

King of kings 1143–1144

1143

“Alright, let me bear the consequences alone, let’s prepare for surgery.”

A day later, Omi began the surgery.

Of course, before the surgery, the doctor extracted a number of meridians from Black Jiao’s body, and to Black Jiao, it was really just a few capillaries that didn’t have any effect at all, even if they wouldn’t regenerate, they wouldn’t affect Black Jiao any.

In this way, Omi’s operation to replace the meridians lasted for seven days.

Of course, it originally didn’t take that long, but it took extra time in order to be the best and most perfect.

After replacing the meridians, Omi didn’t stay in the ward, and went straight back to Wangjing on a flying ship, with thirty doctors going back with him, in case there was any need.

“Brother Chen, how are you feeling?” Little Fire asked.

Omi had a lot of duct tape wrapped around him at the moment, after all, he had changed his meridians and had openings all over his body.

“I don’t know right now, but I can start taking the Emperor Worm.”

Omi took out the bottle containing the emperor worms.

“Brother Chen, there are a total of eighteen Emperor Insects, you can eat one a day, and if it’s not enough, I’ll catch it again.” Remember the URL .kanshu8.net

Omi said, “When did the emperor insects become so abundant.”

“Brother Chen, the reason Emperor Insects are rare is because they are hard to catch, but in front of me, this problem doesn’t exist, I burrow into the rocks and I can catch as many Emperor Insects as I want, and if I really want to catch more, dozens of them can still be caught.”

“Alright, thank you.”

“Minister, then you rest well.”

In the blink of an eye, another week had passed.

The bandages on Omi's body could also be removed.

After the bandages were removed, Omi's wounds everywhere on his body were also healed, almost no traces could be seen, the doctors were envious, this was the difference between a strong man and an ordinary man, it seemed that the body of a strong man could not be measured against the body of an ordinary man, perhaps, in the body of a strong man, different blood types could be mixed together while an ordinary man could not.

Omi changed his clothes and recovered as before.

"Senior Tang, how are you feeling now?"

Omi shook his head, "It still feels the same as before."

"You can't feel the meridians?"

Omi closed his eyes and felt carefully, but, couldn't feel the meridians.

"Can't feel it."

The doctor sighed, "Senior Tang, so to speak, this surgery is a failure."

Omi smiled, "Don't worry, my intuition tells me that the surgery was a success, alright, thank you."

"You're welcome."

After that, Omi took one Emperor Worm every day.

Although Omi couldn't feel the meridians, Omi also didn't feel any discomfort, this was especially important, in Omi's medical concept, this meant that the surgery was successful, as to why he still couldn't feel the meridians, this was because, after all, the meridians weren't human, they didn't connect so easily, but the lack of rejection showed that there was hope to connect them.

Of course, it was estimated that the reason for the lack of rejection was related to the emperor insect, the emperor insect was the best treasure to repair the meridians, whether it was a human meridian or another creature's meridian, the emperor insect was the bridge to connect it.

After eighteen days, all of Omi's emperor worms had been eaten.

However, Omi still didn't feel the meridians.

Omi was a bit

Panic.

"Fuck, don't tell me I've really failed, right?" Omi secretly said.

At that moment, in his mind, a sudden flash of light came to Omi's mind, and Omi smiled, "Looks like I still need a little outside stimulation."

Thus, Omi opened the flying ship alone and flew deep into the sky, then Omi leapt down from the sky.

Omi's purpose in doing so was to stimulate his body to react and also be able to stimulate his meridians.

If he couldn't react in time, he would definitely fall to his death.

If he didn't want to fall to his death, only the meridians would function.

No one else knew about Omi doing this, so it would be impossible for anyone to save him.

Omi was also adventurous enough.

Omi's body was in the sky, falling faster and faster, and in the end, it had almost fallen to the ground.

"No more, if the meridians don't connect, I'm really going to fall to my death."

"Ahhhh." Omi shouted, seeing as he was getting closer and closer to the ground, the meridians weren't working, and his body would definitely fall into cookies.

Omi's mind suddenly thought of the scene where Mu Qianji was burned alive, and a boundless hatred sprang up from deep within.

"Ahhhh."

