Chapter 1261

"Alright, Youruo, let the group of old men cry, let's go play somewhere else." Omi led Youruo away, leaving the group of old men to cry out for the You ancestors in the main hall.

Omi brought Youruo to a quiet pavilion.

Youruo's heart was just a little shaken when Omi pressed Youruo against a pillar and kissed her wantonly until he released her after fifteen or sixteen minutes. Although she said on her lips that she didn't expect to get Omi, but now that she really got it, she was careful to take care of it for fear of losing it, and even her ancestral foundation could be used as a dowry. Although this was an act of defeat for her ancestors, to Omi, this was a woman who was willing to sacrifice everything for him, Omi looked into Youruo's eyes and said affectionately, "Thank you, Youruo."

"Brother Wind, I'm willing to give up everything for you."

"Silly."

"Hehehe." Youruo smiled and buried her head in Omi's body with deep affection, and with a few sweet words, she forgot all about it again.

After that, Omi and Mu stayed in Hundred Flowers Valley, Mu took care of the Hundred Flowers Valley disciples' reorganization himself, and Xiao Hei returned to the Endless Gate to report that the Endless Gate was ready for relocation.

Omi, on the other hand, threw everything to Mu Yihao to handle, he and Youruo, enjoying the time alone, before the Endless Gate completely settled in Hundred Blossom Valley, Omi must first stabilize Youruo, in case she suddenly reneged, so Omi was with her every moment, while Youruo enjoyed Omi's tenderness, already polished everything, what ancestral foundation, might as well be happy with the lover for one night.

Three days later, in the back of the Hundred Flowers Valley, a quiet sea of flowers, amidst a large sea of colorful flowers, there is a cluster of flowers is shaking, under the flowers as if someone is doing something, a few minutes later, Omi and Youruo in that cluster of flowers to look up. Omi exhaled deeply and laughed, then lay back down in the flowers, Youruo's face flushed with infinite shyness.

These days, Youruo almost made up for all the missing passion over the years, the more you can't leave Omi.

For a long time, Youruo lay down on Omi's body and asked Nan Nan, "After we are like this, will I give birth to a child?" First web site m . kanshu8.net

"Sure."

"So, when then?"

"I don't know about that, let's see if it's a hit or not."

"A hit?"

"Oh, it's hard to explain, but one day, you'll get pregnant."

"Hmm."

"Alright, Youruo, let's go back to the Hundred Flowers Valley and see how things are going with Muyoung."

"Good."

Omi and Youruo returned to the Hundred Blossoms Valley.

"Uncle Yuyao, how's the matter of the Hundred Blossom Valley disciple's identity reformation being handled?"

"Don't worry, it'll be dealt with soon, the opposition was strong at first, but after my persuasion, there's almost no opposition now, even the dozen or so Hundred Blossom Valley Assistant Elders are mostly willing to continue delaying the Endless Gate."

"Very well, hard work, Uncle Easy."

"Haha, just keep your woman company, you don't need to worry about these things."

"Of course, I've been accompanying her well these past few days."

"You kid, Cleopatra is really good, I really don't know if you were a monk in your last life."

"You're the monk."

Omi and Muyoung flirted a bit, then went back to Youruo's boudoir to find her.

And at this time, at the Endless Gate, it was also done

Having prepared for the migration, the tens of thousands of disciples of the Endless Gate were evacuating the island in an orderly manner before landing and heading towards the Hundred Flowers Valley.

About a month later, the Endless Gate's army successfully migrated to Hundred Blossoms Gate, tens of thousands of men and horses, like an army.

The Hundred Blossom Valley had already done a good job of receiving and settling in, and the Hundred Blossom Valley had even built many new houses on another mountain in preparation for the Endless Gate's arrival.

In this way, it took more than a month before and after, the relocation work of the Endless Gate was completely completed.

Since then, the Endless Gate began to formally settle down in the Hundred Flowers Valley.

Omi also sent out a wide range of Jianghu stickers, inviting the entire Jianghu sect, including the Devil Sect, to attend the opening ceremony of the Endless Gate next month.

