Omi said to Eight Eyes Hong Snake, "Eight Eyes, go back to your lake first, I'll call you if anything happens."

"Okay, Tang Shao, I'll go back first then, call someone to let me know if anything happens."

Omi nodded his head, and the Eight Eye Flood Snake turned around and flew away.

As soon as the eight-eyed flood snake left, the group of old men's bodies only loosened up, otherwise, it felt like they were oppressed by a force, Omi said in his heart, what a bunch of old men with little to show for it.

"Brother Tang, what's going on? How could you possibly subdue the Eight-eyed Flood Snake? That eight-eyed flood snake is a combined seventh stage beast cultivator." Bai Wuyou walked up to Omi and said.

"Senior Bai, I'm not going to hide anything from you, in fact, I'm already invincible under the Divide Stage."

"Yah, what did you say?" A group of old men were almost scared to death, but a person of the first stage of the combined body was saying that he was already invincible under the divisions.

"Yes, I am invincible under the divisions." Omi said again.

"You."

"I have a heavenly magic weapon, and the combined ninth stage can slash to death with a sword even before me."

"Ah." One second to remember to read the book

"So, you know, okay, you old-timers, I, Tang, am really not used to living in this ditch, so I might have to leave here."

"Where are you going?" Murdie was busy asking.

"At least go to a place with a large population, or, find a way to blend in with the Eight Great Immortal Families and head to the Six Seas."

Bai Wuyou said, "Brother Tang, if you really want to mix into the Eight Great Immortal Families, I do have some suggestions."

"You tell me."

"As you know, the Eight Great Immortal Families don't allow outsiders to enter their territory, but if you become one of them, you'll be able to enter. The Eight Great Immortal Families, although they marry each other, their marrying each other is simply not going to completely solve many of their children's marriage contracts. Therefore, the eight great immortal cultivation families will often recruit men with foreign names to marry some of the women from their families as immortal partners."

"Oh, you mean to tell me to marry a woman who is right there with the Eight Great Immortal Practices?"

"There's no such thing as marrying or not marrying in the immortal world, just being a couple, it's the only way for you to mix with the eight major immortal families, otherwise it's impossible."

"Hahaha, is that so." Omi's heart had already rejected taking this approach, although Omi didn't mind sleeping with one more woman, it would hurt Mu Qianji, and Omi didn't like having concubines right now.

Omi said goodbye to the Horse Head Village and brought Mu Qianji, Yan Xinyi, Lu Yuxi, and Tang Huan four girls with him, heading straight to the nearest one of the eight major immortal cultivation families called the Fire Cloud Family.

When they arrived at the gates of the Firecloud Family, a towering wall, thousands of meters high, stopped Omi and the others.

Moreover, Omi could see that there was a formation protection above the city wall.

It could be said that it was simply too difficult to enter the interior of the Fire Cloud Family. Inside this Firecloud Family, with a population of billions, it was self-sufficient and did not communicate with the outside world at all.

"Omi, why don't you go marry a woman from the Fiery Cloud Family, I don't mind anyway." Mu Qianji said.

"Don't say anything rhetorical, I can tell by the look on your face that you don't mean it."

Mu Qianji pursed his lips and said, "You don't have to if it's because you're scruffy about me."

"I'm not scruffy about you, if I really want it, it's useless for anyone to stop me, women, who were somewhat attractive to me when I was in the mortal realm, are no longer attractive to me."

"Then how are we going to blend in with the eight great immortal families."

Omi sighed, "Why must we mix into the eight great immortal cultivation families, is mixing into the eight great immortal cultivation families necessarily better cultivation? Even if I mix into the Eight Great Immortal Families, not everyone can go to the Six Seas anymore, and even if I go to the Six Seas, it's not a clattering upgrade, so I suddenly feel that I may not want to enter the Eight Great Immortal Families."

"You really think so?"

"Right."

"Then what are your plans if you don't mix with the eight major immortal families?"

Omi thought for a few minutes, then struggled a bit and said, "I think what I should do at the moment, instead of trying to find a way to opportunistically get into the cave, I should, instead, open up a cave of my own and sink my teeth into cultivation."

Mu Qianji smiled, "You finally understand what you're doing, right, what's the point of entering the eight great cultivation families, it's just to see if there's a chance to get a little bit of seventh grade spirit stones. So, you still can't cultivate at ease, or you want to be opportunistic."

Omi nodded, "Good, since that's the case, let's accept reality, comrades, from today onwards, we're all going to work hard and cultivate seriously, no more fantasies about seventh grade spirit stones. Let's go, let's find a feng shui treasure, open up a cave, and formally cultivate hard."

"Mmhmm." Tang Huan and the others were busy nodding their heads as well.

Omi and the others were looking around to see where the aura was stronger, and then they would open up a cave there.

After searching for a few days, Omi finally found a good place.

"This is it, the aura here is good, it's suitable for opening up a cave." Omi said.

Thus, Omi rushed into that large mountain.

Mu Qianji warned, "Omi, be careful if there's a master here anymore."

Sure enough, as soon as Omi landed on the ground, three men flew out from various parts of this mountain.

"This fellow Daoist, this mountain already has a master, so I hope you've looked for a place." One of the men said.

Omi was startled, after searching for a few days, he found a feng shui treasure and it turned out to be occupied by someone, the Five Seas really did have an inch of land.

Omi looked at the three men who flew out, all three men were middle-aged looking, among them, two of them were at the Divide stage, and one was at the eighth stage of the combined body.

This was a small group that could not be offended.

Omi smiled and said, "Sorry to bother the three, I'm leaving."

Omi had no choice but to leave.

Just as Omi was about to leave, the man who was of the combined eighth rank shouted, "Wait."

"Is there anything else?" Omi was a little wary.

That man of the combined eighth stage, eyes looking at the four women of Mu Qianji, Omi a man of the combined first stage, with four beautiful women to woo, it would be strange if nothing happened.

"Leave one woman behind, then you can go." That combined body eighth stage man licked his lips and said, they readily closed their doors for a year or two, their desires would be very strong after every time they left, suddenly seeing four beauties, it was strange that they could let go.

Omi angrily said, "This Combined Body Eighth Order senior, you've gone too far."

At this time, one of the three men, a man of the first stage of divination, also said, "Leave one for me as well, I want her." Pointing his hand at Mu Qianji, he said with a smile, "Haven't touched a woman in a long time, heck, a bit impatient."

Omi snorted, "Don't look for death."

"You, a combined first stage, also dare to say no? It's merciful enough that I let you leave your women behind, believe me if you say one more word, I'll let you die here and these four women, all of them become our dao couple?" That strongest of the distracted men said.