"Bang." Omi landed heavily on the ground, he was kneeling on one knee and braced his hands on the ground, the ground was also smashed out an utter.

Omi stood up violently, his feet bounced, and his entire body shot into the air, feeling full of power.

Yes, Omi's entire body erupted with an infinite amount of power under that hatred within him, which seemed to have rushed through a barrier, and then the meridians opened up.

"Hahaha, hahaha." Omi let out a maniacal laugh, he was finally no longer useless, his meridians were not just restored, they were simply enhanced a thousand times. If the previous meridians were a plastic pipe, then the current meridians were steel pipes. The feeling of being filled with power after clenching both fists was too good.

Omi landed on the ground again and practiced on the ground, every move was so powerful, Omi didn't say anything else, with the change of meridians, his martial arts skills were more than a level higher than before.

Coupled with Omi's self-created martial art, Endless, the strength was simply violent.

"Phew, very good, with the strength of my current meridians, even if I use Life Blood Hidden again, it probably won't even shatter that easily. However, Life Blood Crypt isn't a good thing, so don't use it if you can, and if I use it too much, it will slowly degrade even if I change to a stronger meridian. Moreover, Life Blood Cain is bound to put me in a coma, and I don't want to be in a coma again."

This truth Omi knew, even if he turned into a 'steel tube', if he didn't take good care of it and hurt it over and over again, even the strongest steel tube would crack.

Omi returned to Wangjing City and was flying back.

"Tzichen, your meridians?" When everyone saw Omi fly back, they were busy asking in surprise.

"Yes, my meridians are open, and Black Jiao's meridians have completely merged with my body." Omi said to everyone.

"Wow, so how do you feel now?"

Omi clenched his fist and smiled, "Absolutely powerful burst."

"Wow." Everyone was envious.

"Hahaha." Omi laughed, looked at Black Jiao and said, "Little Black, thank you."

"Come on, Brother Chen, don't be so sentimental."

"Okay, then, we're almost ready to return to the other world, my hatred is still unresolved." Omi said with a bite.

"At least you've got a sense of yourself now, a sense that, if you study it, it might be the martial arts."

"Uh-huh, I will." Xiaomeng nodded her head.

Omi said, "Xiao Meng, you shouldn't just focus on martial arts either."

"Alright, brother Omi, I know what you're trying to say, where do I have that aspect in mind right now."

"If you keep on simmering, you're getting old."

"I'm willing." Xiao Meng flew away.

Black Jiao flew up and said, "Brother Chenchen, why not such a beautiful girl?"

"Go on, go on, fuck your sister." Omi stared.

Black Jiao Dao: "Brother Chen, I don't understand this, for you human men, what a beautiful girl, if I were you, hurry up and get on, being let people waste their youth like this again."

: "Yes, Brother Chen, Xiao Meng will definitely let you fuck."

Omi didn't have a good mood: "Little fire, you also follow the black." The first website m.kanshu8.net

"The is the truth."

Omi said, "Xiao Meng is already by my side, the only friend status partner, do you want me, to fuck all my female friends?"

Little Fire Dao: "It seems like what Brother Chen said makes sense."

Black Jiao Dao: "Bullshit reasoning, brother minister this is because, there is no shortage of women, that's why he said so, he is not lacking, and he does not think about others for a moment, from the point of view of Xiao Meng, but Xiao Meng is very lacking oh."

"Roll."

Black Jiao flew away, and Little Fire followed him.

Omi was really speechless to these two guys.

However, Omi was thankful in his heart for them coming to him, this time, if it wasn't for them, then Omi would have died, because he was unconscious after casting Life Blood Hidden, if they didn't bring him back here, he would definitely be killed by those people from the Righteous Alliance. Moreover, Omi's meridians were still drawn from Little Black.

"Omi, what are you thinking about?" Xuan'er Li came up.

"Xuan'er, thinking about Little Black and Little Fire, hehe, why aren't you at martial arts practice today."

"Feeling a bottleneck, I'm now at the peak of the middle Unity Realm, it seems like I'm a bit stuck trying to get to the late Unity Realm again."

Omi smiled, "There's no rush, you're so young, you're only thirty-four to reach this level, you're already very genius, for this world, relax a little."