Because of Omi's fame, many people came to celebrate the opening ceremony, even Bony Old Man and Wang Rufang.

After the opening ceremony, the Endless Gate was considered to be completely recognized by the entire Jianghu.

The Endless Gate was a rising scene at the moment, and every day there were people who came to worship the Endless Gate, and the Endless Gate decided to accept them or not based on their talent and roots.

The Endless Gate was completely on an orderly track, and no longer needed Omi to deal with any problems personally.

Apart from accompanying his ladies, Omi spent the rest of his time every day cultivating martial arts in the back of the mountain, hoping to step into the Great Perfection of the Ancestor Realm as soon as possible.

In the blink of an eye, three more years passed, and Omi was already fifty-five years old.

On this day, Omi learned a piece of news early in the morning.

"Feng'er."

"Shisun, what is it." Omi said as he practiced his martial arts.

"Feng'er, stop practicing, stop."

Omi stopped practicing his martial arts.

"Feng'er, good news, Rei'er she, she's pregnant."

"What." Omi was so shocked that the sword in his hand fell to the ground.

It was really hard for Omi to have a child now, he had started preparing for it five or six years ago, so many women, and after several years none of them were pregnant yet, Omi could understand, the more powerful they were, the less likely they were to have offspring, this might be the law of life. But today, it was suddenly learned that Little Sister was pregnant.

"Senior sister, you're joking." Omi said in surprise.

"Feng'er, how could Shisuniang play such a joke with you, I only just found out that Rei'er is pregnant for about a month."

"Ah, hahaha, hahaha." Omi let out a loud laugh and immediately rushed home.

"Wife." Omi rushed into Rei Qin's room.

"Husband."

"Nympho." Omi hugged his little sister tightly and picked her up and spun her around a few times.

Xu Mei Qian and Simran were also in the room.

Xu Mei Qian said, "Omi, be careful."

Omi put his little sister down in a panic and happily kissed her on the forehead, his excitement unexpressed. Only, Xu Mei Qian, Simran, Liona and the others were very envious, how much they also longed for one day to give birth to a boy and a girl for Omi, but there was no reaction after so many years, instead, it was Qin Ren, who conceived so soon, not knowing whether it was a boy or a girl.

"Husband, you know it." Qin Ren said shyly and happily, lowering her head.

"Auntie has just gone to inform me, Rei'er, you're really good, hahahaha, I'm Wind Lightning, I'm going to be a father, hahaha." Omi shouted.

After Omi's excitement, he suddenly saw Xu Mei Qian, Simran, Liona, Samira and others with a hint of loss on their faces.

Omi let go of Qin Ren, perhaps he was too excited just now, so they must have felt lost inside.

In contrast, also as Omi's woman, Qin Ren is the winner, not only with Omi openly held a wedding, now also pregnant. But they have been with Omi for decades and have not even had a wedding, so it's only natural that they are lost. Of course, they were also genuinely happy for Omi inside.

Omi looked at the room Xu Mei Qian, Qi Xue Yun, Samira, Simran, Liona, and Youruo, and said: "The child born of Qin Ren is also your child, and when he grows up in the future, he will naturally call you mother, second mother, third mother, fourth mother, fifth mother, sixth mother, so called."

Shangguan Zuo, "Omi, what do you mean to say so ah, make us in jealous like, we are not, you think too much."

"Oh, I'm afraid that you guys feel bad, all these years, I was too busy, I was so focused on martial arts, now the Endless Gate is also on track, Qin Ren is also pregnant, and I, still owe you guys a wedding."

Liona and the others' eyes reddened, not that they owed a wedding, but they thought of their relatives in the other world, it had been five years since they had blinked into this world, and the homecoming was hopeless.

Omi added: "All these years, the reason why I haven't held a wedding with you guys is because there is still someone in my heart, she is Mu Qianji, I originally wanted to hold a wedding after I found her. But now it seems that it's not just a matter of a day or two, and it may even be impossible to find her in a lifetime. I can't keep leaving you guys hanging like this, so how about this, before Rei Qin gives birth to a child, I will officially hold a wedding with all of you, one by one."

