

King of kings

Chapter 1951

"Little Fire, why are you following his nonsense too."

"I think that Chen has a point, those people think that the humans of the Extreme South Continent are low level creatures and don't care to be with you, I think it's necessary to give them a little bit of color."

Mu Qianji said, "That will let them know our strength ah, why do we have to do that, make the hall stink."

Omi said, "Qianji, we can't do it here, besides, it's not too late to do it later on."

"Speechless to you guys, I'm not going to go out in the hall anyway." Mu Qianji shook his head helplessly and entered the boundaries in the room.

This matter, which quickly spread out, was reduced to a laughingstock in the city of the Half Immortal Clan.

Right now, at the heart of the Half Immortal Clan.

"Princess." A personal maid with a smile walked to the side of a noble, beautiful, and touching lady.

"Gan Hua, what's up and sneer."

"Princess, I just heard something outside, this time your sword trial competition, we announced that all races could come and participate. As a result, even the humans from the Extreme South Continent came."

"What? All the humans from the Extreme South Continent came?" The princess was startled, which was never expected. The first website m . kanshu8.net

"Yes, when we first released this information, we said that all races could come, we didn't include the humans of the Extreme South Continent at all, after all, the humans of the Extreme South Continent, so lowly, are not worthy of coming to our Half Immortal Clan."

The princess of the Half Immortal Clan said, "Indeed, even I didn't think of that, but it was our mistake, it was our habit of ignoring the lowly creatures of the Extreme South Continent, so when we released the information, we didn't give a special account of it, except for the Extreme South Continent. However, no matter what, the humans of the Extreme South Continent are always considered a race, and they didn't come to intentionally offend."

"Yes, so our people allowed them to participate without driving them away, allowing them to enjoy the same treatment as the other races, showing that we Half Immortals are treating them equally."

"Well, that's well done, we Half Immortal Clan can't bully the little ones with the big ones, since it's our fault we have to take the blame."

“But, Princess, you know what? Right now, several other sacred beast races are making a scene, desperately appealing to us to move the humans of the Extreme South Continent to other places.”

“Why?”

“Hahaha, I heard that the humans of the Extreme South Continent, they are still uncivilized and as civilized as beasts, they urinate and defecate everywhere, not only urinating in the common hall but also defecating in the hall.”

“What? They really are low level creatures.” The princess of the Half Immortal Clan sighed.

“By the way, the humans from the Extreme South Continent, who are they coming to participate in my Sword Trials Competition and who do they want to participate in?”

“It’s a man named Omi, I heard that he’s the most outstanding human genius in the entire Extreme South Continent.”

“The most outstanding human genius is just a king among ants, and no matter how most outstanding, he’s still just a mole.” The half-immortal princess’s face was deeply disdainful.

The personal maid beside her said, “That Omi is the most outstanding among a group of ants in their Extreme South Continent, he may have a high status among a group of ants, but here in our Half Immortal Clan, he’s still an insect. If we hadn’t made a mistake this time and let them exploit the gap, how would that human Gryphon have a chance to fight you, Princess, this is that Tang Tzu-Chen doesn’t know how many lifetimes of blessings he has cultivated.”

“Alright, don’t be long-winded here, in a few days, my sword trial competition will begin, so why don’t you hurry up and get ready.”

“Yes, Princess.”

After the maid left, the Half Immortal Clan’s princess walked over to the mirror and looked at herself in the mirror, beautiful as a celestial and with a perfect to flawless figure.

The Half Immortal Clan princess smiled slightly, her beauty, her body, even she would fall in love with herself when she looked at it.

It wasn’t that she was really that narcissistic, but she was really that beautiful, and since she was a child, she had been appreciated for her beauty, which made her not to pay attention to her appearance, but she was really beautiful, after all, she was evaluated by the Half Immortal Clan as, the first beautiful woman in the history of the Half Immortal Clan.

The ancestor of the Half Immortal Clan told her that in the future, when she ascended to the Immortal World, she would have an excellent future in the Immortal World with this beauty of hers. And, let her be sure to maintain her purity.

This princess of the Half Immortal Clan herself felt that only the powerful Immortals of the Immortal Realm were worthy of her, and all the mortals here were unworthy.

And so, in the blink of an eye, three days passed.

At the place where the Tang’s courtiers lived.

A person came, and as soon as that person entered the hall, he immediately covered his nose and ran out of the hall in a panic.

"Damn, so what was rumored outside, that those low-level creatures in the Extreme South Continent were actually true." That strong man ran outside the hall and shouted, "Everyone, come out."

Soon, all the races ran out, and each of them came out with their noses covered.

Omi said, "Everyone, get ready, it's almost time, someone is shouting outside, let's go out."

"The Half Immortal Clan's Sword Trials are finally starting, it's really suffocating me." Tang Huan said.

Mu Qianji said, "What if we have to go through the hall when we go out later?"

Omi said, "What happened before is over, the next step will be the time for us humans of the Extreme South Continent to change our status, let's go."

Omi and the others also swiftly walked out of the hall and gathered with the other races at the entrance of the hall.

After walking out of the hall, a strong Half Immortal Clan of the ninth stage of Tribulation stood at the front and swept a glance at the crowd, finally settling his gaze on Omi and the others, that strong man said, "You low-level creatures of the Extreme South Continent actually urinated and defecated everywhere, it was a mistake to let you come to our Half Immortal Clan to participate in the princess's sword trial competition this time."

Omi said, "Senior, you misunderstood, in fact, although we humans of the Extreme South Continent are not as powerful as your Half Immortal Clan, but we are by no means the kind of race that urinates and defecates everywhere, we are not so lowly as that."

Hearing Omi say this, a man from the Hiei Clan roared, "Not this kind of low-level creature? And what's that stench emanating from the hall now?"

Omi smiled heedlessly and said, "This is on purpose, because you so-called holy beast races always look at us with a level higher gaze, so I deliberately disgusted you with the stench in the hall."

When those races heard Omi say that, they became angry and wanted to beat Omi violently.

The strong man of the Half Immortal Race said, "Alright, quiet. That, from the Extreme South Continent, I don't care if you're such low-level creatures, but I advise you not to urinate or defecate anywhere next, especially after entering the Half Immortal Clan's palace."