"Well, for this world it is, but for your world, I don't know, you honestly tell me, at this age and realm, what level am I at in your world?" Xuan'er Li asked

"Xuan'er, it's incomparable, because it hasn't been many years since your aptitude changed, and if you had been this talented since you were a child, then you would have, by now, reached the level of a genius quasi-clan master."

"Hehe, so that means we all have a chance to step into the Ancestor?"

Omi nodded, "I think so, all of you, with the talent you've shown so far, you can step into the clan."

"Mhmm, that's good, speaking of which, I really don't know how to thank Mu Qianji for changing so many of us, while she herself is."

Simran realized that she shouldn't mention Mu Qianji and was too busy stopping.

As expected, Omi's face darkened for a moment when he heard Mu Qianji's name.

"I'm sorry, I didn't mean it."

"It's fine, alright, go ahead and get busy, right, help me inform Xiang'er, Mei Qian, Samira, and Qi Xueyun to unify at the Raising Heart Hall at night."

"Uh, what for?"

"I'm not in the mood to talk about it right now, but come tonight."

"Oh, good."

That night, five first-class, stunning beauties gathered at the Raising Heart Palace.

In the afternoon, Omi ordered the maids to sew the triple quilt together and turn it into a large quilt.

When the five stunning beauties saw the big quilt, they seemed to realize something and blushed.

Qi Xueyun said, "I still have something to do, I'll go back first." Qi Xueyun wanted to escape.

Liona said, "I also have something else to do, I'm leaving first."

"Me too."

"Me too, Xuan'er, you can stay by yourself."

Omi shouted, "What's the noise, all of you, stop."

"Oh." Everyone blushed shamefacedly and stood still.

Omi said, "Since all of you are icy smart and know what I'm doing, I'll save the long-windedness, starting from today, every time I come back from now on, we'll all live together."

Xu Mei Qian said, "Omi, you'll be too crazy."

"Crazy, all of us, we've known each other for fifteen or sixteen years, what's there to be crazy about, this will also save my time, we can also cultivate our relationship."

Liona said, "Where did you get the idea, you would never have thought of something like this before."

"Hehe, to be honest, yes, I think it's quite reasonable, so I took it."

"Speechless."

"Alright, hehehe, it's rare for me to be so elegant tonight, don't spoil my fun, oh come, come, let's see who has a hotter body, hahaha."

That night, there was no need to say anything about Omi's Qi blessing, because, to say more would mean showing off.

Three days later, Omi took Black Jiao, Fire Demon Beast, and the three of them took a flying ship to the Thousand Mountain Tomb crossing point.

Of course, the fifty already made flying ships were also sent to Wangjing City, and Omi ordered them to be sent to Thousand Mountain Tomb in flying ships, with the flying ships following behind Omi.

: "Brother Chen, every time you come back, you have to toss so hard, spend a week, take a flying ship to the Thousand Mountain Tomb, can you move Wangjing City to the Thousand Mountain Tomb ah, it's much more convenient."

Omi said firmly, "No."

"Why?"

In case one day, a demon stumbles here, it would definitely be the most dangerous if it lived near the Thousand Hills Tomb, and besides, when my sect is built, I'll take the relatives here and rarely return in the future."

"Alright. Forget I said it."

A week later, Omi and the others arrived at the Thousand Mountains Tomb, those fifty flying machines, Omi and Little Fire, Little Black, made dozens of trips to and fro, bringing the flying machines over time and time again.

"Mum, I'm exhausted."

"Alright, thank you, for helping me bring over so many flying machines."

"Minister, fifty flying machines have been brought over, what should we do now with this many?"

"Don't worry, we'll just make a basket and tie it to Blackie, I'm sure Blackie won't mind."

"I'll go." Some white eyes from Blackie.

"Haha."

After that, Omi went to the trouble of having Little Black act as a porter, taking the flying machine up into the sky at once

Then, fly off in a certain direction.

"Where are we going now, Minister?"

Omi was in a bit of a trance, Mu Qianji was dead, it felt like life lacked so much motivation, but he had to move on, and the more he thought inside, the more ruthless he became.

"First, take the flying machine, take it to the Endless Gate, hide it, and then, go take revenge."
