Chapter 1731

"Why is there no wine? In the Four Seas, every inn has more wine, how come when you come to the Five Seas, life has even gone backwards." Omi said.

"Oh, in our Ma Tau Village, everyone is concerned with cultivating immortality, how can anyone go to make wine."

"Isn't there a market or something here? Go to the market and buy it ah."

"Where's the market, maybe some of the big powers have markets in their cities, but that's someone's internal market, it's all the people from their own family, their own power that can trade there. We have to do everything we need, but we're only a few dozen people, so we can't have everything. That's why this time, Murdie went back to the Four Seas to procure supplies."

"I'll go." Omi said well, what was that Murdie doing back to the Four Seas by herself, it turned out that she was returning to the Four Seas to procure supplies.

Omi could already foresee that the future in the Five Seas would be incomparably poor, and what was needed would have to go back to the Four Seas to get it.

"Alright, brother Tang, the roasted whole deer is almost finished, let's almost disperse, everyone go back to cultivating, don't waste a single second."

"Oh."

After that, dozens of old men, dispersed, each went back to their stone rooms and closed the door, it looked like they wouldn't come out once every ten days and half a month, was this lonely day a human's life.

Omi also felt tasteless and went back to his own stone room, Omi's stone room and Mu Qianji's together.

In the middle of the night, there is no entertainment, not even a light, the surrounding desolate, the saddest thing is, the stone room, only a stone slab, not even a bed blanket. A second to remember to read the book

"How do we sleep here." Omi said as he looked at the bare slab of stone.

"Omi, probably everyone didn't sleep at all, they just sat on the slab and then started cultivating, just like that day after day. Ordinary immortal cultivators are like this, I followed my master pretty much the same way before I met you, only after I met you did I sleep in my bed at night like ordinary people."

"I'm not used to it, it would simply kill me to sit on a stone slab day after day and cultivate." Omi was used to enjoying himself all the way, and really wasn't used to such a hard and boring cultivation life.

"Omi, ever since you came to the spirit world, you've relied on refining spirit stones, you've never suffered, if we always had spirit stones, it would be fine, but now that the seventh grade spirit stones are going extinct, we've had to change our old way of life and cultivate arduously like other immortal cultivators, otherwise, we're bound to."

"Alright, I understand, it's just, it's really painful, there's not even a bed to sleep in when you're tired, even if you don't lie down to sleep, then there's no place to make out with you once in a while."

"How can there be no place, just, just stand like this also, you are bad." Mu Qianji blushed and greeted Omi with a glance.

Omi smiled hehehe, "Standing I'm not used to it."

"Alright, we must get used to hardship now, I'll practice first." Mu Qian would never discuss with Omi further, taking the lead to sit on the stone slab, close his eyes and start cultivating.

Omi sighed and also closed his eyes and began to cultivate his magic weapon.

Soon, dawn came.

The days of cultivation always passed too quickly.

Omi opened his eyes as soon as dawn came.

Omi looked at the flying sword in his hand and laughed, "After sacrificing for so long, I've finally sacrificed the flying sword to an advanced level, hahaha, it's really not easy.

Yes, Omi's flying sword was already a high-grade lower-grade magic weapon.

Omi who possessed a high-grade inferior magic weapon, his strength had also risen by more than a step, it was estimated that the combined third, or even fourth stage, could fight, and if Omi's Shura Eighteenth Blade, and then trained into the tenth blade, or even the eleventh and twelfth blade, it was not impossible to kill the combined third and fourth stage in seconds.

But what could that do, even if he could kill the combined third and fourth stage in seconds, Omi would not be able to bounce around in the Five Seas.

Omi felt so depressed thinking about it.

So, Omi walked out of the stone room, the outside was empty, just like Omi living alone in a desolate valley.

"What kind of life is this F*cking living." Omi sighed.

At that moment, the stone door next to the room supported a sound, and Tang Huan and Lv Yuxi came out.

Lv Yuxi stretched her back: "Dawn gleams, right, Huanhuan, where are we going for breakfast."

Omi puffed out a laugh, "Thinking about it, and eating breakfast."

"Uh, Tang Shao, you're up too, right, how did you guys sleep last night, they forgot to get us sheets last night, so Huanhuan and I had to spend the night on the stone slab. I'll go to that Bai Wu Bo to collect the necessities later."

Omi said, "Come on, Lu Yuxi, where do you get the necessities, you think this is a hotel ah, also, there is no breakfast, if you don't believe me, you wait until dark, see if there is anyone to prepare breakfast for you."

"Ah, no way."

Sure enough, apart from Omi's few people getting up, the entire village of Ma Tau, the other old men of the stone houses, didn't get out of the stone houses, they had been sitting in the stone houses for years and years practicing.

Omi said; "I really can't stand this kind of life, cultivating day and night, I can cultivate an egg, me."

"Tang Shao, let's calm down first, I heard that the Five Seas is very dangerous, any place where a certain power is gathered is a land of dominion, and for outsiders to enter is an invasion."

Omi said, "Screw the invasion, I also want to form a force of my own, it's only good to do things with more people, at least people are lively, otherwise people would suffocate every day with dozens of old men nesting here. Alright, you guys stay here for now, I'll go get to know the situation around here first."

After saying that, Omi offered up his flying sword and swooped up into the clouds.

In the sky, Omi spent half a day circling the entire Five Heavy Seas, but of course, it was the land of the Five Heavy Seas that was circled, and the land of the Five Heavy Seas was surrounded by the ocean.

Omi saw eight huge cities with a population of eight billion in each of the eight directions, southeast and northwest of the land.

Omi knew that these eight billion-population cities must be the eight families of the Five Seas that held the Rainbow Bridge.

These eight families, the population of which had proliferated to the hundred million level, was terrifying to think about, Omi, a newcomer to the Five Heavy Seas, wanted to form a force to fight against the eight immortal families, it was simply a fantasy, no matter how much Omi tried to gather numbers, he couldn't gather a hundred million level population. It had to be the result of continuous reproduction of children and grandchildren in order to have such a large population.

Omi had originally wondered if he could gather the forces around Ma Tau Village and then fight against the eight great cultivation families to capture a certain rainbow bridge, and then he could also go to the Six Seas to cultivate.

But now it seemed that it really wasn't possible.
