"Master, I'm afraid that my family is no longer part of my family now."

Omi asked, "Where has your family retreated to now?"

"At Kuzi Lake."

"There's a lake here, it can't be that this is Kuzi Lake."

"Well, this is Guzi Lake, I want to check on my family first."

Just at this moment, an old man flew in front of us, that old man was only at the ninth stage of the Divide.

"Pay your respects to the Gate Master." That old man paid his respects to Omi.

"No need to be polite, who are you?"

Wang Xue Wei was busy, "Master, he's my grandfather and the strongest person in my family."

"Oh."

Wang Xue Wei's grandfather was very shocked to see the door master personally accompanying her back, reasonably speaking, can't ah, after all, it's just a disciple, not to personally accompany her back to the place. Don't blame Wang Xuewei's grandfather for thinking otherwise, normal people would think this way. Remember the URL . kanshu8 . net

Omi said, "How is your family now?"

Wang Dingbang's eyes were resentful, "Back to the Gate Master, my family died a lot, and that Pu Clan, when they came to our place, they killed them with one word. If we hadn't retreated quickly at that time, I'm afraid we would have all exterminated our clan."

Wang Xuewei was busy saying, "Grandpa, if they want this place, why don't you give it to them."

"Xuewei, do you think I would dare to fight with them for it? All they have to do is say a word to roll and we'll immediately take our people away and let them have this place. The key is that they don't even say a word to roll, they just kill when they get here."

Omi raged, "They're too much, even I gave them at least a month to evacuate, but they're good, they just killed straight away when they grabbed the place, without even a word to roll, let alone giving you time to retreat."

Omi's heart was cold, he was merciful to others, but others would not be merciful.

Omi had really been too merciful before.

"Where are they now?" Don Zimmer asked.

"It's right here all the way forward. Not only our Wang family, but also the dozen or so families around us, they killed most of them, and they, the Pu Clan, have divided a large area of land around this area into their own territory."

Omi snorted, "One thing they do know is that they don't dare to go to the nine branches of the Tang Chi Gate and come here to grab the territory."

"With the Gate Master here, how would they dare to grab Tang Ji Gate's territory, they're afraid they wouldn't even dare to go there."

Omi said, "What if one day I'm not here anymore, they won't turn against me. Go, take me there."

"Yes."

Omi soon arrived at the previous Wang Clan's headquarters, which had now turned into the Pu Clan's headquarters, and when Omi arrived, the Pu Clan was in the middle of a massive construction project.

Omi shouted, "All the half-immortals of the Pu Clan, come out here for a moment."

"Ah."

In the next second, more than a hundred Half Immortals rushed out, but of course, there were a few who were timid and cautious, sneaking away just in case.

"Tang Gate Master, you've already driven us to the Six Seas, what more do you want, we've arrived at the Six Seas, and we didn't touch Tang Ji Gate's territory, we just came to this remote place, could it be that Omi really wants to drive us to extinction." The patriarch of the Pu Clan still looked aggrieved.

Omi snorted, "If I wanted to drive you to extinction, I wouldn't give you the

We have one month to retreat."

"Then what is the purpose of Master Tang's visit today?"

Omi snorted, "Why? Good question, I, Omi, was merciful, not only did I not exterminate you, but I also gave you enough time to retreat, but you, the moment you arrived here, you were like bandits, without any consideration for the people who originally lived here. You have no regard for the people who lived here before, and as soon as you spotted this place, you went ahead and killed them. And also let them get lost without even saying anything, don't you think, you have gone too far, you don't think, if I did the same, then your family would have already perished in the Seven Seas."

The patriarch of the Pu Clan was busy saying, "Master Tang, you wouldn't want to be so lenient, we were originally a high and mighty family in the Seven Seas, and now we've been driven to a remote corner of the Six Seas, what else do you want. The sky is watching, is it really appropriate for you to drive them to extinction like this? Our family is already so miserable, but you still want to come and even meddle in such a small matter."

Omi was furious that they hadn't even woken up in the slightest. This could only mean that in their eyes, there was no mercy at all and they did not even think that killing the people who originally lived here was a big deal.

Omi said, "It's really none of my business if you kill the people here, but the family of one of my own disciples is here and you killed most of their clan."

"Ah, this." The Pu Clan Chief's face went white.

Omi said, "Don't blame me for not giving you face, today, all of you will die."

After saying that, Omi instantly made a move.

"Boom." After one move, the hundreds of Half Immortals, all of them died, and with Omi's power, they didn't even have a chance to get out of their infant bodies.

"Ah." On the ground, many people from the Pu Clan, shrieks occurred.

Omi didn't have any good feelings towards the Pu Clan, and since they were all so sneering and believed that the weak didn't deserve to survive, then don't blame Omi for doing the same.

Omi didn't do one thing or the other, from high in the air, a black water droplet of power struck down.

"Boom." The ground in a radius of tens of thousands of miles cracked open, and this kind of power that was enough to break the flow of the sea was absolutely extraordinary.

Omi didn't know how many Pu's died when his power went down, but most of them were definitely dead or injured.

"Phew, evened out." Omi said, and Omi didn't overdo it, even though there was still a large half of the Pu Clan left, Omi didn't drive them all to extinction.

This is what is called not driving them all out, before Omi didn't kill any of them and let them down, it's not called driving them all out at all, because Omi didn't kill them at all.

Wang Xuewei's grandfather and grandson were very grateful, and at the moment they were watching from afar.

Wang Xuewei's grandfather was busy saying, "Xuewei, what's going on, the Gate Master seems to be, like, a bit too much for you ah, you're just his successor, he doesn't need to personally accompany you back, and also, he's killed so many enemies for our family ah."

"Grandpa, I don't know what the Gate Master he, what does he mean." Wang Xue Wei lowered her head and said with a bit of a blush.

Inside Wang Xuewei couldn't help but ask herself, "Could it be that the Gate Master really has a special meaning for me?"

Actually, their grandparents were really narcissistic.

Omi was merely thinking of some future crises that would bring disaster to Tang Ji Gate in the future if they didn't exterminate those five family halves and some of their clansmen a little bit completely. Being merciful to the enemy now would be cruel to Tang Ji Gate in the future, and the way the Pu Clan came to the Six Seas made Omi feel that they had no gratitude at all, don't think that they would be merciful to Tang Ji Gate in the future. This was the reason why Omi accompanied Wang Xuewei back.
