"Phew." Omi put an Extreme Speed Talisman on himself, the Extreme Speed Talisman would allow him to speed up his speed. Only that this Extreme Speed Charm was fake, after all, Omi could completely rely on his strength, so why waste another charm, only to make the other party think that he was just relying on the charm.

"Wow." That black-clothed man's attack fell flat in a flash.

"How did this happen." The black-clothed man was busy turning his head, only to see Omi standing behind him.

"You." At that moment, the man in black saw a talisman attached to Omi's body.

"Hmph, so you are relying on the talisman to become so fast, I thought you were really that strong to escape my strike." That black-clothed boss sneered, his voice carrying a kind of contempt. He didn't even know that Omi's was a fake talisman, people just didn't want to expose their strength to play with you.

Omi didn't mind his contempt and said, "No matter what I'm relying on, it's enough to be able to take care of you."

"Idiot's dream, if talismans could turn a weak person into a strong one, then this world would already be a master talisman, I'd like to see how many seconds your talisman lasts."

Omi said and pasted another fake talisman on himself.

Then, Omi swiftly rushed towards the man in black.

"Pah." Omi pasted a freeze talisman on the black-clothed man's body, which was real.

"You can't even move now." After saying that, Omi picked up the knife at once. One Second Remember to Read the Book

"Puff." Without blinking an eye, a knife pierced the black-clothed man's chest.

"Ah." The black-clothed man felt cold all over, never expecting a peripheral disciple to possess such a strong talisman.

"Boss." The rest of them rushed up, shouting incredulously, even their boss had fallen.

"How could this happen, he's just a little kid, why is this happening." The rest of the group of people all seemed unable to figure it out, as if they thought that the power of a peripheral disciple could be completely crushed, but it turned out that even their boss had fallen down.

Omi said, "You guys are still left, I'll give you guys a choice, first, take the initiative to come up and let me stab each of you, second, I'll take the initiative to stab you, of course, if you take the initiative to come up and let me stab you, I can let you guys choose where to stab, otherwise, I'll be the one to choose where to stab you."

The rest of the group of people looked at Omi furiously.

One of them shouted, "Brothers, this brat himself doesn't have much strength, he just relies on a few talismans, let's not be afraid of him, listen to me, let's charge up together, even if he has the strongest talismans, he can't use them on so many of us at the same time."

"Good." Everyone nodded, now they no longer dared to treat Omi as a peripheral disciple, after all, even their boss had fallen.

Omi snorted, "You guys are too naive, do you see what kind of talisman I am? This is the Speed Charm. Even your boss can't see my shadow. How many of you? And go together, ridiculous."

"Everyone don't be frightened by his words, go ahead." After saying that, the remaining group of people, simultaneously jumped at Omi.

Omi's body moved and they pounced, at the same time, Omi slaughtered into one of them again.

"Ah." The slaughtered one fell down with a scream, Omi stabbed him directly in the abdomen, an open gap in the abdomen, in this situation, he must have lost his fighting power, or even his intestines would have flowed out.

"Ah, White Ghost." The remaining people shouted.

Omi said, "See, is this what you guys are talking about together? result

It's the same thing, so if you guys are wise, you'll do what I say and choose. Well, I don't have time for your long-windedness, so you can stab yourselves and then you can take the injured man and get lost."

The rest of them all looked at each other, not knowing what to do.

Omi said, "You guys are still too young to fight me."

Just then, one of Omi's men came in and reported, "Boss, Nong Lingsheng is here."

"Let him in." Omi said.

"Yes."

The people of the Cang Ying Alliance were stunned when they heard that Nong Lingsheng was here.

Nong Lingsheng's Hundred Ghost Alliance, that was ranked in the top 200 ah, of course, the reason why Nong Lingsheng's power was ranked in the top 200 was mainly because he had an elder father.

So, at this moment, when they heard that Nong Lingsheng had come, they were all a bit confused, could it be that Nong Lingsheng had also come to trouble this kid.

"Haha, definitely, boss, don't worry, Nong Lingsheng is also here, Nong Lingsheng's Hundred Ghosts Alliance is ranked in the top two hundred in the Flying Cloud Sect, it's much stronger than our Cang Ying Alliance, and Nong Lingsheng's father is an elder, even if he kills Omi, his father can cover him." A man from the Cang Ying Alliance said happily.

Omi gave a sneer, what a good one to kill him all covered.

At this time, Nong Lingsheng came in and was stunned to see so much blood in the courtyard, and several had fallen.

Nong Lingsheng obviously didn't expect so many people to be here.

At this time, the black-clothed boss of the Cang Ying Alliance endured the pain and said, "Nong Lingsheng, quickly, help clean him up, this kid thinks he has a few high grade talismans and is very arrogant. Help me with this favor today, count me Yu Leiying persuade you to do a favor, he will repay it in the future."

Nong Lingsheng quickly understood what was going on, after all, he had just been under siege in the Flying Cloud Sect, he had also heard a transmission from the Sound Transmission House that the Cang Ying Alliance's Niu Dabao had been beaten by Omi.

Nong Lingsheng burst out laughing and turned his head to look at Cang Ying Alliance boss Yu Leiying, who was lying on the ground, and said, "You, Yu Leiying, are nothing in my eyes. I pooh-pooh, Yu Lei Ying, how dare you disturb my brother, this isn't over."

Yu Lei Ying was stunned, seemingly not reacting, and the rest of the Cang Ying Alliance were also stunned there.

At that moment, only Nong Lingsheng walked up to Omi, bent his waist to ninety degrees, and called out respectfully, "Brother Chen, I'm late, I've frightened you."

"What? He he he." Everyone in the Coyote Alliance was dumbfounded, unable to believe what they were seeing before their eyes, a boss who was in the inner circle of the Flying Cloud Sect, ranked in the top two hundred in power, and had an elder backstage, actually called out to a twelve year old boy respectfully, and completed his waist to ninety degrees.

Yu Leiying was completely dumbfounded at the moment.

Omi faintly nodded his head.

When Nong Lingsheng saw Omi's less than pleasant appearance, he thought that he was complaining that he was late, and then he walked towards Yu Leiying and roared, "F*ck you, how dare you mess with my brother, you don't want to mix."

"Bang." Nong Lingsheng was even more ruthless, kicking at Yu Leiying's wound.

"Ah." Yu Leiying let out a hissing roar.

"Big brother." The few remaining members of the Cang Ying Alliance watched as their big brother was beaten by Nong Lingsheng, but they didn't dare to go up to rescue him, after all, Nong Lingsheng was too much for them to provoke.

"Bang bang." Nong Lingsheng kicked one by one.

Tang Huan was soft and busy shouting, "Hey, don't kick him to death."

Nong Lingsheng turned his head and smiled at Tang Huan and said, "It's fine, sister-in-law, if you kick him to death, my father will cover him."
