Chapter 1821

"How do you want revenge, Uncle V?" Omi asked.

Tang Jingtian said, "I just want that Qingjian to pay the price he deserves."

"Fifth Uncle, what kind of person is that Qingjian?"

"That Qing Jian is not much stronger than me, except that he has a group of powerful underlings, and Qing Jian brings his group of underlings with him, flaunting his power everywhere and acting as a tiger's accomplice."

"Fifth Uncle, don't worry, I'll Qing Jian will see his meat with my own eyes, cut off and eaten piece by piece for the dogs until he dies." Omi said through clenched teeth.

"Well, this is his retribution."

"Let's go, it's not too late, let's go to the Qing Clan right now and exterminate his entire clan."

Tang Jingtian said, "The Qing Clan doesn't necessarily know about this, Qing Jian shouldn't report such a small matter to the family."

"Even if they don't know, they still have to pay the price for this."

Omi headed straight for the Zhu Bai City Qing Clan.

Before leaving, Omi gave all the sixth grade spirit stones he was supposed to give to the mercenary union, which would itself give the bounty to the corresponding person or team. One second to remember to read the book

Omi headed straight for the Qing Clan.

Omi stood in mid-air, looking down on the Qing Clan.

"Fifth Uncle, I've taken over the boundary, the Qing Clan is only going in and out, with one move I can wipe out the entire Qing Clan, no one will be left alive." Omi said.

Tang Jing Tian had some sidelong shadow heart and said, "Or else, the innocents will be left alone, after all, if there is an injustice, there is a debt, I just want Qing Jian, and Qing Jian's group of men to pay the price they deserve."

"Fifth Uncle, you are just too merciful. However, it's fine to spare the innocent, but I have to make sure first that what that Qing Jian did, their family didn't know that they weren't in the same boat as Qing Jian."

"Well, that's a must."

At this moment, throughout the Qing Clan, everyone suddenly felt the air was incomparably hot and stuffy.

"Why is it so hot."

The entire Qing Clan was wrapped by Omi's boundary, no air flowed, no aura flowed in, it was as if it was sealed.

Omi descended from mid-air.

"Boom."Omi was the first to strike a palm across the air against a building on the ground.

"Wow."That building was instantly leveled to the ground, and there was a huge palm print on the ground.

There were screams from the ground, and many immortal cultivators flew out.

Only, when they felt Omi's momentum, they fell to their knees in shock.

Before Omi said a word, many Qing Clan Immortals knelt down.

Omi coldly asked, "Where is Qing Jian?"

The kneelers looked around, then one of them said, "Qing Jian has gone out on a training trip and hasn't returned for two years."

Omi said, "Qingjian's parents, grandparents, all the relatives within three generations to find them."

Several people at the scene stood up.

Omi said, "Who are Qingjian's parents?"

"Senior, I am Qing Jian's father."A middle-aged man said with trepidation.

"I'm Qingjian's mother."A well-maintained woman continued.

Omi asked, "Do you know what Qingjian has been doing out here for the past two years?"

"Ah, what's the matter, could it be that I've rammed into the senior, the younger generation has failed to teach their children, I still hope that the senior will atone for their sins."Qing Jian's parents panicked and kowtowed to beg for forgiveness.

&n

bsp; "Can one word of poor parenting cover up your sins?"

"Senior have mercy, we really don't know what Qing Jian did out there."Qing Jian's parents kowtowed and said.

It looked like they really didn't know what Qing Jian had done outside, after all, to Qing Jian, playing Tang Jingtian as a prey was nothing more than an entertainment.

Omi said, "Fine, I can give you a way to atone for your sins, immediately get Qing Jian back, then you two couples, and all three generations of Qing Jian's immediate family members, do it yourselves, cut off Qing Jian's flesh one by one and feed it to the dogs, until Qing Jian dies. In this way, I can spare your Qing Clan, otherwise, the entire Qing Clan will have no life to return." Omi said with no mercy.

Everyone kneeling on the ground was dumbfounded.

At once, one of the old women begged for mercy, "Senior spare my life, we really don't know what Qing Jian has stirred up outside."

Omi struck the old woman with a palm in the air.

"Bang." The old woman was instantly killed and her body turned into pieces.

Omi said, "Whoever dares to beg for mercy again, die."

Suddenly, no one dared to say another word.

Omi said, "Now, you immediately send someone to retrieve Qing Jian. I have wrapped your family now, you can probably sustain yourselves for a month, and after a month, all of you will physically wither and die. So, you guys have one month to go get Qingjian back. Who is the head of the family?"

"I am the head of the family." An old man was busy.

"If you want the Qing Clan to live, you'd better send someone out immediately to find it."

"Yes yes yes, we will definitely find Qing Jian back within a month." The head of the Qing Clan nodded in fear and sent out all the people of the family above the Spiritual Harmony Stage on the spot.

Omi said, "Every one of you sent out to look for Qing Jian, I have put a mark on you, if you don't come back within a month, you will definitely die with a thought from me, so don't think that you will be fine from now on while you are out looking for someone."

That group of people who were sent out to look for someone immediately turned pale, they had indeed planned to go and never return, unfortunately, how could Omi let them have their wish, those who did not return, one thought will kill you.

With that, the Qing Clan went out to look for Qing Jian.

And Omi and Tang Jingtian, returned to a nearby inn.

"Fifth Uncle, please wait patiently for another month, I'm sure they will get Qing Jian back within a month, and then, I will make him pay a heavy price and make him beg for his life."

"Well, thank you, Omi."

"Fifth Uncle, I'm sorry for making you suffer so much, but if you hadn't been soft, I would have slaughtered the entire Qing Clan to relieve the hatred in my heart."

"Forget it, after all, an injustice has been done to you."

"Fifth Uncle, it's fine now, so let me help you raise your realm up. Truth be told, I only need to spend four or five days to help you raise your realm to the Mahayana stage."

"Ah, no, the Mahayana stage, right, Omi, you are now?"

"The second stage of the Mahayana stage." Omi said truthfully.

"Ah, so powerful, that's not the entire spirit world standing at the very peak." Tang Jingtian said in shock.

"Fifth Uncle, in the First Sea, I am indeed immensely powerful, but in the Sixth Sea, I'm only average, and in the Seventh Sea, I'm not even a caterpillar."

"Oh, then Huan'er she?"

"She's fine, please don't worry, she's also at the first stage of the Mahayana stage, she's cultivating in a safe place in the Six Seas, I didn't ask her to come with me this time, I wanted her to spend more time on her cultivation."
