Omi said, "Is there a higher one? Flying swords of such high quality will be hard to find in the future."

"230." an old man of the ninth stage of Exaltation said with a bite.

"230 once, 230 twice."

"240." another old man of the ninth out-of-body stage shouted.

It seemed that the real big brother started shouting, everyone could see the quality of this flying sword, and the Four Seas couldn't touch one of such high quality for thousands of years.

Omi smiled, "Everyone, if whoever bids on this flying sword, I can additionally send a big gift package."

"What big gift package?" Everyone's eyes lit up.

Omi said, "I can be friends with him, and I can do something for his family for free."

"Ah." The crowd was shocked.

Although many of the families of the Four Seas were bad-mouthing Omi behind his back, abusing him like nothing else. However, if one could really be friends with Omi, then one could forget about any knuckles.

"I'll pay 250." Remember the URL .kanshu8.net

"I'll give 260."

"270."

In order to be able to be friends with Omi, all those who hesitated before shot out, everyone could see that Omi was extraordinary, making such a friend was worth it.

In the end, the price was out to 320 Sixth Grade Spirit Stones.

Omi smiled and said, "Congratulations to this old senior, what is your name?"

"My name is Song Jinshu."

"The Four Seas Song family?"

"Yes, our Song family, a combined family of four seas, our family, has seven seniors who have reached the combined stage, however, they have all entered the five seas. By the way, our Song family, we also have one of the most talented juniors, named Song Yaoyao, who is the number one ranked genius in the Heavenly Fragrance Hall." That old man who was at the ninth stage of out of the box said proudly.

At that moment, whoever grunted, "Bullshit ranking number one, the top three of the Heavenly Fragrance Hall right now are all that person called Windy Tianya, okay?"

Omi thudded, if not, Omi almost forgot about this, before that, Omi had gone to the Heavenly Fragrance Hall and as a Windy Sky, he had kicked the top three ranked in the Heavenly Fragrance Hall, Song Yaoyao, Yun Haitian, and Shithead, unconscious. Of course, Omi didn't know that after he left, the Heavenly Fragrance Hall had actually carved his name into the top three.

Omi couldn't help but laugh, "The Temple of Heavenly Fragrance really carved my name on it."

Omi was just saying it subconsciously.

However, it only occurred to Omi after he finished speaking that he had gone to the Heavenly Fragrance Hall that time as an impostor.

Sure enough, everyone there looked at Omi in confusion.

"Omi, what did you just say? The Master of the Heavenly Fragrance Palace really carved your name on it? What do you mean?"

Omi smiled, "Mistake of words."

"Omi, that person called Feng Tianya, that can't be you, right? I'll tell you how come the entire Four Seas couldn't find Wind Skyya."

Another person said, "Yeah, before the great name of Feng Tianya swept across the Four Seas, almost the entire Four Seas were searching for Feng Tianya, which family would want to miss out on such a genius. However, even after looking for death, they didn't find Feng Tianya, even many of them sent people to the One, Two, Three Heavy Seas to look for him, and they still didn't find him."

Everyone looked at Omi in confusion.

Omi laughed, "It's fine, it won't be against the law to say it."

Omi said, "Since it's all spoken out by mistake, I won't hide it, yes, I was the one who went to the Heavenly Fragrance Hall that day and casually kicked Song Yaoyao and Yun Haitian, as well as what's left of the shit. Feng Tianya is just a name I casually said."

"Ah." Everyone was dumbfounded as they looked at Omi, never expecting that the Feng Tianya who made everyone want to rally a while ago was Omi. No wonder he could casually knock out the top three ranked geniuses with a single kick.

bsp; At this moment, a man from the Mitty Family was busy saying, "Senior Omi, the person ranked third before the Heavenly Fragrance Hall, he's not called Shitty Hull Lang oh, he's called Mitty Hull Lang."

Omi said, "I said he's a Shitty Shellman, he's a Shitty Shellman."

"Ugh." The man from the Mitty family was embarrassed.

Omi didn't have a good feeling about the shitty shell man, saying he was shitty shell man was shitty shell man, correcting shit.

"Alright, Song Jinshu, you can come up and collect your flying sword."

"Good."

That Song Jinshu walked up and exchanged 320 sixth grade spirit stones for that flying sword of Omi's.

The flying sword definitely wasn't worth that much, but it was almost worth it with Omi's favor.

Song Jinshu took the flying sword and sighed inwardly, the next forty or fifty years would be spent living in poverty, as it would take at least forty years to save up this many sixth grade spirit stones again.

Omi finished the auction and announced, "Everyone can disperse."

At this time, Song Jinshu busily said, "Brother Tang, I don't know if it's such an honor to invite you for a meal tonight."

Omi nodded, "Of course you can, I said that whoever auctioned the last flying sword is friends with me Omi, since we are friends, why can't we have a meal together."

"That's fine, I respectfully await your arrival."

The rest of them looked at Song Jinshu with envy.

Omi and Mu Qianji left.

Omi was filled with excitement.

"Quick, count how many spirit stones have been harvested in total?"

"There's no need to count it, 886 sixth grade spirit stones."

"Yay, great."

"Omi, how much can you upgrade to with 886 sixth grade spirit stones?"

"It will probably allow me to upgrade to the ninth stage of Exaltation. However, after upgrading to the ninth stage of Exaltation, there are still 280 sixth-grade spirit stones left, so I'll give you all the rest."

"Ah, it's only upgraded to the ninth stage of Exaltation."

"Or else what?"

"Then what if you want the next realm closing stage? How much more do you need?"

"At least another 3,000 sixth grade spirit stones need to be refined at once."

"That much."

"It can't be helped, from the first stage of Exaltation to the ninth stage, it doesn't cost as many spirit stones as the ninth stage to the next realm. To go from the ninth step out of the tricks to the next realm to the first step, it costs about three times as many spirit stones as all the previous ones combined. Therefore, the entire Four Seas may not be able to scrape up 3,000 sixth-grade spirit stones." Omi was helpless. (Referring to the previous table)

"There's nothing we can do but try."

"Alright, let's start refining."

Next, Omi spent a few minutes refining about 600 pieces of sixth grade spirit stones, and Omi's realm rose from the seventh stage of Exaltation, to the ninth stage of Exaltation in an instant.

There were still about 280 pieces of sixth grade spirit stones left, and Omi took them to Mu Qianji to use. Mu Qianzhi upgraded to the sixth stage of Exaltation, and when he finished, there were still 130 sixth grade spirit stones left. Since he couldn't upgrade to the seventh level, he saved it for now, and when he got it all together next time, he would refine it all at once. Because refining the full amount at once wouldn't be a waste.

"Alright, I'll be at the ninth level of Exaltation, you'll be at the sixth level of Exaltation, and we can walk across the entire Four Seas." Omi said.

Mu Qianji laughed wordlessly, it was so easy to follow Omi, easily upgrading, if he kept on like this, it wouldn't take many years to become an immortal ah.

Unfortunately, it was getting harder and harder to find spirit stones back there, so in the end, they would have to rely on their own ability to cultivate to the top. However, although the spirit stones were hard to find in the future and the realm couldn't be upgraded so fast, however, Omi had Immortal Qi, which was a big advantage in terms of cultivating magic tools, so in the future, even though the upgrade wasn't so fast, Omi still wouldn't be bullied.
