"Yun Luo City, I've changed my identity and I'm back." Omi smiled bitterly.

Omi was quite wandering inside, he didn't know whether to live with his new identity and have no connection with his previous life, or, continue to be involved with his past.

For example, it was better for Omi to forget the enemy from his previous life, or to seek revenge on him. If he forgot, there was much reluctance inside, if he sought revenge on him, but, after all, it was a past life, and it was a bit bullshit to seek revenge from a past life.

"What are you struggling with?" Mu Qianji seemed to see Omi's struggle and asked in a thin voice.

"You understand." Omi said.

Mu Qianji said, "Either a former enemy or a former lover, which one?"

"Still you know me, I had no lover in my previous life, only a crush. And enemies, I don't know how many there were in my previous life, scene I'm here again, I don't know how to choose for the future at the moment."

"How else can I choose, let nature take its course."

"It seems it can only be like this, then let's go, enter the Yunluo Immortal Kingdom Imperial Capital and then find a place to settle down, maybe I'll live here for a long time from now on." Omi said.

Omi turned back to Bimun and said, "Amon, you don't have to follow me, you can go back to your home." Bimun's tribe wasn't in the imperial capital of the Yunluo Immortal Kingdom, but in a borderland.

"Brother Chen, in that case, I'll go home first." Remember the URL . kanshu8 . net

"Well, if you have any difficulties in the future, feel free to come to me." Omi said.

"Thank you, Brother Chen." Beamon felt that the Zhou Mi in this life had changed too much, if he had how to be considerate of others in his previous life, why would he have ended up in such a bad situation. However, if Omi hadn't died in his previous life, he would probably be at the pre-human immortal stage now, only reaching halfway. But now that Omi had died and been reborn, instead, he would be even stronger in the future.

Omi entered the imperial capital of Yunluo Immortal Kingdom, the streets of the imperial capital were very familiar.

"Brother Chen, where are we going to settle down?"

Omi said, "Find any inn to stay at first, then I'll try to find a residence. After that, settle down and try to cultivate, or, try to live, after all, it's really not that easy to upgrade in the Immortal Realm."

Omi directly entered an inn, which Omi had often visited in his previous life.

"A few guests, stay or eat ah."

"Staying in a shop plus eating."

"Sorry, guest, there's no room for food anymore, but it's okay if you stay in a shop."

"Why is there no place for dinner?"

"Prince Zhennan has already booked the entire inn."

"The Prince of Zhennan?" Omi's heart was startled, this person, Omi knew, was Omi's sworn enemy in his previous life, his father, and Omi's father in his previous life in the Yunluo Immortal Kingdom, were both first class ministers, and belonged to opposing sides in the court. The difference was that Omi's father, in his previous life, had a trash son, while the King of Zhennan had a genius son. The one who had booked the entire meal at the inn today was the Prince of Zhennan.

Just at this moment, a shout came from outside, "Prince Zhennan has arrived."

A few seconds later, a gorgeously dressed youth, surrounded by a crowd of people, entered the inn.

This gorgeously dressed youth was the Prince of Zhennan.

Omi remembered that in his previous life, the Prince of Zhennan had beaten Omi in front of his father.

Omi still remembered that scene.

In his previous life, which was more than fifty years ago, at a palace feast, Prince Zhennan, who was a first-rate minister, and Lin Tie, who was a first-rate minister, were both invited, Prince Zhennan

Both Lin Tiedu and Lin Tiedu brought their respective family members into the Immortal Court to attend the feast. At the feast, Prince Zhennan deliberately asked Omi to spar with him in front of all the ministers, when Omi and Prince Zhennan were about the same age and both were in the pre-human immortal stage. Omi could not refuse, so Omi was beaten up by the Prince of Zhennan in full view of everyone.

Omi was very angry inside, because at that feast, the most beautiful princess of Yunluo Immortal Kingdom was also there, although Omi knew that he was not worthy, but his heart also secretly in love, in front of his crush, to be beaten severely, it is really too humiliating.

Later, in his previous life, Omi realized that that Zhennan prince also had a crush on that princess.

At that time, Omi and his former father were both ridiculed by all the civil and military immortal officials of the court, and when Omi was severely beaten by the Prince of Zhennan, the king did not say to stop, while Omi's former father did not dare to go beyond the rules and shouted to stop, the king also deliberately wanted Omi to be beaten, after all, Omi's image at that time was very bad.

In short, Omi hated the Prince of Zhenan very much.

Right now, the Prince of Zhennan who was so hated by Omi in his previous life was standing in front of Omi.

Omi never expected that the first thing he would see when he returned to the city where he lived in his previous life would be one of his enemies from his previous life.

It had been more than fifty years since the Immortal World, and the Prince of Zhennan hadn't changed in the slightest, as if it were yesterday, and the Prince of Zhennan's realm was still in the pre-Human Immortal stage, but it was halfway there, while Omi was currently in the pre-Human Immortal starting stage.

That Prince of Zhennan swept a glance at Omi and the others, then asked the innkeeper, "What's going on? I've booked the inn today, why is there still a mess here?"

"Ah, this." The innkeeper looked depressed and frantically gave Omi and the others a wink, but Omi pretended not to know. The innkeeper then had no choice but to say, "This guest, this place has been booked by the Prince of Zhennan today, so please leave."

Omi grunted, "Chartering the venue, I am Prince Zhennan."

"Ah." The innkeeper was stunned there on the spot, not knowing where the stunned young man had come from, he actually insulted Prince Zhennan on the spot, Prince Zhennan's father was a first-class minister of the Yunluo Immortal Kingdom ah.

That Zhennan prince was also dumbfounded.

"Who are you, how dare you insult me, and my father, you are looking for death." The Prince of Zhennan yelled.

Omi snorted, "It doesn't matter who I am, what matters is that I want to beat you up."

"Seeking death." The Prince of Zhennan immediately rushed up to attack Omi.

Omi knew that Prince Zhennan had a family spell, what was its name forgotten.

Omi toned down the Silence Technique and then struck out with his palm.

"Wow." After what seemed like a deathly breath, one of Prince Zhennan's arms turned into a skeleton.

"Ah, how did this happen." The Prince of Zhennan was stunned.

Omi didn't think that the Prince of Zhennan was stronger and couldn't turn him into a skeleton at once.

Omi was afraid that his Silence Technique would attract attention and immediately said, "Let's go."

Omi quickly left and disappeared into the street.

"Omi, why did you go against that Prince of Zhennan ah, and you actually used your Silence Art, didn't you say that this Silence Art can't be used indiscriminately?" Mu Qianji asked.

Omi said depressingly, "I also didn't hold back, this Prince of Zhennan was someone I really wanted to beat up in his previous life, so I just didn't hold back. Let's leave here first and go stay at another inn."

"Brother Chen, why don't you go back to your former home and forget about it, your former home, you shouldn't be afraid of Prince Zhennan, right."