Xu Mei Qian said, "Why don't we do it together, one by one?"

"I'm going to do them one by one, so as to do you justice, so I'm going to do them in the order in which they were done with me. Next month, I will hold a wedding with Xuan'er; then the next month, I will hold a wedding with Xiangyun; then the next month, I will hold a wedding with Mei Qian; then the next month, I will hold a wedding with Samira; then the next month, I will hold a wedding with Qi Xueyun, and lastly, I will hold a wedding with Youruo. How do you guys feel about holding one big wedding a month?"

Simran said, "I have no problem with that, but I want Mei Qian and I to switch the order." Remember the website .kanshu8.net

"Why."

"Mei Qian is a few years older than us and shouldn't be in the back of the line, or at least the second house."

"Good." Omi readily agreed.

Little Sister's first room, Xu Mei Qian's second room, Liona's third room, Simran's fourth room, Samira's fifth room, Qi Xue Yun's sixth room, and You Ruo's seventh room.

Omi will have seven wives.

At that moment, Xu Mei Qian suddenly said, "Omi, what about Xiaomeng? You never mentioned her throughout, she has followed us for decades, she also abandoned her family members and followed you to this world, she doesn't deserve such treatment, you should know that Xiaomeng has always liked you."

Liona said, "Yes, Youruo silently waited for you for so many years, then you married Youruo, but Xiaomeng also silently liked you for so many years, why is Xiaomeng not treated like this. Anyway, you have seven houses, and you're not afraid of one more house, or else I feel unfair for Xiao Meng."

Simran: "Yes, Omi, marry Xiaomeng as well, if you don't, she has no intention of marrying again in this life, although Xiaomeng is a few years younger than us, but now she is over fifty years old, you delay her youth again, she

It'll be really old, and you won't marry her then if you want to."

"I, alas." Omi sighed and said, "Perhaps you are right, even though I treat Xiaomeng like my own sister, but she does not treat me like my own brother, it is just a matter of time, if I delay her for another twenty or thirty years, even if I am good at taking care of her, she will surely die of youth. Then marry her, she is also the youngest of you, then she will be my eighth wife."

"Mhmm." Xu Mei Qian and a few others from the other world nodded their heads happily. Simran said, "I'll go tell Xiao Meng the good news." After saying that she ran out of the room.

Omi laughed speechlessly.

And so, every month after that, Omi married a room as promised, starting with Xu Mei Qian, then Liona, then Simran, Samira, Qi Xueyun, and Youruo.

Eight months passed in a blink of an eye, and the last house, Xiaomeng, was also married on a day in the first half of the month.

Late at night, Omi was sent to the bridal chamber.

Once a month to send a bridal chamber, Omi is also drunk, but every bridal chamber in front of it is already that what, no freshness. But today's last bridal chamber is different, because today's bride is Xiaomeng.

Omi and Xiaomeng, never had any, Xiaomeng although more than fifty, but still as pure as a white paper.

Omi enters the bridal chamber, Xiao Meng sits on the bed, wearing a red scarf on her head, adopting the wedding style of this world.

Omi lifted Xiaomeng's red cover, Xiaomeng was especially beautiful today, as if Omi had known her for so many decades, the most beautiful day for brides.

"Xiaomeng."

"Brother Omi."

"And call me brother Omi."

"Me." Xiaomeng was as shy as she didn't dare to speak.

Omi held, "Xiao Meng, I'm sorry to have kept you waiting."

"No, no."

"All these years, you've guarded me, decades of your youth spent on me, I can't repay it in this lifetime."

"Don't talk nonsense, brother Omi, how come."

"Xiao Meng, we have spent decades together since we met as teenagers, from today onwards, you are officially my wife, let's join hands and spend the rest of our lives together, okay?"

"Uh-huh." Moe cried and nodded her head.

