xinlei.

He walked to the crib and carefully looked at the two babies. From the surface, there was indeed nothing unusual.

Then, he held Mo Mo and Lian Lian's small hands and checked the two babies' pulse. There was nothing unusual.

"So?"

Zuo Weiyi, who was standing next to him, couldn't help but ask when she saw that he seemed to be taking their pulse.

Zhong Shenghao put down the babies' hands and looked at Zuo Weiyi. "I don't sense anything unusual here, but if you're worried, you'd better go to the hospital for a comprehensive check-up."

Upon hearing this, Zuo Weiyi turned to Jing Xinlei who was sitting on the ground.

"No need." Her intuition told her that Jing Xinlei probably didn't do anything.

"Sister-in-Law!" Shi Nuannuan was still worried as she felt that her sister-in-law was too trusting.

Who knew if Jing Xinlei was playing some other tricks?

"Take her to the hospital."

After taking a look at Jing xinlei, Zuo Weiyi said to Zhong Shenghao.

Her words surprised everyone in the room.

Was she going to let Jing Xinlei go just like that?

Even Shi Yuting couldn't help but stare at her—he was surprised by her words.

Chapter 867: Full Moon Celebration (14)

But Zhong Shenghao still didn't make a move, and Weiyi grew worried. If she didn't leave soon, Weiyi was afraid Shi Yuting would really do something to Xinlei.

She looked back at Zhong Shenghao and noticed his extremely shocked eyes.

Zhong Shenghao finally came back to his senses. He saw Weiyi's gaze on him, then looked at Shi Yuting who was staring at her. Finally, he turned around and looked at Jing Xinlei who was in a sorry state on the ground. He quickly walked over, he picked her up and walked toward the door.

As there were many people in the hall, he could only carry her down the stairs to the 29th floor and then take the elevator to leave the hotel.

"Did you pretend to faint just now just to save her?" After Zhong Shenghao and Jing Xinlei left, Shi Yuting finally asked Weiyi.

Zuo Weiyi's eyes left the babies and looked towards Shi Yuting. "I was afraid that you would really strangle her to death."

"You don't want her to die?"

Zuo Weiyi looked up again and met his unfathomable black eyes. "Last time, if I didn't know that Zhong Shenghao liked her, I probably wouldn't have pleaded for her at all."

She was grateful to Zhong Shenghao—he was really a good person.

And it was the same today. His painful and desperate look was just like that time when she helplessly watched her mother die in front of her. Such a painful experience was not new to her.

If she could spare Jing Xinlei the last time, and she didn't do anything to the children this time, then there was no need to kill her now.

"Why aren't you all coming out?"

At this moment, Shen Lanzhi walked through the door and saw all of them just standing there.

Her arrival broke the somewhat tense atmosphere.

"The banquet has begun. Your grandfather is still waiting for you to take a seat. Hurry up and go," Shen Lanzhi continued after looking at everyone. She then walked to the crib and saw that Lian Lian was already asleep, but Mo Mo was still staring at her with his beautiful black eyes, Hence, she carried him up.

"Our little baby protagonist today will be going out with Grandma."

Shen Lanzhi didn't notice what had happened here before, so she carried her grandson and walked out cluelessly.

Zuo Weiyi turned around and glanced at the nanny. "Take good care of Lian Lian. If she wakes up, bring her out to me."

"Yes."

The rest of them left the lounge.

At 7:40 pm, they entered the banquet. The guests expressed their sincere congratulations to the two little babies and Shi Yuting's family.

At 9 pm, the full moon celebration came to a successful conclusion amidst the greeting crowd. Although there was a small accident that no one knew about, Zuo Weiyi was still happy.

That's right, she married a husband who loved her, doted on her, and spoiled her. She gave birth to a pair of beautiful and cute children. She was truly very happy.

When she returned home, it was already 9:28 pm and the two little protagonists were already sleeping soundly.

After sending the children to the nursery, Zuo Weiyi reluctantly returned to her room, took a shower, and went to bed.

As her abstinence had ended, Shi Yuting already had many things planned/

He made a decision, an important decision that he did not want Zuo Weiyi to worry about him anymore!

It was already late at night by the time he left the study and went into the bedroom. Zuo Weiyi, who could not wait for him, had already fallen asleep peacefully.

Early in the morning the next day, Shi Yuting had just eaten breakfast. Even on weekends, he seemed to have a lot of work to do. After breakfast, he went to the study room.

Chapter 868: Shi Yuting's Decision (1)

As he had been away for too long, Zuo Yi had been helping him with the matters in C Country. He had to catch up with work before he could take over properly.

Zuo Yi had just returned from C Country the night before so he could not help but come to Shi Mansion to see his two greatgrandchildren the morning after.

