That young man roared, "I'm a male from the Death God Family, you dare to try to touch me."

"Hmph, ridiculous, what time is it, and the Death God Family."

"If you dare to touch me, my family won't let you go."

Omi raged, "You just tried to kill me, do I expect your family to let me go? You're too ridiculous." Omi was really angry, just now this son of a bitch was so high and mighty that he had people kill Omi and those beauties were rewarded to a few Mahayana around him, but now he actually said it was something his family wouldn't let go.

"Hmph, you better think carefully whether you want to touch me or not, if I die, it means that the light of my life will be extinguished and my family will know about it. Also, in three months, a new relic will be born here, and then all the strongest people in my family will come, including that super strong man in my family who controls the Deathblade. Not to mention you, even your entire Shura clan will be buried with you. The Sea of Death, unable to drive a flying sword, that's just for ordinary cultivators, it's not restrictive at all for a strong half-immortal level."

"Hahaha, it seems you're really afraid of death, otherwise why would you threaten so much with me, if you're so afraid of death, then all the more reason to die."

"I definitely won't die, the prophet of my family didn't tell me that my life was in danger when I came here, definitely not."

Omi snorted, "Do you think that some trash prophet of your family can foretell me? Bah."

Saying it, Omi raised the flying sword in his hand.

Omi could freely use the flying sword while others could not, but fortunately, Omi had an Immortal Qi powered flying sword, otherwise, it probably wouldn't have been so easy to kill the Mahayana.

"Go on." That youth shouted. Remember the website .kanshu8.net

The remaining six Mahayana stages, including one of the six Mahayana stages, immediately rushed towards Omi, and now, they could only fight Omi.

Suddenly, everyone was unable to move, and the group of rushing Mahayana bodies stalled in mid-air.

"Eh?" Omi's brow furrowed, why were they frozen in mid-air.

A human figure, slowly sticking out of the sea level, was Wang Pi.

"Ah, Senior Wang Pi, this."

Wang Pi smiled, "Brother Tang, kill them, I've made them immobile, you can cut them all off with one slash, you can't leave them alive today."

"Oh."

Omi's heart was shocked, Wang Pi was so strong, he just froze those six Mahayana in mid-air.

Omi's forehead couldn't help but sweat a little, this is the strength of a strong half-immortal? If it was, Omi had thought about seizing the pseudo-immortal artifacts after the new relics were released, but now it seemed a bit ridiculous. Omi was instantly frozen in mid-air, how else could he seize it.

That youth shouted, "Senior, I'm from the Death God Family, you can't kill me."

Wang Pi grunted, "What I'm killing is precisely your Death God Family, back then, after our family's ancestor, Wang Xueluo, ascended, it was your Fu Family that snatched our Death God Sword, you say, I'll spare you? Omi, kill all."

"Yes."

Omi slashed down, and the entire sea surface rolled up like a tsunami, and everyone was reduced to pieces.

Wang Pi smiled in satisfaction.

"Brother Tang, you have played your Shura Eighteen Blades very well, but unfortunately, you are not a robbery powerhouse, otherwise, it would be more than a thousand times more powerful than you are now, or even ten thousand times more powerful." Wang

Pi said.

"Ah, Senior Wang Pi, you're exaggerating, ten thousand times?" Omi felt that the sea was like a tsunami when he slashed it now, this was powerful enough.

Wang Pi smiled, "Brother Tang, I'm not hiding anything from you, back then, when our ancestor performed the Shura Eighteen Knives, right from here, with one slash, the entire Sea of Death was split in half, you should know how long the entire Sea of Death is."

"What? The entire Sea of Death was split in half?" Omi was shocked, how long was the entire Sea of Death? This was from here all the way to the city where Omi had set out a few months ago, what kind of concept was this, if that was the case, then Omi's current power was really less than one ten thousandth of someone else's.

"Oh, Brother Tang, I have no reason to lie to you. Back then, when our ancestor was this powerful, he was just able to fight against those powerful people with pseudo-immortal weapons in the Seven Seas. So, you should be able to imagine how powerful those strong men with pseudo-immortal artifacts were. With a single punch, they can blast half the ocean's water into the sky."

"What." Omi was scared to death.

"Oh, I can also tell you that the person who blew half of the ocean's water up into the sky with one punch is the same strong man who currently possesses the Death Blade, and these people you just killed are from the Death Family, their surname is Fu."

"I'll go, then wouldn't I have offended someone so strong." Omi knew that he could really be described as an ant now compared to a strong man of this level, not to mention anything else, Omi's punch on the surface of the sea would only curl up thousands of meters of waves, not a single bit worse compared to someone half of the ocean blowing up into the sky.

Wang Pi said, "Brother Tang, three months later, if there really is a pseudo-immortal artifact that comes out, then the five strong people who currently possess pseudo-immortal artifacts, including the one I just mentioned, will definitely come down as well."

Omi smiled bitterly, "Aren't you going to be able to snatch it from them as well, senior?"

"Of course not, I don't have a pseudo-immortal weapon, I'm not an opponent, to be frank, I'm just trying to take a chance, after all, there are times when strength isn't always available. You've now practiced the Shura Eighteen Blades, and, for some reason, you seem to possess a powerful power within you, which can definitely help me out."

"Uh." Omi was shocked that Wang Pi knew that Omi possessed other powers within his body.

"Brother Tang, actually, as soon as I saw you, I knew that you possessed a power in your body that normal people don't have, I've thought about it for so many days and I've guessed some of it, but I just don't believe it a bit. In your body, do you possess immortal power? By all accounts, it's impossible, we, the strongest of us who have gone through the Tribulation, are only half-immortals and only have half-immortal power, how can you have immortal power."

Omi didn't hide it anymore and said, "I don't have any immortal power, it's just some immortal energy."

"No wonder you can cultivate so fast, Immortal Qi, what a precious resource, in the Seven Seas, there are often times some Immortal Qi leaking down through the gaps in space, for these Immortal Qi, those strong people, often fought to the death, it shows how precious Immortal Qi is. Brother Tang, it's best not to be known that you have immortal qi in your body, otherwise, you will definitely be skinned and the immortal qi in your body will be taken out, I'm not being alarmist."

"Thank you, Senior for informing me." Omi sighed, there were no more secrets in front of a strong Half Immortal.

"As long as you don't go overboard and don't draw out your immortal qi, it's hard to see that you have immortal qi in your body, I'm just guessing, so I just asked casually, I didn't expect it to be true." Wang Pi said.

Omi's heart thudded, "Wang Pi guessed it? Intentionally condescending?"

Omi couldn't help but feel more than a little wary inside.
