Omi said, "Little Fire, I've already trained into the seventh set of the Twelve Sword Formations, how about you?"

"Brother Minister, I've already practiced my Two Flame Void Fire."

"Good, then we can leave the Sea of Death now, now, if the two of us join hands, I'm confident that we can defeat the I Clan Ancestor."

"Brother Minister, after all, that I Clan Ancestor is at the eighth stage of tribulation and has a pseudo-immortal weapon in his hand, while you, who has no pseudo-immortal weapon and is only at the fifth stage of tribulation, are you really confident?"

"It's true that I'm unsure on my own, but adding you to the mix, it may not be, with your Two Flavors of Void Fire and the seventh set of my Twelve Sword Formation, I don't believe there's not a battle to be won."

At this time, the Bimbo Behemoth in the air snorted, "Don't dream, if the other party doesn't have a pseudo-immortal weapon, you together might be able to defeat them, but the other party has a pseudo-immortal weapon, you have no chance of winning."

Omi said, "Beamon, after being silent for so long, finally speak up, how much of an interruption, thank you for your support these past few months."

"Hmph." The Bimbo Behemoth snorted softly.

Little Fire was busy saying, "Senior Bimun, do you think we still can't beat that eighth stage of Tribulation that holds a fake Immortal weapon?"

Beamon snorted, "Thinking nothing of it, what makes you think you can defeat a strong man holding a fake Immortal weapon? If pseudo-immortal artifacts are so bad, then why is the world fighting for them."

Little Flame said, "But, Brother Chen has reached the fifth stage of Tribulation, and he has twelve sword formations, and his sword formations are as powerful as the pseudo-immortal artifacts." One second to remember to read the book

"No less than a pseudo-immortal artifact doesn't mean it's stronger than a pseudo-immortal artifact. Even if the Pseudo Immortal Weapon and the Sword Formation are evenly matched, then what about the realm, the other party is at the eighth stage of Tribulation, while your master is only at the fifth stage of Tribulation, not even close."

: "There's also me, I can also join forces ah, my Two Flavors of Void Fire is by no means extraordinary."

"Void fire, it's not real fire, it's nothing." The Bimbo Behemoth snorted disdainfully.

Omi's eyebrows furrowed deeply, after engaging in this for half a day, Omi now joined hands with Little Fire, but he still couldn't beat the Yi's ancestor ah.

Did, Omi have to continue to hide in the Sea of Death?

Omi said, "So then, I'll have to continue to nest here until I reach the Eighth Stage of Tribulation to defeat that Yi's ancestor."

"Right, those strong people holding pseudo-immortal weapons, the last time they came here, they were a hundred times more powerful than you guys combined now, and you're still trying to kill a pseudo-immortal weapons-holding Eighth Stage of Tribulation, it's ridiculous."

Little Fire was busy saying, "Senior Bimbo, you're so powerful, so do you have any solutions? Can you help us out a little?"

Beamon said, "Why should I help you guys."

"Senior Bimun, we have also been cultivating here for so long, just help us, if you have difficulties in the future, we can also help you, by the way, aren't you sealed here? We can help you."

Beamon snorted, "I'm not sealed in here."

"Uh, aren't you? The legends out there say that you were once sealed here by a very powerful quasi-immortal."

"Bullshit, with a quasi-immortal being able to seal me?"

"Which you are how you're sealed here."

"I am, forget it, why should I tell you guys that I hate you." Beaumont said.

Omi found it funny and said, "Bimun, you said before that you knew someone from your previous life, I don't know about the former

People of the world, did I offend you, here, let me apologize to you."

"No need to be hypocritical."

"Whatever, right now, I need your help, so hurry up and think of a way for me to defeat that Yi's ancestor and steal his pseudo-immortal artifact. If his pseudo-immortal artifact falls into my hands, then my strength will definitely be greatly enhanced, even if I'm only at the fifth stage of robbery, then I have a sword formation and a pseudo-immortal artifact, I don't think I'll be much weaker than the other few strong people in the Seven Seas." Omi said expectantly, only if the Bimon Behemoth was willing to help Omi defeat the I Clan Ancestor and take away his pseudo-immortal artifact, otherwise it was a waste of time.

The Behemoth Beast snorted, "I won't help you."

Omi shouted, "I'll let you help, so why so much nonsense, hurry up."

"You." The Behemoth Beast seemed to look aggrieved, every time Omi got angry and spoke in a commanding tone, it was as if he couldn't resist from the bottom of his heart.

Omi shouted again, "You what you, don't think of a way to twist and turn like that, quickly."

Little Fire was frightened, the minister was too ungrateful, he wasn't afraid that the Bimbo Behemoth would get angry and kill them.

However, Little Fire also felt that the Bimbo Behemoth was a bit unpredictable, even though Omi had done this to him, he didn't even get angry enough to kill, every time he saw Omi's anger, it was as if he didn't dare to have a temper.

: "Senior Bimbo, please, will you."

For a long time, the Behemoth Behemoth said, "Alright, for your sake, I'll agree to help you. But, Little Fire, don't blame me for not reminding you, you'd better stay away from your master, he's definitely not worth following."

"Uh, you mean the minister? Brother Chen is my brother, not my master la."

The Behemoth Behemoth snorted, "Someone like him would never treat you as a brother, he would only treat you like a dog and call you around."

"Senior Bimbo, how could you say that about my big brother.

"Forget it, forget I said it. I'm now pumping a mouthful of Qi into each of you, and with you having my breath, it shouldn't be difficult to kill that eighth stage of Tribulation."

After saying that, Omi felt a strong surge of Qi into his body.

Little Fire also felt it.

Bimbo said, "This Qi of mine has already hit you, and you should have no problem finding a chance to hit each other."

Little Fire said with great joy, "Senior Bimun, thank you, if you need any help in the future, please find us."

"I, forget it, no need." The Behemoth hesitated and finally backed down, perhaps it was indeed possible for Omi to help him get out of this place, but he didn't even want it until he reached why.

Omi said, "Then let's go."

Soon, Omi and Little Fire appeared on the surface of the Sea of Death.

Little Fire saw the sun again and laughed with excitement, "Brother Chen, I didn't expect that we would be blessed by misfortune, not only did we rise two levels in a row, we also got a bite from the Behemoth Beast, now, we should have no problem killing the Y's ancestor."

Omi's mood was also doubly good, it was truly a mountain without a road, a willow without a village.

Omi said, "Old Ancestor of the Yi Clan, this time I'm going to let his head fall to the ground, and then take away his pseudo-immortal weapon, the Black Water Pearl. In this way, I, Omi, will be able to possess one of the five pseudo-immortal artifacts of the Seven Seas, hahaha, hahaha." Omi let out a wild laugh.
