

King of kings 1530

1530

This feeling of insignificance, Omi had once encountered strong enemies even when he was in the mortal realm.

Therefore, at this critical juncture, Omi subconsciously opened his Life Blood Hidden.

It was completely subconscious, because of the previous habit of spraying into such situations in the Mortal Realm.

However, after turning on Life Blood Hidden, Omi reacted, what was the point of him turning on Life Blood Hidden now, it was no longer a world that spoke of martial arts.

However, in the next second, Omi suddenly didn't think so.

Because after opening the Life Blood Invisibility, his thinking, and the vitality of any cell in his body increased countless times, as if there was a far greater increase than when he opened it in the mortal world.

Moreover, at this moment, Omi's mind recalled the Shura Eighteen Blades.

Omi had practiced the Shura Eighteen Blades before, but unfortunately, he couldn't practice at all.

But after opening Life Blood Hidden, suddenly, Omi seemed to vaguely understand the first blade of the Shura Eighteen Blades.

"So that's how it is." Omi had a flash of insight within.

Omi's eyes looked at Lian Ge who was killing towards him, and the other party's movements seemed to have slowed down a great deal, as if they were slow motion. One second to remember to read the book

Omi raised his palm.

"Wow." In the air, only two to three meters away from killing Omi's Liange, the body split into two pieces and blood shot everywhere.

However, in the next second, Omi's body instantly withdrew from the Life Blood Hidden state.

The duration of Omi's Life Blood Hiding was less than one second.

Omi's body seemed to be hollowed out as he exited the Life Blood Hidden state.

Omi looked at the other people, but unfortunately, Omi couldn't kill all of them, and Omi had no power left.

Omi had just comprehended the Shura First Blade when he entered the Life Blood Hidden state, and it seemed that Omi could only display the Shura Eighteenth Blade when he opened the Life Blood Hidden state.

"Captain."

"Liange."

The rest of them, looking at the corpse that had been split in half, shouted.

Although Omi had no power now, they didn't dare to act recklessly, even Yun Jun's secret method couldn't kill Omi, and in the end, the toad died, Yun Jun died, and now, even their captain died so miserably, try to see how they would dare to move again.

Omi looked at the remaining people.

Of the four remaining people, two of them were from the Open Light Phase I and II.

"Pounce." Of those four people, the two from the Body Refining Stage were the first to kneel down to Omi.

A few seconds later, the two at the Light Opening Stage followed suit and kneeled down.

"Senior spare your life."

"Senior spare your life."

Omi looked at these people who were kowtowing and begging for mercy, Omi couldn't kill them even if he wanted to at the moment, he was thinking of what to do when a voice came from his side, "Brother."

Omi turned his head, it was Tang Huan.

"Sister, are you alright?" Omi was busy walking up.

The five people who were kneeling and begging for mercy also looked at Tang Huan in confusion, muttering in their hearts, "Where are the five people who went after them? Why don't you come back?"

Omi looked at Tang Huan, who indeed seemed to be fine, and busily asked, "Where is that man of his? Weren't they the ones who brought you back?"

Tang Huan himself didn't know what was going on, so he shook his head and said, "They're all dead."

The four people who were kneeling not far away, begging for mercy, were foolish when they heard that those people were also dead.

&

They're not to be messed with, are they both such perverts? Now there were only four of the ten of them left, and it wasn't clear if they would survive today.

The four of them looked at each other, their faces blue.

Although Omi was also confused as to how they died, it wasn't appropriate to ask more questions at the moment.

Omi looked at the four people who were kneeling and begging for mercy and said, "Leave all of you with your storage bags and I can spare your lives. Also, when you go back, pretend you know nothing, or else, die."

"Yes yes yes."

The few people were as if they had received a great amnesty, they were busy putting down their storage bags and fled in a mess, they kept running, not daring to stop.

Tang Huan was busy saying, "Brother, did you kill them all?" Tang Huan felt unbelievable, his younger brother was too strong, only at the seventh stage of Body Tempering, and he had killed the Open Light Stage.

"Well, I killed them all."

"Then why did you just let those four people go?" Tang Huan was puzzled.

"I didn't want to let go either, but I'm really powerless, we were actually more dangerous just now, if the four of them knew I was powerless, I'm afraid we'd be the ones to die. They're only on their knees because I'm dumbfounded, if I don't let go and they're dog-tired, then we're finished."

"Uh-huh, it's fine."

"Sister, the five people who just went after you are all at the eight or nine stages of Body Tempering ah, why are you fine?"

Tang Huan was angry, "What? You still want something to happen to your sister, those five guys just now, they were so bad, they tried to drag me to the cave, they wanted to defile me."

"And then what?"

"Then they knocked me out, but, when I woke up, I fell at the mouth of the cave and they were all gone. But I smelled blood, so I went into the cave and saw."

"Saw what?"

"Saw their flesh turn to pulp and stick to the stone wall. I was sick to my stomach, so I ran back quickly, then saw the men on their knees begging for mercy."

"Who helped you?" Omi was puzzled.

"I don't know, there must have been a strong man who secretly helped me, the True Beast Forest has many people coming in after all, it's just that the man who helped me didn't want to show himself, and left before I woke up."

Omi nodded, "Anyway, thanks to him this time, I, Omi, advised him of this favor."

Tang Huan also nodded with a palpitating heart, it was really too dangerous to almost be defiled, if he was really defiled by those five people, Tang Huan would not live.

"Sister, let's get out of here."

"Good."

Omi picked up several storage bags on the ground, including that Yun Jun's, and Captain Liange's, then led Tang Huan to quickly run away from the scene.

After running for a long time, they made sure it was safe before they stopped.

The two of them were lying in a hole in a large tree.

"Let's take a break and look at the loot." Omi said.

Tang Huan was also quite excited, "They're Inner Siege disciples, there must be a lot of hunting nuclei, so quickly pour it out and take a look."

After some counting by the two of them, it was finally determined that the trophies they had obtained were as follows: one orange-grade third-grade magic nucleus, six orange-grade second-grade magic nuclei, 30 orange-grade first-grade magic nuclei, 200 red-grade ninth-grade magic nuclei, 500 red-grade eighth-grade magic nuclei, 800 red-grade seventh-grade magic nuclei, and 1,500 red-grade sixth-grade magic nuclei.

“Wow.”Tang Huan and Omi, they were hugging each other in excitement, so many gains.

Tang Huan fiercely kissed Omi on the cheek, although everyone almost paid a heavy price this time, the loot was still quite rich.
