

King of kings

1913

Everyone on the ground trembled violently when they heard the words of No Elephant Nose.

Could it be that the Tang Ji Gate was about to perish so soon?

Omi smirked, "Let my Tang Chi Gate perish?Are you sure?"

Pusara said, "Omi, right now our four ancestors who possess pseudo-immortal weapons are standing here, do you think it's not easy to exterminate your Tang Ji Gate?If you, Omi, do not know your place today, there will only be death."

"Hahaha, hahaha, a good death.Just as well, since you all want to exterminate my Tang Chi Gate, then I, Tang Chi Gate, cannot do nothing.The world is fair, and if you want to exterminate me, then don't blame me for exterminating you as well."

"You're still hard-headed to the point of death, Omi, I now advise you, immediately, immediately, hand over what you found in your former well."

Yong Xiong said, "Fellow ancestors, I can guarantee with my personality that Omi must have found something in the former well, otherwise the former well won't fail for no reason."

Fu Wu Ruthless said, "No need to vouch for it, my men have already investigated, Omi stayed at an inn next to the Past Life Well.One of the inn's boys saw him studying an ancient-looking mirror while delivering tea, and if I'm not mistaken, that mirror is the one Omi found at the former well."

Nuo Elephant Nose said in a commanding tone, "Omi, bring out that mirror."

"Hahaha, No Elephant Nose, what if I don't take it out?"

"Looking for death." Remember the URL .kanshu8.net

After saying that, Nuo Elephant Nose was the first to charge up towards Omi.

Nuo Elephant Nose's Flame Blade slashed hard towards Omi.

Omi immediately enlarged the Black Water Pearl to intercept the flame blade's strike, otherwise, half of the entire First Division of the Tang Extreme Gate would have died, and this place would be filled with people from the Tang Extreme Gate.

"Boom."The Flame Blade was intercepted by Omi's Black Water Bead, not cutting into the ground.

At the same time, Omi aimed at No Elephant Nose and struck out in one breath.

"Boom."A blow was bound to hit, after all, Omi wasn't weak now.

"Ah." Nuo Elephant Nose let out a scream, and the moment it was hit, Nuo Elephant Nose felt the entire sky turn grey.

"Bang." Before Nuo Elephant Nose could support for a second, his body cracked open, unable to withstand the power of Omi's breath.

Nuo Elephant Nose panicked as his infant took off his body.

And Omi, for the first time, took away his Flame Blade, erasing the spirit mark on it.

"What." The other three ancestors, Pusarro, Yong Xiong, and Fu Wu Ruthless, were all dumbfounded.

As the strongest No Elephant Nose, they were actually beaten by Omi in a single glance to destroy their flesh, and the pseudo-immortal weapon was taken away.

"This, this, this." The three ancestors 'this' for half a day and did not utter a single word out, apparently deadly unaware that Omi was so powerful to this extent.

After Omi took away Nuo Elephant Nose's Flame Blade, Nuo Elephant Nose's infant also came back to his senses.

Omi snorted, "Nuo Elephant Nose, I heard that you're the strongest in the Extreme South Continent, but I don't think you're anything more than that. You even threatened to exterminate my Tang Extreme Gate, it's ridiculous, now that you're all in trouble yourself, no, you're about to perish yourself, I'm going to kill and decapitate all of you, the Nuo Clan."

"No." Nuo Elephant Nose's infant was frightened and panicked, kneeling down.

Nuo Elephant Nose also knew the time, he was now not to mention his physical body was destroyed, he didn't even have a pseudo-immortal weapon, he instantly became a worm in front of Omi.

"Omi, spare my life, I was wrong, please don't kill me." Nuo Elephant Nose pleaded.

Omi snorted, "Begging for mercy, don't you think it's a bit late, who just dragged like a two hundred and fifty, wanting me to Hand over any treasures."

"Oooh, Senior Tang, please, I was wrong, don't kill me, I don't want to die ah."

"Hahaha. Nuo Elephant Nose, not only you, your whole clan is going to be finished, I didn't want to make a move against you clans, we all coexist peacefully in the Extreme South Continent, but you guys damn well want to force me, in that case, I have no choice but to unify the Extreme South Continent." Omi said.

"Oooh, God, why did you do that, I'm so sorry, oooh." Nuo Elephant Nose hissed and cried.

Standing beside him, Pusarro, Yong Xiong, and Fu Ruthless, the three of them were all dumbfounded, the once so cool and powerful number one was crying like nothing right now.

Omi looked at the other three ancestors and said, "You three, all of you have to die."

"Omi, don't be so overbearing."

“Go to hell you guys.”

After saying that, Omi let out ten breaths of air.

“Boom boom.”

“Ahhhh.”

When the ten breaths were issued, the first thing that the three people thought of was to run away rather than hide, so the end was all but predictable. If they tried their best to hide, they might still be able to survive, but fleeing might not be able to escape from Bimbo’s ten breaths of air.

The three old men’s bodies exploded.

The three old ancestors were just like Nuo Elephant Nose, and their infant bodies came out.

Omi immediately rushed up and took away the three of them’s pseudo-immortal weapons, split puppets, death knives, and sky eagles, as well as their storage rings. The destruction of their flesh was the same as losing everything, as they were unable to collect their storage rings and the like, their YuanYing was, to put it bluntly, a mouthful of ethereal gas, unable to control substantial objects.

Omi laughed out loud.

By himself, he possessed five pseudo-immortal artifacts now.

If it had been once, Omi would never have thought to death that one day in the future he alone would take away all the pseudo-immortal artifacts, pseudo-immortal artifacts were so cherished and powerful in the eyes of once Omi.

Omi looked at the four infants in midair and said, “Your pseudo-immortal artifacts are all mine, your families, disappear from the Seven Seas from now on.”

“Omi, I beg you, give us a chance to live.” Yong Xiong said with a bitter infant face.

Omi looked at Yongxiong with a snort, “Now you regret it, I warned you yesterday as if I had never seen you before, but you didn’t listen.”

“Oooh, I’m so sorry.” Yong Xiong cried out, the thought that Omi would definitely kill him made him regret his intestines, he really didn’t want to die ah.

Omi said, “Unfortunately, there is no regret in the world, you four, who will die first?”

“Oooh.” In the sky, the four infants cried out.

They didn’t escape either, because they knew very well that with Omi’s strength, they wouldn’t be able to escape no matter what.

At this moment, throughout the Imperial City, countless people looked up at the sky.

Every single person was incomparably shocked, and of course, incomparably adoring.

At the entrance of one of the main halls of the imperial palace, the eyes of those ten young geniuses were filled with worship.

Inside Wang Xuewei's heart right now, she was very excited, to be able to become the disciple of such a powerful man, she didn't know what blessings she had cultivated in her past life.

"Senior Tang, please, will you."

In the sky, the four infants cried out and kneeled to beg for mercy, pleading with Omi to spare their lives.

The four old ghosts begged for mercy like this, making Omi a bit depressed, to kill or not, of course, even if they didn't, they didn't have the strength to bounce around, in Omi's weak as a worm.