"Don't cry, it won't look good if you do, and how else am I supposed to kiss it if the tears go on your lips."

"Pfft." Xiao Meng laughed speechlessly and wiped her tears.

Omi said, "Come on, Xiao Meng, call out to your husband."

"Me."

"Call it."

"Lao, hubby."

"Hehe, that's my good wife."

Xiaomeng blushed, her heart beating fast.

Omi stopped Xiao Meng at the waist, hugged her in his hands and said, "It's time for the wedding."

Xiaomeng blushed and buried in Omi's arms, not daring to look up. Omi put Xiaomeng down and smiled, "Tonight, I'll make up for the youth you've wasted all these years, hehehehe."

"Brother Omi."

"Shh, don't talk."

1263

Omi exhaled and blew out the candle on the bedside table, the room darkened, and Xiao Meng would be ushering in a new life tonight.

Rei Qin's belly was getting bigger and bigger, and by now, she was already nine months pregnant.

In three more months, Rei Qin would be born, and Omi would change his identity and become a father.

It was a wonderful feeling to feel both anticipation and a slight panic in Omi's heart, as Omi had never experienced it and didn't know how to be a father.

And so, three months were quickly approaching.

On this day, Rei Qin felt 'abdominal pain', she was finally going to give birth.

A few hours later, Rei Qin finally gave birth.

"Master, Master, it's born, the doctor has given birth." The midwife happily came out and said, Omi and his brothers were waiting outside the door.

There was also something to say here, this year, not only had Omi gotten married, but all of Omi's friends, as well as Omi's brothers and sisters, had all gotten married as well.

The only one who was single now was Omi's teacher's wife.

However, it was obvious that Omi's teacher's wife would never marry again, so she couldn't be compared to the unmarried ones. One second to remember to read the book

Mu had confessed to Omi's teacher's wife, but unfortunately, the confession had failed and Yan Xin Yi had rejected Mu, and Mu had been sad about it for days.

"Is it a boy or a girl?" Liu Yue was busy asking.

The midwife said, "It's a lady."

"Ah, a lady, okay." Liu Yue said regretfully.

Omi hummed, "What's wrong with a lady, a lady is not a human being, if you have the guts, don't even take a wife, hahahaha, whether it's a son or a daughter, I like it." Omi said with a smile.

Soon, the midwife carried the baby out.

Omi held the baby in his arms and looked at her without blinking, the baby had just been born very, very small, its head was only as small as Omi's palm, Omi smiled slightly and called out, "Daughter." It was a wonderful feeling, Omi couldn't express how he felt at the moment, it was a process from nothing to something, Omi's psyche, there was also a hint of a wonderful transformation, which was a shift in representing his identity.

Omi's friends, teachers and brothers, everyone gathered around to look.

"Wow, who does it look like?"

"It feels pretty much like Omi," Wang Xing said.

"I feel more like my little sister." Big Brother Xie Yong said.

"I feel like Omi."

"Like my little junior sister."

So, Liu Yue Wang Xing and the others, they argued with Xie Yong, Hao Zizhu and the others.

Omi smiled, "What's the fight, this is the result of two people, Rei'er and I. She has mine and Rei'er's in her."

Yang Yijian said, "Omi, look at you happy, now you experience, what I felt in the memory stone at first."

"Well, experienced it, I will protect her with my life, my daughter."

"Brother Feng, hurry up and give my niece a name." Big Brother said.

At that moment, Wang Xing asked, "But, what about the surname Tang or the surname Wind?"

"Uh." That question really got everyone.

Yeah, last name Don, or last name Wind?

"Omi, say something, what's your last name."

"I'm really having a bit of a hard time with that."

"Of course it's surname Feng, isn't it obvious."

Omi nodded his head and said, "Alright, then her surname is Wind, let's call her Wind Qin Nui."

"Feng Qin Nui?"

"Yeah, the daughter of Wind Lightning and Qin Ren." Omi said.

"I go, good dirt, so after that you and Xu Mei Qian have another one, is it called Feng Xu Nui again? Having one with Xuan'er Li, also known as Feng Li Nui." Liu Yue said speechlessly.

