Tang Huan said, "If I find my father, can I make my father a distraction as well?"

"Of course, Uncle Tang is also my family." Omi smiled, it was just that Tang Jingtian was nowhere to be found, whether he was dead or not, but let's hope he was still alive. When we have time, we really need to look for him properly.

Mu Qianji said, "Since there are still so many slots, I don't know about that master of mine."

Omi snorted, "The old witch of the Thousand Waters Sect? Thousand Extremes, thanks to you, you have the good sense to say that she took you away from me and caused me to suffer for you in the mortal realm, how could I still help her."

"But her starting point at that time was for my own good, moreover, back then you were deeply trapped in the Valley of Ghosts and in an infinite illusion, it was her self-inflicted cultivation that awakened you, although at that time it was me who took the Eliminating Pill in exchange, but she could have not had to make any exchange with me, forcing me to take the Eliminating Pill would not have taken much effort." Mu Qianji said with a softened heart.

Omi didn't say any more and sighed, according to what Mu Qianji said, it seemed to make a bit of sense, back then in the mortal realm, without that old witch helping to awaken him, Omi really didn't know if there was a tomorrow.

"Omi, let's just wipe out the grudges from the past, if we stood in her shoes back then, you would definitely have taken me away instead."

"Alright, Thousand Jedi, this matter is granted."

"I'll thank you for her."

"Who else?" Omi looked at Lv Yu Xi.

Lv Yuxi whispered, "Can I recommend it too?" One second to remember to read the book

"Of course, there are still three places left, Lu Yu Xi, your parents will count them for you."

"Uh, thanks Tang Shao." Lu Yuxi gratefully knelt down.

"Alright, there's no need to be so polite, there's still one last quota to keep for now, come back later when you meet the right one."

In the blink of an eye, two months passed.

One day two months later, a red cloud suddenly floated on a certain part of the Sea of Death, and everyone was shocked when they saw this sight.

It meant that a new relic that was about to be born was at the bottom of the sea corresponding to that red cloud, and the red cloud appeared auspiciously, which seemed to be a sign that there was a heavy treasure.

This matter spread out to the entire Six Seas and Seven Seas as quickly as possible.

All of the strongmen and big men of the Seven Seas, hearing this news, immediately came here personally.

The appearance of auspiciousness indicated that the new relic that was about to be born had an exceptional treasure, what exceptional treasure, everyone doubted if there was a pseudo-immortal grade magic tool.

A pseudo-immortal-grade magic weapon, what exciting news this was, the entire spirit world would probably fight over this pseudo-immortal-grade magic weapon.

On this day, the Shura Clan's Wang Pi also summoned Omi there urgently.

Omi rushed to the Shura Hall.

"Senior Wang Pi, why are you looking for me so urgently."

"Brother Tang, for the past two months, I've been organizing the treasures left behind by my ancestors, so please forgive me for my poor hospitality."

"Senior is courteous, it's us who are intruding."

"Brother Tang, I've asked you here today to tell you something, a red cloud has appeared on the surface of the sea corresponding to the Jedi Sea Valley, this is a symbol of auspiciousness."

"Uh." Omi didn't know about this, he had been in Haiti and hadn't gone to the sea.

&n

bsp; "Senior, that means that the location of the upcoming relics is really in the Jedi Sea Valley?"

"Yes, but more than that, the appearance of red clouds is a sign of a heavy treasure, and few such signs have appeared in the past or present."

"Ah, what heavy treasure?"

"It's possible that pseudo-immortal artifacts exist."

"Ah." Omi's heart trembled, pseudo-immortal artifacts.

"Senior, that's impossible, aren't pseudo-immortal artifacts very rare? Even in the Seven Heavy Seas, not many families possess them."

"Yes, there are only five of them in the Sea of Seven Heavens, and these five pseudo-immortal weapons are called the Death Blade, Black Water Pearl, Flame Blade, Split Puppet, and Sky Eagle. Today, the family that controlled these five pseudo-immortal artifacts, they were the strongest family in the Seven Seas. Controlling the distribution of benefits throughout the spirit world, if another pseudo-immortal artifact appeared, a new power pattern was likely to emerge. Furthermore, if this pseudo-immortal artifact is acquired by a family that already possesses one, it is likely to cause extinction to the other families.”

“This is serious.”

“So, this time, I’m afraid that all the bigwigs of the Seven Seas will be on the move, especially the five super powers that already possess the pseudo-immortal artifact.”

“Uh.” Omi said in his heart, what business is it of his.

Wang Pi looked as if he was very excited and said again, “These five powers of the Seven Seas that possess pseudo-immortal artifacts, we all uniformly call them the Death God Family, the Black Water Family, the Flame Family, the Puppet Family, and the Sky Family. These five super powers of theirs are called by the names of the pseudo-immortal artifacts they possess. The family names of their five super powers were Fu, Yi, Nuo, Pu, and Yong.

“Yi?” Omi asked, “Senior, then do you know a what’s his name, the Five Thunder War God Ino?”

“Of course I know, he’s the Blackwater Family’s five times thunderstorm powerhouse, why are you suddenly asking this.”

“Oh, truth be told, a while ago, when I first arrived at the Sea of Death, I killed his own grandson, a purple-haired man, and the nephew of a purple-haired man.” Omi said.

“Ah.” Wang Pi was shocked that Omi had killed someone from a superpower with a pseudo-immortal weapon.

“Brother Tang, you’re looking for death, is there anyone else who knows about this?”

“Well, of course I did, there were nine other people at the time besides us.”

“You’re screwed, if this matter is traced, really, you’ll go to heaven and earth, there’s nowhere to escape, there’s only one death, I’m not trying to scare you, that family surnamed Yi, but it’s a superpower that possesses the pseudo-immortal weapon ‘Black Water Pearl’, do you know what a Black Water Pearl is? It was simply an unimaginable existence, and in front of the pseudo-immortal weapon, any of it was superfluous.” Wang Pi looked frightened.

Omi trailed off, “If the heavens give me another chance, I’ll still kill.”

“You, alas, as things stand now, hopefully they won’t trace it back to you who killed it. These five super powers of the Seven Seas are almost the rulers of the entire spirit world. When our Shura clan’s ancestor was still alive, the ‘Death Saber’ among the five pseudo-immortal weapons was in our ancestor’s hands, and our ancestor used the Death Saber, along with the Shura Eighteen Blades Martial Skill, to sweep through the entire Spiritual Realm.”

Omi asked, “Then why didn’t Old Ancestor Wang Shura take away the other four pseudo-immortal artifacts together back then?”

“Oh, it’s not that easy, although our ancestor’s strength surpasses the other four pseudo-immortal artifact possessors, he’s only able to defeat them, not kill them yet. In any case, whoever is able to possess a pseudo-immortal artifact can definitely become one of the big names in the spirit world.”