"Grandpa, have some tea."

After seeing the babies in the nursery, Zuo Yi did not stay any longer as they were still sleeping. He went downstairs and Zuo Weiyi poured him a cup of tea from the kitchen, knowing that he liked to drink tea.

After settling some important matters, Shi Yuting also went downstairs after knowing that Zuo Yi had arrived. There were some matters that he wanted to discuss with him.

In the afternoon, Zuo Weiyi sat on the sofa and thought about a lot of things.

As the president of C Country, Shi Yuting could not stay in Z Country forever. After thinking about it, she decided to go back to C Country and settle down with him. After all, that was their homeland.

She should be with her husband wherever he is after all. Moreover, she was married to a great president.

Their entire family had come to Z Country for her. Every time she thought about it, she could not help but feel a little guilty.

However, after what had happened last time, she was still a little worried. As long as Shi Yuting was the president, even for one day, it meant that he would have to travel all over the country, or even the whole world. In other words, spending more and more days away from her would become inevitable.

She was really worried that the same thing as last time would happen again. She didn't think she would be able to bear it if there was a next time.

But what could she do? As the president, he had to be there for his people. What he cared about was no longer just her, but the people of the country as well.

She could not be selfish. In order to not let herself be afraid, she tied him to her side and did not leave her sight.

After lunch, Shi Le and Zuo Yi went out to relax and fish. Shen Lanzhi was a little tired, so she went upstairs to rest.

At this moment, in the living room, other than Shi Nuannuan who was still watching television, there were only the two of them.

Zuo Weiyi stared at the TV screen and suddenly called out to him softly as she leaned on his arm.

"Ting."

It was rare for Shi Yuting to have free time, so he decided to sit on the sofa and watch a TV series that Nuannuan had introduced to him. After watching for a while, he became disinterested.

"Hmm?" He looked down at him when he heard her voice.

"Well, about what I mentioned to you last time, what do you think about going back to C Country to settle down?" asked she as she sat up straight.

Shi Yuting recalled the suggestion she had mentioned last time.

Then, he smiled faintly and raised his hand to pinch her chin. "No need."

Zuo Weiyi paused.

No need?

"Why?"

"Since you like it here, we'll settle down here."

His words warmed Zuo Weiyi's heart. However, just because this was her hometown, it seemed a little too selfish to have her whole family stay here with her.

Although her grandfather and mother-in-law didn't say anything, she didn't know what they were thinking.

"I do like this place, but as the president, you can't always deal with things over there from here, can you?" Although technology was advanced now and there were video conferences, but he couldn't stay here forever. As the president, how could he do as he pleased?

After what happened last time, she also learned that some members and representatives had already expressed their opinions. They just dared to complain but did not dare to speak up.

She was worried that if this went on, Shi Yuting would lose the hearts of the people.

"Don't worry, I'm already dealing with it right now." He pulled her into his arms lovingly and hugged her. "But in a few days, I do plan to return to C Country."

Chapter 869: Shi Yuting's Decision (2)

Upon hearing this, Zuo Weiyi could not help but bounce up from his chest. With a serious expression, she asked, "Are you going to find Shi Tiannan?"

Shi Nuannuan also heard Zuo Weiyi's words and turned to look at Shi Yuting.

"Brother, are you... are you going back to C Country again?"

If he left, didn't that mean that Xiangyi would also have to go with him? His wounds were still recovering...

However, at the same time, she was also a little worried about her brother. After all, Shi Tiannan's current situation was still unknown to them. His ability to directly destroy her brother's private jet made them realize that he could not be underestimated.

If Yuting insisted on going after Shi Tiannan, it was as if he was getting out of the frying pan and leaping into the fire.

Shi Yuting casually looked at Shi Nuannuan. "Yes."

"Must you go?" Zuo Weiyi was very worried.

The incident from last time was still vivid in her mind. She did not want to relive that kind of heartbreaking feeling.

Shi Yuting met her worried eyes. The decision in his heart became even firmer.

He stroked her soft, wavy hair, as if he was comforting her. "Don't worry. This time, I won't let you worry again."

Despite what he said, the worry in Zuo Weiyi's heart could not be dissolved so easily. She thought for a moment and made a decision.

“Then bring me along too.” It seemed that the only way for her to feel assured is if she was able to see him every second of every day.

Shi Yuting could not help but stare at her in surprise.

When Shi Nuannuan heard Weiyi’s declaration, she could not help but blurt out, “Then I’ll go too!”

Shi Yuting casted a dark look at her. “Do you think this is a holiday?”

Shi Nuannuan was stunned by his words and immediately lowered her head. She pouted her lips and muttered softly, “Even if it’s not for you, it can be just for Weiyi and I...”