Omi said, "Good, it's a good idea, that's how we'll name it from now on, hahaha."

Everyone laughed happily.

With the birth of Omi's daughter, Qin Nui, the Endless Gate was also filled with more joy.

Until one day a few months later, the Endless Gate suddenly received a heavy news.

"It's bad, it's bad, Windy, it's bad."

"Why are you panicking?" Omi looked at Mu, Mu would not normally be so panicky and rash, it must be something particularly significant.

"Wind Lightning, it's bad, something big has happened."

"Something big has happened to the Endless Gate?"

"It's not the Endless Gate, it's the Soup Mountain Sect that's in big trouble, we just got the news that the Soup Mountain Sect was tragically wiped out, the entire Soup Mountain Sect, up and down, except for some of the bottom level disciples, almost all of the Unity Realm and above were killed, the mountain where the Soup Mountain Sect is located, blood is flowing directly from the mountain to the foot of the mountain, the entire mountain is dyed red with blood."

"Ah." Omi was shocked, the entire Soup Mountain School was wiped out, oh my god, how tragic this must be, the Soup Mountain School had a hundred thousand disciples, to say the least.

"Why? I remember, it seems like the Tangshan School has two Sect Masters sitting in town, why was it wiped out." Omi was busy asking.

Mu said, "Those two Sect Master Great Perfectionists of the Soup Mountain School were the first to die."

"Who did it?"

"I don't know, I've heard it's people from across the distant ocean."

"People from another continent?"

"Yes, people from other continents, I don't know the specifics."

Just at this moment, a mid-stage disciple outside shouted, "Report, report."

"Report to the Head Master, a letter has been delivered."

"Present it up."

Omi opened the envelope, the envelope didn't leave any name, directly a commanding tone said, "Please all the highest leaders of the various sects who received this letter, immediately go to the Tangshan School, if you don't within ten days, you will definitely be exterminated."

Omi was furious, so arrogant.

"Wind Lightning, it looks like the person who wrote this letter is the one who will exterminate the Tang Shan School." Muyoung said.

"Nonsense, what does this group of people from another continent want? What do you want to do by exterminating the Soup Mountain Sect and then ordering the top leaders of various other sects to find them."

Mu said, "If I'm not mistaken, the extermination of the Tang Shan School is to give a boost to our entire continent's so sect forces, so that any sect that receives this letter won't dare not take it seriously. Wind Lightning, are we going?"

"Didn't you see the letter that said that the sects that don't go there will be destroyed? The strong man from the continent across the distant ocean who exterminated tens of thousands of people from the Townsend Sect with a flip of his hand, such methods are extremely cruel, and I'm afraid that there is no one in our entire continent who can resist it."

"Not even Old Man Boneless and Wang Rufang?"

Omi shook his head and said, "I think that group of people from across the distant ocean, I'm afraid that the martial arts realm has already surpassed the Ancestor Realm."

"Beyond the Mastery Realm, I've heard that after the Mastery Realm, it's the Dengfeng Realm, which means that the martial skills have reached the peak."

“Right.” Omi nodded, the Peak Ascending Realm was also something that the Bony Old Man had told Omi during the previous Jiang Hu Conference, otherwise Omi wouldn’t have known.

Omi took a deep breath and said, “Prepare yourself for a visit to the Tangshan School.”

“But.” Mu said nervously.

“There are no buts, we have a sect now, not at the beginning of the tsetse, we must consider the tens of thousands of disciples of the Endless Gate.”

“Ugh.”

Muyoung also sighed.

Omi and Mu Yihao prepared themselves and then set off for the Tangshan School.

The two of them, Omi and Mu Free, went to let Little Fire help transport them, while Little Black, continued to stay at the Endless Gate, just in case, after all, Little Black was fast, if something embarrassing really happened, at least Little Black was able to evacuate Omi’s relatives first.

Omi and Mu Yihao, in less than half a day, had arrived at the place where the Tangshan School was located.

