

King of kings

1842

After Mo Qing was shot in the throat with a sword, his entire body was nailed directly to the side of the stone pillar.

"Ah." Mo Qing struggled on the stone pillar for a while and saw that his physical body seemed to be unable to survive any longer, so Mo Qing hurried his YuanYing to get out of his body, once his body died, it would be too late for his YuanYing to get out of his body, because once his body died, his YuanYing would die immediately.

In the next blink of an eye, Mo Qing's YuanYing escaped.

However, before he could stabilize his body, Omi instantly grabbed it with his big hand.

Omi had a death grip on Mo Qing's infant with one hand and was controlling it, making it impossible for Mo Qing to self-destruct, much less escape.

"Ah." Mo Qing struggled in fear.

Omi's eyes looked at Mo Qing's infant with anger and roared, "Mo Qing, you're looking for death."

"No, don't." Mo Qing let out a frightened cry for help, he never expected that Omi would be able to break free of Sang Honghua's boundary.

"You still have the nerve to beg for mercy from me."

"Don't kill me, Omi, don't kill me." It was only at this moment, when Mo Qing felt death so close to him, that fear arose deeply within him, a desire within him not to die.

"Mo Qing, if you live, heaven forbid, you not only betrayed me, but also killed my friend Light Water, injured my brother Little Fire, and slapped my woman away, these three, whichever one, can sentence you to death." One second to remember to read the book

"No, Omi, I was wrong, I was wrong, please, for the sake of Yuyan, please forgive me, I beg you." Mo Qing pleaded.

"Hmph, I really don't know how your cheek grows."

After saying that, Omi pinched hard at Mo Qing's cry.

"Ah." Mo Qing's infant was strangled to death, then turned into air and returned to nature.

Mo Qing was dead, but Omi didn't feel any pleasure because Mo Qing had killed Light Water.

Omi looked at Light Water's corpse and felt a pain in his heart.

Omi immediately went up to Light Water and picked her up.

"I'm sorry, I'm the one who hurt you." Omi stroked Light Water's face, filled with armor, although Omi had saved Light Water from Blue Fox Lily in the first place, and helped Light Water fuse with Blue Fox Lily's soul, allowing Light Water to leap into the Mahayana stage, but now only a few years later, Light Water was killed because of Omi.

Lu Yuxi and Tang Huan and the others were also busy coming up.

It was really too dangerous just now, if Omi hadn't acted early, Tang Huan and the others, all of them would have died.

"Brother Omi, you shouldn't blame yourself." Tang Huan consoled.

"I'm the one who killed her."

"How can I blame you, just now Light Water was closest to Mo Qing, so the first one was killed by him, just now if it was someone else, it would have been someone else who died."

At that moment, Mu Qianji walked in from the doorway.

"Qianzhi, are you alright." Omi busily walked up.

Half of Mu Qianji's face was swollen, Omi immediately checked Mu Qianji's body and found that Mu Qianji was very, very badly injured.

"Qianji, how could your body be so badly injured."

"Omi, I'm afraid that my flesh body is preserved, Mo Qing's slap just now almost slapped my skull, even if I live and don't die, my flesh body will be finished." Mu Qianji looked hard to part with, this was her flesh body that was born from her mother's womb, since she was a child, she already had feelings, how could it be replaced by taking away another person's flesh body.

Omi was even harder to give up, this body of Mu Qianji, Tang

Tzu-Chen was so familiar with it, it was simply unacceptable to change over.

"No, I won't let anything happen to you."

Omi immediately immortal energy surged into Mu Qianji's body.

At the same time, Omi took out a pill, this pill was called 'Regeneration Pill', no matter how much damage was done to the flesh, even if the flesh was about to die, as long as there was still a last breath left, taking the Regeneration Pill would slowly recover. When Omi had just pierced through Mo Qing's throat with his sword, if he had taken the Regeneration Pill in time, he definitely wouldn't have died.

A few minutes later, Mo Qianji's injuries were miraculously recovered.

"Ah, that's amazing." Mu Qianji was overjoyed, being able to not have to lose his physical body was certainly better than anything, and Omi had lost some Immortal Qi to Mu Qianji, and Mu Qianji was almost recovered.

"Qianji, you're fine."

"Mm, I'm fine. Right, quickly go check on Little Fire."

Omi immediately rushed out of the main hall, where Little Fire was lying motionless on the far side outside the main hall.

"Little Fire, what's wrong with you?"

Little Fire slowly opened his eyes and smiled, "I'm glad you're okay, Minister."

"Words." Omi wanted to help Little Fire check his body, however, Omi looked at Little Fire, a fire beast's body, at a loss, Omi understood the human body, which organs of Little Fire's body Omi wasn't even sure.

Mu Qianji said anxiously, "Little Fire's body has only withered, I'm afraid the situation is not good."

"Brother Chen, I'm fine, I can't die." Dao.

"Little Fire, don't worry, I won't let you die."

Omi searched his mind for a long time, however, no pills that could cure Little Fire were found.

"Little Fire, I'm sorry, I don't have any pills that are suitable for you to take."

"Brother Chen, I'm really fine." Little Fire's voice became even weaker.

Omi said, "As things stand now, I can only fight it out." Omi didn't care so much and lost one-half of his body's immortal Qi to Little Fire.

With one-half of Omi's Immortal Qi protecting his body, Little Fire finally recovered a lot, but it would still take some time to fully recover.

"Brother Chen, what do you do with yourself if you lose your Immortal Qi to me."

"I still have half of myself left, besides, you are my brother, even if I lose all of it to you in order to save your life, so what if I lose it to you, how can I compare to you in a district, how can I compare to you, besides, I've reached the second stage of tribulation, I also belong to the half-immortal, I can already produce half-immortal Qi in my body on my own, the meaning of immortal Qi to me, gradually changing.

"Brother Chen, thank you." Little Fire looked touched, I didn't expect that Brother Minister was still so affectionate towards him.

"Alright, you're definitely fine now."

A few minutes later, Little Fire slowly stood up, while at the same time, Little Fire shook his body and transformed into his human form.

"Brother Chen, thanks to the immortal energy you gave me, not only am I now recovered, but, with your immortal energy stimulating me, I feel as if I'm not far away from being able to cross the first stage of robbery."

"Ah, that's great." Mu Qianji was delighted.

"This is all granted to me by Brother Chen."

"Alright, don't be polite, now, it's time to go in and deal with Sang Honghua."

As Omi entered the main hall, Sang Honghua was still trapped by the Heavenly Formation Scrolls.

Right now, Sang Honghua was filled with worry, ever since Mo Qing was killed, Sang Honghua seemed restless.

Finally, Omi came in to deal with him.