She thought that if her sister-in-law went, she could also go with her so that she could go on dates with Xiangyi!

“You want to go?” Shi Yuting turned back to Weiyi.

Zuo Weiyi nodded. “Yes.”

“What about the children? Can you leave them?”

Hearing this, she could not help but be stunned.

That’s right, she could not just leave the children.

Although she really wanted to go to C Country with him, she could not leave the children. Right now, if she did not see the babies for more than an hour, she would not be able to resist the urge to go and see them. If she went to C Country, wouldn’t that mean she would not be able to see them for an even longer period of time? She definitely would not be able to stand it.

Thinking of this, she became a little hesitant again.

With this hesitation, Shi Nuannuan’s hopes were dashed.

Since her sister-in-law could not go, her brother would definitely not let her go!

He rubbed her fair and delicate cheeks with his thumb. “Don’t worry. After what happened last time, I will definitely be more careful this time. I will definitely not let Shi Tiannan have a chance to take advantage of us.”

Zuo Weiyi lowered her head. Perhaps this time, he would indeed be more careful against Shi Tiannan.

She just could not wrap her head around Shi Tiannan.

Although they were not related by blood, the Shi family had raised him. Even if they did not have any kinship, they still had a bond, didn’t they? Moreover, the Shi family had never mistreated him. Why did he plan to kill Shi Yuting?

“What is Shi Tiannan thinking?” She lowered her head and muttered to herself.

Shi Nuannuan looked annoyed as soon as she heard this name.

Chapter 870: A Sudden Downpour

Shi Tiannan had almost caused her brother and Xiangyi to never come back. How detestable!

“What else is there to think? He was originally the eldest young master of the Shi family, but in the end, he was driven out of the Shi family. So he’s just holding a grudge.”

“But it wasn’t your brother who tried to drive him out. Why would he still want to kill Yuting?” Zuo Weiyi wondered.

Shi Nuannuan fell back into thought again. What Weiyi said was true too.

“That might be because he is not related to our family by blood.” Other than that, she could not think of anything else.

Was he really going to kill Shi Yuting just because of that? Was it necessary?

“Alright, don’t think too much.” Shi Yuting stood up. He only had a short amount of free time since he still had a lot to deal with upon his return.

He picked Weiyi up from the sofa and completely ignored Shi Nuannuan as if she was invisible.

“Time to go upstairs and rest for a while.” Looking at the person in his arms, the corners of his lips curled up into a charming smile. It was sexy and full of temptation, making it easy for people to get lost in it.

Shi Yuting pretended that Nuannuan didn’t exist, but Zuo Weiyi couldn’t.

“Don’t be like this, put me down.”

She struggled to get out, but Shi Yuting did not give her the chance. He carried her straight to the second floor.

Shi Nuannuan bit her lower lip with a face full of envy as she watched the loving couple walk away.

She turned her head and looked at the phone on the coffee table.

Because Xiangyi had just been discharged from the hospital, her brother had not given him any tasks. Now that Mommy was on her lunch break and her grandfather had gone out, could she go look for Xiangyi then?

Thinking of this, her lips curled into a smile. She picked up her phone and car keys before quickly rushed to the main entrance!

The autumn rain was continuous. Even though she had added a coat, Shi Nuannuan still felt a little cold after getting out of the car.

She raised her head to look at the gloomy sky. Suddenly, the drizzle turned into a downpour, catching her off guard!

“F*ck! Does this day have to be so miserable?!” She could not help but swear. It was not easy to find a parking space, but the rain turned heavier as soon as she got out of the car!

She turned around blindly, trying to find a sense of direction.

Because she had only been here once, she felt a little lost in such a large apartment block.

She remembered that Xiangyi lived in Block C. but where was Block C?

Despite the torrential rain, Shi Nuannuan raised a hand above her head to shelter herself and get a clearer vision. However, it did not seem to have any effect.

But upon looking up again, she realized that Block C was just right in front of her. She was secretly delighted and rushed over despite the heavy rain.

When she reached the elevator, her entire body had been drenched.

She originally wanted to see Xiangyi, but she did not expect to be drenched like a drowned rat.

Her face darkened. She raised her head and stared at the sky outside. She said angrily, "So what if it rains?!"

After cursing, she felt much better. Only then did she turn around and walk to the elevator, pressing the button.

The moment she entered the elevator and the door was about to close, a hand suddenly blocked it.

After the man walked in, Shi Nuannuan reached out again and pressed the button to close the door.

She quietly waited for the elevator to reach the floor where Xiangyi was. All of a sudden, Shi Nuannuan noticed that there seemed to be a pair of burning eyes staring at her from the side.

She frowned and slowly turned her head, only to find that the man who had just entered was staring at her creepily.