However, Omi and Mu Eungyao did not immediately go up to the Tang Mountain Sect, but instead found an inn to stay at first in the city below the mountain of the Tang Mountain Sect.

Because Omi and Mu Ziyao came the fastest, the people from the other various sects must not have arrived yet, Omi didn’t need to be the first one to go up, what if the first one to go up was the first to be unlucky, so Omi had to wait for the strongest people from the other various sects to come before going up to the Tang Mountain Sect.

Omi and Mu stayed in the city below the mountain, and the smell of blood could still be smelled strongly in the air, and everyone in the city below the mountain carried a terrified heart, including the owner of the inn where Omi stayed, as well as the fellows. The first website m.kanshu8.net

“Guest, your food has been brought up.” Outside the door of the inn room, an innkeeper said.

“Come in.”

The innkeeper brought the food into the room, but Omi and Mu didn't go to the downstairs hall to eat.

"Simran, don't leave yet." Omi said.

"Innkeeper, is there anything else?"

"Junior, let me ask around, do you know what's going on in the Townsend School?"

"Guest, keep your voice down, that group of people are still living on the mountain, yesterday they even came down to catch a group of girls going up the mountain, now the whole city is on tenterhooks."

Omi asked, "Who is that group of people on the mountain?"

"No one knows who it was, I heard that it wasn't someone from our continent, it was someone from across the distant ocean, and for some reason, they killed many, many people in the Soup Mountain Sect, a child of a relative of mine was a disciple in the Soup Mountain Sect, but fortunately he was just a very weak disciple and was lucky enough to escape. That relative's child of mine said that all the strongest people in the Soushan Sect have died, including the strongest ancestor, leaving only some female disciples unkilld, but those female disciples were also abused by them. It's really too tragic."

Omi said furiously, "How many of them are there?"

"Listen to my relative's kid, hundreds of them."

"So many."

"Guest, if you're from out of town, just get out of here, God knows when that group of people on the mountain will come down and slaughter us civilians."

"Well, thank you, you go busy."

Simran walked away.

Mu said, "I didn't expect that there are so many people, it looks like there's going to be a bloodbath in this river and lake of ours."

"It's already happened."

Mu Yiayao.

Dao: "I have a feeling that that group of people on the mountain, who suddenly came to our continent, must be up to something, otherwise why would they call all the sects here."

"Let's wait and see, we'll get here first, while the other sects haven't arrived yet, we can find out what's going on on the mountain first. Did that just happen, they also went down yesterday and caught a group of women, that means they'll have people coming back down the mountain, let's see if we can catch a few weak ones then."

"I think we shouldn't act rashly yet, if we knew earlier, we brought your wife Samira with us, she's already reached the mastery of mesmerism, maybe there's a chance to use mesmerism on some weak people."

Omi nodded, Omi also knew the art of mesmerism, only, Omi could only use it on those below the clan master realm. It couldn't be used on people above the clan master realm, because Omi didn't specialize in this area, he had to also be at the clan master level in mesmerism before he could use it on people above the clan master level. At the moment, only Samira is the only one who has reached the grandmaster level in Vertigo, Omi also tried before, but unfortunately it was too difficult, reaching the grandmaster in Vertigo is just as difficult as reaching the grandmaster in martial arts, Omi does not specialize in this area, so he did not continue to put time on it.

Omi said, "It's simple to call Samira here, have Little Fire return to the Endless Gate and bring Samira here, it's only a day or so round trip anyway."

"Good, then let Little Fire go back and bring Shangguan Zuo."

"Little Fire." Omi shouted.

"Shh." At that moment, outside the window, Little Fire shushed.

Omi opened the window, "Brother Chen, don't be loud, look at the sky."

Omi looked into the sky and said in shock, "Little Black? Why is Blackie here."

"Shh, Chen, that's not Little Blackie."

Omi took a second look and was shocked, there were at least ten black jiao in the sky, looking exactly like Little Black, or at least almost the same from a distance.

"Ah, so many black jiao."

