When the World's Billionaires Come Knocking by J.M.J Chapter 47

Chapter 47 Purchasing the Building

Greyson booked a room and immediately told Rebecca the room number.

Rebecca arrived in just ten minutes.

The two of them embraced each other as soon as they met.

Without saying a word, they held each other tightly.

Rebecca stuck to Greyson like a little pet.

The two of them hugged for more than ten minutes, and Greyson carried her to the sofa.

At that time, it is estimated that neither of them had any bad intentions, they just wanted to hold each other tightly for a while to alleviate the pain of longing.

"Greyson, did you miss me?"

After a long time, Rebecca finally looked up and touched Greyson's chin, asking.

"I missed you so much, so I hurriedly rushed over, okay?"

"Hmm!"

"I loved you!"

Rebecca smiled satisfactorily and pressed her face against Greyson's chest.

"What's wrong with your mother? You look so worried."

“Did she find out something about you?”

Greyson also didn't understand why, even though they were all grown-ups, their parents still kept such a close watch on them.

Mentioning her mother, Rebeeen looked displeased.

“I don't know what got into her, but he has been staring at me since the day we went on vacation.”

Greyson's heart skipped a beat, “Did she find out about what happened at school?”

Rebecca pondered for a moment and shook her head.

I didn't know.

Ah!

It seems that I still can't be high-profile. Who knows if the school matters have reached her ears.

“What did his mother do?”

Two people were cuddling together.

Rebecca talked about her family situation, and it was definitely a typical middle-class family.

Life passed without worries about clothing and food.

“Never mind, I couldn't be bothered to deal with her.”

“Know it if you know it!”

“I actually don't understand either. She has been quite busy lately. The current office space is too small, so she is planning to move.”

“I couldn’t find a better venue they still had the energy to manage me.”

Greyson’s mind stirred, “Where does she want to move to?”

“I don’t know, I guess they wanted to find a more upscale place.”

Rebecca lay in his arms.

What did Greyson think of at this moment?

The two of them cuddled in the hotel for over an hour, and this time Greyson was really honest,

He didn’t get hands-on like before, but instead, he kept holding her tightly.

Rebecca felt grounded and content.

It was almost noon, Rebecca said hesitantly, “I have to go back.”

“My mom was coming back to have dinner.”

“Hmm!”

Greyson hugged her and said, “Call me when you have free time.”

Rebecca nodded vigorously, wrapping her arms around Greyson’s neck, and gave him a kiss.

Two young people were inseparable and entangled with each other.

When a girl is in love, she becomes particularly clingy.

Greyson experienced this feeling for the first time.

After checking out, Rebecca sneaked out through the back door.

She returned home and sent another message to Greyson.

“I loved you

“You were mine.”

Greyson looked at his phone and smiled.

She was such a clingy little sprite.

At this moment, Paloma called, “Boss, are you coming back for dinner?”

“Come back!”

Greyson quickly returned to the apartment.

Paloma was wearing a small apron and cooking when she saw Greyson come in. Immediately, she handed him a pair of slippers.

“Did you go and do something bad?”

Seeing the mark on Greyson’s neck, Paloma felt slightly annoyed.

This guy didn’t eat his own good cabbage and went out to steal and eat

1. it.

Greyson naturally denied, “No, what nonsense are you talking about?”

“Not yet, there were red marks all over the neck.”

Paloma threw a towel over, “Go and see for yourself in the bathroom!”

Greyson walked into the bathroom and exclaimed, “Oh my god!”

I was too engrossed just now and didn’t pay attention.

I don’t know if Rebecca had it or not.

Greyson sent her a Line message, and Rebecca looked speechless.

He only responded with a pitiful expression.

It seems that I should be more careful next time, otherwise I will be discovered by her family sooner or later.

“Cough, cough...”

“Paloma, you went to do something in the afternoon.”

Greyson returned to the living room and said seriously.

Paloma sighed, “You speak.”

“Isn’t Novel Crossing a building? Go and buy it.”

“Ah??”

Paloma was confused, “Why do you want to buy a building?”

She knew this building, which was over fifty floors high. It was said that the developer had difficulty with capital turnover and was preparing to sell it as a whole.

There are not many buildings like this, who can bring it down?

She couldn’t understand why Greyson suddenly wanted to buy a building.

Greyson explained, “We couldn’t just stay here all the time, could we?”

“Buy it, then start a company. From now on, you will be Ms. Frazier.”

“You were in charge of everything in the company.”

“Of course, you were under my control.”

Patoma gave him a disdainful look and said, "Have you ever cared about others?"

In this regard, she was somewhat resentful.

The meal was ready, and the two of them finished eating. In the afternoon, Paloma went to handle some matters.

Greyson opened the stock trading software to check the stock market situation

The long-term stocks in Wugu have all experienced significant increases, with an average profit of 30%.

The total amount of funds in the account now was over 3.64 billion.

I took another look at the future trends of these five stocks and sold off one of the weak ones to cash out.

Because once the deal with Paloma is finalized, a large amount of funds will be required.

However, it is estimated that her negotiation did not happen so quickly.

Temple Real Estate headquarters received a special guest at their office building.

The manager of the Ministry of Commerce was also a woman, around thirty-six or thirty-seven years old, and she was very beautiful.

I heard that someone wanted to buy the Novel Crossing building, and she personally received this guest.

But when she saw the other person, she was also shocked. The other peram was younger and more beaut

than her

Looking at the other person's well-dressed professional attire, Laura couldn't figure out the other person's background for a moment

"I am Laura Peck from the Business Department of Temple Real Estate May Lask how should I address you?"

Paloma stood up and shook hands with Laura.

In the past, she must have envied executives like Laura in big companies

But now she has completely lost this idea.

At this moment, she was a guest of Temple Real Estate.

Paloma explained her intention, and Laura asked in surprise, "What kind of payment method are you planning to use?"

Paloma didn't care. "It doesn't matter whatever is convenient for you."

"Just make the deal faster, our boss doesn't like dragging things out."

"So you mean to say that you can pay in full?"

"Hmm!"

Laura stood up suddenly, as the company urgently needed a large amount of funds recently.

The chairman cashed out more than ten points from the stock market, indicating his preparation for taking on a major project.

After the news of Novel Crossing building being put up for sale was released, many interested individuals also inquired, but most of them couldn't come up with so much cash

Can the other party actually pay in full?

Laura contained her excitement and said, "Okay, I will consult with my superiors and try to provide the most favorable price."

She walked out of the meeting room and immediately called the chairman for consultation.

Kamden gave her an instruction, "You handle everything."

Laura knew it in her heart.

I immediately made a decision with Paloma as soon as I came back.

"The bottom price of our company was 480 million."

Paloma nodded and said, "No problem!"

Oh!

Did she really not bargain?

Laura was a little confused, did it just end like that?

Of course, the previous quotation was 650 million.

Later, a large amount of funds was needed for turnover, so 4.8 billion was provided.

The two parties reached an agreement like this, Paloma paid a deposit of ten million and signed the contract.

After third-party inspection, if there are no quality issues with the construction, the remaining payment will be made in full at once.