"Yes, Chen, before, Little Black thought that he was the only black jiao in the world, I didn't expect that so many would appear now, it must be that group on the mountain, brought from across the distant ocean."

"No wonder they could cross the distant ocean to get here, they came on a black jiao."

Omi was a bit depressed inside, in that case, Omi had the speed advantage of Little Black and Little Fire, he would lose it. Moreover, Omi looked at the group of black jiao in the sky, most of the black jiao's body, are faster than Ming, flying not

Little Black. Fortunately, this time out, did not bring Little Black, otherwise Little Black will be dealt with at once to discover, will definitely give birth to a lot of unnecessary trouble.

"By the way, Minister, what did you just call me?" Little Fire asked.

Omi said, "Little Black, you go back to the Endless Gate now and bring Shangguan Zuo here."

"Samira is sister-in-law, why bring her here when it's so dangerous. That group of demons on the mountain, all came down to the mountain to catch women, sister-in-law is so beautiful, just in case."

"Crowbill, don't talk nonsense, go back quickly, be careful with your ideas, there are so many black jiao on the mountain, once they are discovered, it's easy to catch up with you."

"Okay, I'm going back then." Little Fireton flew away from the ground, not in the sky, just in case, so many black jiao in the sky are bigger than Little Black, they must be faster.

Omi closed the doors and windows, and Mu said, "So it seems that across the distant ocean, there are many black jiao living there, the people there probably use black jiao as flying rides and transportation for travel."

"Well, it must be, alright, let's eat."

Omi and Muyoung then ate in their room, and just asked the shop assistant to bring it up.

A day later, Samira arrived at the bottom of the Yanshan Sect mountain.

"Omi, what is it that called me here so urgently."

"Zuo Rou, I called you here, naturally there is something I need your help with, how many stages of your mesmerizing technique have you reached Master?"

"Middle stage of a mesmerizing technique master." Samira said.

"Well, I'm going to see the mountain come down and find a weak one, and you help mesmerize him to see what the group is all about."

"Hmm."

After another day, Omi finally waited, only to see more than ten people fly down from the mountain of the Tangshan School, these more than ten people landed on the street, then on the street, when they saw any delicious food, they just brought it to eat without paying, and when they saw a pretty girl, they just dragged her to the corner and pulled her trousers open and did that.

Omi and Mu Yihao were always paying attention to the more than ten people, all of them were at the Zongshi level, the strongest of which was the Zongshi Perfection, the weakest was the Unity Realm Perfection.

Omi didn't expect that there were still Unity Realm levels, if he had known earlier, he wouldn't have needed to specially invite Samira, the Unity Realm level Omi could have used mesmerism on him. I'm sure these ten or so people were all at the pawn level of the group on the mountain. Remember the URL .kanshu8.net

"Windy, find a chance to arrest the weakest one."

"But they stay together all the time, how do we get one of them off?"

At that moment, Shangguan Zuo said, "I'll do it."

"Zoe, don't take any chances."

"It's fine, I'll be careful."

Omi had to nod, Omi was really afraid that Samira would be discovered by the other party, but with a beauty like Samira, it would be the end once she was discovered.

Samira came to the street, deliberately wandering in front of the eyes of one of the men who had fallen at the end of the line, and then quickly forked off into the alley next to it.

The man didn't even think about catching up towards the alley that Samira had forded into, but of course, those who were ahead of him didn't notice that the man had forded into the alley to go.

"Good chance." Omi quickly went up and slapped the man who was in the early stages of his clan, then quickly evacuated the scene.

Omi grabbed the man and went to the inn room, splashed a basin of water on him,, and woke him up.

"What kind of people are you, why are you arresting me, don't let me go yet, or our Prince won't spare you natives." The man woke up and shouted.

Muyoung said, "Windy, don't bother with him, if it takes too much time, let the people on the mountain know he's missing and send someone down to look for him, then it'll be a problem, use mesmerism on him first, then kill him, quickly."

"Good." Omi looked at Samira, Samira immediately nodded, then Samira's eyes instantly changed color, two eyes shot at each other's eyes, and the next second, the other turned blind.

Samira asked, "What's your name."

"My name is San Mai."

"San Mai, tell me, who is that group of people on the mountain? Why did you exterminate the Townsend School?" Samira asked.

"It's Mr. Yuanjie."

"Who is Duke Yuanjie?"

"Prince Yuan Jie is the Emperor Xuan Sun of the Great Martial Empire."

Mu snorted, "What the hell, what is the Great Martial Empire."

"The Great Martial Empire is a continent far away from this island .

A huge empire."

Omi asked, "So, why did the gentleman you call Yuan Jie come here?"

"I don't know exactly, but I heard it was to find out about a man."

"Information about who?"

"I don't know, I've heard from the other brothers that the person to be snooping around is the widow of a certain lineage of the once Great Martial Empire's royal family, a fish of omission."

"Why did you come here to snoop around?"

"Because more than ten years ago, someone said that the fish of that leak came here, and the possibility is very high."

Omi's eyebrows furrowed, Mu and Samira didn't know Omi's true identity, so they didn't suspect anything, but Omi had doubts, because someone once captured Omi's master, just to find out a piece of information, and Omi heard from his teacher's wife that Omi wasn't originally from this continent, but floated here on the ocean when he was a child, there was no doubt that Omi's identity, nine times out of ten, had a connection with this Prince Yuanjie, of course, this was just Omi's guess.

Omi asked, "Why would Prince Yuan Jie want to pry into that royal family's leaky fish?"

"This is a Great Martial Empire royal secret, I don't know."

"Well, what strength does Prince Yuan Jie have?" Omi asked.

"Prince Yuan Jie is in the early stages of the Dengfeng Realm, seventy years old this year, one of the geniuses of the Great Martial Empire."

"Seventy years old and in the peak-denial realm, it's truly impressive. Then, who else is there around Duke Yuanjie? Is he the only one who's at the peak?"

"Yes, every single one of the peak realms is not simple and not very human to reach, and they are also very powerful in the Great Martial Empire."

"What kind of empire is the Great Martial Empire?"

"The Great Martial Empire, with an inheritance of tens of thousands of years, has an extremely large number of descendants, so the imperial power structure is extremely complex, and even if they are the same imperial family, they are often wiped out at every turn. Although Prince Yuan Jie is an Emperor Xuangsun, he only possesses one of the identities of an Emperor Xuangsun, and the one who truly controls the imperial power of the Great Martial Empire today is his great-grandfather's brother."

"Alright, what nonsense, let's not talk about that, let me ask you, how does Prince Yuan Jie want to find that leaky fish?" Omi asked.

"I don't know, Prince Yuanjie is just here to try his luck, and if he finds it, he will be able to claim credit for the Great Martial Empire's imperial power."

"Doesn't he have any useful clues?"

"No."

Muyoung asked, "Then why kill all the Tang Shan Sect?"

"In the eyes of Duke Yuan Jie, the people of this continent are too weak, a bunch of natives to be slaughtered, no different from chickens and ducks, if Duke Yuan Jie wants to find someone, he must get the natives here to help him, so he must first make a name for himself, so that he can order the entire Jianghu to do his best for Duke Yuan Jie."

"Fuck the natives." Mu was annoyed.

Omi asked, "How big is the continent where the Great Martial Empire is located?"

"It's very, very big."

Omi asked again, "There, are there a lot of strong people there? For example, what level is the one who can control the imperial power?"

"It requires a very strong family background, and it has to be backed by at least hundreds of zaibatsu, plus a very strong family composition, as well as one's own need to reach at least the Dengfeng Realm Great Perfection, before it is still possible to have a single breath."

Mu said, "Wind Lightning, why are you asking this so clearly now, it's almost time, stop asking, kill this person and destroy the corpse, then we will evacuate this place first to avoid being discovered by the people on the mountain."

"Alright." Omi slapped the man to death, there was nothing meaningful to ask anyway.
